

Star of Space 1601

Chapter 1601 She is a free nanny

"I thought the beads were all tied tightly, but I didn't expect it.

How could she describe this Qiqiao Pearl? It was like a water balloon that had been filled with water. It was soft and soft. If you put it in the palm of your hand, it would be flat.

"Put it in the water and wash it."

Sui Zimo glanced at the dog-shaped cat whose wound had been sutured, then picked up the plate with the Seven-Aperture Beads and poured the Seven-Aperture Beads directly into the basin nearby.

The blood immediately dyed the water red.

However, the water was red. When Sui Zimo fished out the Qiqiao Pearl again, he found that the color of the Qiqiao Pearl had changed. It was no longer so bright red and turned into pink.

"Do you want to... wash again?"

Lin Caisang raised an eyebrow, pointed at the Qiqiao Pearl in Sui Zimo's hand with one hand, and asked.

"talk about it later."

Sui Zimo looked at the Qiqiao Pearl in his hand and handed it to her without thinking.

"Put it away first, someone is coming."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang immediately put the Qiqiao Pearl into his small satchel, and then looked in the direction of the door.

Sure enough, after a while, there was a knock on the door.

"Who?"

"Girl, sir, it's me."

Yun Bai's voice sounded from outside.

Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo looked at each other, and then simultaneously turned their attention to the dog-shaped cat that they had disemboweled. x/60-ny

As expected, Yun Bai came to ask them for a dog-shaped cat because of Yun Meng'er.

Sui Zimo strode forward and opened the door.

"What's the matter?"

he asked Yun Bai.

"Well."

Yun Bai looked a little embarrassed when he asked.

I seemed to have said before that the dog-shaped cat that was caught was to be handed over to the two people at Wuzhu Tea House.

But now, at Yun Meng'er's begging, he had to come to Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo to ask for the dog-shaped cat.

"It's like this. That dog-shaped cat is Meng'er's pet. Although it has been given away, Meng'er knew that after it was beaten and scolded by Wan Ling'er, she was always worried and wanted to raise it again, otherwise Can the girl and the young master give the dog-shaped cat back to Meng'er?"

He was too embarrassed to say it, because the dog-shaped cat had indeed caused a lot of trouble in Yuncheng. If it was allowed to cause trouble again, there was no telling what Yuncheng would become in the future.

Moreover, that dog-shaped cat was quite capable, and Yun Meng'er was no longer close to it.

What if the dog-shaped cat ran to its former owner, the beggar man, and rescued him?

He had thought about all these things, but he still couldn't stand Yun Meng'er's pleas, so he could only come to Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo to get the dog-shaped cat back.

"It is seriously injured now, and we don't know the reason. When we came back, we saw that it had been stabbed in the stomach, and I sewed up its wound."

Lin Caisang said calmly to Yun Bai.

"If you want to take it back now, you have to find a few people to come over and use the bed board to carry it back. Of course, you have to take good care of it and don't let it open the wound on your stomach again."

"this....."

After hearing Lin Caisang's words, the corners of Yun Bai's mouth couldn't help but twitch severely several times.

He felt that if the dog-shaped cat was taken back, it would be enough if he did not treat them as enemies. How could he live in peace?

"How about raising it here for a few days first?" he suggested.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Does this guy think she is a free babysitter?

Chapter 1602 Rescued?

"never mind.

She shook her head, took out a porcelain bottle from her small satchel, and handed it to Yun Bai.

"Here are some pills. Take them. Give the dog-shaped cat one pill every day. It will fall asleep all the time and won't move."

She wanted to end this mission quickly, but she didn't want to stay here for a few more days.

"Thank you, thank you, girl." Yun Bai took the porcelain bottle and quickly thanked her.

Soon, he called the guards over and carried the comatose cat away.

"Sang'er, do you really think it's as simple as him just coming here to ask for a pet?" After everyone left, Sui Zimo spoke to Lin Caisang.

Lin Caisang just raised his eyebrows.

"What else?"

She didn't care what they wanted to do, as long as she got what she wanted, that was all.

"Anyway, the Seven Aperture Pearl is in my hand. Whatever they want to do, it's impossible."

she said.

"That little girl, haha."

Thinking of the innocent Yun Meng'er, she laughed.

City Lord Yun is really a fool, but Yun Meng'er... is she really that innocent?

However, these matters really have nothing to do with her and Sui Zimo. How the people of Yuncheng want to live is Yuncheng's own family matter. She is just here to complete a task, that's all.

"Let's go back."

Sui Zimo looked down at her and said.

"good."

Lin Caisang nodded in response.

Sui Zimo, on the other hand, took the fish tank into his hands and the two of them walked out.

...

Yacun.

Doing tasks and amusing my two little cousins, I lived a very comfortable life like this.

Lin Laogan thought for a long time, but couldn't think of a good name for his two grandsons. But Lin Changfeng, the most educated person in the family, went to take the exam again and hasn't come back yet. What should he do?

Lin Changhong happily wanted to name his cousin. The name he said would make his grandfather jump up and beat him.

Finally, Lin Caisang gave her grandfather a few words and asked him to choose.

"Changsong, Changbai, you must be obedient and don't cry or make trouble at night." Lin Caisang went to the town and bought two rattles, one for each little boy.

However, now the two little guys only eat and sleep. Let alone cry, they barely have any time to open their eyes.

Shaohua City is quite lively.

The prince of Jin, his son Jin, did not know who he offended, and was poisoned, and almost died.

Fortunately, the emperor learned about it in time and invited the best imperial doctor in the palace to go to Prince Jin's Mansion, and then he brought his son back from the underworld.

"Rescued?"

In Prince Mo's Mansion, Sui Zi Mo let out a sigh of relief after hearing the news brought back by banished Jue.

It's not a fatal poison, and it's not a big surprise to be able to be saved, but... I'm afraid the palace is not peaceful anymore.

"What did the Emperor say?"

"There is no news from the Emperor, but there is a commotion from Concubine Lian." Ban Jue glanced at Sui Zimo and said.

"Um?"

Sui Zimo frowned slightly and looked at Ban Jue with some confusion.

What's there to cause trouble in Concubine Lian's palace? At most, he knew that the poison on Sui Zijin was caused by him, and he secretly wanted to take revenge for the poison.

Even if you want to take revenge, you will take a secret route. You can't do it openly, right?

"What, do you want to announce that this king has entered the palace and give me a lesson, or do you want to poison me again? Huh?"

Chapter 1603 Well, it's time to send someone

"neither.

Ban Jue shook his head and looked at his prince with some embarrassment.

"The emperor blamed the Queen for the poisoning of King Jin this time."

In other words, the emperor blamed everything on the queen for sending people into Prince Mo's palace, poisoning Lin Caisang, and seducing Sui Zimo, saying that the emperor wanted to avenge Sui Zilin.

Sui Zijin was poisoned because of this incident. People from Prince Mo's Mansion thought it was the emperor who did it, so they attacked Sui Zijin.

This is Prince Mo's mansion's revenge on the emperor!

"Ah."

Sui Zimo really laughed.

Emperor Wei, Emperor Wei, really has no emotions at all.

He loved her so much at the beginning and wished he could tell all the women in the world, but was he betrayed like this?

For this man, what else can he not give up for himself?

"That being the case, then... let's do this."

Just let Concubine Lian make trouble. The more lively the palace is, the better it is for them, isn't it?

"Your Majesty, it seems that the Emperor has been to the Queen's Palace a few times recently." After thinking about it, he finally told the matter.

"Um?"

Sui Mo is puzzled.

"say clearly."

"It's like this. According to the news... the Queen met the Emperor in the Royal Garden. For some reason, the Emperor followed the Queen in a daze that day.

Even though Concubine Lian tried her best, she could not get the emperor out of the queen's palace. From then on, the emperor went to the queen's palace several times.

But the subordinates didn't understand what was going on in the palace. Since the emperor went to the queen's palace again, why did he blame the queen for Suizi Jin's poisoning?

Moreover, according to the news from the palace, the queen seemed to have no objection to the poisoning of Sui Zijin. "

Hearing this, Sui Zimo raised his hand and pinched his eyebrows.

"It seems that the Queen is not stupid."

His thin lips were slightly hooked, and his eyes were looking into the distance.

"My lord, what do you mean...the queen is showing favor to us?" Ban Jue was a little undecided and asked carefully.

His prince had caused the queen's son to go to that corner of the world. Was the queen's head caught in the door? She actually wanted to cooperate with them?

This is not true, is it?

"The enemy of my enemy is my friend, right?" Sui Zimo said calmly.

The queen has now entered a dead end. If she doesn't make up her mind to carve out a new path for herself, she will die in the cold palace.

And her son will never come back from that place again.

Therefore, the queen is looking for a way out for herself.

Besides, she must have heard the news that he was not a royal child, right?

Since he is not a royal child, there is no reason to compete with Sui Zi for the throne. Who did those things before, and who put Sui Zi in this miserable situation.

The queen has been cold in her palace for so many days, so she should wake up, right?

"Just wait for the news, it will come."

he said.

"Yes, Your Majesty." Ban Jue responded.

Yes, it will come. Since the Empress has this intention to show her favor to Prince Mo's Mansion, why not take advantage of it?

"Then Prince, do you want to send someone to Sui County to see how Prince Lin is doing now?" he asked.

"Send someone?"

Sui Zimo thought for a while, and then thought again.

"Well, it's time to send someone."

The baby was finally sent to school, and coding returned to a normal rhythm.

Chapter 1604 It's all up to you

He nodded, feeling that Suizilin had been silent in Sui County for so long, and it was time to come out and poke his head out, right?

"I ordered someone to remind Concubine Lian and Sui Zi Jin to let them know that Sui Zi is still here in Sui County. Of course, don't kill him, otherwise it will be difficult for the Queen to explain.

After hearing his words, Ban Jue's eyes lit up.

"Yes, Your Majesty, my subordinates will make arrangements right now."

Yacun.

Two men came in a hurry and went up to Menghuang Mountain without Lin Caisang's consent.

Not long after, Yue Chong and Luo Yanyi came to Lin Chushui's house to find Lin Chushui. The three of them talked in the room for a long time.

Then Lin Chushui came out. After dinner in the evening, he came to watch and called Lin Caisang away.

"Want to leave?"

Lin Caisang looked at Lin Chushui in surprise and asked.

This was too sudden. According to her expectation, she shouldn't be leaving so soon.

After thinking about it, she looked at the room where Yue Chong and Luo Yanyi were still there, then took Lin Chushui's hand, and the two of them walked out of the yard. They didn't stop until they came to Sui Zimo's home.

"Chu Shui, what happened?"

"Um."

Lin Chushui nodded.

"Mom, she wants me not to tell you, but sister Sangsang, you are my sister, there is nothing I can't say to you. Ye Yan"

He looked at Lin Caisang seriously and said.

In his eyes, his parents were far less important than the sister in front of him. If it weren't for Lin Caisang, he would have turned into a pile of loess.

"What's the matter?"

Lin Caisang's face looked a little ugly.

Her intuition told her that this matter would not be a good thing, otherwise Luo Mianyi would not have told Lin Chushui not to tell her.

"Something happened to my little brother who has never been masked before. He seemed to have fallen. I don't know if he was seriously injured."

Lin Chushui said.

"Um?"

Listening to his words, Lin Caisang had doubts in his eyes.

What do you mean by not knowing whether you were seriously injured? Since someone came to inform him, he couldn't even tell what kind of injury he suffered and whether it was serious or not, right?

"Speak more clearly."

she said.

"My mother told me that my little brother was seriously injured, and she also acted very anxious and wanted to go back in a hurry."

Lin Chushui thought about the situation just now and explained.

"But I didn't see much reaction on my father's face. On the contrary, after I asked my mother a few questions, I saw a trace of guilt in her eyes. I don't know what this means."

Although he didn't know what it meant, Lin Chushui was not stupid, so how could he really not guess it?

Lin Caisang understood what he said.

Just being seriously injured is just an excuse. It is estimated that Lin Chushui's younger brother was slightly injured, but it will definitely not be too serious.

But Luo Mianyi didn't want to stay here anymore, so he wanted to use this incident to take Lin Chushui away directly.

"Chushui, what do you mean?" She looked at Lin Chushui and asked him.

This matter ultimately depends on what Lin Chushui means. Does he want to go back?

"It's up to you whether you want to go back or not, but Chu Shui, if you decide to go back, you must understand the word 'tolerance'. Your two brothers and your mother grew up together, which is different from you.

She will definitely be biased towards your two younger brothers, even if she temporarily feels more sorry for you because of her guilt towards you.

But this is only temporary. "

Chapter 1605 It will be too much to bear

"Yeah, I understand.

Lin Chushui nodded. He had figured this out early in the morning.

"Sister Sangsang, don't worry, I will be nice and won't be bullied."

"call."

Lin Caisang exhaled heavily and looked at Lin Chushui.

"Then when are your parents planning to leave?"

"My mother wants to leave now, but I don't want to. I want to see if I can leave early tomorrow morning. Sister Sangsang, what do you think?" Lin Chushui asked.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang lowered his head and gritted his teeth and thought for a moment, then raised his head.

"Let's leave early tomorrow morning. I'll prepare some things for you."

"good."

Lin Chushui nodded.

...

In the golden bead space, Lin Caisang looked at the jade mirror and sighed.

Because of the poisoning of Sui Zijin, she estimated that her brother Mo Lian must still be busy, and he had already completed several virtual tasks in space, so it was time for him to rest.

"Brother Yujing, do you think it's okay if I do the virtual mission alone?"

She asked towards the jade mirror.

She had to learn to face some things by herself, otherwise, she wouldn't be able to rely on Sui Zimo all the time, right?

Even as a couple, they cannot be together anytime and anywhere.

'Master, do you want to take a virtual mission?'

A line of words appeared in the jade mirror, and it was a question.

Lin Caisang rolled his eyes and was really speechless about the jade mirror.

This girl really wanted her to do a hundred virtual tasks a day. She clearly asked if it was possible. Yu Jing actually asked her directly if she wanted to take the virtual tasks.

Of course she wants to get it, but how to get it is a question.

After all, without Sui Zimo by her side, she still felt a little weak, okay?

"If you don't accept it yet, I haven't handed over my Seven-Aperture Pearl to the Golden Pearl Order yet. Tell me, if I hand over this Seven-Aperture Pearl, can it also add a little more Yin Virtue?" She asked Yu Jing.

'Master, if you hand in the Qiqiao Pearl, you can get ten points of Yin Virtue.' Yu Jing said.

Lin Caisang's eyes suddenly lit up when he saw the words on the jade mirror.

"Ten points of Yin Virtue. How good is this Qiqiao Pearl? Can you actually get ten points of Yin Virtue in one go?"

That mission was the simplest one she and Sui Zimo had ever done. It wasn't difficult at all. Just defeat the monster and get the Qiqiao Pearl in your hand.

Just like this, you can get ten points of moral virtue?

"Then how much moral virtue do I have now?" she asked.

After getting the Qiqiao Pearl, she and Sui Zimo completed a few more tasks. Thinking about it, they must have a lot of moral value.

It must be enough for her to enter Jinzhu Pavilion.

'Master, you now have sixteen points of yin virtue.' A line of words appeared on the jade mirror.

"Sixteen points of moral virtue?"

If you add the ten points of Yin Virtue gained from turning in the Qiqiao Pearl, there will be twenty-six points of Yin Virtue.

She could stay in the Jinzhu Pavilion for sixteen minutes. That should be enough time to find the spiritual cultivation secret book, as long as she could find it faster.

"Brother Yujing, do you think it is difficult to find the spiritual cultivation secret book in Jinzhu Pavilion?" she asked.

What if sixteen minutes is not enough? Is it possible to do it all over again?

But Lin Chushui will leave early tomorrow morning. Is it possible that she can do more than ten or twenty tasks in one night?

Although time outside is static when doing virtual tasks, this is not good. Her body needs to be consumed, and she will be overwhelmed by doing so many tasks in a row.

Yes or no?

Chapter 1606 I will definitely not finish it

'Master, in the Jinzhu Pavilion, just imagine what kind of book you want, and the book will appear in front of you. Several lines of words were displayed in the jade mirror.

Just these few lines of words almost made Lin Caisang want to vomit blood.

It turns out that this is still possible in the Jinzhu Pavilion. Doesn't that mean that even if her Yin Virtue value is only eleven points, she can still see the secret book of spiritual cultivation?

"That's...wrong."

Just when she was about to say that she wanted to enter the Jinzhu Pavilion, she suddenly thought of something else.

"Can the items in the Jade Mirror and Jinzhu Pavilion be brought out?" she asked.

Don't let her hold the secret book of spiritual cultivation in her hand, and then she has to recite the book inside and come back again, and the contents inside cannot be taken out.

Then she couldn't even find a place to cry?

'The items in the Jinzhu Pavilion can be exchanged by the owner for yin virtue points. Each book requires a little yin virtue value and can be brought to the Jinzhu Space for storage. Note: Not limited to books, any book is worth a little bit of virtue.

And if other people exchange it, depending on the level of the book, from ten points of Yin virtue value to ten thousand points of Yin virtue value, one book can bring out the golden bead space. '

The jade mirror shows densely packed fonts.

"call!"

Lin Caisang let out a heavy breath.

He raised his hand and patted his chest, and said to himself: Fortunately, Jinzhu Pavilion only traps outsiders, not her as the master. At least she wants to read a book, as long as a little bit of charisma is worth a book.

"Then what if I read it in the Jinzhu Pavilion? Is a bit of evil worth a book?"

she asked.

'Dear master, Jade Mirror still recommends that you exchange the books in Jinzhu Pavilion for reading, because you will definitely not be able to finish a book in one minute. '

Jade Mirror said.

Lin Caisang: "..."

How could she forget this? If she stayed in the Jinzhu Pavilion for one more minute, she would need some moral integrity.

"I get it, I get it, I get it."

She raised her thumb at Brother Yujing, feeling that Jinzhu Pavilion was actually a trap for her.

After all, Jinzhu Pavilion can only use virtual tasks to earn virtuous points to enter. If the virtuous points are gone, there is no way to enter.

'Dear master, there is one more thing that Yu Jing has to remind you. '

In the jade mirror, it is rare for the font to be actively displayed, of course, except when there is a mission.

"whats the matter?"

Lin Caisang's intuition told her that there was nothing good in being prepared.

Sure enough, dense fonts appeared in the jade mirror again, making Lin Caisang roll his eyes.

'Now you have sixteen points of moral virtue, but you can only use fifteen points of moral virtue. There is still one point of moral virtue that is locked to prevent you from failing the next mission and deducting the moral virtue value.

Therefore, if you deduct this locked morale value, plus the ten morale points you need to spend to enter the Jinzhu Pavilion, you will only have five morale points available, and you will have to wait at least until you enter the Jinzhu Pavilion. Last minute, therefore, you can only redeem four books. '

"I still have a Seven-Aperture Pearl!" Lin Caisang said angrily.

'With the ten points of Yin virtue of the Qiqiao Pearl, you can exchange it for fourteen books. 'The previous font disappeared, and another line of words appeared in the jade mirror.

Fourteen books, Lin Caisang raised an eyebrow.

Fortunately, she could not only exchange for one spiritual cultivation secret book. Of course, she would not waste any of it. She wanted to make use of all the fourteen points of Yin Virtue.

Chapter 1607 Spit out a mouthful of grass

"Brother Yu Jing, can you recommend what books I need based on my own situation?" she asked Yu Jing.

'Can.'

Two large characters were displayed in the jade mirror, but they quickly disappeared and a single line of characters was displayed.

'May I ask, Master, what are your requirements? The collection of books in Jinzhu Pavilion is very wide, covering various fields. Jade Mirror can recommend books to the Master, but it depends on what kind of books the Master needs.'

Looking at the words in the jade mirror, Lin Caisang took a deep breath.

"You definitely need spiritual cultivation secrets."

As for the rest...she really couldn't remember it for a while.

"I need some medicine books and prescriptions from the Qianhuan Continent. In addition to learning spiritual arts, I also need to learn kung fu. I also need some books about agency news. Also, recommend me some poisoned people to keep in good health. of books."

'OK.'

Two big characters were displayed again in the jade mirror.

Then, after those two words were hidden, the names of fourteen books were displayed. The first one was the secret book of spiritual cultivation.

In my head, I felt a tingling sensation.

When Lin Caisang opened his eyes again, he was already in a strange place.

After a quick glance, I saw a vast sea of clouds, and nothing else could be seen, not to mention books, not even a single page.

But Lin Caisang knew that he was already in Jinzhu Pavilion.

The material beneath my feet felt like cotton, not real at all.

"Don't worry so much, just get the books first."

She quickly regained consciousness in this dreamlike place, and raised her hand to pat her face.

"Master Jinzhu Pavilion, I want to redeem these fourteen books, "Secret Book of Spirit Cultivation", "Millions of Sky", "Nurture", "Phantom Medicine Codex"... "Cultivation of Spiritual Virtues"."

"Master, the book has been placed in Lianxinmai, you can read it at any time."

A voice sounded in Lin Caisang's mind, almost frightening her. Fortunately, she was not frightened.

The next moment, she was blown up by a strong wind.

There was a 'pop' sound.

I don't know where it fell. All my bones felt like they were broken. It hurt like hell.

"It's really difficult to get out of Jinzhu Pavilion."

She lay on the ground and spit out a mouthful of grass.

When I entered Jinzhu Pavilion, my brain hurt. Although it only hurt a little bit, it still hurt.

And when she came out, she was completely knocked upside down. It was so awesome!

"Brother Yujing, you..."

She raised her head and looked at the environment in front of her. She swallowed back the words she just said.

"This is the Lianxianmai."

She went directly from Jinzhu Pavilion to Lianxianmai, no wonder she was beaten to pieces.

"Master, master, you are back."

When the little Caiqiao saw her master coming back, she excitedly flapped her wings on Lin Caisang's head.

Lin Caisang, who had already fallen a bit badly and was a little dizzy, was even more dizzy after being turned around like this. He raised his hand and waved away the Little Cai Sparrow ribbon.

"Stay away from me, dizzy."

"Master, were you thrown out of the Jinzhu Pavilion?" Little Caique walked a little away from Lin Caisang and said to her.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Little one, can't you be a quiet little colorful sparrow?

After all, your master and I were thrown out of the Jinzhu Pavilion. That was a very disgraceful thing. Do we have to say it and be embarrassed?

Chapter 1608 Actually there are quite a few

"Can you shut up?"

She got up from the ground angrily, glared at the little Caiqiao and said. (audience)

"Master, you have exchanged a lot of books from Jinzhu Pavilion this time. As long as you have these books, after you have learned them, you can use the books in Lianxinmai to feel. Of course, if you use merit If it's worth it, you can learn it automatically without reading a book at all."

Little Caique still whispered beside her.

Lin Caisang: "..."

She already knew this, okay?

It's not the first time she has entered Lian Xinmai, she has stayed in this place for several days.

"Little Cai Que, tell me, is it okay if I stew you and eat it?" She raised her head sadly, looking at the little Cai Que that continued to fly above her head, and asked.

"Master, why do you want to eat me?"

Little Caiqiao didn't feel at all that she had disturbed her dizzy master, so she asked in confusion.

"Didn't I tell you before? Although I am a little colorful bird that can fly, I don't need to eat. I am not afraid of wind and rain. I have no lifespan limit. Moreover, I cannot eat it because it cannot be cooked."

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

She really wanted to hit someone. Why was there such a little colorful bird like the old lady in Lian Xinmai, who looked so comfortable?

God, do you have to torture me?

"Where are the books?" she asked.

"There, there."

The little colorful sparrow flapped its wings and flew to the other side.

Soon, Lin Caisang saw the books being placed in a corner.

Looking at the pile of books, Lin Caisang was really speechless and looked up to the sky. Who would tell her why there were so many books with only fourteen names in them after they were redeemed.

This pile of books is definitely heavier than her weight back then.

"Little Caique, how many blank jade books can I redeem with my merits?"

"Master, there are so many..."

"The one that can take out the Golden Pearl Space." Lin Caisang added before Little Caique could finish.

Hearing this, the little colorful sparrow flattened its beak.

"That's a lot. Master, your merit points... are actually quite a lot. Do you want to exchange them for a blank jade book that can take out the golden bead space?"

"Yes, exchange four for me first." Lin Caisang said.

"Also, I want the kind that can fuse four jade books into one, so it's easy to carry."

She added again.

Although the jade books are good, if four jade books are placed on Lin Chushui, and the texture of this kind of jade is different from the ones outside, it will inevitably be coveted by others.

Moreover, if there are four, others will have the opportunity to ask Lin Chushui for them. Maybe his mother will ask her son for them and give them to the other two sons.

She didn't want to take this risk.

"This, it seems not."

Little Caique thought for a moment and said.

"No?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and looked at her seriously.

How could it not be? She remembered that she had seen records about Lian Xinmai before. There was a jade book in it, and the owner of Lian Xinmai could decide what kind of jade book he wanted.

Of course, the merit points used for redemption will be a bit more expensive.

"Master, the kind of jade book you want doesn't even exist in my heart." Little Caique still shook her head.

She really wasn't lying this time. There really is no such jade book. There are four jade books that merge into one, but...

"There are no four combined into one, no, really no."

Chapter 1609: Ten thousand...merit points are needed

"What kind of thing is that?" Lin Caisang asked.

"Master, after considering your needs, I think there is a kind of jade book that is very suitable." Little Caique thought for a moment and said.

"This kind of jade book can bring out the golden bead space, and it can hold a very large number of words. It can also contain several different kinds of knowledge at the same time. Of course, the more important thing is that it can be attached to the human body. Invisible at any time, open at any time."

"I want this one."

No need to think about it, Lin Caisang said directly.

In this way, anyone who wants to get what she gave Lin Chushui will not be able to do it, and it is simply not easy to use.

"Master, exchanging such a jade book requires ten thousand... merit points," Cai Que said.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Ten thousand merit points is too much, right?

"What did you say? Can you say it again if you have the guts?"

"Master, actually this jade book is quite a bargain. It's really, really..."

Xiao Caiqiao felt a little guilty when she said it. Although it was a good deal, it was really too expensive. Who would be willing to exchange 10,000 merit points for such a thing? No matter how good it is, it won't work.

"What a piece of shit!"

Lin Caisang cursed.

But no matter how much she scolded her, she still needed what she needed. Lin Chushui was her brother, and she treated him as a relative. So what if she had to shed some blood for her own relatives?

"How much merit do I have now.

After hearing her words, the little Caiqiao immediately took out a small abacus, placed it on the ground, then stretched out a wing and moved around in the small abacus.

After a while, it raised its head and looked at its owner.

"You still have quite a lot of merit points. So far, you have more than fifteen thousand merit points."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang took a deep breath.

"This is definitely because I don't do enough good things!"

What could she say? Should she ask Lian Xinmai why she had done so many good things but still only had so little merit?

In that case, she wouldn't ask unless she was stupid!

"Are you sure that the jade book costs 10,000 merit points?"

Her voice was ice-cold, and there was a big chance that if Xiao Caiqiao nodded, she would say she wouldn't redeem it the next moment.

"this....."

The little Caique put away the abacus and looked at its owner.

"How about... I give you a nine, Master?"

she asked in her former tentative tone.

Lin Caisang was really speechless. Is her heart connected to a vegetable market? You can still bargain?

"50% off, 5,000 merit points. If you don't want to exchange it, then I'll exchange it for the ordinary one. The ordinary one can bring out the golden bead space. Isn't it only worth 300 merit points? It's still a good deal."

She said calmly to the little Caiqiao.

"Huh? Five thousand?"

Little Caiqiao screamed as if she didn't hear what Lin Caisang said later.

"Master, you can't. Five thousand is not enough for the cost. Really, even the things in the heart can only be made with merit points. Five thousand merit points is really not enough for the cost. Otherwise ...Twenty percent off, okay?"

It had eight feathers on one of its wings and said to Lin Caisang.

"40% off, that's the most, no more."

Lin Caisang said again.

"Thirty percent off, seven thousand, really can't be any less." Little Caique said with a trembling voice.

Chapter 1610 Is it too late to confess now?

The sound sounded like gnashing of teeth to Lin Caisang's ears. She felt that it was almost done.

"Okay, seven thousand, just seven thousand. Give me the jade book later."

"call."

Hearing that its owner finally relented, the little Cai Que let out a heavy breath like a human being.

But suddenly, it seemed to have thought of something and looked at its owner.

"Master, how can you deceive me like this? You set the price so low that I won't make any profit at all."

This time it was tricked by its owner, and it was actually the one who let it go. The owner was so frightened that it said it was a discount.

Now that the discount is out, will the owner do this every time he wants to redeem something?

Thinking of this possibility, why does it feel like crying for a while?

"Master, Master, there is actually one thing that I didn't tell you the truth about. Is it too late to confess now?"

It came to Lin Caisang's side and asked.

"Well, tell me."

Lin Caisang nodded and glanced at the little Caiqiao lightly.

"Actually, although I don't need to eat, I must have merit points to keep me alive, so... Master, can you please pay less to me in the future?"

"This..."

Lin Caisang raised his voice and looked at the little Caiqiao with a playful look.

"Of course not!"

Did her merit points fall from the sky? That was earned bit by bit by her, okay!

What else is allowed? How is this allowed?

"ah?"

When the little Caiqiao heard her words, every word 'ah' in her voice was filled with sadness.

Then will it faint from hunger in the future because of its owner's stinginess? !!

It exuded a sad aura and stopped on Lin Caisang's shoulder. It felt like the world was really full of malice towards her.

"Be good, as long as you be good, I promise I won't treat you badly."

Lin Caisang looked at it lovingly, raised his hand and tapped its head with his index finger.

"real?"

Little Caique's eyes suddenly lit up.

"Master, you are so kind."

Quickly flatter the owner and make the owner happy, so that it can eat well in the future.

"Your master, of course I am very good." Lin Caisang said with a smile.

But the next moment, her face turned cold and she looked at it coldly.

"It's just that if you dare to bid me random prices again like this time, I will definitely let you know whether your master is good or not!"

Hearing this, Little Caiqiao was obviously not afraid of the cold, but she couldn't help but shudder.

"Master, I understand. I will go and bring you the jade book right now."

"Okay, go ahead."

Lin Caisang nodded.

After a while, Xiao Caique brought the jade book.

Originally, Lin Caisang thought that this jade book was the same size as an ordinary jade book, but he did not expect that this jade book was much smaller, only as long as two coins and as wide as one coin.

"Master, let me tell you, this jade book also has a function, that is, it can store some necessary things for people. Of course, there are not many things that can be stored because the space is not big enough."

Xiao Caiqiao handed the jade book to Lin Caisang and introduced it.

"Can I still put something in there?"

Lin Caisang's eyes lit up instantly.

She was worried about bringing some necessary medicinal materials and elixirs to Lin Chushui, and where should he put them.
