

Star of Space 1561

Chapter 1561 Could it be more terrifying?

Although he has nothing to be afraid of, he must definitely protect his son.

He asked as she took out a mirror.

"This."

Lin Caisang looked at the mirror in his hand, slightly curling his red lips.

"Just watch."

As she spoke, she held the square-looking mirror in her hand with both hands and placed it on the ground.

The next moment, the originally small mirror actually became very large and stood directly on the ground, printing everyone on it.

"Jade mirror..."

Sui Zimo twitched the corner of his mouth and was speechless.

His son actually moved the jade mirror here, could it be more terrifying?

"Sang'er, how could the jade mirror be moved here? What if..."

"There is no such thing as a jade mirror. This is not a jade mirror." Lin Caisang looked at him and said.

How could that Jade Mirror guy be able to move it? Even if he could move it, she would not move the Jade Mirror here rashly.

"Um?"

Sui Zimo raised his eyebrows and looked at her.

"This is really not a jade mirror. It's a dust mirror. It can see the essence that human eyes cannot see. It's just a magic weapon."

Seeing his confusion, Lin Caisang explained.

"I just learned about it just now. It turns out that in this mission, the one who can produce magic weapons is really an advantage for us. We got such a good thing."

"You mean... we can take this dust mirror out?" Sui Zimo lowered his voice and asked her.

"Yeah."

Lin Caisang nodded.

While the two were chatting enthusiastically, the people in the county looked at the reflections in the looking glass and became uneasy.

Who are these people, and why are they completely unrecognizable?

"Who is this? This is not us. It is a monster. It is a monster!"

Someone yelled, covering his face and not daring to look at the dust mirror again, for fear that the person reflected in the mirror would be himself.

If that is the case, it would be terrible. How could they become so old? Even if they did not eat the flesh of the demons and become younger, they would not become so old!

"Liar, this is all a lie. You people just don't like us. It's impossible for us not to kill those damn demons."

Someone pointed at Lin Caisang and said angrily.

"hehe."

Lin Caisang really laughed out loud.

It's so hard to tell the truth these days, and she is really speechless.

"Since you think I am a liar, then I am a liar."

With that said, she took back the telescope and handed it to Sui Zimo, asking him to put it away for her. Then she turned around and looked at Shi Qi and the others.

"You go back to the elders first, and leave the matters here to us."

These people really make them unable to stand it anymore. If they don't teach them a lesson, they will lose their ability, right?

"good."

Shi Qi nodded and leaned slightly towards Lin Caisang.

"Here you go, girl."

"Um."

Lin Caisang responded lightly.

Then, she turned her attention to the people in front of her.

"Since you don't believe the facts and don't listen to advice, then...let's talk with your fists. Red gold and red silver. Beat them until they don't even recognize their parents!"

She ordered to the red gold and red silver.

"Yes, Master."

Hong Gold and Hong Silver responded and walked towards those people.

Then, Qiuniang's husband looked at those people and started to scream, and after a burst of chickens and dogs...

Chapter 1562 Three Beatings a Day

Finally, silence returned. Those who were still talking arrogantly now no longer even spoke or screamed. They were all sitting and lying on the ground.

"You, you are simply not human!"

The one who was beaten the least could not help but look at Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo who were standing watching them being beaten.

But he didn't dare to speak too loudly, he just muttered in a low voice for fear of being beaten again. These two people from Wuzhu Teahouse were really untouchable.

"Compared to you, what do we mean?" Lin Caisang smiled, not taking his words seriously at all.

These people, if they don't give them a thorough lesson, they still think that they are gods in the sky. To them, everyone else is like ants, and they can knead them!

"Why, do you still want my red gold and red silver to continue? What I did just now is just an appetizer for them.

"no, do not want."

Everyone was frightened when they heard her words.

They're all about to be beaten to death, okay, and it's just an appetizer?

If this is just an appetizer, then how will they be beaten, and how many of them will be willing to give up?

"Such a person should be beaten to death.

Sui Zimo looked at them coldly and said something to Lin Caisang.

The worst thing is that their mission failed, and he really has no eyes for these people.

I feel that every one of them has to die without a burial place to be considered as eliminating harm for the people!

After hearing Sui Zimo's words, those people dared not speak. They wished they could grow wings and fly out of this county and never come back.

These two people are really cruel. How could they have offended them? Why did they yell at them as soon as they came over? Did they really do something wrong?

"Forget it, Brother Melian, why are you arguing with them so much?"

Lin Caisang let out a heavy breath. Just now, she wanted to scold these people and beat them three times a day, just like eating.

But looking at their innocent looks, she suddenly thought about it.

What does she have to care about with these people who have entered a dead end? No matter how much she cares about, it will only make herself angry.

And those people in front of them still thought that she and her brother Melian were ignorant and hindered their plan of immortality. Maybe they were secretly scolding them to death.

"Let's do this. The elders have already decided the life and death of these people. Now it's up to me to deal with them. From now on, let them beautify the environment for the demons, so as to avoid killing people in this place."

She looked at those people with faint eyes and spoke word by word.

"What?!"

When those people heard her words, they seemed to have heard a fantasy, and their eyes were full of disbelief.

"We won't go to demons, ghost places like demons, we..."

"Letting you go to the land of the demons is a compliment to you. Otherwise, you would just die here. Do you really think that eating the meat of the demons will make you immortal?"

Lin Caisang interrupted them sharply.

"In a few days, you will know what you have caused. When wrinkles begin to appear on your face, your skin begins to turn sallow, your limbs begin to lose control, and your eyes begin to see clearly.

You will be able to know how stupid your current behavior is! "

Chapter 1563 If you die, you will die in vain!

"us....."

I have to say that what Lin Caisang said really scared the people in the county.

They are now younger and different from before, but they were not that old before. Wrinkles, sallow skin, these words have nothing to do with them, not to mention now, even before. ah.

"No way, no way."

Some people were afraid when they spoke, swallowing their saliva and shaking their heads.

"Girl... girl, we... we haven't eaten those things that we shouldn't eat, wouldn't we... wouldn't we be like them?" The man behind Lin Caisang asked Lin Caisang.

After hearing those words, not to mention other people, even him, was afraid that he would become like what Lin Caisang said.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang turned his head and glanced at the man.

"If you haven't eaten, you won't be like that."

"Oh, oh oh."

After hearing this, the man breathed a sigh of relief and finally felt relieved.

Fortunately, he insisted on his own ideas and refused to associate with these people. Otherwise, his fate would be the same as those people, and he didn't want to end up like this.

The key is that his two children are still young. If it turns out like that, he won't even be able to find a place to cry.

However, even though he breathed a sigh of relief, someone in the county didn't want to make it easy for him, so they rushed out and pointed at the man and cursed.

"You fart!"

Seeing the person rushing out, the man was stunned, but he didn't reply.

"You think I don't know. You are a relative of Xiaoyu's family. There is so much meat in Xiaoyu's family. How could you not eat it? Maybe your family eats the most."

The man who rushed out shouted at him.

"Who doesn't want to live forever? The people in Xiaoyu's family must have told you, right? That's weird if you don't eat it!"

"I just didn't eat it!"

The man heard his words and immediately spoke.

"Those things are not something people should eat at all. Why should I eat them? And that black thing on top of the altar is not a good thing at first glance.

If something is really good, how could it be black? I have seen all the beautiful things in color. How could it be so black? "

He was also obsessed with ghosts. Why did he follow his wife to this place to visit relatives?

How wonderful it would be if I didn't come to this damn place!

It would be better if he was involved in such a terrible thing and almost killed himself and his two children!

He swore that as long as he left this place in the future, he would never come back again, even if his wife stalked her again, he would never come back again.

However, he was actually quite conflicted. If he had not come, he would not have been able to send his wife out, and everyone in the county would have died.

Of course, whether these people die or not has nothing to do with him.

The key is that the terrible things done by people in this county cannot be exposed to the world.

Those demons died in vain!

"You all still don't know what you did wrong until now. I want to ask you, if the demons heard that they could live forever by eating our human flesh, would you also let them die? Are they here to eat your flesh?"

These individuals are really terrible. They have such evil thoughts and yet they actually think they are right.

Chapter 1564 Wake up!

"As for you people, this girl is right. Even if you die ten thousand times, you will not be able to atone for the sins you have committed!"

"you you....."

"You..."

Those people were scolded thoroughly, but they couldn't even utter a word in rebuttal.

What can they say?

As the man said, are they still willing to let the demons eat their flesh?

This is of course impossible, absolutely impossible!

There was nothing more to say. Those who were still very angry and wanted to kill Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo quickly, because of Hong Jin and Hong Yin, no one dared to do anything to them.

In the end, I could only go home in despair.

On the other side, Lin Caisang and Sui Zi Mo Sangsang returned to the yard where the old patriarch and the others were, and came to the place where Xiaoyu and his family were imprisoned.

"Girl, Master, can you...can you not kill them?"

The man's wife, the woman who went to Wuzhu Tea House to ask for their help, has been picked up and reunited with her husband and children.

Seeing Xiaoyu's family being tied up, she cried with tears on her face and begged Lin Caisang.

Hearing her words, Lin Caisang just glanced at her coldly, and then looked at the man beside her.

"Madam, why are you so stupid? This family is hopeless. Look at what they have become now. They are no longer the kind-hearted people they used to be.

The man pulled his wife aside and lowered his voice to persuade her.

"But....."

The wife looked at her husband with tears in her eyes.

"Okay, don't bother."

The man couldn't stand it anymore and shouted at her sharply.

"Don't you even look at how many demons Xiaoyu and his family have killed? Didn't you also see the thick white bones? Do you think those demons should all die?"

"I...I didn't think so, but Xiaoyu...she is my childhood friend after all." The woman said softly.

"Friends what friends?"

The man was almost angry at her words.

"If she was really your friend, when we came to see her, would she not listen to your advice to her? Would she still force us to eat the same meat as them?"

If she really regards you as her friend, will she not let you leave and force you to do evil with her?

Please wake me up quickly! "

"I....."

The woman opened her mouth, not knowing what to say.

"besides."

The man suddenly thought of another thing, frowned at his wife, and spoke.

"When I sent you away, did you promise anything to Xiaoyu's family? Huh?"

"this....."

The woman's face suddenly turned ugly when he questioned her.

"I just...just...Xiaoyu asked me to go to Wuzhu Teahouse to find someone to help them. That's right. I just thought that if I find someone from Wuzhu Teahouse to help them, you and the child can come back. Isn't that just right?"

So I went to find Mrs. Mo. She had also received help from people at Wuzhu Teahouse before. After her introduction, I went to Wuzhu Teahouse..."

"You are so confused!"

The man looked at his wife and sighed heavily.

It's not that I went to Wuzhu Tea House to find help for my wife, but...

"With your appearance, you will be sold by Xiaoyu's family and you still don't know anything!"

Chapter 1565 No, no difference

"I'm not worried about you." The woman muttered softly.

"snort!"

The man snorted loudly.

"I tell you, Xiaoyu and his family deserve what they deserve. Don't even think about interceding for them! Today they are eating the flesh of the demons. If tomorrow they think they can live forever by eating the flesh of the human race, will that mean that they will not be able to live forever even if they eat the flesh of the demons?" Will you eat all the meat?"

"This...this is impossible, right?"

After hearing his words, the woman was obviously frightened, and she was still a little unable to recover.

"How is it impossible? That family is not human at all. They have become a family of lunatics!" the man said angrily.

Otherwise, how could they do such crazy things? Eating the flesh of demons, it's a shame they can think of it, it's simply too terrifying to imagine!

"Think about it, if we hadn't reluctantly agreed to stay with them in order to save our lives, they might have killed our family of four long ago, and our meat would have entered their mouths sooner or later!

Do you think I'm scaring you? Xiaoyu's family can really do anything! "

"hiss!"

The woman gasped.

"I...I won't say anything. I won't say anything."

She covered her mouth, shook her head, and said in horror.

Looking back now, it was really like this. If her husband-in-law and Xiaoyu's family hadn't made false promises, their family of four might have actually been killed.

This is really something that a cruel person like Xiaoyu can do.

"After this matter is settled this time, forget about this place and stop visiting your natal family."

Seeing that she finally came to her senses, the man warned her again.

"ah?"

The woman obviously didn't respond and opened her mouth not knowing how to reply.

"Ms. sir, my mother's family doesn't have much..."

"How different are your parents' family from Xiaoyu's family?" the man asked her.

"No, there's no difference."

The woman shook her head, remembering that when she wanted to leave, her father and mother also came to persuade them to stay and not leave.

Remembering that her mother had threatened her back then, if she wanted to leave, she would definitely not be able to leave. It would be better to stay and enjoy the happiness with them. She also said that she would become younger and younger in the future, look like a flower, and how many men she wanted. You can even warm her bed.

Thinking of this, she felt chills in her heart and felt so terrible.

These people have been so obsessed that they no longer remember who they were.

"Then...when will we go back."

She was frightened when she thought that everyone here was eating the flesh of the demons. She thought about leaving quickly, not wanting to stay here for a moment.

"Come on, you can go back when things here are settled." The man said.

Thinking about it, Xiaoyu's family will receive the punishment they deserve, and the people at Wuzhu Tea House will always find a way to deal with that black thing, right?

When things here are settled, he will take his wife and children home, and he will have nothing to do with this place from now on.

"You don't have to interrupt anymore, do you understand?"

Thinking about it, he warned his wife again.

"Okay, I understand, I won't say anything." The woman nodded quickly in response.

Even if she wanted to say something, she didn't dare. Xiaoyu's family was really terrible. She was so scared before.

Chapter 1566 Murder is illegal!

She wanted to save Xiaoyu just now because she was her childhood friend, and she couldn't bear it. But now that she was reminded, how could she dare to save Xiaoyu.

If Xiaoyu is saved, she might harm more people in the future.

On the other side, Lin Caisang looked at Xiaoyu's family and sneered in his heart.

"Don't kill me, don't kill me. If you want to kill, just kill that... that evil spirit. It's the one who bewitched me. What does it have to do with me? Those demons were all killed by that evil spirit. , not me, not me."

Xiaoyu was still there, howling and screaming.

What those words meant was that killing so many demons had nothing to do with her at all.

She was bewitched, and all these things were done by the evil spirit, or in other words, other people in her family did it with the evil spirit. She was just an innocent person, and she couldn't be more innocent.

"I've never seen such a person before. I've seen it."

Lin Caisang glanced sideways and looked at Sui Zimo aside.

Sui Zimo raised his hand, rubbed her head a few times, and then melted the medicine Lin Caisang handed him into the bowls of water on the table.

"Elder, I'm sorry to trouble you."

He said to the old patriarch and the others.

"Um."

The old patriarch responded softly.

Then he turned his head and looked at the demons behind him.

"You guys, give them these bowls of medicine. Not even a drop will be left."

"yes."

Several demon clan members took the order, picked up the medicine on the table and walked towards Xiaoyu and his family.

When several people saw this, they all tried desperately to shrink back.

"Don't come here, don't come here. You can't kill us, you can't kill us. Killing is against the law. You will be punished. People from the government will come to arrest you."

Xiaoyu looked at the medicine bowls in the hands of the demons in horror, shook her head and said to them.

"This is the first time I've heard that murder is illegal!"

The words "murder is against the law" are taken very seriously by those demon clan members.

If killing is illegal, then these people in front of you have killed so many demons, how come they are still fine now?

Is it just that no one reported them?

No matter how hard they struggled, they couldn't resist the strength of the demons. Furthermore, they were still tied up and couldn't resist at all. They could only watch as a large bowl of potion was poured into them.

"Ahem, ahem."

After being poured with potion, several people wanted to spit it out, but unfortunately, it was impossible.

"Drag them to the altar." The old patriarch ordered the demon clan members.

The next moment, Xiaoyu and his family were dragged out of the room by the demons like dead dogs.

On the altar.

Xiaoyu's family was dragged here from the street, which naturally attracted many people from the county.

They wanted to snatch the person back, but with Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo following them, and red gold and red silver beside them, how could they dare to snatch him?

They could only watch helplessly as Xiaoyu and the others were dragged to the altar and then tied to the stone pillars.

The demons walked down.

Lin Caisang moved the Wind Spirit Whip in his hand and wanted to draw wounds on Xiaoyu and the others.

But before he could move, he was held by a hand.

"Brother Mo Lian..."

"Let me do it."

Sui Zimo shook his head towards her and said.

Chapter 1567 They don't dare

How could he be willing to let his son's hands get stained with that evil blood? It was better for him to do this kind of thing.

As he spoke, a long sword appeared in his hand. The long sword came out and cut towards Xiaoyu and the others' wrists. The next second, blood spurted out.

"ah!"

Even though I have seen it many times before, the demon clan member's wrist was cut and bleeding.

But now the people who were being cut and bleeding were humans, and they were people from their county. Many people still screamed in surprise.

Xiaoyu and his family were all struggling and screaming, trying to escape, but unfortunately they couldn't escape.

"Let us go, why do you want to kill me? Let me go." Xiaoyu's scarlet eyes showed the fear of death, as well as the resentment towards Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo.

They were obviously living a good life and just living their own lives. Why did the two people from Wuzhu Teahouse come over and let them die?

Why is that? She just wants to live forever. What's wrong with that?

It makes no sense why people from the demon race can live longer than their human race. She wants to live longer, and there is nothing wrong with that. No one can find anything wrong with her!

"Let me go, you bitches, you are just jealous that I am getting younger, and you are deliberately going against me. You will not die well, you will not die well!"

"It's so noisy.

Lin Caisang took a step forward and came to Sui Zimo's side.

Sui Zimo glanced at Lin Caisang, and then turned his attention to Xiaoyu's family.

"Aren't you able to kill demons at will? Can you also drain their blood? Now, I will let you watch your own blood being drained with your own eyes. This feeling should be pretty good, right?"

He asked Xiaoyu and his family.

Then he turned around and glanced at the people from the county standing behind them with his sharp eyes.

"Did you see that? If anyone dares to kill people wantonly in this place again, their fate will be the same fate that you will have in the future!"

How could those people not be afraid when they saw that Xiaoyu's family, who had been able to talk to them before and would lead them to kill the demon clan members, were tied to the stone pillars without any resistance.

At this time, they really wanted to run away, leave this terrible place, and leave the two people from Wuzhu Tea House.

But they don't dare.

Because Hong Jin Hong Yin, who was originally standing behind Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo, didn't know when he had reached the end and was looking at them with wide eyes.

It was as if if they dared to move, the red gold and red silver would make them end up like Xiaoyu's family.

This feeling was so terrible that they did not dare to move and could only watch Xiaoyu's family being punished.

"Don't be complacent. That demon only sucks the blood of demons. We are human beings. It won't suck my blood at all. I won't die! Your calculations are wrong. I... "

"laugh."

Lin Caisang sneered.

"You don't really think that eating so much demon flesh will affect your own body, right? You are already half a demon body."

She said to Xiaoyu.

"This... is impossible, it's impossible, don't try to lie to me, the demon will not... ah!"

Before Xiaoyu could finish her words, she saw a ball of black energy coming out from under the altar, moving closer to her father little by little.

Chapter 1568 Run, run out

She was frightened all of a sudden. After screaming, her scalp felt numb and she couldn't say a word.

"No, don't come over, don't come over."

She murmured, looking at the blood on her wrist that was just dripping down, as if it was sucked by something, and flew towards the black air in a steady stream.

"No, I don't want to die, I don't want..."

Soon, she couldn't even speak, her eyes became blurry, and she could no longer see the black gas. She just felt that she couldn't struggle or even move.

And those who were watching under the altar, when they saw the mass of Qi, they all gasped and took a step back involuntarily.

"Sonny, stay back.

Sui Zimo saw that the demon had almost sucked the human blood, so he pushed Lin Caisang behind him.

According to his speculation, even if he ate the poison refined by Sonner, the devil would not be poisoned immediately, and there would definitely be a process of resistance.

really.....

As soon as he pushed Lin Caisang behind him, he saw a mouthful of dark blood spurting out from Mosha's black aura.

It should be the blood of Xiaoyu's family that was sucked before.

When it took the last bite, it noticed it and spit out the blood.

Then, he saw the ball of Chi Qi flying back and forth several times on the stone pillar of Xiaoyu's family. After pausing in mid-air for a while, Zhizi rushed towards the direction where Sui Zimo and the others were standing. .

"ah!"

"Help, run, run out."

When people in the county town saw the evil spirit coming towards them, they were so frightened that they ran away with their heads in their hands.

Why would they care about Hong Gold and Hong Yin behind them at this moment? After all, being caught by Hong Gold and Hong Silver would only result in a beating, but being caught by that mass of black energy would be life-threatening.

However, everyone thought too much and saw the demon rushing towards them like crazy.

But when he rushed out of the altar, he was blocked by a ray of silver light emitted from all sides of the altar.

There was a 'bang' sound.

Mo Sha was knocked to the ground, and a lot of black blood splattered out.

"Tsk, but this demon can't get out of this altar." Lin Caisang poked his head out from behind Sui Zimo and said.

"Um."

Sui Zimo responded.

But in response to the sound, he still held the long sword in his hand, staring at the demon with his dark eyes, not daring to relax for a moment.

Who knows if something might go wrong with this altar? What if the evil spirit escapes? He will definitely not let Mo Sha have any opportunity to take advantage of him.

"Dare-hurt-me!"

Sure enough, as Sui Zimo expected, Mosha became angry after discovering that he had been killed.

"hiss!"

The old patriarch was frightened by the sound the demon made and gasped.

"It...it can actually talk."

Mosha has never been able to speak in the demon clan. Although he is a thoughtful person, there is still a long way to go before he can speak.

And the demon under this altar is actually powerful enough to speak.

Although it spoke in a unclear voice, it must have had difficulty speaking these three words, but it still completely shocked the old patriarch.

"What should I do? It's really too powerful."

He looked at Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo worriedly, taking a step back involuntarily, feeling an urge to run away in his heart.

"Red gold, red silver, come here."

Sui Zimo also sensed that something was wrong and immediately called Hong Jin Hong Yin over.

Chapter 1569: Hit it like this

"Sonny, go over there and let the red gold and red silver protect you."

He pushed Lin Caisang towards Hong Jin and Hong Yin and said.

"I....."

Lin Caisang wanted to say that he did not need protection.

But after a change of heart, he nodded and agreed.

At this time, she didn't want to cause trouble to Sui Zimo, knowing that with her current ability, she wouldn't be able to survive a few rounds under this evil spirit.

"I will protect myself, Brother Mo Lian, please be careful."

She nodded, warned Sui Zi Mo Jinsheng, and then handed the Wind Spirit Whip in her hand to him.

"good."

Sui Zimo responded softly and raised his hand to touch her face.

"Put away the Wind Spirit Whip, I don't need it." He glanced at the Wind Spirit Whip handed to him by Lin Caisang and said.

The Wind Spirit Whip is a good thing. If it can be used in his hand, it will definitely make him more powerful, but he doesn't need it, he really doesn't need it.

What he needs at this moment is to use the long sword in his hand more freely, instead of reaching for other more powerful weapons when something happens.

"Oh well."

Lin Caisang took back the Wind Spirit Whip, then walked a little away from the altar, always looking at the angry demon on the altar who was angry and wanted to rush out of the altar.

"Hongjin, Hongyin can protect me here. You go and help Brother Mo Lian deal with the evil spirit.

She ordered to Hong Jin.

"Yes, Master."

Hongjin has no independent thoughts of his own, so he will naturally do whatever Lin Caisang says.

Without the guards of Hong Gold and Red Silver, the people in the county all ran away without a trace in an instant, and many of them found a nearby place to hide.

The shining silver cover was shaken violently by the demon.

And with every impact of the demon, the black blood was knocked out again and again, splattering on the altar.

Looking at the black blood, Lin Caisang frowned.

This can't go on like this. The black blood has been knocked out. Isn't the blood sucked by the evil spirit useless at all?

"Brother Mo Lian, no, we can't let it crash like this again."

She took a step forward again and said to Sui Zimo with a face on her face.

"I come over....."

Sui Zimo also glanced at the black blood on the altar, and his expression was not very good at the moment.

However, before he finished speaking, he was interrupted by Lin Caisang.

"It's better that I go with you. Although I'm not as powerful as you, I still have the Wind Spirit Whip, not to mention the red gold and red silver."

Fighting alone, let alone facing something like a demon, how could she fall behind?

What's more, they know very well in their hearts that no matter how hard they fight here, even if they die, it doesn't matter. If they don't take advantage of this time to practice their skills, when will they wait?

"Sonny..."

Sui Zimo obviously disagreed with Lin Caisang's risk and frowned.

But before he could say anything, the little girl raised her hand again to stop him.

"This place is different from the outside, Brother Mo Lian. If I don't strengthen myself here, if I go outside, I will really have to live under your protection forever."

Sui Zimo: "..."

It has to be said that Lin Caisang's words successfully convinced him.

Yes, when they get outside, even he himself doesn't know what kind of danger they will face in the future.

Chapter 1570 Here comes a man lying on his back

If we don't take advantage of this moment to become stronger, then when will we wait?

Even he himself had this idea in his heart, let alone his little son?

"Then...be careful and let the red gold and red silver protect you."

After thinking about it again and again, although I couldn't bear to let the little girl get hurt, I still... I could only watch her grow slowly. It was still too late to start growing now, right?

"good."

Lin Caisang nodded in response.

"Elder, you'd better take all the demons and leave here. If this demon really breaks out, you demons will be the first to bear the brunt. What it lacks now is the blood of the demons. You... Just what it meant."

"Okay, let's leave now, but...girls, young master, please be careful. The old patriarch took a deep breath, warned the two of them, and immediately left with the demon clan members.

Looking at the empty place, Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo looked at each other.

"Walk."

The two of them raised their feet and rushed towards the altar, but who knew...

'boom! '

There was a loud noise, and before the two of them could enter the altar, they were bounced back by the silver light shield.

The body fell to the ground and spread out.

"I go!"

Lin Caisang held the Wind Spirit Whip tightly with one hand and covered his forehead with the other free hand.

There, it was knocked out by the silver light shield. She thought, it would swell up soon, right? This silver light mask is amazing!

"Sonny, get up.

Sui Zimo was also beaten to pieces, but he got up immediately and came over to help Lin Caisang up.

"Is it okay?" he asked.

Lin Caisang shook his head, "It's okay."

Looking up, she looked at the demon who was still hitting the silver light shield.

"There is actually a place in this place that we can't enter." She turned her eyes back to Sui Zimo with some surprise.

"That can only mean that this silver light shield is not something that the evil spirit can break out just because it wants to." Sui Zimo's faint eyes were also looking at the silver light shield and he said.

However, even if the evil spirit cannot come out, as long as it still exists in this county, it will not be peaceful.

The people in this small county have been so darkened by profit that they can do any evil things. This time they stopped the people in this small county, but what about next time?

"No matter what, this evil spirit must be eliminated!"

He looked at Mosha steadily and said.

"Brother Mo Lian, do you feel that the evil spirit seems to have become much smaller from just now to now?"

Suddenly, Lin Caisang asked him.

"Um?"

Sui Zimo raised his eyebrows and looked at Mo Sha seriously.

"seems like it."

He nodded.

Compared with the black energy before, the evil spirit now is indeed much smaller than before, just like after the black blood was removed...

"It's those black bloods!"

He understood that after the black blood was splashed out, the evil spirits corroded by the black blood were also knocked away and then disappeared.

"Yes, those black bloods."

Lin Caisang also figured it out and nodded.

It seems that her poison is still very useful. At least this evil spirit can no longer cause any big troubles.

"Let it crash like this. It won't be long before it is completely destroyed."

She curled her lips and said.

...

'boom--'

After a loud noise, everything that everyone could see turned into a pile of ashes.
