

Special Troop 111

Chapter 111: Everything Comes to an End!

The soldiers of the fourth company knew very well that they still needed to improve a lot. The techniques that Qin Yuan had taught them were all very useful to them.

Under Qin Yuan's training, the strength of the soldiers of the fourth company increased very quickly. Their current ability was higher than that of the logistics company during the military exercise.

In the next month, Qin Yuan taught all the things he could to the soldiers of the fourth company.

Qin Yuan could only do so much. He had been away from the logistics company for almost a month or two, and he did not know how the soldiers were doing.

Beside the jungle camp, the soldiers of the fourth company lined up and waited for Qin Yuan's training requirements for them today.

"Today is the last day of our two-month special training! I hope that you can continue to train like this. After today, I believe that every single one of you will become qualified Chinese soldiers."

Qin Yuan stood in front of the fourth company's troops and looked at his brothers in front of him. A hint of gratification flashed across his eyes.

Although he had only stayed with the soldiers of the Fourth Company for a short two months, it was difficult for Qin Yuan to part with the feelings of the Fourth Company. However, when the time came, it was time for Qin Yuan to leave. Everything comes to an end.

"Commander Qin, are you leaving?"

"Are you! Company Commander Qin!"

Hearing Qin Yuan's words, the group of people in the fourth company immediately asked. Tears welled up in the corners of their eyes. Although Qin Yuan had only been here for two months, their feelings for him were already very deep.

Qin Yuan's training was very cruel, but he was very responsible for each of them. He was also concerned about them. He even made a separate training plan for each of them.

From Qin Yuan's words, they could sense what he meant. Two months had passed so quickly and Qin Yuan was leaving.

"In the past two months, your strength has improved. I have taught you everything that I should teach you. I hope that you can continue to train according to the method I have taught you."

"There's no banquet in the world that never ends. I, Qin Yuan, will accompany you to this point. If there's a chance, we'll still meet again."

“Besides, aren’t you afraid that I’ll continue to scold you after I treat you so ruthlessly?”

Qin Yuan’s eyes were also filled with reluctance. Although he had only managed the Fourth Company for two months, he had deep feelings for the Fourth Company.

“Company Commander Qin, how could we hate you? It’s impossible for our current strength to reach such a level without you.”

Looking at the eyes of the soldiers of the Fourth Company, there was a strong sense of reluctance. The squad leader also looked at Qin Yuan with some reluctance. When he first saw Qin Yuan, he could not imagine that such a young person like Qin Yuan actually had such powerful strength.

Moreover, Qin Yuan’s ability to train soldiers was many times stronger than his.

In the past two months, after Qin Yuan’s training, the overall level of the Fourth Company had reached an unimaginable level.

If their 4th Company were to face the other companies of the entire Iron Fist Regiment, they were very confident that they could defeat them.

In the past two months, Qin Yuan had taught him all kinds of special combat methods, whether it was individual combat or overall combat.

The strength of four companies in two months could be said to have reached a level that even the squad leader could not imagine.

“Don’t worry, everyone! If there’s a chance, we’ll still have a chance to fight side by side! It’s not like we won’t have a chance to meet again!”

“Let’s get on with today’s training first. We’re going back to the camp tonight!”

Qin Yuan comforted the soldiers of the fourth company. He did not expect these soldiers to have such deep feelings for him. However, he still had to take charge of this year’s recruit company.

“Yes, sir!”

“Yes, sir!”

After saying that, the soldiers of the Fourth Company quickly entered their training state. They also knew very well that Qin Yuan could only come to their Fourth Company for a period of time. With Qin Yuan’s training ability, he would have to train the other brothers.

“Company Commander Qin! Are you going back tomorrow?”

After the soldiers of the fourth company went to train, the squad leader walked to Qin Yuan’s side. He had gotten used to Qin Yuan in the past two months.

Now that Qin Yuan suddenly wanted to leave, he was also very reluctant.

“Yes! Squad Leader, my mission is complete! The 4th Company had also learned the skills they needed to learn. This year’s new recruits were coming. The regiment commander wanted me and Instructor Gong to take charge of this year’s new recruits!”

“So, Lao Hei, I’ll leave the brothers of the 4th Company with you. I have already made a detailed training plan.”

“I believe that the brothers of the 4th Company will definitely reach a higher level. I have already given these training methods to the logistics company, and the results are still very good.”

As he spoke, Qin Yuan took out a set of training materials and handed it to the squad leader. This set of materials was exactly the same as the one he had given Zhou Qing before he came to the Fourth Company.

As for how strong the soldiers could be, it would depend on their perseverance.

“So that’s how it is! Commander Qin, I really won’t be used to you leaving. I’ve been used to listening to your orders for the past two months. It would be great if you could stay.”

Lao Hei smiled slightly. For some reason, he felt that Qin Yuan was too similar to his old squad leader. Every time Qin Yuan gave orders, he was exactly the same as his old squad leader. Looking at Qin Yuan, that familiar figure kept appearing in his mind.

“Don’t worry, Lao Hei. If there was a chance in the future, we would still fight side by side.”

Qin Yuan looked at Lao Hei and said with a smile. After getting along with him for the past two months, he realized that Lao Hei was a very sentimental person.

In the past, he had only learned about the squad leader from television dramas, but in reality, the squad leader was more emotional than in television dramas. Especially after listening to the squad leader’s story, Qin Yuan respected this veteran even more.

“Okay! Qin, don’t worry about the brothers of the Fourth Company. If we have a chance to fight side by side, we will definitely give you a different surprise the next time we meet them!”

The squad leader knew that with Qin Yuan’s ability and strength, it was impossible for him to stay in this place forever. The commander probably wanted him to improve the overall strength of the Iron Fist Regiment before leaving.

“Then, Commander Qin, when are you leaving? We have to get together too!” The squad leader asked.

“Tomorrow at noon! I’ve been in the Fourth Company for almost two months now. I wonder how those brats are doing in the logistics company! I have to go back and see them first before going to the new recruits company!” Qin Yuan replied the squad leader.

“Good! Let’s have a good drink when we get back to the camp tonight. Then I’ll go train those kids first. See you tonight, Company Commander Qin!”

“Alright!”

After saying that, the squad leader walked towards the soldiers of the 4th Company who were training..

Chapter 112: Medical Skills?

It was ten in the evening, and the sun was gradually setting in the west. Qin Yuan and Gong Jian also brought the soldiers of the Fourth Company back to the camp.

After two months of brutal training, the soldiers of the 4th Company looked even darker, but their strength had improved.

All of their faces were filled with smiles. How could they not be happy to receive such strength?

Qin Yuan was leaving the next day. The squad leader arranged a farewell banquet for Qin Yuan together with the fourth company. The group of people was very lively tonight. Squad Leader Lao Hei also drank a lot of wine with Qin Yuan. In the end, he went back to the dorm with Gong Jian’s help.

Qin Yuan also had a few drinks with the soldiers of the fourth company before returning to the dormitory. Everyone drank a little. After all, they were not allowed to drink alcohol in the army. Gong Jian had also asked the regiment commander, Kang Lei, about tonight’s event.

After listening to Gong Jian’s report, Kang Lei was extremely happy in the office. He knew that he would definitely not be able to keep Qin Yuan. Even the few chiefs of the military region were paying attention to Qin Yuan at all times.

Also, from Fan Tianlei’s words last time, Kang Lei felt that he was not only interested in Qin Yuan, but also the entire logistics company.

He did not know when Qin Yuan would be poached away. Before he left, Kang Lei also hoped that Qin Yuan could improve their Iron Fist Group.

After Qin Yuan returned to the dormitory, he directly entered the system to check the skill points he had obtained in the past two months.

“System, report my information!”

“The system has received your message. It is currently sorting out your personal data...”

[Host: Qin Yuan]

[Position: Iron Fist Regiment Logistics Company Commander and Acting

Commander of the Sharpshooter Fourth Company!]

[Military Rank: Captain]

[Physique: 68 (10 for a normal person)]

[Skills: Intermediate Eagle Eye (2000 meters), Intermediate radar warning system (500 meters), Advanced special combat technique. (10 times the physical fitness of an ordinary person))

Advanced computer programming. Intermediate Climbing Skill, Intermediate Camouflage Skill, All Weapons and

Firearm Equipment Proficiency, and Advanced Weapon and Equipment

Operation Skill]

[Skill Points: 1805840]

Looking at the skill points he had obtained in the past two months, Qin Yuan was also very satisfied. After all, there was nothing faster than training soldiers to obtain skill points! Qin Yuan looked at his skills. His skills were still enough for him.

Hence, he did not upgrade his skills. These skill points were saved for future use.

After logging out of the system, Qin Yuan fell into a deep sleep. He hadn't had a good sleep in the past two months, especially during the month of special training in the wild. He had to be careful 24 hours a day, afraid that something unexpected would happen.

Early the next morning, after Qin Yuan woke up, there was no one in the camp.

Qin Yuan walked to Gong Jian's office and found him working on some documents.

Dong dong dong.

Qin Yuan gently knocked on the door and walked in.

"Company Commander Qin, you're awake!" Gong Jian said when he saw Qin Yuan walk in.

"Yes, Instructor Gong, what are you doing? Why is there no one in the camp?"

As soon as Qin Yuan got up, he realized that there was no one in the camp.

Moreover, he turned on the radar and scanned the area. He only found Gong Jian alone in the office.

"They all went for field training. Don't they know that you were leaving today? None of them wanted to see the scene of you leaving. They all went for field training early in the morning." Gong Jian explained.

"Aren't these brats all shouting that they can't bear to part with me?" Qin Yuan said with a smile.

"This bunch of brats are like this!"

“Right, Company Commander Qin! This year’s new recruits will be arriving in a few days! This is the name list of our Iron Fist Regiment’s new recruits. Take a look too! The conscription office just sent it to us!”

As he spoke, Gong Jian handed a document to Qin Yuan.

“For this year’s recruit company, the regiment commander wants us to go over and manage the recruit company. Yesterday, I was still thinking about when I could fight side by side with you again. I didn’t expect the regiment commander to call me this morning.”

“In the past, it was my fourth company commander and I who took care of it, but the fourth company commander is still receiving treatment in the hospital. I don’t know when he will recover.”

Gong Jian frowned as he spoke. The Fourth Company Commander’s health was indeed not very good, so Gong Jian was also worried.

“It’ll be fine. You have to believe in the doctors. The fourth company commander will definitely be fine!”

Qin Yuan had also heard about the fourth company commander’s illness, but there was nothing he could do now.

However, when he mentioned this, he thought of the system. He wondered if the system had any skills related to medical treatment.

“Host, page 29 of the system store has medical skills!”

The sudden system voice also shocked Qin Yuan.

“System, can you not suddenly jump out...” Qin Yuan complained helplessly to the system.

After listening to the system notification, Qin Yuan quickly opened the 29th page of the system store. There happened to be a gray Compendium of Materia Medica there.

“Guide to Hundred Herbs? Is this Chinese medicine?” Qin Yuan asked the system directly.

‘Yes!’

After hearing the system’s confirmation, Qin Yuan was also very curious to see if the Compendium of Materia Medica was that powerful.

One had to know that Chinese medicine had a history of thousands of years. The power of Chinese medicine was not something that Western medicine, which had only been developed for a few hundred years, could compare to!

It was just that many people had forgotten many of the traditional Chinese medicine techniques. In addition, many of the pharmacopeias had been lost and passed down, causing the current situation of traditional Chinese medicine to be even more difficult.

Qin Yuan looked at the skill points that needed to be exchanged.

“Two million?”

“Two million Skill Points for this Medicinal Book?”

When Qin Yuan saw that this Pharmacopeias cost 2 million skill points, he immediately cut off his desire to exchange for it.

“Yes, this contains the treatment methods for all the difficult and miscellaneous diseases in this world. Its value is not something that these two million skill points can compare to!”

“If it wasn’t for the system’s analysis of the host and the fact that the host would require medical insurance in future missions and training, the exchange points for this Pharmacopeias would have been reduced. Otherwise, the host wouldn’t have been able to exchange for 2 million skill points.”

Although the system said so, Qin Yuan’s heart still twitched when he saw the 2 million skill points.

Looking at his 1.8 million skill points, Qin Yuan could only watch helplessly.

“It seems that I can only exchange for this skill after training the new recruits. I just don’t know if there is a cure for the fourth company commander’s illness.”
Qin Yuan sighed helplessly in his heart.

Although Qin Yuan really wanted to see if the contents were worth the exchange point, the conditions did not allow it!

Chapter 113: Zhou Qjing was not Playing by the Rules?

Qin Yuan then chatted with Gong Jian for a long time about this year’s recruit training and work.

It was almost 11 o’clock.

“Instructor Gong, I’ll go back to the logistics company first.”

!!

Qin Yuan picked up the recruit’s information and got up to walk out.

“That’s true. I almost forgot. Company Commander Qin, you’ve been in our company for two months and haven’t gone back yet. You can go back first.”
Gong Jian stood up to send him off.

“Instructor Gong, you don’t have to send me off. I’ll just go back for a few days and see how those bastards’ training is going while I’m away! Then I’ll take my leave first!”

“Commander Qin, I’ve experienced your training methods and abilities. I guess they won’t dare to neglect their training.” Gong Jian laughed.”

Of course.

Qin Yuan thought to himself.

After not seeing them for two months, he still missed these brats a little. He waved at Gong Jian and sped up to the logistics company.

Two hours later, Qin Yuan arrived at the logistics company’s gate that he was familiar with. This time, he ran back directly. He was happy to do this kind of thing that could improve himself and earn skill points.

“Do you think that person is the company commander?”

A soldier from the Second Platoon who had just finished his physical training pulled Geng Hu to the field to practice with the equipment. When he saw a person walking over from the main entrance, he asked Geng Hu, who was beside him.

“You brat, the commander has been away for two months and he didn’t even come back to see us. Why would he come back now?”

Geng Hu said sourly.

Although Ge Hu said so, his body was very honest, leaning forward with his eyes wide open like a copper bell.

It was no wonder.

In the logistics company, all the soldiers had a deep relationship with Qin Yuan. Geng Hu was even more so. After a few months of getting along, he trusted Qin Yuan from the bottom of his heart.

Qin Yuan walked on the road and looked at the familiar scene of the logistics company. He could not help but sigh.

He was back, but he had to leave again in two days. He had to lead the new recruits again. Now, he really didn’t have much time to stay in the logistics company!

Qin Yuan had already activated his warning radar skill, so he had heard the conversation between Geng Hu and the other two kids.

“Alright, Geng Hu, this brat’s skin is itching again after not seeing him for two months!”

Qin Yuan thought to himself and walked towards the two of them.

As they got closer and closer, Geng Hu saw that the figure not far away was his company commander, Qin Yuan. After confirming that the company commander had returned, Geng Hu asked the soldier from the second platoon to go back and inform the deputy company commander and the instructor.

Then, he immediately ran toward Qin Yuan.

“Company commander, didn’t you go to the 4th Company to train those kids? Why did you come back to see us?”

“You don’t know how much we missed you when you weren’t around!”

Geng Hu was extremely happy to see Qin Yuan return. They had not gotten used to Qin Yuan’s absence for the past two months. If the instructor had not forbidden them from going to the Fourth Company, they would have gone to the Fourth Company to visit Qin Yuan.

“What’s wrong? Are you unhappy to see me back? Or did you have a good time while I was away?”

Looking at Geng Hu, who was wearing a muddy and sweaty training uniform, looking at him with a pair of bright eyes, Qin Yuan also swept his gaze around Geng Hu and sighed in his heart.

“Geng Hu seems to have improved again. He must have been training hard while I was away.”

“Raise your hands and turn around!”

Geng Hu was stunned for a moment, but his movements were not slow at all. He quickly raised his arms and turned around. He did not know what Qin Yuan was doing!

Peng...

Qin Yuan raised his right foot and kicked Geng Hu’s butt. Geng Hu was sent flying.

“F * ck! Company commander... Why did you attack as soon as you come back!”

After being kicked away by Qin Yuan, Geng Hu realized that the company commander was still their company commander. He was still as ruthless as ever!

When they found out that Qin Yuan was back, Zhou Qing and Liu Ye quickly ran out.

Seeing this, Zhou Qing smiled and said to Liu Ye,

“Company Commander Qin is still the same Company Commander Qin! Hahaha, didn’t Geng Hu keep saying that he was going to find the company commander?”

“Isn’t that so? When have you ever seen the company commander stir up emotions? If he can make a move, he won’t miss it!”

Liu Ye smiled and took out his whistle.

Beep!

“Emergency assembly!”

In just 20 seconds, the entire company of soldiers had gathered.

“Company Commander, the entire company has assembled. To welcome the return of the Company Commander, all the soldiers of the company have prepared a gift for the Company Commander.”

Liu Ye stood in front of the team and reported to Qin Yuan after arranging the formation.

“What’s going on with these kids? Why are they all so formal?” This was the first time Qin Yuan had seen Liu Ye so formal. He was also very curious about what kind of big gift the logistics company was preparing to give him.

“Execute immediately.”

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, the entire formation suddenly disbanded. Everyone quickly ran to the room, carried the weights on their backs, and began the 20-kilometer field training.

Very quickly.

Geng Hu was the first to finish running, followed by the second and the third...

After the last person finished running, Qin Yuan looked at his watch.

Not bad. The overall result was five minutes faster than two months ago. Qin Yuan was very satisfied with this result. Everyone in the logistics company had also improved.

In a company-level unit, the company commander was responsible for the military quality, and the instructor was responsible for ideology.

If a soldier gave a gift to the company commander, no gift could compare to the training of the entire company.

This was the best gift.

Qin Yuan was very touched. These kids were really hardworking.

“Everyone, get ready to eat. The afternoon training will proceed as usual, and there will be an extra meal at night.”

Qin Yuan said to everyone.

At night, in the company cafeteria.

“What? You’ve just arrived but you have to lead the new recruits and you’re leaving in three days.”

Zhou Qing asked.

“Yes, the regiment commander arranged for the Fourth Company Commander to lead the troops in the past. Now, the Fourth Company Commander is in the hospital and we don’t know when he will be back.”

Qin Yuan explained.

“Oh right, I’ve been training in the wild this month and collected some things to make a secret recipe. I’ll give it to you later to add in when you make rice porridge in the morning. It’ll be helpful to them.”

“What about their training?”

“Continue practicing according to the plan I gave you.”

“Alright, come, let’s have a toast. You’ve been away for so long, and I’ve missed you too. It’s just that you came and left in a hurry now. Let’s have a good drink tonight and not go home until we’re drunk.”

After saying that, Zhou Qing raised his wine glass and downed it in one gulp.

Then, everyone in the logistics company learned that Qin Yuan was about to leave.

Everyone also knew that with Qin Yuan’s ability, the higher-ups would definitely let him train the other brother companies!

However, they all knew that Qin Yuan would not leave any of them behind.

In the past three days, Qin Yuan had talked to everyone, pointing out their shortcomings and giving them methods to correct them. He also made some slight changes to the previous training plan and handed it to Liu Ye. Zhou Qing and Liu Ye were now plotting to give Qin Yuan a big gift.

Three days passed quickly.

At ten in the morning, the entire company gathered to send Qin Yuan off.

Qin Yuan did not like to part. He wanted to leave quietly, but Zhou Qing did not let him. Just as Qin Yuan finished speaking and was about to turn around to leave, Zhou Qing said,

“All of you, target your company commander and take him down immediately!”
Zhou Qing ordered the entire company.

Qin Yuan staggered and was stunned.. What was going on? Zhou Qing was not playing by the rules?

Chapter 114: He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing Are Here!

In an instant, all the soldiers charged forward and attacked Qin Yuan with heavy fists. Geng Hu was at the front.

“Great, you’re all waiting for me.”

Qin Yuan immediately reacted and rolled his eyes at Zhou Qing.

“Good! It just so happens that I would like to see how you’ve been training these two months!”

Qin Yuan dodged Geng Hu’s punch and kicked Geng Hu’s waist. Even though Geng Hu reacted quickly and used his arms to block, he was still kicked three meters away.

“First one.”

Qin Yuan shouted as he rushed forward. He threw another punch, and a soldier fell to the ground in pain.

“Second one.”

“Third one!”

After dealing with everyone, Qin Yuan panted heavily and looked at Zhou Qing.

Zhou Qing quickly shook his head. “No, no. Company Commander Qin, you can leave. I’m just trying to stimulate them to train and let them see the gap so they don’t get complacent just because they’ve achieved a little result..

Qin Yuan also smiled.

“Alright, I’ll leave first. They’ll be relying on you for this period of time.” Qin Yuan walked out as he thought to himself.

This group of brats’ strength had really increased greatly. Their overall strength was estimated to be on par with Lone Wolf Group B.

Fortunately, his special combat technique had been upgraded to advanced level. If not, it would not be easy to deal with them the next time he came back.

As he spoke, Qin Yuan ran towards the regimental headquarters. Before he returned, he had also arranged to meet Gong Jian at the regimental headquarters.

On the square in front of the Iron Fist Regiment’s auditorium.

Two Liberation trucks slowly drove in, and a group of recruits dressed in winter training uniforms got out.

After they got out of the car, they looked around curiously. They were surrounded by the Iron Fist Regiment’s flags.

In front of each company’s flag stood two soldiers in their usual uniforms. They held their heads high and puffed out their chests.

The recruits were talking in low voices.

“Squat down.”

“Squat down.”

Following the two orders of the squad leader, people began to squat down one after another.

He Chenguang was confused. Why did they have to squat down?

Before he could say anything, he was pulled down by Li Erniu.

“Hello everyone, I am Gong Jian, the instructor of the recruit company. It is a pleasure to meet you all. Do you know why I asked you to squat? Because if you stand, it will affect the scenery here. Although you are wearing military uniforms, you don’t look like soldiers.”

“I don’t want to see people in military uniforms but not looking like soldiers appear in front of me, so you all have to squat down.”

Gong Jian shouted at the crowd and continued, “The place you are at is the Iron Fist Regiment. The Iron Fist Regiment is an iron fist that has been tempered in war. Don’t talk to me about peaceful times when you’re here. Soldiers only fight and prepare for war.”

“You came here to prepare for war. Iron Fist Regiment, be on your guard prepare for war!”

When he shouted the Iron Fist Regiment, all the veterans present, including Qin Yuan, shouted together.

At this moment, Qin Yuan noticed He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing in the team. They were indeed the same as those in the TV series in his original world. He Chenguang was arrogant, and Wang Yanbing was even more arrogant.

Qin Yuan had been paying attention to the two of them, so their every move was in Qin Yuan’s line of sight.

Another person’s appearance surprised Qin Yuan. Fatty Zhang, Zhang Dajun, was also on the team. He said that he would be a soldier, and he really came.

They were even assigned to the Iron Fist Regiment and were under him. Presumably, this was the work of the elders.

“The honor of the Iron Fist Regiment was forged with the blood of martyrs. We can’t tarnish their reputation. Do you understand?”

Gong Jian continued to speak and asked everyone.

“Understood.” There were only a few weak voices in response to him.

Gong Jian looked at Qin Yuan and shook his head. Qin Yuan waved his hand and gestured for him to do it.

“He Chenguang.” Gong Jian shouted.

“Yes.” He Chenguang stood up and replied.

“Just now, the instructor told you that the honor of the Iron Fist Regiment was forged with the blood of martyrs. We can’t tarnish their reputation.” Qin Yuan asked with a serious expression.

“Got it.”

“Louder, I can’t hear you.”

“Got it.” He Chenguang replied loudly.

“He Chenguang, why did you join the army?”

“Protect the country.” He Chenguang’s answer was firm and forceful.

“Comrades, He Chenguang’s father is also a soldier. He was an excellent sniper in our special forces. During a mission to chase after a drug dealer, in order to save his injured comrade, he attracted the attention of the drug dealers and fell into the encirclement of the drug dealers. In the end, he killed 12 drug dealers and sacrificed himself heroically. Comrades, how should we address his father?” Qin Yuan looked at everyone affectionately.

“Martyr, hero...” At this moment, everyone’s voices were clearly louder.

“Then let me ask everyone again. The honor of the Iron Fist Regiment is forged with the blood of martyrs. We can’t tarnish their reputation.”

“Got it.” At this moment, everyone’s voices became very loud, and everyone’s hearts slowly changed.

“All rise.”

“Stand properly. A soldier must act like a soldier.”

At this moment, everyone slowly straightened their bodies.

Although it was not standard, it was much better than when he had just gotten out of the car.

Gong Jian could not help but look at Qin Yuan. Qin Yuan opened his mouth and said,

“What the instructor just told you is the first lesson you need to learn when you come to the army. Honor. Do you know what honor is? The instructor wants to tell you that the moment you put on your military uniform, you don’t belong to yourself. You belong to the army, the country, and the people. This military uniform represents honor. We can’t tarnish their reputation. So I hope that from this moment on, you will always remember it. Do you understand?”

“Understood.”

“I’m Qin Yuan, your new recruit company commander. I’ll be spending the next three months with everyone. I’ll lead everyone and do my best to train everyone from a new recruit who doesn’t know anything to an excellent soldier. I hope we can work together happily.”

“The person in front of me is our Iron Fist Regiment’s Second Class Sergeant Major. He is your squad leader. Everyone calls him Squad Leader Lao Hei. I’ll hand you over to Squad Leader Lao Hei. I hope you can have a pleasant cooperation with him.” Qin Yuan said and left the venue with the instructor.

“Hello everyone, I’m Squad Leader Lao Hei. They all call me that, but you can’t.

You can only call me Squad Leader. Before you leave the recruit company, I will be your nightmare. You will become your weapon.”

“He Chenguang.” “Yes.”

“What’s your name?”

“Sir, my name is He Chenguang.”

“What’s your name now?”

“Sir, recruit.”

“Correct. You are a soldier, a recruit. Do you understand?”

“Yes, Squad leader.”

At this moment, Wang Yanbing muttered disdainfully. Tsk, soft persimmon. “Who’s talking? Who’s talking?”

“Sir, I’m the one speaking.” Li Erniu answered.

However, just as Li Erniu finished speaking, Wang Yanbing also spoke up.

“Prepare for push-ups...”

This was a little different from the original.

“Maybe he was affected by my words just now,” Qin Yuan thought.

Although they had left the square, Qin Yuan had been paying attention to them. He had already thought of a way to lead these soldiers.

On the first day, he would let Lao Hei give them some information. After tonight, Qin Yuan would let them get into the mood quickly.

Let them know what it meant to be in the army. The most comfortable day was yesterday.

He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing were definitely good seedlings, especially He Chenguang, who was a good seedling for the Sergeant Major.

The sun was about to set.

The recruits who had been training for the entire afternoon carried their luggage and gathered at the company’s field.

Qin Yuan divided the recruits into squads.

He Chenguang, Wang Yanbing, Li Erniu, and Zhang Dajun were assigned to the same squad. Their squad leader was Lao Hei.

After putting down their luggage, everyone began to make their beds. “He Chenguang, the company commander is looking for you.”

He Chenguang quickly packed up and walked to the commander’s room.

Dong dong dong dong

“Come in..”

Chapter 115: Qin Yuan Is A Little Unusual Today(

In the commander's room.

At this moment, Qin Yuan was sitting at the table.

Qin Yuan took a look at the physical fitness of each of the recruits in this batch and recorded them in the system.

This batch of recruits was outstanding, especially He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing.

He Chenguang. [Physique: 28 (10 for a normal person)]

Wang Yanbing. [Physique: 24 (10 for a normal person)]

These two brats had such a physique when they just entered the army. As expected, the local TV series did not lie to me.

The knock on the door interrupted Qin Yuan's thoughts.

"He Chenguang? Come in." He knew that the person outside the door was He Chenguang through the radar warning system.

He Chenguang pushed open the door and saw Qin Yuan sitting at the table looking at him. He closed the door and walked over.

"Company commander, the squad leader said you were looking for me?"

"Come, Chenguang, sit down first." Qin Yuan pointed at a chair at the side and said softly.

This company commander looks quite friendly. Why do those soldiers say that our new company commander is a ruthless person! He looked much gentler than the instructor and the squad leader.

He Chenguang quickly sat down. "It's your first day in the army. Are you used to it?"

Qin Yuan asked with concern.

"Commander, I'm used to it." He Chenguang sat up straight and replied.

"There's no need to be so formal in private. Once we enter the army, we're all brothers."

Qin Yuan handed He Chenguang tea.

"I called you here to apologize to you and then discuss something. It's actually a mission. I don't know if you're confident in completing it."

"Apologize?" He Chenguang asked doubtfully. "Mission? Commander, just say it."

"Yes, I apologize to you. Today, in the square in front of the auditorium, in order to give you recruits a lesson and educate them, I mentioned your father. I'm sorry, I hope you can forgive me." Qin Yuan said solemnly.

He Chenguang waved his hand and said, "Commander, it's okay. My father has always been my benchmark. I've always been proud of him. I'm very proud that you mentioned him today. I also want to be like my father."

"Your father used to be a soldier in our Iron Fist Regiment. He has outstanding achievements in all aspects, especially in shooting skills. He is one of the best in our entire military region. He is a very outstanding person. It is not an exaggeration to call him the Soldier King. He has always been the benchmark for all the soldiers in our Iron Fist Regiment." Qin Yuan asked expectantly.

"I can definitely do it." He Chenguang was full of confidence.

Qin Yuan looked at He Chenguang with admiration.

"You were a boxing champion before you joined the army. Your physical fitness and all other physical qualities are very good. You grew up in the quad and your thinking and style are very upright. You have all the characteristics of an excellent soldier."

"But you're very proud. This isn't a weakness. I hope you can use this personality well. Be the vanguard, fight for the first place, do everything I arrange well, and be a good role model for all the soldiers."

"I promise to complete the mission." He Chenguang had a determined look on his face.

"Okay, I believe you. Do your best and call Wang Yanbing over."

Qin Yuan looked at He Chenguang's back as he left and could not help but think.

He Chenguang is indeed a good soldier. Now that he has met me, I will turn him into a soldier king, a super soldier, an invincible soldier who can take on a hundred soldiers alone.

Who did not like good soldiers, let alone Qin Yuan who had transmigrated? He knew He Chenguang too well and liked him too much.

"Commander, you were looking for me?"

Pushing open the half-closed door, Wang Yanbing looked at Qin Yuan and asked.

"Come in. Remember to greet next time." Qin Yuan said expressionlessly.

"Yes." Wang Yanbing coughed lightly.

Seeing that Wang Yanbing was still a little unconvinced, Qin Yuan immediately asked,

"Wang Yanbing, why did you join the army?"

"In order to prove my strength, I just want to be the strongest. I heard that there are many strong people in the army, so I came." Wang Yanbing said confidently.

This kid was really arrogant and did not know his limits.

“What do you think about the squad leader’s training this afternoon?”

“Sir, I’m not satisfied.

“Oh, why?”

“I think I’m stronger than him.”

“Is that so? In what way?”

Wang Yanbing was speechless and did not know how to answer.

“Then do you respect those who are stronger than you?”

“I... I do.” Wang Yanbing answered after thinking for a long time.

“Alright, starting tomorrow, I’ll personally organize the training. I’ll let you see what a strong person is.”

Wang Yanbing was a troublesome soldier, and he was also a rare good soldier. Qin Yuan knew that dealing with such a soldier was like cutting a chaotic horse with a swift knife. He had to make Wang Yanbing completely convinced in an instant and change his mind as soon as possible.

Then, he found Zhang Dajun.

This kid was still so fat two months ago. Looking at him today, he had lost quite a bit of weight. His previous three chins were gone, and he had become a double chin. His stomach was also a little flat. He must have put in a lot of effort to enter the army.

As expected, the charm of a beautiful woman was limitless.

To be able to make Fatty Zhang, who had been strong since he was young, grow fat, did not like sports, and was idle, decide to join the army.

Therefore, sexual relationships were quite motivating for some people.

“Boss, you’re too amazing. You’re already a company commander at such a young age. Why didn’t you tell me before? You look so handsome today!”

Zhang Dajun pushed open the door and walked towards Qin Yuan, looking at him with admiration.

Qin Yuan raised his foot and kicked Zhang Dajun to the door.

“Ask for permission then come back in.” Qin Yuan said seriously.

What was going on with Boss? Zhang Dajun thought.

“Ask for permission then come in again. Didn’t you hear me?” Qin Yuan glared at Zhang Dajun and said.

“Sir. ”

“Come over and stand properly.” Fatty Zhang walked over.

“Why did you join the army?”

“Sir, in order to become as outstanding as the company commander.”

“Very good. You are my brother. Now that you have come to me, you can’t be worse than anyone else. Also, in all situations, you must address me as Company Commander, understand?”

“Understood.’

Qin Yuan wanted Zhang Dajun to understand that even though the two of them had been brothers since they were young, he was no different from other soldiers in the army. Therefore, he had to correct him on this point. He hoped that from this moment on, he would understand that Qin Yuan would not take care of him just because he was a brother.

Just like that, Qin Yuan had simple communication with all the recruits. After all, they had just entered the army, he wanted them to understand the lifestyle of the army.

Before turning off the lights, Qin Yuan washed up and prepared to rest. “Company Commander Qin, I think there’s something wrong with you.’ Gong Jian pushed open Qin Yuan’s door and walked in. He asked,

“Have you changed your personality? It’s not like you.. Don’t you usually train and train again the moment you arrive? Why did you talk to all the recruits today?”

Chapter 116: Putting New Recruits in Their Place!

“Instructor, why are you here? Come and sit.”

Qin Yuan did not rush to answer. He first pulled a chair over for Gong Jian and explained,

“Instructor, I’m sure you know the reason why I’m doing this. When new recruits join the company, the most important thing is to build their minds and train their physical strength. They just arrived today, so I can’t train them to death the moment they arrive. I have to give them some time, a buffer period, so that they can be prepared mentally.”

“Good, Old Qin. As expected of the person that Regiment Commander Kang has taken a fancy to. You’re both civil and martial, have excellent military qualities, have high awareness, and also proficient in leading troops.”

How could Gong Jian not understand this? He was a top student at the National Defense University and the instructor of the 4th Company. Leading troops was also his forte.

Then he asked, “How long do you plan to let them prepare mentally?”

“One night, just tonight. Although you’re the one in charge of this, this batch of soldiers is different from the past!”

“Qin Yuan, it’s still you. This year’s batch of soldiers is indeed much better than the previous ones. I just don’t know how you plan to treat them!” Gong Jian looked at the serious Qin Yuan and said with a smile.

“Did you see that, Captain Qin? This batch of new recruits has a good overall quality, and there are two outstanding individuals. I’m afraid many veterans can’t compare to them in physical training this afternoon,” Gong Jian said. Obviously, Gong Jian had his eyes on He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing.

“Then I’ll leave the training to you!”

“Don’t worry! It was still the same. Just like before, let’s train them like we did with the fourth company!”

Qin Yuan knew that if he was right, He Chenguang and the others were sent to the Iron Fist Regiment by Fan Tiankeng.

However, soldiers like them were like a rare breed of horses that had caught the eye of both Qin Yuan and Gong Jian.

Unknowingly, the two of them talked late into the night.

At five o’clock in the morning, on the field of the recruit company.

Qin Yuan, Gong Jian, the squad leader, and the other squad leaders were already up.

“Lao Hei, let’s do this.”

Listening to the conversation between the two company commanders, Lao Hei couldn’t help but ponder. Then, he asked,

“This recruit training has just begun. Is there a need to be so ruthless?”

“Lao Hei, just do as I told the instructor. It won’t be a problem.”

Qin Yuan replied.

Lao Hei did not hesitate anymore. He blew the whistle in his hand. His mission was to cooperate with Qin Yuan and the others. It could only be said that the recruits this year were a little miserable. They met Qin Yuan as soon as they arrived in the army. The squad leader could only pity them in his heart.

“Get up, gather the entire company.”

After a few minutes, the entire company was assembled.

Qin Yuan stood in front of the recruits and said,

“Hello, comrades. I believe that after a night of rest, everyone has a basic understanding of the army. I also believe that after a night of rest, everyone has already adapted to life in the army.”

“I’m Qin Yuan, the company commander of the Iron Fist Regiment’s logistics company.”

“Sir.”

Before Qin Yuan could finish, he was interrupted by a soldier.

“Speak.”

“What does the logistics company do?” Li Erniu asked.

“Logistics company is responsible for storing and supplying materials to all units of the regiment when needed. Specifically, it involves activities such as pig farming and vegetable cultivation.”

“I’m familiar with that. I used to grow vegetables with my grandmother at home. I also have a chef’s certificate.” Li Erniu said.

When the recruits heard that the company commander was in charge of logistics, they could not help but have some thoughts in their hearts.

They came to the army to become soldiers, expecting to handle various weapons such as airplanes and cannons and to train in the barracks to become capable of dominating the battlefield and galloping across the world.

It could be said that this was what most recruits thought.

However, this company commander was in charge of logistics. Why would the army let him train their recruits? Did they ask the logistics company’s company commander to teach them how to raise pigs?

Everyone couldn’t help but feel indignant. Wang Yanbing even laughed out loud.

Qin Yuan could tell what everyone was thinking through their expressions, but he ignored them.

He thought to himself, ‘You guys will suffer later.’ He continued,

“Alright, stop talking, and let me finish.”

“Our instructor, Gong Jian, is the instructor of the Sharpshooter 4th Company.

Do you know why it is called the Sharpshooter 4th Company? Because in the 4th Company, there are more than 100 soldiers, and every one of them is a sharpshooter. Our squad leader Lao Hei is also a soldier of the 4th Company...”

Qin Yuan spoke for ten minutes, explaining the history of the Iron Fist Regiment to the recruits. He also introduced each company.

He then gave the recruits a simple explanation of the training plan.

Then, he asked Lao Hei to arrange the training and carry it out immediately.

“Everyone, change into your fitness suits. In two minutes, gather at the 400-meter track. If anyone is late within the stipulated time, the entire company will be punished and dismissed.”

He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing were the first to react after the squad leader finished speaking. They immediately rushed back to the squad room. When the others saw this, they quickly went back to collect their clothes.

Two minutes later, at the starting point of the 400-meter runway, the entire company of soldiers had gathered.

“Everyone, get ready for five kilometers.”

He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing quickly rushed out and ran to the front of the team. The others were unwilling to fall behind and followed closely behind.

He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing, these two enemies, were always at odds with each other, trying to prove that they were stronger than the other party.

The two of them sprinted with all their might and quickly pulled away from the recruits behind them.

After one lap, Lao Hei, the squad leader, checked the time and couldn't help but admire their speed. They could even keep up with the veterans with this speed. I'll take these two boys for my Fourth Company,

After two laps, the two of them slowed down. They were still bickering as they ran.

“The two of you, use all your strength and stop talking, run faster.”

The squad leader roared.

Qin Yuan had been standing on the side of the track since early on. At this moment, behind him, the soldiers of the logistics company were fully armed. Each of them had fifteen kilograms of stones in their backpacks.

As the timer in the squad leader's hand reached three minutes, Qin Yuan spoke.

“Logistics Company.”

“Yes.”

“All of you, gear up with your weapons and 30 pounds load, we're starting the 5 - kilometer armed march now.”

Qin Yuan only wanted the logistics company to give these recruits a little blow. To be honest, letting the current logistics company show its strength to these recruits was a little like using a sledgehammer to kill a chicken.

All of a sudden, all the soldiers of the logistics company rushed out together. The weight of 30 pounds was like a toy to the logistics company.

They were extremely happy today. During the afternoon training, the deputy company commander told them that the company commander had asked them to attack this group of recruits. Without even thinking, a group of people rushed over to the recruit company.

They didn't split up and run alone. Instead, they advanced in a square formation.

Their speed was extremely fast. Soon, they overtook a recruit and then overtook the second recruit. They kept surpassing them.

He Chenguang saw the commotion from afar.

He didn't know what was going on when he saw them carrying backpacks.

It was only when they started running that he realized that this group of seasoned soldiers had been pulled over by the company commander to rub off their spirit.

Of course, he wasn't convinced, so he secretly increased his pace.

However, this made Wang Yanbing suffer.

Of course, he wasn't convinced by He Chenguang. However, he had already made a few rounds, and this kid could still speed up. Although it was very tiring, he still followed.

Their speed was definitely not slow.

However, the logistics company was even faster. In a short while, they had already surpassed He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing.

The soldiers of the logistics company kept surpassing them.

The squad leader looked at the soldiers of the logistics company and couldn't help but exclaim. The soldiers of the logistics company were indeed different. It was as if this was just a game to the logistics company.

All of them did not even breathe heavily. Fortunately, the Fourth Company had been trained by Qin Yuan for two months, but it was undeniable that the gap between the Logistics Company and the Fourth Company had widened..

Chapter 117: Are You Sure They Are Logisticians?

The soldiers of the logistics platoon quickly finished the short five-kilometer run. For them, this level of training was like child's play. If it weren't for Qin Yuan's clear instructions to just give the new soldiers a taste of it, they would have finished much earlier.

Lao Hei looked at the time: 16 minutes and 25 seconds. This was an impressive result, but as he watched the logistics soldiers, he couldn't help but feel a little envious.

A few seconds later, He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing also crossed the finish line. However, the moment they finished running, they fell to the ground and panted heavily. Their sweat had already soaked their clothes, forming a sharp contrast with the people from the logistics company standing at the finish line. They had already used all their strength to catch up with the logistics company, but they felt that these veterans were messing with them. As long as they sped up, they would speed up. When they slowed down, these veterans would also slow down.

After a few minutes, a few other recruits also ran to the finish line with difficulty. Among them, there was no lack of recruits who fainted midway. After the last few recruits finished running, Qin Yuan walked towards the finish line.

“Logistics Company! Gather!”

In less than ten seconds, the logistics company gathered without any hesitation. As Qin Yuan's subordinates who had been trained for so long, there was no voice that could make them obey orders so quickly.

"Recruit Company, assemble!"

After the logistics company was assembled, the squad leader immediately gave the order to gather the recruits.

Just like that, the two teams faced each other. They were only seven to eight meters apart. The soldiers of the logistics company looked forward in an orderly manner. Their eyes still revealed the murderous aura of a soldier! This aura of the entire team was reflected at this moment. The new recruits of the other team were also affected by the army's aura.

At this moment, Qin Yuan walked to the side and remained silent. He wanted let these recruits see what a soldier was. A real soldier could make the enemy tremble just by standing there!

As for the new recruits, they were lazy and listless. They stood limply, as if another gust of wind would blow them away.

After comparing, the gap between the two teams was obvious.

On the side of the recruits, He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing stood the most upright. They stared at the soldiers of the logistics company in front of them with firm eyes. There was no trace of retreat in their eyes. The two of them could also feel the steel temperament of the soldiers from the logistics company. This also aroused the two's competitiveness.

Although they had not outrun the group of seasoned soldiers just now, it did not mean that they would admit defeat just because of this.

He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing, who stood out in the recruit company, also attracted the attention of the logistics company.

After sizing each other up for a few minutes, Qin Yuan finally spoke.

"Logistics Company, everyone, take off your backpacks and pour the contents out in front of you."

"Yes, sir!"

"Yes, sir!"

The loud and clear voice of the logistics company instantly reverberated throughout the entire training ground. The recruits were also shocked by the voices of these dozens of people. Each and every one of them looked at the logistics company team.

As the soldiers of the logistics company opened their backpacks.

There was a series of clattering sounds.

All the bricks in the backpack fell down.

Looking at the pile of bricks, He Chenguang roughly calculated in his heart. The weight was at least 50 pounds. Although his eyes did not soften, he still admired the veterans of the logistics company.

“You bastard! Are they logisticians? Are you kidding me? Since when were logisticians so strong?”

“Isn’t the logistics company just raising pigs? Don’t they grow vegetables and manage logistics?” Wang Yanbing’s defense was broken at this moment. When he thought about how he couldn’t catch up to the soldiers of the logistics company even with light equipment, this directly broke his initial understanding of the logistics company.

As for the other recruits, they were even more surprised. Carrying so many bricks and running so fast, how could this be possible! Are they still human? They were all perverts.

Thinking about how these new recruits were traveling light and running so slowly, they more or less received a huge blow in their hearts.

“Do you still think that you are very strong? Today is your first lesson in the army. From today onwards, you must know that you are a soldier, and a soldier must act like a soldier!”

Qin Yuan saw that the recruits seemed to be a little upset from the blow, but this was a lesson they had to go through. If they wanted to become stronger, they had to know themselves.

“You are new recruits who have just joined the army. Today is your first five-kilometer training. I won’t say much about your results. I don’t have many requirements. I only have one request. Every training is better than the previous one. I don’t compare you with others. I want you to compare yourself with whether you can do it.”

“Yes!”

“Louder! I can’t hear you!” Hearing the weak voices of the soldiers of the recruit company, Qin Yuan’s tone suddenly became stern!

“Yes ! ‘I

“Yes ! ‘I

In an instant, everyone in the recruit company seemed to have used all their strength to roar out. Looking at the recruit company’s team, Qin Yuan saw the burning blood in their eyes, and he was relatively satisfied!

“I have another request. After three months of training, I want you to become as outstanding as the veterans opposite you.”

“Yes.”

“Commander, I’m confident.’

He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing shouted at the same time.

Self-confidence was a trait possessed by people with absolute strength.

Obviously, these two soldiers did.

“Wang Yanbing, do you see the gap between you and them now?”

Qin Yuan asked.

“Sir, the difference between them and me is that I’ve been a soldier for one year less, and there’s no difference in other aspects. Moreover, before I leave the company, I’m confident that I can surpass them.”

He Chenguang said.

“So you two are not convinced?”

Qin Yuan asked.

“Yes, sir!”

“Yes, sir!”

Their eyes instantly lit up with an unyielding aura.

“Good! Very good! You guys can pick any one of them. As long as you can win, I’ll admit that you’re very outstanding. For the next three months, you don’t have to accept the training of new recruits.”

“Company commander! Do you mean that the two of us will fight one of them?”
After hearing Qin Yuan’s words, Wang Yanbing instantly asked in confusion.

“Yes, sir! As long as the two of you can defeat one person from the logistics company, I’ll consider it your victory!”

Qin Yuan replied indifferently. He was not worried that the soldiers of the logistics company would be defeated by the two of them.

“Good! Then we won’t stand on ceremony!”

Chapter 118: How Could There Be Such a Perverted Person?

Then, the two of them stepped forward and walked towards the tall and burly Geng Hu with a fierce expression.

“Company commander, this veteran is the one. He looks like a martial artist and is so strong. I’ve been practicing martial arts since I was young and have won many championships. I can’t pick someone weak.”

He Chenguang was full of confidence in himself. Of course, he had the ability to say such words. Qin Yuan knew his abilities very well. "Sir, I choose him too. I have the same thought."

Wang Yanbing added.

Hearing that both of them had chosen Geng Hu, this silly big guy, Qin Yuan was overjoyed. If they chose someone else, he really could not guarantee whether he would win or lose. Choosing Geng Hu made Qin Yuan relieved, as unless the whole new recruits squad teamed up against him, he could not imagine Geng Hu losing.

However, Qin Yuan's joy was short-lived, as a loud and rough voice echoed.

"All of you, come at me together. Otherwise, when the time comes, you'll cry and run around saying that the logistics company is bullying the recruits. That will also damage my glorious image."

Geng Hu rubbed his fists and looked at the soldiers of the recruit company. He could not defeat Qin Yuan, but it was not a problem for him to defeat these recruits!

Hearing Geng Hu's words, Qin Yuan felt like cursing. When did this guy learn from me?

"If you want to act tough, then beat me first before talking!"

Hearing Geng Hu's words, He Chenguang immediately rushed forward. He had never seen such a pretentious person since he was young. Those who were pretentious in front of him were beaten to the ground by him.

He Chenguang was the first to execute a sidekick. His movements were nimble, and his right foot went straight for Geng Hu's head.

Geng Hu felt a slight numbness in his left arm. He thought to himself that this kid was something. His fist and leg skills were indeed much stronger than when he first entered the army. He raised his fist and punched He Chenguang without giving him any chance to react.

Peng...

He Chenguang also took Geng Hu's punch head-on and retreated a few steps.

His right hand which was clashing with Geng Hu was now trembling slightly. He felt like he had just punched a steel plate. The sweat on his head also flowed down.

Seeing that something was wrong, Wang Yanbing also charged out from the side and threw a punch at Geng Hu's left cheek.

Geng Hu could not block in time and could only lower his head to dodge. Then, he quickly lowered his shoulder and crashed into Wang Yanbing.

Wang Yanbing was in pain and was knocked two meters away.

The three of them formed a triangle and confronted Geng Hu.

After each of them used a move, both sides roughly understood each other's strength and began to get serious.

Geng Hu suddenly took action. He punched Wang Yanbing, then kicked him, and then punched him again. The three actions took less than a second.

Wang Yanbing managed to dodge the first two attacks, but the last punch hit him right in the chest. In an instant, he felt his blood and qi churn, as if a sledgehammer had smashed into his chest. He was in a miserable state.

He Chenguang had witnessed Geng Hu's strength and did not dare to be careless. Then, he shouted at Wang Yanbing.

“Attack together. ”

As the saying goes.

It was difficult for two fists to fight against four hands.

Moreover, He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing were also experts.

After the two of them attacked together, they were equally matched with Geng Hu. However, anyone with discerning eyes could see that Geng Hu did not use his full strength.

Even though He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing were enemies, they worked extremely well together.

He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing punched and kicked, while Geng Hu retreated repeatedly.

After taking a punch from He Chenguang, Geng Hu quickly changed tactics. He grabbed Wang Yanbing and slammed him heavily on the ground. Then, he used his open hand to strike at Wang Yanbing. Wang Yanbing felt dizzy and lost consciousness.

He Chenguang also sent a flying kick directly at Geng Hu's chest, but He Chenguang's leg was sent flying. His kick felt like he had kicked a steel plate, and it could not move Geng Hu at all!

“How can there be such a perverted person!”

He Chenguang had never imagined that the soldiers of a logistics company would be so powerful!

Geng Hu took the kick head-on and decided to deal with Geng Hu in one move.

Seeing that He Chenguang had raised his leg and charged forward again, Geng Hu's left hand was in a grabbing position. He held onto He Chenguang's right leg tightly, and his right hand clenched into a fist and punched out fiercely.

He Chenguang couldn't react at all. He raised his hand to block, but his speed couldn't keep up.

It was over. He couldn't dodge this punch. He was going to lose. He Chenguang closed his eyes.

At this moment, Qin Yuan, who was standing at the side, suddenly appeared. He stretched out his left hand and blocked Geng Hu's critical attack.

He Chenguang opened his eyes and saw this scene. He then looked at Qin Yuan gratefully.

The new recruits watched as Qin Yuan easily took on Geng Hut's attack, and couldn't help but marvel at his strength. Geng I-du's strength was obvious to everyone, and Qin Yuan's display of power made them realize that their commander's strength was also quite impressive.

With just one move, Qin Yuan earned the respect and admiration of all the new recruits.

Those who were not convinced by Qin Yuan previously saw that a soldier from the logistics company was so powerful. At this moment, their hearts had already changed.

This logistics company was too strong.

The fight was intense, but it was also very fast.

Experts exchanging blows.

"Alright, the competition is over. Do you have any objections?"

Qin Yuan said as he glanced at He Chenguang. Wang Yanbing had already woken up.

"Commander, we lost."

He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing were too shocked. This competition had directly broken their understanding of the strong. They were becoming more and more curious about Qin Yuan.

"Alright, bring the recruits back. You have 20 minutes to eat breakfast, tidy up the dorm, and then train according to the arrangements of the squad leader."

Qin Yuan looked at the recruits and arranged for everyone. Then, everyone quickly ran to the barracks.

After witnessing the strength of the logistics company this time, it was a huge blow to the recruits. However, this also aroused their hearts to train hard. They came to the army to be strong!

"Commander, what about us?" Geng Hu asked Qin Yuan with a grin.

"Hurry up and get back to training. There are only two new recruits, what are you so proud of? If you have the strength, come and fight with me!"

Qin Yuan replied indifferently. After hearing Qin Yuan's words, Geng Hu turned around and took the lead to run. Fight with Qin Yuan? Only a lunatic would fight Qin Yuan!

"Alright, let's go back to training! I hope that when I go back, you won't drop the ball!"

"Yes, sir!"

"Yes, sir!"

After saying that, the logistics company returned to the logistics company's encampment under Liu Ye's lead.

"Deputy Company Commander, do you think the Company Commander's move is effective? He's so strong, why did he have to ask us to go over?" The first soldier of the second platoon asked Liu Ye in confusion.

“Why do you care so much? It will definitely be effective. The company commander has his own ideas. Can you read him?”

Thinking about it, it made sense..

Chapter 119: Is This What It's Like to be a Soldier?

Ding...

The system's voice sounded in Qin Yuan's mind.

“System side mission triggered. Train the disobedient recruits into submission. Reward: 50000 skill points.”

This reward was not bad. Back then, he had only been rewarded with 5000 skill points for taming the soldiers of the logistics company. Now, the number of skill points for taming new recruits had increased tenfold. When Qin Yuan thought of this, he could not help but smile.

It seemed that he could gain more skill points by leading new recruits.

Qin Yuan quickly asked the system,

“Why are there so many skill points this time? It's many times more than when I led the logistics company.”

“Host, the soldiers of the logistics company that you brought with you before were all veterans. Although they have been promoted, the extent of their promotion was not large enough. These new recruits were still novices before yesterday. They know very little about the military camp, so they have a lot of room for improvement.”

“In other words, the more they improve, the more skill points I get.” Qin Yuan interrupted before the system could finish.

“Yes, host. Moreover, you will receive skill points for any improvement in everyone's military quality and thinking.”

Qin Yuan quickly opened his attribute panel to take a look.

[Host: Qin Yuan]

[Position: Iron Fist Regiment Logistics Company Commander and Recruit
Company Commander]

[Military Rank: Captain]

[Physique: 68]

[Skills: Intermediate Eagle Eye (2000 meters), Intermediate radar warning system (500 meters), Advanced special combat technique. (10 times the physical fitness of an ordinary person.) Advanced computer programming. Intermediate Climbing Skill, Intermediate Camouflage Skill, Firearm Equipment Proficiency, and Advanced Weapon and Equipment Operation Skill]

[Skill Points:1855840.]

Looking at the 50000 skill points he had obtained during his morning exercise, Qin Yuan was very satisfied. After all, this was the first time the system had been so generous.

Qin Yuan had already thought it through.

Once he had enough 2,000,000 skill points, he would go and exchange for the Compendium of Materia Medica. He believed that this skill would be very useful for the future training of the soldiers and their physical recovery ability.

It would be even better if he could cure the Fourth Company Commander's illness.

Thinking about it, if he could conquer those difficult and miscellaneous diseases in this world, that would be amazing...

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan could not wait to train the recruits.

After breakfast, on the field in front of the barracks.

"This morning, our training subject is formation training, which includes several contents such as 'stand at ease', 'stand at attention', 'halt and turn', 'marching', 'running', etc. The only training content for this morning is standing at attention."

The squad leader announced the training content and shouted,

"He Chenguang, step forward."

"I'll start from the foot to the head. The heels of the feet are close together, and the soles of the feet are separated to the sides at an angle of 60 degrees. The knees are pressed back, the buttocks are tightly pressed forward, and the arms are naturally drooped. The five fingers are close together, and the middle finger is tightly pressed against the trousers. The chest is puffed out, the abdomen is sucked in, the head is raised, the chin is retracted, and the eyes are looking straight ahead. The body is slightly tilted forward."

The squad leader said as he gestured to He Chenguang.

As he was from a military family, He Chenguang's military posture was very standard.

In the military, standing at attention also requires physical effort. The whole body has to be tensed up, and to be honest, standing at attention is not much easier than running five kilometers for the same amount of time.

The key is that you cannot move while standing at attention.

Therefore, during the military posture training in the army, the veterans would usually say, "Squad leader, if you want me to stand in military posture, why don't you just let me run five kilometers?"

After the squad leader finished explaining the posture, he instructed each platoon leader to lead their platoon and conduct two hours of independent military posture training.

The morning sun was always round and rose from the east, bringing light to people and vitality to all living things.

However, what it brought to the soldiers was torture.

The squad leader led a squad of soldiers to the side of the field and stood in a row facing the sun.

The squad leader made them look straight at the sun.

It was fine at first, but as time passed, it became more and more dazzling.

Many soldiers were already crying from the stimulation of the sunlight.

During this time, the squad leader stood behind the soldiers.

From time to time, the squad leader would tap on a soldier's knee. If the knee bends too much, it means the knee is not exerting enough force and the soldier will be punished with 100 push-ups.

Alternatively, the squad leader would use his fingers to tap on a soldier's buttocks. If it feels soft, it means the buttocks are not exerting enough force and the soldier will be punished with 100 push-ups.

Another test is to grab a soldier's hand and pull it away. If the hand can be easily pulled away, it means the arms are not exerting enough force and the soldier will be punished with 100 push-ups.

In the blink of an eye, two hours had passed. The clothes of all the recruits present were soaked in sweat.

"Everyone, rest for 15 minutes, go to the toilet, drink some water, and then continue with the military posture training."

The squad leader blew his whistle and shouted to everyone.

All the soldiers in the company instantly collapsed to the ground. Those who needed to rest rested, and those who needed to drink water drank.

It was resting time.

"Chenguang, is this what it's like to be a soldier? This is the most basic stance. I'm exhausted. How do you think I'll survive these two years?" Li Erniu panted heavily as he spoke to He Chenguang.

"Erniu, this is the simplest. Believe me, our days will get worse."

He Chenguang was very familiar with the content of the recruit training.

He also understood a little about Qin Yuan.

He had grown up in the same compound. Before he came to the Iron Fist

Regiment, he understood that this company commander had a very good way of leading troops. In just three months, he had turned the worst logisticians in the Iron Fist Regiment into the strongest company in the entire regiment. Moreover, he had made military achievements during the exercise. This was not something that could be achieved by simple ordinary training.

He was already prepared.

The other warriors were also gossiping.

Most of them said that they knew it was tough to be a soldier, but they did not expect the first basic subject of formal training, military posture, to be so tough.

The squad leader listened attentively.

Fifteen minutes passed quickly. The squad leader blew the whistle and gathered.

The recruits suspected that there was something wrong with the squad leader's watch. When did fifteen minutes become so short?

"Comrades, military posture is the first lesson of a soldier. It can be said that he is the mother of all military movements. At the same time, military posture also contains a deep meaning."

The squad leader explained to everyone, then said,

"Head straight, neck straight, is to tell everyone to straighten their attitude as a person, and determine their own ideals and path."

"Raising our heads and sticking out our chests is to tell everyone that as a soldier, we have to stick out our chests. There is nothing that we can't face."

"Pressing your knees back is to tell everyone that a soldier's feet can't be soft.

You have to be confident and not give in to any difficulties."

"I'm sure everyone understands after my explanation. Next, it's time for each platoon to continue training until dinner."

At this moment, the first platoon was led to the curb by the squad leader.

He let the first platoon stand on the curb with their forefeet and their heels hanging in the air as they continued their military posture training for two hours.

They were not standing on flat ground.

Many recruits couldn't accept the fact that half of their feet were suspended in the air.

The troops trained their military postures by leaning forward and focusing their center of gravity on the front foot. This training could quickly allow the recruits to grasp the essentials of the movements and achieve the goal of quick success.

There was no choice. Qin Yuan only gave the squad leader half a day's time, but this made the recruits suffer.

The recruits either fell forward or backward. Although it was only 20 centimeters high and it didn't hurt to fall.

However, they had to do 100 push-ups every time they fell.

Soon, the recruits did not practice much in their military postures, but they practiced quite a lot in their push-ups.

He Chenguang and Wang Yanbing stood quite well, but they fell down twice each. They did 200 push-ups each. The soldiers were having a hard time.

But time passed quickly.

There were still five minutes before dinner.

Beep!

A whistle sounded.

“Everyone, assemble.” The squad leader shouted.

The recruits immediately relaxed. Most of the recruits let out a sigh of relief and hurriedly ran over to the squad leader. The recruits wailed. It was finally over and they could eat..

Chapter 120: There’s No Way to Keep Qin Yuan!

Seeing that the training was over, Qin Yuan walked out of the kitchen.

Then, the company was brought in front of Qin Yuan and Gong Jian.

Qin Yuan and Gong Jian looked at everyone.

“Everyone has worked hard in the military posture training in the morning. I specially asked the cook to cook a few more good dishes so that everyone can eat well. There are still five minutes before dinner. Before dinner, the instructor and I will check on everyone’s training results in the morning.” Qin Yuan said, then added,

“We’ll conduct a competition and your squad leader will give you a score. The squad with the highest average score will be rewarded at night, and the squad with the lowest average score will be punished at night.”

After Qin Yuan finished speaking, the recruits could not help but straighten their bodies and wait for the nine recruit squad leaders to check.

After the squad leaders were done checking, they placed the report card in the hands of Lao Hei and he began to calculate.

Then, he wrote down the rankings and handed them to Qin Yuan.

The method of training recruits was different from training veterans. Qin Yuan was not too radical. Everything was done according to the training requirements of the recruits, but Qin Yuan increased the difficulty of their training.

The notifications that kept ringing in his mind made Qin Yuan happy. Now that the recruits were adapting to life in the army, Qin Yuan handed over these basic training to the squad leader and the others.

This was a rare time of leisure for Qin Yuan. Every day, he would watch the soldiers train on the training ground. He would earn skill points by drinking tea. This was the first time he had experienced such a good thing.

There was no other way. The physical fitness of the soldiers had to be improved step by step. This year's batch of soldiers was very good. Qin Yuan also wanted to wait for them to adapt to normal basic training before training them all.

For some reason, the words that Gao Shiwei had left behind after they met the last time suddenly popped up in Qin Yuan's mind.

Qin Yuan had a feeling that Gao Shiwei's chiefs had left him with some backup plan. It had been almost three months since the last military exercise ended. At that time, Gao Shiwei's chiefs and that old fox Fan Tiankeng had taken pity on the logistics company.

Logically speaking, they should have been poached long ago! However, there had been no news until now. This was a little abnormal!

When Qin Yuan thought about it, he also felt that something was wrong. This was because he felt that it was certain that he would enter the Wolf Fang Special Combat Brigade with the strength of a logistics company soldier.

Previously, Gao Shiwei and the Chief of Staff of the Special Combat Brigade, Fan Tianlei, had come to the Iron Fist Regiment to inspect the strength of the logistics company. Based on Qin Yuan's understanding of Fan Tianlei, it was impossible for Fan Tianlei not to poach the logistics company.

Just as Qin Yuan was still thinking, Gong Jian walked straight to his side.

"Company Commander Qin! The regiment commander just called and asked you to go to his office!"

Only then did Qin Yuan come back to his senses and ask Gong Jian.

"He wants me to go over? Did he say anything else?"

"No! He just wants you to go over to his place and say that he has something to discuss with you!"

Gong Jian repeated Kang Lei's words.

"Good! Then I'll go over first. Take care of the new recruits!"

"Alright! Don't worry! With me around, nothing will happen!"

After saying that, Qin Yuan walked straight to Kang Lei's office. The training ground for their recruits was not far from the regiment headquarters, so Qin Yuan quickly arrived at Kang Lei's office.

Dong dong dong...

"Come in!"

Qin Yuan pushed the door open and walked in.

"Sir, you were looking for me!"

Seeing Qin Yuan walk in, Kang Lei put down the teacup in his hand and stood up.

“Yes, I am! Come and sit!”

As he spoke, Qin Yuan walked straight to the sofa and sat down.

“How is it? Qin Yuan, how are the new recruits this year?” After Qin Yuan sat down, Kang Lei directly asked Qin Yuan about the new recruits this year.

“This year’s batch of recruits have very good physiques, and there are also a few very good seedlings among them. But I believe that after more than two months, this group of recruits will be good seedlings!”

Qin Yuan was very confident. He did not need to brag about the training of soldiers. Otherwise, Kang Lei would not have let Qin Yuan take charge of the recruit company. Besides, Kang Lei was very clear about the strength of the logistics company and the fourth company.

“With your ability to train soldiers, I’m not worried at all. I called you here mainly to tell you something!”

Hearing the commander’s words, Qin Yuan’s interest was also piqued. One had to know that the commander had called him over this time because he had thought of something.

“Regiment commander! Just say it. I’ll listen. If there’s any mission, I’ll absolutely obey!”

Looking at Qin Yuan’s determined expression, Kang Lei was also very gratified. After all, their Iron Fist Regiment had changed greatly ever since Qin Yuan came. Not only did the military commanders attach great importance to them, but they were also prepared to entrust their Iron Fist Regiment with an important task.

“Qin Yuan! It’s all thanks to you!” Kang Lei said as he looked at Qin Yuan with a smile.

“Sir! This...

Qin Yuan was a little puzzled when he saw Kang Lei’s expression.

“Chief Gao Shiwei just called me. After careful consideration and discussion by the higher-ups, they are now preparing to reorganize our 801st Division. Our Iron Fist Regiment will soon be integrated with other units to become a combined brigade, but our Iron Fist Regiment will be retained.”

“You have to know that our Iron Fist Regiment’s name was protected by our ancestors with their blood. I thought that this time, our name would be revoked from me, and then I, Kang Lei, would be the sinner of the Iron Fist Regiment. But who would have thought that it was because of your performance in this military exercise that our name was preserved!”

Kang Lei looked at Qin Yuan with gratification. His eyes were slightly red. One had to know that his feelings for the Iron Fist Regiment were unquestionable. Therefore, every year's military exercise, they especially hoped that the Iron

Fist Regiment would shine in the military exercise. However, the Iron Fist Regiment would always become a laughing stock in the previous military exercises.

This time, because Qin Yuan and the others had performed particularly well in the military exercise, they had also helped the Iron Fist Regiment vent their anger. They had once again proved the ability of the Iron Fist Regiment.

"Regiment commander, this is what we should do. Moreover, this credit cannot be separated from the hard work of the brothers in the Iron Fist Regiment!"

You don't have to thank me!"

Qin Yuan could tell from Kang Lei's eyes that Kang Lei had feelings for the Iron Fist Regiment. Qin Yuan also knew that the military reorganization of the troops would definitely remove some of the troops' titles, so he had to say that the Iron Fist Regiment was lucky.

It had to be known that every time the military underwent a major reorganization, some of the names of the troops would be revoked. Qin Yuan knew how everyone felt about their troops, but in order to integrate the military forces more effectively, this was a process that they had to go through.

"Also, Chief Gao Shiwei wants you to personally go to his place after you're done leading the new recruits. He has something to tell you personally!" Kang Lei then told Qin Yuan the purpose of calling Qin Yuan over this time.

"Chief Gao Shiwei?"

"Yes! Remember to make a trip there when the time comes. After the recruit training is over, our 801st division should start the military reform! You have to work hard, kid. Your future will definitely be boundless!"

Kang Lei knew clearly from the tone of Chief Gao Shiwei on the phone that he could not keep Qin Yuan this time. Besides, with Qin Yuan's ability and strength, their Iron Fist Regiment could not keep him either. Qin Yuan would probably be transferred after the recruit training this time..
