

Special Troop 701

Chapter 701 - 701: Straining at the Leash! (1)

‘Everyone is at a loss on how to train in the future.’

I’ve talked to a few battalion commanders. They feel that with the current training method, they will still lose to the Mountain Leopard Brigade!’

”Therefore, the enthusiasm for training is not high.

“I’m done talking.”

The chief of staff looked up at Zhang Xiaoyu and Wang Zhigang to see if their expressions had changed.

Wang Zhigang suddenly pointed at him.

“Yes! You’re right!”

”There’s no Mountain Leopard Brigade, no so-called professional blue army.

Our training is going well.”

But after a drill with the Mountain Leopard Brigade, we became like this.”

He then pointed at Zhang Xiaoyu.

“Tell me, what is the problem?”

Zhang Xiaoyu felt that he was really unreasonable. After talking for a long time, he still did not realize his own problem.

They thought that the Mountain Leopard Brigade had messed up the 909th Brigade.

“I feel that the problem is not with the Mountain Leopard Brigade, but with ourselves.”

“We haven’t changed many of our ideas and concepts.”

”I think that we just haven’t looked for our own problems from the perspective of actual combat.

Wang Zhigang sneered.

“A personal problem?”

“If we didn’t fight the Mountain Leopard Brigade this time, but directly fought the 808th Brigade.”

“Have you thought about what would happen?”

The Chief of Staff shook his head.

“Never thought about it.”

Wang Zhigang continued.

“I’ve thought about it.”

It will be a showdown between the South China Tiger and the North China Tiger! ”

” That’s the true strength of two modern mechanized infantry brigades!” “Fighting against an expert, even if you lose, it’s still an honor.”

“We can win and we can lose. I’m convinced!”

Wang Zhigang was still immersed in his own world.

He still thought that the Mountain Leopard Brigade was not qualified to fight against him.

Moreover, he did not fail in this exercise.

He didn’t know what kind of disaster his arrogant behavior would bring to the 909th Brigade in the future.

Zhang Xiaoyu said earnestly.

‘ Old Wang, but we didn’t defeat them. You looked down on them. They only have half a brigade’s strength, and you’ve been imagining the enemy’s forces.”

“You’re still here, skinny donkey, pooping hard. You’re still unconvinced.”

“Don’t you feel sad?”

Wang Zhigang was still unrepentant.

“What is sorrow?”

Zhang Xiaoyu did not make things clear because of him.

But at this moment, he really could not take it anymore.

It’s precisely because of your misconception that the officers and soldiers of the 909th Brigade are hindered from realizing the importance and necessity of training reform! ”

Wang Zhigang didn’t expect him to criticize him in public, even though there were only the three of them in the meeting room.

‘You...”

Zhang Xiaoyu had already gone all out.

“What about me?”

Wang Zhigang finally understood that today’s meeting was for him. “I don’t think you’re just bickering. You’re here for me!”

The chief of staff was stuck between the two of them and felt very uncomfortable. He did not know what to say for a moment and was afraid that he would say the wrong thing.

Zhang Xiaoyu turned his head away and ignored him.

After a while, Wang Zhigang couldn't stand the cold war atmosphere that was directed at him.

He slammed the table and said in a deep voice.

"I still reserve my own opinion!"

"If it's my responsibility, I won't shirk it!"

"It's my fault. I'll write a checkup."

But the 909th Brigade is definitely not as incurable as you think!

"I will stand by my opinion for the honor of the 909th Brigade."

"Let's go!"

Then, he patted his butt and wanted to leave.

The chief of staff quickly tried to persuade him. "Brigadier general, where are you going at this time of night?" Upper Second Battalion's training ground on the sea!"

Zhang Xiaoyu slammed the table hard.

"I haven't said that the meeting is over yet!"

Wang Zhigang's body froze.

The chief of staff felt that the smell of gunpowder between the two of them was very strong. If he did not stand up and say something, the two of them might really fight.

Then, he hurriedly stood up and said.

"Brigade...Brigadier General, I... I still have something to say."

"Let me finish before you leave, okay?"

"Come, come, sit down first."

Then, he pulled out the chair beside Wang Zhigang and gestured for him to sit down.

Wang Zhigang didn't want his relationship with Zhang Xiaoyu to be too strained. After all, he was about to be promoted.

When the leaders of the military came to inspect, Zhang Xiaoyu would have a great influence on his suggestions.

Now that the Chief of Staff had given him a way out, he would stay and give him face.

After Wang Zhigang sat down, the chief of staff looked at Zhang Xiaoyu.

"Political commissar, what do you think?"

Zhang Xiaoyu nodded.

Now that he was also feeling emotional, it was not good to continue saying anything.

“I’m the chief of staff. I’m in charge of the training.”

I’m responsible for the training problems, so I have to reflect on myself.”

“Hong Yi and Commander Zhu talked to me some time ago.”

” They wanted to carry out training and reform, and both of them also came up with some new and specific training plans and programs.

“I did, but I still don’t think it’s appropriate.”

“There are some unsafe factors in some places.”

“So I returned it and let them modify it.”

” What I’m thinking is to wait until the time is ripe for these plans and plans to be reported to the brigade party committee.”

“I feel that I didn’t put this work into practice..”

Chapter 702 - 702 Straining at the Leash! (2)

In the end, the chief of staff still sided with Wang Zhigang and spoke up for him.

However, how could Wang Zhigang not know that he was trying to take responsibility for it.

Thus, he said.

” Whether you report it or not, I know all about it. It’s not your responsibility.”

Zhang Xiaoyu looked at the two of them singing a double act in front of him. It was really unbearable.

He thought that the Chief of Staff would say something useful.

In the end, he still spoke up for Wang Zhigang.

At this moment, Commander Zhu suddenly pushed open the door and entered.

He still didn’t know what had just happened.

“I heard that you guys haven’t finished your meeting yet, so I rushed over.”

Zhang Xiaoyu said when he saw that there was finally someone standing beside him.

“Commander Zhu, you came at the right time. Tell me your opinion.”

Commander Zhu nodded.

” I won’t say much about the future. Let’s talk about the training mission that Brigade Commander Wang gave us tonight.”

” A few captains and I revised the training plan, and everyone came up with a lot of ideas.”

” In the end, I decided to use two of the plans and set a few small goals.”

” It’s mainly focused on intensive training, such as how to control the accelerator in the wind and waves, grasp the timing of aiming and firing, and the speed of sailing.”

Then, she sat down and turned on her computer.

“Come, come and see.”

The few of them surrounded him.

Commander Zhu pointed at the information on the screen and explained.

” The first group will practice on the beach. The car won’t go into the sea.”

” Shooting at the floating lights on the sea is mainly for the archers ‘training.’”

” The second group is the sea driving training.”

“It’s mainly the captain, driver, communicator, observer, etc. who go to sea with the car to train.”

Seeing this, the chief of staff laughed.

The conflict between the political commissar and the brigade commander should be alleviated now, right?

Commander Zhu continued.

“Other than that, we have another plan.”

” It’s to invite back a few excellent pilots and cannon captains who have retired from the military.”

Wang Zhigang was a little surprised.

“Invite them back?”

“Yes!”

“We plan to invite them back to be temporary instructors for our soldiers.”

“I’ve already called them.”

“Can they come back?”

” When they heard that the army needed them, they were very happy. They were very happy to return to the army and experience military life again.”

” Some took the plane, some took the high-speed rail. They were all so excited that they rushed here overnight.”

Wang Zhigang was overjoyed.

“What we lack is instructors with practical experience!”

“Is the old Battalion Commander of the Second Battalion coming back too?”

Commander Zhu nodded.

“Yes, he will definitely come!”

“Good! That’s great!”

“As long as he comes over, there won’t be any problems!”

” He’s a first-class commander, a first-class gunner, and a role model for our instructors.”

“As long as he can come over and help, we will definitely pass this training!”

Then, he patted Commander Zhu’s shoulder and praised.

“Alright! Old Zhu!”

“I didn’t expect you to come up with this idea!”

” I think the newbies nowadays are not lacking in skills, but they lack actual combat experience.”

“I’ll call the second battalion commander and the other veterans and explain the situation at the same time.”

“Ask them how to deal with special sea conditions.”

“The second battalion commander even imparted his own training experience to us!”

” Later, he said that it’s far away, so I might as well go over. I can’t explain it clearly over the phone.”

Wang Zhigang nodded repeatedly.

“Alright! The heavens are really helping me!”

” Our old comrades from the 909th Brigade still have feelings!”

“With their help, I have a chance of passing this assessment!”

When Zhang Xiaoyu heard what he said, he knew that he was implying that Hong Yi wanted to be a professional.

Originally, because of Commander Zhu’s good news, his expression became slightly better.

However, he was implying that this matter had been brought up. His face immediately fell.

“At that time, we didn’t want to let them go either. Training and fighting depend on talent!”

He was also trying to retort, implying that the 909th Brigade could not lose a talent like Hong Yi.

Commander Zhu echoed.

“Brigadier General, this is only a temporary solution. It’s not a long-term solution.”

Chapter 703 - 703: Operation Alarm

After more than an hour’s journey, Qin Yuan drove to the gate of the military headquarters.

At this moment, the sky had already turned bright.

Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun walked in and headed to the office.

Chief of Staff Shen of the military had heard from Qin Yuan on the phone yesterday that he had something very important to tell him today.

He woke up early in the morning and waited quietly in the office.

As soon as Qin Yuan opened the door and walked in, Chief of Staff Shen scolded him angrily.

“You brat, can’t you understand an old man like me?”

“You got me up early in the morning to wait for you here.”

“If the matter you’re talking about isn’t anything important, I definitely won’t let you off!”

Long Xiaoyun was also furious.

Seeing that Chief of Staff Shen was on the same side as him, he was also dissatisfied with Qin Yuan. echoed.

“That’s right, that’s right!”

“We can’t compare to you. You’re like a strong cow. You don’t need to rest!”

Qin Yuan and Chief of Staff Shen’s relationship had always been that of a teacher and a friend since the exercise.

Qin Yuan was not angry after being scolded by him.

She walked to his side and placed her hands on his shoulders as she said with a smile.

“Old Shen, don’t you know my personality?”

“Do I look like the kind of person who finds trouble for nothing?” “Something that can trouble you to personally do it must be very important.”

“If it were those trivial matters, I wouldn’t have looked for you.”

“Wouldn’t that be like killing a chicken with a butcher’s knife?”

“Don’t you think so?”

Staff Officer Shen was so angry that he laughed and slapped his hand away.

“Pay attention to your image!”

“Can’t you see that Captain Long is still here?”

“So you’ve explained so much here, but in the end, you still don’t forget to insult an old man like me, right?”

Qin Yuan chuckled. “How would I dare!”

“I’m just praising you!”

Long Xiaoyun, who was standing at the side, could not help but roll her eyes at him.

“Let’s get down to business!”

“I wanted to come earlier so that I could go back and sleep early!”

Chief of Staff Shen also knew that Long Xiaoyun and he were working hard, so he thought the same.

“That’s right!”

“Hurry up and get down to business!”

Qin Yuan immediately stopped smiling and said seriously.

“Chief of Staff Shen, I think there are some things that should attract our attention.”

“What are you referring to?”

“Recently, the inspection team of the Military Committee came to our theater of operations and found some problems in the army of our theater of operations.”

” The most prominent thing is the lack of security awareness.

‘ Especially in the daily management of the garrison. There are huge loopholes.”

“We have to take this seriously!”

Chief of Staff Shen thought about it. It seemed that there were frequent incidents of outsiders illegally invading the small islands at the border of the country.

So he nodded and said.

“It seems that there is indeed such a thing.” “Do you have any good suggestions?” Qin Yuan nodded.

“I came here today for this matter.”

‘ Can you ask our Mountain Leopard Brigade to launch a warning operation for the troops in our military region and give these units a warning?”

Operation Alarm Bell?” “Yes! It’s called Operation Alarm.”

Qin Yuan explained.

“Ever since our Mountain Leopard Brigade was founded, we have always appeared as a foreign army.”

“This time, I plan to use this identity to suddenly attack the important positions of these units and cause some damage to them.”

“Of course, these damages are not irreparable.” “I just want them to know that there will be darkness under the peaceful sun.” Staff Officer Shen understood what he meant.

“From the perspective of being close to actual combat, it should be done.”

“It’s often impossible for you to attract their attention just by sending out the next notice.”

When Qin Yuan saw Chief of Staff Shen nod, he immediately felt that there was hope in this matter and said with a smile.

“So you agree?”

“If you agree, can you help us back up with Captain Long?”

“Otherwise, when we take action, they will treat us as real foreign troops.”

“If we were to get hit by real artillery fire, our Mountain Leopard Brigade would be the unlucky ones.”

“What do you think?”

Chief of Staff Shen knew that Qin Yuan would not come to visit him for no reason.

Nothing good could come from him.

“You mean you want me to clean up your mess?” Qin Yuan retorted.

“Look at you, why are you making it sound so ugly!” “What do you mean by wiping your ass!” “You’re contributing to our country’s security.”

“What about our Mountain Leopard Brigade?” It’s Li Hongzhang who would rather bear the infamy for this contribution. ”

Staff Officer Shen pretended to be angry.

“Humph!”

“It would be strange if there was such a good thing.”

“Do you think I don’t know you?”

“Maybe there’s a trap waiting for me to jump into!”

Qin Yuan saw that the soft approach did not work, so he planned to use force.

“Alright then!”

“Since you’re unwilling, I think we should just forget about this matter.” Then, he put on a pained expression.

I was born in Huaxia, but I couldn’t shed my blood for it when I was in danger.”

“I have nowhere to use my courage.”

“Although I’m a red rabbit, I haven’t seen Beautiful Beard Duke.”

“Although he is a thousand-li horse, he has never seen a Bole.”

“This world is really...”

Chief of Staff Shen saw that the more he spoke, the more unpleasant it became.

He hurriedly interrupted.

“Alright, alright!”

Chapter 704 - 704: Operation Alarm (2)

“I promise you, okay?”

He said unhappily.

“You brat!”

“I’m already 50 years old, and you still want me to clean up these messes for you!”

As soon as he let go, Qin Yuan’s painful expression disappeared.

Instead, it was replaced by a flattering look.

“Chief of Staff Shen, I knew you wouldn’t turn a blind eye to the country’s security issues.”

“A patriotic person like you will definitely help me!”

Staff Officer Shen had no choice but to say helplessly.

“Just leave it to an old man like me to build!” “Let’s see how many years my old bones can last!”

Qin Yuan said with a smile.

“You can’t say that!”

‘ Chief of Staff Shen, I’m not happy with what you said. I’ve learned how to read physiognomy before.”

“At your age, you’re still plump and your face is glowing red.”

“I’ll definitely live a long life!”

His words sounded like human words, and Chief Shen’s anger subsided a little.

“Alright, just tell me what you want me to do!”

“As long as it’s not illegal, I can help you.”

“Alright, I’ll be straightforward!”

When night came, Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun returned to the base camp of the Mountain Leopard Brigade.

Liu Ye had been waiting at the door for a long time.

Qin Yuan got out of the car and asked when he saw him.

“How is it? Is everyone here?”

Liu Ye replied.

“Reporting to the brigade commander, everyone is here!”

However, he was a little puzzled.

“Brigadier General, what is it that is so urgent?” “You called us for a meeting right after dinner?” Long Xiaoyun explained.

“Staff Officer Shen has a new order to give.”

“What mission?”

In our Army Military District, we’re going to conduct a large-scale inspection of safety awareness.”

“Let’s cooperate with the safety education and launch a small-scale operation.”

“Let’s go in and talk in detail.”

After a while, the three of them walked into the meeting room together.

In the meeting room, all the members of the Battle Wolf Brigade had become the officers of the new Mountain Leopard Brigade.

Seeing Qin Yuan and the others walk in, the captain of the special forces, Geng Hu, was the first to stand up. “Stand up! ”

The others immediately stood up. Qin Yuan walked to his seat.

“Sit down!”

The group of people sat down in a sparse manner.

Liu Ye spoke first. “What is the Bureau Chief’s intention?”

Qin Yuan explained.

“I just went to Staff Officer Shen’s place with Commissar Long this morning.

You guys take a look at this first.”

After saying that, Qin Yuan handed him a USB flash drive.

Then, he said.

‘Commissar Long has also written an analysis report on the loopholes in the safety management of the army in the theater of operations.”

“After reading all this, I was so scared that I broke out in a cold sweat!”

“We have the responsibility to inform these units and report to the leaders so that they can make changes quickly.”

Then, he looked at Liu Ye.

“Chief of Staff Liu, you will be in charge of organizing the meeting. Lin

Xiaoxiao, He Chengguang, you guys will participate.”

Draw up a plan for this matter as soon as possible.”

Liu Ye smiled awkwardly.

I have no other choice but to organize this battle plan. However, I think we should let Commissar Long lead the way on the matter of the materials for the Evil Notification.”

Long Xiaoyun said.

“I’ve already written the materials.”

“The brigade commander wants your combat department to get involved because he wants you to confirm how to report it.” “In a situation like this, how can I react better?”

Liu Ye thought for a moment.

“Then can you give me a limit?”

“This will allow us to have a standard when we make the plan.”

“What do you want?”

“This... It’s just the scale!”

Liu Ye didn’t know how to explain.

At this moment, Zheng Xiaohu stood up and said.

“Chief of Staff Liu, it’s hard to say. Then let me say it!”

“I understand Chief of Staff Liu’s concerns. But should we be more ruthless or gentle in this operation?”

“Should we make a bigger commotion or stop?”

When Liu Ye heard this, he immediately laughed. This was completely in line with what he wanted to say.

“Hey! ”

“The one who knows me is Zheng Xiaohu!”

Geng Hu of the special forces could not help but ask.

“If we were gentle, would it be effective?”

“Good medicine is bitter to the mouth, but good advice is unpleasant to the ear!”

“I think we should be more ruthless.”

“Otherwise, why would the Bureau Chief assign the mission to our Mountain Leopard Brigade?”

“As for the size of the commotion, it still depends on the size of the hole.”

‘ For example, some units don’t even update their firewall once every six months, and they don’t take the initiative to check their own firewall.” “For these units, we have to be more ruthless and make a bigger commotion!”

“It’s also good to let them have a taste of a lesson!”

After a pause, he continued.

“There are also some departments, although they are not important departments.”

However, the repeated reminders and warnings were like wind blowing past their ears. They didn’t react at all.” “Brigadier General, what do you think?” Qin Yuan smiled.

“I think it’s better to be gentle!”

He had promised Staff Officer Shen that he would not do anything illegal.

If she was so ruthless and he found out that she had caused him a big trouble.

Perhaps he would fly directly to the Mountain Leopard Brigade and flip him over.

Liu Ye thought for a moment.

“You mean... The vehicle equipment factory of the V Army?”

Long Xiaoyun did not believe it. With Qin Yuan’s past practice, it was not his style to treat his “enemies” gently. “What kind of gentleness do you mean by gentleness?”

“What I meant was to stop there!” Then, he looked at Liu Ye and added.

” There’s also the fuel depot of Army Group Y.”

“It’s one of the prominent problems that the inspection group of the Military Committee found when they came to the theater of operations.”

Lin Xiaoxiao said.

“In that case, it’s not a small matter?”

Qin Yuan nodded.

Long Xiaoyun disagreed with him.

“Even if we only touch the point, we have to touch the acupuncture points and not scratch the surface.” Qin Yuan smiled.

“That’s what I meant.’

“The one who knows me is Political Commissar Long! ”

Long Xiaoyun rolled her eyes at him. “Alright, it should have been your mission.”

‘You’re good. You let others come up with a plan for you, and you’re the one who’s doing nothing.”

Qin Yuan smiled awkwardly and turned to say to everyone.

“The purpose of this operation is to sound the alarm.”

” The key is when and how loudly they Imock. The key is which departments should knock!”

“I think so.”

“The method used depends on the unit or department we are dealing with.”

” As for when we’ll take action, we’ll have to wait for Chief of Staff Liu to come up with a plan.” “We’ll talk after Chief Shen reviews it.’

Liu Ye replied.

“Yes, sir!”

“Whether it’s to prepare for a rainy day or to have a sense of crisis.”

“A calm sea cannot train good sailors.”

“Since the higher-ups have given us the Mountain Leopard Brigade to carry out this mission, it is to promote the improvement of the combat effectiveness of the troops.”

Instead of waiting for our superiors to formulate a drill plan for us, it’s better for our Blue Army to take the initiative to create the enemy’s situation and sting those numb nerves.”

Long Xiaoyun nodded in agreement.

“Good! Chief of Staff Liu is right!”

“Since our Mountain Leopard Brigade has already left the mountain,”

” Waiting isn’t our style. Taking the initiative is the only way to live up to our mission.”

After returning from Chief of Staff Shen’s place, Qin Yuan brought the backbone of the Mountain Leopard Brigade and began to discuss the tasks that Chief of Staff Shen had assigned to them.

He had planned the attack plan for Operation Alarm Bell overnight.

The intention was to organize a test exercise within the scope of the theater’s army forces to defend against the infiltration of hostile forces.

The Mountain Leopard Brigade took the opportunity to launch attacks on the security loopholes of various units in order to test the daily safety precautions of various units and departments of the theater of operations.

He didn’t expect that it would cause a huge uproar in the army in the theater of operations!

Chapter 705 - 705: Taking Action Ahead of Time and Destroying the Oil Depots

Night came.

Wolf Fang Team A’s Old Gao and Tu Lang were piloting a combat helicopter in the dark and were heading to their destination for investigation. It didn’t take long for them to arrive above the Y Group’s fuel depot.

Old Gao asked Tu Lang. “Tu Lang, how’s the clarity?” “Very clear, no problem!”

‘ Alright, send the target information to Chief of Staff Liu immediately!’

“Understood!”

Then, he began to report to the command center.

“001, 001, this is 012.”

” The mission has been completed. No abnormalities have been detected. We can launch an attack!”

Liu Ye, who was sitting in the command plane, received the message and began to give orders.

“012, cover the side. 013, 014, descend immediately!”

‘ Currently, there are two soldiers standing guard at the main gate. 015, control the sentries to attack from the main gate.”

On the other side, Xiao Zhuang, paratroopers, medics, and Pao from Wolf Fang Team B also received the order and began to move.

“Roger! ”

A white van slowly drove to the entrance of Army Y’s fuel depot.

When he looked closely, it was somewhat familiar.

That's right, this was the car that the Mountain Leopard Brigade used to monitor Wang Zhigang's movements during the exercise with the 909th Brigade.

Xiao Zhuang, dressed in a business elite uniform, got out of the passenger seat.

Two sentries saw him and immediately came forward to stop him.

"Comrade, this is a restricted area!" "Please turn the car around immediately!"

Xiao Zhuang sneered in his heart.

He did not expect the sentries here to be so cautious and dedicated.

However, there are too many security loopholes in the department you're in. I can only teach you a lesson!

He said with a smile on his face.

' Hello, brother. I'm from a travel company. I have a business card."

Then, he rummaged through his pockets. The sentry looked at him indifferently.

"No business card is of any use!" "This isn't a tourist area. You're going the wrong way! "

"Please leave this place immediately!"

Xiao Zhuang wasn't angry. He took out a tourist map and pointed at the route on it.

"Look, we followed the instructions from above."

"There's only one road here. If we don't go through here, where else can we

The sentry in front of him did not believe it and leaned his head over.

Xiao Zhuang took the opportunity to call another sentry standing not far away to help take a look.

"Isn't that so?"

"Sigh! Brother, come over and help me take a look. Is there any other way?"

Then, Xiao Zhuang began his acting.

He pointed at the route and said bitterly.

"You two, there's only one road here. How do you want me to pass?"

The two sentries looked at each other and pondered for a moment.

Xiao Zhuang seized this opportunity and threw the map in his hand at the face of a sentry.

Before the other sentry could react, he quickly pulled off his hat and shouted at his face.

Sentinel No. 1 reacted and wanted to raise his gun.

Xiao Zhuang was quick to react and snatched it over.

He used the butt of the gun to hit his stomach and fell to the ground.

After Xiao Zhuang finished dealing with the two of them, he calmly loaded the gun, but realized that there were no bullets. He looked at the two people on the ground.

“No bullets?”

One of the sentinels clutched his stomach and asked warily.

“Who are you?”

Xiao Zhuang smiled faintly and threatened.

“I’m afraid I’ll scare you to death if I tell you!”

“We are from the Mountain Leopard Brigade!”

Immediately after, a team of fully armed men alighted from the white car.

The paratrooper stepped forward and couldn’t help but kick Xiao Zhuang.

“You brat, I called you down to complete the mission. I didn’t expect you to be so slow. You’re just waiting to make friends!”

Xiao Zhuang rubbed his butt and retorted.

“What do you know!”

“This is called being polite before using force!” “Don’t you know how to be a country of etiquette!”

Then, he turned around and said to the two sentries.

“Unfortunately, you two have been captured by our Mountain Leopard Brigade.”

“Let’s go, brothers.”

The two sentries looked at each other.

How did I get captured for no reason?

Xiao Zhuang saw their doubts and did not explain further. He said concisely.

“Alright, do as I say!”

“Otherwise, you might suffer physical pain!”

They could only lay down their weapons and surrender.

The paratrooper reported into the walkie-talkie. “015 has taken control of the ground!”

Then, he led everyone into the fuel depot of the Y Army.

On the other side, after Wolf Fang Team A received the information from the ground, they quickly took action.

The pilot of the combat helicopter lowered the hanging ladder. Old Gao and Tu Lang led the members of Team A down the hanging ladder and landed inside the fuel depot.

At this moment, besides those soldiers who were on sentry duty, the rest of the people in the fuel depot had long been meeting the Duke of Zhou. Xiao Zhuang came to the square with a loudspeaker and shouted into the building.

“Brothers of the 530 fuel depot!” “We’re from the Mountain Leopard Special Forces!”

“I’ll blow up your fuel depot tonight!”

“I order you to put down your empty weapons and stay in the room. Otherwise, your lives will be in danger!”

This shout immediately woke up the soldiers who were sleeping soundly. The soldiers in the dormitory immediately reacted and panicked.

“There’s a situation!”

“Brothers, hurry up and get your guns!”

‘ Class monitor, we don’t have any bullets in our guns!’

The class monitor hurriedly opened the door.

Suddenly, there was a burst of fire and the dormitory was filled with thick smoke.

This made them jump and hide under the bed.

“Call for backup!”

A soldier near the table couldn’t care less. He immediately walked to the table and picked up the phone. “Director, the warehouse is under attack!”

“Who is the other party?”

“I’m not sure. It might be a thug!”

At this moment, in the base camp of the Mountain Leopard Brigade, Long Xiaoyun hurriedly chased after Qin Yuan and asked.

“Why didn’t you tell me earlier?” Qin Yuan was helpless.

“I just found out about it!” Long Xiaoyun didn’t believe it. “Impossible!”

“Are you fooling me again?”

Qin Yuan was a little speechless.

Was he such a person?

After all, I’m a brigade commander who doesn’t go back on his word.

“How could I lie to you?”

“Staff Officer Sun, who sent the files to the army in the theater of operations, called me just now. He said that Staff Officer Shen is nowhere to be found.”

‘ So, I can only bring forward Operation Alarm Bell.”

“Otherwise, if this drags on any longer, we will be exposed.”

Long Xiaoyun thought for a while and still felt that something was wrong.

“No, I haven’t signed it yet!”

Qin Yuan waved his hand.

“This is a small matter. It doesn’t matter if you don’t sign.”

Long Xiaoyun wasn’t so easily fooled, so she continued to speak.

“If I don’t sign, it won’t be in accordance with the procedure.”

“If anything happens, I can help you bear the burden, not let you take it alone.” Qin Yuan smiled.

So you’ve been talking to me for a long time, but you’re still worried about me!

Chapter 706 - 706: You Call This Stopping at a Point?

Qin Yuan smiled and comforted her.

“How big of a thunderbolt can this small matter be?” “It’s not a few hundred billion. Don’t worry about it.”

“Next time, I will definitely discuss it with you first, okay?”

Geng Hu, Lin Xiaoxiao, and the others were already waiting at the table.

Qin Yuan took the opportunity to change the topic and asked.

“How did it go?”

Lin Xiaoxiao replied.

“The special forces have entered the target area. The members of Wolf Fang Group A and Group B have also entered.”

Qin Yuan nodded.

” Tell Staff Officer Liu to finish the battle in ten minutes!”

“Yes, sir!”

Then, Lin Xiaoxiao picked up the walkie-talkie.

“003, 003, please end the battle within ten minutes!”

“Understood!”

How could Long Xiaoyun not know what he was thinking?

She looked at him with a dark face.

“Qin Yuan, come with me for a moment.”

Qin Yuan was still looking at the battle information on the screen seriously when he was suddenly called by her.

He had thought that this matter had already been closed, but it seemed that he still couldn't escape!

He could only follow behind Long Xiaoyun.

Long Xiaoyun walked to the side and said unhappily.

"You don't want me to sign because you're afraid that the Bureau Chief will blame me and throw me out. You'll be the only one to bear the responsibility, right?"

Qin Yuan smiled and pretended to be careless.

"You are the political commissar. You can't escape if you want to." "Besides, this matter is not a big deal, don't you think?"

Long Xiaoyun did not fall for his trick.

"You're too mean. I'll regret working with you for the rest of my life!"

"Look, look, when can you change your temper?"

After the special forces received the order from their superiors, they moved even faster. They were required to blow up the fuel depot here within ten minutes.

Xiao Zhuang and the paratroopers led their teams and acted separately.

Xiao Zhuang led a group of his team members to the big tank that stored fuel with explosives.

The bomb was installed in less than ten seconds.

A soldier said worriedly.

"Captain, are we really going to blow up all these oil tanks?"

"I'm afraid that none of us will be able to escape!"

Looking at the large oil tank that was five to six meters tall and three to four meters wide in front of him, the soldier could imagine how powerful it would be when the oil inside was detonated! When Xiao Zhuang heard this, he was furious!

He cursed.

"Are you stupid pigs?"

"Although we are playing the role of the foreign army in this exercise."

"But our hearts are still red!"

"No matter what, we can't waste our country's fuel!"

"I'm asking you to destroy those basic fortifications and make a big scene for him."

“Not raze this place to the ground!”

The rest of the people also heard Xiao Zhuang’s scolding and quickly removed the bomb that had been installed on the oil tank. The soldier who was beaten up asked.

” Then, Captain, where should we install these bombs?

Xiao Zhuang rolled his eyes in anger.

What kind of soldiers did he bring with him?

Why was his brain so bad?

He had made it clear that he wanted to destroy their fortifications.

“I say, do you want to pack up and go home?”

“Didn’t I say it just now?

“Hurry up and take action!”

” The higher-ups have requested us to settle everything within ten minutes. We won’t wait for the deadline!”

“Yes, sir!”

Then, they quickly placed the bombs in the appropriate positions.

Once the paratroopers were ready to retreat, Xiao Zhuang would press the remote control.

The paratroopers did not disappoint and soon found the control room of the Y Army’s fuel depot.

Looking at the valve and the complicated pipes in the room, the paratrooper weighed the grenade in his hand and smiled maliciously.

Then, he stuck the grenade on the valve that could be twisted, turned around, closed the door, and walked out.

” Attention all units!”

” Wolf Fang Team B, be on alert and provide cover. Other combat teams, please leave the battlefield within 30 seconds!”

As soon as he walked out of the room, the paratrooper immediately shouted into the walkie-talkie.

The rest of the people began to evacuate after receiving the message through their walkie-talkies.

“Hurry up and retreat!”

“Hurry! ”

In less than 30 seconds, except for the members of Wolf Fang Team B who stayed behind to observe, the rest returned to their vehicles and began to evacuate.

He really came in a hurry and left in a hurry!

“003,003.”

“015 has successfully evacuated! The evacuation has been successful!”

Upon receiving the news, Xiao Zhuang and the paratroopers, who were blocking the way in front of the fuel depot dormitory, couldn't help but laugh.

The paratrooper looked at his watch.

It seems that the training today was not in vain. After only fifteen seconds, they have all evacuated!” Xiao Zhuang sneered.

“Tsk, what's the big deal?”

“Back then, when our Wolf Fang team was carrying out the evacuation mission, our speed had never been slow, okay?”

“I think these little brats are afraid that the commotion this time will be too big. ”

“If things don't end well, they might be implicated. I want to run away as soon as possible! ”

Thinking of the task of planting bombs for them, Xiao Zhuang was angry and did not praise them in front of the paratroopers.

While they were talking, the lights in the opposite dormitory corridor suddenly lit up.

Xiao Zhuang and the paratroopers also reacted in an instant..

Chapter 707 - 707: You Call This Stopping at a Point?

Xiao Zhuang held the smoke grenade in his hand and took the lead to walk forward.

He threw out the smoke grenade in advance.

The paratroopers were not idle either. They immediately got into a battle stance and did not forget to remind the others.

“Attention all units!”

“There's movement!”

After a while, the soldiers in the fuel depot picked up their weapons and some ran out of the corridor.

Those who lived on the lower floors hurriedly jumped out of the window. He had only taken a few steps when thick smoke rose from under his feet.

“Cough, cough, cough!”

“Not good!”

‘ Everyone, cover your mouths and noses. There's a smoke grenade!’

The soldiers who had just walked out of the dormitory building were so smothered that they couldn't open their eyes.

It was difficult to breathe, and they all returned to the dormitory.

Xiao Zhuang and the paratroopers could see them and saw that they had successfully stopped them.

Xiao Zhuang waved his hand, indicating that the people on his side could slowly retreat.

Soon, these people arrived at the square where the combat helicopter was parked.

Xiao Zhuang pulled the ladder that the helicopter had lowered and reported.

” Wolf Fang Team B is ready. You can withdraw and take off! ”

Their eyes were still fixed on the direction of the dormitory building, but the soldiers in the fuel depot were suffocated by the smoke bombs.

Xiao Zhuang waved his hand, signaling the rest of them to get on the plane. After everyone held on tightly, the helicopter slowly rose and began to evacuate.

Not long after, the smoke dispersed, and the soldiers in the fuel depot rushed out.

However, when he looked up, he could only see the tail of the plane.

Xiao Zhuang, who was hanging on the hanging ladder, did not forget to wave goodbye to them.

“Goodbye, brothers!”

“I’m sorry to disturb your beautiful dreams tonight. I’ll treat you to a grand fireworks storm later.” “Take it as an apology!”

“But don’t worry, we’ll come again!”

After saying that, he pressed the remote control in his hand.

All of a sudden, the fuel depot of the army group immediately glowed red, followed by a series of explosions, waking these people up.

However, the Mountain Leopard Brigade still showed mercy and did not blow up the most important thing.

Otherwise, the next day, the human world would definitely come looking for an explanation.

When the people below saw him, they could hear what he said clearly.

It was really killing people!

Everyone gritted their teeth at the surprise attack of the Mountain Leopard Brigade, and the weapons in their hands were tightly gripped.

However, he was also very helpless. He could only watch them leave. He and his people could not do anything to them.

A soldier looked at the burning fuel depot behind him and said with a trembling voice.

“Squad leader...What should we do now?”

The Squad leader’s expression was gloomy and uncertain. He did not know what to do.

“When the director returns...Let’s talk about it later...”

In the command post of the Mountain Leopard Brigade, Lin Xiaoxiao and the others watched the explosion on the screen and laughed.

Lin Xiaoxiao and Lin Xiao clapped excitedly.

‘Way!’

” That’s great!!” ‘ Mission completed!’

Qin Yuan also laughed.

However, Long Xiaoyun, who was standing beside him, couldn’t smile.

He said worriedly.

“Qin Yuan, you’ve really gone overboard this time!”

Qin Yuan did not mind.

“Is it big?”

Seeing his cynical look, Long Xiaoyun did not take these explosions seriously at all.

He was instantly a little angry.

“Didn’t you say that you should stop?” “How did it cause such a huge commotion?”

Qin Yuan replied innocently.

“Yes, I am!”

“For a unit like this, isn’t this enough?”

“Look, I’ve already touched their acupuncture points.”

Long Xiaoyun could only shake her head helplessly.

Not long after, everyone who went out to carry out the mission returned safely to the Mountain Leopard Brigade.

The group got off the plane.

When Tu Lang and Dog-Head Old Gao got off the plane, they saw Xiao Zhuang and the others.

He could not help but praise.

“This time, your mission was completed perfectly! ” “The two of us saw it clearly from the plane.”

Xiao Zhuang was a little embarrassed.

“We were able to complete this mission so perfectly. Why don’t we take a look at who led the team?”

Tu Lang immediately waved his hand.

“It wasn’t me!” “This is all thanks to Old Gao!” the paratrooper said.

“It’s clearly you!”

“Why did you push the blame to Old Gao again?”

At this moment, Old Gao stood up.

“The two of you have contributed the most this time.” “Tu Lang and I won’t fight with you.”

Xiao Zhuang and the other man were a little puzzled.

“Why?”

Tu Lang explained.

“I thought you two were new recruits.”

“New recruit? What’s wrong with recruits?”

“Let me tell you, ever since the establishment of our Mountain Leopard Brigade, there has been an unwritten rule.”

” That is, if you have merit, the squad leader must be given to the soldier, the veteran must be given to the recruit, the platoon leader must be given to the squad leader, and the company commander must be given to the platoon leader..’

The two of them were a little puzzled.

“Where did this rule come from?”

“This is the rule of a very powerful special forces team overseas. It is also the spirit of our Battle Wolf Battalion.”

“Although we’re playing the role of a foreign army now, we can’t forget our own spiritual traditions, right?”

Xiao Zhuang and the paratroopers nodded.

On the other side, the captain of the special forces, Geng Hu, had also brought his troops to the military evacuation site of the N Army Group.

The tranquilizer shot accurately at the guard dog guarding the door. The guard dog let out a soft cry and fainted.

The group took advantage of the darkness to move quickly.

Every military vehicle in the garage was equipped with a bomb.

Then, Geng Hu led the few of them to the door of the duty room in the garage.

He pushed the door open and entered silently.

Geng Hu also found it funny.

The two soldiers on duty were dozing off.

The three of them walked in, but they didn't feel anything.

Geng Hu swaggered over to sit on a stool and slammed the table, instantly waking the two of them up.

"You are..."

Before they could say anything, the two of them were pointed at by weapons. For a moment, they could not say anything and could only raise their hands in surrender.

Geng Hu scratched his ears.

"Report to your leader later that we attacked your parking lot."

"All the vehicles here have been placed with magnetic bombs."

The two of them had just come back to their senses. They looked at the black muzzle in front of them and asked carefully. "Who exactly are you?"

"We are terrorists sent from overseas." One of the soldiers noticed something amiss.

"No, you are from the Mountain Leopard Brigade!"

"Definitely! "

Geng Hu smiled.

"Smart!"

"It's good that you know. But our mission tonight is to blow up all the military vehicles here."

"Call your leader immediately and ask him to come over."

' Otherwise, these bombs will start to detonate within thirty seconds."

However, they weren't that stupid. They shook their heads and said in disbelief.

"I don't believe it!"

"You wouldn't dare!"

Geng Hu had already guessed that they would say this. He calmly took out the remote control from his pocket and pressed it gently.

For a moment, the fire outside immediately shone through the window and lit up the entire duty room.

The soldier looked at the explosion outside and said in disbelief.

"You guys really exploded!"

Then, she could only hurriedly grab the phone on the table and call the leader. "The duty room! Staff Officer Wang, this is Combat Logistics Yard 306!" "We've been attacked here. There was a violent explosion at the parking lot!" "Hurry up and send reinforcements!"

“They said that if the leader doesn’t come over, he will blow up all the combat vehicles here!” The other party replied. “Did you see who did it?”

“They said it was overseas...”

Before he could finish his sentence, Geng Hu pressed the hang up button for him with his pistol. The soldier on the phone looked at him angrily.

“What do you want?!”

“We gave the dog an anesthetic just now. I believe it will wake up tomorrow morning.”

Geng Hu did not forget to remind him kindly.

“You guys stay here and don’t go out. The car is full of magnetic bombs and has a heat sensor trigger device.”

“As long as someone gets close, there will be an explosion!”

Chapter 708 - 708 You've Got Guts!

“If the leader doesn’t come...Hehe, then just wait for the second half of the night to explode one after another!”

Geng Hu threatened with a smile.

The two of them looked at his smiling face and felt a chill run down their spines.

They really believed that the Mountain Leopard Brigade would do such a thing!

Geng Hu stood up and handed the landline phone on the table to the team members behind him.

“It’s hard for the two of you to stand guard. We brought you some supper. Don’t forget to eat!”

Then, he left.

On the other side, after the Mountain Leopard Brigade left, the soldiers of the fuel depot were trying to put out the fire.

A long water pipe was laid down along the grass to the switch of the sink. A soldier installed it and turned the valve, but not a single drop of water flowed out.

He shouted anxiously at the Squad leader.

“Squad leader, there’s no water here!”

The squad leader immediately called out to the soldiers beside him.

“Quickly go and see if the main valve is open!”

The soldier rushed in and was about to open the valve when he saw a few bombs hanging on it.

She was so frightened that she immediately stopped what she was doing.

He turned around and ran out of the door.

The Squad leader was a little angry when he saw his panic.

Although the situation was urgent, the basic qualities of a soldier could not be lost.

“What are you doing!”

“Didn’t I tell you to open the main valve?”

“How can you be so flustered!”

The soldier had just escaped death, and he was in a panic. He didn’t hear what his squad leader was saying.

Her mouth trembled as she said something unclear.

“Yes... There was an explosion...Bombs!”

The Squad leader and the others were shocked.

However, to be able to become the Squad leader, he still had some skills.

He immediately reacted.

“Everyone, retreat five meters!”

Then, he rushed into the main valve room alone.

As soon as he entered the door, he saw a grenade dangling from the switch of the main valve.

It was as if if the grenade would fall at any moment if he made any more noise.

The Squad leader carefully counted, but the situation was urgent and he could not care less.

Moreover, he did not believe that the Mountain Leopard Brigade really intended to raze this place to the ground.

Gritting his teeth, he pulled the grenade down.

He didn’t even have time to notice if the fuse was broken and quickly twisted the valve open.

After a while, he came back to his senses. The grenade in his hand did not explode.

The Squad leader could not help but heave a sigh of relief.

This damned Mountain Leopard Brigade actually dared to use a fake to fool us!

Then, he threw the fake grenades out of the door and walked out.

When the soldiers outside saw this, they felt relieved.

Chapter 709 - 709: You’ve Got Guts! (2)

The Squad leader thought that this was a trick to lure the tiger away from the mountain. He quickly ran back to the road to check on the director’s condition.

He ran to the director and asked with concern.

“Chief, what happened?”

The director’s face was covered in cold sweat and there were many bruises.

However, he still pretended to be calm and panted. “I’m fine. I’ll rush to the parking lot immediately!”

“Yes, sir!”

Soon, the reinforcements arrived at the military vehicle parking lot.

As soon as the Squad leader got off the car, he went to the military vehicle to check on the situation.

When he saw the grenade hanging on the car mirror, he pulled it off without saying anything. Then, he looked at the director and said,

“Chief, it’s plastic!”

Then, he went to the car and pulled out the so-called magnetic bomb.

However, he found a few words pasted on the back of the bomb. ‘ Special plastic magnetic bomb for the Mountain Leopard Brigade.’ The director was so angry that he smashed it to the ground. He turned around and questioned the soldier on duty.

“What do you think of the parking lot?”

“What did you do at night?”

The sentry stammered.

” The Mountain Leopard Brigade gave the dogs anesthetics. We don’t know how they got in...”

Another sentry said unhappily.

“Director, if this is a drill, you should have told us in advance!”

‘ Like tonight, sneaking up on us in the middle of the night. It’s causing a ruckus here.”

It affected the rest of the soldiers and our working hours.”

“How can you do this?”

The Squad leader who had been attacked earlier was also furious and agreed with him.

‘ Also, they ambushed the director’s car on the road just now.” ” The army in the theater of operations also had such news a few days ago.” ” They said that they’re going to hold an alarm drill soon.”

‘ But they didn’t say that they would start the operation tonight. They didn’t say that they would attack our army’s equipment depot!”

“This mountain leopard is too awesome!”

“So be it!”

“Is there a need to make it look like the real situation?”

“Director, you have to report the situation to the head of the army in the theater of operations. Otherwise, the Mountain Leopard Brigade will be more lawless!”

As expected by Long Xiaoyun, Qin Yuan’s sudden attack on the acupoints had indeed attracted the dissatisfaction of many people.

The director was also very angry and nodded. “I’ve already made a verbal report to the chief.”

“Check the losses carefully again.”

A soldier ran over.

“Reporting to the chief!”

” There’s no damage to the equipment, and the military dog has woken up!”

He paused and said awkwardly.

“And...And they even lett us supper...He said that we had a hard time carrying out the mission and specially rewarded us.”

“But none of us dared to eat it!”

The director picked up a dumpling from the bag, took a bite, and said teasingly.

“It’s still hot. You guys can share it!” “It’ll be a waste if you don’t eat it!” “Thank you, Chief!”

The director’s face darkened.

“Don’t thank me, thank the Mountain Leopard Brigade!”

As soon as Long Xiaoyun walked out of the office, Qin Yuan followed her with a smile.

“Are you relieved now?”

” There were no casualties in this operation. Everyone returned safely.” Long Xiaoyun rolled her eyes at him.

I’m not worried about our brigade. I’m worried about the units that are being attacked!”

Qin Yuan was a little puzzled.

“We’re already gentle enough. It’s completely like a dragonfly skimming the surface of the water.”

“If this is still...”

Before he could finish, Zheng Xiaohu and Lin Xiaoxiao walked over.

She was about to report to Qin Yuan.

“Brigadier..

Long Xiaoyun was the first to ask.

“How’s the operation going?”

“According to the route you marked, these departments and units can easily enter.”

“It’s just that the two firewalls set by the Finance Department of the ground forces in the theater of operations are a bit impregnable.”

‘ But after careful consideration, it’s just a Maginot Line. We’ll just have to make a few detours to get past it.” Long Xiaoyun didn’t believe her words. “Are you sure you haven’t been discovered?”

Zheng Xiaohu said with a smile.

“Don’t say that they didn’t notice. Our big boss made a fortune, but he didn’t even invite us out for a meal.”

After saying that, he looked at Qin Yuan with ill intentions.

Qin Yuan asked in confusion.

“What do you mean?”

“What did the two of you do behind my back?”

Zheng Xiaohu and Lin Xiaoxiao smiled at each other and shook their heads. ‘ What do you mean by that? What are you talking about, Brigadier General?” Zheng Xiaohu took the opportunity to whisper into Long Xiaoyun’s ear. Long Xiaoyun was so frightened that her expression changed immediately.

“This...”

It turned out that this night, the Mountain Leopard Brigade not only burned down the 530 fuel depot, but also blew up the war preparation yard.

The hacker team did three more infuriating things.

They launched a network attack on the computers of the army’s intelligence department in the battle zone!

He stole many important files.

And before he left, he even entered the financial department’s database to browse and transferred 20 million yuan to the Mountain Leopard Brigade’s account!

Overnight, many departments and units of the army in the theater of operations were attacked simultaneously.

The army in the theater of operations was also in an uproar because of this!

Early the next morning, the leaders of the units and troops that were attacked blocked in Chief Long's office and complained. The person in charge of Army Y's fuel depot spoke first.

"Chief, this is simply too lawless!"

"The Mountain Leopard Brigade is a specialized blue army, not a specialized bandit!"

"If we let them continue to do whatever they want, how can our army carry out its normal work?"

Chief Long didn't say anything immediately. Instead, he looked at the photo in his hand carefully.

This was the "evidence" brought by the person in charge. The director of the combat preparation yard also chimed in. "Not only that, but there are also many photos!" Chief Long's expression didn't look too good as he asked.

"Did all this happen last night?"

"Yes!"

"Last night at three o'clock in the morning, it lasted for less than ten minutes." "The fuel depot and the war preparation yard were attacked at the same time." The person-in-charge could not help but sigh.

The Mountain Leopard Brigade was too swift and violent. They had yet to recover from their shock!

Chief Long put down the photo in his hand and leaned back on the chair.

"Are there any casualties?"

"One of the guns of the soldiers in the fuel depot was confiscated, and the personnel were held outside the meeting room." "The warehouse director suffered some superficial injuries."

Chief Long thought for a moment and nodded.

"Alright, I got it." "You guys go back first!" "We will verify it."

Both of them were puzzled.

Why wasn't the Bureau Chief angry about such a big matter?

If it was any other time, he would have flown into a rage. However, they did not dare to ask further and could only answer.

"Yes, sir!"

Not long after the two of them left, another person came.

"Report!"

"Come in!"

General Long asked when he saw Staff Officer Wang walk in.

“Did something happen again?” Advisor Wang nodded.

“Yes, Chief.”

“Something incredible happened this morning! ”

“Something incredible?”

” Yes, just ten minutes ago, someone sent me a text message. It said,” Please check the financial accounts and see if the hacker has transferred 20 million military funds.

Chief Long was shocked. “Twenty million! ”

Advisor Wang nodded.

However, he did not believe that such a thing would happen. “Yes, I think this is a malicious text message.”

“If this is really a prank, Bureau Chief, this is really too much!”

“Has it been verified?”

“I’ve already sent an assistant to investigate. I believe there will be results soon. ”

Chief Long let out a long sigh.

“How about this? Go back and organize your people to investigate the whereabouts of this money.”

“Yes, sir!”

He had just taken two steps when his assistant called him.

“Hello, it’s me.”

“What?! Twenty million was really taken away?”

Chapter 710 - 710: Punished

‘ And it’s in the Mountain Leopard Brigade’s account?”

“Alright, I got it!”

Staff Officer Wang hung up the phone and turned to speak to Chief Long.

“Chief, the money was transferred to the Mountain Leopard Brigade account!” Chief Long could not understand.

“How did the Mountain Leopard Brigade transfer the money in your account?” Staff Officer Wang was also confused.

Before he picked up the phone, he thought that it was a malicious scam message.

He didn't expect it to be true!

He was at a loss for words and did not know how to answer.

"This..."

Chief Long said impatiently.

"The person who sent you the message is the hacker who stole the money?"

"Yes, fortunately, the money wasn't transferred away by the bad guys. It's still in the account of our army. It's just a change of unit."

Staff Officer Wang said with relief.

Chief Long was still worried. He knew the Mountain Leopard Brigade well.

Since they had already caused such a huge commotion, they probably wouldn't let it go so easily.

"How about this? You can go back and check it out."

"Let's see if there's anything missing."

"At the same time, investigate thoroughly where the loophole appeared and how many loopholes there are!" "Yes, sir!"

"Chief, the security chief called."

"The intelligence department and the cadre department have both had their documents stolen and were attacked by hackers."

"Looks like Qin yuan and the others are really fast!"

As soon as Staff Officer Wang left, Commissar Xing came over to report.

Chief Long was furious!

So many units and departments had been attacked during this alarm call.

However, none of them satisfied him.

"Humph!"

"This was a prior notice. If it weren't for this alarm plan, who knows how big of a mistake there would have been!"

Commissar Xing's expression did not look too good either.

"The higher-ups already know about this."

"The news spread so fast?"

"Good news doesn't go out, but bad news travels thousands of miles!"

"This isn't Miles's business now. Once we go online, bad news will spread all over the world!"

“There’s still no movement on Qin Yuan’s side...”

Chief Long showed him the photo on the table.

“Take a look at these photos.”

“This happened last night.”

Staff Officer Shen had also arrived at the office early in the morning. Staff Officer Yang was already waiting for him inside. She handed him a thick stack of documents.

“Chief of Staff, take a look.”

“Is this the specific plan of Qin Yuan and the others?”

“Yes, they sent this over.”

“Why didn’t you tell me earlier?”

“They sent it over at ten o’clock last night.”

“I took a look. It’s just a drill plan, and it’s so late.”

“I wanted to call you after you finished reading it this morning.”

“But who knew that the Mountain Leopard Brigade’s plan started last night!” Hearing this news, Staff Officer Shen’s expression changed and he sighed.

He knew that with Qin Yuan’s personality, he would definitely cause a huge commotion.

However, she did not expect him to hide it from her.

“Go, inform Qin Yuan and Long Xiaoyun to come and see me immediately!”

“Yes.”

After that, Staff Officer Shen hurriedly walked out.

Advisor Yang asked.

“Chief of Staff, where are you going?”

Staff Officer Shen said in a deep voice.

“I’m going to the chief’s place. I don’t know how angry the chief is going to be!”

Qin Yuan had made such a big deal. As his “partner”, he would definitely go to the Bureau Chief to plead for him.

Staff Officer Yang didn’t know what was going on and quickly asked Staff Officer Ye.

“What’s going on?”

Staff Officer Ye went on a mission with Staff Officer Shen yesterday. He sighed.

“The Chief of Staff was worried all the way yesterday.”

“Although this is a planned exercise, the chief still wants to know which department will be alerted and when it will be launched.”

“I’m just afraid that the Mountain Leopard Brigade won’t be able to control themselves and will do something out of line.” “I didn’t expect them to act first and report later.”

“Then what are you worried about, Chief of Staff?”

” What the Chief of Staff is most worried about now is that the vision of the specialized Blue Army has just begun.”

“The voices of opposition and doubt are already endless.” “Once the negative voices are too loud, it will alarm the head of the army.” “Then the professional blue army’s career might die overnight!”

“Is it that serious?”

“Of course!”

“Perhaps even the Chief of Staff will be implicated!”

After hearing this, Staff Officer Yang quickly picked up the phone on the table and called the Mountain Leopard Brigade.

He was afraid that he would delay his business later.

“Hello, is this the Mountain Leopard Brigade?”

“I’m Staff Officer Yang from the theater of operations command.”

“May I ask Brigade Commander Qin and Commissar Long to come to Staff Officer Shen’s office immediately?”

“Yes! The sooner the better!”

After putting down the phone, he turned to Staff Officer Ye.

“You said that it would implicate the Chief of Staff, but I don’t think it’s likely.”

‘ Because the Chief of Staff didn’t know about this beforehand.”

“Besides, you were still at the airport yesterday afternoon!”

“You and I can testify to this!”

At this moment, the leaders of the headquarters had already held an emergency meeting on this matter.

Director Wang, who represented the military, spoke first.

‘ Such a complete and detailed attack plan will definitely take at least two months!

“Why is there no sound at all?”

These words were like stones thrown into a calm lake, instantly creating ripples..
