

Star of Space 160

Chapter 160 How can it be that simple?

Zhou Liang must have been so entangled by Liu Yushui that he had no intention of studying before, right? For the sake of Zhou Liang's fame, Mrs. Zhou, the grandfather, was willing to go all out and actually thought of marrying Liu Yushui first.

In this way, Zhou Liang can study outside.

As for Liu Yushui, as the daughter-in-law of the Zhou family, she was restrained by the Zhou family, and on the grounds of preserving the fetus, she might not even be able to see Zhou Liang in a short period of time.

Since Liu Yushui has become the daughter-in-law of the Zhou family, the Liu family should not want to interfere with Liu Yushui's affairs anymore. A woman who could have made trouble was suddenly treated as a piece of meat on the chopping board of the Zhou family.

The old master is really smart this week!

"What status are the Zhou family willing to give Liu Yushui?"

she asked.

"Uh, this..."

Hearing his sister's question, Lin Changhong raised his eyebrows, feeling a little embarrassed to speak.

After hesitating for a while, he coughed slightly and looked at Lin Caisang seriously, "According to people in our village, Mrs. Zhou agreed to let Liu Rumei give birth to the great-grandson of the Zhou family. Yu Shui will be Zhou Liang's legal wife, as for now..."

"Being a concubine?"

Lin Caisang smiled, really from the bottom of his heart.

Sure enough, it was Old Master Zhou. Although she made a fortune in her hands, she was still very shrewd in her calculations in other places.

"Yes, bring her in as a concubine first, wait until the child is born to find out whether it is a boy or a girl, and then decide. That's what those people said." Lin Changhong lowered his voice and said.

Just like this, she was just brought into the house to be a concubine, and Liu Rumei was still happily following her, as if her precious daughter had married into a concubine and became the emperor's sword. He really had no shame to talk about this woman.

No matter how much they deny it, Liu Yushui is their cousin after all. Having such a cousin will make them lose face.

"I heard that Liu Rumei is very happy these days. Sangsang, what do you think we should do? What if Liu Yushui really gives birth to a son?"

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and glanced at his eldest brother.

"What if I give birth to a son?"

By that time, Liu Yushui is already the daughter-in-law of the Zhou family. As long as Old Master Zhou disagrees, she will always be a concubine!

"The Zhou family has written down the evidence in black and white. Will Liu Yushui be allowed to be Zhou Liang's wife in the future? What is said verbally does not mean that you can do whatever you want when the time comes."

What's more, how could it be that easy for Liu Yushui to marry into the Zhou family?

Mr. Zhou could settle the matter with just one move of his lips, but he couldn't figure out what his daughter-in-law was thinking, right?

"Is there anything else going on in the Liu family?"

"Other things? None." Lin Changhong thought for a while and shook his head.

He only knew about these things after hearing others talk about them. As for other things about the Liu family, how could he know about them.

"there is none left?"

Lin Caisang frowned.

Shouldn't it be right? Mrs. Zhou would let her son marry a daughter-in-law who became pregnant before marriage?

What's more, literati are the most important people in terms of reputation. Zhou Liang didn't have his first wife yet, but he married a concubine and gave birth to a son. He was already ahead of his first wife. Master Zhou wouldn't let his son be laughed at by outsiders for the rest of his life, right?

"What else can happen? How about I go and inquire about it for a while?" Lin Changhong asked.

He thought, no matter what happened to the Liu family, it would not be as big as the fact that Liu Yushui was getting married, right? Other things should be ignored.
