Chapter 117 Nothing to do, let's take a walk

"Brother Mo Lian? Where is the person?"

She walked around in circles, but she didn't see anyone, and there wasn't even Yamolian's breath, which showed that no one had come back at all.

"Where did he go? Why did he disappear? He was injured and hiding, right? This person is really..."

Thinking that Ya Molian was hiding because she was injured and didn't want her to see her, her heart was lifted. She walked out of the inn, ready to find the man who loved her so much. Come.

Unfortunately, as soon as he arrived outside the inn, he saw Capt. Wei hurried over.

"Miss Liu, Miss Liu."

Seeing that Lin Caisang didn't even look back and walked directly towards the outside of the town, Captain Wei quickly turned around and stopped her.

"Miss Liu, where are you going?"

"I....."

Lin Caisang opened her mouth, but didn't know what to say. She couldn't say that Ya Molian had hidden in some nook and cranny. She was looking for someone?

She didn't want anyone to know that something happened to Ya Molian. Who knew there were a few pairs of eyes staring at her secretly? What if those people found Ya Molian before she did and killed him?

"Does Mr. Wei have anything to do with me?"

She took a deep breath, suppressed the impatience in her heart, and asked in as calm a voice as possible.

"It's something. Didn't Miss Liu give me a prescription yesterday? I ordered someone to boil the medicine and give it to the patients in the town. Although the effect was not very good for those with serious illness, people with mild illness improved.

Wei Captou said.

"Oh, then just keep taking the medicine." Lin Caisang said and prepared to leave.

"Miss Liu, do you have anything to do? I can do it for you." Seeing her in a hurry, Capt. Wei stopped her again and asked.

"Nothing to do, let's take a walk."

Lin Caisang replied to him, thought for a while, took out the 'Fearless' he had just refined, handed it to Capt. Wei, and gave him a few words of advice.

"Wei Captou, if yesterday's prescription is effective, the people in the town who are mildly ill will use the medicine, and the people who are seriously ill will be given the elixir. I will refine some more elixirs later, and I will give them to you when the time comes. of."

After saying that, he stuffed a box of pills into Captain Wei's arms and left decisively.

Capt. Wei: "..."

Miss Liu, are you sure you look like you have nothing to do and are just walking around?

Lin Caisang: I just 'walk around', what do you want?

...

In front of the gate of Hongling Town, a certain fat girl looked up, then looked up again, looking bitterly at the city wall that was as high as the three of her.

"Why is there such a thing as a city wall in this world? It's just a town, not a county. It's just like guarding against thieves. Is it interesting?" The little fat man put his hands on the waist of her bucket, and she looked at it angrily and muttered.

Climb the wall? The wall was so high that even if she had the ability to climb it, her waist would still be broken when she got out!

"Ya Mo Lian, you are a deceitful fellow. Why don't you lie down and wait for me to save you when you are injured? You have to go to the corner and wait for death. You just want to make me angry to death."

However, there is no use in complaining about Yamolian now, of course it is of no use at all.

"Forget it, I'd better find a way."

If you find a ladder, you may be able to climb up, but where can you find a ladder?

Looking left and right, I walked around the wall for a long time. Lin Caisang actually found a ladder and put it to the wall. It turned out to be just enough to reach the height of the wall.

"Isn't this something a sick person wants to use to escape?"
