

Special Troop 31

Chapter 31: The Devil's Training in Hell (2)

The system was speechless.

After Qin Yuan familiarized himself with the skills, he looked at his empty skill points and felt helpless.

“It seems that I still have to do a few more things!”

The soldiers of the logistics company instantly appeared in Qin Yuan's mind.

Qin Yuan also looked at the physical information of the logistics company's soldiers.

Then, he exited the system panel.

He was thinking about how to train. After making a phone call, he turned off the light in the room, took off his clothes, and lay on the bed.

Three in the morning!

At this moment, heavy rain suddenly began to fall from the sky!

The soldiers on the training ground were wailing again.

The soldiers who had not slept for long were woken up by a few smoke bombs from Qin Yuan.

Following that, they were pulled in for special training.

He didn't say anything and just wanted to train.

“Hurry up! Don't dilly-dally.” Qin Yuan roared.

At this moment! The soldiers were still crawling through the barbed wire in the heavy rain.

“Ah! The f*ck.”

“Company commander, why are there all these glass shards!”

“F*ck, if you didn't mention it, I wouldn't have realized that I'm covered in wounds and bleeding.”

The soldiers suddenly woke up and stopped when they saw the reflective glass shards on the ground.

“Da da da da da...”

Suddenly, a series of bullets were fired.

The soldiers were all startled by the sudden gunshots.

“Don't dawdle, crawl over!”

“Hurry up!”

“Da da da da da...”

Another string of bullets was fired.

The soldiers didn't dare to say anything and could only lie down and quickly pass through.

“Company commander, are you trying to kill us!”

“Hurry up and crawl!”

“The brother in front, hurry up! The bullet is almost hitting me.”

“Hurry up! These are real bullets!”

Qin Yuan was shooting at them with a gun.

At that moment, the soldiers could only feel the bullets quickly passing by their heels and heads.

These were real bullets, not blanks.

If they were not careful, the bullets would hit them.

Pfft...

At this moment, a stream of blood gushed out, and a soldier's raised head was pierced by a bullet.

Fresh blood splattered on the faces of the soldiers behind him.

In the dark of the night, they couldn't see who was in front of them, and they didn't know who had been shot.

“Ah! Dead... Someone's dead...”

“He really killed someone...”

“It's... It's true... The company commander really killed someone.”

At this moment, the soldiers were all scared out of their wits. They stopped in their tracks and their bodies trembled slightly!

The scene of the soldier being pierced by a bullet was deeply imprinted in their minds.

The blood on their faces was real.

The soldiers were in a state of extreme panic. They had never seen a bullet through the head.

Their own comrade had really died in front of them.

In the past, they had only seen this scene on television, but now it was really happening in front of their eyes.

“How dare the company commander kill people!”

“This is our comrade, our brother!”

The soldiers were panicking.

The shouts from the arena quickly spread!

At that moment, all the soldiers knew what had happened!

“F*ck! Deputy company commander Liu, quickly carry the soldier who was shot out!”

“Deal with those casualties and report to the headquarters!” Qin Yuan continued to roar.

“Yes!”

After that, Liu Ye ran over and carried the soldier out.

“Commander! That’s our brother!”

“How could you do that!”

“Yup! Company commander, you’ll be court-martialed if you do this.”

At this moment, the soldiers in the field were all questioning Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan roared in a serious tone, “I told you long ago that training can kill you.”

“I’d rather let them die in my hands than let their cowardice affect their mission on the battlefield!”

“Besides, when I was transferred from the combat unit to the logistics unit, I was given a death quota.”

“I’m telling you, if you don’t obey my command, more people will die!”

“The real battlefield is far crueller than this!”

“If you want to survive on the battlefield, you have to become stronger!”

Upon hearing Qin Yuan’s words, the soldiers knew that their company commander was not joking with them.

Training could really kill!

Their company commander really dared to do this!

Chapter 32: Killed Someone

“Commander! That’s a living, breathing life!”

“He’s our comrade! It’s gone just like that?”

“Commander, don’t you feel any heartache at all?”

“Company commander…”

The soldiers were all immersed in fear and grief.

They were questioning Qin Yuan.

“Deputy company commander Liu, “I don’t want to hear them waste their energy talking to me anymore,” Qin Yuan said coldly to Liu Ye.

“Yes!”

Da da da da da...

“Hurry up and crawl! I don’t mind having a few more people die.”

“Today, you can’t even pass this road, and the real battlefield will only be more brutal! You will only have more deaths!”

A wave of bullets swept past and Qin Yuan continued to roar.

The soldiers could only charge forward with reddened eyes.

They didn’t dare to say anything more, and could only endure the pain in their bodies and their heavy hearts as they crawled forward with difficulty.

“Boom...”

“Boom...”

At this time, Qin Yuan was holding the tactical grenade that Liu Ye had brought over and threw it next to the soldiers who were training.

The huge explosion and fire engulfed the entire training ground.

The stone fragments and soil stirred up from the explosion ruthlessly hit the soldiers’ bodies.

“F*ck! This grenade is also real.”

“This is killing me! Company commander, this is...!”

“Ah! Hurry up and crawl!”

“Otherwise, we’ll all die!”

“Ah! I can’t take it anymore!”

A soldier got up and ran out of the field.

“Get down! Don’t run over there!” Zheng Xiaohu suddenly shouted.

“Boom...”

A violent explosion rang out, only to see that soldier directly fly out backward.

He lay on the ground and stopped moving.

After a short while, another soldier couldn’t stand it anymore and ran out.

His body was instantly penetrated by the bullet.

Blood splattered as he helplessly fell to the ground.

At this moment, the soldiers of the logistics company who were watching this scene were dumbfounded.

They didn't even dare to think about what had happened tonight.

Their comrades had died in front of them just like that.

They had never thought that there would be such a day.

"This training is too cruel!"

"Platoon leader! The company commander is too cruel."

One of the soldiers said as he looked at Zheng Xiaohu with red eyes.

"Hurry up and train! Follow the company commander's instructions, quickly!"

"Brothers, calm down! Crawl according to the training requirements!"

Zheng Xiaohu's eyes were also red as he ordered the soldiers.

"Yes..."

"Yes..."

After the soldiers heard this, they put away their heavy hearts and crawled forward.

"Speed up and go through it!"

As Qin Yuan roared, he kept throwing grenades.

With a gun in one hand and a grenade in the other, he fired and bombed the training ground.

"Jiang Jun!"

"Boom..."

A grenade exploded two meters to the right of Jiang Jun.

Geng Hu pounced forward and protected Jiang Jun under his body.

The stone fragments and dirt from the huge explosion hit Geng Hu's back.

After the dust settled, they saw that there were more than ten wounds on Geng Hu's back.

"You brat, where are you going? Crawling with your eyes closed – do you want to die faster?"

Geng Hu roared.

At that moment, Jiang Jun was also scared out of his wits. He saw that Geng Hu had already sustained more than ten wounds while protecting him.

The wounds were still bleeding, and tears were already flowing down from the corner of his eyes.

"Why are you crying? You sissy!"

Geng Hu said as he looked at Jiang Jun, who was trembling and crying.

"Right... I'm sorry! I didn't do it on purpose!"

Jiang Jun said with a trembling voice.

“Hurry up, the more afraid you are, the faster you’ll die.”

“You won’t be afraid if you keep charging forward!”

“When you see wars in TV shows, the main characters are always the first to charge.”

“When have you ever seen him die first? The main character has always been alive and well.”

“Don’t even look back and just charge forward!”

“En!”

After saying that, Jiang Jun quickly crawled forward. After this shock, he instantly calmed down.

For an 18-year-old like him, who had just joined the Army for 3 months, to be assigned to this logistics company...

He had been sent here because of his weak physique. He had originally thought that he would be discharged from the Army and go home after two years.

But who knew that a company commander would come and start training non-stop.

Although his body was much stronger after Qin Yuan’s training.

However, he had never seen such a scene before.

Tonight’s cruelty had already broken the line of defense in his heart. He had seen his comrades die with his own eyes.

It was as if he was on a battlefield, and that reality had scared him.

As the gunshots and explosions gradually stopped...

The soldiers also gradually climbed up the glass “carpet” under the barbed wire.

Beep

Just as the soldiers were done crawling, a whistle sounded. Qin Yuan shouted, “Everyone if you’re still alive, head to the big bathhouse in the camp.”

At this time, the exhausted soldiers did not dare to say anything. They endured the pain and walked to the camp’s big bathhouse.

Under the cover of the night, no one knew which comrade had died.

At the same time, outside the camp!

Qin Yuan and Zhou Qing were standing outside the camp!

At the same time, there were a few soldiers standing there.

“Thank you for coming all the way here tonight.” Qin Yuan said to them.

“How is it? Commander Qin, our acting was good enough, right?”

The one who spoke was the security guard of the regiment commander, Xiaowu.

After receiving Qin Yuan’s call, he rushed over with a few platoons of soldiers to play the ‘dead bodies’ for Qin Yuan.

“Not bad, with your acting skills, it would be a waste if you don’t become actors!”

“Hahaha! Commander Qin, don’t mess with me, isn’t it good for him to be a soldier?”

“A good man should be a soldier! The regiment commander told me this!” Xiaowu said.

“Hahaha! Well said, it’s been hard on you guys tonight!”

“Later, I still have to train these kids! I won’t keep you guys then!”

“In two days, instructor Zhou and I will bring some wine and meat to the regiment headquarters to reward you all!” Qin Yuan continued.

“Commander Qin, what are you saying! We’re all comrades!”

“It’s only right for us to help each other out. Why would we need rewards?” Xiaowu continued.

As soon as Xiaowu finished speaking, Qin Yuan hurriedly said, “This won’t do! It was only right since you had to make the trip here. You guys went through a lot of trouble,”

“It’s not that hard for us, but commander Qin, your way of training is really a little special!”

“I’ve never seen a company that dares to do this kind of training!” The guard, Xiaowu, sighed softly.

He continued,

“I saw that those kids were almost scared to death just now!”

“And commander Qin, your marksmanship is really amazing!”

“I thought I was really going to be killed. That was live ammunition!”

“Other than the few of us who you used blank rounds on.”

“Hahaha! These kids are used to peace, they’re used to living in peace.”

“We need to arouse their knowledge of war!” Qin Yuan explained.

“Alright! Then we won’t disturb your training.”

“We’ll be going back first!” Xiaowu said.

“Alright!”

“Good! Be careful on the road!” Zhou Qing chimed in.

“Yes!”

Xiaowu and the others immediately saluted.

Qin Yuan and Zhou Qing returned the salute.

Xiaowu and the others turned around and immediately got into the car to go back to the headquarters.

Chapter 33: Alcohol Boost

He looked at Xiaowu and the others who were walking away.

Qin Yuan also turned around and said to Zhou Qing, “Let’s go! It’s time to disinfect those kids!”

“Alright!”

After speaking, Zhou Qing also walked towards the camp’s bathhouse.

“Company commander Qin, the soldiers must be very concerned about you now!” Zhou Qing said.

“They can hate me, so be it! I’m just afraid that they don’t hate me, so I can’t be ruthless to them!”

“This training is indeed close to actual combat. I was so shocked just now!”

“Commander Qin, how did you manage to control it so well?”

“If you ask me to shoot them, I definitely wouldn’t dare.”

Zhou Qing exclaimed.

“It’s been peaceful for a long time, and it’s been a long time since I’ve been baptized by war.”

“Only some Special Forces can receive the baptism of actual combat.”

“Regular soldiers don’t even have the chance to go to the battlefield.”

“So we have to get closer to actual combat training!”

“Only in this way can they quickly get used to the cruelty of war when the war comes!”

“Since we’ve chosen to become soldiers, we must be the best and strongest soldiers!” Qin Yuan said.

Zhou Qing nodded.

“Let’s go! We should also go over and take a look!” Qin Yuan said.

“Alright!”

After that, the two of them quickly walked towards the camp's bathhouse.

At this moment! Under Liu Ye's lead, the soldiers of the logistics company dragged their exhausted bodies to the camp's bathhouse one by one.

They didn't even have the time to see who was missing from the company!

It was as if everyone was there, but someone was missing.

"Everyone! Take off your clothes!" Liu Ye immediately shouted.

"Take off our clothes? What's the Deputy company commander doing!"

"You can torture us, but you can't humiliate us!"

The soldiers in the team said.

"Don't dilly-dally. Hurry up and take it off!"

"Do you want me to chase you with a gun like the commander?"

"Hurry up! I'll give you half a minute to take off all your clothes!" Liu Ye roared.

"Yes, sir!"

"But! Do we need to take off our underwear too?"

"Leave the underwear!"

"Yes, sir!"

After saying that, the soldiers quickly took off their clothes!

They were all standing there in rows!

Their entire body was covered in wounds caused by the glass shards, and some of the wounds were still bleeding.

Geng Hu's back was covered in wounds.

At this moment, Qin Yuan and Zhou Qing both walked in.

"F*ck, what is happening?"

"Why does it smell like wine?"

"Yup! I can smell it too!"

"Do you want us to drink the wine in this pool? Do you need to be so perverted!"

The soldiers in the team asked one after another.

"What are you guys thinking? Do you think it's your turn to drink wine?"

Liu Ye shouted, "This is industrial alcohol! Soak in it and come out in half an hour!"

Soak in it?

Everyone's eyes almost popped out, and their hair stood on end.

During this period of time and tonight's crawling training, who knew how many wounds they had sustained?

These wounds are so sensitive that even a splash of water would make them shudder in pain, let alone alcohol.

If they were to soak in the alcohol pool, they would be in so much pain that they would die!

The company commander was trying to kill them!

Everyone walked towards the alcohol pool with difficulty.

"Don't dawdle. Geng Hu, you go down first!" Qin Yuan said loudly.

"Yes!"

Geng Hu didn't dare to say anything. He endured the fear in his heart and was the first one to walk down.

"Yes,"

Geng Hu snorted and sank his entire body.

Zheng Xiaohu also followed closely behind.

He also let out a light humph and sank his body.

"F*ck! Is he really fine? This is alcohol!"

Seeing that Geng Hu and Zheng Xiaohu were fine, Lu Zhengtao walked down into the pool too.

"Ah!"

"F*ck... You two, F*ck your grandpa! It hurts!"

"They're really good at acting!"

The bathhouse was instantly filled with Lu Zhengtao's shouts.

The rest of the soldiers were also startled.

"Hurry up! All of you, get in there in two minutes, or you won't be able to sleep tonight!" Qin Yuan roared.

Upon hearing Qin Yuan's order, everyone could only close their eyes and walk down with difficulty.

In an instant, the bathhouse was filled with the howls of wolves.

Half an hour later, everyone finally came out of the alcohol pool with great difficulty.

After everyone walked out, Qin Yuan ordered everyone to go back and rest.

On the way back to the dormitory!

“Platoon leader! Did you notice that we didn’t lose anyone?” A soldier from the second platoon asked Zheng Xiaohu.

“Everyone in our platoon is here. I just don’t know if it’s someone from 1st platoon or 3rd platoon who died today.”

“Not platoon leader, I counted when we went into the alcohol pool just now!”

“Exactly 48 people, except for the company commander, Deputy company commander, and the instructor.”

“What’s wrong with you, it’s the middle of the night.”

“Did you not see someone die in front of you?” Zheng Xiaohu chided.

“It’s true! Platoon leader, I even counted when I came out.”

“It’s 48 people, for sure.”

The soldier still believed that he had counted correctly.

No matter what, he had only joined the Army after completing nine years of compulsory education.

He couldn’t count wrong.

“Alright! Hurry up and go back to sleep. Aren’t you tired enough?”

“Hurry up and sleep. We’ll know when we ask the other platoons tomorrow.” Zheng Xiaohu said.

“Yes!”

After that, the two of them went back to the dormitory and fell into a deep sleep.

The next morning, Zheng Xiaohu rushed to the 1st platoon’s dormitory to find Lu Zhengtao.

“1st platoon leader, who’s missing from your platoon?”

Zheng Xiaohu was puzzled when he heard the soldier’s words last night, so he ran over early in the morning.

“Us? We don’t have anyone missing!”

“I thought it was you guys or the 3rd platoon!”

“It was too dark last night. I don’t even know which comrade it was!” Lu Zhengtao also replied.

“You guys don’t have anyone missing? So they’re comrades from the 3rd platoon?”

At this moment, 3rd platoon leader Zhao Xiaowu also got up. He also wanted to confirm if they were comrades from the 1st or 2nd platoon.

“Xiaohu, Zhengtao! You’re all here! I was just about to go look for you guys!”
Zhao Xiaowu said to the two of them.

Zheng Xiaohu saw Zhengtao walking over and asked, “Xiaowu, were all the soldiers who died last night from your platoon?”

“What? None of our platoon’s soldiers were sacrificed!”

“I thought it was your platoon. I came here to confirm the situation!” Zhao Xiaowu was also confused.

“What? No one is missing from your platoon?” Zheng Xiaohu was also confused.

“What’s going on?”

“Exactly! Nobody is missing from the 1st and 3rd platoons and neither does the 2nd platoon have anyone missing.”

“But I clearly saw the soldiers being sacrificed last night.” Zheng Xiaohu asked in surprise.

Lu Zhengtao scratched his head in confusion and said, “Yup! Last night, I saw the soldiers beside me get blown away from the explosion.”

“It was too dark at that time. I couldn’t see anything else except for the flames from the grenade explosion.”

“What’s going on?”

Zhao Xiaowu looked at the two of them and asked.

Chapter 34: Bounded Across the River

“All three platoons are here. Who were the soldiers who were sacrificed last night?”

Zheng Xiaohu asked in confusion.

“But the bullets were real.”

“Yes, the grenades and the bullets can’t be fake.”

The two of them said with certainty.

As veterans, they could still tell the difference between real bullets and fake bullets.

“Those bullets were real and not real.”

“I thought the company commander had lost his mind! Hahaha!” Zheng Xiaohu seemed to have understood something and started laughing.

The two of them looked at Zheng Xiaohu, who was laughing loudly and were also confused.

“What do you mean they were real and not real?”

“Exactly! Xiaohu, why are you still trying to play riddles?”

The two of them asked in confusion.

“Alright, I can’t explain it to you two uncouth fellows.”

“Anyway just know that the company commander won’t harm us.” Zheng Xiaohu was too lazy to explain to them.

“F*ck! 2nd platoon leader, who are you calling uncouth?”

“Come, come, come, let’s go out and fight!” Lu Zhengtao rolled up his sleeves.

“Yes! Let’s go!”

Zhao Xiaowu chimed in.

Beep, beep, beep...

Beep, beep, beep...

“Hurry up. Emergency assembly!”

“Everyone, gather at the training ground!”

Zheng Xiaohu and the other two were still fooling around when the emergency assembly whistle was heard.

At this moment, Qin Yuan was standing on the training ground, waiting for the soldiers of the logistics company.

The soldiers quickly got into formation and stood majestically on the training ground.

“Not bad, 2 minutes and 38 seconds! But I hope you can be faster next time!” Qin Yuan said as he looked at his watch.

“Yes!”

“Report!”

Zheng Xiaohu reported loudly.

“Speak!”

“Commander! We were wrong about you last night!”

It was only then that the soldiers realized that none of their logistics company’s soldiers were missing on the training ground.

The familiar figures were still standing in their original positions.

There were still 48 people.

“What? Then who were the soldiers who died last night?”

“Yup! My face was covered in that blood!”

“Yeah! The power of the grenade’s explosion was real.”

“I saw a comrade get shot in the head with my own eyes last night!”

The soldiers of the logistics company were puzzled.

No one understood what had happened. Someone had clearly died last night, but now, no one was missing.

That was definitely real.

Just as everyone was confused, Qin Yuan said loudly, “Last night’s situation will only happen once.”

“If this were a battlefield, the enemy would not give you another chance.”

“A dead person is dead!”

“Don’t fantasize about peace all day! Because you’re soldiers, you must be ready at all times!”

“The war will only be crueler than the training now.”

“Yes!”

“Yes!”

The soldiers responded loudly.

Only then did they realize Qin Yuan’s intentions. They could not help but feel the cruelty of it.

“Next, everyone gather at the banks of the Youjiang River two kilometers away from the camp,” commanded Qin Yuan.

“Let’s go!”

After that, everyone lined up and quickly ran to their destination.

15 minutes later, all the soldiers of the logistics company arrived at their destination.

One by one, they stood in line and waited for Qin Yuan’s instructions.

“All of you, cross the river with your hands and feet bound!”

“Do you guys see that dead tree over there? Swim over and swim back!”

“If you succeed, you’ll stay in the logistics company. If you don’t succeed, you’ll die!”

“I’m not joking with you! No one will save you this time!” Qin Yuan said expressionlessly.

“Everyone, do you understand?” Qin Yuan roared again.

“Understood!”

“Good! Start! Those in the 1st platoon, come first!” Qin Yuan immediately ordered.

“Yes!”

The soldiers of the 2nd and 3rd platoons tied up the hands and feet of the soldiers of the 1st platoon.

“All of you, tie them up properly. If any of the ropes come loose, you’ll be punished together.” Qin Yuan said again.

“Yes!”

The soldiers quickly tied the ropes for the 1st platoon, and the 1st platoon immediately jumped into the water and wriggled to the other side.

Time went by.

After 20 minutes, the soldiers of the 1st platoon managed to swim to the other side of the river with great difficulty. They had already swum a long distance back.

The river was relatively wide, and the straight line distance was about 100 meters.

The round trip was only about 200 meters.

However, their hands and feet were tied up by ropes, so they could only wriggle and swim with difficulty.

This would consume a lot of the soldiers’ energy.

If they hadn’t gone through Qin Yuan’s brutal training during this period of time, they would have simply been courting death if they were to enter the river in such a way.

“Good luck! 1st platoon!”

“Hurry up! Only a few meters left! Hang in there. ”

‘Squirming... Wriggle...’

The soldiers of the 2nd and 3rd platoons were standing on the shore, constantly cheering for the soldiers of the 1st platoons.

The soldiers of the 1st platoon had already started to swim slower and slower and were beginning to sink into the water.

“Hurry up! Do you all want to die here?” Qin Yuan shouted through the megaphone.

“Hang in there! 20 meters left!”

“Hold on, hold on!”

“1st platoon, come on!”

“1st platoon! Good luck...”

“1st platoon, you can do it...”

The soldiers on the shore kept shouting, hoping that the soldiers who were about to sink could hear them.

This kind of training was a test of the soldiers’ endurance and mental strength.

On the battlefield, various terrains and landscapes are extremely brutal.

Therefore, this is also to enhance the ability of soldiers to survive when encountering different terrains.

About 10 minutes later, the soldiers from the 1st platoon swam to the shore.

The soldiers on the shore quickly lifted them up from the water.

All the soldiers in the 1st platoon had passed the test, but the price they had to pay was huge.

They had already exhausted all their strength, and some of them were spitting out large mouthfuls of water.

They were able to swim back because they had determination and a strong belief.

After all the soldiers in the 1st platoon were carried onto the shore, Qin Yuan got the soldiers in the 2nd platoon to go into the water.

Just like that, three hours later.

All the soldiers, including Zhou Qing and Liu Ye, were safely on the shore.

They had passed the test mission that Qin Yuan had requested.

The last soldiers from the 3rd platoon were successfully carried ashore by Zhou Qing, Liu Ye, and Zheng Xiaohu.

Other than Zhou Qing, Liu Ye, Zheng Xiaohu, Zhao Xiaowu, and a few others, the rest were all lying on the ground, spitting out water.

Geng Hu was the most miserable. He fainted immediately, but the water was still flowing out of the corner of his mouth.

There was shrimp! Seaweed! Things kept gurgling out.

He had no other choice. He was probably the only one in the entire company who had just learned to swim when he joined the Army.

Chapter 35: The Dark Cuisine of the Company Commander!

Just as everyone had successfully reached the shore, “Only then did Qin Yuan continue to roar, “Everyone, rest for half an hour!”

“Gather at the camp training ground in half an hour!”

“Yes!”

At this moment, only a few soldiers’ replies could be heard from the shore.

Many people were exhausted. The crossing of the river had really exhausted all their physical strength.

It was extremely difficult to swim back and forth across the river while their hands and feet were bound.

The danger level had increased greatly, and they would sink to the bottom of the river if they were not careful.

However, Qin Yuan had to do this. This was the only way in case of an unexpected situation in the future.

Only then would the soldiers be able to keep their lives. What Qin Yuan had to do was train them hard before the war arrived.

Only then would they have more life-saving skills.

Two hours later.

The sun was as scorching as ever, and the entire camp was still as hot as a steamer.

The air was so hot that it was hard to breathe.

At this moment! The soldiers had already returned from the river.

The soldiers stood in formation under the scorching sun.

After the soldiers returned, they were punished by Qin Yuan by standing at attention for two hours without even a moment of rest.

It was already lunchtime.

“You guys drank too much water just now. Now, I’ll evaporate the water for you!”

“Continue to stand at attention for another half an hour!” Qin Yuan continued.

“Yes!”

After saying that, Qin Yuan, Zhou Qing, and Liu Ye walked towards the canteen.

“We’re finished! The company commander is cooking again!”

“Yup! I haven’t had enough to eat for days!”

“The company commander’s cooking skills are really beyond words!”

“He can even fry vegetables into dried black vegetables!”

“And those potatoes, they’ve been cooked into porridge!”

“At least the meat is better. The basic nutrients won’t be lost! Otherwise, we’ll be as thin as monkeys.”

“Don’t even talk about it! The company commander’s family probably runs a salt farm, and he never knew salt costs money since he was a child!”

“Ugh...”

“Don’t say anymore, I can’t take it anymore”

The soldiers in the team started to complain!

However, they could only watch helplessly as Qin Yuan walked toward the canteen.

“This bunch of kids, being picky even when there’s food to eat!”

“The water and salt are being lost so severely under the scorching sun! We need to add more to maintain and replenish,”

“Besides, how much body-strengthening liquid did I give them?”

“I worked so hard to save up that money for them.”

“I can’t even bear to use it! They’re really a bunch of ingrates who don’t know how blessed they are.”

“Don’t you think so, system?” Qin Yuan complained to the system.

The system, “um...”

“System, didn’t you say that you were invincible?”

“Why don’t I have any cooking skills?” Qin Yuan asked again.

“.....” The system was helpless.

“Host, the system is a special instructor system, not a master chef system.”

“The system only exists to create the strongest Special Forces for the host.” The system explained.

“Fine, in order to earn more skill points, No... For the sake of the soldiers’ health, I can only do it myself!” Qin Yuan said.

He had no choice! The soldiers were all training, so only the three of them could cook. Sometimes, they even had to feed the pigs themselves.

Is this the job of a company commander?

But he had no choice. If Qin Yuan didn’t cook, who would?

In order to earn more skill points, he could only train them hard.

Half an hour later.

The soldiers dragged their exhausted bodies to sit in the cafeteria.

Looking at the pitch-black food in front of them, none of them were willing to touch their chopsticks.

The dish also emitted a pungent smell.

“Company commander, what kind of special dish is this? This color is real...”

“That’s right! Company commander, how much water did you put in to cook this rice! It’s all burnt.”

“Commander, why don’t you just give us half an hour every day to cook?”

“You’re a company commander, how can we let you cook for us! Isn’t that right, everyone?”

“Yeah! Company commander, let us do it!”

“That’s right, we should be the ones cooking!”

The soldiers said one after another. From everyone’s words, one could tell that they had been tortured by Qin Yuan’s dark cuisine during this period of time.

Poor children...

“What are you guys talking about? Eat it!”

“If you don’t want to eat, then go out and train now.”

“Everyone, I’ll only give you five minutes. After five minutes, gather at the training ground!”

Qin Yuan looked at the people who were talking one after another and refused to touch the chopsticks in their hands. He growled on the spot.

“I’m f*cking cooking for you guys, and you’re still grumbling? Go and ask around in the other companies, which company commander is as kind as me?”

“Yes!”

The soldiers didn’t dare to say anything. They could only move the chopsticks in their hands with great difficulty and put food into their bowls.

All of them could only look at the indescribable expressions on everyone’s faces as they swallowed their food.

After finishing their meal with much difficulty, the soldiers quickly cleaned up.

As the assembly whistle sounded, everyone immediately ran to the training ground without stopping.

At that moment, Qin Yuan was waiting for them on the training ground.

After everyone had gathered, Qin Yuan immediately said, “I won’t be giving you any physical training this afternoon!”

“Really? Company commander!”

“Can we rest this afternoon?”

“We haven’t rested in a long time!”

“Yup! I need to have a good sleep in the afternoon. I’ve been on the verge of a mental breakdown!”

“That’s right! I often get woken up by the company commander after just a few naps.”

The soldiers of the logistics company heard Qin Yuan say that there would be no physical training in the afternoon.

Their faces were filled with joy.

Not long after, Qin Yuan continued, “Today, the entire company is going to do a big cleaning.”

“1st platoon, the 500 pigs you are responsible for can be smelled throughout the camp!”

“Also, the 2nd platoon’s vegetable fields – go and see if there are any more vegetables.”

“The weeds are almost three meters tall!”

“And you guys from the 3rd platoon! You’re in charge of the company’s hygiene, go and take a look for yourself!”

“I want all of you to figure out all these issues by this afternoon!”

“I don’t want to see such a situation happen again.”

With Qin Yuan’s words, the happy expressions of the entire logistics company instantly fell.

“Yes!”

“Yes!”

The soldiers could only answer helplessly.

“Everyone, listen up. After each day’s training, you have to deal with these issues.”

“We’re a logistics company. We can’t fall behind in our logistics support work!”

“I don’t want to say it a second time!”

“Do you all understand?” Qin Yuan roared.

“Understood!”

“Okay, 1st platoon, go and wash all the 500 pigs for me.”

“Clean up the entire pigsty, inside and out,”

“I want the entire campsite to be filled with the smell of osmanthus, not pig shit!”

“Yes!”

“2nd platoon, pull out all the weeds in the vegetable field, then go to the pigsty to pick up manure and fertilize the vegetable field!”

“Yes Sir!”

“3rd platoon, clean the camp well. Clean the big bathhouse and the bathroom!”

“Yes!”

At this time, the soldiers of the logistics company were all standing straight and listening to Qin Yuan’s orders seriously.

“Good! Everyone, go and perform your assigned tasks!” Qin Yuan waved his hand.

“Yes!”

Chapter 36: Someone Came to the Camp (1)

At this moment, in the pigsty of the logistics company.

“Ah! Oh my God, platoon leader, these pigs! How long has it been since we last cleaned them?”

“Yup! There’s sh*t all over!”

“How long will this take?”

A row of more than ten soldiers looked at the hundreds of pigs eating in the pigsty.

They all frowned, the pungent smell made them wail.

“We’ve been in emergency training for the past few days. Every time, we either collapse on the training ground or faint!

“There’s no time to clean this place!” Lu Zhengtao said helplessly.

“Hurry up and wash up!”

“If we don’t handle it well, we’ll have to face physical punishment later!”

The dozen of them had no choice but to walk into the pigsty while trembling.

“Ah! Wu Yanzhu, what the hell are you doing? I’m covered in sh*t now!”

One of the soldiers shouted.

“Hahaha! I’m sorry! I didn’t notice! I didn’t notice!” The soldier said apologetically.

“What kind of lives do we have? The daily training is killing me! I still have to give these guys a bath. I don’t even have the time to clean myself!”

“Don’t say anymore! Just accept your fate!”

“It is! It’s our fault for having such a company commander.”

“I can’t even compare to these guys now!”

“You guys, hurry up! What are you mumbling about?” Lu Zhengtao shouted.

“Yes!”

After that, the group of people started washing the pigs’ bodies.

The soldiers of the 2nd platoon were the same.

When they arrived at the vegetable field, they were also shocked by the scene in front of them.

“Platoon leader? Are you sure this is the vegetable field we used to grow?”

“Yup! The platoon leader? Where’s the... the... vegetables?”

The two soldiers in front said.

The vegetable field was overgrown with weeds and some small branches! Some of the little flowers were still swaying in the breeze, shaking their heads at them.

“What are you guys looking at? The vegetable field we planted a few days ago is over there!”

“This is a wasteland! You guys haven’t been here for only a few days! Have you gone stupid from training?” Zheng Xiaohu shouted.

“Ah! I’m sorry, platoon leader, it wasn’t our turn to manage this place before!”

“Don’t dawdle, move forward another 100 meters!”

After saying that, everyone hurriedly walked forward.

A minute later, they arrived at their destination. However, the scene in front of them was almost the same as before.

The weeds also surrounded the planted vegetables.

Zheng Xiaohu looked at the scene in front of him helplessly and immediately ordered, “Hurry up, everyone, move faster.”

“I want this place cleaned up by this afternoon!”

“Yes!”

“Understood, platoon leader!”

Everyone didn’t say anything else and hurriedly threw themselves into the “battle.”

“Platoon leader, it’s only been a few days! This vegetable field is about to turn into a wasteland!”

Geng Hu was pulling out the grass as he spoke to Zheng Xiaohu, who was behind him.

“It’s been almost a week since we last cleaned up!”

“This is normal.” Zheng Xiaohu replied.

“During this period of time, company commander’s training is getting crueler and crueler!”

“Almost every day, everyone comes back lying down!”

“That’s true, but don’t you think this is what we should do?”

“I came to the Army to train hard! In the future, if there is a war, we will be able to survive in this cruel war!”

“You’re right, platoon leader!”

“During this period of time, I feel that my endurance and explosive power are much stronger than before.”

“Who doesn’t feel that way huh!”

“Ever since the company commander joined the logistics company, the entire company has changed!”

“In the past, it could be said that anyone could bully and laugh at the logistics company!”

“As long as you’re a soldier, you’ll look down on our logistics company.” Zheng Xiaohu continued.

Geng Hu looked at Zheng Xiaohu and continued, “Back then, going up against any of our company’s platoons was a piece of cake.”

“The company commander’s training method is too brutal! There’s no way we won’t become stronger.”

“The company commander won’t harm us, hurry up and get to work! Let’s try to finish this today.”

“Yes!”

After that, the two of them quickly started to attack the vegetable field!

At this moment! A group of well-trained soldiers was running over from the logistics company’s camp in an orderly line.

“What’s our slogan?”

“6th company, 6th company, march forward bravely.”

“Train hard and kill the enemy bravely!”

A series of roars echoed through the sky above the logistics company’s camp!

At that moment, the commander of 6th company, Feng Guanghua, was leading all the soldiers of 6th company.

He was heading to the sea training ground at the logistics company's base for phase training.

The 2nd platoon's soldiers were also attracted by the roars and looked over.

"Eh? Which company are they from? What are you doing at our logistics company's encampment?"

"Didn't you see that company's flag? I think they're from the 6th company."

At this time, the soldiers of the 2nd platoon who were weeding in the vegetable field heard the roars of the soldiers of the 6th company and began to discuss.

"What are you looking at? Hurry up and weed! If you can't finish today, you'll be punished by the company commander when you go back!"

Zheng Xiaohu saw that the soldiers had stopped what they were doing and looked in the direction of the 6th company.

"I'll go over and ask. You guys hurry up and get to work."

After saying that, Zheng Xiaohu got up and walked towards the 6th company.

Zheng Xiaohu walked up to one of the officers.

"Hello, commander. May I know why you're here at our logistics company?"

Zheng Xiaohu walked forward and saluted as he spoke to Feng Guanghua, the commander of the 6th company.

"And you are?"

Feng Guanghua asked when he saw Zheng Xiaohu walking over.

"I'm the platoon leader of the logistics company's 2nd platoon. My name is Zheng Xiaohu."

Feng Guanghua saluted back and explained, "Hello, platoon leader. We are from the Fierce Tiger 6th company."

"I'm the commander of the 6th company, Feng Guanghua."

"I'm here today to bring my team to your logistics company's sea training ground for training!"

"May I ask if your company commander is here?"

"Reporting to company commander Feng! Our company commander should be in the camp right now. You'll see him when you enter the camp!" Zheng Xiaohu replied.

"Alright, thank you for your hard work! Then we'll head over first!"

After that, Feng Guanghua led the soldiers of the 6th company and ran quickly to the camp of the logistics company.

It didn't take long for the soldiers to start whispering.

"The soldiers of the logistics company can only farm and rear pigs!"

"Yup! Who was the one who told me that they had a conflict with the 9th company?"

"They even beat up the 9th company?"

"Now you see! All they do is plant vegetables and rear pigs."

"How can the soldiers of their logistics company be compared to our regular company?"

"Yup! Next time you want to brag, you have to get your facts right first!"

At this moment, the soldier who had bragged in the 6th company the last time was red in the face.

After all, he merely listened to what his childhood friend in 9th company had told him.

"What are you guys chatting about huh?"

Chapter 37: Have to Stay Here For Three Days

Feng Guanghua suddenly heard people chatting at the back.

Then, he roared.

"Hurry up!"

"Yes!"

After that, no one said anything and followed the team to the logistics camp.

At this moment! Qin Yuan and Zhou Qing were in the camp office!

"Company commander Qin, we just received a notice from the regiment headquarters. The 6th company has applied to bring their team to the sea training ground under the jurisdiction of our logistics company for training. They should be on their way now."

"6th company is going to undergo a three-day special training! For the next three days, they'll be staying in our training ground. The commander asked us to make arrangements!"

Zhou Qing said to Qin Yuan.

"6th company?"

"Their company commander is called Feng Guanghua, right? I think I met him at the headquarters last time!"

After hearing Zhou Qing's words, Qin Yuan thought of the company commander of the 6th company.

"Yes!"

"How's 6th company's overall strength?" Qin Yuan continued to ask.

"The 6th company's strength can be considered above average in our Fierce Tiger Regiment."

"It's a little better than the 9th company that we had a conflict with before." Zhou Qing explained.

"They should be here soon!"

"Alright! Then Old Zhou, come down and arrange dormitories for them!"

"Get our soldiers to prepare more meals for the next three days." Qin Yuan said.

"Alright!"

Just as the two of them finished speaking, a series of slogans came from outside the camp gate.

"It seems that they're here. I'm here too, anyway. Let's go out and take a look!" Qin Yuan stood up.

The two of them quickly left the office and walked towards the camp gate.

As soon as they reached the gate, Feng Guanghua walked up to them.

"Commander Qin, Instructor Zhou, long time no see!"

Feng Guanghua immediately greeted them.

"Long time no see, commander of the 6th company!" Qin Yuan also responded politely.

"This time, I've brought a company of soldiers to your logistics company's sea training ground for training!"

"I've already applied for three days' time with the regiment commander. I'll have to trouble you two for the next few days of training!"

Feng Guanghua told him his intention.

"Yes, it's fine. We've also received a notice from the headquarters."

"You can train here for the next few days. I've already discussed the logistics support with instructor Zhou."

"He will take full responsibility!" Qin Yuan said.

"Then I'll have to trouble you all!"

“I’m fine! Let’s have instructor Zhou bring you to the camp dormitory!”

“Old Zhou, take the 6th company’s commander and the others to arrange their dormitories first.” Qin Yuan said to Zhou Qing.

Zhou Qing nodded his head. “Company commander Feng, follow me!”

“Good! Commander Qin, I’ll be going with Instructor Zhou first. We’ll catch up later.” The commander of the 6th company laughed.

“Alright!”

After speaking, Zhou Qing led the 6th company’s commander and the others back to their dormitory.

At this moment! Liu Ye was supervising the cleaning when he saw Zhou Qing leading a group of people toward them.

“Deputy company commander, aren’t they from the 6th company?”

“What are they doing here?” A soldier of the 3rd platoon asked curiously.

“I don’t know. Just do what you guys are doing. Why bother about others?” Liu Ye said.

“You guys, clean this place up. It hasn’t been cleaned yet!”

“If you dawdle any longer, you won’t be able to eat tonight!” Liu Ye roared.

“Yes!”

After that, the soldiers of the 3rd platoon did not say anything and began to do their own work.
Evening!

The soldiers of the logistics company had finished their hard work for the afternoon.

At this moment, everyone in the logistics company had also returned to the camp.

As for the 9th company, after tidying up their dormitories, they also headed to the logistics company’s sea training ground.

The sea training ground of the logistics company was about five kilometers away from their camp.

“2nd platoon leader! Make arrangements for the soldiers to cook tonight.”

“Oh right, the comrades of the 6th company have come to our logistics company for a three-day training.”

“We’ll be in charge of their logistics for the next three days.”

“Ask the soldiers to cook more food.”

Zhou Qing saw Zheng Xiaohu and the others returning and immediately gave them instructions.

“Yes! Instructor!”

Zheng Xiaohu replied and immediately led the soldiers of the 2nd platoon to the cafeteria.

“Al! It’s too difficult for us!”

“It’s been a tiring day, and we still have to cook for them when we’re back.”

“That’s right! In the past, they always looked down on our logistics company.”

“Every time we meet, they’re always laughing at us!”

The soldiers also began to complain.

“Stop talking! It’s almost time for lunch, so hurry up and do the work assigned by the instructor.”

“Besides! We’re a logistics company, and this is our job.” Zheng Xiaohu continued.

“That’s true, but they don’t even think for us...”

“Without us, how can they train so comfortably?”

“That’s right!”

“You guys should hurry up. At least for this period of time, we’ll be cooking by ourselves.”

“Don’t tell me you still want the company commander to cook?” Zheng Xiaohu said immediately.

“Company commander?”

“Forget it!”

“Let’s do it ourselves. At least we can eat our fill.”

“Hahaha! Exactly! We can finally eat our own cooking.”

After that, the soldiers all laughed and got busy.

To them, it was a luxury to be able to eat their own cooking during this period of time.

It was hard to imagine how afraid they were of Qin Yuan’s dark cuisine.

At this moment, Qin Yuan, who was 300 to 400 meters away, was still sneezing violently in his office.

“System, are you blaming me for always saying that you’re cheating?”

The system was speechless.

Chapter 38: Those Who Can Fight Won’t Talk Back

The sky was gradually turning dark.

The soldiers of the 6th company who went to the sea training ground for training dragged their exhausted bodies back to the logistics company's station.

The commander of the 6th company, Feng Guanghua, organized his troops and led them into the logistics company's cafeteria.

The soldiers of the logistics company had already prepared a table full of food for the soldiers of the 6th company.

After an arduous afternoon of training, the soldiers of the 6th company were already famished.

They were just waiting for Feng Guanghua's order.

"Everyone, let's eat!"

After the commander of the 6th company gave his orders, he turned around and walked out of the cafeteria, heading in the direction of Qin Yuan's office.

"Al! Why do you think the soldiers of the logistics company are always so embarrassing during the military exercise every year?"

"Do you still need to ask? The logistics company is a gathering place for cowards."

"It is! How can there be any good soldiers in a place like this!"

"I really don't know what they're thinking."

"Since you've chosen to be a soldier, why don't you have any dreams or pursuits?"

"Sigh, don't talk about it anymore. Look at how weak they are. What else can they do other than raising pigs and growing vegetables?"

"Just look at how tanned they are when they're just growing vegetables!"

"Hahaha..."

The canteen was instantly filled with the gossip of the 6th company's soldiers.

And they did not know that the soldiers of the logistics company had all gone through this period of brutal training to become so tanned.

Geng Hu, who was walking past them, heard their laughter and asked, "What are you guys talking about?"

The sudden voice behind them also surprised the soldiers of the 6th company.

They all turned to look at Geng Hu.

One of the soldiers from the 6th company, who had just been discussing, looked at Geng Hu, whose face had turned cold, and teased, "We? We said you are a bunch of cowards!"

"Otherwise, you guys wouldn't be here in the logistics company!"

At this moment, Geng Hu's face was dark, like a ferocious beast about to explode. He stared at the soldier of the 6th company.

"If you have the guts, say what you just said again!"

At this moment! When Zheng Xiaohu heard Geng Hu's voice, he felt that something was wrong and immediately walked over.

"Geng Hu, don't be rash!"

Zheng Xiaohu immediately stopped Geng Hu, who was about to explode.

The soldiers of the 6th company saw that Geng Hu was about to make a move.

"What's wrong?" he immediately asked angrily. "Do you want to fight with us? We're not like that bunch of trash from the 9th company..."

"Didn't you guys get kicked out by the other companies, and ended up here?"

The soldier from the 6th company did not hold back and spoke out loud in front of everyone.

"You..."

"Platoon leader, get out of my way! Don't stop me!" Geng Hu glared at the soldiers of the 6th company.

Hearing the soldier of the 6th company say those words once more...

Zheng Xiaohu's eyes flashed with a cold light. He was furious after hearing this.

His comrades in the logistics company had put in so much effort for them.

Even after such tough training, they still had to take care of them, but in the end, they still received ridicule.

"My comrade! I don't understand. Have our brothers in the logistics company slighted you?"

"Do you have to mock our comrades in the logistics company like this?" Zheng Xiaohu's face darkened as he coldly asked.

The 6th company soldier didn't pay any attention to him.

He then said to Zheng Xiaohu,

"Am I not telling the truth?"

"You guys can go ask the other companies."

"Who doesn't know that you're a bunch of useless soldiers!"

"You people, your previous training didn't work! Now, even the food they cook tastes so bad!"

"What right do you have to lose your temper?"

At this moment! All the soldiers of the 6th company in the canteen heard the argument and looked over.

However, no one went up to stop the soldier.

This was because, in their eyes, the logistics company was just like that.

Weaklings would be laughed at wherever they were.

Especially in a place like the Army, where strength spoke for itself.

Perhaps when they were on the battlefield, they would be comrades and brothers, and they could leave their backs to each other without worry.

However, in the camp, in daily life training, this so-called competitive relationship still existed at all times.

Bang...

A black shadow flashed past and a heavy punch landed on the face of the soldier from the 6th company.

Two of his front teeth flew out along with blood. The soldier covered his mouth and fell to the ground.

“Platoon leader! There’s no need to waste your breath on someone like him!”

“If you can fight, then don’t talk so much nonsense with him.”

“We can only use our fists to teach them how to respect others.”

Geng Hu retracted his fist and said to Zheng Xiaohu.

The soldier of the 6th company who had fallen to the ground finally reacted. It turned out that Geng Hu had attacked him without him knowing.

He immediately got up and roared, “F*ck, you actually dare to attack me.”

After he finished speaking, he clenched his fist and punched Geng Hu.

Geng Hu did not panic at all. He turned around and raised his leg to kick.

Bang...

A figure was sent flying. Geng Hu kicked the soldier of the 6th company and sent him flying. He knocked over a few tables and fainted.

In just a few short seconds, that soldier from the 6th company was completely defeated.

Moreover, Geng Hu received special care from Qin Yuan every day.

If he still didn’t have such strength, then he would be letting down the brutal training he had undergone during this period.

The jaws of the soldiers of the 6th company dropped when they saw this scene!

Although Geng Hu’s body was very big, it was not that terrifying!

The soldier on the ground was not the toughest soldier in the 6th company.

But no matter what, at the very least, he would still be in the top twenty in the 6th company!

He should be more than able to deal with a soldier of the logistics company.

In just a few seconds, he had been sent flying by Geng Hu's kick.

Just as everyone was still immersed in what had just happened.

A soldier of the 6th company had a look of surprise on his face.

He did not expect that the logistics company, the Holy Land of cowards, would have such skilled soldiers.

He looked at Geng Hu and couldn't help but say, "You're pretty good, private!"

"But... You actually beat up one of our 6th company's men, that's just too much."

Geng Hu also glanced at the person who had spoken. He had the same military rank as Zheng Xiaohu.

He should be a platoon leader of the 6th company.

However, Geng Hu still had a look of disdain on his face. Ever since he had become a soldier, he had not been afraid of anyone other than Qin Yuan.

"So what? People who talk too much deserve to be beaten."

"Since you, as their platoon leader, don't know how to teach them how to respect others, then I'll help you teach them."

When the platoon leader of the 6th company heard Geng Hu's words, his face darkened.

He had not expected that Geng Hu would not even care about him.

Geng Hu's disdainful attitude made him a little angry.

He did not expect to be looked down upon in such a place as the logistics company.

What right did this group of people have?

How could he speak to him like that?

Chapter 39: Having the Strength to Compete on the Training Ground (1)

"Since that's the case, brothers of 3rd platoon, attack! We can't let our brothers get beaten up for nothing!"

The 3rd platoon commander of the 6th company glared at Geng Hu and ordered his men.

"Yes! Platoon leader!"

The soldiers of the 3rd platoon of the 6th company immediately surrounded Geng Hu after receiving the order from their platoon leader.

Zheng Xiaohu saw that the situation was not right and immediately walked to the platoon leader.

“Platoon leader Jiang! Don’t be rash! Everyone, calm down!”

After the conflict with the 9th company, Zheng Xiaohu calmed down a lot.

He didn’t want to cause Qin Yuan any more trouble.

If he were to fight with the 6th company here, he would only bring more trouble to his company commander and the others.

“What’s wrong? You were the ones who started it, and now you’re backing off?”

The 3rd platoon commander of the 6th company also sounded a little displeased.

“Platoon leader Jiang, calm down. Everyone, calm down. We’re all comrades!”

“If there’s anything, let’s talk it out! Moreover, this is our logistics company’s camp.”

“It’ll be hard to explain to everyone if something happened.” Zheng Xiaohu quickly said.

The 3rd platoon commander of the 6th company fixed his gaze on Geng Hu, not taking Zheng Xiaohu’s words seriously at all.

Although they were both platoon leaders, he was the platoon leader of the 6th company.

It was not something their logistics company could compare to.

“So what! If you dare to make the first move, then don’t be afraid!”

“We, the people of 6th company, can’t be beaten up for nothing...” The 3rd platoon commander of the 6th company said coldly.

Geng Hu clenched his fists tightly again. He walked around Zheng Xiaohu and walked forward.

“Platoon leader, why are you wasting your breath on them? I alone am enough to deal with them!”

“These people, only fists can teach them how to respect others.”

“Geng Hu... You better be quiet!”

“Don’t tell me you still want to cause trouble for the company commander?”

Zheng Xiaohu wasn’t the least bit afraid of the soldiers of the 6th company.

To them, dealing with the entire 6th company was not a problem at all.

Upon hearing Geng Hu’s words, the 3rd platoon leader of the 6th company also laughed playfully.

“Yo! Looks like you’re still not convinced! Then there’s no need to say more.”

“I really like that line of yours, use your fists to solve problems!”

“3rd platoon, beat him up!”

The 3rd platoon commander of the 6th company was already seething with anger in his heart.

After a short while, almost 40 people from the 3rd platoon of the 6th company surrounded them. The soldiers of the 2nd platoon of the logistics company saw that the situation was not right and also rushed over.

Even though there were only a dozen or so people in the 2nd platoon of the logistics company. However, as long as the 6th company dared to make a move, they would no longer have any scruples.

“All of you, stop! Jiang Feng, what are you trying to do?”

Just as they were about to start fighting.

A loud shout broke the tense atmosphere, and everyone stopped in their tracks.

They looked out of the door and saw the 6th company commander, Qin Yuan, and the others walking in.

The commander of the 6th company stared at the soldiers of the 6th company with a serious expression, waiting for them to give him an explanation.

Jiang Feng saw that his company commander seemed to be angry, so he explained, “Commander! They made the first move, and dopey has already been knocked out by him!”

The 6th company’s commander’s face gradually changed and he immediately rebuked, “Even so, you can’t do anything. This is a military camp. Do you think this is a Bandit’s den?”

“You guys think that the training isn’t enough, right?”

“No! Company commander...” Jiang Feng wanted to say something but stopped.

“Don’t embarrass me here!”

The commander of the 6th company said angrily as he looked at the soldier of the 6th company who was lying on the ground not far away.

A look of surprise flashed in his eyes.

He knew that soldier. He was ranked high in the military tests held within the company.

He didn’t expect to be knocked unconscious by a soldier from the logistics company.

“What’s going on?”

Qin Yuan also walked over with a serious expression.

Zheng Xiaohu also quickly explained,

“Commander! When we were having dinner just now, our comrades in 6th company said a few words about us.”

“Geng Hu happened to hear it. Then, they started fighting.”

In an instant, Qin Yuan understood what had happened.

He knew that Geng Hu and the others had been ridiculed by the soldiers of the 6th company again. With Geng Hu's character, it was impossible for him not to make a move.

"Hmph! Jiang Feng... Take all of you in the 3rd platoon and run 20 laps around the training ground."

"If you can't finish, you don't have to sleep tonight."

The commander of the 6th company berated the soldiers of the 3rd platoon.

They were here for training, and he didn't want to get into a conflict with the soldiers of the logistics company during this time.

Furthermore, he had just come into contact with Qin Yuan and realized that Qin Yuan was not a simple person.

Having been in the Army for so many years, he could tell that the atmosphere of the logistics company seemed to be different from before.

"Yes!"

"Yes!"

When the 3rd platoon commander of the 6th company heard his angry rebuking, he could only helplessly run towards the training ground with his soldiers.

Before he left, he glared at Geng Hu with a gloomy face.

Just as Jiang Feng led the soldiers of the 3rd platoon of the 6th company out...

Qin Yuan also shouted at Geng Hu, "Geng Hu! Go out and run with the comrades of 6th company."

"Add 10 kg to the original load!"

"If you can't finish it in an hour, then clean the pigsty again!"

"Company commander... I..."

Geng Hu still wanted to explain but was stopped by Qin Yuan's words.

"Add another 10 kg! If you have any strength left, use it in your training."

"Yes!"

After saying that, Geng Hu did not dare to speak to Qin Yuan anymore.

Now, his weight was 110kg for each weighted training.

Now, with the addition of 20kg, he still had to finish 20 laps in half an hour.

That lap was 800 meters, so 20 laps would be 16 kilometers.

Geng Hu could only brace himself and run to the training ground.

"Commander Qin, I'm really sorry."

“It’s my fault for not disciplining my company’s soldiers well!”

The commander of the 6th company was a little embarrassed. After all, the 6th company was here for training.

They had been troubling the logistics company to take care of their logistics work.

He didn’t expect that his company’s soldiers would actually have a conflict with the logistics company’s soldiers.

Qin Yuan retracted his serious expression and replied politely, “It’s fine. All soldiers have a temper.”

“Since they still have the energy, let them use it on the training ground!”

“Company commander Qin...”

“I’ve noticed that the soldiers in the logistics unit seem different from before, not just in terms of their military appearance, but in other ways too!”

The 6th company’s commander glanced at the soldiers of the logistics company and was surprised.

He looked at the dark-skinned soldiers of the logistics company and their determined eyes.

From their bodies, they exuded the fierce aura of soldiers.

From what he knew, this was not an aura that a soldier from the logistics company should have.

“What’s different?”

“Commander of the 6th company, they’re still the same as before.”

“When they start training, they still complain every day. They don’t have the determination of a soldier at all.” Qin Yuan said indifferently.

At this moment, the soldiers of the logistics company also had helpless expressions when they heard Qin Yuan’s words.

With Qin Yuan’s abnormal training method...

Not complaining? Was that even possible?

Which company had such abnormal training among the other companies in the Iron Fist Regiment?

“Commander Qin! You don’t have to be so modest.”

“I can see that each and every one of them is no weaker than the soldiers of our 6th company!”

The commander of the 6th company suppressed the surprise in his heart. He believed that what he said would definitely not be wrong.

The soldiers of the logistics company now were no longer the lazy soldiers of the past.

No matter what, he had been in the Army for ten years.

He couldn’t help but have a strong interest in Qin Yuan.

In just two short months, he had trained a group of useless soldiers to such a level.

“Let’s go, commander of the 6th company!”

“We’ve been busy all day, let’s eat first!”

Qin Yuan changed the topic.

Chapter 40: Poaching

“Alright!”

The commander of the 6th company also felt that Qin Yuan did not want to say too much, so he did not continue speaking.

After that, they walked to the dining table.

Half an hour later.

On the training ground, a huge figure was carrying a heavy backpack and speeding across the field.

Jiang Feng followed closely behind him.

The people in the 3rd platoon of the 6th company followed behind them.

Everyone’s clothes were already drenched in sweat, and they could only run on the field with difficulty while panting.

“What’s wrong with this big stupid guy?”

“Is there anyone like him who starts running at an increased speed at the beginning of field training?”

“Yup! We’ve been running for so long.”

“F*ck! I’m so tired!”

“We’ve been running behind this silly boy all the way until now!”

“If this continues, I’ll be exhausted after 15 laps, let alone 20.”

The soldiers of the 3rd platoon of the 6th company were discussing in low voices.

However, Geng Hu could not care less.

Not only him, but the entire logistics company was the same.

As long as you slowed down, you would know the feeling of a bullet hitting your feet.

If he dared to slow down even a little bit, the bullet would hit him mercilessly.

At that moment when they were close to death, no one dared to pause.

After every field training, everyone in the logistics company could break through their physical limits.

Right now, everyone in the logistics company only had one sentence in their minds.

“Slow? Then you’ll get shot!”

In a short while, Geng Hu and Jiang Feng gradually left the rest of the 6th company 3rd platoon behind.

“This kid, does he know how to run cross-country?”

Jiang Feng followed closely behind Geng Hu and was also surprised.

He had not expected that Geng Hu would run at an accelerated speed while carrying a heavy load.

However, he did not believe that Geng Hu would be able to last until the end.

It was obviously reckless to run at such a high speed.

Geng Hu's behavior of continuously accelerating and running throughout the whole distance just shows that he is a person who is brave but lacks wisdom.

Jiang Feng immediately sped up and rushed in front of Geng Hu in an instant.

In his heart, even if he had to follow Geng Hu and stupidly accelerated, he didn't want to lose to him.

He could not lose to Geng Hu.

“There's still 8 laps to go! There should only be 20 minutes left.”

“If you can't run all the way, you'll have to deal with the company commander's personality.”

“I'm sure it's not just to clean the pigsty.”

“He might even continue to beat me up...”

“No, I have to go faster.” Geng Hu sighed in his heart.

At the mention of Qin Yuan, Geng Hu's mind was filled with the fear of being dominated by Qin Yuan.

Geng Hu could only bite the bullet and take a deep breath. He picked up his speed and dashed forward.

He was already afraid of Qin Yuan. Every time they sparred during training, to put it nicely, he was just a sparring partner.

But in actual fact, Qin Yuan had been beating him up all the time.

Every time, he thought that he would be one step closer to Qin Yuan.

However, each time, he would only be beaten up more miserably than the last time.

It's not that Geng Hu's strength has stopped improving, but it's just that Qin Yuan was really too abnormal.

He was getting stronger and stronger.

“F*ck! I don't care, I'll be crippled if I keep running like this!”

“Exactly! You see, the platoon leader is already at the same pace with him.”

“That’s right! However, we have to slow down. If we continue like this, our legs will cramp.”

On the training ground, the soldiers watched Jiang Feng and Geng Hu’s figures and slowed down.

The two of them, Jiang Feng and Geng Hu, refused to back down and neither of them was willing to submit to the other.

They surpassed each other, and their speed did not decrease at all.

Just as they were about to reach the last few seconds of the hour.

Jiang Feng was the first to reach the finish line.

Geng Hu followed closely behind and crossed the finish line at the last second.

“The platoon leader still won!”

“Yup! How could the platoon leader lose?”

“That’s right, how could this silly boy outrun the platoon leader if he runs like this?”

“The platoon leader is awesome!”

“The platoon leader is awesome!”

The soldiers of the 3rd platoon of the 6th company behind them couldn’t help but cheer for their platoon leader. They watched the two of them finish running and started discussing among themselves.

Bang...

A dull sound rang out.

Geng Hu, who had crossed the finish line, fell heavily to the ground. The weight on his back, together with him, smashed into the ground.

The 130 kg of weight plus his own 100 kg weight.

He was thrown back heavily, and the ground caved in.

“F*ck! How many kilograms is this kid carrying?”

“It’s that heavy?”

“That’s right! The ground has caved in.”

“Look at the capacity of that bag. It should be at least 40 kg.”

“Yup! Running at full speed with such a heavy load?”

“What the hell is this kid? That abnormal?”

“Yup! If he could run at 40kg and finish at almost the same time as the platoon leader, that would be crazy.”

“How did this kid end up in the logistics company with such strength!”

“I’m not sure, but why do I feel that although the platoon leader won, he didn’t win at all!”

The soldiers of the 3rd platoon of the 6th company gasped in surprise.

They didn’t know what to say as they looked at his backpack that had sunk into the ground.

The most surprised person was none other than Jiang Feng because what he heard was not the sound of the stone hitting the ground.

The dull sound was more like the sound of iron.

Out of curiosity, Jiang Feng walked toward Geng Hu. He looked down and saw a large piece of black iron in Geng Hu’s bag.

Looking at the size of the iron piece, it must be at least 70 or 80 kilograms.

“F*ck! How can this kid be so abnormal?”

“Running at full speed with this kind of weight?”

Jiang Feng’s heart was in a state of shock. If that was the case, Geng Hu’s physical fitness was not worse than his.

It was even many times stronger than him.

If he were to carry such a load, he would not be able to finish the entire race so quickly.

It was possible that he would be lying on the ground after 10 laps.

And he didn’t know that the big piece of iron was a whole 130 kilograms.

At this moment, the commander of the 6th company and Qin Yuan walked out after eating.

He also saw the scene on the field.

“Company commander Qin? You’ve really picked up a treasure!”

The commander of the 6th company said in surprise.

He had also found out from Qin Yuan that Geng Hu was the soldier who had gone to the headquarters last time.

He had not expected Geng Hu to have such strength.

Such a soldier would really be buried in the logistics company.

At the same time, he was also a little regretful.

No one wanted Geng Hu back then!

At that time, everyone was trying to avoid him, including himself.

The 6th company’s commander suddenly felt a burst of regret.

Qin Yuan looked at the remorseful face of the 6th company's commander and smiled faintly, "Him! He's just a big idiot, he's not smart at all."

"I can only bring him back to the logistics company to raise pigs and grow vegetables."

"He's quite strong. He's good at carrying pigs."

"Commander Qin, you're mocking me."

"We were blind back then!"

"Commander Qin, why don't you let him join our 6th company?"

The commander of the 6th company laughed bitterly to himself. Geng Hu was someone that the few of them didn't want initially.

However, Geng Hu's strength had indeed shocked him.

If Geng Hu were in their 6th company, their 6th company's strength would definitely rise to a whole new level.

Even though it was a little embarrassing to say that, the team's ranking would be higher in the military exercise.

However, he could only be thick-skinned for the company ranking and ask Qin Yuan for him.
