

Special Troop 791

Chapter 791: The Great Battle Is Near (2)

“Hey, don’t make it sound so nice. We haven’t won yet.”

“The battle with them is far from over.”

Qin Yuan said.

“This time, we have indeed taken the initiative.”

However, the following arrangements are also very important. They are related to our future development and social influence.

“I estimate that they will launch another attack on us within three days. At that time, we must be fully prepared to win this battle and confirm our advantage.” Qin Yuan analyzed seriously.

“Captain Qin, we will listen to you! You will arrange the battle preparations!”

Geng Hu blurted out without hesitation.

” Yes, this time, I’m going to mobilize everyone’s strength.”

As he spoke, Qin Yuan looked at Team Leader Jin again.

Team Leader Jin met Qin Yuan’s gaze and immediately understood his intentions.

“Yes, our police station will also do our best to cooperate with the logistics company and fight for glory for the city!”

“This time, no matter what Daybreak Organization comes, they will definitely lose!”

Team Leader Jin said confidently.

“Oh right, I’ve also asked my superiors before.”

” They all understand our situation and have already sent a few teams over. Our strength has increased a little!” Team Leader Jin said excitedly. “That’s good.”

Qin Yuan nodded at him.

“On our side, we have to be fully prepared.”

As he spoke, Qin Yuan looked at Long Xiaoyun and He Chenguang.

“Are the soldiers of each squadron ready?”

“Yes, everyone is ready to go. We will be on high alert for the next few days.”

He Chenguang replied.

“Alright.”

“Is all the equipment ready for the technical department?”

Qin Yuan looked at Lin Xiaoxiao.

‘Of course, I have maintenance equipment every day. All military equipment is running normally!’

“If there’s a problem, you’ll deduct a month’s salary from me!”

Lin Xiaoxiao said confidently.

“Alright, since everyone is ready, we’ll wait here for the other party to walk into the trap!”

Qin Yuan said loudly.

‘Next, let’s discuss the detailed battle plan.’

Everyone discussed for about ten minutes. Finally, at around 9:30 pm, they finished their tactical discussion and left one by one.

After everyone dispersed, only Qin Yuan and the green snake were left.

Qin Yuan said to the green snake in a heavy tone,

“No, this matter makes me feel very strange. However, logically speaking, the old master should be hidden in the headquarters. I didn’t expect that I couldn’t find a single strand of his hair even after searching from top to bottom!”

Green Snake said dejectedly.

“It’s okay. Did they kill the old man?”

Qin Yuan confirmed.

‘No, all the researchers in the organization combined can’t compare to the old man. Dong Zhejun has been drooling over him for a long time. With his personality, he would never kill the old man.’

Green Snake replied.

“Our goal now is very clear. We need to confirm if the old man is at the headquarters. If not, which branch is he at?”

“Will there be any secret rooms or passageways in the headquarters?” Qin Yuan asked.

After his previous experiences, Qin Yuan had a deep impression of the architectural design of this organization.

After all, there were so many secret rooms in the previous branch. He would not believe that the headquarters did not have any.

“I didn’t pay much attention to that.” Green Snake said in puzzlement.

Qin Yuan nodded silently.

After all, this was Green Snake's first time going to the headquarters. It was understandable that he was not familiar with the place.

It was a pity that he did not have enough time to explore the space there. Otherwise, Qin Yuan believed that he would definitely be able to gain something.

Qin Yuan touched his chin and said,

"According to common sense, Dong Zhejun would definitely place the old man in his own headquarters."

Green Snake nodded in agreement.

'Let's just tacitly agree that the old man is at the headquarters for now. After we succeed in this battle, we'll prepare to return to their lair. Our goal is to find the old man.'" "I agree with you. That's why I'm here."

Green Snake said.

Qin Yuan also nodded. He knew why the other party cooperated with him. It was completely out of respect for the old man. The green snake and he only had one common goal.

As they chatted, a commotion came from outside.

Qin Yuan and the green snake looked at each other and immediately walked out of the room.

A group of soldiers gathered outside the logistics company's entrance. They seemed to be surrounding a person and shouting something.

Qin Yuan and the green snake hurriedly came to the front to check on the situation.

"What happened?"

Qin Yuan pushed aside the crowd in front of him and looked inside with all his might.

"Captain Qin Yuan!"

When the people behind saw Qin Yuan coming, they shouted happily as if they wanted to see their savior.

"It's like this, Captain Qin! Miss Wei Wei is here!" Weiwei?

Qin Yuan hurriedly squeezed into the room.

Sure enough, he saw a girl in casual clothes.

Qin Yuan shouted.

When Wei Wei saw that it was Qin Yuan, she was also stunned for a moment. Then, she walked over anxiously.

"Captain Qin Yuan!"

"Why are you here?"

Qin Yuan asked.

“I heard that you guys came back from Daybreak Organization!”

“Is there any news of my father?”

Vivian asked anxiously.

Qin Yuan suddenly realized that he had been busy dealing with the organization these days and had forgotten to explain the situation to Wei Wei. “Look at me. I was so busy that I forgot about you! I’m really sorry!” Qin Yuan smiled apologetically.

“Come, follow me back to the room. I’ll explain the situation to you!” Qin Yuan quickly invited Weiwei to the hall.

The three of them walked out of the crowd and returned to the hall under everyone’s gaze.

After sitting down, Qin Yuan told Wei Wei what had happened over the past few days and his guess of the old man’s location.

Vivian frowned.

“Captain Qin Yuan, I want to save my father.”

Wei Wei looked at Qin Yuan and said in a firm tone.

Qin Yuan saw infinite determination and an attitude that could not be rejected in her eyes.

Don’t act on impulse. How can a little girl like you do such a thing?!”

Qin Yuan said.

Vivian interrupted him.

” This is my father, the person I love the most. If I can’t save him personally, how am I going to face him in the future?”

Vivian said firmly.

“If it were you, I think you would have the same thoughts as me!”

“I’m not an incompetent person either! I majored in computer communications! I’ve also done some research on tracking equipment. I can also help you!”

Vivian said seriously with her eyes wide open.

Qin Yuan was relieved. After all, like father, like daughter.

Wei Wei’s courage was indeed outstanding.

‘ Alright, I agree to let you join us in rescuing your father. However, I have a request. You must agree to it. Otherwise, I won’t let you participate in this event!’

Qin Yuan said seriously.

“Tell me.”

“You must obey my orders unconditionally. You must not act alone. You must be by my side at all times, understand?”

Qin Yuan said with a frown.

It’s so simple. I thought you had some outrageous request.”

“I promise you.”

Vivian said.

Qin Yuan smiled happily.

“Alright, I’ll inform you when I leave.”

Qin Yuan said.

Then, Weiwei left the room. Qin Yuan got someone to send her to a safe place.

After that, the group waited in the room.

They knew that a great enemy was about to appear, and a battle was about to break out.

Sure enough, after they had a peaceful day, the next morning, the brothers who were standing guard at the outermost sounded the alarm of the enemy attack.

At around six in the morning, the flute started playing outside.

“There’s a situation!”

The soldiers of the logistics company standing on the sentry tower looked through the binoculars and saw black dots slowly appearing on the ground in the distance..

Chapter 792: The Hero Appears

As the enemy’s troops slowly approached, the few of them gradually saw the enemy’s formation.

He saw two thick black tubes standing in front of him.

It was less than 500 meters away from them.

“I’ll stay here and keep watch! Quickly inform the people inside! Tell Captain

Qin Yuan!”

The sentry soldier shouted to the soldier beside him.

“Good! You stay here and observe the situation at all times. I’ll report to my superiors immediately!”

The soldiers at the side immediately left the sentry post and walked towards the camp inside.

However, the situation suddenly changed. The soldier had just taken a few steps when he suddenly fell down as if he had been electrocuted.

The soldier who had just spoken to him saw this scene and was shocked.

However, he was also very vigilant. He knew that his comrade must have been attacked in the dark. He thought that there must be an enemy ambush nearby. He immediately bent down and hid in the sentry tower. He took out the walkie-talkie, turned on the channel, and shouted loudly.

However, no matter how much he shouted, there was only a constant buzzing sound coming from the walkie-talkie. No one responded at all.

The soldier was shocked. He didn't expect the other party to send out radio waves that could interfere with communication signals.

But no matter what, there was only one thought in his mind now, and that was to immediately send the news of an enemy attack to the inside. Otherwise, the consequences would be unimaginable.

He took a few deep breaths, picked up his gun, and quieted down seriously, listening to the sounds outside.

In an instant, everything was as quiet as water.

He didn't dare to stick his head out again, afraid that a black muzzle was aimed at his head.

The soldier turned off the light of the sentry tower and slowly groped his way down.

If the surroundings were dark, the other party would not be able to find his location immediately. In this way, he could think of a way to rush back to the logistics company to report.

As he thought about this, he had already reached the sentry tower. Everything was going smoothly, and there were no abnormal sounds around him.

The soldier took a deep breath and rushed out of the door.

Suddenly, a sharp gunshot rang out around him. However, due to the darkness, the bullet did not hit him. Instead, it hit a few centimeters below his feet.

The soldier broke out in a cold sweat, but he did not dare to slow down. He immediately ran towards the logistics company camp.

However, the good luck of the heavens did not favor him again. The next gunshot rang out, and this time, it hit his calf.

He screamed and fell to the ground.

"Damn it! In the end, he still couldn't escape? Is this the end of the day?" The soldier hammered the floor with his hand and said angrily.

Then, he heard a scornful laugh coming from afar.

A black figure slowly walked out from the side. He was dressed in pale white clothes and held a sniper rifle in his hand. There was also a black silencer installed on the muzzle.

There was no doubt that this person was the killer of the Daybreak Organization.

"You still want to hear the news? Go report it to the King of Hell!"

The man was tall, so the soldier couldn't see his face clearly. He only felt that the man was looking at him like a god of plague.

The soldier was filled with sorrow. He had only been in the logistics company for a year and he was about to die here!

The killer pointed his gun at the soldier's head and spat to the side.

He held the wound on his calf with both hands and closed his eyes silently. At this point, he no longer had the ability to move. He could only pray that a miracle would happen. His face was filled with despair.

A second later, a dull gunshot rang out.

However, it was indeed not this unlucky soldier who had fallen.

He hurriedly opened his eyes and saw that the tall assassin in front of him had already fallen to the ground with blood flowing from his forehead.

It was obvious that someone had already shot him to death before he could shoot!

A miracle had really happened!

I'm not going to die today!

The soldiers were ecstatic. They looked around, looking for the source of the mysterious gunshot.

Just as he turned his head back, he immediately saw a blurry figure wearing black clothes slowly walking towards him from the door with a gray pistol in his hand.

However, it was pitch black at night, and visibility was very low. It was impossible to see clearly who it was in the blurry vision, and only some blurry outlines could be seen.

However, very soon, the other party gave him a clear answer with his voice.

"Brother, are you alright?"

"Captain Qin Yuan?"

The soldier immediately recognized Qin Yuan's voice.

The joy in his heart grew.

"What happened? I accidentally saw that the light of the watchtower at the gate suddenly went out, so I thought it was okay. As expected, something happened?"

Qin Yuan frowned.

"Captain Qin Yuan, you observed carefully!"

The soldier's heart was filled with gratitude. It was about one o'clock in the morning. According to ordinary people, they should have already rested. There were only the two of them guarding the door.

If not for Captain Qin Yuan's outstanding insight, he would have died long ago.

"Enemy attack! The brother who was on duty with me has already died in the line of duty!"

The soldier came back to his senses and immediately reported the situation to

Qin Yuan.

As he spoke, he pointed at the killer in white on the ground.

Qin Yuan also saw that person's clothing style and immediately understood..

Chapter 793: The Hero Appears (2)

Then, he immediately carried his injured brother on his back and ran to the logistics company.

"Thank you for your hard work. I'll send you back for treatment first."

Qin Yuan said as he ran.

"Captain Qin Yuan, be careful! They came with ill intentions! They have two tanks!"

The soldier endured the pain and reminded Qin Yuan word by word.

"Yes, I understand. I've seen how powerful they are. I will remember your bravery this time. When this matter is over, I will give you military merits."

Qin Yuan said seriously, his eyes revealing a firm belief.

"What? Military merits? I just did what I should have done!"

The soldier was flattered.

Qin Yuan smiled and patted his shoulder.

"You are the role model of our logistics company."

Then, after Qin Yuan entered the logistics company, he rang the alarm in the hall. For a moment, the alarm rang loudly. The soldiers of the logistics company were like machines. They immediately woke up from their sleep and gathered on the field outside.

After Qin Yuan sent him to the infirmary for treatment, he returned to the conference room. He Chenguang, Geng Hui, and the others were already waiting there.

"You're here?"

He Chenguang was surprised to see Qin Yuan dressed in such clothes and holding a gun in his hand.

"Yes, a brother who was standing guard outside has already died. Let's go and retrieve his body."

Qin Yuan said sternly.

"This 'Daybreak' is really guilty! I must make them pay with blood!" Geng Hui gritted his teeth.

"Brothers! I believe you all know why I've gathered you here today!"

"There are already enemies outside our door. Tell me loudly! What should we

Qin Yuan came to the door and shouted at the soldiers of the logistics company outside.

“Spare no effort! Hit the enemy!” The soldiers outside shouted in unison.

“Let’s go!”

With Qin Yuan’s order, the soldiers outside seemed to have set an alarm clock. They immediately turned around, grabbed the weapons in their hands, and rushed out of the door in an orderly manner.

When they arrived at the gate, the other party’s troops had already advanced to the gate.

Qin Yuan turned on the light at the door.

The enemy’s troops were all dressed in white uniforms, and the weapons in their hands were all high-quality rifles or submachine guns.

The troops were arranged in a straight line with two heavy tanks in the middle.

Qin Yuan’s gaze locked onto the leader of the other party. It was a strong middle-aged man with an eyepatch on his left eye. His head was wrapped in a black silk hat and he was wearing a black vest.

He had never seen this person in the organization before.

Qin Yuan was a little puzzled. He slowly walked to the front of the formation and narrowed his eyes as he said in a deep voice,

“Did the organization arrange for a new victim to come this time?”

“Hahaha! ”

When the big guy heard this, he immediately laughed out loud.

“You’re Qin Yuan? I thought he was some three-headed and six-armed person, but it turns out that he’s just an unremarkable brat!”

The other party laughed even more wildly.

“Do you see my strength?”

“I advise you to surrender quickly if you know what’s good for you. Perhaps Boss will be in a good mood and leave your corpses intact. Otherwise, I’ll give the order and immediately turn you into ashes! Hahahaha!”

As he spoke, he touched the barrel of the tank cannon beside him.

Qin Yuan’s face was as calm as ever, without any emotional fluctuations.

He had seen such a scene countless times.

If he were to face them alone, he would appear to be more than capable, but if he brought his brothers with him, it would be more difficult to control.

Although these weapons could not hurt Qin Yuan, if the battle started, the brothers behind him would definitely be affected. Therefore, Qin Yuan had to think about how to deal with this situation.

“Who are you? What’s your purpose here?”

In order to stall for time and think of a way, Qin Yuan deliberately changed the topic.

“Hahaha! You don’t need to know who I am. Are you afraid? Where did your previous stubbornness go?”

“I’m telling you, you have to hand over Hai Lin today, and then everyone will follow us back to the organization.”

‘ From today onwards, the logistics company will cease to exist. Otherwise, what awaits you will not only be these two tanks!’

The other party said arrogantly.

Qin Yuan frowned.

He knew that “Daybreak” was definitely serious this time. The other party would definitely not be lenient. In the end, it would definitely be a life-and-death struggle.

He wasn’t afraid of Xiao Yan’s tyrannical might, but he was trying to stall for time and think about how to deal with the other party’s weapons and artillery fire.

If they really fought, the difference in firepower between the two sides would be too great, and the chances of his side winning would be very small. He did not want his brothers to fall into an abyss of suffering.

After all, this was a matter between him and the organization. He did not want any unnecessary people to be involved.

Most importantly, the logistics company was the foundation of his life. He would definitely do his best to protect this unit.

Although Qin Yuan’s heart was turbulent, he still looked very calm on the surface.

“I refuse.”

A calm sentence slowly came out of his mouth.

“Oh? Are you seeking your own death?”

“Alright, I’ll grant your wish.”

The other party sneered.

‘ Since you are so determined to be heroes who would rather die than surrender, I will give you a chance to die a heroic death. We will start attacking in five minutes.’

Qin Yuan’s gaze focused. He did not say anything and turned around to return to the logistics company’s camp.

“Hahaha! Enjoy your last happy moments

Crazy laughter came from behind.

After returning to the camp, Qin Yuan gathered a few captains again to discuss the battle plan.

Of course, they wouldn’t just sit there and wait for death.

However, this did not mean that they had no chance of winning.

First of all, there was only the logistics company's camp within a radius of dozens of miles. There was no one else.

Therefore, they could only rely on themselves now.

However, they were in an open area in the middle of a plain. This was an unavoidable battlefield for the logistics company, which was at a disadvantage.

Now, they only had one choice, and that was to fight to the death.

However, fighting to the end did not mean that they would fight to the death with the other party.

The logistics company had been stationed here for a long time and knew the terrain like the back of their hands. If they could defend the camp and exhaust the other party's patience, they would be able to greatly increase their chances of winning.

At this point in the plan, the key point of this decision was clear at a glance. The key to this battle was how to resist the crushing and bombardment of the enemy tanks.

Just as Qin Yuan was thinking of a countermeasure, hurried footsteps came from outside.

Then, an agile figure walked up to him.

Qin Yuan looked up.

It was Lin Xiaoxiao.

"I heard that we encountered some difficulties? "Why don't you ask the almighty expert Lin Xiaoxiao?"

She said to Qin Yuan with a smile.

"There are tanks outside." Qin Yuan said.

"I'm here for the tank."

Lin Xiaoxiao went straight to the point.

As she spoke, she placed a piece of metal on the table.

"This is my specially made mixed metal. It can withstand the bombardment of cannons. I've done experiments before, and there are no accidents at all." After she finished speaking, the people beside her looked at her in shock.

"Are you serious?"

"The opponent is a genuine cannon! Why didn't I see you mention this before?"

"Why are you only willing to say it now that disaster is imminent?"

He Chenguang, Geng Hui, and the others asked with their eyes wide open.

"Isn't there a saying that goes 'The hero always appears at the last moment?'"

Lin Xiaoxiao didn't feel that her actions were inappropriate.

"Then how do we install this protective plate?"

“Very simple.”

As she spoke, Lin Xiaoxiao reached out and pressed a button on the metal plate on the table, as if she had triggered a switch.

Their expressions froze as they were instantly stunned by the magical scene in front of them!

Chapter 794: The Plan Succeeded

“As expected of you! Xiaoxiao!”

Geng Hu was overjoyed.

“This way, we won’t have to worry about defensive measures!”

“Placing these metal plates around the gate will greatly reduce the effect of the cannonballs. As long as we can hold them off, their momentum will be weakened.”

” Arrange for people to carry this out immediately. We don’t have much time left!”

Qin Yuan said hurriedly.

He looked at the time. It had been almost two minutes since he had returned.

It would take at least a few minutes to arrange for someone to install the metal plates at the door of the house. There were more than ten houses in the logistics company. He did not know if they could make it in time.

As soon as she finished speaking, the few of them immediately followed Lin Xiaoxiao out.

Qin Yuan gathered all the forces that could move as quickly as possible and came to the empty space outside the room. He did not have time to explain the details. He set an example and personally began to lay the metal plates at the door.

After seeing Qin Yuan begin to lay down the walls, He Chenguang followed suit. Slowly, more and more people joined in the defense.

There were a lot of people, and it was a critical moment. Everyone moved very quickly, miraculously setting up the fortifications of all the houses in three minutes.

At the same time, outside the camp, the Daybreak Organization was eyeing them covetously.

The big guy in the lead arrived at the right time.

When the five minutes were up, he waved his hand indifferently.

A few people beside him quickly loaded the shells.

A loud bang resounded through the night sky, and both tanks let out deafening roars.

“Boom!”

A large hole was instantly blasted open at the entrance of the logistics company. Smoke and dust rose everywhere, and the place where the explosion occurred was pitch-black.

The brothers of the logistics company entered the reinforced house and were not injured. However, the earth-shattering noise outside still left an indelible impression in their hearts.

Then, a series of violent sounds spread throughout the entire logistics company.

The tank was attacking like crazy, and even the ground was shaking.

“Their firepower is really fierce!”

The brothers of the logistics company who were hiding in the house exclaimed.

Although the soldiers of the logistics company were all battle-hardened warriors, they had experienced a lot of actual combat.

However, most of them had never experienced a real war, so it was their first time seeing a tank. They looked very nervous.

If it weren’t for these defensive barriers, we would have been reduced to ashes!”

A young warrior said with a trembling voice as he heard the rumbling sound outside the door.

‘ Ordinary tanks have the ability to destroy everything in their path, and from the explosions, I can tell that the Daybreak Organization’s tanks are even more destructive than ordinary tanks.”

“Then is this metal plate still useful?”

When the few people at the side heard this, they could not help but be surprised.

I’m not sure about that. After all, I’ve never studied their artillery before. I don’t know if it’s useful.”

Lin Xiaoxiao shrugged.

“Life and death are determined by fate. We can only pray that it can withstand it.”

The fierce bombardment continued. The artillery fire outside was endless. Everyone could look back from the back and see the situation of the battlefield in front of them from an angle.

They saw that the direction of the logistics company’s main gate was already in a mess. It had been bombed beyond recognition.

As time ticked by, after about five minutes, the explosions outside finally weakened, and the bombardment was slowly coming to an end.

Seeing that the surrounding walls were as stable as rocks, Qin Yuan’s heart was finally relieved.

‘ Lin Xiaoxiao’s shield wall is really effective!”

“Brothers, we’re holding on!”

The people from the logistics company did not seem to have any accidents. They all survived safely in the room.

“Next, it’s time for us to counterattack!”

Qin Yuan’s eyes revealed a murderous aura that was difficult to hide.

At this moment, there was a commotion outside.

“Brothers, charge! Give them the final blow!”

A loud and clear voice sounded from behind. It was the voice of the leader.

Then, he heard hurried footsteps approaching.

“They’re here!”

Qin Yuan said in a deep voice.

The people of the logistics company were already prepared. They had been waiting for this moment.

‘ Prepare to give the other party a surprise.”

The corners of Qin Yuan’s mouth curled up.

He stood up and looked ahead through the gap in the door.

At the ruins in front of them, the leader led a group of subordinates from the Daybreak Organization and slowly walked into the logistics company.

The scene was still filled with residual smoke, and his vision was not very clear.

However, Qin Yuan could barely tell that the other party did not come with good intentions. Even without the artillery support of the tanks, they were completely ahead of the logistics company in terms of numbers and equipment.

Therefore, Qin Yuan still chose to carry out his previous decision and wait for the other party to fall into the trap.

” Everyone, stay in the room and hold your weapons. Wait for the enemy to come over and catch them off guard.”

Qin Yuan lowered his head and said in a deep voice.

“Good!”

The people behind him immediately agreed.

Then, through the radio, he slowly transmitted Qin Yuan’s words to the ears of the soldiers in each room.

Then, Qin Yuan took a deep breath, picked up his weapon, opened the door, and walked out of the room..

Chapter 795: The Plan Succeeded (2)

Like a bolt of lightning, he flashed in front of the other party.

When the captain of Dawn Flame saw Qin Yuan, his expression changed drastically, and his expression froze.

“You? Is he a human or a ghost?”

Looking at the neatly dressed Qin Yuan in front of him, the other party cried out involuntarily.

“What do you think?”

Qin Yuan smiled, picked up the pistol in his hand, and fired at the other party.

The other party was a member of Daybreak Organization, so he reacted quickly and dodged the shot.

Then, he immediately reacted and cursed. Then, he picked up the gun on his body and immediately counterattacked.

Seeing that their boss was frightened, his subordinates realized that the other party had come to attack. They immediately began a new round of counterattack.

Qin Yuan's expression was calm. He was already prepared. He took a big step forward and rushed to the back of the house.

When Daybreak Flame's men saw this, they immediately chased after a group of people.

Qin Yuan smiled. This was the effect he wanted. His sudden attack this time was to divert the attention of the other party's main force so that his troops could secretly attack the other party's rear.

As expected, someone from the enemy's troops shouted, “Not good! Captain Jin! The brothers behind us were ambushed!”

“What?”

The leader, Captain Jin, frowned. He was a little flustered and at a loss, but he still had a calm expression on his face.

“Didn't we already have a round of explosions? How could the other party still have the ability to send troops? How many of them are there?” Captain Jin looked doubtful.

” Many. Although I can't see them clearly, I can estimate that there are hundreds of them!” the person said. “Send the third team back to support!”

Captain Jin said.

“Yes, sir!”

The person received the order and retreated. “Motherf * cker! How did they survive the artillery fire?!” Captain Jin slammed his fist on the door frame.

The moment he raised his head, his expression froze again.

From the outside, the buildings in the logistics company were all in perfect condition!

It was a layer of solid metal with a bright luster. There was not even a trace of friction left.

The other members of the Daybreak Organization also saw this scene, and their faces revealed expressions of disbelief.

“How is that possible? Our tank's ammunition has been specially made, yet it didn't even leave a trace?”

The soldiers beside him were also terrified.

However, the logistics company did not give them time to panic. They only heard loud gunshots from all directions, and the unprepared Dawn Flame troops were attacked.

A few people outside had already collapsed.

However, it was Daybreak Organization after all. They were all well-trained people. They immediately reacted.

“Hurry up! He adjusted his formation! Protect Captain Jin!”

Dawn Flame immediately began to deploy their defensive formation. A few of them took out thick bulletproof shields and blocked outside.

“Defend first, then find an opportunity to counterattack!”

In an instant, the people from Daybreak Flame’s organization formed an iron bucket formation, perfectly defending against all attacks.

The logistics company saw this formation and was not in a hurry. Now that the other party had fallen into their control, they only needed to wait for fatigue.

Moreover, their anger was actually not fierce. They only fired a few shots in front to show their strength.

It was not realistic for them to rely on their current firepower to take down the Daybreak Organization. Moreover, when these troops who had ambushed and harassed Qin Yuan received his mission, they were only beating around the bush. They did not really want to fight the other party head-on.

At this moment, Qin Yuan had also brought a team of elites to the nearby area. They wandered back and forth through the gaps between the rooms, looking for an opportunity to attack.

After all, they were the troops personally led by Qin Yuan. This move was indeed very effective. Under their lightning attack, Captain Jin’s vanguard could only shoot back and forth with them for a moment, and they had no time to support the troops at the back.

Normally, Daybreak’s troops would have had the absolute advantage, but now, they were trapped in the winding streets of the housing area. They were surrounded by sturdy rooms filled with metal plates, and they had no way to break through. They could only passively move between the various roads, surrounded by enemies from both sides.

Therefore, they were in an absolute passive and disadvantaged state.

“Damn it, I didn’t expect these bastards to have such a trick up their sleeves!” Captain Jin was cursing as he fought back.

Looking at the situation, it was already a fool’s dream for him to want to break through.

Everyone on his side was trapped here. This was already beyond his expectations. No matter how good their weapons were, they could not attack the logistics company’s troops hiding in the room.

Right now, although he was extremely unwilling, his rationality told him that choosing to fight with the other party here was the stupidest choice. They had to retreat now.

“What happened after that?”

Captain Jin asked.

“Captain! The brothers at the back are already in a fierce battle with the other party. The other party’s formation is only a paper tiger. They don’t have much ability. It won’t take long for us to take them down!”

A soldier at the back reported.

“Arrange the formation of the team and slowly retreat to the door!” Captain Jin shouted.

When the soldiers below heard the order, they immediately shrank into a circular formation and slowly retreated.

He couldn’t care less!

Captain Jin knew that if this dragged on, the other party would be waiting for fatigue. His troops would definitely collapse sooner or later.

However, the strange thing was that the logistics company didn’t stop the retreating troops of Xiao Yan’s side too much. There were only some fake gunshots.

As the troops retreated, there was a commotion at the gate.

“What’s going on?”

Due to the lack of light at night, Captain Jin could not see what was happening in front of him clearly.

Suddenly, intense gunshots rang out.

The few soldiers of Daybreak Flame who were leading the way fell to the ground.

“Captain Jin, there are enemies ahead!”

The soldiers at the front immediately sent a message.

‘What’s going on?!’

Captain Jin asked again.

As he spoke, he personally took his weapon and rushed to the front. In front of them were some people in black clothes and black hats. Under the night sky, it was impossible to see their detailed faces.

They only knew that they were enemies with weapons. In the darkness, only the sparks from the gun barrels could make out the approximate number of people. There were about a few hundred people.

“Who is it? Do you know who we are? How dare you block our way?”

Captain Jin shouted angrily.

“Hahahaha! You also have today!”

The other party turned on their searchlights, and a neat team suddenly appeared in front of them.

Under the bright light, a familiar face appeared in front of him.

It was Team Leader Jin.

And his police force.

Every police officer was holding a shiny rifle and pointed it at Captain Jin's Daybreak Squad.

Although Captain Jin didn't know the other party, he could tell his identity from his clothes.

He was wearing a black police uniform and cap.

He did not expect the police to find this place.

Captain Jin cursed in his heart.

"We know who you are. It's precisely because we know your identity that we're here."

Team Leader Jin sneered.

"We have been waiting for this day for a long time!"

"Comrades, go! Annihilate them in one fell swoop!"

With Team Leader Jin's order, the police officers under his command swarmed forward. Under the cover of fierce firepower, they rushed into Team Leader Jin's formation.

Originally, with Daybreak Flame's troops, be it in terms of firepower or numbers, they were no weaker than the other party.

However, after the setback just now, the morale of Daybreak Flame's side had taken a huge hit. The members of the army felt psychological pressure, and naturally, they could not fully display their strength.

Moreover, it was night time, and the surroundings were dark. The police were all men in black. They did not know how many people the other party had come, which added to the pressure.

The current Daybreak Organization was still like an arrow at the end of its flight, isolated and helpless..

Chapter 796: Beautiful Victory

Brothers, even in such a terrible situation, we still have our dignity. Tell me, are you willing to fight with me for honor until the last moment?"

Unexpectedly, Captain Jin did not show any fear at all. Instead, he instigated his subordinates' emotions with a sense of righteousness. "We swear to protect Daybreak's glory!"

The voices of the people below were surprisingly consistent.

"Good! Today, either they die or we die. Charge!"

With Captain Jin's order, the soldiers of the Daybreak Organization rushed towards the police force in front of them like they were on steroids.

Team Leader Jin was a little surprised. He didn't expect the other party to be able to erupt with such shocking energy in a critical moment.

"Our biggest test today is coming. Brothers, can you withstand this time? If you don't succeed, you'll die! Success or failure depended on this move! Today will be a battle that will go down in history!"

Although the other party was already an arrow at the end of its flight, it still erupted with a fighting spirit that could not be underestimated. Team Leader Jin did not dare to be negligent.

On the battlefield, both sides spoke with their strength. There was no need for too many words.

However, even if Daybreak Organization's troops did their best, they would only get half the results with twice the effort.

The logistics company and the police had already formed a circular formation, and Xiao Yan's troops were sandwiched between them.

In their panic, the Daybreak Troop was caught in a dilemma.

Whether it was the elite police force at the front or the logistics company at the back, they were unable to break through their formation.

However, as the saying goes, a rabbit will bite when cornered, and a dog will jump over a wall when cornered. Xiao Yan's troops still chose to launch a final attack on the guards in front.

Their tanks had already stopped firing, and they could not attack again for the time being.

Now, he could only rely on his high-quality weapons to attack.

The originally dark night sky was instantly broken by the bright gunfire. The gunfire from both sides came and went, forming an intense scene of gunfire.

Of course, the logistics company was not idle either. Qin Yuan summoned all the combat strength and seized the opportunity to launch a fierce attack when the other party's back was empty.

Take advantage of his weakness and take his life!

Although the logistics company did not have many people, it was more than enough to deal with the remaining Daybreak Army.

Qin Yuan led the charge. He held a submachine gun and was the first to charge in front. He fired at the Dawn Flame soldiers in front of him, and immediately, a few Dawn Flame soldiers in front fell.

The logistics company's troops immediately followed Qin Yuan and launched an attack.

Immediately, a wave of overwhelming firepower swept through the Dawn Flame organization in front of them.

After all, the main leader of the "Daybreak Organization" was only Captain Jin. At this moment, he was in the midst of a fierce battle with Team Leader Jin at the front and had no time to care about the situation at the back. The troops at the back did not have an outstanding soldier to lead them, so their strength was relatively weak. Moreover, Qin Yuan's force was unusually fierce. Although their equipment might be inferior to the members of the Daybreak Organization, or even Team Leader Jin's guards, their soldiers' combat skills and tenacity were first-class. Moreover, with a brave warrior like Qin Yuan who could fight against a hundred alone leading the team, their combat strength could he said to be the ton of the army!

For a moment, the Daybreak Organization's backers were heavily injured. The soldiers complained endlessly and wailed everywhere. The scene was instantly engulfed in a bright flame.

Soon, the back of the organization was penetrated by Qin Yuan.

The huge commotion behind them also alarmed Captain Jin, who was fighting fiercely in front of them. He was also shocked by the huge commotion.

He took the time to look back and was shocked speechless by the scene behind him.

The gunfire behind them was several times more tragic than the scene of their battle with the police!

"What happened?"

Captain Jin grabbed a person beside him and asked.

"The people from the logistics company are coming!"

The lackey beside him shouted in panic.

"Damn it, what a bunch of bastards. They don't care about martial ethics!" Captain Jin gritted his teeth.

"How many people did we lose? How many brothers do we have left?"

"About a hundred brothers donated! There are probably more than 300 people left!"

The people below shouted.

"Gather all the strength you can muster and charge forward with all your might! Don't care about anything else! Charge forward! If we can't get out, we'll have to donate everything here!"

Captain Jin gave his final order.

All the soldiers of Daybreak heard this and understood that this was their only chance. Their fate was in their hands.

As the saying goes, when a person is in a life-and-death crisis, they will always erupt with shocking strength.

After the soldiers of the Daybreak Organization recognized their current situation, their eyes revealed a determined look. Their combat effectiveness also increased by several levels. Their firepower also became very fierce, and their momentum overwhelmed the police force on Team Leader Jin's side.

"Team Leader Jin! The situation was not good! Many of the brothers in front can't hold on anymore, and some of them are already injured!"

The police officer at the front came back to report the news to Team Leader Jin. "Hold on. We are the public servants of the people.. We must not lose!"

Chapter 797: Beautiful Victory (2)

Team Leader Jin shouted.

Right now, this battle was at its climax. Both sides understood that if either side could not hold on for a moment, they would end up losing.

But then again, if both sides used their full strength, Daybreak, who had the advantage in terms of equipment, had a better chance of winning.

And that was the truth. As time passed, Xiao Yan's firepower slowly formed a breakthrough in the police's encirclement.

The police force had no choice but to retreat.

Team Leader Jin was furious, but there was nothing he could do. He knew that this was the time when the other party's momentum was at its peak. The other party was the powerful "Daybreak" organization's troops. As the saying goes, a lean camel is still heavier than a horse. No matter how they clasped with the other party, he would definitely suffer heavy losses.

Just as he was feeling anxious and uneasy, he heard a violent noise coming from behind Daybreak Organization.

He focused his eyes and saw that a huge hole had been blasted into the ground behind Dawn Flame's troops. In an instant, their soldiers were blown away. The scene was filled with smoke and the smell of gunpowder. It was a mess.

"This is..."

Team Leader Jin was surprised and delighted.

After the fog of the explosion slowly dispersed, Team Leader Jin slowly saw that the ones who fired were not others, but the two tanks of Xiao Yan and the others!

The tank had just finished cooling down!

Then, it was snatched away by the soldiers of the logistics company. They gave him a taste of his own medicine!

The tank did not stop moving. Instead, it adjusted its angle and continued to bombard Dawn Flame mercilessly.

If the gunfight earlier was just a small skirmish, then the tank attack now was absolutely ruthless.

Even if the soldiers of the Daybreak Organization were iron men, they would not be able to withstand the bombardment of these reinforced tanks. In an instant, the situation had turned to the logistics company. More than half of the soldiers of the Daybreak Organization had been killed or injured. The logistics company had already secured the victory after two more explosions from the tanks.

Seeing that the situation on the field had basically stabilized, Qin Yuan slowly poked his head out from the top of the tank.

He flipped down confidently.

He walked towards Captain Jin and Team Leader Jin of Daybreak.

The ground in front of him was already filled with the fallen bodies of the Daybreak soldiers.

There were only a few soldiers left beside Captain Jin. He could even be seen alone.

“Too strong! Captain Qin! When did he get control of the enemy tank?” A soldier from the logistics company said in surprise and joy.

“There’s nothing Captain Qin Yuan can’t do! Moreover, the situation was so chaotic just now. Daybreak’s men went to fight, and there weren’t many people guarding the tank. Wouldn’t it be easy to snatch the enemy’s tank?” another soldier replied.

The soldiers of the logistics company cheered.

“I didn’t expect Captain Qin Yuan to know how to drive a tank! I’ve really learned something!”

“This time, Daybreak is already ours!”

“It’s not over yet. The other party’s captain is still struggling with his life.” a soldier reminded.

Qin Yuan slowly walked forward and came to a position only a few dozen meters away from Captain Jin.

“What did you say earlier? Isn’t it too early to say these words?” Qin Yuan said to the other party with a smile.

Captain Jin’s face was pale and ferocious. He could not say a word.

After a while.

Captain Jin said calmly,”

“I underestimated you. I never thought that I, Jin Zhao Xun, would actually fall in such a place.”

Captain Jin let out a long sigh.

“However, I can be considered to have experienced your strength. You are also a pretty good opponent, hahahaha...”

“This can be considered as having no regrets...”

With that, a crisp gunshot was heard, and a stream of bright red blood spurted out.

Captain Jin immediately fell to the ground. “What is it? Captain Jin committed suicide!”

“Oh my god! Captain Jin!”

“Why? He was clearly such a powerful person! This is the first time a general of our Daybreak Organization has committed suicide!”

Seeing their captain commit suicide, Daybreak Flame's men were like a group of headless flies, falling into chaos.

Qin Yuan was also shocked by the scene in front of him. He did not expect Captain Jin to be such a man. He had such a spirit that would rather die than submit. Compared to Lin Hai, his breadth of mind was much stronger.

Soon, he came back to his senses. Since the leader of the other party had died, there was no need to stay on the battlefield. The rest were all rotten fish and prawns. He only needed to leave time for his subordinates to clean them up.

"The rest of you, I'll give you a chance to surrender. I won't kill you. If you insist on fighting to the end, I'll give you a dignified death." "You can choose for yourselves!"

Qin Yuan announced to the remaining soldiers of the Dawn Flame organization.

"Ah! He was really a person who understood the situation! He even gave us a chance to redeem ourselves!"

Some soldiers looked at the corpse of their leader and listened to Qin Yuan's words. Their hearts could not help but waver.

"What did you say? Have you forgotten how much help the organization has given you? You're a despicable person who forgets justice for profit!" A soldier at the side reprimanded him in dissatisfaction.

"You're such a beautiful person, so why don't you go up and die? He who understands the times is a wise man. Don't hang yourself on the same rope!" the man retorted.

As they spoke, the two of them began to fight.

After that, the remaining soldiers of the Daybreak Army slowly divided into two factions, the conservative faction and the radical faction. Both sides started clashing and fighting at the same time.

The situation was out of control.

Qin Yuan was not in a hurry. In any case, he had no intention of dealing with the remaining people. As long as they did not escape, he would let them fend for themselves.

He no longer controlled these people. Instead, he instructed the people beside him to clean up the battlefield and take good care of these prisoners of war. He walked across the battlefield and walked towards Team Leader Jin.

"Captain Qin!"

Seeing that Qin Yuan had arrived, Team Leader Jin's face revealed a pleasantly surprised expression.

"Thank you for your hard work, Team Leader Jin."

Qin Yuan slowly walked in front of him and said gratefully.

“Aiya, your plan is so ingenious! What a good move to catch a turtle in a jar!” “This time, we can be considered to have caught them all in one fell swoop!”

“Congratulations! We won a beautiful battle!”

Team Leader Jin smiled and congratulated Qin Yuan.

“We can’t be happy too early. The short-term threat has been removed, but as long as the other party’s big boss isn’t cleaned up, we won’t be able to sleep well.”

Qin Yuan said sternly.

‘ That’s true, but we still have to celebrate our victory. It’ll help boost our morale.’

Team Leader Jin persuaded.

“That’s true. Since you’re all here, why don’t you have a celebratory feast here before you leave?”

Qin Yuan smiled at Team Leader Jin.

“That’s exactly what I’m thinking! Even if you want to chase me away, I’m not willing. My subordinates have all suffered heavy losses.”

Team Leader Jin also smiled.

“Hurry up and send the wounded to the medical office. I’ve specially set up a medical shed outside the camp and arranged for more than ten military doctors to treat them there. Hurry up and go over.”

Qin Yuan said.

“Alright.”

With that, Team Leader Jin busied himself with arranging for the wounded to be treated.

Qin Yuan returned to the logistics company and summoned He Chenguang and the others to the conference room for a meeting.

” We have defeated the enemy’s spirit this time, but I am not familiar with Dong Zhejun’s character. This time, whether he will make a comeback is still unknown.”

Qin Yuan said.

“He will definitely come again! After all, such a capable subordinate of mine died in battle. If I were the boss, I definitely wouldn’t be able to take this lying down!”

Geng Hu analyzed with his own thoughts.

” You might not know this, but there’s a rule in their organization. They will give up on members who betray or die in battle.” Qin Yuan explained.

“What? Is he so cold-blooded and heartless?”

Geng Hu asked in surprise.

” Yes, otherwise, it wouldn’t have become such a hateful organization..”

Chapter 798: The Old Mister’s Rescue Plan

“Their purpose is simply heartless and inhumane. It can even be said that the people in his organization are not human.” Qin Yuan said firmly.

“We don’t need to be merciful to them.”

Green Snake, who was at the side, heard this and could not help but laugh. “I’m still here. Is it appropriate for you to say that?”

‘ Of course, it’s only the leader. It doesn’t include the people who are controlled. ”

“Just now, I also showed mercy to their soldiers.”

Qin Yuan did not hesitate and directly explained his intentions.

“Our goal now is to discuss how to pursue the other party’s victory.”

Qin Yuan continued.

” According to the previous plan, I was supposed to sneak into the enemy base with Weiwei after this battle.” “I wonder if anyone has any opinions or suggestions.”

Qin Yuan told him his plan.

” That’s nothing. However, this is the second time you’ve entered the enemy’s base. The enemy will definitely be on guard. Moreover, because of this battle, the enemy will hate you to the bone. I’m just worried that it’ll be too rash for the two of you to barge in.”

He Chenguang voiced out the worry in his heart.

“You don’t have to worry about that. It’s precisely because I’ve been to their territory that I have a deep understanding of them. This way, I can be in a safer position. I’ve been in so many seemingly dangerous situations, but in the end, I’ve managed to turn the situation around. Are you still not assured?”

Qin Yuan smiled.

“That’s true. After all, you’re Qin Yuan. I don’t have anything to suspect. It’s just that as a comrade, I want to fulfill my duty to help you.”

He Chenguang said.

Qin Yuan smiled.

“I understand what you mean. Your silent recognition of me is the greatest encouragement to me.”

I’m determined to win this operation. Weiwei and I have made up our minds.

Nothing can stop us.”

Qin Yuan said sternly.

Then, he looked at Vivian.

Vivian’s eyes were filled with determination as she said seriously,”

“That’s right. This time, I have a feeling that my father must be waiting for me in some dark depths. I must seize the time to save him.”

Her eyes were filled with pure faith, without any hint of selfishness. “Then we will do our best to support your operation.”

He Chenguang and the others did not say anything to dissuade them. They could only support them to the greatest extent.

I’ll provide you with the equipment. If you want anything, just tell me. I’ll give it to you as long as I have it.”

Lin Xiaoxiao chimed in.

“How are the people from Daybreak outside?”

Qin Yuan suddenly asked.

“Weren’t they all having internal strife before? Now that a while has passed, they’ve calmed down a little. They’re all sighing on the spot.”

Geng Hu had just returned from outside and replied.

” Try to recruit those who can be recruited. Their soldiers are all people who were forced to join us. If they didn’t want to follow us, they wouldn’t have survived until now.”

“It’s also good to be able to replenish some fresh blood.”

Qin Yuan said. ‘Yes.’”

Geng Hu agreed. “Let’s go and see Hai Lin.”

Qin Yuan continued. “He doesn’t seem to be in a good condition.”

Long Xiaoyun said.

Qin Yuan went to the room where Lin Hai was imprisoned.

This time, the accommodation provided to Lin Hai was much more comfortable than the prison in the police station. It was an ordinary single room with all daily necessities. The room environment was also very comfortable.

This time, Qin Yuan was not careless. Instead, he set up four soldiers to guard the door of Hai Lin's room. He also installed cameras in the room to monitor the other party's actions. He could not let the same situation happen again.

When the guard saw Qin Yuan, he quickly greeted him. Qin Yuan nodded and signaled for them to open the door.

The two of them opened the door and Qin Yuan entered the room.

Lin Hai was lying on the field inside. When he heard the sound, he immediately woke up.

"It's you..."

Lin Hai exclaimed.

"You've been living quite well these past few days. You've put on quite a bit of weight."

Qin Yuan looked at him and smiled.

"What happened just now? I heard loud gunshots outside." said Hai Lin.

Qin Yuan realized that the other party did not know about this battle.

"It was your people who came to save you, but we chased them away."

Qin Yuan said casually.

"What is it? Come and save me?"

Lin Hai's face revealed an incredulous expression.

"Impossible! The organization would never risk their lives to rescue a captive!" Lin Hai said firmly.

"Is that so? There's someone called Captain Jin among you, right? He's already outside."

Qin Yuan said indifferently.

"What?"

Lin Hai's face turned green and purple, and he didn't know what to say.

"You're surprised, aren't you? I'm the same as you. The abnormal behavior of your organization this time makes me feel that something is not normal."

"You must have some unspeakable secret on you that made them so eager to meet you."

Qin Yuan analyzed.

He had only said these words to Lin Hai. This was the question in his heart, and only Lin Hai could answer it.

Lin Hails expression was still very ugly. His expression became very ferocious and he looked like he was in pain..

Chapter 799: The Old Man I s Rescue Plan (2)

Qin Yuan seemed to have seen some clues from his expression and continued to say to him,

‘ I think you’re in a very delicate situation now. You’re not valued by the organization, and you can’t get our trust either. You’re like an abandoned eagle, hesitating and lost.”

Qin Yuan narrowed his eyes and said to Lin Hai in a low voice.

‘ Your choice now is very important. It will have a decisive impact on the future situation.”

“Our logistics company has always maintained an open policy. As long as there are no heinous crimes, we will not severely punish them.”

Qin Yuan’s eyes revealed a sharp glint.

“In other words, as long as you can recognize what you need to do now and make up for your mistakes, we will definitely reward and protect you accordingly.”

Qin Yuan guided him patiently. This was undoubtedly a very attractive condition for Lin Hai.

It was true that Lin Hai had done many evil things. He was also an extremely evil person. His nature could not be changed, so there was no way to clear his name.

However, Qin Yuan knew that now was not the time to settle scores with him.

The most important thing now was to maximize his value and help the logistics company.

Lin Hails expression changed. It was obvious that Qin Yuan’s words had hit his soft spot.

If it was said that he had “Xiao Yan” backing him up before, then he was truly isolated and helpless now.

Since the logistics company had extended a helping hand to him, why didn’t a weak-willed fence-sitter like Lin Hai switch sides with the logistics company?

Soon, under Qin Yuan’s victorious pursuit, Lin Hail s psychological defense collapsed.

“I have the samples they studied on me.”

Lin Hai said slowly.

Qin Yuan frowned. He had not expected this at all.

He did not expect Lin Hai to be so crazy. He actually used him as a sample target to test the medicine.

“It was the experimental sample list that I got from Old Mr. Yang and stole his experimental results.”

When Lin Hai said these words, his expression was very calm. It did not seem like the attitude of a violent person at all.

“After Old Mr. Yang left, the organization handed this experimental project over to me.”

“I have Dong Zhejun’s poison on me now, and I won’t be able to live past this week. There’s no harm in being honest with you.”

“It can even make me repent for my crimes.”

The corners of Qin Yuan’s mouth twitched slightly. Lin Hai still had some conscience.

“It’s good that you understand. We’re also open-minded people. To tell you the truth, the antidote Green Snake brought this time is actually enough for two people. If you perform well, we’ll consider giving you the antidote to save your life.”

Qin Yuan said seriously.

This was the truth. Since the other party could help him, he would definitely give him something in return.

“Are you serious?”

Lin Hai was obviously very excited and said in disbelief.

‘Of course. I’ve said it many times. I never brag.’

Qin Yuan emphasized again.

“Then I’ll tell you everything I know! Give me some antidote!”

Lin Hails mood suddenly rose, as if he had grabbed onto a life-saving straw.

‘You go first. I have the right to choose.’

Qin Yuan did not give in at all.

Lin Hails eyes flashed with displeasure, but it immediately disappeared.

He lowered his voice and said,”

“As I said before, I took over Mr. Yang’s research project and continued to do research.”

“You know what happened after that. My research base was discovered and destroyed by you. Fortunately, the key materials and experimental items inside were not destroyed by you. Instead, I secretly sent him back to the base.” “Then, I returned to the headquarters and continued my research.” ‘During this period, I discovered an important research result.’

“Continue.”

” Well, it’s like this. This research is actually coming to an end. The research results I found are actually related to human life.”

“Life? What do you mean?”

Qin Yuan was interested.

“It can extend the lifespan of normal humans and even achieve the effect of immortality.”

Lin Hai said in a deep voice.

‘What?’

Qin Yuan was shocked. This was something he had never expected.

” Are you kidding me? What immortality? How is that possible?!”

“That’s the truth. We found a rare fruit in a rainforest overseas. Through this fruit, we can produce the corresponding medicine to achieve the effect of prolonging life.”

“But there are also certain side effects, which is that it will make people intermittently become delirious and even have low intelligence.”

Lin Hai’s words really surprised Qin Yuan.

“You said before that you are now the test subject of this experiment? Has he already taken the medicine?”

‘ Yes, but I don’t feel anything.”

“But I can’t analyze the specific data of this experiment with my level.”

“So the organization discovered this situation, so they captured Old Mr. Yang and wanted him to continue perfecting this drug.”

“Then you are really unlucky.”

Qin Yuan frowned.

“You guys personally developed this medicine. I didn’t expect you to be cheated by your own things. You’re really pitiful.”

Qin Yuan had a faint smile on his face.

“I don’t even know what’s going on with my body right now, but after Old Mr. Yang was captured by them, I heard that he didn’t obey them. The organization didn’t persecute him and locked him up.”

Lin Hai said a key point.

“Now that I’ve explained everything to you, can you give me the antidote?”

“Where is Old Mister Yang?”

I don't know either. I only know that it's in the organization's headquarters. Only Dong Zhejun knows the details.”

Lin Hai shrugged.

Qin Yuan looked at him with a sharp gaze. Then, he stretched out his right hand and grabbed Lin Hai's chin, twisting it up.

The other party immediately screamed. His head was raised 30 degrees by Qin

Yuan, and he shouted in pain,

“I really don't know! Only Dong Zhejun knows about this. If you don't believe me, you can ask Green Snake!”

Lin Hai's tone was very sincere. It was so painful that tears were about to flow out.

Qin Yuan looked into his eyes. After maintaining this position for a few seconds, he slowly let go.

It was obvious that the other party really did not know.

Then, he called Green Snake in.

“Give him some antidote.”

“Are you sure? He's a scumbag who has committed a heinous crime!”

“He told me the information. This is what he deserves.”

Qin Yuan said calmly.

‘ Besides, even if we give him a little, he can only hold on for another week.

After that, the poison will still take effect.”

‘You! You're cheating!’”

Lin Hai cursed angrily.

“I didn't go back on my word. I said I would give you the antidote, but I didn't say how much I would give you.”

Qin Yuan chuckled.

“Hahaha! You're still smart. This way, this person will still receive the corresponding punishment! ”

Green Snake patted Qin Yuan's shoulder and said.

“Keep him locked up. It will definitely be useful in the future.” With that, Qin Yuan and the green snake walked out of the room.

“Do you know where Old Mister Yang is being held?”

Green Snake asked with concern. “No, I haven't.”

Qin Yuan shook his head simply. "Then what information did you get from him?"

Green Snake asked in puzzlement.

"At the very least, we can confirm that the person is being held by Dong Zhejun."

Qin Yuan said.

The green snake nodded.

"It's easy to find once the range is confirmed." "There's no time to lose. We'll leave tomorrow."

Qin Yuan said.

"Alright, I'll go pack my things." With that, Green Snake left.

Qin Yuan found Weiwei again.

"Wei Wei, your father's location has been confirmed."

Qin Yuan said.

"Really? Where is it?"

Vivian's eyes lit up.

"Daybreak Organization's headquarters, their leader Dong Zhejun's lair." Qin Yuan said seriously.

Vivian's eyes showed a trace of concern at first, but it immediately turned into a strong confidence.

"Even if I'm in hell, I'm going to get him out." She said in an extremely firm tone..

Chapter 800: Prepare to Enter the Tiger's Den Again

Qin Yuan smiled.

It's not that exaggerated. Don't worry. Since I promised to bring you there, I will definitely ensure your safety."

Qin Yuan looked at the green snake again.

His expression was light and indifferent.

Qin Yuan was a little surprised, but he immediately came to a realization.

It was true that Green Snake was not completely on Qin Yuan's side. He naturally did not have any obligation to help the logistics company.

"Our main goal this time is to save Old Master Yang. Of course, I will also help take care of his daughter."

Green Snake said.

Qin Yuan gave Weiwei a look, indicating that she could go back first. He still had something to say to the green snake.

Vivian nodded and left the room.

“How are the preparations this time?”

Only Qin Yuan and the green snake were left in the room. Qin Yuan asked in a low voice.

“I’ve long been prepared. I’m just waiting for your order to set off.”

Green Snake said.

“Have you prepared everything I asked for?”

Qin Yuan confirmed again.

Green Snake took out a small black cylindrical box from his pocket and handed it to Qin Yuan.

“It’s here. How could I forget such an important thing?”

Qin Yuan narrowed his eyes and nodded slightly.

After Qin Yuan finished talking with Green Snake, he returned to the battlefield in front of the battle. The soldiers of the “Daybreak” organization were all exhausted because of the conflict of opinions and internal strife. Both sides suffered heavy losses and sat on the ground. No one could stand up.

“Are you all dead?”

Qin Yuan looked around. The “Daybreak” soldiers on the ground were wailing and moaning.

“I still want to watch a good show for a while.”

Qin Yuan sat down with interest and touched his chin.

More than half of the “Daybreak” on the ground had fallen, and only a few dozen people remained conscious.

When these people saw Qin Yuan walking over, some of them cursed, while others remained silent.

In short, they were now a group of powerless fish.

‘ Since that’s the case, I’ll give you a chance. The rest of you who can still move, I’ll give you freedom. You can go wherever you want. If you want to join us, we’ll welcome you with open doors. If you want to leave, we won’t stop you.” Qin Yuan said loudly to these people.

Whether it was the people from the logistics company or the people from Daybreak, they were all shocked by these words.

She did not expect Qin Yuan to be so open-minded and tolerant!

“Captain Qin Yuan, they’re from the Daybreak Organization! A heinous criminal! Letting them go is equivalent to letting the tiger return to the mountain!”

The soldiers of the logistics company said with some dissatisfaction.

“That’s right! Captain Qin Yuan, we must punish them severely to show our military prestige! We can’t let it go!”

Qin Yuan waved his hand, indicating for them to stop talking.

” They were all forced to obey orders. Besides, as the saying goes, humans are not saints. Who can be free from mistakes?”

“Moreover, their current appearance can be considered to have received the best punishment. Don’t pursue a desperate enemy.” Qin Yuan said sternly.

“I’ve made up my mind. Don’t persuade me anymore.”

Seeing Qin Yuan’s determination, the people from the logistics company did not say anything else.

When the people of Daybreak heard this, they were relieved.

They did not expect Qin Yuan to do this. Indeed, most of the people on their side had been coaxed into coming in by the organization. Now that Qin Yuan had said this, they had really touched the soft spot in their hearts. They all looked at the ground quietly and did not say anything else.

After a long while, some tired Dawn Flame soldiers slowly fell to the side of the logistics company.

“I joined the logistics company. A wise man understands the times. I’ve had enough of this organization! It was simply not a place that a person should be! We’ve wanted to leave this place for a long time!”

Those who were loyal to ” Daybreak Flame ” began to waver when they saw that they were besieged on all sides. They were originally good citizens, and very few of them would risk their lives for this organization. They had also been brainwashed by the organization, so they were willing to work for them wholeheartedly. But now, they had seen their current situation clearly and understood what they really wanted.

That’s right! They were all living people! They were all people who had been tortured to this point. They were originally people with kind hearts!

“I plan to join the logistics company!” “I’ll join the logistics company too!”

“I want to join too!”

With the first one, there would be a second one. The people of the “Daybreak” organization began to surrender to Qin Yuan one after another.

Qin Yuan smiled. Everything was under his control.

“As expected, Captain Qin Yuan has the ability! These tough guys were subdued by him just like that!”

“Our army has some new members!”

Although some people were not very willing, they all joined the logistics company with the majority.

The soldiers in the company did not have the chance to bring all the people who were willing to join them over there to help them deal with their wounds.

Green Snake, who was at the side, saw all of this. He walked over and patted Qin Yuan's shoulder. He smiled and said,

“You really have a way. I didn't expect you to be able to persuade these tough bones with just a few words. I admire you. Even the cadres in our organization can't make them willingly work for them..”
