

Special Soldier 2061

Chapter 2061: In this place, you will be imprisoned

Qin Yuan stared at Xiaolan looking up and down in disbelief.

"Don't think you can deceive me without speaking.

I'm not a fool, although I don't know much about the beauty, skin care, and maintenance of you girls.

However, you look like you are in your early twenties, and you say you are thirty-five.

It's impossible for me to believe it. Don't let me try to lie to you. I am a special forces soldier and my eyesight is like an eagle. "

"Qin Yuan, I can see that you are a special soldier. Whether it is reaction ability, emotional intelligence, or worldly sophistication, you are very good. I admire you very much."

"Thank you. I appreciate the compliment."

Synthetic Light stared at the Xiaolan in front of him. He always felt that this person looked familiar. Perhaps, he had met him before, and there might be a new story to tell.

Xiaolan covered her mouth and smiled.

He had the feeling that his conspiracy had succeeded, but it was full of a girl's sense of playfulness, not the kind of deceiving others.

"Qin Yuan, you believe what women say too easily. What I told you is either lying to you or just testing. Don't think too much."

"Let me just say, you can't be thirty-five. This is just a joke."

"I am indeed joking with you, because you are too nervous to stay here. It's time for you to relax."

"Relax?"

"I don't want to relax, I just want to have a good rest now. "

"Do you mean to drive me away?"

"Why don't we just wait here for a while? He hasn't come back yet. "

"Then I'll go out and take a look."

After Chen Jixiang said this, he stood up and prepared to leave. Xiaolan and Qin Yuan sat on the chairs.

Xiaolan, wearing a pair of silver high heels, sat on a chair and swayed her legs back and forth, as if she was very leisurely. This was also a way to relieve tension.

Seeing Chen Jixiang stand up, Xiaolan immediately stretched out her legs and stopped Chen Jixiang.

He almost tripped it when he was caught off guard.

"What are you doing? It's so rude to scare me."

Xiaolan lived up to her reputation. He had a faint orchid fragrance on his body and his slender white thighs blocked Chen Jixiang's path, but people couldn't be angry at all.

Looking at this pair of beautiful legs and just admiring the beautiful figure, who can be angry?

"I'm afraid, just about anyone on the street would like to be tripped by these beautiful legs."

"I think you should stay here honestly. Sofia doesn't like to eavesdrop on other people's conversations. He has been following Norman Karim for a long time, and his temper has become more and more similar to his."

An Ran is his good sister. The two girls had whispered some words before.

You don't want to get involved, just stay here and wait.

The temperature outside has slowly dropped, and the two of them can't walk far. If you are sleepy, I will find a room for you to rest first. "

Although Chen Jixiang was also fascinated by this pair of beautiful legs.

However, despite his young age, he has always scorned beauty traps.

Chen Jixiang's face turned red and he quickly backed away. He took a few steps and sat obediently on the chair with his head lowered.

"Look at you, why are you so embarrassed? Isn't it normal for you to blush when you see a beautiful woman? Come here and let me take a look."

Xiaolan, this woman looks as pale as a chrysanthemum, why does she still like to tease little boys?

Qin Yuan couldn't help but cover his mouth and chuckle.

"Xiaolan, forget it, stop teasing him, he is just a young man who is just starting out."

"I didn't go with him, I just think he's quite interesting."

He Chenguang also stood up, and Xiaolan used the same posture to sandwich He Chenguang between her legs.

"As I said just now, you can't go out casually and don't disturb the conversation between girls. This is very ungentlemanly."

Why can't He Chenguang care so much? He was not the shy Chen Jixiang. He stretched out his hand directly on Xiaolan's leg and touched it from the ankle to the knee.

This move scared Qin Yuan.

"He Chenguang! What are you doing? You are confused. How can you touch a girl?"

"Qin Yuan, do you want to come over and feel it.

Miss Xiaolan's legs were really slippery, like peeled eggs, thin and slender. He had already placed his legs near me, and I just touched them instinctively. This was not called teasing. "

Xiaolan put her legs down with a smile.

"It's okay, Qin Yuan, you don't have to be so nervous. I'm not Norman Karim's woman. If I want to be his woman, I'm afraid I can get to Country H, the gate of your army."

"Is it that exaggerated?"

"Of course, today you also met Noman Karim, he is indeed a very charming man.

Moreover, he is very capable, which is why many girls admire him.

Ordinary girls don't particularly care about appearance, they care more about personality charm, just like you, Qin Yuan. "

Qin Yuan's face turned red.

He never expected that this Xiaolan would be able to handle herself in front of so many people, making even an old man like himself blush.

"Even if you are not Noman Karim's woman, you should still behave yourself.

We are three boys here and it is not appropriate for you to say these things to me.

I don't know what's going on with An Ran and why he hasn't come back yet. We've been waiting for him for so long. It's true. "

"There's nothing you can do. Just wait here quietly. The two sisters should have a lot to say."

Jason waited nearby without speaking. He was more anxious than anyone else and didn't want to get involved in these unnecessary topics. He had just lost his temper for a while.

Now that I have calmed down a little, I don't know how to face Qin Yuan. I can only use this method to calm down.

Outside the club, Sophia, wrapped in a coat, looked at An Ran.

"are you cold?"

"It's not cold, what do you want from me?"

"An Ran, I want to explain to you."

"The facts that are easy to explain are already in front of you. No matter how much you say, it's useless. I'm not very interested. I don't want to hear it. I'm sorry. I'm very tired and want to go back and rest."

An Ran turned around, and just as he was about to leave Sophia behind, he grabbed his wrist.

"You must think I'm lying to you, so you're very dissatisfied with me. Now you feel disgusted when you see me, right?"

"I know that you, a girl, have been an orphan since childhood.

It's not easy to live in a foreign country, but seeing the relationship between you and Noman Karim only makes me feel sick. "

"An Ran, all your evaluations of me are very pertinent, and I won't blame you.

I just want to tell you that I didn't mean to deceive you. These are the orders given to me by Norman Karim. If you don't follow the orders he gave me, you should be clear about the consequences. Bar. "

"Stop your pathetic look.

If you were in front of Qin Yuan, it might be of some use.

In front of me, everyone is a woman, and they are all girls wandering around outside. Your trick is of no use in front of me. It is also my usual trick. I am immune to it. "

"Since you know that I have been an orphan since I was a child, and it is not easy for me to survive to this day, why can't you understand my unspeakable secrets?

I really regard you as my very good friend, and I hope you can forgive me for what I did. Now we are talking with our true colors.

You also already know that I am Norman Karim's man. From now on, there is nothing to hide and we can be honest with each other.

I know that you came all the way from the army to find Qin Yuan solely because of your feelings for him. "

When it comes to the relationship with Qin Yuan.

An Ran obviously showed a trace of sadness in his eyes.

"I'm here to complete the mission, not to listen to you talk about the love between children. The mission Fan Tianlei gave me is to quickly bring Qin Yuan, He Chenguang and the others back safe and sound."

"I can help you!"

"help me?"

How are you going to help me?

Don't think that with this kind of relationship between you and Norman Karim, he will allow you to destroy his plan. He has already made up his mind to let Qin Yuan cooperate with him to deal with old K.

If you let us go without authorization, you know very well what the consequences will be. The family rules of your group should be very strict. "

"Do you think you care about me?"

"No, I just want to remind Ni that we are now under house arrest by Norman Karim.

I really didn't expect that it would be wrong to leave, and that I would be detained in a place like this, but we are all used to it. "

"Are you and Qin Yuan planning to continue the stalemate with Norman Karim like this?"

"What if?"

"As friends, I have to remind you that this is not a good choice.

The target people you are looking for, namely the two students of the arms expert Professor Fang, are currently in the hands of Norman Karim, and he has told you clearly. "

"I know that Norman Karim wants to use these two people as hostages in exchange, and Qin Yuan cooperates with them."

"Since you know it so well, I won't waste my breath anymore.

I hope you can give Qin Yuan some good advice after you go back.

There is no point in continuing the stalemate. Although Norman Karim is very anxious to deal with Old K, he has been waiting for more than ten years and does not care about this day or two.

What he lacks the most is time, and for you, the most important thing is time.

Don't cause trouble for everyone, and don't cause trouble for yourself.

He who knows the current affairs is a hero, so he should persuade Qin Yuan to cooperate with Norman Karim.

His benefits are indispensable. Maybe he can use himself in exchange. As long as he rescues these two students of Professor Fang, he will have completed his mission and be worthy of Fan Tianlei.

Go back and write a resignation report to Fan Tianlei, leave this place forever, and have a bright future with Norman Karim. "

It is not difficult to see the domineering nature of what Sophia said. He must be used to bossing others around.

"The words you said to me are like commands."

"How dare I?"

"Is there anything else you want to tell me? Did you call me out specifically just to tell me these useless words?"

Sophia straightened her clothes and then sneered.

"An Ran, you know? What I admire the most is your arrogant character. I really like your character. After all, we are in the same boat.

If Qin Yuan doesn't want to join Norman Karim's group, why don't you join? "

An Ran laughed out loud after hearing Sophia's words.

"You are so interesting. Qin Yuan is going to come to me if you can't help it? Ever since I was a child, I have always been Fan Tianlei's exile, a secret agent.

I have seen a lot of the things you mentioned, the romance, the feasting and the feasting.

There are many people who want to support me, and I have seen people who are richer than Norman Karim, but I have never been moved by money.

Because I know what I believe in my heart, I know what is right and what is wrong.

The education I received since childhood did not allow me to do such a thing.

This is why Qin Yuan and I have something in common, because we are both the same people, and money cannot buy them. "

Sophia nodded helplessly.

"I knew it, I knew you would give me such an answer."

"I already knew why you are still wasting your time with me? It's getting late, go back quickly."

"An Ran, let me tell you the truth.

I came here to persuade you, but also to sympathize with you.

If you don't agree to Norman Karim's request, it's impossible to get out of here. Even if he wants to kill you, it won't be easy. Go help Fan Tianlei. "

"Weren't he and Fan Tianlei the best comrades-in-arms and partners when they were young?"

"This was decades ago, and you still take it to heart. The vicissitudes of life have changed, even if it was just one second before, your thoughts may have changed even one second after.

In Norman Karim's heart, the only person who could compare to the two students of Professor Fang was Qin Yuan.

Unless he uses himself in exchange, you can't take away these two arms experts.

There is no other way, Complete the tasks assigned to you by Fan Tianlei.

Professor Fang is a stubborn old man, and he finally agreed to help you.

His only request should be to save his two students. If you can't even fulfill his only request.

He should be very disappointed with you. Even if he dies, he won't help you.

So, don't try to take his path.

I'm telling you the truth, and I don't want you to waste your time. As your good sister, I can remind you, that's all.

If there is a little more about Fan Tianlei, don't try to know.

Norman Karim will not allow me to reveal more information to you, even if he knows that the relationship between us is very good. "

Chapter 2062: Professor Fang may not have much time left.

Sophia came from the bottom of her heart and wanted to tell An Ran all this, but An Ran couldn't believe it now, and he didn't want to believe it either.

"Forget it, I have already made it clear what I can say to you.

If you disagree or don't want to help me, I have nothing to say. I can only admit that I did something wrong. "

"An Ran, can you please stop treating me like this?"

In fact, I am also in a very dilemma and don't know what I should do.

Including, all the situations we are encountering now cannot be easily solved, and I think Norman Karim really appreciates you.

He appreciates it from the bottom of his heart. If you stay, he won't treat you badly. Why must you leave? "

"Sofia, you keep saying that you regard me as a good friend and sister. If this is the case, then you should know what I am thinking.

I just want to see Qin Yuan. If he wants to trade himself for the safety of these two arms experts, even if it costs him his life, he will not hesitate. He is such a noble and upright person.

However, it seems impossible for you to ask him to abandon his beliefs and join your camp.

In Qin Yuan's heart, he had already joined the army a long time ago.

Fan Tianlei, your kindness to him cannot be replaced by you.

Fan Tianlei's kindness to him can be said to be very heavy. His ability to stay here and take risks with his own identity is entirely out of his respect for Fan Tianlei.

This thing is mutual.

Norman Karim also appreciates it, but he will never treat it the same as Fan Tianlei.

Qin Yuan, the status between them is unequal, even after joining, the status between them is also different.

He will not treat the people around him equally like Fan Tianlei. "

Sophia was left speechless by what An Ran said, because what she said was all true.

"Enron, I admit Norman Karim, he has indeed been dealing with these things alone for too long.

If you want him to suddenly give up his reasons and mood and go to deal with Qin Yuan, this is an impossible situation. "

"That's fine then.

Okay, Sophia, I see it's quite late now, and I guess you may come over as a lobbyist tomorrow.

Why don't you go back and rest first? Actually, I'm not that angry anymore.

Just look away. I have always regarded you as my best friend.

However, after knowing that you were Norman Karim's man, I felt relieved and didn't care much about it.

Who has not deceived others in his life? I have also deceived many people in the process of being a spy. This is a very normal situation. "

"What you say means you don't regard me as a friend at all, but just treat me as an ordinary person, even someone who is worse than a friend, right?"

"It doesn't matter what you think. It's just you who understands the friendship between us. Don't tell me these things."

An Ran finished speaking, smiled at these words, turned around and left chicly.

"Wait a moment!"

Facing Sophia's call, An Ran acted as if he didn't hear it. He just turned around and left. He didn't want to continue to have any entanglement with this woman.

Because when An Ran came here now, he had a more important task, which was to tell Qin Yuan that these two students of Professor Fang must be rescued in the shortest possible time.

Professor Fang's condition has worsened.

An Ran walked back to the corridor. The gloomy corridor inside was long and quiet.

He was the only one leaning against the wall in the corridor, closing his eyes and taking a good rest.

Now he dare not tell Qin Yuan that Professor Fang is critically ill. He can only deal with the problems at hand according to his own situation.

He knew that Qin Yuan would definitely go to Norman Karim at all costs if he learned that Professor Fang was critically ill.

Why is An Ran so anxious to come here this time? Fan Tianlei will send An Ran here even if he risks Qin Yuan's complaints.

It was because they had to bring these two people back in the shortest possible time.

Let Professor Fang see him for the last time and hand over all his lifelong research to his two most trusted students.

At this time, An Ran received news from Du Bingbing.

"Hello?"

"You should have arrived in Pakistan, right?"

"Yeah, yes, I'm already here. I've been here a long time ago. I just wasted a lot of time looking for Qin Yuan. What happened?"

"An Ran, have you seen Qin Yuan?"

"seen."

"You didn't tell him that Professor Fang was critically ill. This is a highly confidential matter for us. You can't reveal it to him no matter what."

"Doctor Du, don't worry. I didn't tell him about this. I knew it was serious and I didn't dare to do it."

"That's good. When do you plan to bring Professor Fang's two students back? He can't hold on for much longer."

"Dr. Du, don't worry, I'm under a lot of psychological pressure right now, and we've all been controlled by Norman Karim."

He locked us up in a clubhouse.

He has his own demands, and these two people have become hostages in his hands.

If Qin Yuan does not cooperate with them, I can guarantee that these two arms experts will not leave Pakistan alive. "

"What? How come these two people fell into the hands of Norman Karim? What happened? If this is the case, you may not be able to bring these two people back in a short time.

Not to mention that they are already very well-known and technically mature arms experts. Even if there are other situations, we have to find a way to face them. "

Du Bingbing was very excited on the phone.

An Ran was already tired at this moment. He had to bear too much pressure and responsibility alone.

If he told Qin Yuan this, there would be someone to share it with him.

Maybe he could feel better, but for Qin Yuan's sake, he couldn't say this out anyway. He suffered it all silently.

"Dr. Du, you should know that our current situation is very serious.

I can't tolerate it. I have more time to think about how sad it is for me to bear all this silently alone, and I don't want to face it.

We can't blame other people, let alone the environment, and we can't blame Fan Tianlei.

If you want to blame it, you can only blame the unlucky time now. At this time, Norman Karim planned to take action against old K.

Old K is the boss of an underground arms trading group and Efit's boss.

You may not be familiar with the others, but you should be very familiar with Efite. Now the two of them are in a power dispute.

Norman Karim wants to get too many things, and he is very ambitious, so we all have to make enough preparations in advance. I don't want to think about so many preparations, but we have no choice. "

Du Bingbing heard what An Ran said. An Ran, who was usually very gentle, turned out to be so anxious this time.

He immediately realized that the pressure he put on him was too much, even though Fan Tianlei had asked Du Bingbing to be his temporary contact and leader of the supervision team.

However, he must give Enron enough time. Once the pressure is too great, serious problems are likely to occur.

"Anran, I'm sorry, I have disappointed you a little. I don't want to embarrass you, nor do I want to force you. I know that you are under a lot of pressure and responsibility to go to Pakistan this time.

You must not let Qin Yuan know the specific condition of Professor Fang's body. I have already contacted experts in the United States. "

"Why contact the experts over there?"

"Based on Professor Fang's current physical condition, he can only survive for a week at most.

I heard that there is a special medicine in the United States. As long as it can be obtained, he can survive for about a month at least.

This will give you enough time to mess with Norman Karim. "

"What special medicine? So powerful?"

"I will send you the specific name later, but this kind of medicine is very difficult to obtain. I have already found many people and used a lot of resources.

Money is definitely not a problem, the army will provide the money.

Even if it's Fan Tianlei, if they don't contribute money, there's no problem with me personally paying for it. The problem is that it's hard to buy with money.

So, when you talk to these people during your stay in Pakistan, I hope you can find opportunities to get some resources from them. "

An Ran shook her head helplessly.

Du Bingbing's coldness was indeed well-deserved. He thought that the other party told him this because he cared about him.

It turned out that he told himself that these were to assign new tasks to himself. An Ran couldn't help lowering her head and sneered when she thought of this.

"So you just gave me a new mission.

If this kind of special medicine is so hard to find, do you think I can find it in this relatively backward country with a mixed bag of good and bad? Who has such resources? "

"Norman Karim, and your good friend Sophia, he is not a simple person either.

He should have done a lot of business behind Noman Karim's back. If you ask him for help, maybe he can help you.

I heard that he has a private hospital in the United States.

The drugs in this private hospital are all the most expensive in the world, and they are also the most advanced. He can definitely find them there. "

"Dr. Du, you are really not a simple person.

I think you are overqualified as a doctor to treat patients. You should come out and complete the task with us.

I really don't know, when did you start getting news about this line?

Why didn't I get any wind at all? "

"An Ran, don't be weird with me here. I know you are very dissatisfied with my arrangement. You think I am taking advantage of you, but that is not the case. How could I be such a person?

I also have a little friend who is in the medical field.

They told me about this special medicine, and after many investigations, the boss behind it is your good friend Sophia. "

"Dr. Du, no matter how smart you are, you shouldn't think of others as fools."

"What's wrong with me?"

"Since the special medicine you mentioned is hard to find, and the boss behind it is Sophia, he also knows what our mission is when we come to Pakistan this time.

If I were to go there at this juncture, he would definitely think of Professor Fang, no matter if he wanted this kind of special medicine.

He won't give me this kind of special medicine. I advise you not to think about this channel again.

You'd better find some other ways. Why don't I help you ask your friends in the United States. "

"An Ran, you are not the only one who has friends in the United States. I also have good friends there. They told me that only this hospital has this kind of medicine, and they sell it at a high price.

They deliberately wanted to monopolize this special effect so that only wealthy people could use it.

If you don't believe it, you can discuss it with Qin Yuan. He must have made the same choice as me. "

Why did you mention Qin Yuan again?

These two girls are Qin Yuan's confidante. They both admire Qin Yuan's talent and personality, and they have a feeling of secretly poking and competing.

It's like a love-rival relationship.

An Ran smiled and said.

"Qin Yuan cannot know about this matter, this is what you said to me just now.

If he knew about it, he would definitely contact Professor Fang about the special medicine, letting him know that Professor Fang's physical condition was deteriorating and there was not much time left.

We don't know what kind of things he will do, and we have no way of detecting it. In the past, there was Fan Tianlei who could control him a little, but now Fan Tianlei is not with him, so I can't control him. "

"how could be?

An Ran, Qin Yuan usually listens to you the most. Now you just say that you can't control his emotions. I don't know who to believe. "

An Ran could hear that Du Bingbing's words were a bit sour.

"Well, I did have something wrong with my mood just now. Let me help you think of a solution. I'll go find Sophia.

However, there are things that may happen behind this matter. I have also told you. After Norman Karim finds out, I don't know what kind of plan he will have.

On the surface, this private hospital belongs to Sofia.

But his financial entanglement with Noman Karim was complicated.

We don't know who the boss is behind this, and whether Norman Karim knows that Sophia and this private hospital are behind this. "

"An Ran, you are also a smart person.

If you tell me this, I can understand what you mean.

Just do your best. I'm not relying on you alone. My friends in the United States are also trying their best to help me find channels.

I just hope that you can test how much inventory he has, because this kind of medicine is very rare, and others may discover it.

Remember, never tell Qin Yuan.

Chapter 2063: You'd better pray that you don't get caught

Du Bingbing, the two of them still have some subtleties regarding Enron's current attitude.

He has reminded a lot that no matter whether it can be completed or not, he cannot force Enron, even if he is now the leader of this operation.

"I'm sorry, An Ran. I did speak just now, but some of it was too harsh. I didn't consider your feelings. It's very stressful to complete a mission in a foreign country."

"Dr. Du, you don't need to say these polite words between you and me.

We just have to follow the rules. Fan Tianlei arranged this independent group between us.

You are the team leader, I should listen to you, and you are also my only contact person.

If you don't acknowledge my existence, I'm afraid no one will come to claim my body even if I die in a foreign country. "

"An Ran, don't say that, how could I be such a person? We are all worried about Professor Fang's health now.

I am also looking for the special medicine I told you about, and I do not place all my hopes on you.

Of course, I don't mean to say that I don't believe you.

I just think that you have a lot to hide in Pakistan. Before you left, you reported to Fan Tianlei about the relationship between you and your good friend Sophia.

Now, if you tell me, you two are completely at odds.

He is an untrustworthy person. What will the upper management think when they find out?

They will only think that you are unwilling to complete this task, including myself.

However, I believe in your character, I cannot be so young, but I must remind you that the senior leaders of the military are not so easy to talk to.

All they care about is Professor Fang.

To put it bluntly, even Qin Yuan, He Chenguang, and the rest of them are just tools for the upper-level leaders to complete their tasks.

They have done a lot to ensure your safety.

No one is more important and valuable than Professor Fang.

A once-in-a-century genius like him in the military field must do whatever it takes to save his life. "

An Ran knew that Du Bingbing was telling the truth.

The truth is often unpleasant and erotic. Even if he doesn't want to hear it or accept it, he still has to raise his head and face these unpleasant facts.

"Dr. Du, what you say is so chilling. Qin Yuan ignored his own life and drifted at sea for a week.

I don't know how many crisis moments I have encountered, but I have managed to survive until now. You tell me that the upper management does not care about his life safety, nor does it care about the life safety of Chen Jixiang and He Chenguang.

The only ones they care about are Professor Fang and his two valuable students. "

"Anron, you joined the army earlier than me.

To be more precise, you are already a veteran, and you have been playing outside for so many years. Please admit that I don't just worry about the personal relationship between you and Qin Yuan.

Then let me ask you, if you encounter a crisis and choose between Qin Yuan and the mission, what will you choose? "

An Ran hesitated.

"I'm sorry, I can't answer your question."

"An Ran, you are so unprofessional. You should know that as a spy, the last thing you should have is feelings. Since you met Qin Yuan, your performance has not been as good as before.

Fan Tianlei has mentioned this matter more than once.

He believes that you are no longer suitable to participate in such a secret operation. If it weren't for Fan Tianlei, he would have been temporarily punished by the top management this time.

I'm afraid, you don't need to complete this task alone.

You represent not only yourself, but also Qin Yuan and Fan Tianlei.

As long as you and Qin Yuan can successfully complete the mission, Fan Tianlei will definitely come back safe and sound.

He is still the aloof Chief of Staff Fan.

It can be used as a big umbrella to protect you from wind and rain.

If he really loses his position as chief of staff this time, your status in the army will be greatly affected in the future.

Especially like Qin Yuan. This kind of behavior does not follow the rules at all.

It is normal for senior leaders to be dissatisfied with him. Senior leaders in the military only like people who are obedient and capable.

Qin Yuan is capable, but he is not obedient enough.

Except for Fan Tianlei, no one can protect him like this.

Instructor Gong Jian also admires Qin Yuan's character, but his status is not high enough and he is relatively conservative. It is impossible for him to trust Qin Yuan without any consideration or reason like Fan Tianlei. "

After An Ran heard these words, she truly realized what kind of person Du Bingbing was.

Originally, he thought that Du Bingbing's concern for Qin Yuan was out of his love and appreciation for Qin Yuan.

Now it seems that in Du Bingbing's eyes, Qin Yuan is just a ladder that can help him rise to the top.

"Dr. Du, I didn't expect that you would have such insights in this area at such a young age.

Could it be that in your heart, Fan Tianlei is just a chief of staff and has no other emotional relationships? "

"An Ran, maybe you have been away from the army for too long performing secret missions, and you have long forgotten what the most important disciplines should be adhered to when doing wrong.

I think it is also possible that you have been with Qin Yuan for too long and learned these unruly things from him.

When you complete this task, return to the army.

I have reason to suggest to the upper leadership that you should undergo a period of closed training to restore your ideology and thoughts. "

An Ran was completely disturbed by Du Bingbing's words and didn't know how to answer.

No wonder, no wonder he was able to achieve this position at a young age. He thought it was because of their unusual family background, but now it seems that he can strategize on his own.

If handled properly, any issue can be implemented in accordance with the thoughts and ideas of the upper-level military leaders.

It is normal for people like this to rise to great heights.

An Ran is more worried about Fan Tianlei now.

If one day, Fan Tianlei really no longer holds the position of chief of staff, Qin Yuan will find it difficult to be promoted, no matter how capable he is.

An Ran knew that what Qin Yuan cared about was not his position, nor whether he could be promoted or whether he could make meritorious deeds.

All he cares about is realizing his own value.

But if you have nothing in the army, you will just be bullied and pushed around.

An Ran cannot allow Qin Yuan to become like this.

He had to complete this task, not only to save Fan Tianlei, but also to save Qin Yuan, and even more to save himself.

"Dr. Du, I understand what you said. I am indeed in a state of confusion right now, but your words are like enlightenment.

It immediately made me understand that we cannot lose Fan Tianlei. If Fan Tianlei can't protect us from the wind and rain, we people will be of no use even if we are capable. "

Du Bingbing sneered.

"Hmph~ It's good that you know. Now you understand what you should do."

"I will look for the special medicine that Professor Fang needs as soon as possible. You actually entrusted this task to me, which means that you are at the end of your rope.

Don't say any polite words, you have already used your resources in the United States.

It is impossible for you to use your resources lightly.

You know, if we, as your subordinates, can complete this task, you don't need to take action yourself. I am a very upright person.

Just say whatever comes to mind, and don't blame me.

When I say these words, you know better than anyone whether you really think so.

If you didn't think so, you wouldn't care about what I said, let alone get angry. "

"An Ran, your provocation method is of no use to me.

You should understand what kind of family I have lived in since I was a child. I am a person with very stable emotions and personality. No matter what you say, I will only consider it from the perspective of the task.

Sophia, he has a private hospital. You should make use of such resources. He treats you as a good friend.

I understand that it is Norman Karim's person. I have no idea whether this private hospital belongs to him. He is a very smart woman and I have investigated behind the scenes.

He should be unwilling to give up and become Norman Karim's puppet and plaything.

If you can bring her in, you may have a better chance of winning against this person together. No one knows him better than the people around Norman Karim. "

"I understand. I will do what you say and I will never disappoint you and the senior leaders."

"That's good!"

"By the way, how is Fan Tianlei doing?"

How far has he come under the investigation? Qin Yuan just hacked into the secret system and looked at the spies' information, but didn't do anything. The higher-ups probably didn't put it online. "

"This is all a matter for the senior leaders of the military. If you ask me, I don't know. Moreover, Fan Tianlei's investigation is secret. Qin Yuan must not be allowed to know that this is something you need to keep secret."

"Of course I know the discipline. I don't need the team leader to remind me."

"Reminding you is also a reminder to myself. Qin Yuan and you have been imprisoned by Norman Karim. He is a very powerful opponent.

Don't think how smart you are. Your every move in Pakistan is always under the surveillance of others.

The top leaders of the military are also in control.

Fortunately, instructor Gong Jian was not affected by you. Fan Tianlei took his place and shouldered all the accusations and slander. He took this matter down by himself.

After all, it's Qin Yuan. This guy is too impulsive. He does have some talents. I admire him very much, but he is so impulsive that he really embarrasses the important task. "

An Ran was very unconvinced, Du Bingbing said this to Qin Yuan.

“Qin Yuan’s pursuit is different from yours. What you want to pursue is that people go to higher places and water flows to lower places.

However, Qin Yuan pursues self-realization value. He hopes to use his own strength to contribute to the army. Professor Fang was also saved by him.

If he hadn't come out with this arms expert while completing the mission, would you have bothered like this?

If only Qin Yuan knew that he saved Professor Fang.

It would cause so much trouble, I'm afraid, he might even regret it. "

"That's useless. There is no regret medicine in this world. Okay, I don't want to talk to you anymore. You must remember it.

Qin Yuan cannot know about Fan Tianlei under any circumstances. " “I’ll definitely keep it a secret.

However, Qin Yuan has more contact with Fan Tianlei. I don’t think this secret can be kept secret from him for long. He is a very smart person. How do you plan to hide it from him?

Once he contacts Fan Tianlei, who will be responsible? "

"You don't need to worry about this anymore, instructor Gong Jian, isn't he still here?

Fan Tianlei has been detained.

At least, he won't be able to come out until senior leadership's investigation into him is concluded.

Just give up on this and try your best to stop Qin Yuan from contacting Fan Tianlei.

I know that he is a very smart person. He can hide it as long as he can. It is best not to affect the completion of your mission here. "

"Okay, I get it, and I understand what you're thinking. It's really eye-opening for me."

"An Ran, don't say anything to me. The weird words opened your eyes. It's not just this little thing that you made the first mistake. I violated the regulations and hacked into the spy system privately.

This is related to the safety of our troops and spies in various countries.

If, if because of this incident, special personnel assigned by us are caught and discovered by other countries one after another.

I can guarantee you that Fan Tianlei's position as Chief of Staff will not be retained. "

After An Ran heard this sentence, his defense was completely broken.

"No, Doctor Du, have you ever thought that we don't know our own special personnel in various countries, and there are also spies from the United States in our army.

The special people we have put in place have done a great job over the years.

If the spy we didn't catch uses this opportunity to take down Fan Tianlei, wouldn't this give them a handle?

We are consuming ourselves! "

"This has nothing to do with me, I just play a very small role.

I'm just giving you a vaccination because I know there are spies within us who have not been discovered, so I am very worried about Fan Tianlei's safety.

Don't think that I don't have feelings for Thor. He is a good person.

And he is a very persistent, serious and responsible person. I know this very well. It is precisely because of this that I don't want him to come down.

In addition to taking care of Professor Fang, I am here to pray for you all the time. I hope you can complete the task smoothly and don't let me down, let alone Fan Tianlei. " “Fan Tianlei was investigated because of Qin Yuan’s impulsiveness.

Qin Yuan knows that he will complete the task at all costs. "

"So, An Ran, we are all considering Qin Yuan for his good future, and we must keep the secret for Fan Tianlei."

Chapter 2064: Private hospital in Sofia

After An Ran listened to Du Bingbing's words, he also felt that he now had a heavy responsibility and must keep this secret and not let Qin Yuan know.

He is too impulsive, and once he finds out, the consequences will be disastrous.

Now, Norman Karim is seizing every opportunity to force Qin Yuan to cooperate with him.

Fortunately, Qin Yuan was able to keep this little bottom line for the principles in his heart.

However, if the other party knew about it, they were worried at this moment that Professor Fang, whose life was hanging by a thread, would definitely use this issue to manipulate Qin Yuan.

An Ran didn't want him to lose his principles because of this incident, go against his innermost feelings, and cooperate with Norman Karim.

Once you take this step, you will be doomed and there will be no possibility of coming back.

"Doctor Du, I can understand what you mean. You are very worried about Qin Yuan now. You just don't trust me. If you don't trust me, I will tell him this secret."

"Wrong, An Ran.

I have never worried about you, because I know that your feelings for Qin Yuan are very rare, and you cannot let him risk it.

I have never doubted this.

I just want to tell you that no matter what, you must not let anyone else know, of course, including He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang. "

"Can't they even know?"

"Of course, you know their relationship with Qin Yuan better than I do, especially Chen Jixiang, this kid, he listens to whatever Qin Yuan says, he is just like a little fanboy.

Moreover, if someone doesn't hide their emotions, some secrets will be exposed in front of Qin Yuan.

Forcing him to agree to Norman Karim, I think this is absolutely impossible.

The other party doesn't want them to have any conflicts because of this trivial matter.

Therefore, I advise you to think carefully and not do it at this critical moment.

Telling such a secret thing makes everyone feel uncomfortable.

Fan Tianlei was inside, and if he knew that Qin Yuan was risking everything for him, he would not be able to deal with it unharmed. "

"Are you threatening me?

Are you threatening me with Qin Yuan's safety and Fan Tianlei's safety? "

"Forget it, An Ran, I hope to respect you and gain your respect.

However, what I have to tell you is this matter. We have to keep it a secret between ourselves. It is a secret between the two girls. "

"I understand, you are also a person who values tasks very much.

As long as you say it, I will definitely promise you. If I don't promise you, I won't get any good fruits.

Over the years, I have seen too many people like you in the military.

It's not surprising to me. It's okay. I promise you that I will go find Sophia in a while, but you have to give me some time.

Sophia, I'm not sure whether he will promise me, whether he will tell me in front of me, that he has a private hospital.

Don't overestimate his feelings for me.

In fact, for people like them, everyone is a refined egoist, and it is absolutely impossible for them to pay for any messy feelings.

I advise you not to have high hopes.

On your side, if you can contact a hospital in the United States, you should also contact it. Don't place all your hopes on me.

Having said that, the worst case scenario is that the fish will die and the net will be broken. Professor Fang's problem is not Qin Yuan and I's problem.

Qin Yuan has already gone to Pakistan to complete his mission. If anything happens to Professor Fang, you will be the first to bear the responsibility.

There is no need for you to scare us here, we all know the seriousness of this matter.

So, don't say something too ugly. Everyone is not a fool. I am fully aware of what you are planning.

I am also very clear about what you are thinking. Aren't you just afraid that you won't be able to take care of Professor Fang and shoulder the responsibility?

By the way, this is your first time to take the initiative to complete such a major task. Professor Fang is a very powerful person. If there is anything wrong with him, everyone will not be able to make it easy. "

Du Bingbing was also seen by An Ran. His true thoughts were indeed like this. He was very afraid that Professor Fang would die in his hands.

"An Ran, even if you are right, I think so too. I hope you can help me well and not make everyone feel uncomfortable.

Let's stop talking about Professor Fang here. You should go back quickly. If you delay for too long, Qin Yuan will also be suspicious. "

"What about Fan Tianlei's side?

If Qin Yuan really contacts Fan Tianlei, how are you going to get through it? "

"This also depends on you!

An Ran, once Qin Yuan brings up the idea of contacting Fan Tianlei, I hope you can try to delay it so that he doesn't let him try to contact Fan Tianlei.

Of course, all this must be done under the premise of confidentiality, so that Qin Yuan doesn't notice anything is wrong.

In this way, it will be difficult for all of us to do your important task.

I hope you can think clearly and don't make it impossible for all of us to get off the stage, which is not good for anyone. "

"Yeah, I know Doctor Du.

You are really a person who is good at planning. That's it. I don't want to tell you anymore. I'm also very tired. It's time to go back. If anything happens, we can keep in touch at any time. "

"Okay, keep in touch anytime."

After hanging up the phone, An Ran felt so mixed in his heart that he really couldn't imagine it.

Du Bingbing, who is seemingly harmless to humans and animals, just looks a little cold, who would have thought that he would be such a person.

Regardless of Qin Yuan's life and death, he only cares about completing his mission, and he is still using Qin Yuan's safety to force himself.

This really made An Ran feel very uncomfortable.

He suddenly felt very wronged and under great pressure.

There were so many things that he couldn't share with others. He had to bear all the pressure alone, which had to make him feel very uncomfortable.

Thinking of this, An Ran almost cried. He felt that it was not easy for him. Coming here to complete the mission was a secret operation.

Qin Yuan cannot be allowed to know that he can only bear it alone.

But as for Qin Yuan, he also complained that he shouldn't be here.

Although it was for his safety, from An Ran's point of view, it was still a matter of anger and complaint.

He is simply not a human being inside and out. Who wouldn't feel uncomfortable thinking about this?

Especially for a person with a very strong self-esteem like An Ran, he didn't want anything to happen to Fan Tianlei.

Chapter 2065: Qin Yuan noticed that An Ran had a special mission

What Sophia said makes sense. Norman Karim should have very strict control over private hospitals, especially those with such special medicines.

I don't know if Norman Karim knows the specific medicine needed for Professor Fang's disease.

An Ran feels a little uneasy every time he thinks about this. This Du Bingbing, he only cares about completing his own tasks. Will he devote himself to taking care of Professor Fang?

No, Du Bingbing just wanted to complete the task. He didn't care at all about Professor Fang's personal problems. This was a task assigned to him by his superiors.

He will definitely try his best to complete it.

He doesn't need to worry about this anymore, but An Ran is more worried about Fan Tianlei now.

The last time he invaded the spy system, it had already caused great harm to Fan Tianlei.

If Professor Fang had any shortcomings, in addition to Fan Tianlei, Qin Yuan, Chen Jixiang, He Chenguang and himself would probably all be punished.

When Sophia looked at An Ran's distressed look, he also felt a little distressed.

Although he lied to An Ran about his identity, he still treated An Ran as his good friend.

"An Ran, don't be so troubled.

I will help you find a solution for this matter. Don't worry. I know you are very concerned about this problem, Professor. This kind of special effects is very expensive and hard to find. "

"Expensive? It doesn't matter how expensive it is.

Sophia, as long as you can find this special effect for me, and do it in secret without being known by Norman Karim.

I can spend any amount of money you ask me to do. Except for the troops of Country H, if the money raised there is insufficient, I can personally help you make up for it. "

"You will give me a personal subsidy?"

"That's right, what I need now is this kind of special medicine, and the remaining money is just extraneous things.

It doesn't matter to me. Professor Fang is a genius that is rare to see in a century.

Research on engineering mechanics and aerodynamics has reached its peak.

If he dies, I am afraid that no one will be able to take over his research in the next few decades.

Including, these two apprentices who are now in the hands of Norman Karim. "

After Sophia heard what An Ran said, he was now in awe of Professor Fang.

For so many years, Sophia has been living with Norman Karim since he was very young. Although he was asked to learn some knowledge, he knew nothing about technology.

He only knew that this professor was very powerful, but he didn't know that he could be so powerful.

Originally, Sophia thought that by catching these two students of Professor Fang, she would be able to master his core secret.

Now seeing An Ran being so anxious, Sophia seemed to have other ideas in mind.

It turns out that what is really useful is not Professor Fang's two students and the results they have now researched, but Professor Fang himself.

It seems that Norman Karim also miscalculated this time.

The most important thing is that he has recently focused all his attention on dealing with old K. This guy has been Norman Karim's heartache for many years.

He hoped to use his strength and use this opportunity to let Qin Yuan and the others completely bring down Old K.

"An Ran, I don't understand what research direction you are talking about. These are too high-tech things, and I can't quite understand them when mentioned to an uneducated person like me.

I can only tell you that this kind of special effect is indeed available in my private hospital, and Norman Karim also knows the quantity and dosage of each batch, and he is strictly controlling it.

It is very difficult to get some, but it is not necessarily impossible. I will help you find a way. "

An Ran is now in a complete showdown with Sophia.

He is not afraid that the other party will know about Professor Fang's condition and severity, nor is he afraid that the other party will know about the leakage of the research results.

All that Enron is doing now can help Professor Fang recover quickly.

There is another important reason, which is to save Fan Tianlei. If Fan Tianlei has any shortcomings, everything they do will be meaningless.

Moreover, An Ran himself admired Fan Tianlei very much.

I feel that there is a great need for such talents in the army.

Fan Tianlei's persistence and uprightness can ensure that Qin Yuan and they successfully complete many tasks.

Even instructor Gong Jian cannot do this.

While the two of them were secretly discussing the issue of special medicines, Chen Jixiang had secretly fallen down from upstairs and was observing outside for a while.

"What do these two women have to discuss? Let's go and see first."

He Chenguang grabbed Chen Jixiang.

"Since we came down at this time and saw that they hadn't finished speaking, I thought the two of us should eavesdrop for a while to see what they were talking about."

"Huh? Isn't this a bit immoral?"

Our parents have told us since we were young that we should not eavesdrop on other people's conversations. This is very impolite. Why don't we go up and tell Qin Yuan that Sister An Ran is still chatting with Sophia. "

"You boy, you usually seem to be quite smart, but why do you always lose track at this critical moment?"

What is the relationship between Sophia and Enron?

One of them is from our camp and the other is Norman Karim. At this critical moment, we must protect Enron.

He is a person who likes to handle everything by himself.

What if the two of them say something outrageous now and go back, trying to hide it from us? Wouldn't we have missed an opportunity to help him?

If we listen secretly here, we can know what they are discussing.

It seems that I can be mentally prepared.

This is a kind of protection for Enron. You kid doesn't understand. Don't talk nonsense here. We are not sneaky, but aboveboard. "

"Is it really?"

No way, He Chenguang was very successful as a spy. He had successfully brainwashed this kid.

"Okay, let's listen quietly here.

However, if Sister An Ran sees it, he will definitely be very angry. He has always disliked others eavesdropping on his words from behind. "

"We call this eavesdropping. What we call stealing is to be sneaky and not be discovered by him."

"But, we are too far away now, and we can't hear what he said there. We can only vaguely hear a few words about medicine and what he wants."

"Don't interrupt here. If you hadn't been here chirping, I'm afraid we would all have heard more information."

Chapter 2066: He Chenguang is looking for his superior

He Chenguang is brewing a plan. No matter what, he must first find a way to contact the American spies lurking in Pakistan.

In this way, the two of them can work together to kill Professor Fang's two students completely.

In this way, no one else can get talents like them.

The United States has always been a country that harms others but does not benefit itself. As long as it cannot use it and others do not allow it and are unwilling to help itself, then there is only a dead end.

"Why, haven't you decided yet?"

"Sophia, you don't need to tell me this. Since I have handed over these problems to you, I hope you can do it in the shortest possible time.

Help me find this special effect, it's very important to me. "

After An Ran finished speaking, Sophia lowered her head and smiled.

Looking at his long eyelashes hanging down, he is really beautiful.

"Okay, it's getting late. You'd better go back quickly. If there are any problems, I will come back to you.

As for this special medicine, I will try my best to help you find it.

When I come to see you tomorrow, I should give you an answer.

Now I looked at the time. It happened to be working time in the United States, so there should be no problem. "

"Okay, let's do this first."

After finishing speaking, Sophia walked away directly.

He Chenguang's ears are really good.

Even from such a distance, he could hear what the two people were discussing.

Now, he has made up his mind that no matter what, he must find a way to contact his superiors and find the spies lurking in Pakistan.

An Ran turned around and saw Chen Jixiang and He Chenguang hiding behind them. He was also startled.

"Why are you two here?"

Chen Jixiang smiled awkwardly and said.

"Sister An Ran, don't worry, we two didn't eavesdrop on you on purpose.

It was Brother Qin Yuan just now. He was a little worried. He asked us to come down and see why you had been chatting with Sophia for so long.

What if this woman is not good for you.

He has already lied to you once. If you are so kind, it would be inappropriate for you to believe him again. "

"Don't say these things to me yet. I would like to know, did you hear what Sofia and I were discussing?"

An Ran was extremely serious, and his expression immediately frightened Chen Jixiang, who was smiling playfully.

"Absolutely not!

Sister An Ran, I dare to use my own character to guarantee you.

From such a long distance, we can clearly see that it is the two of you talking, which is already very good. We are not clairvoyant or clairvoyant.

How is it possible to hear clearly what the two of you are discussing?

If you don't believe it, I'm going to chat with He Chenguang at the door now. Look, under normal circumstances here, can we hear it? "

"You really didn't hear that?"

"We swear, no matter what the situation is, we didn't hear anything. Go back quickly. Brother Qin Yuan, he is already very cold and anxious up there. He is very worried about you."

An Ran breathed a sigh of relief, and looked back at the approximate distance. He probably wouldn't hear the two of them talking.

"That's good, let's go up first and see what Qin Yuan has planned here."

Afterwards, An Ran and the two of them took the elevator and returned to this mysterious club.

Sophia had just left An Ran. He immediately returned to his car and frantically recalled what An Ran had said to him in his mind. This was a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity.

If, if he could help Enron find a special medicine, he would be able to trust his friend again.

However, this may betray Norman Karim.

Professor Fang and his two students were Norman Karim's original key targets.

Even if you can't get it yourself, you won't let others get it.

Now that the other party knows that Enron, if it continues, it is very likely that it will touch Norman Karim's bottom line.

Immediately afterwards, Sophia immediately contacted the private hospital in the United States.

"Hello? Do you still have that special medicine?"

"Now there are the last three!"

"Are there only the last three left? When will the next batch of special medicines arrive? How long do I have to wait?"

"How long to wait? I'm not sure you know about this special medicine.

It would be very troublesome to research it, but I don't think there is any better way if you want to get it.

You should ask Mr. Norman Karim. If he agrees, you can get it soon. If he doesn't agree, there is nothing we can do. "

"Are you threatening me? I am usually in charge of this private hospital, and Norman Karim will occasionally ask about special medicines.

Suppose, I want you to help me get one without anyone noticing..."

"Sofia, don't joke with me, this kind of special medicine is strictly controlled by Norman Karim.

He never let go of things worth thousands of gold.

Although he is very kind to you, he can give you money, but he will not give you rights.

If this kind of special effect is something that he has been paying close attention to all along, if it were missing, he would never let us go.

I can't do it, so don't hurt me.

What Norman Karim hates most is cheating. If he finds out, I'm cheating behind my back.

You know what will happen to me. We are good friends. You won't embarrass me like this, right? "

"Harry, we have known each other for such a long time. The private hospital is in the United States, thousands of miles away from the eight countries.

Norman Karim only checks the bill you give him every month. The quantity and dosage of medicines on it are impossible for him to go to the hospital to check. "

"You told me so much, aren't you afraid that I will complain to Norman Karim?"

"It doesn't matter. If you want to complain to him, I have nothing to say, but I don't think you can. The relationship between the two of us is unusual."

The man on the phone is called Harry. He is the manager of Sophia's private hospital in the United States and the doctor in charge there. He is also a very powerful private doctor.

He had a special feeling for Sophia, so this cautious woman dared to say these words openly in front of him.

There was a pause, and after a while, Harry said to Sophia.

"Not many people are actually using this kind of special medicine. No one has asked me for help recently. If you want to save a little from each of the ten medicines, you can make a complete one.

In this way, I may not be aware of it, but I don't have so much information in my hand now. You can't let me eat it openly and openly. "

"What if I spend money to buy it?"

"This is even more impossible. Everyone who buys this kind of special medicine must get Noman Karim's permission. If he doesn't allow it, he won't be able to buy it even if he has money."

"Okay, don't talk to me so much.

I already know your difficulty, and I'm thinking of other solutions to this matter.

If it really doesn't work, I just need to take the initiative to talk to Norman Karim.

You don't need to be so frightened here. Even if I want to die, I will never harm you. "

After Sofia finished speaking, she got angry and hung up the phone.

At Qin Yuan Club, he saw that An Ran seemed a little frustrated.

"How do you get down there? What are you talking about after discussing with Sophia for so long?"

An Ran smiled slightly as she watched Qin Yuan receive it.

"What else can he say to me, but he just wants to explain to me why he lied to me.

I have my own independent judgment. Although people can't help themselves in the world, he didn't lie to me intentionally. There were other reasons.

But on the one hand, I can understand, but I still can't forgive him.

The relationship between the two of us is like this, he explained a lot to me.

It's just that the relationship can't go back to what it used to be. Even though he helped me a lot in the past, I hate it when others lie to me. "

Qin Yuan said thoughtfully.

"Yeah, I'm just like you, I hate when others lie to me.

People who lie are definitely not worthy of being forgiven, so An Ran, you must not lie. If you have anything to do with me, you should tell me clearly directly. "

"Of course, how could I lie to you? I will tell you everything clearly no matter what."

"It's good that you know. Okay, let's get some rest quickly. There should be a lot of things to do tomorrow. Sofia, this woman, should come to see you tomorrow."

Xiaolan, looking at this group of people, didn't know how to arrange it.

"Do you want to sleep in the same room or separate?"

Chen Jixiang walked to Qin Yuan and rested his head on his shoulder.

"Brother Qin Yuan, I came out with you. No matter what, I have to sleep with you. You must not dislike me."

"Why do I dislike you? Then let's take Jason and He Chenguang with us. The four of us sleep in a room. It might be safer this way.

If there were any changes, we would exchange messages directly and everyone would be separated. I don't think there is much sense of security. "

To everyone's surprise, He Chenguang refused.

"Qin Yuan, although there is some truth in what you said, it would be safer for us to unite together, but I think this club is a high-end club.

There are no rooms for multiple people, they are all separated, and if the beds are too close together, we will not have a good rest. We are all tired for several days.

If we fall asleep, we will definitely snore, which will also affect each other. How about we all sleep in the same room.

If that doesn't work, if you feel unsafe, you can let me sleep in a room by myself. "

He Chenguang is such a smart person, but he is a little stupid on this issue.

He wanted to sleep in a room alone, which aroused Qin Yuan's suspicion.

"That's fine. I'll sleep with Jason and Chen Jixiang. Xiaolan, please go make arrangements first. We'll wait here for a while."

Xiaolan paused for a moment. He was a little confused now and didn't know how to arrange it.

"That's it. Mr. He Chenguang, come with me first. I'll help you find an independent room that's not too big, which may give you more security.

Qin Yuan is left, you are here, wait for me, I will take you into the room after making arrangements. "

He Chenguang smiled.

"Qin Yuan, although we slept in the same dormitory when we were in the army, you must not think that I dislike you now, I just want to enjoy it.

When we were together with Fan Tianlei, he was very strict with us, so we finally got this unique opportunity.

If we don't enjoy it outside, you don't know how to cherish it. "

Qin Yuan tilted his mouth and smiled inadvertently.

"It doesn't matter. I know you won't dislike me. Just enjoy it. I understand that you have always been a person who focuses on enjoyment."

Finally, He Chenguang followed Xiaolan to a smaller house.

"Mr. He, please feel free to feel aggrieved here. Although this room is not too big, it is generally very warm and safe."

"It doesn't matter, as long as I can live in a house by myself, I don't want to hear them snoring."

While on the boat, I couldn't get a good night's sleep in the past few days. I could hear them snoring all day, quarreling, or the stench of not taking a shower. "

Xiaolan couldn't help but cover her mouth and smile.

"How is this possible? Just now I saw that your companions are quite nice and clean. How can they smell like they haven't taken a shower?"

"You don't know, we came here sneakily on a boat."

It was always at the bottom of the cabin. There were many stowaways there. People from all walks of life did not take a shower. It was just too normal. It smelled of sweat and food.

Coupled with the salty smell of dark and humid sea water, you should be able to understand what I mean. "

He Chenguang is really descriptive, is somewhat lifelike.

Xiaolan next to her felt as if she was actually there, and couldn't help but cover her nose subconsciously.

"Then you have to take a good bath. Bath water has been put in there for you."

"After all, Norman Karim is considerate, so I thank you. Please go out first, I want to take a shower."

"Okay, I won't interrupt you. If you need anything, you can ring the bell at any time.

I have some waiters here who will be here to help you at any time. "

"You'd better help Qin Yuan and the others first and find them a suitable and comfortable place.

Otherwise, when he goes back, he will definitely report me to his superiors, saying that I am secretly enjoying myself outside. I don't want to bear such a crime.

I just take every opportunity and enjoy it, and there's nothing wrong with that. "

Chapter 2067: Du Bingbing told you this on purpose.

Xiaolan arranged it, and after He Chenguang, he quickly left the house without saying a word.

They must arrange Qin Yuan first, this is their most important goal.

None of them knew what Qin Yuan was thinking, they only knew that he was a very smart man.

Xiaolan, until now, doesn't know Qin Yuan's intelligence and interests, but is very confused as to why Norman Karim takes this person so closely.

Even if he had wings, he couldn't leave here. There was no need to guard him so strictly.

Just keep an eye on his target people, which are Professor Fang's two students.

Even if Qin Yuan is extremely capable, he probably won't be able to complete the task and he won't be able to leave here.

Norman Karim, I really overestimated this man's ability.

Xiaolan, wearing a white orchid cheongsam, was graceful and graceful. She walked in front of everyone while swaying from side to side, as if he was taking his time and not in a hurry.

Chen Jixiang is very sleepy now.

He had not had a good rest for such a long time, and with the cold wind blowing on the shore, he was now very dissatisfied.

I feel that this woman is deliberately delaying time.

"Can you hurry up?"

Chen Jixiang's tone was obviously a little unhappy.

However, he is not behaving too badly now, and the superficial politeness should still be maintained. If it were different, others would have already lost their temper.

I want to see Chen Jixiang. This boy usually follows Qin Yuan like a younger brother and is very humorous. In fact, his temper is not very good.

"Don't be anxious first, I have to make arrangements for you.

Mr. Norman Karim has already said that you are his most important guests, and he must make proper arrangements for you.

Otherwise, he will definitely not let me go. I usually eat based on his face. If he is really angry, it will be difficult for him to live, let alone eat. "

An Ran smiled.

"Xiaolan, can you stop saying so scary things.

Isn't Sophia living well by his side?

Moreover, he was able to rise to prominence and gain the trust of Norman Karim. "

Xiaolan, it's a little sour.

"Who is Sophia? Just in terms of appearance, he is already better than 80% of women. There is no way to change this."

"Who says there is no way to change, as long as you have money, you can look like anyone you want.

Plastic surgeons are now so skilled that as long as you can take out photos and have enough money, they can make you look whatever you want. "

"You don't know Norman Karim very well. He has always liked the most natural things.

What he hates most is fake things, so nothing can be fake in front of him, of course, including looks and words. "

Xiaolan's words seemed to be insinuating something.

It's not that Qin Yuan has never doubted his identity, but Qin Yuan is too lazy to doubt it now.

He thought that everything that appeared around him was just a smoke bomb, just to prevent him from quickly finding Professor Fang's two students.

These two people are by Norman Karim's side, if he is really so confident.

You can hold these two people to prevent Qin Yuan from taking them away, or even let Qin Yuan get close. You can directly tell that they are somewhere.

The name tag tells you clearly where you can't find these two people, and it's impossible to take them away.

But this is not the case now.

Norman Karim has been hiding and not telling me where these two important figures Qin Yuan are.

Wasn't it because he was afraid that Qin Yuan had some special super power and would take these two people away?

An Ran yawned.

"Xiaolan, I'm really too sleepy now. Please arrange a good place for me and let me rest first."

"Sometimes I really feel that Norman Karim is redundant.

You guys are so exhausted now, how much energy do you have to fight with him?

If there was a better way, he wouldn't have any influence.

Now, on the contrary, we, Mr. Norman Karim, are protecting you. You guys have made many enemies, and there are many people who want to get you here.

Hassan and Efit have already been offended by you.

The most important thing is that there is a very important person above Efit, namely Lao K. Qin Yuan, don't think that you won't cooperate with Norman Karim.

You can rely entirely on your own abilities to ensure the safety of you and everyone else.

If you think this way, you are a bit too naive. Norman Karim wants to cooperate with you, which is also a kind of protection for you.

Old K, he doesn't lack talent like you. What he needs is money and power. "

"Xiaolan, please stop brainwashing us and saying these things. I know what I am doing.

Mr. Norman Karim should have said this to me. This is possible. It is not your turn to tell me. "

Xiaolan also realized that she had indeed spoken too much.

This is not something he should consider.

"An Ran, come with me first."

An Ran dragged her tired body and followed Xiaolan, taking him to a corner room.

"This is it, An Ran, you can rest here!"

"Yeah, thank you, Xiaolan. If there is nothing else, I will go to bed first. See you tomorrow morning."

"Ok, see you tomorrow."

An Ran walked into the room and quietly closed the door.

The first thing he thought of was to quickly inspect every corner of the room.

Whether there are pinhole cameras and some eavesdropping equipment, this is his most basic quality as an agent.

It's already very tiring, and it makes people insist on checking these things.

This is what Enron has done most frequently outside for so many years. It has become familiar and has even become a kind of muscle memory.

As long as he is in a strange room, he must check these to feel at ease.

After checking everything, An Ran was so tired that she lay down on the bed and couldn't get up.

But even so, he still couldn't worry about hiring people from Country H.

Fan Tianlei has been investigated and punished. If Qin Yuan's mission cannot be completed, all of them will not have a good life.

Thinking of this, I recalled what Du Bingbing said coldly to me just now,

An Ran now sympathizes with Qin Yuan and doesn't have to be angry with himself because he is anxious because he can't help.

At this time, An Ran turned on her phone and prepared to contact instructor Gong Jian first.

This was the only person he could contact after Fan Tianlei was locked up for investigation.

"Instructor Gong Jian, are you busy?"

"No, what else can I do? Fan Tianlei took care of all this matter by himself, and I am still safe.

However, although my superiors did not initiate an investigation into me.

However, I don't have their trust like before, and I can't touch some core issues. If you want me to help you, I'm afraid there's nothing I can do. "

"Instructor Gong Jian, I understand your current situation."

"It's good that you understand. It's not that I want to be alone now after seeing Fan Tianlei being investigated. It's just because I am the same now. When a clay Buddha crosses the river, he cannot protect himself.

How is Qin Yuan?

Does he still know about Fan Tianlei's investigation? "

"I haven't told him yet, but if I told him, given his personality, he would be worried about Fan Tianlei, so there's no way he would do anything to get angry.

Moreover, he is also prone to impulsivity, which originally put a lot of psychological pressure on him during this period.

I'm afraid that he will choose some rough roads if he is impulsive again. We cannot let him take the wrong path. Talents like him should stay and serve the country with loyalty. "

Instructor Gong Jian smiled softly after hearing An Ran's words.

"An Ran, you made the right choice.

However, in my heart Qin Yuan, even if he is impulsive, he will not do such a thing. He will not betray country H.

He will not betray Fan Tianlei in order to save Fan Tianlei, nor will he do anything against himself and run away. You see this boy is stubborn, and he has always adhered to his principles in his heart.

Ever since Fan Tianlei completely conquered him, I have always felt this kid.

My admiration for Fan Tianlei has reached its peak. No matter what, he will not do anything to disappoint us, so don't worry. "

"An Ran, I can understand your relationship with Qin Yuan, but you can't sacrifice yourself just to care for him."

"No?"

"An Ran, I heard your voice was very tired. I saw Du Bingbing sneaking out just now. He should have contacted you."

"Instructor Gong Jian, you really can't hide anything. You have a clear mind and can see everything."

"It's not that I have a bright eye, it's that I know what kind of person Du Bingbing is,

Fan Tianlei said before that Dr. Xiao Du is very good and a reliable person.

However, now it seems that he is also a girl who is eager for quick success and quick success. She is even the girl who cares about climbing the most that I have ever seen. This is also very strange to me. "

"Instructor Gong Jian, I can only tell you these words. He just called me and told me about Professor Fang's recent situation."

"Told you?"

"Uh-huh."

Instructor Gong Jian sighed and shook his head helplessly.

"How could he take the initiative to mention this to you? Professor Feng's health is indeed very serious, but we are now using a special medicine to maintain his life."

"But Du Bingbing, he told me that this kind of special medicine is only available in the United States.

He hoped that I could go to the United States to get some special medicine through the relationship with a very powerful woman next to Norman Karim. "

"This is the task assigned to him by his superiors. He actually assigned this task to you. How could he do this?

Is it because he is also interested in Qin Yuan? Are you two love rivals? "

"To be honest, I'm not in the mood to think about what he thinks of me right now.

However, the problem of this special medicine is indeed difficult to solve.

Norman Karim had to control these special effects very strictly. If he had known that these were being used by Professor Fang, he would definitely not have let them go.

I have already contacted Sophia, and he told me that the look in his eyes was quite sincere and he probably wouldn't lie to me.

I also gave him some money, but he didn't even say that this special medicine was under the special control of Norman Karim, and it was impossible to get it without connections.

Instructor Gong Jian, I am contacting you just to ask about Professor Fang's current situation.

Is he really that serious now? If there is no specific medicine, it can only last about a week.

This issue is very important to me, and I hope you won't lie to me just to make me feel at ease. "

"An Ran, let me tell you the truth. I didn't mean to lie to you. This special medicine is indeed what Professor Fang needs, but it is not as urgent as An Ran, as you heard.

What Du Bingbing told you may still be a little embellished, not to mention that we have sent other people from the United States to look for it.

It won't be found in a short time, but Professor Fang De should be able to persist for a while. He has not yet seen his two students and he has an obsession in his heart. "

An Ran breathed a sigh of relief.

"That's good. After all, Du Bingbing is a doctor who says these things to me. No matter how serious he says, I will probably believe it, and basically I won't doubt it.

So, I calmed down just now and looked at Qin Yuan's attitude towards this matter.

I think it's better to ask you. If Professor Fang De really has any problems, everything we have done now will be in vain. "

Instructor Gong Jian still has some comfort elements.

Generally speaking, he did not lie. Professor Fang De's situation was not as serious as Du Bingbing said. He was deliberately urging An Ran.

"Instructor Gong Jian, with your words, I feel really relieved.

I have always been very worried. I don't know what the recent situation is like. Qin Yuan has been away from us for a long time, and he is facing more problems now.

When I came here today, I saw that he was much thinner than before. I also feel a little sad for him. There are still a bunch of pig teammates who need him to take care of him.

Norman Karim still admires him very much and hopes that he can join the other side's camp. "

Instructor Gong Jian has never worried about Qin Yuan's loyalty. He believes in him for no reason just like Fan Tianlei.

"No matter what conditions Norman Karim gives for his expulsion, I believe Qin Yuan will remain unmoved.

This is what I admire most about him.

This child has a very sense of justice and is calm enough.

No matter what situation you are in, you can always find the best way to deal with the problem.

Chapter 2068: In a small room, it is not easy to hide a pinhole camera

An Ran heard what instructor Gong Jian said to him.

Now they feel a little relieved, but they are still worried about Fan Tianlei.

"Instructor Gong Jian, how is Fan Tianlei doing? If there is something wrong with him, it will be meaningless for us to complete any mission.

I know that Qin Yuan cannot be allowed to understand Fan Tianlei's current situation, but there is nothing we can do.

We can't just watch Fan Tianlei being framed.

If there is anything you need from me to cooperate with the investigation, please tell me in time.

"An Ran, since you have gone to Pakistan, I must tell you.

Perform tasks with peace of mind, this is more important than anything else!

Your superiors don't want you to miss such an important mission because of Fan Tianlei's incident.

These two students of Professor Fang De are very important figures.

A girl as smart, transparent, and wise as you should be able to understand that if your superiors don't believe you, they won't be able to let you go to a country so far away to meet Qin Yuan at this critical juncture.

This just shows that your superiors still trust you and Qin Yuan. As long as you two can live up to expectations, you will naturally be able to give Tianlei a chance to make a difference. "

An Ran sneered.

"It's not because my superiors believed in me.

It's because, except for me, no one can do this job well. They are the best at measuring the seriousness of things. Don't I know them? "

"If you understand this, you can just say it in your heart. You must not say it to others. Otherwise, some people will talk behind your back.

Especially for Du Bingbing, don't think that he has a cold personality and has an indifferent spirit.

In fact, I think this girl is quite scheming.

Moreover, he has always regarded you as a very important opponent.

Don't underestimate him, he has only been in the army for a few years, and his status is already similar to yours.

Everything you get now is the result of your * battles outside.

It was earned by his own life, but Du Bingbing was different.

He can gain the trust of his superiors just by being able to strategize.

Now that he has obtained the position of team leader, he may be above Qin Yuan in the future.

His current target has been placed on Fan Tianlei.

If it weren't for his young age, I'm afraid Fan Tianlei would be able to take this position this time. "

"No way. How old is Du Bingbing? How can he replace Fan Tianlei?"

"People always have to be ambitious, and Du Bingbing is a particularly ambitious girl. From the first time I met him, I could tell that he was not an easy-going person and wanted to be in a low-level position. People who live peacefully.

You are all nothing but bargaining chips for his promotion.

The reason why he is secretly informing you of Professor Fang De's condition.

It just wants to make you nervous and get you to complete the task as quickly as possible.

You have to know that for your special profession.

How important it is to complete the task as soon as possible. When Fan Tianlei was here, you made no progress at all. He just accepted the position of liaison with you.

It will allow you to complete the task quickly, which shows that he is more powerful than Fan Tianlei.

It is normal for him to want to show off in front of his superiors. Don't doubt his ambition. I can see what he is thinking. "

Instructor Gong Jian's reminder made An Ran feel that Du Bingbing was really scary.

It makes people even feel that there are some hairy bones.

At such a young age, he is actually so sophisticated and far-sighted.

"Yeah, I understand. I'm contacting you today. Although it goes against my principles, I have to know what Professor Fang De's condition is.

I also felt that Du Bingbing was indeed exaggerating when he described it to me. I didn't particularly believe him. "

An Ran is now very worried about the situation of instructor Gong Jian.

He was afraid that Du Bingbing would use it as his next target. Anyone who hindered his upward development was a stumbling block for him and should be kicked away.

It's just that they have no choice but to pin their hopes on Qin Yuan. He is the best candidate to deal with Norman Karim.

Xiaolan, the delivery has just finished here, and An Ran is preparing to arrange for Qin Yuan and the others to go to another room, where Qin Yuan, Chen Jixiang, and Jason will go to another room.

When I arrived here, I saw a small, cramped room.

Jason said with a sneer.

“Is this how Norman Karim treats guests?”

"Don't get me wrong, this is not what Mr. Norman Karim meant. In order to welcome such an outstanding talent as Qin Yuan, he has already vacated the entire club.

This is a house chosen by Qin Yuan himself. You must not feel cramped.

If, if you are not satisfied, I can change you to a larger suite. "

Qin Yuan said calmly.

"No, Xiaolan, thank you for your hard work. We want to take a rest quickly. This room is already very good for us.

We are not originally members of the upper class, nor do we have a noble status.

It is good to have a place that can shelter us from the wind and rain and allow us to have a good sleep. There is no need for a suite, although Mr. Norman Karim has booked the entire club.

We want to give us a relatively quiet place to rest, but we can't enjoy it as much as we want. We have systems and regulations.

If, it really follows Mr. Norman Karim's arrangement.

After we go back, each of us has to write a report, which is too troublesome. "

Xiaolan smiled and nodded.

In such a small house, he is a girl, and she is also wearing a cheongsam. It is indeed inappropriate to be in the house with three men.

Although he knew that these people were all gentlemen and would not do anything to him, he was still a little timid and prepared to leave here first.

"Qin Yuan, you guys should have a good rest.

I won't bother you here anymore. I'm going out first. I have important things to do.

Noman Karim has arranged other things for me. If I don't do well, he will definitely blame me. "

"Yeah, I understand, you go and have a good rest first."

Then, Xiaolan closed the door gently, leaving Qin Yuan and the others alone.

Chen Jixiang, who was still reserved just now, suddenly collapsed on the bed with his arms stretched out.

As expected, the bed was really soft, and he suddenly jumped up.

He rolled around on the bed wrapped in quilt, like a donkey rolling.

His innocent look also made Qin Yuan feel that life had returned to a better time, but it was instinctive for them to be born as special forces soldiers.

Qin Yuan still searched around the house.

"What are you looking for?"

"In order to prevent the other party from monitoring us, we must quickly find out whether there are invisible pinhole cameras and some eavesdropping equipment.

We must be more cautious. This is Pakistan, and it is the territory of Norman Karim. We have no choice but to act quickly and stop wallowing here. "

Chen Jixiang listened to Qin Yuan the most.

Then he quickly put away his playful attitude and followed Qin Yuan to search around the house.

Jason said at this time.

"I finally realized why you stayed here instead of staying in a suite with a nice environment.

It turns out that you are afraid of the suite. It is too big and it is inconvenient to find pinhole cameras and some eavesdropping equipment. The smaller the place, the less likely it is to hide these things. "

"Well, Jason, you are still very smart and can understand my thoughts. This is what I think.

Noman Karim already knows, who we are, what we are here for, and he wants to stick with us at all times.

However, due to his own identity, he had to come up with a driver and let us watch it by ourselves. If there was any problem, he would not say anything.

To put it bluntly, this is just a matter of both... and erecting a memorial arch. "

Qin Yuan did not say such unpleasant words. After all, Chen Jixiang was here.

After searching for a long time, Qin Yuan did not find any equipment. Although it was as he expected, he still had to search step by step before he could rest assured.

Norman Karim would not do such a stupid thing, even if he really wanted to know what he wanted to do.

Jason also sat silently on the bed.

It's been a long time since I've slept on such a high bed with soft pillows.

Jason let out a long sigh.

"We can enjoy it here, but I don't know what is happening to my brothers now and where Norman Karim put them.

When will we be ready to release him? "

"Jason, I have already promised you. Although your brothers have not returned to you safely now, they are still the guarantee for Norman Karim to threaten me.

At least until I answer him, these brothers of yours will not be in any danger. Just now you can see that he is pretending to be gentle on the surface.

In fact, chanting Buddha's name with your mouth will turn you into a demon in your heart. "

"Yes, this is what I find most terrifying. The way he looks now really reminds me of the old K.

Old K is such a person. Of course, I was still in the organization at that time.

There was a saying once spread among our team.

It's called, Old K smiles, life or death is unpredictable.

This is enough to show how terrible this person is. Norman Karim is a person like him. We must not offend him easily. "

"Yeah, I think so too."

As Qin Yuan spoke, he took out some information he had just invaded the spy system and obtained.

"It was too dark outside just now, and there was a woman named Sophia next to me. I didn't carefully identify whether the photo was of Hassan.

Now we have enough time to analyze whether this person is.

If not, how would he know about this past, and what does it have to do with the people in the photos? "

"Don't be anxious first. Let's take our time to think about it. Why don't we show it to Fan Tianlei?"

Chen Jixiang, this kid has now come up with another idea. He wants to show Fan Tianlei the information and clues around him.

At the very least, Fan Tianlei can still recall some of the things that happened at the beginning. Moreover, during the phone call just now, Fan Tianlei was also quite anxious.

If he can't reply in time, he probably doesn't have anything important to do now, so he can have time to reply to their messages.

Chen Jixiang sighed and said in one breath.

"Brother Qin Yuan, I have to say that you are too cautious.

We were finally able to come out and enjoy it, but you still have to live in such a small house and don't even give me a chance to try. I have never lived in a big house. "

“What does the size of the house matter?

What we should be most worried about now is how to solve the problem at hand. Is this guy the spy from our country H?

If he is in the wilderness now, he should be back soon. When he comes back, he will be the first to settle accounts with us. It is better for everyone to be cautious. "

"No way?"

"What's wrong with this? Don't overestimate the other party.

Hassan should be a very cautious person. Don't look at him as rough, but he is still very soft and meticulous in his heart. "

Chen Jixiang has some worries.

"That would be terrible. What if the other party joins forces with that Efit guy to deal with us? They are not vegetarians.

Now, although Norman Kanim is using software on us, generally speaking, it can be regarded as protecting us. If we leave this club, I'm afraid we will be hacked to death as soon as we leave. "

Qin Yuan still doesn't know that Fan Tianlei has been investigated.

He thought that he should discuss the spy issue with Fan Tianlei. He always felt that there was something unknown about it.

If Hassan can help him save these two students of Professor Fang De, it will be a great achievement and it may be able to fulfill his wish.

“Hassan didn’t necessarily mean any harm.

It's just the way he communicates with us that is temporarily difficult for us to accept.

Now that I think about the danger of throwing it in the wilderness, I still feel a little sorry. After all, he didn't do anything too excessive towards us.

Efit, he has lost that batch of arms now and Old K will not let him go. "

"Does that need to be said? When such a person is punished, I feel so happy just thinking about it.

We should have let him suffer his own consequences earlier. When the time comes that there will be no room for him in the organization, he will have no choice but to come to us for help like a lost dog.

Brother Qin Yuan, you can laugh at him as much as you like.

Chapter 2069: Didn't I say not to contact you casually?

In He Chenguang's room, as a spy, of course he has the acumen of a spy and understands that it is not easy for others to hear his conversations in this room.

He is very anxious now and wants to find a suitable time to report to his superiors about Professor Fang De.

Because, just now, he heard the conversation between An Ran and Sophia outside.

Already understood, An Ran is anxiously looking for a special medicine.

It was to treat Professor Fang De's condition. This guy was not something they were allowed to deal with casually.

Professor Fang De is very serious now.

If, if his problem is not solved quickly, the other party will surely seize this time.

If Professor Fang De is really used by country h, the United States and others will have no hope.

Thinking of this, although he and Qin Yuan have established a deep friendship between them, He Chenguang still always remembers that he is not from H country.

It's just that now he doesn't dare to contact his superiors casually.

Before he came to the army to lurk, the order given to him was to only lie dormant and not to activate.

That means, no matter what the circumstances.

If He Chenguang's life safety is not involved, He Chenguang cannot contact his superiors casually. This is the order they gave him.

However, Professor Fang De's problem is indeed very serious now.

It is impossible for the other party to know that this guy has fallen into Fan Tianlei's hands without him reporting it.

Professor Fang De is really too powerful. He is a sharp weapon that can be inserted into other countries at any time.

He Chenguang became very anxious when he thought of this. He had to try to contact his superiors anyway to see if there were any other new orders for him.

The thought of taking the risk and not living in the same room as Qin Yuan might arouse his suspicion.

He Chenguang is still a bit smart. He thinks that after completing this task, his superiors will let him leave Country H.

Now, it might be his last mission.

Therefore, he didn't particularly care about Qin Yuan, and he didn't regard his suspicion as a danger before being exposed.

Having said this, He Chenguang took out a miniature contact phone from his hand.

Looking at this miniature contact phone, he now felt a little entangled in his heart and didn't know how to deal with it for the better.

However, he still did what he wanted.

The phone probably only rang a few times, but the other party still answered.

Because the situation they agreed on was that there was no danger and they could not contact each other casually.

Any casual contact meant that He Chenguang's life was in danger. Facing such a successfully lurking spy, it was impossible for the other party to ignore him.

"What's the emergency?"

"I didn't expect you to answer the phone so late."

"Those who do our job must be on call 24 hours a day. Don't talk to me about such nonsense."

He Chenguang heard the other party telling him these familiar needs without any emotion. He felt mixed feelings in his heart and felt an indescribable discomfort.

"We haven't contacted each other for so long. Don't you care about my situation here at all?"

"You are not the only spy among us. Others are reporting to me about your situation at any time. I know that you have gone to Pakistan.

I understand all the problems you have had recently.

Is there anything else you want to tell me?

We had agreed before that no matter what, we couldn't contact each other casually.

Unless, it is life-threatening.

However, now that your voice is so calm and the environment is relatively quiet, it doesn't seem like a life-threatening situation.

I think you have violated discipline and it is necessary for me to report your situation to my superiors. "

He Chenguang heard that the person opposite him had no emotion towards him. This was just like Qin Yuan treating him as his own brother. The contrast was really too tragic.

"Of course I have important things to report, otherwise I wouldn't have violated the rules. If you want to report my situation to your superiors, just report it. I don't want to continue to lurk."

"You can't regret being in our industry. I told you when you first entered the industry."

"First of all, I have to make a statement.

I have never regretted being a spy.

Even now, I live in fear every day, walking on thin ice. I have never slept peacefully for a day, and I have never regretted my decision.

Because I want to contribute to the country, none of you understand my psychological feelings.

I have no regrets and I can accept any painful situation.

I just don't want to continue to be a person who deceives my good brothers. "

"What a good brother, you don't regard Qin Yuan as your biological brother, do you?"

"Sir, humans are not just grass and trees, so how can we be ruthless?"

This is the most important sentence I learned in country H. We cannot be ruthless and unjust people.

As a spy, there is no conflict with the fact that I have feelings. As long as I can complete the task you assigned me, it will be fine. But so far, you have not assigned me any important tasks. "

"Professor Fang De is not your task, you just need to be able to lurk around them.

You are already very successful. Fan Tianlei and Qin Yuan are both very smart people.

Fan Tiannian and I have been fighting for decades when we were young. Now it's the fight between you and Qin Yuan. It's your turn, young people. "

"I don't want to tell you these useless things, I want to report an important situation.

Professor Fang De is currently in Fan Tianlei's hands, and he has a very serious condition.

Our country needs a special medicine, which only one private hospital has.

I hope you can control it and don't let the other party get it.

As long as we don't get this kind of specific medicine, Professor Fang De doesn't need us to do it ourselves. His condition is enough to kill him. "

After hearing He Chenguang's report, the other party showed a relatively satisfied expression at this time. He felt that this was a very important message, and fortunately it was delivered in time.

"Well, you did a very good job. This news is extremely important to us. As long as we can grasp it well, we won't worry about the other party taking control of this professor.

Professor Fang De ran away from our country, the United States. If he is unwilling to contribute to us, then we can only take his life, either to die or to work for us. He can only choose not to die.

This guy actually took two important apprentices and ran to another place.

People who can't help us have no need to stay in this world. "

The United States has always liked to do things that harm others and do not benefit itself.

As long as other countries are not allowed to develop, they will be happiest.

They are very afraid that other countries will surpass them, so they often do things that harm others and do not benefit themselves, even if they are very contrary to moral principles.

"By the way, those two students of Professor Fangde should be in the hands of Norman Karim."

"Yes, sir, it seems that you know everything clearly and there is no need for me to report to you too much."

"Now I'll give you a new task, which is that these two students of Professor Fang De cannot be successfully brought back by Qin Yuan no matter what."

"Sir, I have also considered the issue you mentioned, but Professor Fang De has been terminally ill for a long time.

These studies of his can only be mastered by his two students.

If these two people are killed, then his research will be completely lost and will never see the light of day. Is it worth it?

This is his life's work. "

"Are you sympathizing with this old professor?"

"No, I'm not sympathizing with him. I don't have any friendship with him. I just think this is something he has been studying for a lifetime, and if we get it, we can be much ahead of the world."

"It's good that you know that what he has studied all his life is not willing to be left to us.

If you are not willing to contribute to our country, you can only destroy it.

What we cannot get, we must not let others get.

Qin Yuan is a very powerful person, you should be careful about him. "

He Chenguang didn't have any emotions. He just felt sorry for Professor Fang De. He knew that if a person focused on doing one thing all his life, if there was no result, he would not be able to rest in peace even if he died.

What's more, this matter also involves two innocent people. They are Professor Fang De's students. They were originally orphaned because of the war.

It was not easy for them to be reborn from the ashes, and studying these things was their only hope to survive.

However, now that he heard the ruthless order from his superiors, He Chenguang was at a loss. He agreed even if he had completely lost his principles, but this was a task that he had to perform as a spy.

If, He Chenguang doesn't agree.

Then he completely violated the tasks and regulations given to him by his superiors. Even if any punishment is given to him, he is still very entangled now.

As an American, he should think about his country.

Nothing can override the interests of the country.

"Did you stay in country H for too long?"

It makes you forget who you are. Don't try to treat Qin Yuan and them as your best friends.

They are not your friends, they should be your enemies. If one day you hold a gun on the battlefield, will you be merciful to them? "

He Chenguang has considered this issue more than once.

Although he now regards Qin Yuan as his best friend, who can guarantee that.

Will they always have this kind of relationship?

Maybe one day the two of them will really turn against each other.

"Sir, I understand what you mean."

"Now that we understand, let's quickly cut off contact.

Remember, if there is nothing special, we should not contact you. The task I give you is to get rid of Professor Fang De.

And of course the two students beside him. If, if you have the ability, you can bring these two students back to our country, it will be considered a great achievement of yours.

If you don't have such ability yourself, don't try to be a savior. "

After saying that, the other party hung up the phone very ruthlessly.

He has never cared about himself, whether he is good or not here.

He Chenguang was lying quietly on the bed. The white bedding made He Chenguang's whole body gone, and his blood was as red as a walking zombie.

Perhaps, this is the best state a spy should have.

On Qin Yuan's side, he took out the relevant information obtained by the spy system and read it again and again, no longer afraid that Jason would know about it.

In contrast, Qin Yuan is more worried about what the other party's real purpose is now. He doesn't want to get into any trouble because of such a trivial matter.

"Chen Jixiang, please help me find out how to contact Fan Tianlei. I just sent him some messages and he didn't respond at all. I don't know what he is busy with."

"It's so late. He should have already slept. He can't be waiting for news from us 24 hours a day."

Qin Yuan felt something was wrong.

Impossible, there is no way Fan Tianlei would just let us stay outside.

He is on tenterhooks for us all the time. He is a very responsible person. If he does not reply to messages, I will have reason to suspect that something is wrong with him.

Jason was also a little worried about Qin Yuan's condition.

His whole body seemed to be hung up.

"Qin Yuan, please don't be so impulsive. Please calm down. The more impulsive you are, the less able you are to think about problems calmly. How could something happen to Fan Tianlei?"

He has always been in the army.

No one can hurt him, so don't think about it so much and just have a good rest.

Early tomorrow morning, I believe there will be relevant actions on Norman Karim's side.

We also need to pay attention to Hassan's problem. Maybe this guy has returned from the unfinished building in the wilderness.

The first thing he did when he came back was to take revenge on us. Fortunately, Norman Karim had already picked up these brothers of mine. "

Hearing that Jason could relax a little, Qin Yuan stopped thinking too much. He was indeed quite tired.

Although, always had an ominous premonition in his heart, but he just blamed it on himself because he hadn't had a good rest for too long and was a little flustered.

Looking at Shen Jixiang next to him, he saw that this boy was already fast asleep.

Qin Yuan walked to him and covered him with a quilt.

"Jason, you should also take a good rest. You are right. We are all a little nervous. The more we are in this situation, the more we need to take a good rest and not embarrass ourselves.

I understand that I am the core figure in our entire team. If I am in any danger, everyone will have no backbone.

He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang were brought out by me personally. No matter what, I had to let them go back safe and sound in order to live up to Fan Tianlei's instructions.

It's just that I didn't expect An Ran to appear here unexpectedly.

What happened? For him to come here so suddenly.

Chapter 2070: Xiaolan's identity remains a mystery

Qin Yuan is not worried about anyone now, he is only worried about An Ran and Fan Tianlei.

Looking at the photo of the so-called spy in his hand, he now had mixed feelings in his heart, and he seemed to regret it a little.

"Chen Jixiang, do you think I am a little too impulsive? It seems that it will implicate Thor."

At this moment, Qin Yuan had already forgotten.

Chen Jixiang, this boy, has been working hard for many days.

He was already overwhelmed and fell asleep on the bed. Even if he said these words to him, it would be meaningless.

Jason didn't fall asleep.

"Qin Yuan, if you don't mind it, you can tell me and I will analyze it for you. Maybe the two of us can rival Chen Jixiang.

Don't think how smart this kid is, he's already sleeping like a dead pig.

Even if you forcefully wake her up, he won't be able to analyze anything useful with you. "

"Jason, I know that you have always regarded me as your best friend, and you are willing to tell me everything and you are not willing to hide anything.

However, I don't want to think about this issue now. It's not that I don't believe you, I just think that we are all very tired and should have a good rest.

That's it. Let's talk about things tonight and tomorrow tomorrow. "

Jason's face was obviously unhappy.

"Look, I'll tell you what, as long as I tell you the truth.

You will definitely not believe me. You will always think that I am suspicious of you as a spy. You did not see it when we were on the shore.

It's impossible for me to hide anything from you. We have all reached this point, and it is the last word to find a way out. "

"Qin Yuan, you'd better have a good rest, we are encountering too many problems now.

Don't look at the girl outside. He seems to be very innocent. I think he has no idea what kind of calculation he is making in his heart. I always feel that he has a strange identity. "

"What's the meaning?"

Jason didn't know why, he was very suspicious of Xiaolan.

"People say that only women have a sixth sense. Men's feelings are just guesses. I'm just guessing. Don't get me wrong.

An Ran, he lives alone in a room. I think it may not be safe. Why don't you take a look at him. "

Qin Yuan thought that this would be fine.

By chatting with An Ran alone like this, maybe he could get him to tell his true thoughts when he came here.

"That's okay too.

Jason, please be well. Just rest here. I'll check to see if he's asleep first. An Ran came here in a hurry. He was also exhausted physically and mentally. Just now, Sophia didn't know what she said to him. "

"Don't worry about Sophia yet.

This woman is obviously Norman Karim's smoke bomb around us. No matter what, don't forget your original goal. "

Qin Yuan looked at Jason saying these words, and he seemed to suddenly realize it.

He felt that he was in a bad way because of these things.

He has now forgotten what his true purpose is.

He was here to save Professor Fang's two students. As long as he strengthened this belief, nothing else mattered.

The underground arms system is not what he should be investigating now.

Even though this is very attractive to him, it has been something he has been investigating for a long time.

It is impossible to give up easily, but Qin Yuan must understand.

What is the real mission in his heart?

As a special soldier, the most important thing is to complete the tasks assigned to you by your superiors.

"Okay, Jason, thank you very much.

I have to say that during this period of time, I was so confused by them that I almost forgot what my main mission was. "

“You just need to remember!

After completing this task, Fan Tianlei will definitely reward you after you return. "

"I can't care about so much right now. As long as An Ran can tell the truth."

Jason looked at Qin Yuan with some confusion.

"What do you mean by that?"

Isn't An Ran your best friend and the person you trust the most?

How could you possibly think that he wouldn't tell you the truth?

Do you think that his sudden appearance around us is a conspiracy.

Or maybe he has been bribed by someone else.

What he and Sophia said next to him were all conveyed by Norman Karim.

You have to admit that no matter what, Norman Karim is indeed very rich.

The conditions offered were irresistible. Pakistan was originally a small place.

It is not easy for him alone to achieve the status of covering the sky with one hand here.

Whatever you want to do, do it.

No wonder He Fei was willing to change from a special soldier to the person he is now.

After all, these are so attractive. Power, money, desire, there is nothing that a person does not pursue throughout his life. "

Qin Yuan lowered his head and smiled.

"Jason, if you want to say that these things are things that I will pursue with all my life, then you are really looking down on me.

Although these things are good, I hope they can be worthy of my own heart. When I chose to be a special forces soldier, I did have other unspeakable secrets.

However, after I came into contact with Fan Tianlei later, he really told me what a real special forces soldier is, and he really told me what the meaning of life is.

Only then did I truly understand what people should pursue in this life.

What you should stick to most is your own heart. As long as it doesn't go against your own heart, you can do anything. "

Qin Yuan left after saying the next word.

"Jason, take a good rest. I'll go check on An Ran."

Qin Yuan gently closed the door and unexpectedly bumped into Xiaolan standing at the door.

He felt very embarrassed now and didn't know what to say, so he could only say it half-jokingly.

"Xiaolan, I really can't believe that your club actually provides bodyguard services.

Are you the club owner and bodyguard?

I don't know how much salary Norman Karim would give you to be worthy of your worries. "

"Qin Yuan, you were very tired after shouting for a long time. I finally found a place for you to rest. If you don't have a good rest, what are you doing out at night?

I don't want to be a bodyguard with you, I just think you are very restless.

What if I encounter any danger and I fail to complete the task assigned to me by my superiors? Then I will have no way to explain. "

"so what?"

"So, what I want to tell you is that nothing happens, so don't wander around.

This club is not safe at night.

If someone comes across him, Bao Qi will report to Norman Karim.

He already doesn't trust you very much. If you let him know that you are restless here, the target person you are looking for may not be safe. "

"Didn't you put me under house arrest in this club? Why don't you let me go out now? You just let me live in this small room because you want to suffocate me to death."

"You must not misunderstand, Qin Yuan.

This is Norman Karim's arrangement for your room, but in the sea view room, during the day, you can see the sea outside by opening the curtains. "

Qin Yuan always felt that Xiaolan's words still had some profound meaning.

However, he now has no more thoughts to speculate on the meaning of what the other party said. He just wants to see An Ran and is not at ease with him.

"You must be worried about An Ran."

"Yes, he is my companion. Isn't it normal for me to worry about him? I want to go see him now. Do you want to go with me?"

"I'm not interested in the story between you, so go ahead.

I'm just casually chatting with you for a few words.

Don't forget your identity, and don't forget that you are always under the surveillance of Mr. Norman Karem.

Don't even think about playing tricks on him, he doesn't do that. "

After he finished speaking, Qin Yuan looked at the little girl and turned away from his sight. He didn't know what he meant by saying these words to him.

It might be just some psychological hints, but his identity is indeed very suspicious.

I always feel like a capable person like him.

If she were by Norman Karim's side, she would definitely be reused like Sophia.

However, he is just the owner of a club, and he also has to obey Sophia's orders, which makes Qin Yuan doubt his identity.

Qin Yuan walked quietly outside An Ran's room. He tiptoed and tried not to let the other party notice his voice.

I want to hear whether An Ran secretly reported anything to Fan Tianlei.

After all, he understood that An Ran would not tell him any news that was detrimental to him.

Only by being sneaky can he get some real information.

However, An Ran has been an agent for so many years.

He knew better than anyone whether there was anyone eavesdropping outside.

After Qin Yuan stood for a long time, An Ran said calmly in the room.

"Since you're already here, why are you still standing outside and not coming in? Do you want me to beg you to come in?"

"You know it's me."

Qin Yuan opened the door and walked towards An Ran with a smile.

"I'm still up so late and want to eavesdrop outside my door. Apart from you, I can't think of anyone else."

"Don't get me wrong. I didn't mean it like that. I didn't want to eavesdrop."

"Don't explain so much to me. We have known each other for so many years. Is there anything else that needs to be explained?"

Tell me quickly, why did you come to see me so late at night?

After I finished talking quickly, I went back to rest and recharge my batteries.

Don't get confused by then.

I don't even have any physical strength left. Although this is mental work, it also requires physical strength. "

"I knew you were very smart.

Well, I want to ask you, what is your mission here?

Let's get straight to the point, there's no need for these roundabout words between the two of us.

"Of course I'm here to help you. Didn't I explain it to you as soon as we met?"

Fan Tianlei doesn't trust you. You have He Chenguang and Chen Jixiang with you.

It is your first time to go abroad to complete a mission, so it is reasonable for him to be a little worried and worried about you. Don't think that he doesn't believe you. "

Qin Yuan said calmly.

"An Ran, don't change the subject for me, I just want to ask you what is your real purpose of coming here.

If Fan Tianlei really didn't believe me, it was impossible for him to let me bring these two people here alone and then regret it. "

"He just felt that you wasted too much time, which was enough to exceed the basic time for completing the task.

You remember when we were training in the army.

What the teacher told us.

Exceeding the task completion time means that your chance of succeeding in the task will be greatly reduced, and they are inversely proportional to each other. "

Qin Yuan really had nothing to refute in his heart.

After all, he has been delayed for such a long time and has indeed exceeded the task limit.

"Anron, you should understand that this time, the person we are facing is Norman Karim.

When he was young, he was Fan Tianlei's opponent. After all these years, I can see today that he is a very shrewd and powerful person, and more importantly, he is ruthless.

We good people are no match for him.

His greatest strength is that he is able to take risks, but we cannot do this.

Black is black, white is white, there is no gray area in the hearts of us special forces soldiers, and it is impossible for me to complete the mission and cross the line.

Fan Tianlei, he has always adhered to this belief, as his right disciple.

It's impossible for me to make him disappointed in me, so don't worry about anything else. "

Qin Yuan wanted to change the topic and let An Ran stun him, but he underestimated An Ran's IQ.

"You're right. This is why I'm worried about you, so I came here to help. Don't let you step over the line. Sometimes this happens when you want to complete your mission."

Qin Yuan looked at An Ran's cell phone clasped on the bed.

"Did you call just now?"

"No. "

"You probably knew I was outside the door, so when you were nervous, you put the phone screen facing the bed. Under normal circumstances, your phone is placed normally."

"Qin Yuan, the trick you mentioned doesn't work on me."

"I thought that just saying it casually would make you feel more nervous."

"We are all our own people. To be honest, I am a little doubtful about Xiaolan's identity. I always feel that he does not seem to belong to Norman Karim because the other party does not particularly believe in him.

If his identity is really exploitable, maybe we can find a breakthrough from him and leave this place. "

"There's no point in us leaving.

The hostages are still in the hands of Norman Karim. If we cannot save these two students of Professor Fang, all our tasks will be unfinished.
