Chapter 107 Crazy!

In another part of the Gong family, Mr. Gong, who had been dug out of his bed by Capt. Wei, was being stared at by several detectives. He was so frightened that he had already broken out in a cold sweat.

"How could it be, how could it be missing?" He kept mumbling to himself, not believing that he saw the body buried in the soil with his own eyes, how could it be missing?

That was a corpse that was suffering from a strange disease. It was simply going to kill him.

Just like what Wei Captou said just now, if it is stolen and used by someone with intentions, how could it harm only Hongling Town? At that time, the county magistrate and the public will not take his life?

He simply couldn't even think about such a thing. If such consequences really happened, how would he live in the future?

At this moment, he felt really regretful. He regretted that he should not have given in to the greedy words of his servants. He felt that burning the body would make his life worse, and his life would be very difficult in the future.

How could he feel better now? It was clearly the corpse that made him feel bad.

"Wei...Wei Captou, I really don't know, I don't know anything." He looked at Wei Captou weakly and cried out for himself.

"You don't know who knows that it is your family's ancestral grave. Do you still want me to look at that place for your family?" Wei Captou glared like this, so frightened that Master Gong fell over. Fortunately, he was sitting there. The one on the chair didn't fall down.

"Mr. Gong, you have to know that if the body of Third Young Master Gong is really stolen, what a big deal it will be. I'm afraid the county magistrate will not be able to please him in front of the magistrate.

You said, what will happen to you if the county magistrate doesn't please you, huh? "

"This this....."

Master Gong swallowed and raised his hand to wipe the cold sweat dripping from his forehead.

If that were the case, then he would probably end up in pieces, right? After all, this matter was caused by the Gong family, and the death penalty would definitely be inevitable, and he might even end up being executed.

"Captain Wei, I really don't know how the kid's body disappeared. You said this person is dead, who else would do anything to a corpse? This is simply..."

Crazy!

Unfortunately, before he could say the last few words, he was interrupted sharply by Captain Wei.

"Old man Gong, please stop playing tricks on me. I asked you to burn the body of the Third Young Master back then. You had to cry and make a fuss and say no. It would ruin the feng shui of your family. Why did you say that you were the fault of the trouble? You bear it alone, do you remember this?"

He asked Master Gong coldly.

"If you don't remember, I have a letter of commitment that you fingerprinted here. Do you need to take it out for you to recall?"

Fortunately, he is not stupid. When the man named Gong made a fuss and didn't want his son to be burned, he had no choice but to ask him to write a letter of commitment, promising that if anything happened in the future, everything would be handled by the Gong family. Take it upon yourself.

In this way, the fault of the county magistrate will be much smaller.

"I....."

When Mr. Gong heard him mention the promise letter, his face suddenly turned pale and he swallowed again.

"What are you and me? Tell me quickly where you hid the body of your third son! Do you have to let me pull you out and show you to the people of Hongling Town?" Capt. Wei lost his patience. , asked him angrily.

The next moment, Mr. Gong was so frightened that he fell to his knees with a thud and began to cry loudly.
