Chapter 161 A life-threatening lawsuit

"No.

Lin Caisang shook his head slightly.

"Brother, from now on, we will not interfere in the affairs of the Liu family and the Zhou family, and we will not say a word. I will also tell Grandma and the others later not to talk about the Liu family outside."

The calmer the situation looks on the surface, there must be turbulence on the inside. The two families will definitely use some tricks secretly. She doesn't want her family to be involved in secret attacks.

"good."

Lin Changhong nodded and continued planting his vegetable seedlings.

"Well, brother..."

Lin Caisang raised his head and glanced at her, and was about to continue what he was doing, but with sharp eyes, he saw a man not far away looking at her with a faint look, and she blinked.

After these days, Ya Molian really didn't regard herself as an outsider in front of her, and she felt like she was at home when she walked in and out of the Lin family.

She has gotten used to it, but she will really not get used to it when Ya Mo Lian is not around.

"Well, brother, you do it here first, and I'll go home and drink some water."

Judging from his appearance, he probably had something to say to her. She stood up, said something to Lin Changhong, turned around and left.

Lin Changhong raised his head and glanced at his sister's back. He glanced strangely at the water jar not far from him. He was even more confused. There was obviously water nearby, so why did he go to his house to drink water?

"Sangsang, you rest at home and don't come up later. The big brother takes care of everything here." He shouted to the girl's back.

Baby sister, isn't it just for pampering? The work here is so tiring and his hands are covered with mud. He has already learned how to plant. From now on, he will be the only one working.

"Is something wrong?"

Putting his hands under the water flow and letting the cold water wash away the soil on his hands, Lin Caisang asked Ya Molian without raising his head.

Ya Molian scooped another gourd of water from the water tank, washed away the remaining soil on Lin Caisang's hands again, handed her a clean white towel to wipe the water stains on her hands, and then spoke slowly.

"Something happened to the Liu family."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised her eyebrows. These five words seemed to be what she expected.

"Who? Liu Qingshui?" she asked.

She just said, would Mrs. Zhou be a person who does nothing but sits and waits for death?

of course not!

Sure enough, something happened to the Liu family.

"Um."

Seeing that she said the three words "Liu Qingshui" without hesitation, Ya Molian's lips curled up slightly and she nodded.

"A life-threatening lawsuit has been launched."

"What?!"

Hearing these words, Lin Caisang, no matter how calm he was, couldn't help but be surprised.

Will Madam be so ruthless this week and suddenly put Liu Qingshui in a life-threatening lawsuit? That was a big deal that would cost her life, and if it was found out that she was the one behind it, she would have to go to jail and eat prison food for the rest of her life!

"What's going on? Tell me quickly."

"Go sit in the main room and talk." Ya Molian glanced at her main room and said.

It was not good for the two of them to just stand in the yard of his house and let people see them. It would be better to go inside first.

"You go over first, I'll go to the kitchen to get something."

"good."

Lin Caisang nodded and walked to the main room.

After all, Liu Qingshui was Liu Baixiao's son and had a close relationship with the Lin family. Now that he was involved in a life-and-death lawsuit, it was very likely that her cousin Lin Changfeng's reputation would be affected.
