

ONE-CLICK RECOVERY SINCE I WAS A SPECIAL SOLDIER

Chapter 8: Would you like to be mediocre

"Fuck... it smells so good!"

Qin Yuan raised his eyebrows and accepted the system task very happily!
after all.

There are two plaid!

"The most important thing is...when I arrive at the barracks, with the protection of my identity as a soldier, I can kill people with integrity! I will study various skills with integrity! Improve myself!"

Qin Yuan's eyes flashed sharply!

"I, Qin Yuan, will live a lifetime, and come to this magnificent world of special forces. How can I spend this life mediocre?"

"Since I am destined to be a soldier, I, Qin Yuan, must be the most shining and top-notch one!"

"The power of one person shocks the whole world!"

Qin Yuan clenched his fists, his eyes flickered!

Now that there is a chance to stand in this world and universe!

Qin Yuan naturally wants to live his life again!

"Of course, I am a soldier, but there is no advantage, I don't want to!"

Without Fan Tianlei's appearance!

With this super skill, Qin Yuan is able to flourish and grow smoothly even on campus and in society.

Only since the system also lets Qin Yuan serve as a soldier!

Qin Yuan can't go so easily.

Otherwise...

In the words of Zhou Xingxing.

What do you want me to do?

I don't want face?

A little pondered, Qin Yuan's face showed a trace of embarrassment, "Huh? Chief of Staff Fan, when you appeared this time, you actually wanted to invite me to join the army?"

Keng God Fan Tianlei!

For a long time, he was the only one who cheated others!

comes with pit * BUFF!

but now.....

Qin Yuan decided to seek justice for those who have been pitted by him.

Qin Yuan is ready to cheat him!

"Yes, Qin Yuan, you have such a rare talent, you are really a rare top talent among my special soldiers!" When Fan Tianlei heard this, he smiled and started to agitate, "If you join us, we The overall lethality of the special forces team will be even higher!"

"Even with your participation, our special team may complete many impossible tasks!"

"So...Student Qin Yuan, I hope you can carefully consider my invitation."

"The most important thing is! College students who join the army will get better treatment than ordinary young people who join the army! Both the allowance and the retirement fee will be higher~"

Fan Tianlei smiled faintly, temptingly.

"Allowance, retirement pay?"

Qin Yuan couldn't help but sneered, "Chief of Staff, with my superb poker skills, do you think I will be such a superficial person? Going to the army for that little retirement payment?"

Qin Yuan turned around unpredictably, looked at the pool in the distance, turned his back, and said faintly: "I want to make money, it's easy."

Fan Tianlei was startled when he heard the words and suddenly realized.

Indeed!

Qin Yuan's playing cards are flying!

So in terms of gambling skills, I'm afraid it has made some achievements.

may not be the top gambler!

But betting against ordinary people and wanting to win some finances is absolutely very easy!

But according to the information he investigated...

Qin Yuan today.

It can be said that it is still impoverished.

"In this way, this kid Qin Yuan is not only superb gambling skills, but also very noble character!"

"Having an extraordinary gambling skill, he can make money by gambling and make a fortune, but he hasn't done so... This character, this is controlled! Hey, I never dreamed that he would appear in an 18-year-old high school student. Body!"

Fan Tianlei thought excitedly.

Looking at Qin Yuan's eyes, he couldn't help but admire it even more.

All kinds of beautiful words were almost all arranged by Fan Tianlei on Qin Yuan's head.

no way.....

Because over the years, he has seen too many people lose their wives because of gambling and bankrupt their families.

If you are confident that you have a certain gambling skill, Fan Tianlei believes that 90% of people will try it out and complete their dream of getting rich through gambling!

But Qin Yuan did not do this!

"Student Qin Yuan, then you...are not going to join the army?"

Fan Tianlei couldn't help asking.

Such a super talent!

Fan Tianlei vowed to keep it no matter what the price is!

"Sorry, Chief of Staff Fan, I really don't seem to have any reason to be a soldier."

Qin Yuan said with a smile.

He was carefully observing Fan Tianlei's expression.

As expected!

Fan Tianlei listened.

suddenly anxious!

Qin Yuan is not interested in money!

looks at money like dirt!

Then how should I persuade this guy Qin Yuan? Such an outstanding talent?

Family and country righteous?

Still the official rhetoric?

Fan Tianlei's brain began to spin at extreme speed!

Qin Yuan wanted to catch, and turned around to leave.

"No, Qin Yuan, you must be a soldier!"

Fan Tianlei stopped in front of Qin Yuan in a very gaffe, it was a mess.

"Please give me a reason to be a soldier."

Qin Yuan smiled lightly.

to be frank.....

Seeing Fan Tianlei slumped so hard, he was very happy in his heart!

"I regret serving as a soldier for two years, and regretting not serving as a soldier for a lifetime!"

Fan Tianlei blurted out.

"There are hundreds of thousands of people in our country who join the army every year, all soldiers, but millions! Chief of Staff Fan, according to what you said, 99% of people in our country who are not in the army will spend their entire lives in regret?"

Qin Yuan raised his eyebrows and smiled.

Fan Tianlei listened.

can't help being surprised!

Here Qin Yuan...

What a sharp thinking!

This sentence is almost irrefutable!

Didn't expect Qin Yuan's understatement to be resolved?

This is too tough, right?

for an instant.

Qin Yuan's position in Fan Tianlei's heart has risen again!

He finally realized how sharp the thinking of a candidate from Southeast University who was able to enter one of the best universities in the country at UU Reading www.uukanshu.com was!

"Haha, good! What a Qin Yuan! Sure enough, it surprised me!"

After a brief shock, Fan Tianlei couldn't help but laugh.

"Qin Yuan, you soldier, I am going to make it!"

From a few simple conversations, Fan Tianlei once again strengthened his determination to pull Qin Yuan into Langya.

Anyway!

Whatever the price!

He must be enlisted in the army!

"Then what if I really don't go?"

Qin Yuan suddenly felt that talking to Fan Tianlei was quite interesting.

This is not a hypocritical guy. Although he likes to cheat people, he is still quite naive when he is cheated.

"Then I will lead a special forces team and tie you back!"

Fan Tianlei seemed to be smiling but not smiling.

"Well, since Chief of Staff Fan is so sincere, then I will agree to your request!"

"But... I have one condition!"

Looking at Fan Tianlei was indeed very sincere.

Qin Yuan decided not to joke anymore and agreed to his request.

"Huh? It's so easy to agree? What kind of request? Just say it!"

Fan Tianlei was almost stunned when he heard it!

because...

He is still thinking about how to convince Qin Yuan!

did not expect.....

Qin Yuan suddenly changed his mouth.

This makes Fan Tianlei almost like the nectar of a long drought.

"100,000," Qin Yuan said with a light smile, looking at Fan Tianlei, "Chief of Staff Fan, in society, I still have some unfinished wishes to be fulfilled. I need 100,000 yuan for activities. This is only one condition."
