

Star of Space 1461

Chapter 1461 Otherwise it wouldn't be such a coincidence

"I have been poisoned?"

Ban Jue's eyes at this moment were full of disbelief.

He felt that his body was in great shape and nothing happened, yet he was already poisoned?

"Zhong You, you couldn't have made a wrong diagnosis, right? How could I have..."

"Shut up!"

Lin Caisang didn't want to hear his voice and shouted sharply.

Ban Jue immediately raised his hand, covered his mouth, shook his head at Lin Caisang's back, and held his breath as he looked at the mistress who was performing the acupuncture on his prince.

After a while, Lin Caisang finally stopped, raised his sleeves, and wiped the sweat from his forehead.

"Come here, let me take your pulse."

She turned to look at Ban Jue and said.

"oh oh."

Ban Jue immediately walked over obediently, stretched out his hand, and handed it to Lin Caisang.

Lin Caisang stretched out his hand and felt Ban Jue's pulse. After a while, he bit his red lips and looked into the distance with dim eyes.

"It's really amazing. Where is he? Didn't he catch him?" she asked Ban Jue.

"No."

Ban Jue shook his head.

The mistress is now asking the person who was chased by them and poisoned them. Is his prince okay?

"However, the prince also poisoned that person. That poison is Dabai's favorite thing to eat." He added.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang nodded with satisfaction.

As long as that guy can't escape, that's fine. The rest can wait until she slowly heals her brother Mo Lian's body.

"Paper and pen."

"Here, Master."

Zhong You immediately walked to the table, said to Lin Caisang, and began to grind ink for her.

...

"Go and get this medicine. Remember, the more people who want to know about it, the better!"
Holding the prescription in her hand, she told Ban Jue.

"Yes, Miss Lin."

Ban Jue didn't ask anything else and just answered directly.

What's there to ask? The mistress must have her own reasons for doing things.

"Catch a few more pictures. After boiling them, drink them with the subordinates who are chasing people with your prince. It will be able to detoxify your bodies." Lin Caisang saw that he was leaving and said again. One sentence.

Hearing this, he was banished and given a slap on the feet.

"Miss Lin, isn't this medicine for the prince?"

Turning around, he looked at Lin Caisang and asked doubtfully.

He thought the medicine written on the prescription was for his prince to drink, but he didn't co-author it.

"I can prepare Brother Mo Lian's medicine myself," Lin Caisang said.

"oh."

Exiled Jue nodded, turned around and left.

"Master, what kind of poison did the prince have?" Zhong You asked.

Most people couldn't diagnose that pulse pattern, and it was only after his master reminded him that he diagnosed it.

This poison is a bit strange. Exiled Jue has been fine until now, but his master still ordered Exiled Jue to get the medicine. This shows that he is not afraid that he will shut up and die from the poison.

"It's not poison, it's just a medicine that stimulates the poison hidden in the body."

Lin Caisang came to Sui Zimo's bed, sat down, and explained to Zhong You.

"Can any poison be activated?" Zhong You asked again.

But he was sure of the answer. It must be able to activate all the poisons. Otherwise, how could it be such a coincidence that the poison was also activated?

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"Zhong You, call Jiang Li and the others in, change clothes for Brother Mo Lian, and burn all the quilts he has covered with him."

She looked at him and ordered.

Chapter 1462 Do you still have any questions?

As long as it was touched by the medicine, it would always have that smell. Therefore, Zhong You gave Sui Zimo the antidote and injected it several times, but it was of no use.

Because after taking the medicine and giving the injection, the medicine left on the clothes and quilt would also stimulate the poisonous hair in Sui Zimo's body.

It's almost useless.

Their opponent is so powerful!

"good."

After hearing her words, Zhong You immediately went to call someone.

...

After taking care of Sui Zi Mo in Prince Mo's Mansion for a while, Lin Caisang entered the Golden Pearl Space while he was still in a coma.

"Brother Yujing, I have another question to ask you.

She blinked and looked at the jade mirror in front of her.

'Dear master, please ask. ' A line of words appeared in the jade mirror.

"There is no antidote to 'inducing' poison. You told me this before. I know it, but if I introduce poison from others to myself, then the Golden Pearl Order will still detoxify it for me, right?"

Lin Caisang asked.

She really doesn't want to worry about her brother Mo Lian anymore. She has no way to cure the poison and poison in his body for the time being.

'Yes, but points are required. ' Yu Jing replied.

Looking at the words on the jade mirror, Lin Caisang nodded.

She had asked Yu Jing about this before and already knew the answer, but she didn't have enough points at the time.

At that time, she really didn't expect that those people would go to any lengths to use poison in Sui Zimo's body to check and balance him.

In this way, no matter when, the two poisons on Sui Zimo's body will become his injuries!

"Are the points in Jinzhu Space enough?" She thought for a while and asked.

'enough. '

In the jade mirror, a big word "enough" is displayed.

"Then agree."

Seeing this word, Lin Caisang breathed a sigh of relief.

As long as she has enough points, it is at least not that difficult to implement. She can induce the poison to her body and it can be detoxified.

"I have to find out what is the best way to introduce poison into my body."

Jade Mirror: '...'

Listening to his master's words, even his dumb mirror was speechless, okay?

'Master, there is only one way to introduce poison to yourself...that's all. '

"I know, then I have to talk to myself for a while and relax." Lin Caisang said after reading the words on the jade mirror.

After all, she was introducing the poison to herself, and it was no joke. Even if she was willing to do it for Brother Mo Lian, then she was a human being and would always be afraid.

'Master,' the poison is a very strange poison. To undo this poison, even with the Golden Pearl Order, it will take some time. Are you sure that I want to introduce the poison to you? '

The jade mirror showed a few lines of words again.

"Of course."

Lin Caisang nodded without thinking.

Regarding this matter, she couldn't be more sure. Even if it is more difficult to detoxify her body, it will be detoxified eventually. However, it is different with Brother Mo Lian.

"Why, do you still have questions?"

she asked.

Once the "Yin" poison is introduced into your body, you cannot touch all the medicinal materials in the medicine garden space. You cannot refine the elixir again until the "Yin" poison in your body is completely removed. Are you sure? '

Jade Mirror asked again.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Why is this? Why can't she touch the medicinal materials?

Chapter 1463 Just asking if you are curious!

"What is going on, Brother Yu Jing, please explain to me.

Is it because they are afraid that 'introducing' poison will affect the medicinal materials in the medicine garden space? Isn't it? Brother Mo Lian has also entered the medicine garden space, many times. Nothing happened.

Once the poison is introduced to the body, any medicinal materials in the medicine garden space may trigger the poison in your body. A small poisoning state in itself will become extremely large, and naturally you cannot touch it. Medicinal.

Moreover, Master, when you first introduce the "Yin" poison into your body, you will fight against the breath of the Jinzhu Ling, and it will be very painful. It will not be until the Jin Zhuling is familiar with the toxicity of the "Yin" poison. It will slowly detoxify you. '

Densely written fonts appeared in the jade mirror, and each word made Lin Caisang's scalp tingle.

But this did not hinder her determination to detoxify Sui Zimo. Anyway, all she needed was pain, and she could not die.

However, there was one thing that she had to arrange, otherwise, when the poison was introduced to herself, she might not even be able to take care of her grandpa.

Gritting her teeth, she left Jinzhu Space and returned to Sui Zimo's room.

In the room, not long after Sui Zimo woke up, Ban Jue was not there. Jiang Zuo, who had been invited out of the Jinzhu Space by Lin Caisang, was standing by the bed, explaining what happened to Sui Zimo.

Listening to Jiang Zuo's words, Lin Caisang, who had just walked in, couldn't help but roll his eyes.

"Shut up, can't you let your prince take a break?" She interrupted Jiang Zuo angrily and said.

A person who had never interfered with anything from beginning to end actually had the face to speak plausibly in front of her brother Mo Lian, and even she almost believed it.

Just asking if you are curious!

"Well."

Jiang Zuo was startled by the familiar voice that suddenly interrupted him.

He turned around and looked at Lin Caisang with a sly expression.

"Miss Lin..."

"You go and help them prepare medicine for the banishment first."

Lin Caisang glanced at him and ordered.

"Oh, by the way, call Zhong You over and I'll talk to him about something."

"Yes, I am resigning."

Jiang Zuo responded, turned around and left.

"Sonny, come here."

On the bed, Sui Zimo raised his weak arm and waved in Lin Caisang's direction.

"Thank you again for your hard work this time."

"What's so hard about it?"

Lin Caisang curled her lips angrily, why did she have to work so hard? It was just those people who did whatever it took to achieve their goals, and it was not their fault.

"However, you are not at a loss this time. Fortunately, you were poisoned once. I searched in the Jinzhu space and found a way to detoxify the 'Yin' poison."

She looked at Sui Zimo steadily and said.

"Can 'inducing' poison be detoxified?"

Sui Zimo's dark eyes lit up for a moment, but then darkened quickly.

"Didn't you say that there is no antidote to the poison? Can it really be cured?" he asked.

"What, you don't believe in my ability?" Lin Caisang raised an eyebrow and asked him.

Sui Zimo pursed his lips and said nothing. Of course, it was not that he didn't believe in Son'er's abilities, but he was just worried that she would use some unscrupulous methods to detoxify him and hurt himself.

He would never use such a method.

"My son is the best, but...what method are you going to use?" he asked.

"I just saw it in the Golden Pearl Space. I haven't studied it carefully yet. I couldn't help but come over to tell you the good news."

Chapter 1464 Don't you believe me?

Lin Caisang chuckled and said to Sui Zimo.

Of course she wouldn't tell Sui Zimo directly that she decided to introduce the poison to herself. Otherwise, how could Sui Zimo be willing to do it given how much he felt sorry for her?

"I'll tell you after I watch it a few more times and combine it with my own thoughts. However, there is a good news that is true. After you have been poisoned once, no one will try to poison you again in the future. If the poison is introduced, it will not have any effect.

Brother Melian, is this good news? "

Sui Zimo: "..."

However, he didn't think this was good news.

Under what circumstances, after he was poisoned once, this girl would be able to find a way to detoxify him?

It's impossible even if you think about it, right?

"Sang'er, are you sure you're hiding nothing from me?" He looked at Lin Caisang seriously and asked word by word.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

She said it so sincerely, why didn't he believe her?

Could it be that the words 'I am a liar' were written on her face at this moment? This is impossible.

"What can I hide from you? You are so smart, how can I hide it from you?" She said to Sui Zimo with what she thought was the most natural smile.

Seeing her expression like this, Sui Zimo just chuckled, raised his hand, and lightly scratched the tip of her nose.

Sonny, do you know that if I were to question you like this in normal times, you would angrily refute me. When have you ever laughed so heartily?

"Brother Melian, don't you believe me?"

Lin Caisang looked at him and asked again.

"how come?"

Sui Zimo took a deep breath and said.

"Maybe it's because the poisonous hair is too serious this time. My head is still a little groggy, and some random things always flash in my mind."

"Yeah?"

Lin Caisang believed it, and the expression on his face became serious.

"Then you lie down, close your eyes and rest for a while. Your poisonous attack is really serious this time. The medicine I collected from the medicine garden space will have to be boiled several times before you can drink it."

"Um."

Sui Zimo responded lightly.

"By the way, Brother Mo Lian, I want to discuss something with you."

Suddenly remembering what she had thought about in the medicine garden space before, she spoke to Sui Zimo.

"What's the matter?"

Sui Zimo opened his dark eyes again and asked her.

"Now I often go back and forth to Prince Mo's Mansion. It's useless for Zhong You to stay here. I want him to go back to Yacun first. Grandpa's leg injury cannot be cured in a short time, and I can't be here every day. Home.

Let Zhong You go back. If I'm not at home, I can ask Zhong You to help me take care of my grandpa. What do you think? "

she asked.

Hearing this, Sui Zimo raised his eyebrows.

"Then let Zhong You go back. He really hasn't mastered Kung Fu yet. It's dangerous to stay in Prince Mo's Mansion. It's better to go back to the village."

But he couldn't help but wonder in his heart, why did Sonny ask Zhong You to go home at this time? Could it be related to the poison in his body?

But if Sonner didn't tell him this answer, he wouldn't be sure.

"Okay, then I'll let Zhong You go back." Lin Caisang nodded and said.

...

That night, Jiang Zuo was left in Prince Mo's mansion to take care of his prince.

Lin Caisang had already gone back, and Zhong You also left Shaohua City under the escort of several people arranged by Ban Jue.

Chapter 1465: Led to myself

"Jiang Zuo, sit over here.

Sui Zi Mo was half lying on the bed and gave instructions to Jiang Zuo who was sitting at the table.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

Jiang Zuo moved a stool and sat on the edge of the bed.

"My lord, what do you want to order?"

"Do you know anything about 'inducing' poison?" Sui Zimo looked at him and asked.

Jiang Zuo: "..."

His understanding of poisoning has been discussed before. Why did the prince come to ask him again?

"My lord, this 'attracting' poison, my subordinates only know so much."

It's not that he is not professional enough, but that everyone in the world knows that there is no antidote for poisoning. Although he wanted to detoxify the prince, he had no way.

"Is there a solution?" Sui Zimo asked again.

"No."

Jiang Zuo replied simply.

"Your Majesty, Miss Lin also said before that there is really no solution to 'inducing' poison. Look at Miss Lin, with such a magical one... there is no way, let alone my subordinates."

When it came to the Golden Pearl Space, he didn't dare to say it out loud. He was afraid that the walls had ears, so it was better to be careful.

"But Son'er said she could figure it out." Sui Zimo said quietly.

"real?"

Jiang Zuo's eyes lit up and he confirmed.

"Sang'er said it very seriously." Sui Zimo said.

"That's great. If the 'Yin' poison can be cured, then Your Majesty doesn't have to... This is wrong, Prince, 'Yin' poison doesn't mean it can be cured by 'Yin' poison. That's a strange poison!"

Jiang Zuo said half of what he said and couldn't continue.

If the poison can be cured so easily, can it still be called a strange poison?

"Um."

Sui Zimo responded lightly.

"I have secretly asked my mother-in-law before. According to her, it is extremely difficult to 'lead' poison in Qianhuan Continent unless..."

"Unless what?"

Jiang Zuo asked immediately.

Since there is an exception, it can be solved?

"Unless someone is willing to introduce the 'Jing Yin' poison from others to his own body." Suizi Mo said.

He had already inquired about this from the eldest princess. Sonny probably thought he didn't know, right?

"Tsk."

Jiang Zuo clicked his tongue lightly.

"My lord, do you want to say that Miss Lin wants to draw the poison from you to herself?"

He gasped at the thought of this possibility.

"This...isn't possible, Your Majesty, although I don't know much about 'drawing' poison, but anything like drawing poison from others to oneself is extremely difficult to do.

What's more, the special nature of "Yin" poison is that a little bit of poison in the body itself may cause thousands of times of pain. Miss Lin is a doctor, and she has to work with medicine and poison. If she has "Yin" poison in her body, then This is no joke. "

Once a certain poison arouses the poison in the body, only the prince himself can feel the pain, right?

"However, Miss Lin said before that any poison on her body will be detoxified by her... there. Is it possible that the poison can be detoxified even if it is introduced to her body?"

As he was talking, he remembered something again and looked at his prince and asked.

Hearing this, Sui Zimo's cold eyes glanced directly at Jiang Zuo, almost freezing him.

"That... prince..."

Jiang Zuo was stared at by his prince so much that his scalp numbed and his whole body felt bad, but he still gritted his teeth and spoke to his prince.

Chapter 1466: A big fuck!

"Your Majesty, I know that you feel sorry for Miss Lin and don't want Miss Lin to suffer at all. However, this also depends on the priority of the matter, right?"

Please tell me about your current situation. As long as the people from Qianhuan Continent do something, the poison on your body will act together with the poison on your body. When the poison occurs, you have no fighting power. None.

How can you protect Miss Lin like this? "

He analyzed it sentence by sentence for his prince, and what he said were all facts, and they were facts that had already happened.

"Rather than having someone take advantage of your shortcomings like this, wouldn't it be better to just kick this stumbling block away before things become irreversible?"

When the time comes that you will no longer be affected by the poison, and when no one can do anything to you, you will be able to better protect Miss Lin, right? "

Sui Zimo was silent as he listened to Jiang Zuo's ramble.

But it had to be said that what Jiang Zuo said was completely true, so true that he couldn't deny it at all.

Now, when facing the people from Qianhuan Continent, he has no fighting power at all. It's okay not to have Sonny by his side. At least she is safe.

But what if Sonny was by his side? Will even Sonny have to follow him into danger?

"You mean, the poison in my body should be cured?" He opened and closed his thin lips and asked Jiang Zuo.

"Your Majesty, this is not a question of whether it should be solved, but a question that must be solved!" Jiang Zuo's extremely affirmative voice sounded in his ears.

"Think about it again, aren't those people relying on the 'Yin' poison in you to do whatever they want? If the 'Yin' poison in you is removed and we catch them off guard, we will definitely be able to catch that person The person behind the emperor's guidance in the palace."

He gave another dose of strong medicine.

Unfortunately, these are not within the scope of Sui Zimo's consideration. He just wants to know what the consequences will be if the poison in his body is introduced to Son'ers.

"Go and ask Sonner about this matter." He told Jiang Zuo.

Jiang Zuo: "???"

In his heart: What a fuck!

He went to inquire, how could he inquire? When he asked the mistress, wouldn't the mistress know that the prince already knew everything about this matter?

"My lord, you are... a bit too... too pushy, isn't it?"

He looked at his prince with a depressed face and said.

"When did this king force others to do something difficult?"

Sui Zimo didn't take it seriously, and didn't feel there was anything wrong with what he had just ordered.

"Isn't this too difficult for others? Miss Lin is not stupid. If my subordinate asks, doesn't she know everything?" Jiang Zuo glared and said.

"Who asked you to tell her that this is what the king wants to ask?" Sui Zimo asked him.

"This is just a suspicion in your heart. As long as you tell Sonner that you haven't told me, she will believe you."

Jiang Zuo: "..."

What if the mistress discovers the truth by then? How is he going to live?

"Your Majesty, this...this wife of yours is still in Miss Lin's hands. Isn't it a good idea to tease her?"

he asked quietly.

If the mistress knew the truth, would he still need to see his wife?

"If you don't ask, if you understand, I will tell Sonner. I know everything. You told me." Suizi Mo said.

Chapter 1467 Is it really you? !

Jiang Zuo: "!!!"

Your Majesty, are you a bit too vicious?

After all, my subordinate has been with you for so many years. It's a bit hard work without any merit, right? You don't want your subordinate to be single for the rest of his life, do you?

"Your Majesty..."

"Go and do it."

Sui Zimo didn't want to hear what he had to say anymore, so he just said two words lightly.

"yes."

What else could Jiang Zuo do but respond.

Time passed day by day. Zhong You went back to Yacun, but he didn't arrive so soon.

But Lin Changhong and Lin Chushui, one on crutches and the other dressed like a village woman, arrived at Yacun.

Looking at the door of his home in front of him, Lin Changhong swallowed.

"Chu Shui, we're home."

"Yeah, we're finally home." Lin Chushui also sighed quietly.

It was really not easy for them on this journey. Their feet were blistered and they did not dare to ride any more.

But fortunately, with Lin Changhong's permission, I could change my appearance and ride a carriage for a few days, which would be a taste of something new.

"Arin, please slow down and just take a few steps less every day. Why bother..."

Early in the morning, the courtyard door was opened. Lin Baiyi carefully supported Yang Lin with a big belly and walked out. He had just finished speaking half of his words when he saw the strange people at the door of his house. He couldn't help but be startled. .

"When did so many beggars come to our Ya Village? Why didn't I hear about them?"

He turned his head quietly and looked at Yang Lin.

As for him, Lin Baiyi, since his family's life has become better, he has become a figure in the village. He knows the latest news in the village every day.

But these beggars.

"There are still many things you don't know. Why are you still standing here? Didn't you see that they are all hungry? Hurry up and get some food..." Just do a good deed that day.

Before Yang Lin could finish his last sentence, he was interrupted by a sound coming towards him.

"Third uncle, third aunt."

Lin Changhong and Lin Chushui shouted to them at the same time.

Lin Baiyi: "..."

He looked at the two people in front of him with a confused expression.

"You...you are..."

There weren't many people who would call them uncle and aunt. Liu Yushui was still taking care of her children at home. Liu Qingshui... was arrested and sent to serve as a soldier, and there was no way he could come back so soon.

That is...

"Chang Hong?! Chu Shui?! Is it really you?!"

"Third uncle, yes, it's us." Lin Changhong responded.

"You...how did you end up like this?"

Lin Baiyi couldn't believe his eyes. Are these still their two nephews?

They were just two real beggars, pretending to be a man and a woman. If they hadn't made a sound, would it be weird for him to recognize them?

"It's hard to explain. Third uncle and third aunt, please let us in first. We are almost starving to death." Lin Changhong said, pulling Lin Chushui into the yard.

"Yes, yes, let's go in first."

Lin Baiyi hurriedly responded, making way for the two of them, and also allowing the few people behind them to enter the house together.

...

After a while, the two of them changed into clean clothes and walked out of the room. Lin Changhong had a dark face and looked at the girl with a crooked mouth.

"Stop laughing, what's so funny?" he asked, frowning.

"If it weren't for our outfits, Chu Shui and I wouldn't be able to come back. Do you know that those killers are so powerful that they almost twisted our necks off?"

Chapter 1468 They are all here for Chu Shui!

He made a gesture of wiping his neck, and then raised his eyebrows at Lin Chushui.

"Yes, Sister Sang Sang, those people are really powerful." Lin Chushui also said.

"I know, I know."

Lin Caisang nodded, but the corners of his mouth were still curved.

There was nothing she could do. Her eldest brother's eye-catching outfit was so deeply ingrained in her heart that she couldn't forget it. What could she do?

"Brother, I realize now that the most powerful person in our family is not me, but you!"

She gave her eldest brother a thumbs up and praised him.

He can put this terrifying costume on himself, what else can't he do?

"I won't tell you anymore, Chu Shui. We are going to eat. We have been hungry for several meals. Pulling Lin Chushui, he rolled his eyes at his sister and went directly to the main room.

"Sister Sangsang, I have something to talk to you later."

Lin Chushui was pulled by him, turned his head to look at Lin Caisang, and said.

As for the Yue Chong couple who were notified and came down from Menghuang Mountain, please forgive him for not even giving them a look.

"Let's go eat first. We have plenty of time to talk." Lin Caisang said to him.

"Um."

Lin Chushui responded and then followed Lin Changhong to eat.

Yue Chong and Luo Mianyi on the side: "..."

Were the two of them called down just to see their son's cold attitude towards them?

Moreover, why should it be so? My son told Lin Caisang that he had something to say to her, but here they didn't even look at her, as if they didn't exist.

"Uncle Yue, Aunt Luo, Chu Shui has lived in a very bad environment since he was a child. This has led him to trust no one but his own temperament. I hope you two can understand him."

Lin Caisang turned around and saw the ugly expressions on the two people's faces, and said something quickly.

However, as soon as she said these words, she felt that something was wrong. It seemed that it was getting darker and darker. There was no suspicion of three hundred taels of silver here.

In the end, she could only smile awkwardly at the two of them and prepare to walk away.

Who knew...

"Sangsang, wait, I have something to tell you."

Before he even moved his steps, he heard his eldest brother's voice ringing in his ears.

When she turned around, she saw her eldest brother walking towards her with two buns in one hand and one in the other hand, still stuffed in his mouth.

"You said it," she said.

However, Lin Changhong was not prepared to say anything here. He glanced at Yue Chong and Luo Mianyi, and then pulled Lin Caisang away to the corner.

"Let's go over there and talk over there."

"What's going on?"

When they reached the corner, Lin Caisang shook off her eldest brother's hand that was holding her sleeve tightly and asked.

"Sang Sang, do you know? Those people chased us all the way from Jian'an City to Ye County. They want to dig holes all along the road. If there is any hole, we will be buried."

"Isn't that normal?"

Lin Caisang shrugged and said.

Aren't the people on Qianhuan Continent all good at everything? Killing a few people is nothing to them, right?

"Mom, haven't you been discovered?" she asked.

Anyway, she and Brother Mo Lian will have to be hunted down like this in the future, so they should just adapt in advance...

"Why don't you understand that those people are all here for Chu Shui!" Lin Changhong roared in a low voice when he saw that she didn't understand.

"Um?"

This time, Lin Caisang's eyes became really sharp.

Chapter 1469 No ability at all

Turning her head, she looked at Yue Chong and Luo Mianyi. By coincidence, they were also looking towards her. They must have heard Lin Changhong's last words, or in other words, they heard what the two brothers and sisters said.

"Are you here for Chu Shui? This is quite interesting, Uncle Yue and Aunt Luo, don't you think so?"

The faces of Yue Chong and Luo Mianyi could not be darker.

They haven't brought their son back yet, but the people over there are already eager to kill and silence him? Chu Shui can't even practice spiritual cultivation now, so what do they have to worry about?

Taking a deep breath, Yue Chong gritted his teeth.

"Miss Lin, please rest assured, Chu Shui is our son, we will definitely..."

"What the hell are we worried about?"

Before Yue Chong could finish what he said, Lin Changhong couldn't help but curse.

"If we didn't have some skills this time and knew how to avoid the eyes of those people, we might not be able to come back! Next time, is there a next time? The next time Ren Chu Shui is taken away by you, that is Directly under everyone's noses.

What do you know? Will you and your wife guard Chu Shui at all times? Even if it's a gourd, you can't keep it on your waistband all the time, right? "

Those people tried their best to kill them on the road. If Chu Shui was exposed in the future, he might be framed and harmed in some way. Can he let go of this?

"Sang Sang, why don't we let Chu Shui go? You are just kidding with your life."

He looked at his sister and suggested.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang helplessly shook her head at her eldest brother.

"What, Sangsang, do you have to let Chu Shui die?" Seeing her shaking her head, Lin Changhong became anxious.

But you have to listen to your sister, right? But Lin Chushui can be considered a member of the Lin family, so he can't just ignore it, right?

"Brother, how did you speak?"

Lin Caisang couldn't help but roll her eyes at her eldest brother.

What does it mean that she asked Chu Shui to die? In the eyes of her elder brother, is she such a cruel person?

"No, Sangsang, it was my brother who said the wrong thing just now."

Lin Changhong saw that his sister was angry and apologized quickly, but after he apologized, he felt that Lin Chushui really couldn't leave.

"But Sang Sang, Chu Shui has no abilities now. You want him to go to Qianhuan Continent. This is not...anyway, I think it would be better for him to stay in our home."

Lin Caisang: "..."

Brother, can you stop saying in front of so many people that the Lin family has no abilities?

Does saying this make you more proud?

Lin Chushui, who had just walked out of the main room with a bowl in hand: "..."

Brother, is this how you see me? Why do I have no ability at all?

Even if he is incompetent, right? But at least he is studying seriously. He is only eleven years old. He is still many years away from adulthood. Will he not be able to learn slowly?

"Brother, don't ask me about this matter. It depends on what Chu Shui wants to do. The decision is in Chu Shui's hands." Lin Caisang said to his eldest brother.

"Then Chu Shui won't listen to you in everything?"

Lin Changhong's direct words stunned his girl.

"If you ask him to go east, will he dare to go west? Just listen to him. I'm sure he will come and ask you what you want later."

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

She glanced sideways and glanced at Yue Chong and his wife, whose faces had turned extremely dark after listening to the words of the two brothers and sisters.

Then he looked sideways and looked at Lin Chushui, who was standing at the entrance of the main room with an embarrassed look on his face.

Chapter 1470 It's up to me

Raising her hand to support her forehead, she sighed heavily.

"Brother, let's listen to Chu Shui."

She also really wanted to yell at her eldest brother, she was only thirteen years old, please, don't mess with the Lin family, it's like she, the little girl, is in charge.

Although it seemed to be a bit like that, she really didn't want to.

"That's okay."

Lin Changhong nodded when he saw his sister say this.

"Since you don't want to make the decision for Chu Shui, then let me make the decision. Anyway, we can't let Chu Shui just follow outsiders. Who knows if he will be able to come back after leaving."

As he spoke, he looked at Yue Chong and Luo Mianyi provocatively.

"Mr. Lin, the two of us will definitely take good care of Chu Shui. He is our child, so of course we..." Luo Mianyi opened her mouth, wanting to assure Lin Changhong that they would never let Chu Shui lose a hair.

However, Lin Changhong also did not give her a chance to finish her sentence.

"Come on."

He waved his hand disdainfully at Luo Mianyi.

"You don't still want me to believe you, do you? Look, this is still the Liang Kingdom, and they are constantly chasing and killing. If you really love Chu Shui, wouldn't you even think of this?"

What he encountered was being chased, not that he accidentally fell into the river, or that he committed suicide!

You all failed to protect Lin Chushui here, but you can still protect her. Let me believe you. I would rather believe that my pigs can climb trees! "

Hearing this, Lin Caisang secretly stretched out his hand and gave a thumbs up to his eldest brother!

Although Lin Chushui would eventually leave with Yue Chong and his wife, if there was no warning, the couple would definitely not take those assassinations to heart.

For a son who has been away from them for many years and has never seen him before, apart from the initial excitement of learning the truth, how sincere can he be?

"Brother, what you said is a bit serious. Uncle Yue and Aunt Luo are Chu Shui's parents after all. How can parents not feel sorry for their children."

Seeing Luo Mianyi's face turned red at Lin Changhong's words, she spoke up and gave Luo Mianyi a step down.

"Why don't you let me make the decision? Let Chu Shui stay at home for a while and think carefully about whether to go or stay. This is a major event in life and cannot be decided so casually.

Chu Shui, what do you think? "

As she said that, she looked at Lin Chushui.

"I listen to Sister Sangsang."

Lin Chushui naturally had no objections. He wanted to stay here for a while longer.

"Chu Shui, this..."

When Luo Mianyi heard her son's words, she opened her mouth to retort, but her sleeve was pulled down by Yue Chong beside her.

She stopped talking and looked sideways at Yue Chong.

"Brother Chong..."

"Say less. If Chu Shui wants to stay a little longer, then we will stay with him for a little longer." Yue Chong warned Luo Mianyi with his eyes, then raised his head, looked at Lin Chushui, and said gently.

"Um."

Lin Chushui looked at them with stiff eyes, but still nodded.

...

"Brother Chong, what on earth do you mean?"

Back on Menghuang Mountain, Luo Mianyi finally couldn't help asking Yue Chong what she was holding back in her heart.

"Why are we still staying? Can't we just go back with Chu Shui?"

She didn't want to stay in this miserable place for a moment. She watched Lin Caisang arrogantly in front of them every day. Now that she was fine, she still had to watch their son fawning over Lin Caisang.
