

Star of Space 1611

Chapter 1611 Can hold two dead cows

With the space in this jade book, there is no need to worry.

Even if you can only put a few things, that's enough.

"yes."

The little Caique nodded her little head.

"How many things can be put in, and can it accommodate one person?" Lin Caisang asked.

"Of course not!"

Little Caique shook her head quickly.

"Master, don't scare Little Cai Que. This is not your Golden Pearl Space. There is no air in it. How can you put people in it?"

If someone were to put it in, they would be suffocated to death, right?

This is absolutely impossible.

Hearing this, several black lines slid down Lin Caisang's forehead.

"I'm talking about, can you put down something as big as a person?"

Of course she knew she couldn't put people in it. If people could be put in this jade book, wouldn't it be the same as her Golden Pearl Space?

What are you thinking!

"Oh, you're talking about capacity."

Little Caique finally understood.

"That's no problem. This jade book can probably fit two dead cows."

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Can't this little guy find a better adjective?

Two dead cows!

She knows that a live cow will die if it goes in, but just saying the word "cow" is still okay, right? Don't bring the word 'death' into it, can't you?

"Okay, I get it.

She waved her hand towards the little colorful sparrow, signaling it to leave first.

"You go and play by yourself for a while. I'm going to be busy, so don't disturb me."

"Okay, Master."

Xiao Caiyu was much more well-behaved this time, and left after answering.

...

After leaving Lian Xinmai and Jinzhu Space, Lin Caisang returned to his room.

It was already very dark, and everyone in the Lin family had already rested.

She thought about it and felt that in addition to the medicinal materials and elixirs prepared for Lin Chushui in the Golden Pearl Space, as well as two clothes made of ice silk, she should bring some other things.

For a twelve-year-old child, whose body bones have not yet fully grown, her clothes made of ice silk are a little too big for her.

Thinking that Lin Chushui could wear it for two years, the ice silk was woven from specially bred ice silkworms and was invulnerable. At least it could block some dangers for Lin Chushui.

She originally planned to give this to Sui Zimo, but after thinking about it, she might as well use it where it should be used most.

Opening the door, she planned to go to Manghuang Mountain while it was dark and prepare some food for Lin Chushui, because she heard from Xiao Caiqiao that the food placed in the jade book would not go bad because the food inside There is no air.

"Sangsang, do you want to go out?"

As soon as she arrived in the yard, she heard a familiar voice. Turning around, she looked at her eldest brother.

"Brother, why aren't you asleep yet?"

I saw her eldest brother squatting in a corner, not knowing what he was doing. It was raining, so he was not afraid of getting wet.

"Can't sleep."

Lin Changhong shook his head and smiled at his sister.

"Are you worried about Chu Shui?" Lin Caisang asked.

"yes."

Lin Changhong didn't deny it and nodded directly.

Lin Chushui, that silly boy, was just going to leave with his parents without any sense of danger.

No matter how he looked at it, he felt that Luo Mianyi, Lin Chushui's mother, dissatisfied him, but Yue Chong, his father, was pretty decent.

But being a father is not as important as being a mother. The father often has to go out for business, and the one who takes care of the children at home is not the mother.

Chapter 1612 The meaning couldn't be more obvious

There was an unreliable mother, and he was really worried about Lin Chushui.

"I'm going to Menghuang Mountain to prepare some things for Chu Shui. Do you want to come with me?" Lin Caisang asked.

"Okay, let's go."

Lin Changhong nodded immediately.

He was just looking for someone to talk to when he met his sister who was also unable to sleep, so she could talk about Lin Chushui.

"Sang Sang, are you really so relieved to let Chu Shui follow the couple?"

On the way to Menghuang Mountain, he curled his lips and asked his sister.

"Do you really trust that couple?"

Anyway, he was really worried. The two couples had just found Lin Chushui, and they didn't treat her like a treasure. How could they treat Lin Chushui well in the future?

When Lin Chushui just returned, he wasn't even treated as well as the son they raised, right?

"So what if you don't worry, Chu Shui still has to walk his own path. Can we still help him go?" Lin Caisang looked at his eldest brother and asked him.

After hearing her words, Lin Changhong stopped talking. The two of them just walked like this and soon reached Menghuang Mountain.

"Picking mulberries, Changhong, you're so late, why are you still coming?"

When Yue Chong heard some movement, he came out to check. He saw the two brothers Lin Caisang and asked.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"Chu Shui is going to leave with you tomorrow morning. I'll get him some things to take with him. Don't walk too hastily on the road and he's hungry. Chu Shui is at our house. My grandpa, grandma, and three uncles and three aunts are here. But they treat him like a baby."

She turned around, looked at the rows of jars in the room, and said softly.

Yue Chong: "..."

This little girl did it on purpose, just to remind them not to take Lin Chushui seriously.

But that was his son too. Could he bully his own son? Lin Caisang was so guarded against them that he was speechless.

However, he couldn't say anything bad about Lin Caisang.

Because this time, his wife really went too far. Even though the younger one in the family was only slightly injured, she had to yell at him to look like he was about to die.

He knew that Luo Mianyi wanted to leave quickly and didn't want to stay in Yacun for a moment.

Therefore, he didn't say anything to refute, thinking that he would leave anyway, and it didn't make any difference whether it was earlier or later.

How did he know that Lin Caisang would be so fussy and see everything so clearly, like an adult.

"That's right, I don't know if Chu Shui will suffer much after he leaves tomorrow. When I think about it, I feel... Hey, I am so useless as a brother. I can't even protect my own brother."

Lin Changhong also looked at Yue Chong openly, and the meaning of his words couldn't be more obvious.

What's the matter? I just don't trust you and your wife. What's going on?

Yue Chong felt helpless again and almost sighed heavily.

"Cai Mulberry, Changhong, Chu Shui is also my son. I will naturally protect him from any harm." He said to the two of them.

"oh."

"oh."

What he responded to was two soft oh sounds that could not have been softer.

Lin Caisang continued to look at the jar in the room, thinking about how much he should bring to Lin Chushui, while Lin Changhong ignored Yue Chong and helped his sister to put forward his own opinions.

Chapter 1613 Suffering a hidden loss

"Sang Sang, no, let's take all these to Chu Shui. I'm really worried that he won't have enough to eat or keep warm in the future.

Of course, he said this deliberately to Yue Chong.

At this moment, Yue Chong really didn't know what to say. He could only say a word to the two brothers and sisters, then turned and left.

"Ah."

Looking at Yue Chong's back, Lin Changhong gave a cold snort.

"Sang Sang, look at what he looks like. If he really cares about Chu Shui, how could he be so feeble even in giving us a promise?"

Don't explain anything, don't say anything, just tell them that he will protect Chu Shui?

He believed that Yue Chong was the devil, especially Luo Mianyi. That woman would become cold-faced when she saw them, as if they owed her something.

But they obviously saved her son, but they didn't even feel the slightest bit grateful.

"Brother, can you stop talking?"

Lin Caisang turned around helplessly, looked at Lin Changhong, and asked.

What's the use of talking so much? Lin Chushui still has to leave tomorrow morning. It's impossible to stay in Yacun anymore.

"You take five jars of this, this, and this."

She pointed to several jars and explained to Lin Changhong.

"Do you want all of these? Is it too much?" Lin Changhong was a little frightened by his own girl.

There are so many, can Lin Chushui take them back? And if he brought so much, wouldn't Luo Mianyi look bad again?

"Is it much?"

Lin Caisang asked him back.

"Didn't you just say that you wanted to move all of this away to Chu Shui?"

"I do think so."

Lin Changhong curled his thin lips angrily.

"But you haven't seen... the expression on Chu Shui's mother's face. We treat Chu Shui better on weekdays, but she is like that. If we take all this back to Chu Shui, then she won't be able to...

Anyway, I don't want to say anything. I'll just do whatever you ask me to do. "

As he said that, he moved down all the jars his sister mentioned, then thought about it again and looked up.

"Sang Sang, there are some bird's nests at home. Do you want to bring them to Chu Shui?" he asked.

"Take it with you."

Lin Caisang thought for a while and said.

"Bring it with you to be prepared."

In short, she wanted to prepare everything she could for Lin Chushui.

Then she put all the jars on the ground into the jade book, leaving only two jars on the ground.

"Sangsang, you..."

When Lin Changhong turned around again and saw the empty ground, he was almost frightened.

"Where's the jar? Where did it go?"

he asks.

"It's here."

Lin Caisang raised his hand and shook the jade book in his hand.

"This is a new item at my place. Although it is expensive, it is very useful. You can put some things in it, and it can also be invisible to your hand so that others cannot see or touch it."

"Is there such a good thing?" Lin Changhong nodded with satisfaction.

His girl is so awesome, she has everything, so she won't be afraid that when Lin Chushui arrives in Qianhuan Continent, she will be eaten until no bones are left.

"Then prepare more medicine for him. To be honest, you can buy anything you want now, but the medicine... I'm really afraid that he will suffer a hidden loss."

"Already prepared."

Lin Caisang said that she had prepared all the pills and other things for Lin Chushui.

In the end, I really couldn't think of anything to take, so I thought of coming here and bringing some food to Lin Chushui.

Chapter 1614 What is this?

Early the next morning, Lin Caisang took Lin Chushui away very early.

When Yue Chong and Luo Mianyi woke up and wanted to take their son away, they didn't even see anyone.

"Brother Chong, what do you mean by them?"

Luo Mianyi looked very unhappy and asked her husband.

It was obvious that they had already agreed with the Lin family before that they were leaving today.

But this early in the morning, Lin Caisang called her son away. What did this mean?

What's the matter, can't she take her own son home? She would like to ask Lin Caisang who is Lin Chushui's mother!

"Don't worry, maybe they are looking for Chu Shui to explain something. Chu Shui will be back soon. Yue Chong doesn't care. If the Lin family really doesn't care about his son leaving, He doesn't know what to do?

And he also saw that his son was originally unwilling to follow them, but for some unknown reason, he agreed after talking to Lin Caisang.

In his opinion, his son did not go back with them, but went back with them for Lin Caisang.

"Let's go to the Lin family first. Although we have to leave, we can't leave without saying goodbye," he said.

"Let's go, let's go."

Luo Mianyi's expression did not ease at all, and her face was full of impatience with the Lin family.

But what can she do?

It's not like she had never done that to Lin Caisang and his family, but the Lin family really... made her not want to get along with them at all.

Because compared with the Lin family, she was nothing in front of her son.

In the forest, in Sui Zimo's bamboo house.

Before dawn, Lin Caisang called Lin Chushui, and the two of them came to the bamboo house.

"Sister Sangsang, I will not change my name in the future. Even if I change my surname, my name will still be Chu Shui. It will not change. If you come to Qianhuan Continent in the future, remember to find me."

Lin Chushui looked at Lin Caisang, his eyes slightly red, and said.

"good."

Lin Caisang responded softly.

Lin Chushui obediently stretched out his left hand in front of Lin Caisang.

Then, he watched Lin Caisang move a small jade tablet in his hand, and then hid it in his palm without knowing how.

"Sister Sangsang, what is this?"

He was so shocked that he even trembled when he spoke.

"This is a jade book. It contains some things, including elixirs, on which I have written the instructions for using them. There are also medicinal materials, some scattered snacks, and I have also brought you the bird's nests at home.

Also, the most important thing is that on this jade book, I used my own consciousness to carve the secret book of spiritual cultivation, as well as other things, chance spells, pharmacological knowledge, and some things that are rarely seen in Qianhuan Continent. of Danfang. "

"Sister Sangsang..."

"Don't speak yet, listen to me."

Lin Caisang didn't give Lin Chushui a chance to speak and looked at him seriously.

"Chu Shui, for a long time, you will have to face everything by yourself, and Qianhuan Continent is a completely different place from us.

Once you get there, you are likely to be in danger at any time, so you must remember clearly what I am going to say next! "

She looked at Lin Chushui with a look that couldn't be more serious, as if she wanted him to engrave everything she said today into his mind.

Chapter 1615 Let's go

"Qianhuan Continent is a world where people eat people. You must understand this truth. Therefore, no matter what the circumstances, you cannot tell others about the jade book I handed you today. Do you understand?"

"I see.

Lin Chushui nodded vigorously and responded.

"Also, in this jade book, the books carved with my consciousness cannot be moved. However, in Qianhuan Continent, if you see good books, you can also use them if they are useful to you. Carve it in yourself.

Now I will teach you how to use the jade book. Don't think about anything now, just think about the jade book on your left hand. "

Lin Chushui listened to her words and emptied his mind, thinking only about the jade book in his hand. Slowly, something appeared in his mind.

"Have you seen those words in your own mind? You can choose the name of a book from there, open the book and read it. Take your time, don't rush." Lin Caisang's voice spread bit by bit. into his ears.

After a long time, Lin Chushui came back to his senses and looked at Lin Caisang.

"Sister Sang Sang, I saw it, I saw the words in the secret book of spiritual cultivation." He said to Lin Caisang.

"Right, that is it."

Lin Caisang nodded with satisfaction.

She is still very satisfied with Lin Chushui's talent. In this way, as long as he learns slowly, he will definitely surpass those in Qianhuan Continent.

"Next, I will teach you how to carve outside books into jade books. The same principle applies. Just think of a book you have read and try to write its name first.

Then open it again, and use your own consciousness to write in the blank space inside.

Concentrate, don't think about anything else, just tell yourself, you can do it, this jade book is yours, you are one with it, and you can write whatever you want in it. "

After a while, Lin Chushui came back to his senses and looked at Lin Caisang.

"Sister Sangsang, I only wrote a short paragraph."

His face was a little red, and he felt that Lin Caisang was embarrassed. He only wrote a short paragraph before feeling a little dizzy.

"It doesn't matter. Take your time. This requires an adaptation process. Don't be in a hurry." Lin Caisang comforted him.

After that, she taught Lin Chushui how to erase the words he had carved on it, and then taught him how to take out and eat the things she prepared for him in the jade book, and then how to put them in.

Lin Chushui was indeed very powerful, but after less than an hour of teaching, he learned everything, even though he was still very unfamiliar with it.

"The Jade Book will be you from now on. You are the Jade Book. You have to protect it. It is a treasure that can protect you. But at the same time, if others know about it, your life will also be at risk."

Lin Caisang said to him.

"Yes, Sister Sangsang, I understand." Lin Chushui nodded.

Not long after, he followed Lin Caisang back to Yacun and the Lin family.

In the courtyard of the Lin family, Yue Chong and Luo Mianyi were already waiting for him. As soon as he entered the door, he heard Luo Mianyi's voice.

"Chu Shui, you're back, let's set off."

Hearing her words, Lin Chushui was stunned, and Lin Caisang was stunned. All the eyes of the Lin family turned to her, and even Yue Chong immediately focused on Luo Mianyi.

"Aunt Luo, Chu Shui hasn't had breakfast yet."

Lin Caisang's face suddenly darkened and he said rudely to Luo Mianyi.

Chapter 1616 You listen to me

"Well."

When Luo Mianyi heard her words, she suddenly felt embarrassed.

She was really in a hurry to leave this place, so she didn't realize that her son hadn't eaten yet.

But she told herself that she definitely didn't mean it, she just wanted to be alone with her son too much.

"Chu Shui, haven't you eaten yet?"

In order to save her embarrassment, she forced herself to show an ugly smile and asked her son.

She hoped that her son could tell her that he had already eaten, even if it was just to comfort her and lie to those in the Lin family, it was still good.

However, Lin Chushui disappointed her.

"Um."

She saw Lin Chushui nodded, and then looked at Lu Qiubo.

"Grandma, I'm hungry."

"The food is hot for you, go and eat."

Lu Qiubo said to Lin Chushui and Lin Caisang with a smile.

"I'll get it, you wait."

Lin Caisang glanced at Lin Chushui, turned around and walked to the kitchen.

"Let's go together." Lin Chushui immediately followed.

Luo Mianyi watched her son follow Lin Caisang to the kitchen with a dark look on her face, and cursed in her heart.

How could she have found a son? She had clearly found an ancestor. A son who didn't even give face to his own mother, what could he be if he wasn't an ancestor?

"Brother Chong..."

She looked at Ming Chong with some grievance.

But this time, even Ming Chong didn't look at her anymore, but gave her a cold look.

He had already let her go about what happened yesterday, because he also wanted to go back early and it was not peaceful at home.

But the Lin family was kind to them after all, but Luo Mianyi's attitude towards the Lin family was always up and down, which made him feel very uncomfortable.

"Say less."

"I....."

Luo Mianyi opened her mouth but said nothing more.

In the kitchen, Lin Caisang and Lin Chushui took out all the food from the pot together.

"Chu Shui, I forgot to tell you just now. If you really can't survive in the Chong family, sell some of the elixirs in the jade book. Those elixirs are of no use to you, but they are of no use to Qianhuan Continent. To people who know it, it is a treasure, something that has a price but no market."

Suddenly, she thought of another thing and explained to Lin Chushui.

And that elixir book is actually useless to her now, because many medicinal materials cannot be found here.

In addition, her medical skills are far from that great, and she still needs to continue to work hard.

"Don't foolishly think that the things I give you must be treasures, and you will be reluctant to take them out no matter what. You must remember that we only have one hope for you, and that is that you can live well."

"I see."

Lin Chushui nodded.

"In addition, read the secret book of spiritual cultivation first, but don't practice it first. There is a bottle of elixir in the jade book for you. I refined it last night. That elixir can restrain the talent in your body. "

Lin Caisang looked at him and continued.

Just now in the bamboo house, I was busy teaching Lin Chushui how to use the Jade Book, and I really couldn't think of anything else for a while.

When he saw Yue Chong and Luo Mianyi, he knew that Lin Chushui was really leaving, and then he remembered these words that needed to be warned to him.

"After you go back, your father will definitely use the blood of the Yue family to help you open up your spiritual intelligence, but you listen to me and use elixirs to restrain your talents. Don't think about learning ordinary spiritual cultivation techniques, just learn the secrets of spiritual cultivation. That's fine."

Chapter 1617: Tied and not allowed to leave

She continued to talk to Lin Chushui.

"You have to start everything over in that unfamiliar place. No one will be willing to accept a stranger and take away everything that belongs to them. No one will be exception, including your closest relatives. relatives.

You are the young master of the Yue family. Before you become stronger, you can only show weakness and not give others an excuse to harm you. "

Relatives are nothing in the face of interests, not to mention that Lin Chushui spent the previous twelve years here and had nothing to do with the Yue family.

Since there is no relationship, then there is no emotion.

Why should we tolerate people who have no feelings? Even if it is her, she will not let others take away everything that originally belongs to her.

"From now on, you have to rely on yourself."

She exhaled heavily and said seriously to Lin Chushui.

"Sister Sangsang, I understand everything you said."

Lin Chushui nodded again. Although he understood in his heart, he was still grateful to Lin Caisang.

"It's good if you understand."

Lin Caisang nodded. She wished she could tell Lin Chushui these things three hundred times!

"One last thing, Chu Shui, you have to remember that you are still young and cannot focus on feelings. The feelings I am talking about are women. In that strange place, no one can be trusted. , including women.

If you like her, she may not necessarily be close to you because she likes you. Even if there is a woman who is close to you because she likes you, only you can know your secrets. Do you understand? "

"Sister Sangsang, I'm only twelve years old.

Lin Chushui's face turned red at what she said, and it took a long time to hold back a word.

He is only twelve years old, okay? Can you not discuss the issue of being a woman or not with him at this time?

"Emotions have nothing to do with age." Lin Caisang couldn't help but add another sentence.

"I see."

Lin Chushui nodded again.

"Chu Shui, remember to take good care of yourself. Don't ever wrong yourself. We, the Lin family, cannot wrong ourselves if we are wronged."

Outside the door of Lin Family Courtyard, Lin Changhong raised his hand and patted Lin Chushui on the shoulder and warned him.

He was really worried, but what could he do if he was worried? This younger brother had to leave when it was time to leave.

Is it possible that he can still tie people up with ropes and prevent them from leaving?

This is of course impossible.

"Also, Chu Shui, my mother asked me to give this to you. She said it could be used to save your life. I don't know what it was, so I almost forgot to give it to you."

Suddenly, he pulled Lin Chushui not far away and stuffed a small cloth bag in his arms into Lin Chushui's hands.

"Hide it quickly while no one sees it, and put it in the jade book."

he warned.

"Um."

Lin Chushui didn't have time to see what was inside, so he put it directly into the jade book.

After talking for a while, after Luo Mianyi's repeated urging, Lin Chushui got into the carriage and left the Lin family where he lived most comfortably.

"Why."

Watching the carriage go further and further away, Lin Changhong sighed heavily.

"This person hasn't gone far yet, and I'm already worried. Sangsang, what should I do?"

Lin Caisang glanced sideways at his eldest brother.

"Just do whatever you have to do, brother, I'm not telling you, it's not that Chu Shui left, you have been worried before, you, just keep worrying."

Chapter 1618 Reading out the decree

After saying that, she turned around and went back to her room.

She was really busy all night last night and didn't even have time to rest. Now she had to catch up on some sleep.

It's really about catching up on sleep, not fake!

"you....."

Lin Changhong was speechless after being told by his own sister.

"Zhong You, look at your master, is there anyone like him?"

He looked at Zhong You who also came out to see Lin Chushui off, and complained dissatisfiedly.

"Changhong, she is my master, not me, so it is useless for you to talk to me about this." Zhong You spread his hands and said to Lin Changhong.

"I'm not..."

"Today I was busy delivering Chu Shui, but I didn't give the old man a massage. Old man, let me push you in."

Before Lin Changhong could say anything else, Zhong You directly pushed Lin Laogong back.

Lu Qiubo also went to the kitchen, while Yang Lin and Lin Baixiao went back to their rooms to see their two youngest sons, ignoring Changhong at all.

Lin Changhong: "..."

What was going on and why did he feel abandoned?

...

Prince Mo's Mansion.

The second eunuch who announced the decree had been sent away for a while, and then Exiled Wu saw the third one.

The eunuch's calves were already trembling when he saw Ban Wu sitting at the door of Prince Mo's Mansion, still chewing melon seeds.

Who let Xian Wu hold a long sword in his hand, the end of the sword just piercing the ground.

He listened to the two eunuchs who had announced the decree before and said that there was a guard leader in Prince Mo's Mansion. He sat at the door of Prince Mo's Mansion with a long sword in his hand and told them that anyone who wanted to go in to announce the decree could do so.

However, you have to ask if the sword in his hand agrees. If you can win the long sword in his hand, you can enter.

Wow, why would he take on such a errand?

The guard leader named Ban Wu is terrifying. The long sword seems to be piercing a hole in his body. How can he not be afraid? I almost wanted to run away.

But at the same time, he didn't dare to run.

Concubine Lian said that if Prince Xuanmo cannot enter the palace, then he should not go back and hang himself with a rope directly outside the palace gate.

He is still young. Although he can no longer carry on the family lineage, he is still alive at least. He doesn't want to die so early!

"hiss!"

Taking a deep breath, he bravely walked towards the door of Prince Mo's Mansion step by step.

"Hey, here comes someone who is not afraid of death."

When Ban Wu saw the eunuch walking towards him, he threw the melon seeds in his hand on the ground and looked at the eunuch who announced the decree with a playful look.

Although that girl is not afraid of death, she looks really afraid of death.

It's just that among who asked him to die, he chose a good way to die.

After all, if he fails to declare the decree successfully, Concubine Lian has a thousand ways to torture the eunuch waiting for him, and under his hands, maybe he can end his life with just one sword?

"stop!"

Ban Jue took out the long sword from its scabbard and pointed the tip of the sword directly at the eunuch who announced the decree.

"I, I... our family is here to announce the decree..." The eunuch who announced the decree spoke to the banished man without fear of death, but his voice was trembling when he spoke.

Ban Wu: "..."

Is this guy definitely here to announce his decree, not to die?

"Yizhi? Is it the Queen Mother's or the Queen's?"

He raised his eyebrows and asked the eunuch who announced the decree.

Chapter 1619 You don't deserve it

"None... none, yes, it belongs to Concubine Lian... Concubine Lian," the eunuch who announced the decree said.

"laugh."

His words successfully aroused the sarcastic smile from Ban Wu.

"It's the decree of Concubine Lian."

"Yes, it's Concubine Lian's Yi..."

"Bah!"

Before the eunuch who announced the decree could finish speaking, the eunuch who was banished to martial arts gave a heavy sip.

"When will the concubines of our country of Wei, except the Queen Mother and the Empress, be able to declare edicts to others and carry out edicts without fear of making the people of the country laugh out of their teeth!"

The eunuch who announced the decree: "..."

Woo hoo, what should I do? What the guard leader said is so right.

Except for the Queen Mother and the Empress, no matter how favored the concubines in the palace are, they are just concubines. How can they be qualified to draft any imperial edict?

"Return to the empress? Concubine Lian is Concubine Lian. What kind of empress? Don't you eunuchs in the palace even understand the rules in the palace?"

Seeing that the eunuch who announced the decree didn't speak, Ban Wu didn't want to give him a chance to speak, so he took another sip.

"There is a queen mother in the palace, the queen can be called the empress, and outside the palace there are the principal concubines of various princes, who can be called the empress. Concubine Lian? She calls herself the empress? Haha."

The eunuch who announced the decree took a deep breath and almost vomited to death from these words.

Yes, you are right to banish military officials. This is how the rules of the Ministry of Etiquette come about.

But these days, the eunuchs and maids in the palace are trying to flatter the nobles. Which nobleman is not called empress.

Even the emperor didn't have much reaction to this matter.

But when they arrived at Prince Mo's Mansion, they were immediately caught in the wrong direction and not even allowed to enter.

"Go away, if you don't go away, I will let you go in with a white knife and come out with a red knife!"

"scare!"

When the eunuch who announced the decree heard the words of banning Wu, he was so frightened that he ran away quickly.

"laugh."

Exiling Wu looked at the back of the eunuch who had announced the decree and fled, and sneered.

"It's just such a thing, but you still want to enter Prince Mo's palace to announce the decree? Are you just daydreaming?"

This Concubine Lian doesn't know what kind of people she has around her. They are all like trash. No wonder she has become worse and worse in recent years!

"What did you say, say it again?!"

Hearing the words of the eunuch who announced that she was going out, Concubine Lian had a ferocious face and almost smashed the jade Ruyi in her hand.

"Empress, the people in Prince Mo's Mansion are really too arrogant. They don't care at all whether you are the Emperor's favorite concubine or not. They just say that you can't give orders to Prince Mo's Mansion and that you don't deserve to be called Empress. "

The eunuch spoke to Concubine Lian carefully.

"They were okay and said..."

"What else can you say?!"

Concubine Lian's chest kept rising and falling, almost exploding.

"They also said that only the queen mother and empress in the palace can be called empress. You are not worthy," the eunuch said.

'Snapped! '

What followed was the sound of something heavy falling to the ground.

The eunuch looked up and saw that Yu Ruyi, who was still in Concubine Lian's hand, had been smashed to pieces on the ground.

"Sui Zi Mo, you... you are such a good Sui Zi Mo, I look down on you!" Concubine Lian was so angry that her whole body was trembling, and the fingernails of the hand on the table scratched the table hard. A few marks were directly scratched out.

Now her son was poisoned. Although he received timely treatment, he still could not remove all the poison from his body.

All the doctors in the palace were helpless, and she could only think of Miss Lin, the female doctor in Suizi Mo Mansion.

Chapter 1620 Coming more and more often

Don't think she doesn't know, that Miss Lin must have been hidden in Prince Mo's Mansion by Sui Zi Mo.

The eunuch secretly raised his eyes and glanced at Concubine Lian, thinking to himself that his wife had always underestimated Prince Mo. Who would dare to mess with that evil star?

Even the Queen Mother and the Queen were defeated at the hands of Sui Zimo, not to mention Concubine Lian. She was just a concubine in the palace. Even if she was favored again, so what?

What's more, which woman did their emperor ever favor?

The Emperor's Empress has become favored over the years, right? The emperor didn't just throw her away, the queen had to think of ways to finally get the emperor to look at her again.

Why does he think that if his mother-in-law keeps doing this, the emperor's heart will be broken sooner or later?

But in this case, how could he, a slave, dare to tell Concubine Lian? He could only hold it in his heart and remain silent. Who said it was bad luck now?

"Empress, what should we do now?" he asked.

When Concubine Lian heard what he said, she looked at him with hatred.

"Useless thing, get down!"

"Slave, please retire."

The eunuch secretly breathed a sigh of relief.

As long as he wasn't punished or beaten to pieces, even if he was scolded a few times, no piece of flesh would fall off his body.

Concubine Lian, on the other hand, was sitting there alone, constantly thinking about how to bring Miss Lin from Prince Mo's palace into the palace and let her treat her son's poison.

In the Queen's Palace.

"Your Majesty."

Seeing the Emperor's figure walking further and further away, the Queen straightened up and curled up into a cold smile.

"Your Majesty, the Emperor has been coming to your palace more and more frequently these days."

Seeing such a scene, the grandma beside her was also happy in her heart. As long as her mother-in-law can think about it, it will be easier in the future.

But when the queen heard her words, she sneered in her heart.

Is the emperor coming more and more often?

hehe!

If she didn't have a natal family that played an important role in Weiguo, would the emperor come to her more and more often?

I'm afraid I've long forgotten that I have a wife like her, right?

This time the emperor was able to think of her as a queen again, and he hadn't sent her to the cold palace yet. Wasn't it because she wrote a letter to her old father and asked him to put pressure on him in the court?

If not, would the emperor come to her palace?

She finally figured out that any talk of doting on her son alone or doting on her son were all fake.

For the emperor, once a person loses his use value, he will kick him away. That is a normal thing.

"Go and secretly send the letter in my box out of the palace to my father." She ordered her mother.

"Remember, you must hand it over to him with your own hands and never leave it to others, do you understand?"

After thinking for a while, she warned again.

"Yes, my dear, I'll go right away." Grandma responded and went to do some work.

"Your Majesty, Your Majesty, since you are ruthless, don't blame me for being unjust!" The Queen took a deep breath and said quietly.

...

"Your Majesty, where are you going now, or should you go back to the imperial study directly?" Eunuch Gui looked at the emperor sitting on the sedan chair and asked.

"Go to Concubine Lian's palace."

The emperor thought for a while and said.
