

ONE-CLICK RECOVERY SINCE I WAS A SPECIAL SOLDIER

Chapter 13: Recycle the jeep!

"Huh? Is the task completed like this?"

Qin Yuan was slightly surprised.

He thought that to complete this task, it would take a period of training to complete it!

"Qin Yuan?"

Fan Tianlei was surprised when he saw Qin Yuan!

is overjoyed!

Fan Tianlei walked up to Qin Yuan excitedly, looked up and down, with a face of disbelief: "Qin Yuan, you...haha! Good! Good! You are really trustworthy! My old Fan didn't see the wrong person!"

Qin Yuan couldn't help but his eyes were weird, and he curled his lips.

What does Fan Tianlei mean?

Did he think he ran away with his money?

Originally...

Qin Yuan also intends to give Fan Tianlei some interest!

after all.

Qin Yuan doesn't like taking advantage of others!

But now...

Hmph!

"Qin Yuan, from today, you will be a real soldier!" Fan Tianlei looked at Qin Yuan with burning eyes.

can meet recruits like Qin Yuan!

definitely belongs to the Living Years series!

Fan Tianlei is confident!

In time!

If there are no accidents!

Qin Yuan can definitely become a Qin in the military!

A strong leader of the future army!

"But, the high-rise building is on the ground! Qin Yuan, as a recruit, you almost don't understand some of the general etiquette and knowledge of the army, so... I need to temporarily arrange for the troops below you to temper, for a period of time, 1 Yue, what do you think?"

Fan Tianlei looked at Qin Yuan and smiled straight to the point!

Qin Yuan is indeed excellent!

But there are more outstanding people in the army!

To say that the world has the most elites from all walks of life!

I absolutely want to use the army!

Especially special forces!

The rule of jungle elimination of the survival of the fittest in the army makes it possible to stay with the kings once!

and so.....

Except for a poker killer stunt, in Fan Tianlei's eyes, Qin Yuan is not that outstanding.

is just a lot more prominent than the average rookie, not enough to allow Fan Tianlei to keep him in the special forces!

Lei Zhan was surprised when he heard this. He raised his eyebrows, and said displeasure: "Chief of Staff, there is no need to be so polite to a recruit, right? As a soldier, obeying orders is a bounden duty! New recruits, what are new recruits? New recruits are just soldiers. If you enter the army and don't know anything about army culture, if you don't even know some army common sense and army etiquette, how can you be a soldier?"

Fan Tianlei said today...

Uncharacteristically!

is not like a superior chief of staff at all!

is like an elder who dotes on his children and grandchildren.

I did not expect an order!

is so euphemistic by him.

This makes Lei Zhan very upset!

Because he doesn't have this treatment himself.

"Thor, you can't say that. According to what you said, those heroic souls who went to the battlefield without formal training without formal training were not soldiers?" Fan Tianlei immediately reprimanded him. .

Lei Zhan was shocked upon hearing this.

He never expected it!

Fan Tianlei was furious at him because of a recruit?

Fan Tianlei said...

is too serious, right?

What is the origin of this recruit?

actually let Fan Tianlei defend him like this?

Lei Zhan raised his eyebrows, shouting surprise.

"What the Chief of Staff taught was that I was wrong and I apologized for my words and deeds." Lei Zhan could only rush to admit his mistake.

no way!

made him realize...

My own words are indeed a little abrupt.

"Well, it's not early, Xiao Tang, Thor, you should go back first, this time I will personally take Qin Yuan to familiarize himself with the environment, have a meal by the way, and send him to the new army before dark."

Seeing Lei Shen lowered his head to admit his mistake, Fan Tianlei couldn't help but smile, waved his hand generously, and ordered the two to leave.

"Yes, the chief of staff!"

Thor, Tang Xinyi nodded respectfully.

The two left after waiting.

Fan Tianlei smiled with joy, "Qin Yuan, I've been busy for a long time, I must be hungry? Let's go, Uncle Fan will take you to experience the army's diet!"

"Okay!" Qin Yuan also smiled lightly, and followed Fan Tianlei out.

As for Thor's words?

Qin Yuan didn't even think about it.

has experienced the baptism of the casino, and now Qin Yuan, although still looks a little immature, but in his bones, he has already stood in the universe of this world!

The universe of the gambling world!

"Qin Yuan, my legs are a bit inconvenient today, will you drive?"

Fan Tianlei smiled and went out with Qin Yuan and came to the jeep in front of the office.

As the chief of staff, Fan Tianlei has his own special car!

Qin Yuan was taken aback when he heard the words, "Excuse me, Chief of Staff, I haven't got my driver's license yet, so I can't drive temporarily."

The simplest question...

is embarrassing him!

Generally speaking.

The summer vacation for high school graduation is a good time to take a driver's license. There are many discounts for group registration.

But before Qin Yuan, tuition was a problem, let alone the cost of driving license.

"Huh? That's it?" Fan Tianlei was also stunned.

His right leg...

was shot that year.

Nowadays, after more than ten years of practice, he can walk perfectly with prosthetic limbs, and there is almost no disability.

But occasionally, I still suffer from pain.

Just this afternoon, he felt very uncomfortable in his legs.

But with tenacious perseverance.

He still clenched his teeth, trying not to let people see anything. UU

But driving is a big deal.

In case the leg pain worsens during driving, he stepped on the wrong accelerator, I am afraid the car will be destroyed.

"By the way, the chief of staff, although I don't have a driver's license, it's okay to simply drive. Why don't I drive slower?"

Seeing this, Qin Yuan suggested.
after all.

He also wants to enter early and feel the life of the army!

He doesn't want to stay here and waste time!

Actually.

Qin Yuan has another choice!

That is.....

Put the car back into the system backpack with one click!

After these few attempts!

Qin Yuan rewards for system choice!

also has a certain experience!

Recycling backpacks, almost all of them can get skill rewards related to item attributes!

Face driving skills!

Qin Yuan's heart is itchy!

He really can't drive!

But as a man!

How can car skills not work?

Especially today, I was sitting in Tang Xinyi's car, whose driving skills are so cool!

Qin Yuan is envious!

He also wants to have extraordinary car skills!

"Okay, let you try it!" Fan Tianlei smiled, he touched his pocket, "I'll go back and get my phone, you can wait a moment." Fan Tianlei turned and entered the office.

"Oh? This is an opportunity." Qin Yuan's eyes lit up when he saw this!

Just do it!

Anyway, he still has two squares!

No need for nothing, no need!

My heart moved!

Qin Yuan directly put the huge jeep back into the system grid with one click!
