

Special Troop 881

Chapter 881: Final Battle?(2)

As expected, the soldiers below replied,”

” Obey the captain’s arrangements and instructions!”

“Very good! Now, I’m going to choose 200 soldiers to follow me to the frontline!”

“The remaining 100 soldiers will be distributed to Green Snake and He Chenguang respectively. Whoever wants to go to the battlefield with me can stand on the side!”

Qin Yuan shouted.

“I’m willing to follow Captain Qin Yuan!”

“I’m willing too!”

“Me too!”

Soon, Qin Yuan’s side was like a stack of wooden cards, slowly filled with soldiers from the logistics company.

In the end, everyone stood in Qin Yuan’s camp. There was not a single warrior left!

“This, you guys are too enthusiastic.”

“What will Green Snake and He Chenguang think?”

“This is too awkward!”

“Everyone chose to follow Qin Yuan! Green Snake and He Chenguang actually have no soldiers to bring!”

The scene was filled with chaotic discussions.

Qin Yuan also felt that this was a little inappropriate, so he said to the soldiers who followed him,

“I know that all of you want to follow me to the battlefield to kill the enemy, but! We must follow the rules!”

“Since I’ve issued the mission this time and you’ve agreed! Then, we cannot ignore this rule!”

“How about this? We will follow the rules of first come, first served! The 200 warriors standing at the very front! Move together with me!”

This way, it was fair and did not damage the dignity of the soldiers. It was a more reasonable solution.

“Good! We’ll listen to you!”

Although some of the warriors who were late had no choice, they were very obedient to Qin Yuan's suggestion.

Some of the people who came later consciously returned to their original places.

After that, Green Snake and He Chenguang each selected a group of warriors and formed their own teams.

By nine o'clock in the evening, the logistics company's preparations were basically completed.

Every team was prepared with guns, ammunition, rations, and various auxiliary tools.

A team of 300 people was ready to go at any time.

Before leaving, Qin Yuan came to the old man's room again.

"Why, you haven't set off yet?"

the old man asked.

"Right away. I'm just here to say goodbye to you."

Qin Yuan said with a smile.

"Look at what you're saying. It's as if you're never going back."

The old man also smiled.

"Of course, just in case, I'm definitely here to say goodbye to you."

Qin Yuan's expression was relaxed.

The old man smiled.

"Stop joking. I'm still waiting to go back with you to see my daughter. Promise me that you'll bring me back."

The old man's eyes lit up.

Qin Yuan had a helpless and bleak smile on his face.

"Okay, I promise you."

Then, the two of them did not say anything else. A few minutes later, Qin Yuan left the room.

In the blink of an eye, it was already midnight.

It was time for them to set off.

The entire logistics company was ready.

"Everyone, set off!"

Qin Yuan stood at the front and gave the order.

Hundreds of people rushed out like a black whirlwind and groped their way into the darkness.

The vanguard led by Qin Yuan rushed to the front. After a few hours of investigation, they had roughly grasped the other party's location.

It was less than two kilometers away from their location.

At the same time.

In the camp of Daybreak's troops.

A soldier hurriedly ran into a large camp.

"Governor! The sixth, second, and fifth teams have all failed!"

In the middle sat a robust middle-aged man.

It was Dong Zhejun.

At this moment, his face was ashen, as if he had been kicked by a donkey. He was extremely embarrassed.

He picked up the cup beside him and threw it on the ground.

"Get lost!"

Dong Zhejun shouted.

The soldier hurriedly ran out of the tent on his knees.

Dong Zhejun naturally knew what had happened to his troops!

It was a day later than expected, and the troops had not returned yet!

This meant that there must have been an accident!

The soldier's answer just now confirmed his guess.

Dong Zhejun's heart was filled with rage!

Logistics Company!

She had already become the biggest thorn in his side in this life!

Consecutively defeating the strength of several of his legions!

This not only made him feel uneasy and angry, but it also made Daybreak Organization lose face!

Although they had only lost a small portion of their forces, Di Daozhang, the captain of the sixth team, was his favorite general!

Losing such a powerful general was a huge loss for Dong Zhejun!

At the thought of this, Dong Zhejun's face even started to tear up.

Dong Zhejun wiped his tears and fell silent.

A man in a black military uniform comforted him,"

"Governor, although we lost four troops at once, the other side was also affected to a certain extent. I believe that their losses were not small."

This person's voice was calm and his tone was cold, like a ruthless character.

"Captain Jin, what do you think we should do?"

Dong Zhejun slowly raised his head and asked with a sorrowful expression.

The man named Captain Jin smiled and leaned over to Dong Zhejun's ear, whispering a few words into his ear.

Dong Zhejun's expression immediately changed from worry to joy.

Fifteen minutes later.

Qin Yuan led the logistics company forward.

A group of people was marching forward in a serious and orderly manner. Unlike the previous secret march, this time they were marching forward with great fanfare and momentum.

Their shouts could be heard within a one-kilometer radius.

Although there weren't many of them, they did show their imposing manner.

As for Daybreak Flame, he had long been attracted by this arrogant and domineering logistics company.

"Sir! It was the logistics company! They're actually so arrogant this time!"

"And he kept shouting that he wanted to kill us all!"

"This is really too much! This bunch of people! He beat up four of our teams! Now, he actually came to me!"

"What a reckless thing! We'll show them what hell is!"

After receiving the provocation from the logistics company's soldiers, Daybreak Flame's soldiers were already thirsty and thirsty. They vowed to fight to the death with the other party.

"Sir! What do you mean? Was this an obvious provocation? Can we tolerate it?"

"Moreover, our soldiers are dozens of times more than theirs! It's too unreasonable to be a coward like this!"

The soldiers all requested to fight to the death with the logistics company.

The leader, a short officer, was very clear about their thoughts. He was just like them, filled with endless hatred towards the logistics company. However, he was helpless because his position was low. He was only the captain of a scout team at the outpost. He did not have the right to command the army and could only wait for orders from the higher-ups.

"I know you are anxious, but please don't be anxious."

He could not suppress the excitement in his heart and was already somewhat incoherent.

When the soldiers heard this, they were also very dissatisfied.

However, they also knew that as soldiers, they had to follow the orders of the army. They could only beat their chests and stamp their feet on the spot, helpless.

And why hadn't the higher-ups issued any orders?

Because Dong Zhejun listened to Captain Jin's suggestion.

He chose to wait for fatigue.

That was what Captain Jin had suggested to him. Since the logistics company of the other party dared to come and fight with them so impulsively, they must have been prepared. If they fought according to the other party's wishes, they would definitely not be able to gain any advantage.

Although Daybreak Flame's army had a large number of people and required a lot of living resources, they had a stable supply chain behind them. The resources in the White Tower were inexhaustible, and it only took half a day to transport them here.

As long as they ensured the safety of the transportation channel, they could engage in a war of attrition with the logistics company. At that time, they would definitely be the first to fall.

It had to be said that Dong Zhejun's wishful thinking was very ingenious.

Chapter 882: Creating Chaos

On the main battlefield, although the logistics company had taken the initiative to attack, they did not really take the risk to attack the other side.

He was just bluffing on the spot.

After all, if they really fought, they would not have any advantage.

Moreover, Qin Yuan did not intend to fight them head-on. The biggest reason why he came to the front of the formation was to intimidate the opponent and attract their attention.

At this moment, the logistics company had already walked about a kilometer, and they were still half a kilometer away from the enemy camp.

Qin Yuan ordered the main group to rest for a while. He stood calmly in front of the other party's camp and stared at Xiao Yan's position in front of him with a burning gaze.

Although it was midnight, the outline of the enemy's camp could already be seen.

Although the battle was imminent, the soldiers of the logistics company were very excited and not afraid at all.

Qin Yuan stared into the distance, waiting for the green snake and He Chenguang to take action.

It could be said that he had already completed his mission. He had come to the other party's formation and used goading tactics on the other party, but the other party did not accept the challenge. This was something Qin Yuan had not expected.

However, he did not have the mood to think about what the other party was up to. Their main goal was not on the battlefield.

Another hour passed, and the battlefield was still full of thunder but little rain.

The two sides stood in a stalemate for a long time and did not move.

The logistics company did not stop moving. He Chenguang and Green Snake had already quietly entered the enemy's rear formation.

Qin Yuan maintained close contact with them. Moreover, after learning that they had entered the enemy's territory, he was very happy.

"How is it? Where are we??"

Qin Yuan was on the phone with the green snake.

"We've reached the enemy's rear. This is their weak spot. We can attack at any time."

Green Snake's anxious voice came from the other end.

"We're just waiting for your orders."

"Are you sure that there are no more enemy troops around?"

"Yes."

"Alright, let's get started."

Qin Yuan said resolutely.

"Roger!"

"I will lead them to attack now."

"Pay attention, focus on self-preservation."

Qin Yuan instructed.

"Yes, I know."

After saying that, Green Snake hung up the phone.

Although Qin Yuan did not trust him very much, his role was incomparable to the current logistics company.

Not to mention that White Wolf was only on good terms with him, his combat strength was also second to none among the elites of the logistics company. After all, he was once a member of Xiaoyan's cadre.

After handing over the battle matters with Green Snake, Qin Yuan contacted He Chenguang.

"Old He, how is it? Did it go smoothly?"

Qin Yuan asked.

"Yes, it's going well on my side! They have already led their troops to infiltrate the periphery of the enemy's reserve camp!"

He Chenguang's calm voice came from the other end.

"Alright, don't be anxious. Don't move. Wait for my orders before you move. Do you understand?"

"Alright, I'll wait for your news here!"

“Yes.”

After Qin Yuan hung up the phone, he felt relieved.

They had all successfully reached their position. Now, they were just waiting for their side to start creating opportunities for them.

Qin Yuan’s eyes lit up.

Their people had been silent for a long time. It was time to show their rich combat skills and give Daybreak Flame’s people a lively practical lesson.

Qin Yuan looked at the time.

“Brothers, I’ve made everyone wait! I know you are all excited! Right now, our enemy is just one kilometer in front of us! We can already see the enemy’s camp!”

“And now! This is a precious opportunity for us to attack! Is everyone ready?”

Qin Yuan’s voice was very excited.

“I’m ready!”

The soldiers shouted in unison.

“Let’s go!”

Qin Yuan gave the order, and the 200 people below began to move forward, charging towards Xiao Yan’s camp.

Qin Yuan had already told the soldiers about this. Although this attack was their first attack and it was a huge one, it was actually only a feint. It was mainly to distract the attention of the local troops and to protect themselves, creating an opportunity for Green Snake and He Chenguang to launch a sneak attack.

However, although it was an act, it had to be realistic. Qin Yuan was the first to rush to the front. He held a submachine gun in his hand and shouted fearlessly,

“Daybreak scum! Today is your doomsday! Eat my bullet!”

As he spoke, he sprinted at the speed of a hundred meters and quickly arrived in front of the enemy’s camp. He was only two hundred meters away. Then, he took the lead and fired wildly at the enemy’s formation.

Although the other party had already seen Qin Yuan’s arrival from afar and was prepared to fight, he was still shocked by Qin Yuan’s swift and violent actions.

There was actually someone who was not afraid of death and directly charged in front of their army?

If they didn’t kill him on the spot, what face would they have left?

Seeing such a provocative scene, some of the young and energetic Daybreak soldiers could not help but fire back at Qin Yuan without waiting for the captain behind to give the order.

All of this had long been part of Qin Yuan's plan. After seeing the other party take out his gun, Qin Yuan had already completed his feint and left their sight, hiding in a dark ravine.

Chapter 883: Creating Chaos (2)

"Damn it! Where is he?"

Before Xiao Yan could react, he was already destined to miss.

However, this was not Qin Yuan's entire plan. In the few seconds that the other party was stunned, the logistics company soldiers hiding behind Qin Yuan were already prepared to fight.

They instantly emerged from the woods on both sides of the road. The guns in their hands did not stop for a moment. Firepower instantly poured out from this side, violently rushing towards Xiao Yan's position like a swarm of wasps.

Before the other party could react, the soldiers guarding the camp gate in front fell!

Although there weren't many people in the logistics company, it was still a big deal! They were all well-trained soldiers, and their shooting skills were also very good. No one wasted their bullets, and all their shots hit the vital points!

The pitiful soldiers of Daybreak Flame had fallen before they could even see the faces of the soldiers of the logistics company.

Qin Yuan was also very happy to see that he had won, but he did not have the impulse to continue moving forward.

Qin Yuan knew that their mission had basically been completed. As long as they created some more commotion here, they would be able to provide He Chenguang and Qin Yuan with more opportunities.

"Brothers, go ahead and make a scene, the bigger the better! We don't have enough ammo! Just don't rush over!"

Qin Yuan shouted.

Because of their victory in the previous battle, they had seized countless guns and ammunition from Daybreak. One person could not even use up two guns.

Therefore, there was no need to worry about firepower. They only needed to protect themselves and retreat on time.

Of course, Daybreak Flame's men were not to be trifled with. After the first team suffered a loss, the soldiers behind them immediately realized the seriousness of the problem.

They began to defend in an orderly manner.

They took out the corresponding defensive shields and blocked in front of the camp. The soldiers also hid behind various bunkers. Slowly, the logistics company's attacks were not as effective.

However, this did not have any negative impact on the logistics company.

Before Qin Yuan set off, he had already made it clear that this time, killing one person was a gain. Their original purpose was only to harass them, and they did not have much hope of killing the enemy. Moreover, their ammunition was almost endless, so they had to find a place to vent. Otherwise, they would not be able to bring it back.

“How was it? Was it fun?”

Qin Yuan asked loudly in the chaotic battle.

“Awesome!”

“It’s been a long time since I’ve had such a satisfying battle!”

The soldiers shouted excitedly.

The battle continued. Due to the large area of the battlefield, there were many places to hide. The soldiers of the logistics company were hidden in various deep trenches and alleys. It was difficult for the other party to launch an effective counterattack, so they were suppressed by the logistics company and could not escape.

The battle lasted for more than ten minutes. Seeing that the anger of the soldiers was almost vented, the enemy’s reinforcements slowly arrived at the scene.

Qin Yuan knew that it was time for them to retreat.

“Brothers, this battle will end here. I know that many of you haven’t had enough yet, but! Our mission has been completed. In order to avoid unnecessary losses, we must retreat immediately!”

Qin Yuan waved his hand and ordered the retreat.

“Yes, sir!”

Although there were many brothers in the logistics company who had not had enough of fighting and had not killed enough, and some of them had even gone up to fight, when they heard Qin Yuan’s order, they immediately stopped what they were doing and tidied up their luggage to return to the queue.

“A few brothers, come with me to cover the rear! Buy some time for the people in front to retreat!”

After Qin Yuan saw that the troops had begun to retreat, he came to the end of the team and prepared to carry out the sniper mission to prevent the other party from chasing after him.

Upon hearing Qin Yuan’s words, new soldiers immediately turned around and joined Qin Yuan’s sniper team. The number of people suddenly increased.

“I’ll do it!”

“I’ll cover the rear for the main force! Hurry up and leave!”

“Me too! My marksmanship is very accurate! This mission must be done by me!”

What was ridiculous was that the 200 people who had originally planned to retreat suddenly turned around and returned to the front because of Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan also had a helpless expression, but he knew that now was not the time to be conflicted about such things. He immediately said,

“I know your intentions, but you have to retreat safely! Otherwise, this operation will be a waste!”

Before anyone could react, he pushed the Warrior behind him away.

Then, he shouted,

“Bring me a rocket launcher!”

The moment these words came out, everyone was shocked again.

Captain Qin Yuan was going to play big this time!

Everyone understood what Qin Yuan meant. There was no time for them to hesitate or be surprised.

Everyone immediately took out the rocket launchers that they had specially brought with them this time.

Qin Yuan took the rocket launcher and aimed it in Xiao Yan’s direction.

“All of you, leave quickly!”

Qin Yuan gave his final order.

Then, he pressed the trigger. With a loud bang, a monstrous explosion instantly ignited in front of Qin Yuan.

The ground was instantly filled with blazing smoke.

Qin Yuan was pushed a few meters away by the violent recoil and fell to the ground. Fortunately, he was not injured, but was shocked by the violent recoil.

He struggled to stand up and immediately turned around to walk back.

” Captain, are you alright?!”

The people at the side quickly came over to ask.

“I’m fine. Hurry up and leave now. Everyone, return to the logistics company!”

Qin Yuan said in a low voice.

“Yes, sir!”

Everyone was touched and immediately flew back with Qin Yuan.

Qin Yuan knew that although their firepower was very fierce and they had indeed suppressed the other party, they were still Daybreak Organization after all. Their military strength and weapons were far above theirs.

When they reacted, they would definitely chase after the logistics company. At that time, if they did not leave enough distance, they might threaten the safety of the logistics company.

After all, the other party had a car as a means of transportation, which was much more efficient than walking.

Previously, it was only because of the steep terrain here that he was lucky not to be discovered by the other party.

Qin Yuan took the lead and ran in front at a fast speed. The people behind could only follow behind Qin Yuan at their fastest speed, panting heavily.

“Captain! Why didn’t we just give the other party a heavy blow! Why does it look like we’ve been defeated?”

the soldiers behind asked, panting.

“We only managed to sneak attack! If we really fight, we won’t be a match for them! Moreover, we’ve achieved our goal this time. There’s no need to get too entangled with them.”

Qin Yuan said seriously.

“Purpose? Isn’t our goal to defeat them?”

Qin Yuan smiled.

“This is the main purpose. But we have to wait until the secondary goal is completed.”

“Secondary purpose? What is it?”

A soldier asked curiously.

“You’ll know later.”

Qin Yuan smiled and kept her in suspense.

At the same time, at the location of Green Snake’s troops.

Green Snake and the others were in the forest near the main road where Daybreak transported military rations, while Green Snake himself was sitting on the ground.

He looked at the road ahead with his binoculars.

There were brand new tire marks on the road.

It seemed that they had just sent in a batch of goods not long ago.

The next time he came, it would take about half a day.

Green Snake’s troops had also heard the intense gunfight in front of them. They knew that Qin Yuan’s operation had already begun, and they were delighted.

Just as they were about to finish their operation, Qin Yuan’s notification came.

Sure enough, Qin Yuan did not let him wait for long and immediately called.

“We’re done here. It’s your turn.”

Qin Yuan’s low voice sounded.

“I’ve been waiting for you to say this for a long time.”

Green Snake laughed.

Then, he hung up.

“Brothers, do you know what happened up ahead?”

Green Snake asked with a smile.

“I know! Captain Qin Yuan and the others have started to attack, right?”

The warrior beside him answered.

“That’s right! They have already created enough chaos in front of us!”

“This also means that it’s time for us to make our debut!”

Green Snake’s smile gradually crept onto his face.

Chapter 884: It’s Your Grandpa Green Snake

“Captain Green Snake! We can’t wait either!”

When the soldiers below heard this, they were all abnormally excited.

“We can finally take action! My body is about to rust from waiting!”

“There’s really no way to stay in this damn place! Cold and damp! I want to quickly complete the mission and return to my big wooden bed!”

The soldiers cheered.

“Don’t be happy too early. Our mission is very difficult.”

Green Snake said.

“We have to cause a real impact on the troops behind them in the chaos at the front, not just bluff like Qin Yuan.”

” And we only have 50 people. This mission is to cut off their source of military rations. They must be heavily guarded here. Do you understand how difficult this is?”

After hearing Green Snake’s words, although the soldiers below were not as excited as before, their faces revealed an extremely determined gaze.

“We will definitely complete this mission successfully!”

The surrounding people answered in unison.

“Good, what I want is a fearless aura like yours!”

Green Snake said with a smile.

“Since we are mentally and physically prepared, let’s set off immediately!”

“Good!”

The people below answered at the same time.

All they needed to do now was to wait. The other party’s supply vehicle would definitely pass through here and would definitely not escape from their hands.

Green Snake and the others waited patiently.

Time passed slowly.

Soon, half a day had passed, and the sky slowly turned from the original dark night to a gray dawn. The Azure Sky Snake calculated in its heart that their supplies would soon arrive.

Xiao Yan didn’t let Green Snake wait for too long. At about 6:30 in the morning, a noisy sound of car tires came from the fog in the distance.

Green Snake was overjoyed. The other party’s supply vehicle must have arrived.

The soldiers beside him also became spirited.

“He’s here!”

“Okay, let’s not act rashly. We’ll wait for them to come here first.”

With that, Green Snake took out a pair of binoculars and began to look into the distance.

Sure enough, although it seemed like there was a thin layer of fog, he could still barely make out that the other party was a row of trucks with large cargo boxes behind them.

They were not traveling fast, but there were three layers of soldiers guarding the area. There were at least a hundred people.

“Damn, their defenses are really tight.”

Green Snake spat.

The logistics company hid in the forest and did not reveal any traces.

“How is it, Captain? When are we going to do it?”

The soldiers at the side were already thirsty and desperately needed a hearty battle to vent their anger.

Green Snake understood their current situation, but he was terrifyingly calm.

He knew that the more critical the moment was, the more he needed to calmly deal with the difficult situation.

Green Snake didn’t panic. Instead, he said in a deep voice,

” There’s no rush. We’ll attack after we’ve confirmed the enemy’s location and the exact number of people.”

“Let’s scatter and surround them quietly.”

With that, Green Snake took the lead and crawled to the back of the other party’s convoy.

The people around him all knew Green Snake's goal, so they scattered and hid around the other party's convoy.

Green Snake saw that the soldiers had been gone for a long time. He frowned and nodded at them when he saw the opportunity.

The other party did not notice that there was something wrong with the logistics company. They were still driving at a normal speed and had already arrived in front of their ambush.

A sizzling sound was heard from the ground, and the wheels of the car deflated.

The car in front suddenly slowed down. The car behind did not have time to react. It did not slow down in time and had already loaded into the car in front!

This sudden accident caused all the cars behind to be like dominoes, causing a series of car accidents!

A large number of Daybreak Flame soldiers were instantly killed!

The soldiers who were originally orderly were in a mess. They were like ants on a hot pan, running around and screaming in pain.

"What's going on?"

Daybreak Flame's men immediately shouted in panic.

"Our car tires have been punctured!"

"Damn it, we've been ambushed!"

Over at the logistics company.

"We succeeded! Captain!"

When the soldiers of the logistics company saw this scene, they were very excited and happy.

A satisfied smile appeared on Green Snake's face.

The logistics company had long laid sharp spikes on the road and covered them with rags, waiting for the enemy to enter the net. Unexpectedly, the weather was gloomy today, and the fog was thick. The visibility was low, and the enemy did not see the abnormality on the road clearly and fell into the logistics company's trap.

"Brothers, it's time for us to harvest!"

"Reap their lives to your heart's content!"

Green Snake laughed wantonly.

Following that, Green Snake took the lead and roared angrily. Then, he rushed out of the road and launched the first wave of attacks on the enemy's troops!

Green Snake held the submachine gun in his hand and without any hesitation, he fired wildly at Daybreak's troops in the fog.

Immediately, miserable wails came from the other party's position.

” Who is it?!”

Daybreak Flame’s men shouted in horror.

“It’s your Grandpa Green Snake!”

Green Snake said with a teasing smile.

When Daybreak Flame and the others heard this, they were shocked and terrified.

Chapter 885: It’s Your Grandpa Green Snake

They didn’t expect the people from the logistics company to be everywhere. They were still fighting in the front, but another team had already infiltrated so far behind!

However, Daybreak and the rest had no other choice. It was unrealistic to inform the base camp. They were several kilometers away from the base camp. Daybreak could only fight to the death!

Thinking of this, many of Daybreak’s soldiers began to retreat. After all, they were at a disadvantage now. Their vehicles were destroyed, and most of the soldiers were injured. There were even many soldiers who had died.

There were probably less than half of them who had complete combat strength!

Although they had more people than the other party, they had only gambled a few dozen people. Moreover, in their current state, it was simply a fool’s dream to fight against a healthy and well-organized logistics company!

Therefore, many of Daybreak Flame’s people had lost their morale and had already begun to flee in all directions!

Even though the leader was trying his best to gather the hearts of the people, the army was still defeated. This was an unstoppable trend.

After some symbolic resistance, Xiao Yan was easily defeated by Green Snake and the others.

The logistics company only took about ten minutes to finish dealing with these hundred Daybreak soldiers.

The precious resources they left behind were also taken by the logistics team.

“Qin Yuan! We’ve already completed our mission!”

Green Snake dialed Qin Yuan’s walkie-talkie.

” So fast?!”

Qin Yuan’s excited voice came from the other end.

“Yo, it’s rare to see you so happy.”

Green Snake laughed.

Qin Yuan did not expect the green snake to move so quickly. It was twice as fast as he had expected.

“Alright, then hurry back. Congratulations! We’re done!”

Qin Yuan said happily.

“There are a lot of supplies here. What should we do with them?”

Green Snake asked.

Qin Yuan thought for a while.

“We don’t have many people, so we don’t need that many. Besides, you’ll take a certain risk if you bring them back.”

“Alright, I’m just asking for your opinion.”

“Yes, thank you for your hard work. In order to avoid any more trouble, you can clean up the scene and come back.”

Qin Yuan said.

“Alright, I’m hanging up.”

Green Snake began to deal with the items left at the scene.

On the other side of the battlefield.

He Chenguang was hiding in the forest beside Daybreak’s base camp.

He Chenguang had already arrived before Qin Yuan and the others set off.

The mission he received was the most important of the three-find Geng Hu and get him out.

And the number of soldiers he had was only the same as Green Snake’s.

At this moment, the walkie-talkie on his body rang, and Qin Yuan’s metallic and hoarse voice came from it.

” He Chenguang, I’m done here. How’s the situation on your side?”

“Searching for the target.”

He Chenguang replied calmly.

Although he had been staying in this place, he had not been idle.

From the very beginning, he had arranged for informants to enter the place to search for Geng Hu’s whereabouts.

A few hours had passed since the beginning. He had been in close contact with the informant, but he had searched almost every place and still found nothing.

He was also very anxious. After all, time and opportunities were limited. If they waited for Qin Yuan’s commotion to end, their chances would be even less.

Qin Yuan also felt the seriousness of the matter. Now, other than He Chenguang, the three of them had already completed their missions.

However, if something went wrong in the last part of saving Geng Hu, they would definitely not be able to escape unscathed.

He would not give up on any of the soldiers in the logistics company.

“What’s wrong? He’s not inside?”

“I’m not sure, but my men have already infiltrated and searched everywhere, but they haven’t seen anyone.”

He Chenguang replied.

Qin Yuan fell silent.

If what He Chenguang said was true, then Geng Hu must have entered the same ” place ” as before.

After all, Geng Hu was also a bargaining chip for Xiao Yan and Qin Yuan. The other party would definitely not kill him easily.

“Wait for me over there. Now that my mission is over, I’ll meet up with you.”

Qin Yuan said.

“Wait, you still have a large group of people that you need to lead, right? If you come over, who will lead?”

He Chenguang hurriedly asked.

“Old man.”

Qin Yuan replied in a low voice.

“You can’t doubt his ability, can you?”

He Chenguang was speechless.

Indeed, the old man was the most prestigious person here. There was nothing wrong with him being the leader.

“Alright, then I’ll wait for you here.”

He Chenguang agreed.

More than ten minutes later, Qin Yuan arrived at He Chenguang’s camp.

The terrain here was indeed hidden. It was in a low-lying position, and there were rocks everywhere. It was very difficult for anyone to detect their location.

“How long has he been in there?”

Qin Yuan asked as soon as he arrived.

“It’s been three hours since I went in. I haven’t returned yet.”

He Chenguang replied.

“Can we still contact him?”

“Sure.”

“Give me his walkie-talkie.”

Qin Yuan said in a deep voice.

He Chenguang was a little puzzled. He did not understand what Qin Yuan was going to do, but he had no reason to question him. He took out his walkie-talkie and called the informant.

“Hey, hey, hey? Can you hear me? Lu Ming?”

He Chenguang asked in a low voice.

“Hello? Is it Captain He Chenguang?”

A soldier’s voice came from the other side.

Qin Yuan took the walkie-talkie from He Chenguang’s hand and asked,

“Lu Ming, what’s the situation on your side? Can you give me a brief explanation?”

The other party seemed to have recognized Qin Yuan’s voice and was a little excited.

“It’s Captain Qin Yuan? Why are you here?”

Lu Ming’s voice was slightly shocked and trembling.

“Yes, I’m here to support you. Please cooperate with me.”

Qin Yuan said seriously.

“Alright! I’ll tell you all the information I have!”

Lu Ming said excitedly.

“Where are you now?”

Qin Yuan asked.

“In their temporary camp! I’m hiding in the grass nearby! Because most of the soldiers had rushed to the front line, there weren’t many soldiers patrolling at the back. I wasn’t discovered!”

Lu Ming replied.

“Tell me the approximate location.”

Qin Yuan said.

Lu Ming explained his position to Qin Yuan.

“Okay, I’ll go and find you later. Don’t move around.”

“Alright... Alright!”

Lu Ming couldn’t contain his excitement.

Qin Yuan hung up the intercom. He Chenguang, who was beside him, looked surprised.

“Are you really going over?”

"I know that you always like to act alone, but this is a matter of life and death for the logistics company!"

"I'll go with you."

He Chenguang persuaded.

Qin Yuan smiled.

"Do you think it's safer and more effective for me to go with someone else?"

He Chenguang raised his eyebrows, unable to answer.

From his past experience, it was true that Qin Yuan had a higher success rate when he acted alone.

He Chenguang was just used to thinking that it was unsafe to be alone.

Then, he smiled in relief.

"As expected of you. You can always use the simplest language to express the most profound truth."

"I've already considered it seriously. This is the best solution."

Qin Yuan continued.

"Everyone has their own things to do. This is the most suitable job for me. And all of you have your own missions to complete."

"After I go out, the command of the front line camp will be handed over to you."

Qin Yuan said to He Chenguang seriously.

"Leave it to me. You have to pay attention to your safety."

"If you need anything, just tell me."

Qin Yuan thought for a moment.

"I don't need anything. I just need the usual equipment. The lightest equipment is the best equipment."

"Alright, then I wish you all the best."

After bidding farewell to He Chenguang, it was already ten in the morning for Qin Yuan. The sky was not completely bright yet, so now was the right time to sneak in.

The outer perimeter of Daybreak Camp was only protected by a simple iron wall, which was covered with anti-climbing nails.

This was indeed an insurmountable barrier for ordinary people, but for well-trained people like the logistics company, it was a piece of cake.

Chapter 886: The Rescue of Geng Hu Begins

Qin Yuan took a breath and easily climbed over the wall. He used the iron pliers that he had prepared in his hand to lift the nail and turned over to enter.

This series of actions did not take much time. Qin Yuan hid in the grass under the wall and observed the situation inside.

Just as Lu Ming had described, more than half of the troops had been wiped out, leaving only the old, weak, sick, and disabled to guard the camp.

Qin Yuan did not alarm any guards. He followed the location given by Lu Ming and quietly groped his way over. It did not take him long to reach his destination.

Lu Ming was already waiting for him inside.

Seeing Qin Yuan come over, she was very excited.

“Captain Qin!”

Qin Yuan made a quiet gesture.

“Are they taking any action?”

“No, the people behind are all normal! They were all doing ordinary work! There’s nothing suspicious about it.”

Qin Yuan frowned.

If that was the case, this matter was very troublesome for him. Without any clues, they would have no way to investigate. It could be said that they had found nothing.

“What should we do? Captain Qin? If this continues, it will become more and more difficult for us.”

Lu Ming looked troubled.

“Don’t worry, we’ll definitely find a way.”

“As long as he’s still here, we’ll definitely find him.”

“Tell me the distribution of the people here, then go back first. You don’t know the situation here, so leave it to me.”

Qin Yuan said.

“What? I can help you too, Captain Qin Yuan!”

Lu Ming was a little unwilling.

” You have more important things to do. Believe me, this is definitely not your best choice.”

Qin Yuan said seriously.

Lu Ming smiled bitterly. He knew that his captain was a man of his word, so there was no need for him to persist.

“Alright, then I wish Captain all the best.”

After Lu Ming returned, Qin Yuan obtained the information he had gathered previously.

Although it was basically useless information like the composition of Daybreak’s troops and the number of people in each division, there was no valuable clue.

However, it was better than nothing.

Then, he used the walkie-talkie to contact He Chenguang.

Qin Yuan sorted out all the clues so far. Everything here showed a normal situation.

However, the careful Qin Yuan still found something suspicious.

This was just a recycling bin for Xiaoyan’s daily garbage.

However, to Qin Yuan’s surprise, according to Lu Ming’s investigation, there were actually more than 30 guards here.

This was just an ordinary waste recycling place. Why did it need so many people to guard it?

This was obviously unreasonable. Qin Yuan had reason to suspect that there was something fishy about this place!

Qin Yuan did not hesitate and went straight to the recycling bin.

As expected, this place was completely different from other places. Even though there was quite a commotion ahead, this place was still heavily guarded and very suspicious.

There were already five to six people patrolling the entrance.

Qin Yuan was very puzzled and was thinking about what to do now.

A soft shout suddenly came from the side.

“Captain Qin!”

The voice was very soft, but it definitely came from nearby.

Qin Yuan was shocked!

How did he not notice that someone had come near him?

It was a female voice!

Qin Yuan turned his head to look in the direction of the voice. There was a blurry figure in the grass behind him. It did not look big, and it was very delicate.

“Who is it?”

A familiar figure slowly crawled out.

“Weiwei?”

Qin Yuan was very surprised.

“Why are you here?”

His tone had even gone up a few notches.

Shouldn't you be recuperating in the hospital?"

"Cough! It's a long story!"

Vivian heaved a sigh of relief.

"Is your foot better?"

Qin Yuan asked with concern.

"Alright! I came here this time because I've recovered!"

"Sigh! You're really insensible! You know that I like to act alone! Why didn't you consider my feelings?"

Qin Yuan knew that now was not the time to reminisce, so he went straight to the point.

"Alright! If you don't bring me, I'll go find someone myself."

Vivian raised her eyebrows.

Sigh!

Qin Yuan was distressed and helpless. He had promised the old man that he would not abandon Weiwei just like that. After all, the ultimate goal of this operation was to reunite the father and daughter.

"Alright, you win. Follow me closely and don't walk around."

Qin Yuan said seriously.

"Yes, I know! I've been wandering around here for a while. They seem to be very concerned about what's inside, but I've never gone in before. There must be something strange inside! We might be able to find clues about Captain Geng Hu inside!"

Qin Yuan nodded. Then, he remembered something he had seen before.

"Oh right, I saw the Qiu brothers in the enemy camp. Do you know what happened?"

Qin Yuan told Wei Wei about the Qiu brothers.

"Ah! Now that you mention it, I remember! I left the hospital because of them!"

Vivian suddenly trembled as if she had recalled something unpleasant.

She was about to continue when Qin Yuan immediately covered her mouth with his hand.

"Shh, someone's coming."

Qin Yuan placed his index finger on his lips and said in a low voice.

Chapter 887: The Rescue of Geng Hu Begins

Vivian nodded with her eyes wide open.

Only then did Qin Yuan let go of his hand.

Then, his gaze shifted to the entrance of Daybreak's camp.

They saw two people patrolling in their direction.

It was only a few steps away from Qin Yuan and the others.

Qin Yuan and Weiwei covered their mouths on the spot and did not make a sound.

The other party had already walked to the front of their bushes.

A few soldiers holding shiny rifles walked past them.

Qin Yuan and Weiwei's hearts were in their throats.

Wei Wei's expression was even more terrified. After all, it was her first time experiencing such a scene. Her eyes widened, and Qin Yuan had no choice but to cover her mouth with his hand.

Fortunately, these soldiers did not notice the two people in the grass. They just walked through the small path outside and left.

Qin Yuan and Weiwei heaved a sigh of relief.

"Phew, luckily they were stupid and didn't notice us."

Vivian gasped.

Qin Yuan was not affected at all. He still looked calm.

"Captain Qin Yuan, are you mentally strong?"

Wei Wei looked at Qin Yuan in surprise.

"I've seen scenes ten times more dangerous than this."

Qin Yuan said coldly.

"There are five or six people guarding the door. How are we going to get in?"

Vivian hesitated.

Qin Yuan smiled and touched the top of her head.

"Didn't you come prepared?"

"I... I'm using the same method to deal with all changes!"

Wei Wei pouted.

Qin Yuan still had a faint smile on his face.

"You really look like your father."

"Alright, we don't have time to discuss tactics. Although they have a lot of people now, they are more or less affected by the battle ahead."

"Now is the best time for us to sneak in."

“Then let’s go in? Charge in directly?”

Vivian asked.

“Unless you want to walk right into a trap.”

Qin Yuan continued.

“Just follow me. I guarantee you’ll be able to return safely.”

“Oh!”

After saying that, before Wei Wei could react, Qin Yuan suddenly stood up and took out the hypnotic needle that he had prepared beforehand. He stood up extremely quickly and aimed at the few people at the door. He threw a series of rapid and precise throws!

Before the other party could react, he was directly hit by the needle and fell.

Wei Wei, who was at the side, looked at Qin Yuan’s agile and swift movements and could not help but gasp.

“So powerful!”

Qin Yuan did not have time to respond to her. Instead, he continued in a low voice,

“Come, let’s go in immediately!”

After making sure that there were no other Daybreak soldiers nearby, he was shocked.

Before Wei Wei could react, he grabbed her hand and rushed to the door.

It only took them a few seconds to reach the door.

It was a small wooden door that was about the size of a person. When he walked in, he realized that it was already somewhat rotten.

It looked very old and didn’t look like it was used often.

Qin Yuan peeked inside through the crack of the broken wooden door.

It was pitch-black, but he couldn’t see anything.

Qin Yuan was puzzled. According to Lu Ming’s description, this should be an important place guarded by the other party. Why was it so quiet without even a light on?

“Didn’t you say that this place is heavily guarded? Why is there no sound inside? Fortunately, it’s pitch-black.”

Qin Yuan asked curiously.

Vivian was confused and looked inside.

Then, a puzzled expression appeared on her face.

“Previously, I saw that there were lights inside! Why is it so quiet now?”

Vivian said with a frown.

“Could it be that our operation has been discovered?”

“No, there’s still something going on with them!”

At this moment, Qin Yuan narrowed his eyes and said.

Then, he looked inside and continued,

” Although there’s no sound inside, and the lights aren’t switched on, I can still hear the faint sound of the wind.”

Qin Yuan’s voice was very low, but it was as steady as a rock.

“What? What should we do now? Shall we go in directly?”

Vivian asked.

Qin Yuan listened carefully to the voice inside.

After confirming that he did not hear wrongly, he was shocked.

“There must be a secret room inside. But there’s no one on the first floor.”

“What I’m wondering now is where their people went.”

“Yeah, it’s very strange. I saw a lot of people patrolling nearby just now, but now they’ve disappeared all of a sudden. It’s really strange.”

Vivian asked in confusion.

“I don’t know, but we can only follow this clue and search inside.”

People were always curious. Although the environment was gloomy, it did not stop Vivian from exploring.

“Follow me closely. Remember, no matter what happens, don’t act rashly. Don’t make a sound and stay calm.”

“Yes, alright.”

Then, the two of them passed through the old wooden door and entered the room inside.

Just as they had expected, there was no one inside. Moreover, there was an unpleasant rotten smell coming from inside.

“Sigh! It stinks!”

Vivian complained as soon as she entered.

“Shh! Don’t talk.”

Although it was dark inside, Qin Yuan could still tell the approximate distribution of objects from the blurry outline.

There were a few square garbage disposal boxes inside, and the pungent smell came from them.

Qin Yuan listened attentively to the sounds nearby.

He tried to determine where the wind was coming from.

This place was quite far away from the battlefield ahead, so it was not affected by the noise.

The surroundings were strangely quiet.

A faint sound of wind slowly entered his ears.

Qin Yuan's expression was solemn as he seriously distinguished the direction of the sound.

He slowly moved his feet. A few minutes later, he arrived at a box near the wall.

Qin Yuan was very sure that the wind came from nearby.

"Have you found it?"

Vivian asked.

"Yes, it's probably here."

After Qin Yuan confirmed it, he took out the flashlight on his body and turned it on to look around carefully.

The floor was a large trash can, and the walls and floor were made of stone. The initial inspection did not find any secret passages.

"Strange, is it here?"

Vivian asked.

"I'm very sure that they love to play this game of hiding gold in secret chambers. I've found secret passages in this kind of place several times before."

"If there's wind coming from here, there must be a trace."

Qin Yuan said with certainty.

"Could it be behind the rock?"

"Under normal circumstances, yes, but we have to find the corresponding switch."

Qin Yuan said in a low voice.

Vivian nodded thoughtfully.

He began to look for something similar to a switch nearby.

"Don't let go of every stone slab. Check them one by one. The mechanism might be hidden inside."

Qin Yuan did not stay idle either. The two of them divided their work. Each of them was in charge of an area and began to search in an orderly manner.

The two of them searched for a while. A few minutes passed, but they still found nothing.

Qin Yuan was also beginning to feel a little puzzled. Previously, they had followed this method to search and did not spend much time. However, now that the two of them were searching at the same time, they still had no results after five minutes.

This made Qin Yuan feel a little puzzled.

Could it be that the switch wasn't nearby?

They had searched the area within a few meters, not missing a single inch, but there was no harvest.

"Let's expand the search."

Qin Yuan said to Weiwei.

"Alright."

After that, the two of them searched the small house for a while, but they still found nothing.

"Strange."

The two of them returned to their original spot and began to exchange the information they had obtained.

"Have you checked every piece here?"

Qin Yuan confirmed again.

"That's right! We've searched every place except for the trash!"

Vivian said anxiously.

Qin Yuan frowned and thought for a moment.

The trash can was something that was separated from the building. The switch could not be inside.

The only other possibility was that it was outside the room.

Chapter 888: Searching for Geng Hu

"Then, we might have to look outside."

Hearing the wind coming from nearby, Qin Yuan said with certainty.

"What? Were they that smart? He's actually hiding outside!"

Vivian was surprised.

"It's very possible."

Qin Yuan said.

"Then let's hurry outside and look for it!"

"Yes."

Qin Yuan nodded in agreement.

There was nothing worth staying here for. It had all been searched by Qin Yuan.

Then, the two of them walked to the door.

However, at this moment, a series of noisy footsteps suddenly came from outside, accompanied by some vague sounds.

Qin Yuan immediately realized that Xiao Yan's people were here!

"Not good! They're here!"

Qin Yuan said in a deep voice.

Before Vivian could react, he grabbed her clothes and dashed behind a large trash can closest to them. The two of them held their breaths and did not make a sound.

Because he did not know how many people were outside, Qin Yuan did not dare to act rashly.

Instead, he stood in the corner and carefully distinguished the direction of the sound from outside and what they were talking about.

As the environment suddenly became very noisy, and there were many people, Qin Yuan could only hear intermittent sentences.

"Damn it, why is it so sudden..."

"Logistics Company..."

"I heard..."

"Attacked..."

"Emergency order..."

Then, he was interrupted by the sound of the door opening.

Then, the voice gradually became clearer.

A few noisy footsteps entered their eardrums.

"The orders from the higher-ups over there are for us to keep a close watch on this war criminal. There has been quite a commotion in front of us, so we must keep a close watch on him to prevent the enemy from taking advantage of the situation!"

A Dawn Flame soldier's voice rang out.

Qin Yuan and Weiwei instantly understood that their inspection had arrived. It was almost as they had expected.

However, this time, he received an unexpected piece of good news!

They said they were here to check on this war criminal!

This meant that Qin Yuan's guess was completely correct!

Moreover, he could let them be his "guides". This way, Qin Yuan could go to Geng Hu's place effortlessly!

Qin Yuan and Weiwei were secretly delighted.

They only needed to wait here quietly. In a while, they would naturally lead him to Geng Hu's place!

Sure enough, after these people came in, they searched the house for a while but did not find Qin Yuan and Weiwei.

Then, she walked out noisily.

Qin Yuan and Weiwei looked at each other.

Then, the two of them followed them out in the dark.

When they arrived outside the room, Qin Yuan and Weiwei followed not far behind them. They hid in the dark and observed each other's every move.

What happened next was almost exactly what Qin Yuan had expected.

They came to an empty space behind the room.

Then, the faint light in the sky.

Qin Yuan saw an object that looked like a statue over there. A few Dawn Flame soldiers walked over and turned around to confirm the surrounding situation.

Then, he began to fiddle with the statue.

Their movements were very practiced. In just a few seconds, they heard a hoarse sound coming from the side.

A hole suddenly appeared in the ground beside them.

The few of them smiled and prepared to enter.

Qin Yuan had already seen the opportunity. He took out the hypnotic needle from his hand and used the same trick.

Tsk tsk tsk!

With a few sounds, these Dawn Flame soldiers fell to the ground.

Qin Yuan gave Weiwei a look, and the latter immediately understood.

The two of them dashed out of the shadows and quickly walked to the front of these people.

Qin Yuan quickly carried the unconscious people to the forest to hide.

Then, he turned around and came to the secret passage they had opened.

He peeked inside.

It was unfathomable and pitch-black.

"What should we do? Should we go down?"

Vivian asked worriedly.

Qin Yuan wanted to say that for safety reasons, he had asked her to wait nearby and went down to explore first. However, on second thought, Wei Wei was an inexperienced person after all. It was really unwise to let her stay here alone.

He said,

” Okay, you’ll go down with me. Just like before, follow behind me. Don’t make a sound, and don’t act on your own.”

“Good!”

Vivian agreed readily. It seemed that she was intimidated by the horrible environment here and was no longer as arrogant as before.

After confirming that there was no one nearby, Qin Yuan and Weiwei entered the crypt.

Qin Yuan took out the flashlight he carried with him and lit up the road ahead.

This passage was very small and could only accommodate one person. Qin Yuan and Weiwei walked slowly in front and behind.

This room was the same as the previous one. It emitted a strong pungent smell that made people feel very uncomfortable.

Moreover, the passage was very narrow. After walking for a while, no one could see the end in front of them.

“What kind of place is this? It’s eerie and terrifying. There’s not a trace of a living person’s aura. It really makes one feel nauseous...”

Vivian complained as she walked behind.

“If Captain Geng Hu is locked up in this place, he will become depressed!”

” I said, don’t speak unless it’s something important.”

Qin Yuan turned around and said coldly to her.

“We still don’t know how long this place is and how far the road is. We need to conserve our strength in case we’re unprepared. Also, your words might alert the enemies that might be there. Do you understand?”

Chapter 889: Searching for Geng Hu (2)

“Yes...”

Vivian nodded.

Fortunately, after walking for a while, the surroundings were still silent. It did not look like there was anyone guarding below.

As they moved forward, a blurry door-shaped object gradually appeared in front of them.

Qin Yuan and Weiwei were both shocked.

“There seems to be a door in front! We’ve reached the end!”

Vivian said excitedly.

Qin Yuan nodded slightly, indicating for her to stop talking.

He walked forward and used the flashlight to illuminate the door in front of him.

Just as they had guessed, it was a metal door. It was dark and heavy, and they couldn't see what was behind it.

Qin Yuan came forward and carefully looked at the position of the door lock. There was a big lock on it. Without a key, it would be difficult for them to open it.

"Aiya, this door is locked. We don't have the key!"

Vivian was a little disappointed.

"Don't worry."

Qin Yuan's expression was relaxed as he took out a sharp needle-like object from his backpack.

"What is this?"

Vivian asked curiously.

"The Universal Lockpick. Xiaoxiao gave it to me."

Qin Yuan replied in a low voice.

"I didn't expect you to be such a little divine power! No difficulty can stump you!"

Vivian said with a smile.

Qin Yuan smiled and did not say anything. Instead, he lowered his head and fiddled with this small object seriously.

"Although Xiaoxiao gave it to me, I haven't used it before, so I'm not familiar with it yet."

Qin Yuan said as he fiddled with it.

Wei Wei raised her eyebrows and did not say anything. She looked at Qin Yuan's hand movements seriously.

After fiddling with it for a long time, Qin Yuan did not make any substantial progress. His hands were a little numb, but the hole in the door lock was still motionless.

"Let me try."

Vivian said.

"Will you? Don't look at it just because it's the size of a pen, but it's a high-end instrument."

"There are many buttons on it. It has a lot of functions."

Qin Yuan explained.

"Just give it to me."

Wei Wei did not say anything else and took the lockpicking pen from Qin Yuan.

He came to the front and started to seriously fiddle with it.

After a while, the door was unlocked with a bang.

Qin Yuan's face immediately revealed a pleasantly surprised expression.

"Yo, you're really amazing!"

"Hmph, do you really think I'm a noob who doesn't know anything?!"

Vivian pouted and replied unhappily.

"Alright, alright, you're amazing. Little Aunt, let's quickly go in and see what's going on."

After saying that, Qin Yuan first opened the iron door and stuck his head in to see the situation inside.

It was still pitch-black, and there was no sound. It was extremely quiet, but if one listened carefully, they could still hear the faint sound of the wind.

Qin Yuan frowned slightly.

Vivian was confused when she saw his expression.

"How is it? What's the situation inside?"

"There doesn't seem to be anything, but I heard the wind. There should be another path leading inside."

"It's really smelly and long! These people are really too much. They have to create such a gloomy and terrifying place underground. Their minds are really dark!"

Vivian said angrily.

Qin Yuan pouted and shrugged, not commenting.

Dong Zhejun was indeed such a person in his heart.

He was evil and shameless, and his actions made people do evil.

The design of the secret passage here had to be said to be very similar to the one he used to find Green Snake in the base camp.

Moreover, the paths here were more detailed, so he had to be more careful when walking.

The whole way was filled with a foul smell, and the further down they went, the stronger the smell, and the narrower the road became.

There was only a small path that could accommodate half a body, and beside it was a rough and hard stone wall.

Qin Yuan was all too familiar with the feeling of walking in a secret passage.

However, bringing Wei Wei, a young lady who had not experienced much in the world, would probably make her suffer a lot.

As expected, this dark path was longer than they had imagined.

Vivian was starting to show signs of fatigue, probably due to her leg injury.

The expression on his face was also a little uncomfortable.

“Are you alright? Do you want to rest for a while?”

Qin Yuan saw all of this.

“It’s okay. I can still continue walking. If I stop here now, there will definitely be a lot of trouble.”

Vivian gritted her teeth and said with a ferocious expression.

Looking at Wei Wei’s uncomfortable expression, Qin Yuan felt bad too. However, after all, the mission was more important than everything else, so he could only think of a safer way.

“Come, I’ll carry you.”

As he spoke, Qin Yuan bent down and came in front of Weiwei.

” Ah, isn’t this inappropriate?!”

Vivian said awkwardly. Qin Yuan did not waste any more time. He carried her on his back and continued walking inside.

“You wanted to come here yourself. Now that this situation has happened, I’m thinking about the big picture. Otherwise, something will definitely go wrong if I leave you here. Do you think I want to act behind someone’s back?”

Qin Yuan looked unhappy.

When Qin Yuan said this, Wei Wei was already a little embarrassed about the sudden condition of her body. When Qin Yuan said this, she felt even more embarrassed and did not continue to answer.

This time, his speed was liberated and he was much faster than before.

Just like that, Qin Yuan carried Weiwei on his back and walked for another period of time.

Finally, they walked out of the winding path and entered a relatively large room, or rather, a secret room.

Because there was no ventilation inside, there was even a strange light flashing on the walls.

Qin Yuan observed this place carefully. It was a room that looked like an aisle. Opposite it was a dark passageway. On both sides were four flickering table lamps.

There was nothing else besides these lamps.

Qin Yuan’s doubts deepened.

They had been walking for about twenty minutes since they came in, and the distance was close to one kilometer.

Why did the other party hide Geng Hu so deeply?

It was not convenient for them to come down and check on the situation.

The strangest thing about this place was that there was not a single guard over such a long distance. Not to mention that it increased the chances of the prisoners escaping, such a long distance was a big taboo for a wanted criminal.

However, the sound of the wind ahead interrupted his thoughts.

The sound of the wind was even louder than before, indicating that the exit was right ahead.

Vivian also heard the voice, and her face was filled with joy.

“Captain Qin! There was wind ahead! The exit might be here soon!”

Qin Yuan nodded in agreement.

” Probably, but we can’t be sure what’s waiting for us there.”

Qin Yuan said.

“At least it’s an exit! We can leave this smelly and dirty place!”

“Geng Hu hasn’t been found.”

“It’s so big inside, but there’s nothing. I feel that something’s wrong.”

Qin Yuan voiced out the doubts in his heart.

Vivi was a little confused, but the old wounds and fatigue on her body swept over her.

He didn’t care about the search mission anymore. His body was his capital.

Qin Yuan brought Weiwei to the passage ahead.

Because he had been here for too long, Qin Yuan’s flashlight was also in a weak state, and he could not see what was in front of him clearly.

Wei Wei stuck tightly to Qin Yuan’s back. In this dark and quiet environment, she did not even dare to breathe loudly.

After entering this passageway that was slightly wider than before, the sound of the wind became louder and louder after walking for more than ten meters.

Accompanied by the sound of wind, a circular exit had already appeared in front of them.

“We’re here!”

Vivian shouted excitedly from behind.

They could already smell the fresh air and the smell of soil outside.

Qin Yuan saw the light in front of him and quickened his pace. He took three steps and arrived outside in an instant.

He stuck his head out.

This was actually the exit of a sewer.

Qin Yuan came outside and observed his surroundings. He did not seem to see the figures of the Daybreak soldiers nearby. He could not even see the camp.

They had found the exit, but this also meant that their search had failed.

“We still haven’t found Geng Hu.”

Qin Yuan muttered to himself.

Chapter 890: The Horn of Counterattack

However, Vivian did not seem to be worried. Instead, she was enjoying the fresh air around her.

With a relaxed look on his face, he casually patted the dust off his body.

“We’re finally out! It feels good!”

Vivian heaved a sigh of relief.

“Don’t forget our purpose this time.”

Qin Yuan walked to the side and checked the situation nearby as he spoke.

“I know, but we don’t have any clues now.”

Vivian frowned.

” We’ve already walked through the place, but we didn’t find anyone or anything related to Geng Hu. Maybe he’s not inside.”

“Then why did those soldiers say those words when we went in just now?”

Qin Yuan raised his doubts.

Vivian just remembered this and didn’t know how to respond. She just pouted and didn’t say anything.

Qin Yuan was not in the mood to argue with her.

He was just slowly thinking about the ins and outs of this matter in his heart.

From the beginning until now, other than the few people they met at the entrance of the recycling station, they had not met any other Daybreak soldiers. Was this really the strict security they were talking about?

To be honest, Qin Yuan had already begun to doubt the authenticity of this operation.

If he was deceived, then this matter would become very complicated, and even a little terrifying!

Because the person who gave them this information was Lu Ming from the logistics company!

According to Qin Yuan’s deduction, Lu Ming was very likely to be a traitor among them!

Thinking of this, Qin Yuan looked around again.

He confirmed that this place was indeed empty.

Then, he immediately took out his walkie-talkie and began to contact He Chenguang.

However, he called out a few times, but the other party didn't respond. There was only a noisy sound of electricity coming from the walkie-talkie.

An ominous feeling slowly rose in his heart.

"Let's go back to the logistics company."

Qin Yuan immediately decided to leave with Weiwei and return to the logistics company.

After saying that, Qin Yuan pulled Weiwei and began to look for a way back.

"What's wrong? Aren't we going to look for Geng Hu?"

Vivian was surprised.

"I can't contact He Chenguang!"

Qin Yuan explained his intentions.

Vivian's expression changed and her voice became panicked.

"Could it be...Did they deliberately lure us away this time?"

Qin Yuan nodded expressionlessly.

"Yes, it's very likely that they're luring the tiger away from the mountain. We've been tricked."

As he spoke, Qin Yuan walked around and realized that they were already in a place very far away from the main battlefield. For a moment, they could not find their way back!

Qin Yuan's face was already covered in sweat.

"Where are we now?"

Vivian shouted in panic.

Qin Yuan took out the compass he carried with him and began to confirm their current direction.

He placed the compass in front of him. The needle pointed to the north, the logistics company's camp to the east, and Xiao Yan to the west.

According to this instruction, Qin Yuan could follow the direction to the logistics company.

However, he was unsure how far they were from the logistics company's camp.

Because they had not walked in a straight line just now, they could not use it as a reference for their current distance.

Qin Yuan was very anxious. He Chenguang's walkie-talkie could not be connected, which meant that something must have happened.

It was a big problem whether they could make it back on time.

As they walked, they looked around. There was no sign of human habitation in the dense forest.

“I was still in Daybreak’s camp before. Why have I come to this desolate mountain now?”

Qin Yuan also had a helpless look on his face, but there was no other way.

Vivian definitely wouldn’t go back to the secret passage.

Moreover, walking inside might not be as fast as walking outside.

Just like that, the two of them walked in the deep mountains and forests. Qin Yuan was still carrying Weiwei on his back. It was already ten in the morning, and the sun had gradually risen in the sky.

Qin Yuan was very anxious and walked faster and faster.

After walking for an unknown amount of time, they finally passed through the forest and saw fireworks rising in the air ahead.

They knew that they had arrived at the camp.

As for which camp it was, it was still unknown.

“I got it! The camp is in front!”

After a long journey, Vivian shouted excitedly.

“Okay, let’s not make it public for now. I’ll see what’s going on.”

As Qin Yuan spoke, he put down Weiwei. The two of them came to a bush. Qin Yuan bent down and took out his binoculars to observe the situation of the camp in front.

Through the binoculars, Qin Yuan could vaguely see that an intense battle was going on in the camp. The two sides were undoubtedly the logistics company and Xiao Yan.

Seeing this, Qin Yuan felt a strong sense of unease.

The rear line of defense of the logistics company was very weak!

That was because the strong people had all gone to the front! The rest of the soldiers behind were not that strong!

There were even some wounded soldiers!

Most importantly, the old man was among them!

Qin Yuan’s face revealed an extremely worried expression, and Wei Wei, who was beside him, quickly saw the seriousness of the matter.

He also had a terrified expression.

” Our rear was ambushed by the enemy?!”

Qin Yuan nodded silently.

“I’ll go back and rescue them immediately!”

“Wait for me here. Be good.”
