

Star of Space 1361

Chapter 1361 Qin Luoyin is back

Of course, Sui Zimo didn't really want to go into the mountains, but wanted to go back to Shaohua City. It would be impossible without her to 'see him off'.

"good."

Sui Zimo responded.

"Grandpa, I'm going to the mountain to have a look. I'll be back when Grandma makes the corn pancakes." Lin Caisang stood up, said something to Lin Laojie, and left with Sui Zimo.

...

Not long after, the two of them were already at the villa on the bank of Leyang Lake.

When Ban Jue saw the two people coming back, he hurried over.

"My lord, something happened."

His face looked a little bad. After glancing at Lin Caisang, he looked at Sui Zimo.

"What's the matter?"

Sui Zimo looked at him and asked.

Is there anything that could make Ban Jue's face look like this? Is it possible that if he comes out to play for a while, the emperor can also issue a decree to punish him?

"Qin Luoyin is back," Ban Jue said.

"Qin Luoyin?"

A trace of confusion flashed across Sui Zimo's face, as if he couldn't remember the name at all.

"Brother Mo Lian, it's your 'cousin'." Lin Caisang reminded him from the side.

She still remembered the girl from Concubine Lian's natal family, but didn't she mean that she had always been in Jiulian Palace?

"Why did she come back at this time? It seems a bit coincidental, right?"

"snort."

Sui Zimo snorted coldly.

"She can't see the king herself, so she asked her niece to come? Haha."

What else could be the reason? Concubine Lian must have sent the message for Qin Luoyin to come back. She might have thought that Qin Luoyin could stay in Jiulian Palace because he was interested in Qin Luoyin.

"Where is she?"

He asked about banishment.

"There is news from the palace that Qin Luoyin has just returned to Shaohua City and under the instruction of Concubine Lian, he wants to live in Prince Mo's palace." Ban Jue replied.

How could Qin Luoyin be able to enter Prince Mo's Mansion if he wanted to? Naturally it is impossible.

But Qin Luoyin was able to stay alone in Jiulian Palace for so long. Naturally, she was not the kind of woman who was a vegetarian. She had her own way of not being able to enter Prince Mo's Mansion.

"She was stopped outside by the palace guards. Seeing that she could not enter Prince Mo's palace, she went straight to the palace to complain to Concubine Lian, and..."

"What else?"

Sui Zimo asked when he saw that he had stopped talking.

"What else could there be?"

Lin Caisang sneered. This trick of crying, making trouble and hanging himself was never enough.

"I must have been crying all the way in, so everyone knew about it, right?"

"Miss Lin is right."

Regarding this point, Ban Jue was quite helpless. He felt that Qin Luoyin had really brought a woman's abilities to the extreme.

"Actually, this is nothing, but..."

He glanced at Lin Caisang again, then glanced at his prince.

"Your Majesty, Qin Luoyin claims that she is pregnant with your child and must live in Prince Mo's Mansion. And... she also wants to ask the Emperor to make the decision and make her Princess Mo!"

This is really too much!

The prince has never been to the branch of Jiulian Hall where Qin Luoyin lives. Where did she go to become pregnant with his child?

"puff!"

Hearing this, Lin Caisang literally spit out all the tea in his mouth.

"Child? Is she pregnant?"

"yes."

Ban Jue nodded, otherwise why would his face be so ugly?

"Is this serious?" Sui Zimo asked with a cold face.

"really."

Ban Jue nodded again.

"Your Majesty, the imperial physician in the palace has taken Qin Luoyin's pulse and said that she is more than three months pregnant."

Chapter 1362 Going to live in Prince Mo's Mansion?

"More than three months?"

Lin Caisang laughed out loud again.

"Exiled Jue, please do the math. Where was your prince three months ago?"

she asked.

"Three months ago..."

Exiled Jue was stunned when he was about to say what he was about to say.

Yes, more than three months ago, his prince was still in Shaohua City, preparing to go to Ya Village to meet his mistress. Where could he go to Jiulian Palace to meet Qin Luoyin?

This is really the best joke he has ever heard.

"Your Majesty, my subordinates will send someone to get this matter done immediately." He said to his prince.

"Need not.

Sui Zimo opened his mouth and uttered two words lightly.

Ban Jue was stunned for a moment, then turned back to look at his prince, his eyes full of confusion.

"Need not?"

That meant that it was very possible that those in the palace would use Qin Luoyin's belly to make a big fuss.

And that Qin Luoyin is even more likely to come to Prince Mo's Mansion, give orders to everyone, and spread all the affairs of Prince Mo's Mansion to the outside world!

"Your Majesty..."

"Let Qin Luoyin live in Prince Mo's mansion."

Just when he wanted to ask why, he heard his master say calmly.

Banished: "!!!"

Let Qin Luoyin live in Prince Mo's Mansion?

Then it turns out that there are rumors about his prince in Shaohua City that are flying all over the sky!

"Miss Lin..."

Even if the prince wanted to do this, I believe Lin Caisang, his mistress would not agree, right?

Which woman would want another woman to have any kind of relationship with her man, even if it's just a fake relationship, that's not okay, right?

"Relegation Jue, what your prince means is that you don't admit or deny the rumors outside, and let others speak. You need to order the people in Prince Mo's palace not to talk nonsense outside.

Lin Caisang lowered his head, then raised his head to look at Ban Jue.

"As for Qin Luoyin, since there are so many people who want her to live in Prince Mo's Mansion, wouldn't many people be disappointed if she is not allowed to live in it? If she wants to live in it, then let her live in it. Do you understand? ?"

She asked Ban Jue.

After hearing her words, Sui Zimo raised his hand and patted her head.

"Don't slap me on the head, I'll be slapped stupid!"

Lin Caisang slapped his big hand away angrily and said rudely.

What's going on recently, why does this man always like to pat her on the head? Can a flower grow on her head?

"No, my son is already smart enough." Sui Zimo said with a chuckle.

After hearing this, Ban Jue finally understood the meaning of the words of the two masters in front of him.

"Your Majesty, Miss Lin, my subordinates will take care of it right now."

With that said, he was about to leave, but just for a second, he turned around again and looked at Sui Zimo.

"Your Majesty, Prince Jin has not disembarked since he arrived at Leyang Lake last night. He seems to be preparing to spend time with us here. Do you think we should pay attention to him?"

he asks.

"What do you care about him for?"

Before Sui Zimo could speak, Lin Caisang spoke first.

"If he wants to live on the lake, let him live there. Who wants the scenery on Leyang Lake to be good? In addition, send the news about him on Leyang Lake to... Boyi Houfu and Xuanlehoufu."

she ordered.

Banishment: "..."

These two princes originally looked down upon King Jin, but wasn't King Lin demoted before?

The two princesses who had a fierce fight with Prince Lin in the two princes' mansions set their sights on Prince Jin. No, they were worried that they could not find Prince Jin to attack them.

Chapter 1363 Death!

If they knew that King Jin was admiring the scenery on Leyang Lake, these two princesses would not hesitate to come over.

Two women compete for one man, especially two equally matched princesses, fighting for the attention of King Jin. The scene must be lively, right?

"Miss Lin, you are amazing!"

He gave Lin Caisang a thumbs up, then turned around and went out.

"call!"

After he was banished, Lin Caisang let out a heavy breath.

"What a troubled spring!"

She couldn't help but sigh, none of these people were fuel-efficient lamps.

But unfortunately, they still have to spend so much time with these people. Unless the person behind the scenes appears, they really won't get any news!

"Brother Mo Lian, do you think that if we continue to make noise like this, that person will appear?"

"Maybe, right?"

Sui Zimo was also unsure and could only speak in a doubtful tone.

"Or should we go and explore the Thousand Fantasy Continent?" Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and asked.

Hearing this, Sui Zimo looked at her and shook his head.

"It's time to break in, but not now."

They don't have any abilities now, so breaking into the Thousand Illusion Continent is just empty talk.

"That's right, not now."

Lin Caisang also lowered his head, feeling that what he said couldn't even be justified here.

Going to Qianhuan Continent, with her current abilities, she would be crushed to death in minutes. She had to learn more skills.

"I'll pick you up in the evening and go back first."

"good."

Sui Zimo nodded and watched her return to the Golden Pearl Space.

...

"Brother Yujing, let me ask you something."

After returning from Shaohua City, Lin Caisang did not return directly to Menghuang Mountain, but stayed in the Golden Pearl Space.

There were Sui Ziyu and Jiang Zuo in the ranch space. Instead of going there, she went to the medicine garden space and started chatting with Yu Jing.

'Dear deed owner, if you have any questions, please ask. ' Two lines of characters appeared in the jade mirror.

"Do you know Qianhuan Continent?" Lin Caisang asked.

'Know. '

Two characters were displayed in the jade mirror, but they quickly disappeared and were replaced by a screen of densely packed characters.

'Qianhuan Continent is a rare spiritual cultivation continent, but not everyone in it can cultivate spirituality. There are very few people who can cultivate spirituality, only 10% out of 10%.

Ordinary people on the Qianhuan Continent make a living by growing elixirs or collecting things needed by spiritual cultivators, and their lives are extremely humble.

In history, many spiritual cultivators from Qianhuan Continent went to Liang, Wei and other countries to find people who knew how to plant, and went to Qianhuan Continent to plant medicinal materials for them.

But these people will never return. Basically, they will die in Qianhuan Continent and will not be able to come back. '

Lin Caisang naturally knew that those people did not go there voluntarily, just like her mother, but there were very few who could escape like her mother!

"Then what would happen if someone like me went to Qianhuan Continent?" she asked Yu Jing.

Then, she looked at the jade mirror with cold sweat on her face, only one word was displayed.

'die! '

"Is it that serious?" Lin Caisang curled his lips and asked.

"At least I have the Golden Pearl Space. Even if someone does something bad to me, I can't run into the Golden Pearl Space and hide?"

As the saying goes, thirty-six strategies, walking is the best.

If you can't beat her, why can't you just run? Why do you have to fight there?

Chapter 1364: Changing Spirit Cultivation Secrets

"Then what should I do if I want to go to Qianhuan Continent?" she asked.

'First of all, you have to cultivate your soul. ' Yu Jing said.

"Spiritual cultivation?"

Lin Caisang flattened his mouth.

To put it lightly, who should she look for to learn spiritual cultivation?

Looking for her mother-in-law? Of course this is impossible. If my mother knew that she wanted to learn spiritual arts, she wouldn't have asked the question until the carrots didn't take root!

Therefore, you must not go to her mother-in-law!

"Do you have a way for me to practice spiritual arts?" she asked Yu Jing.

'The Golden Pearl Order can be exchanged for spiritual cultivation secrets. A line of words appeared in the jade mirror.

Lin Caisang's eyes suddenly lit up when he saw this line of words.

Secrets of spiritual cultivation, is there actually this in the Golden Pearl Space? Doesn't that mean that if she gets this, she can practice spiritual cultivation with Brother Mo Lian? It's not just her and Brother Mo Lian, but also many people.

When they want to go to Qianhuan Continent, will that be a very simple matter?

"How do I exchange the spiritual cultivation secret book? Or should I exchange it with points?" she asked immediately.

But her intuition told her that it was definitely not that simple. If she just used points to exchange, then it was just a matter of completing a few more tasks. She could just keep herself busy.

only.....

'No, if you want to obtain specific knowledge, you need to exchange for moral points. '

The two lines of words displayed in the jade mirror confused Lin Caisang. Why did another Yin Virtue value appear?

"Is there any difference between the Yin Virtue value and the previous Gratitude value?" she asked.

Gratitude points can be obtained by treating non-task patients and teaching others to learn, but this moral point, her intuition told her, is really not that simple.

‘Yin virtue value is Yin virtue value, which is harder to obtain than gratitude value.’ Yu Jing said.

"How can I get it?" Lin Caisang asked immediately.

‘You can obtain it by completing the virtual tasks in the Golden Pearl Order and the existence of the powerful Golden Pearl Order. Note: You can only get one point of moral virtue from each task.’ A few lines of words were displayed again in the jade mirror.

A task with a little moral value?

Lin Caisang couldn't help but secretly twitch the corner of his mouth. Could this moral value be any less?

"What kind of books can one read with a little bit of moral character?" she asked.

‘After obtaining the Yin Virtue Points, my beloved deed owner, you can enter the Jinzhu Pavilion to learn specific knowledge, consuming one Yin Virtue Point every minute. Note: Each time you enter Jinzhu Pavilion, you need to spend ten points of moral virtue.’

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

In other words, every time she wanted to enter the so-called Jinzhu Pavilion, even if she stayed there for one minute, she would have to spend eleven points of her hard-to-earn Yin Virtue, and she might not be able to see anything!

She took a deep breath. Although she felt that Jinzhu Pavilion was really a scam, she couldn't be angry.

If there was no Jinzhu Pavilion, she would still get nothing. At least now she could fight monsters and upgrade, and get what she wanted, which was pretty good.

"Then how can I find the books I want to read after entering Jinzhu Pavilion?" she asked.

This is something she must ask clearly, otherwise, if the Jinzhu Pavilion is very big, she will have to find something in it in the year of the monkey and the month of the horse!

Then, how many tasks does she have to do and how many moral points does she have to earn?

'As long as it is what you, the owner of the contract, want, the Jinzhu Pavilion will be automatically delivered to you for your viewing.' Yu Jing said.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang finally breathed a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, she didn't need to read them one by one. That was definitely the most uneconomical deal she had ever made!

Chapter 1365 Theoretically?

"How do I get a virtual mission in Jinzhu Space?" she asked.

'Virtual mission: It is freely determined by the Jinzhu space. The mission has no time limit and no space limit. The owner and helpers can survive without being injured inside. However, the type of virtual tasks is not limited, and when the contract owner takes the task, he does not know the danger of the current task.'

"etc."

Lin Caisang raised his hand and looked at Brother Yujing without moving.

"Brother Yujing, let's make this clear. Since you can survive without getting hurt inside, what is the danger of the mission? Huh?"

she asked.

Will a mission that involves no death or injury still be dangerous?

She was surprised. Isn't this contradictory? No matter how dangerous the mission is, even if you die during the mission, you can still survive, right? Does it mean this?

'Quests are naturally dangerous. For example, racial quests may involve demons, ghosts, spirits...'

Lin Caisang: "..."

These special tasks were specially set for her through the Golden Pearl Order, right?

You know clearly that she is not afraid of anything at this age, but she is afraid of these ghosts and ghosts, yet you still give her such a task!

"You continued ghost hunting" she said.

In order to obtain the secret book of spiritual cultivation, so what if she ventured into these places that she was afraid of?

'The danger of the virtual mission is only aimed at the psychological shadow of the contract owner. If the contract owner cannot bear it anymore, the task will fail. Of course, if the virtual task is completed, one point of moral virtue will be gained, and if the task fails, there will be a deduction. A little bit of moral value.

Therefore, I also ask my beloved contract owner to think twice before taking action and think about the possibility of completing the task first. '

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Are you actually going to get points deducted?

Okay, she has put up with this, she can't just get all the benefits, can she?

Although she still thinks this is quite a scam, what can she do? Go on, keep watching.

"OK!"

She gritted her teeth and looked at Brother Yujing.

"Who is the so-called helper? Is this a virtual helper given to me by Jinzhu Space?" she asked.

'The contract owner can choose to bring a helper into the virtual mission, or not, because bringing a helper into the virtual mission will be more dangerous.

But if the contract owner completes the task with a helper, the helper can also get some moral points.'

Jade Mirror said.

Seeing the last sentence, Lin Caisang couldn't help but raise his eyebrows.

"That means that if I take a person on a mission, I can get two moral points?" she asked.

In that case, she can get twice the result with half the effort, and with someone by her side, she doesn't have to be afraid, and it can also embolden her.

What a great thing!

'wrong!'

A big word "wrong" appeared on the jade mirror. After it disappeared, densely packed words appeared all over the jade mirror.

'As the owner of the contract, you can only get one point of moral virtue, and the other point of moral virtue belongs to your helper. In other words, if he accumulates enough moral virtue, theoretically speaking, he can also enter the Jinzhu Pavilion. To find out the secrets he wanted to find out. '

"Theoretically?"

Lin Caisang didn't pay attention to the other words. She only noticed the words 'theoretically'.

What does it mean theoretically? What about in reality, these moral points are actually earned in vain, and the person who helped her cannot be allowed to enter the Jinzhu Pavilion?

Can she understand it this way?

Chapter 1366 The time from one moment to the next

"Brother Yujing, could you please explain it more clearly?"

I'm sorry she really doesn't understand. What the hell is this from a theoretical perspective?

'If someone who is not the owner of the contract wants to enter Jinzhu Pavilion, the price will be higher than where he is. Jade Mirror explained.

"What kind of magic? Will you suffer internal injuries? Will you be locked up in Jinzhu Pavilion and unable to get out?" Lin Caisang asked, citing several examples.

Of course, neither.

'If a person who is not the deed owner wants to enter the Jinzhu Pavilion of the deed owner, in addition to the consent of the deed owner, he needs 100 yin virtue points each time. Every minute after entering the Jinzhu Pavilion, he needs 10 yin virtue points. .

Jade Mirror once again explained more clearly.

Seeing these words, Lin Caisang couldn't help but raise his eyes and rolled his eyes.

Anyone other than the contract owner, if they want to enter Jinzhu Pavilion for one minute, they have to complete one hundred and ten virtual tasks!

Does this Jinzhu Pavilion need to be so sophisticated? ! !

"Whether you say it or not, it's all in vain!" she said unhappily.

With 110 Yin Virtue points, she has been able to enter the Jinzhu Pavilion for almost an hour. With her memory, she must be able to remember a lot of knowledge she wants to get.

Of course, if the moral value is really high...

"Brother Yujing, apart from entering the Jinzhu Pavilion, what else can the Yin Virtue be used for?" she asked.

'For now...no.' The jade mirror showed four characters and a big ellipsis.

In other words, the current Jade Mirror does not know what role the Yin Virtue has. Maybe it will be known in the future and it will be useful.

"One last question, Brother Yujing, if I receive a virtual mission and it takes a long time to complete the mission in that specific space, can I come back first?"

she asked.

'Virtual tasks, no time limit.' Yujing only replied to the line she had shown before.

Lin Caisang still didn't understand what the words "no time limit" meant.

"How about no time limit?" she asked.

'In the virtual mission, even if a hundred years have passed for you and your helpers, in reality, it is only from one moment to the next, that's all. ' Jade Mirror explained.

Seeing these words, Lin Caisang's beautiful eyes suddenly widened.

It turns out that this virtual mission can still be played like this? That means that when the time comes, as long as she gets Brother Mo Lian, she can do as many virtual tasks as she wants.

It doesn't take any time anyway!

"Okay, it's settled. I'll come and take the virtual mission another day. I'll have to do a few more before I can do it."

After saying that, she went back to Menghuang Mountain.

Liu family.

Having just learned that Lin Caisang was back, Liu Yushui originally wanted to take a few children to Lin's house to see them, but he had no choice but to hold one on his back, carry another on his back, and drag two of them, so he really couldn't spare any time.

I still want to wait for my husband to come back before going to the Lin family.

But who would have thought that before her husband Lin Ma could wait, she would see a group of people coming in a hurry. The leader looked fierce, and she knew the old man he was carrying.

"Grandpa, how could you...ah!"

Seeing the old man being thrown in front of her by the vicious man, Liu Yushui was really frightened.

"Wow!"

Lin Ma's little daughter was still young. When she saw this battle, she was so scared that she started crying.

"Er Niu, don't cry, mother is here."

Chapter 1367 Where is my little master?

Only then did Liu Yushui react and hurriedly picked up Lin Erniu, coaxing her while looking at the people who had blocked the door to her courtyard.

"Liu Yushui, you damn girl, why don't you hurry up and help grandpa!"

Master Liu fell to the ground, and when he saw Liu Yushui didn't bring anyone to help him, he immediately yelled at her.

Liu Yushui: "..."

The grandfather who kicked their family out of the house? Didn't he ask his servants to spread the word that they would no longer be in the Liu family? What kind of grandfather can that be?

"I....."

She only had time to open her mouth, but she saw a foot stepping directly on Mr. Liu's back.

"ah!"

Mr. Liu screamed.

"No, stop fighting, stop fighting, the person you are looking for is in this house, in this house, you go find it yourself."

How could he have ever suffered such a crime when he was so old?

Obviously those fists and kicks were aimed at him, but when they landed on him, there was nothing but pain, not even a wound!

When those people heard Master Liu's words, they strode into the yard without even saying hello to Liu Yushui.

"What are you going to do?"

Liu Yushui was confused by their actions.

In the courtyard, the domestic wolf that had been brought from Menghuang Mountain saw strangers approaching, and suddenly opened its throat and barked at those people.

'Ouch! '

"scare!"

Even those ferocious people were frightened when they heard a wolf howl.

I thought it was an ordinary family, but how could I have imagined that it actually raised a wolf? It seemed like it was an extraordinary family.

"Where is my little master?"

Perhaps because they felt that his young master lived here after all and raised a wolf, those people stopped showing too ferocious faces and asked Liu Yushui.

"What little master, I don't understand what you are saying." Liu Yushui frowned.

She really couldn't understand what these people were saying. What kind of mistress was she? Everyone in her family was someone she knew very well.

"Grandpa, even if I am kicked out of your family, you can't bring these people to my house to play tricks. I don't have the person they are looking for. Don't you know it in your heart?"

She looked at Master Liu and asked.

Her intuition told her that Master Liu must have done something evil outside again, and when the other party came to the door, he wanted to blame it all on her!

But she is no longer the Liu Yushui she was before, and she will not let Master Liu blame her for nothing.

"Why is there no one? Liu Chushui is not from your family. Call him out quickly. They are here to find Liu Chushui!"

Mr. Liu's face was covered with tears. He was crying in pain from being beaten. His body was covered in cold sweat from the pain, and his clothes were soaked.

"Chu Shui? Are you here to find Chu Shui?"

Liu Yushui was stunned at first, but soon figured it out.

It seems that Lin Chushui's family discovered the evil deeds Liu Rumei had done and came to the door with the fake son.

"Yes, let's find the young master...Lin Chushui."

The leader stopped talking and changed the word "little master" to "Lin Chushui".

"Madam, Lin Chushui lives here. If he is here, please ask him to come out to meet me. My master and mistress are in the village and are eager to see him."

Chapter 1368 Isn't it good now?

Liu Yushui: "..."

However, even if these people want to see Lin Chushui again, they can't do it now.

"Chu Shui doesn't live here, he lives in the Lin family, but..."

"Lin family, which Lin family, madam, please take me there." The leader asked immediately.

"no."

Liu Yushui quickly shook his head.

"You can't see Chu Shui now. Chu Shui and his eldest cousin went to Jian'an City to take the exam. He went to Jian'an City with his aunt and his eldest cousin's second cousin. It's been a month since he left and he has already arrived in Jian'an City. Come on."

She thought for a moment and said.

The leader: "..."

This is really a coincidence. His master and mistress came here just now, but he didn't expect that the young master was not there?

"Where is the Lin family? I'd better ask the girl to lead the way." He thought for a while and said to Liu Yushui.

Then, he turned to look at the people behind him. After muttering a few words with one of them, the person turned around and left in a hurry.

Liu Yushui looked at Mr. Liu and then at these people.

Thinking that these people were at least somewhat polite, and even though they had treated Mr. Liu badly before, they had not treated her badly, he thought that it would be okay to take them to the Lin family.

"Then wait a minute. I have to pick up my children and leave them at home. I'm not worried." She said.

"This is easy to handle."

The leader immediately summoned two maids, and each of them carried the two little ones in their arms.

Moreover, these two maids were used to coaxing children. Sanni and Sini were held by them without even crying. Liu Yushui could only hold the two older ones and take them to the Lin family.

Lin.

It was the first time that there were so many people sitting in the main room, but it was so embarrassing.

When Lin Caisang came back, she saw this scene. In the main room of her house, a man and woman in gorgeous clothes were sitting. The man looked serious, while the woman had tears in her eyes.

"That child had such a miserable life. He was replaced just after he was born. He has never even seen me, his own mother."

The woman was still telling her about the good deeds Liu Rumei had done back then, and that she had replaced her biological son with an extremely ordinary person.

"If it weren't for every child in our area who is over twelve years old and has to recognize his relatives with blood and be given a clan blood sacrifice, we still don't know that the one next to us is not our child!"

As she said that, she looked at the man beside her, tears falling down again.

"Stop crying, the child is fine now." The man persuaded her when he saw this.

"What a good thing."

The woman glared at him.

Her biological son was suffering in this small place, and her heart almost broke when she heard the servants of the Liu family mention what happened to her son in the Liu family.

Later, I heard from people in the village that after arriving in Yacun, her son was treated cruelly by the Liu family. At that time, she really wanted to kill someone!

"Two old men, thank you for raising my son at home. Your kindness will be remembered by my husband and I for the rest of our lives, and we will definitely repay you."

Fortunately, the Lin family was able to give his son a place to stay. Otherwise, his son would have died long ago.

Would Liu Rumei's family be so kind? It is simply extremely vicious!

"Uh, this..."

In fact, Lin Laogan and Lu Qiubo were still outside the situation.

Because they simply don't know that the grandson they thought they were is not of the Lin family's blood.

Chapter 1369 Verify before confirming

The word confusion was clearly written on the faces of the old couple.

"That....."

"Grandma, grandma, are there guests at home?"

Just when they didn't know how to talk to these two people, they suddenly heard their granddaughter's voice coming from the yard.

Lu Qiubo quickly stood up and walked into the yard.

"Grandma, who are these people?"

Lin Caisang looked at the people guarding outside the yard and asked.

Outside the yard, there were not only those strangers, but also the guards left behind by her mother. Why did she seem to have had some kind of conflict between the two parties?

"Sangsang, you are back.

Lu Qiubo came to Lin Caisang's side, and Lin Baiyi and Yang Lin, who was pregnant with his belly, also surrounded him.

"Sang Sang, listen to them, Chu Shui is not a child of our Lin family? What's going on?" Lin Baiyi asked.

Lin Caisang: "!"

Is this Lin Chushui's family coming to visit?

They finally discovered that the son in their family was not theirs at all, right?

I just don't know how they found out. In this era where blood tests and DNA cannot be done, how could they have the extraordinary ability to find out that a person is not of their own blood?

"Those people came to see Chu Shui?" she asked.

"Tsk."

Lin Baiyi looked at Lin Caisang.

"Sangsang, listen to what you said, you already knew this?"

"Um."

Lin Caisang responded lightly.

"I overheard Liu Rumei spilling the beans, and after checking it out, I found out that Liu Rumei had exchanged the woman's child while someone was renting the house from the Liu family and giving birth at the same time as her.

Chu Shui himself knew about this, but he didn't expect that that family would come to visit him again. "

This is really an unexpected surprise.

After all, this matter has been going on for so long, and it is simply impossible to find out anything from the Liu family.

As for Liu Rumei and Liu Baixiao, there is no need to count on it. These two people are probably pointing to their own son's success in the future, so how can they say anything?

"You know, little girl, you know about my child? Is that true? Great, great, we finally found it." The woman in the hall heard Lin Caisang's words and rushed in from inside. stand up.

"Don't get too excited. You have to find someone to verify it before you can confirm it." The man also walked out and said to the woman.

After all, they have been deceived once and their sons have been replaced. This time they will not recognize anyone easily. They must confirm it first.

Of course, it was understandable for Lin Caisang to hear what the man said.

Anyone who has encountered such a thing will doubt everyone, especially those of them who are related to Lin Chushui.

He felt that it was normal for them not to believe it.

"So what happens now? Do you want Chu Shui to come back?" Lu Qiubo looked at his granddaughter and then at the couple.

"Chu Shui has just arrived in Jian'an. It's impossible for my mother to come back. Who can rest assured if Chu Shui comes back alone?" Lin Caisang asked her.

Regardless of whether the couple in front of her were relatives of Lin Chushui, she would never agree to let Chu Shui rush back from Jian'an City alone!

Even if she was escorted by her mother's bodyguards, she couldn't rest assured. After all, the people on Qianhuan Continent were always watching them, and they absolutely couldn't take advantage of them!

Chapter 1370 He is your grandson

If this couple really wants Chu Shui to come back alone at this time, how can she trust such parents to hand Chu Shui over to them?

"You two, if you want to find out something about Chu Shui, I naturally have no objection.

She looked at the couple.

"However, Chu Shui is not very old. If he is allowed to come back alone, as his sister, I will definitely not agree. Presumably, if you two are Liu Chushui's parents, you will not let your children travel long distances. Right?"

"this....."

The man was really stunned when he heard what she said.

"We can go to Jian'an City. There is no need for Chu Shui to come back specially." Seeing that her husband was blocked, the woman immediately said.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang took a deep breath and gritted his teeth.

"If you want to build An City, I won't object."

But she always felt a little worried in her heart, and she didn't know what was going on.

"I wonder what you call them?" she asked.

"My surname is Yue, and my given name is Chong. She is Chu Shui's sister, so you can call me Uncle Yue. This is my wife, Luo Mianyi." The man introduced.

"Uncle Yue, Aunt Luo."

Lin Caisang nodded lightly at them.

"You are not in a hurry to see Chu Shui. Why don't you stay at my house for a few days first?"

she asked. perform

"this....."

Luo Mianyi was a little anxious, anxious to see her son.

However, after hearing Lin Caisang's words, Yue Chong nodded, "Okay."

"Brother Chong!"

"Mianyi, let's stay here first. It won't be a short while to search for Chushui." Yue Chong spoke to comfort Luo Mianyi.

Listening to Lin Caisang's words, one knew that her stay with them was not just a simple stay. If some things were not explained clearly to the Lin family, even if Lin Chushui was really their son, they would not be able to take him with him. Go.

In this regard, from the reaction of the little girl in front of him just now, we can know that she really treats Lin Chushui as her biological brother.

"Okay, let's stay here first." Luo Mianyi took a deep breath and could only say.

"good."

Lin Caisang looked at Lu Qiubo.

"Grandma, there are many rooms on Menghuang Mountain, so let's arrange for Uncle Yue and the others to live on Menghuang Mountain first. What do you think?"

"It's all up to you, just do whatever you say." Lu Qiubo said.

In fact, she was still in a fog, still thinking that a child as good as Chu Shui was not from the Lin family.

At this moment, Lu Qiubo felt really regretful.

"That child Chu Shui is really obedient. Why is he not a child of our Lin family?"

She sighed softly.

"Grandma."

Lin Caisang laughed after listening to her words.

"Even if Chu Shui is not a child of our Lin family, he is still your grandson, my brother. As long as you recognize him as your grandson, he will be your grandson."

This family relationship is really not simply based on blood, but the treatment of each other.

They were kind to Lin Chushui, and Lin Chushui naturally repaid them with equal kindness. This is the connection between people.

"Yes, look at my mouth, Chu Shui is my grandson, my grandson."

After being persuaded by his granddaughter, Lu Qiubo also thought about it and said with a grin.

"Lao San, you take Master Yue and the others to Menghuang Mountain and stay there first. Sangsang, you also go up the mountain again and make arrangements for Master Yue and the others before coming back down."
