

Star of Space 1151

Chapter 1151: Want to drive people out of the village?

"Moved to live in the village?"

She raised her eyes amusedly and looked at the servant who came to report.

Is this good news or bad news for her?

The fortune of the Zhou family is getting worse day by day. For her, it has to be said that it is actually good news. Only if the Zhou family is completely in decline, she will not be sad in the future.

However, the Zhou family moved to Yacun, which meant they were by Lin Caisang's side.

Thinking of that little girl who was obviously a few years younger than her, but whose aura was so impressive that people couldn't help but tremble in their calves, she felt very sick in her heart.

But what if she marries into the Zhou family and establishes a good relationship with Lin Caisang in Yacun? Is the situation different again?

After all, she didn't really want to marry Zhou Liang, she was just forced by the situation and had no other choice. She also did it to open up a path for her brother so that he would not be implicated in her affairs.

Furthermore, she felt that Lin Caisang's ability might be greater than that of her father. If...

Maybe her brother could get some benefits. Thinking of this, she looked at the servant who came to report.

"Go to Mrs. Zhou's natal home and tell her about what happened in the Zhou family. Remember, try to make everything that happened as big as possible and blame it all on Mrs. Zhou and Zhou Liang. I don't want to see Old Master Zhou The whole family was picked up from Yacun by Master Zhou again!"

"Yes, Miss Ninth. The servant responded and went out.

Early the next morning, Patriarch Lin met Lin Changhong and Lin Changfeng.

After hearing them say that Mr. Zhou's family had all moved back, he frowned.

"Why do this family have the nerve to live in the village again?"

It was not that he didn't know about the things that Old Master Zhou had caused in the Lin family before, but the Lin family didn't come to see him, so he could only turn a blind eye.

He can't force himself to come forward when others don't come looking for him, right?

Although he didn't care about it, he knew very well that there were too many people in the Lin family in Ya Village who had great opinions on the Zhou family.

Not to mention the people of the Ya clan. Even if Ya Molian cannot be considered a person from Ya Village, he still has the surname Ya, right? Compared with Old Master Zhou who had lived in the county for many years and never had a good attitude towards the people in the village, they naturally turned to Ya Molian.

Old Master Zhou wanted to ruin the marriage between Ya Molian and Lin Caisang, and the people in the village had long hated Old Master Zhou to the core.

"Changfeng, Changhong, what do you mean, you want to drive people out of the village?" he asked the brothers.

"no."

Lin Changfeng shook his head quickly.

"Grandpa Patriarch, even if we really want to drive people away, the house still belongs to the Zhou family, and the Zhou family still has several acres of farmland in the village. There are some things that we cannot have the final say on."

Drive people away, he doesn't want to be this evil person.

"What my family Sang Sang means is that I hope the patriarch can restrain the people of the Zhou family and not let them say anything detrimental to Sangsang. Grandpa patriarch, you also know that what the Zhou family did to Sang Sang before, I I really want to beat them up."

Lin Changhong said.

"There is also the matter of Yu Shui. Now that Yu Shui and his wife have just gotten married, she has settled down to live with Lin DaMa and can no longer let the Zhou family disturb her.

Regarding this matter, I hope the patriarch of the family can pay more attention and don't let Zhou Liang destroy the Yushui couple again. "

Chapter 1152 I feel relieved

Last night, he lay in bed and thought for a long time, but he still felt that Sangsang's thinking was too simple.

If the Zhou family is really penniless, what if people in the village find out how much money Liu Yushui got when they got married? Who knows what Mrs. Zhou and Zhou Liang, mother and son, would do for money. What's going on?

We must guard against this!

"Sure, tell Sangsang and I will take care of it."

Patriarch Lin raised his hand, patted Lin Changhong's shoulder, and spoke sincerely.

"If the Zhou family really dares to disturb Lin Ma and his wife, I won't be able to spare them! Your family just doesn't get into trouble. They take care of whatever happens at home. Unlike other families, who have trouble at home. Even trivial matters need to be bothered by me, the leader of the clan.

Although that is not a good thing, you have to learn what you should learn, right? "

"I understand, Grandpa Patriarch." Lin Changhong nodded.

"Changfeng, don't worry about things in the village. You are the hope of our Yacun's future. You have to read hard." Patriarch Lin turned his head again and said a few words to Lin Changfeng.

Their Ya Village has not produced a Jieyuan for hundreds of years. Now that the Lin family has Lin Changfeng, how can he let the Zhou family cause trouble?

"I understand, but..."

Lin Changfeng thought for a while and felt that it would be better to talk about some things first, what if Old Master Zhou got ahead of him?

"Grandpa Patriarch, I don't know how long Old Master Zhou and his family will live in the village, but Old Master Zhou is also well-known. If he plans to live in the village for a long time, he will definitely want to teach the children to read and read in the school... "

"What? He still wants to teach people how to read and write in the school?"

Before Lin Changfeng could finish his words, Patriarch Lin looked at Lin Changfeng in disbelief.

"With his old face that has been thrown away and can't be picked up, does he still have a reputation? Others don't know it, and who of us in Yacun doesn't know it? If he goes to teach, he is afraid that his children will be handed over , have they become like him?

Wouldn't that destroy all the children in our village? Say goodbye. If Old Master Zhou really enters a school and becomes a teacher, who in our village would dare to send their children to school? "

His face was full of contempt, and when he mentioned Old Master Zhou, his face was extremely ugly.

Regardless of other things, just because the matter between the Zhou family and the Lin family has caused such a stir, whose fault is it? Anyone with a discerning eye will understand at a glance. The Zhou family still wants to stand up in Yacun?

How can I say that the Zhou family also has a foreign surname, can it be compared with Lin Laogeng's family? That's a true Yacun person.

Furthermore, Lin Changfeng is now Jieyuan, what kind of thing is Zhou Liang of their Zhou family? It's nothing. Who would stand by the Zhou family and offend the Lin family?

What's more, the villagers know how much Lin Caisang has helped the village throughout the year!

"Grandpa Patriarch said this, and I felt relieved."

Hearing what Chief Lin said, Lin Changfeng felt comfortable.

"In addition, Sangsang said that she plans to hire someone to repair the school in the village in the spring of next year. The money will be paid by our Lin family. Anyway, we can plant two crops in time."

he said again.

Hearing this, Chief Lin nodded hurriedly.

After talking, Lin Changfeng and Lin Changhong went back.

"Brother Changfeng, didn't Sangsang say we should wait a few days to talk about these things? Why did you tell the clan leader?" Lin Changhong asked his cousin.

Chapter 1153 I don't recognize that marriage!

"There is nothing that cannot be said, and Patriarch Lin is not an outsider." Lin Changfeng replied.

What's more, he didn't really want to talk about repairing the school, it was just used to bring up the later sentence.

"I don't care about anything else. As long as the people in the village want to plant two crops next year, they won't dare to openly help the Zhou family, otherwise..."

After hearing his words, Lin Changhong immediately understood.

"Brother Changfeng, you've learned too much."

By the way, people in the village are still looking forward to his Sangsang teaching them how to grow two crops of rice.

"I'm going back first, Changhong. Go and have a look at the door of Old Master Zhou's house. Changyi must be hiding somewhere. Go and keep an eye on him and don't let him cause trouble.

Lin Changfeng explained to Lin Changhong.

"By the way, let's go to Menghuang Mountain to catch a little wolf and bring it to Liu Yushui's house. I remember I bought an iron chain a few days ago. Just tie it with it. Don't really bite it. people."

"good."

...

The Zhou family, who barely slept for one night, woke up the next day with backache.

Beating her sore waist, Mrs. Zhou just left the room when Old Master Zhou ordered her to go to the kitchen to get some food. Mrs. Zhou was so frightened that she froze there.

"Dad, I have never cooked before. I don't know how to cook at all." She said hesitantly, with a look of embarrassment on her face.

As the wife of the Zhou family, she always instructs her servants to cook. How could she cook by herself?

Even when she was trying to please her husband before, by giving him chicken soup or something, the servants would prepare it first, and she would bring the ready-made food and let her cook by herself. How could this be possible?

"Besides, we don't have anything at home, so what should we cook with? The pots are all rusty. Can the cooked rice be eaten?"

"If you don't know how to do it, just learn it. If the pot is rusty, wash it! Do you have food to eat here? Go quickly!" Old Master Zhou roared at her.

"I...Okay, okay, I'll go."

Mrs. Zhou has no choice. Now that she is living under the roof of others, she can only make do with things.

"Boss, you take Liang'er to Liu Yushui's house. Didn't that girl give birth to two daughters for Liang'er? Since she gave birth to the son of our Zhou family, let her come here with the children in a hurry!"

Seeing Mrs. Zhou leaving, Old Master Zhou said to his son again.

"What?!"

Mr. Zhou heard his father's words and looked at him in disbelief.

"Dad, Liu Yushui is already married, don't you know that? If you are still looking for her now, where does this put the face of our Zhou family?"

Putting aside the question of where to put her face, Liu Yushui moved to Yacun before the Zhou family, married a man from Yacun, and was already recognized by the Lin family. If their family came to them at this time, they would have good results. Want to eat?

It's just such a small thing, something that can be figured out by just thinking about it. Is his father so old and confused that he can't figure it out and still wants to find trouble?

Strong dragons can't defeat local snakes, let alone they are not strong dragons!

"Is she going to marry someone when she says she's going to marry? I don't recognize that marriage! She's embarrassed to marry someone with the blood of my Zhou family. You two, father and son, go and let Liu Yushui come see me!"

Old Master Zhou roared angrily.

He felt like a mirror in his heart. Now he had no silver in his hand, but didn't Zhou Liang give Liu Yushui two hundred taels of silver before?

Chapter 1154 I highly admire Old Master Zhou!

No matter what he said, he had to get back all this money, and he couldn't give Liu Yushui a cheap shot!

"this....."

Mr. Zhou choked at his father's words.

How could his father have the nerve to say this? This is a family affair, what does it have to do with the Zhou family? His father doesn't agree? What's there to disagree with?

Even if he disagrees, will people care about his feelings?

"Dad, you are right, I don't even know what to say, but now that we live in Yacun, why don't you go to Liu Yushui's house and make trouble?"

he reminded.

"How can this be called trouble?"

Master Zhou didn't take it seriously and felt that what he did was not wrong.

"Liang'er, if your father doesn't go, I'll go with you. Let's go!"

He took a few steps forward, pulled Zhou Liang, and was about to walk out of the yard. Anyway, no one could stop him from going to Liu Yushui's house to get the money back today, and it was impossible to stop him!

Zhou Liang didn't say anything. He was still thinking that if Liu Yushui was willing to look back, he might be able to please Lin Caisang by then.

By then he will be able to marry Lin Caisang too!

Therefore, he followed his grandfather's footsteps without any hesitation, and even curled his lips.

...

Not far outside the yard, Lin Changyi, who was hiding, was stunned when he heard Old Master Zhou's shameless words.

He quickly jumped out of the grass and ran towards his home.

Unexpectedly, before running a few steps, he bumped into a hug. He looked up and saw Lin Changhong.

"Brother Changhong, it's incredible. That old Master Zhou is so full of evil that he actually went to Sister Yushui's house and asked her to live with her child at his house. He even talked about the marriage between Sister Yushui and Brother Cannabis' husband. He didn't agree!"

he said quickly.

"What kind of person is he? Is it his turn to disagree with Sister Yushui's marriage? Don't look at what kind of virtue he is!"

"Your brother asked me to take you home. It's not suitable for you to listen to what's going on in the corner." Lin Changhong did not comment on Old Master Zhou's behavior, but said to Lin Changyi.

"Go home? Can you not do it?" Lin Changyi frowned and asked.

"Brother Changhong, didn't Sister Sang Sang say that people from the Zhou family won't go to Sister Yushui's house to make trouble? What should we do now?"

"If Liu Yushui can't even handle this, she deserves to suffer for the rest of her life!" Lin Changhong said directly.

Thinking about her, Liu Yushui, she was considered a scheming woman in the past. How could she not even be able to handle an old Master Zhou? Now Old Master Zhou is so stubborn that he wants to entangle Liu Yushui and his daughter. Isn't it just because Liu Yushui has money in his pocket?

But as long as Liu Yushui makes up her mind and clears her relationship with the Zhou family, what can Old Master Zhou do to her?

However, it can also be seen from this that Old Master Zhou is really a mouse in trouble now. He didn't even care about his own face, and he immediately went to pester Liu Yushui.

He muttered in his heart: Sangsang still thinks highly of Old Master Zhou!

"Let's go home."

He took Lin Changyi's hand and the two went home together.

...

Liu Yushui's home.

Old Master Zhou and Zhou Liang were just about to step into the yard when they faced a basin of warm water, and with a crash, it all fell on Zhou Liang!

"ah!"

Zhou Liang screamed, raised his hand to wipe the water on his face, and looked fiercely at Liu Yushui, who was still holding a basin in his hand.

Chapter 1155 Of course it stinks

"Liu Yushui, you..."

"Ah, what's going on with you two, are you blocking the door of my house?" Liu Yushui didn't care if anyone was splashed, not to mention, she was waiting for it, and it was these two people who were splashed!

Of course, she knew what was right. Old Master Zhou was a lot older. If he really got sick from being splashed with water, wouldn't she be blackmailed?

So, she threw it directly at Zhou Liang!

"You, you... why is this water of yours so smelly?!" Zhou Liang was extremely angry, but couldn't do anything to Liu Yushui, so he asked angrily.

"What do you mean by this water?"

Liu Yushui lowered her eyes and glanced at the wooden basin in her hand, her red lips slightly raised.

"I just washed two children's diapers. They are made of both feces and urine. Do they smell good? Of course they stink." As she said this, she shrugged.

"What?!"

Zhou Liang almost jumped up when he heard her words.

"Liu Yushui, I'll beat him to death...ah!"

"Woo——"

Just as he was about to raise his hand to greet Liu Yushui in the face, he heard a wolf howling sound in his ears. He was so excited that he hurriedly hid behind Old Master Zhou.

"Grandpa, is this the sound of a wolf? Why are there wolves in the village?"

Old Master Zhou opened his mouth, but didn't know how to answer his grandson's words, because his calves were trembling after hearing the howling of the wolf.

I had heard before that there were a few wolves raised on Lin Caisang's Menghuang Mountain, but didn't they say they were only raised on the mountain and would not come down the mountain?

"Master, please tighten the chain that is holding the wolf tight. If we bite someone back, they will blackmail us into paying for the money. Some people will bleed profusely if they are not bitten. of!"

Liu Yushui shouted into the yard.

When Lin Ma heard what she said, he quickly put down the baby in his arms and walked out. After saying yes, he went to look at the chain that tied the wolf.

Old Master Zhou and Zhou Liang looked in the direction of Lin Ma, and sure enough they saw a full-sized wolf, staring at them with eager eyes. The two exposed wolf teeth glowed with a cold light.

The two of them took a step back at the same time and swallowed.

"You... you..."

"Old Master Zhou, what's the matter with you always coming to my house?" Liu Yushui curled her lips and looked at Old Master Zhou with a smile, and asked.

"You, cough!"

Although Old Master Zhou was frightened by the wolf, after all, given his age, he was not frightened.

Clearing his throat, he spoke to Liu Yushui.

"Of course there is something. Since you have given birth to a child for my family Liang'er, he is a member of my Zhou family. I have decided to let Liang'er marry you and become my aunt. Now you quickly collect the things at home and come back with me. Go live with the Zhou family!"

Liu Yushui: "..."

Is this old guy a lunatic? Can you say such a thing?

"Oh, Old Master Zhou, please tell me, which child of my family belongs to your Zhou family?"

"Of course it's your two daughters!" Old Master Zhou said.

"Who said that? The conscience of heaven and earth, Old Master Zhou, I, Liu Yushui, have never said that my children belong to your Zhou family. Otherwise, why would their surname be Lin and not Zhou?"

Liuyu Waterway.

When Lin Caisang gave her this suggestion, she also hesitated.

But now that I think about it, this is a really good idea. Her daughter must not have anything to do with the Zhou family, and she will never tell her children that they are Zhou Liang's children!

Chapter 1156 There is a mad dog in front of the door

"Liu Yushui! You are clearly pregnant with my child, why do you say you're not?!" Zhou Liang became anxious when he heard her words.

He also thought about it all night last night, knowing what situation he was in now. The only thing that could be saved was Liu Yushui and his two children.

He also pointed to the woman Liu Yushui to get closer to the Lin family!

"I'm pregnant with your child, who can prove it?" Liu Yushui asked him.

"I....."

Zhou Liang opened his mouth, but no words came out.

Seeing that he was speechless, Liu Yushui sneered and looked at him and Old Master Zhou seriously.

"Zhou Liang, let me tell you, my two children, the children of me and Lin Da, have nothing to do with you, Zhou Liang! If you want to shamelessly rely on me, there is no way! Let me tell you, in my Liu Yushui home, I'm not here to take in beggars, get out of here!"

"you--"

Zhou Liang gritted his teeth and stared at Liu Yushui with bloodthirsty eyes.

"Liu Yushui, since your child is not mine, why did you ask me for fifty taels of silver in the first place? Give me the money back!" he said.

If he doesn't want people, he wants money. This is always right, right? Anyway, nothing can be said, both men and money will be wasted, and nothing will be gained!

"What money?"

Liu Yushui raised his eyebrows and looked at Zhou Liang with light eyes.

"Zhou Liang, are you crazy about money? Have you come to me to extort money? Let me tell you, I haven't even taken a single coin from you. If I really had fifty taels of silver, I would still live in Yacun Did you, a lunatic, find you? You have already settled somewhere else!"

"you you--"

Zhou Liang was furious, and then he realized that Liu Yushui planned to give him a hard time and refused to admit it.

But if Liu Yushui doesn't admit it, he really can't do anything to her.

"Old Master Zhou, your Zhou family is in dire straits now. I don't want to care about it, but I, Liu Yushui, am already married, and my husband and I are very good now. If you want to come to my house to destroy me and my husband, then I, Liu Yushui, will also Not a vegetarian!"

Liu Yushui looked at Old Master Zhou and spoke word by word.

"Don't push me too hard, I can do anything!"

"Liu Yushui..."

"Master, there are mad dogs in front of the door. Don't let them run in and close the courtyard door." Old Master Zhou wanted to persuade him, but Liu Yushui no longer wanted to talk to them and called Lin Da over.

Lin DaMa didn't say anything else and came over to close the courtyard door.

Old Master Zhou and Zhou Liang were driven away unceremoniously, and they had no shame in staying around, so they could only leave angrily.

"call!"

Hearing the footsteps outside, Liu Yushui felt that his body softened and he was about to fall to the ground.

Fortunately, Lin Canna helped her in time.

"Yushui, are you okay?" he asked.

"No, it's okay."

Liu Yushui took a deep breath and shook his head.

"Huh, how could I... have fallen in love with such a person before? I'm really blind."

"Why are you still mentioning that? You are now my daughter-in-law, Lin Marijuana." Lin Marijuana didn't care about Old Master Zhou and others, but he was a little concerned about what Liu Yushui said.

"Didn't we all agree? From now on, your daughter will be my daughter, and my daughter will be your daughter. You don't need to pay attention to what those people say outside."

"Yes, ignore it!"

Liu Yushui took a deep breath and said calmly.

Damn the people who are in charge of the Zhou family. I used to think that the Zhou family was a scholarly family, but how could I know that this family is so disgusting that it makes people vomit.

Chapter 1157 Go put out the fire quickly

It was such a family, and she was glad that she had seen their true colors clearly before marrying into them.

Otherwise, her life will really be ruined.

...

Lin.

As soon as Lin Changhong and Lin Changyi came back, they told Lin Caisang and Lu Qiubo about Old Master Zhou taking Zhou Liang to Liu Yushui's house.

"Humph, this old man named Zhou has such a face. He has totally disgraced our ancestors!"

Lu Qiubo took a sip and cursed.

Even if Liu Yushui's surname is not Liu, she still has to be surnamed Lin. Whether she marries someone or not has nothing to do with those people in the Zhou family who have thicker skin than the city walls. This control is very broad. They really want to control everything!

"Why are you angry with those people?" Lin Laojie said to her angrily.

In short, it would be good if Liu Yushui and his wife were not bullied.

As for Old Master Zhou, he looked like a human before, but now it seems that he is just a wolf wearing countless layers of sheep's clothing. In the past, his skin was torn off layer by layer without being torn off.

Now I finally couldn't bear to tear it apart and exposed the bottom layer of wolf skin!

He really wanted to know what would happen to such a person in the end!

"Grandpa, grandma, please pay attention to the Zhou family. I'm going to the mountains. Lin Caisang ignored the Zhou family and went into the mountains carrying a bamboo basket.

In the past, if she wanted to do a task, she only had to enter the room. But now that the Zhou family suddenly moved back to the village, she would not be able to stay in the room.

Who knows when people from the Zhou family will come to make trouble?

If Ah Nai and the others were looking for her and couldn't find her in the room, they would definitely be suspicious, right?

So, she might as well go up the mountain.

...

Zhou family.

Old Master Zhou came back with Zhou Liang, who was covered in dirty water. As soon as he entered the door, he almost fainted from fright.

"Fighting the fire, why are you standing there? Go and put out the fire." He quickly ordered Zhou Liang to go to the kitchen and put out the fire before talking.

But it turned out that Mrs. Zhou, who couldn't cook, accidentally set fire to all the firewood in the kitchen. Good guy, the fire was so hot that Mr. Zhou alone could not save it. Destroy?

Mrs. Zhou, however, was frightened. As soon as the fire started, she ran out of the kitchen and hid in the yard farthest from the kitchen.

After a long time, Mr. Zhou and Zhou Liang walked out of the kitchen in a state of embarrassment.

The two people's faces and bodies were all covered in black, especially Master Zhou. A lot of his hair had been burned off, and there were several burnt holes in his clothes.

"The fire...has the fire been put out?"

When Mrs. Zhou saw them coming out of the kitchen, she walked out of the corner carefully and asked.

But the next second, Mr. Zhou raised his hand and slapped him unceremoniously.

"Tell me, what's your use? You can't even cook, so you might as well just die!" He roared at her with scarlet eyes.

If his son hadn't come into the kitchen just now and put out the fire on him, he would have gone to see the King of Hell by now. And where was his wife just now? Hiding far away!

What's the use of coming to a person who just hides away when something goes wrong at home?

"Why did you hit me? I don't know how to cook." Mrs. Zhou covered her hurt face and looked at her husband with grievances in her eyes.

Chapter 1158 You still dare to hit me?

She married into the Zhou family to enjoy the blessings, not to be a mother. The laundry, cooking and cleaning work were all done by servants. Where had she done it before?

Now let her do it all at once, how can she do it?

Can you blame her? The blame falls on Lin Caisang. If it weren't for her, the Zhou family wouldn't be in this situation!

"If you are so capable, you can do it yourself. Why are you pointing your fingers at me? If you are a family member, you deserve to suffer. I have told you before. Why are you being polite to Lin Caisang? Just kidnap him and come to us. Liang'er can just enter the bridal chamber, but you refuse!

Are you blaming me now? What can you blame me for? "

"mother!"

Even her own son Zhou Liang couldn't stand listening to Mrs. Zhou's words.

He frowned and looked at her displeased.

"The Lin Caisang now is no longer the Lin Caisang before. Your tricks no longer work for Lin Caisang. Otherwise, would we have ended up in this situation?"

"you....."

Mrs. Zhou was so angry when she heard her son's words.

"Liang'er, are you my son? How can you speak for outsiders? Have you forgotten who is your biological mother?"

"It's because you are my mother that I say this. If it were someone else, could I care about her?" Zhou Liang retorted.

How could Lin Caisang be so easy to deal with now? Although his mother didn't believe what Lin Caisang said, he believed it. After all, when the Zhou family was in this situation, how could Lin Caisang not be there? Sang's shadow?

So it's better not to mess with Lin Caisang now.

No matter what happens, even if they really want to plot against Lin Caisang in the future, they must first win over the people in Yacun. Otherwise, they will not be able to gain a foothold in Yacun.

"You...you little bitch, I'm really..."

"enough!"

When Mr. Zhou heard his wife still cursing, he raised his hand and slapped her again.

"If you are still finished, go into the kitchen and clean it up!"

He didn't want to hear the mother and son arguing about who was right and who was wrong, because each of them was wrong, and they had never done anything right!

"You hit me again?"

Mrs. Zhou looked at her husband blankly, unable to believe that she had been beaten twice in a row and her face was swollen.

"You surnamed Zhou, why do you hit me? Now that your Zhou family is in decline, you are lucky that I can still follow you. You coaxed me and pampered me with no words, and you still dare to hit me. I?"

Don't forget, I have a natal family. Now your Zhou family is not as good as my natal family. If I go back to my natal family, you won't get anything! "

She said angrily to Mr. Zhou.

Mr. Zhou: "..."

He looked at his wife like she was an idiot.

"Your natal family? Hey, don't joke with me! Can you still go back to your natal family?"

He was not joking, this was his daughter-in-law's natal family, how could she possibly go back?

"Have you forgotten how you treated the people in your natal family since you married into the Zhou family? Have you ever gone back to recognize your parents? Or have you treated your two sisters-in-law nicely?"

No, you didn't. Your mother would bring her two daughters-in-law to the Zhou family everywhere, using their hot faces to stick to your cold ass, but what about you? There was no time when he was not sarcastic, not even to your own mother.

Chapter 1159 Did he commit suicide or was he rescued?

Don't you remember that two years ago you pointed at your mother's nose and told her that if your two brothers didn't get along with the two sisters-in-law you didn't like, you would no longer recognize your mother?

After that, did your mother come to see you?

You're like this, you still want to go back to your parents' home? If your two sisters-in-law knew that you were broke now, would they let you stay in their house?

Let me tell you, your parents didn't choose you at the beginning, and now you are like this, do you think your parents will offend the two daughters-in-law who gave birth to some fat grandchildren for you?

Don't be naive! "

He talked to her until her face turned red and she couldn't say a word.

"you you....."

"Don't stay there, you and I, and hurry up and clean the kitchen!" Master Zhou ordered without giving her a chance to speak.

In the end, Mrs. Zhou could only grit her teeth and go to the kitchen to clean.

She tolerated this tone for the time being, but she didn't believe that her parents would kick their own daughter out for two outsiders. She would definitely go home if she had time to wait!

"Dad, we have no money at home. I will drive the carriage to the town later to see if I can sell it for a few taels of silver. Let's make do with it here first, and wait for the second brother to come and pick us up."

Master Zhou turned around and said to his father.

"That's all we can do."

Old Master Zhou had no other choice but to nod and agree to his son's suggestion.

"I just don't know when your second brother will come back."

He sighed softly, thinking that his huge family fortune would be gone if he gave it away. It was impossible not to feel heartbroken!

But what can be done? There is no use regretting it now.

When he mentioned his second brother, Mr. Zhou's eyes became dim and bright. He never dared to say the words he was holding back in his heart. He was afraid that this time, it would not be that easy to return to Qianlin County, right?

...

Wan County.

When Lin Caisang arrived, there were many people waiting at the gate of the county government office, including the prince and the county magistrate.

Seeing Lin Caisang's carriage, the prince hurriedly greeted him.

"Miss Lin, something serious has happened."

"What happened again?" Lin Caisang looked at him and asked.

Could it be that she made a mistake, Zeng Wuzuo was not the one who poisoned her, but was there someone else who poisoned her?

This is of course impossible.

"Did Zeng Wuzuo commit suicide, or was he rescued?" she asked.

"No, not at all." The great prince shook his head.

"Didn't you tell me last night to check on the poisoned cow? I sent someone to check this morning and found out... After the cow was buried, it was actually given to someone the day before and after. Digging it up..."

"What?!"

Hearing this, even though he was as calm as picking mulberries in the forest, he was surprised.

"Being poached? What's going on? Is he the person behind Zeng Wuzuo?"

She had already guessed in her heart that how could Zeng Wuzuo produce such a powerful poison with only the superficial medical skills he had learned? There must be someone behind it.

It's just that this person is difficult to find at the moment.

"no."

The great prince still shook his head.

"It's not that complicated, it's just..."

"It's just something, you should tell me quickly." Lin Caisang rolled his eyes at him angrily.

This sentence is divided into several paragraphs. Who is trying to scare someone to death?

Chapter 1160 Started to complain

You know, after the poison is spread by the cow body, it can kill more than one person in the entire county. If it is really used, the entire Liang Kingdom may be succumbed to this poison!

She was refining the antidote by herself. No matter how capable she was, the poison would not spread as fast.

"It was from the old farmer's village. Hearing that the disease in Wanli was not a plague, he united several families to secretly dig out the cows and cook the beef."

The great prince swallowed his saliva and said.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Even if it is not a plague, it is still poisonous!

Do those people even risk their lives for the sake of food and drink?

"This cow has been buried for several days, and yet it was dug out and eaten?" She was shocked.

It should be stinking, but it can still be dug out and eaten. These villagers are really frugal. Is it impossible to spend some money to buy some meat?

Regarding this issue, the prince did not think clearly, but looked at the county magistrate in embarrassment.

"Miss Lin, isn't it getting cold? In fact, the cow has been buried for several days and it hasn't changed much. Isn't that... Miss Lin, can we stop talking about this and go to the village to see the situation first?"

The county magistrate came over in time and explained.

Faced with such a terrible thing, he actually really wanted to curse.

But who can he scold? Those who ate meat, who didn't fall to the ground? Although it is not like being directly poisoned and the poison is so strong that you are almost dead, it is still poisoned!

"Fine."

Lin Caisang took a deep breath and nodded.

However, before going to the village, she still took out a lot of porcelain bottles from the carriage and handed them to the magistrate.

"Please, county magistrate, please distribute all these medicines and take the antidote. All the poisoned people in Anhui County should be cured. As for the people in that village, I have to go and see them again."

"Thank you, thank you Miss Lin, you are really a living Bodhisattva who saves the suffering!" The county magistrate hurriedly thanked her.

...

In Xinghua Village.

Most of the villagers were poisoned by the dead cow.

The women and children who were not eating beef surrounded the old farmer's house, holding things in their hands, trying to get him to compensate their families.

The old farmer and his family stayed at home, not daring to go anywhere.

When Lin Caisang came with the prince and the county magistrate, he saw such a scene.

"The great prince..."

Lin Caisang frowned and glanced at the great prince.

The eldest prince was also shocked, and immediately ordered the people around him to drive away the villagers.

But the villagers refused to do it. They even shouted that the old farmer and his family would die, and even got into trouble with the guards who stopped them. They were really not afraid of death.

"Folks, folks, please be quiet. I have invited Miss Lin. She will detoxify the poisoned folks!"

The county magistrate stood up and shouted to them.

"Lord County Magistrate, it's all because of that old immortal Lao Wang. Otherwise, how could so many people in our village be poisoned?"

"That's right, Lord County Magistrate, you have to make the decision for us. Don't let that old and immortal thing like Lao Wang be spared!" When the villagers saw him, not only did they not calm down, but one by one they began to complain. .

County Magistrate: "..."

Who can he not spare?

Who is the most innocent in this matter? Isn't it the Lao Wang family in this house?
