

Star of Space 1621

Chapter 1621 The idea couldn't be better

"Yes, Your Majesty.

Eunuch Gui responded and ordered the eunuchs to carry the soft sedan to Concubine Lian's palace.

...

In Concubine Lian's palace.

Concubine Lian just came up with a brilliant idea. Since Sui Mo refused to come to the palace no matter what, she would go to Prince Mo's Mansion. This would always work out, right?

"No, no."

She shook her head again. She was in the palace. Although it was not difficult to get out of the palace, it was still a bit difficult to go to Prince Mo's Mansion.

Not to mention whether the emperor would agree to this issue, it was still unknown whether she would be able to enter Prince Mo's palace.

"Since I can't enter, let... Jin'er go!"

she muttered again.

Jin'er is the prince and Sui Zimo's nominal brother. He can't directly kill Jin'er in his palace, right?

This is a good idea!

"Let Jin'er go and live in Prince Mo's Mansion under the pretext of recuperating from illness. Mo will not be able to kick him out even if he is young!"

Thinking of this, her mood suddenly improved.

Didn't Mo, his younger brother, not want to see their mother and son? Then let Jin'er live in Prince Mo's Mansion and make Suizi Mo feel uncomfortable watching it every day!

"Someone is coming."

Thinking about it, she began to give instructions.

"Mother, what are your orders?" A nun walked in immediately and asked.

"You go out of the palace and go to Prince Jin's Mansion, and let Prince Jin go to Prince Mo's Mansion to recuperate." Concubine Lian said to her.

"What?!"

Mammy was simply frightened by her mother-in-law's weird idea.

Let Prince Jin go to Prince Mo's Mansion to recuperate. He won't carry a person in, but what will be thrown out is a corpse, right?

She thought it would be good to throw out the body. Maybe what was thrown out was just a jar of ashes. After all, Prince Mo, Sui Zimo, had long wanted to crush Prince Jin into ashes!

"Mother, is this...not good?"

"What's wrong!"

Concubine Lian glared at Grandma, not feeling anything bad at all.

"Jin'er is Sui Zimo's younger brother. Shouldn't he take care of Jin'er if he is poisoned? Go ahead and do it. This is the best idea."

"Can....."

Mammy wanted to say that the poison was inflicted by Sui Zimo!

But how could Concubine Lian give her a chance to speak? He glared at her again.

"What are you doing here? Hurry up and do it!"

"This...is, I'm resigning."

Grandma had no choice but to do what Concubine Lian wanted.

...

A short while later, when the emperor came to Concubine Lian's palace and heard that Concubine Lian was going to send Sui Zijin to Prince Mo's Mansion to die, he was so angry that he raised his hand and gave Concubine Lian a slap in the ear.

"Are you crazy? You actually sent Jin'er to Prince Mo's Mansion at this time?"

The emperor roared at her.

Concubine Lian covered her hurt face, already stunned.

Two tears fell from her eyes. Did she do something wrong? It was obviously for the sake of Jin'er's health.

When they arrived at Prince Mo's Mansion, Sui Zimo would definitely ask the female doctor to treat Jin'er's poison. Then, after going back and forth, maybe Jin'er would become acquainted with the female doctor?

Is this possible?

"Your Majesty, I am doing this for Jin'er's own good, he..."

"Are you good for him? It seems to me that you wish Jin'er would die early and be born early, right?"

The emperor interrupted Concubine Lian sharply and was so angry that he almost ran away! Are you still saying that it's for Jin'er's good, and that you want him to die for his own good?

"Sui Zimo and I are already at loggerheads. Do you think that if you send Jin'er to Prince Mo's Mansion at this time, how will Sui Zimo deal with Jin'er?"

He asked Concubine Lian.

Chapter 1622 Aren't you going to stay?

"Well.

Concubine Lian choked at the emperor's words.

"You are giving Sui Zimo an opportunity to take advantage of me, and it's not Sui Zimo who came to ask for it from me, it was you - you who sent it to my door!

Do you think you are stupid? Are you stupid? Um! ! ! "

The emperor continued to speak, and the further he went on, the more angrily he became.

This woman, he used to think she was smart, because this woman in the harem knew what propriety meant.

So even though he didn't have much love, he didn't forget about this woman. After all, there was still a son between him and this woman, and there was still a child named Mo.

Who knew that this woman could be so stupid?

He actually wanted to send Jin'er to Prince Mo's Mansion to die!

Die!

Isn't it just to die? Sui Zimo is worried that he can't find a reason to deal with him as the emperor, right?

But this woman wanted to send Jin'er over!

Concubine Lian was frightened by the emperor's roar. She raised one hand and covered her chest. Cold sweat broke out on her forehead and she couldn't help but swallow.

"This... Your Majesty, I just sent someone to catch up with you now." She said quickly.

After being scolded by the emperor, she finally came to her senses.

Yes, what kind of person is Sui Zimo? He is a lion pretending to be asleep. He may pounce on them at any time and bite them to death!

It is definitely not possible to send your son to your door at this time.

But just now, how could she not have thought of this? She was so stupid!

"Then hurry up and send someone to stop him!" The emperor roared at her again.

He has never seen such a stupid woman!

On the Queen's side, although she has been seeking death recently, it was also because her son was demoted.

But she didn't send her son into the hands of the enemy, nor did she do anything outrageous.

Moreover, after being ignored by him for a period of time recently, he realized that he was wrong and knew how to coax him as the emperor, so he could still be saved.

But this woman in front of me...

"Yes, I will send someone to stop you now."

Concubine Lian hurriedly walked outside, called a palace maid over, and ordered her to go out of the palace and stop the nun she had sent out of the palace before.

However, when she finally gave the order, she breathed a sigh of relief and turned around.

But she saw that the emperor had strode past her and walked outside.

"Your Majesty, you...won't you stay?"

She asked quickly.

"I still have something to do, so I won't stay."

The emperor waved his sleeves coldly at her, said something and left.

How could he have the energy to stay and look at this stupid woman? It was an eyesore, so he might as well go back to the imperial study.

Concubine Lian looked aggrieved as she watched the emperor get on the sedan chair and leave.

At this moment, she really wanted to twist Sui Zimo's head off his neck!

"Sui Zimo, please wait for me!"

If Sui Zimo hadn't poisoned her Jin'er, things like this wouldn't have happened, and the emperor wouldn't be angry with her.

All this is because of Sui Zimo!

This scourge, she shouldn't have kept him alive in the first place, she could have just strangled him to death!

She really didn't understand why the emperor wanted to bring back the scourge Sui Zimo, and also found it again after losing it for so many years.

Aren't you asking for trouble for yourself? Since Sui Zimo came back, who in the palace can be safe? It's all caused by Sui Zimo, and there is no peace at all.

Chapter 1623 It's Sui Zimo's territory

"Empress, should we...create some...chaos in Prince Mo's Mansion?"

Next to her, a eunuch looked at Concubine Lian's cannibalistic look, kindly stepped forward and asked flatteringly.

"roll!"

Concubine Lian turned around and glared at him fiercely.

How could she create chaos? She couldn't even fit anyone into Sui Zimo's palace, so how could she create chaos?

What's more, as the nominal mother-in-law of Sui Zimo, she can't even see her 'son'. How can she create this chaos?

And wasn't the emperor's meaning clear enough just now?

That is to let her stay at peace and not to mess with that big evil star Sui Zimo recently!

She really couldn't understand that the fate of the evil star was not really Sui Zimo's, so why did this bastard bring his bad energy wherever he went?

"call!"

She exhaled heavily.

There really is nothing you can do to deal with Sui Zimo. You can only settle down first and stop messing with Sui Zimo.

...

In the palace of Prince Jin.

Sui Zijin had suffered enough due to the poisoning incident.

Although he was in a coma, there were still times when he was awake. At that time, he really wanted to die directly.

And all of this was brought to him by Sui Zimo.

"Oh, do you want me to move to Prince Mo's Mansion?"

Looking at the nanny coming out of the palace and listening to her words, Sui Zijin really felt as if he heard Tian Fang Ye Tan.

"Concubine Mother thinks that the poison in this king is not deep enough. Do you want me to go to Prince Mo's Mansion to get a more powerful poison?"

"this....."

After hearing Sui Zijin's words, grandma was also full of embarrassment.

"Prince Jin, this old slave also persuaded Concubine Lian, but she... didn't listen. She felt that if you entered Prince Mo's Mansion, Prince Mo would definitely take good care of you. After all, you were sent there openly. Prince Mo won't dare do anything to you if you enter Prince Mo's Mansion."

She swallowed and said.

But when she said these words, even she felt guilty.

That was Prince Mo's Mansion. Prince Jin was sent to Prince Mo's Mansion. Even if he could come out alive, he would still have to peel off a layer of his skin.

It's good to have a layer of skin peeled off. Prince Mo, Sui Zimo, is very vicious. Who knows what vicious things he might do to Prince Jin behind closed doors?

"laugh."

Sui Zijin couldn't help but sneered after hearing her words.

Would Sui Zimo not dare to do anything to him?

This is simply a big joke. Sui Zimo would even resist his father, and he would do it secretly not just once or twice.

What's more, he will be sent to Prince Mo's Mansion next, which is Sui Zi Mo's territory.

Then, won't Sui Zijin be able to be bullied by Sui Zimo at will?

"My mother-in-law really thinks about this king."

He said quietly, but the sarcasm in his tone couldn't be more obvious.

Mammy is an old man next to Concubine Lian. She is very knowledgeable about words and expressions. How could she not understand the meaning of Sui Zijin's words?

"Prince Jin, don't blame the queen. Although the queen didn't think it through well, she did think about you. The queen thought that there is a female doctor in Prince Mo's palace, who will definitely be able to completely remove the poison from your body."

She hurriedly explained aloud.

It's just that Concubine Lian never thought about it. With her inseparable relationship with Sui Zimo, why should Sui Zimo detoxify Sui Zijin?

Chapter 1624 Accompany you on a mission?

That's something you shouldn't even think about!

"What's wrong, are you taking someone to carry me to Prince Mo's Mansion?" Sui Zijin asked her.

He couldn't help but wonder, if he hadn't woken up at this moment, would he have been carried to Prince Mo's Mansion when he was unconscious?

By then, he must not even know how he died!

Concubine, concubine, when will you think twice before doing something? How come you just think about it and do it!

"I don't dare, old slave."

Grandma quickly lowered her head and said.

"Prince Jin, I will go back and report to the empress right now, saying that you are awake."

"Go ahead."

Sui Zijin raised his hand and waved weakly towards his mother.

He, the mother-in-law, usually seems to be a very shrewd person, but in fact, he really has a woman's mind.

Whatever, he had to rely on himself for everything, and it was definitely unreliable to rely on his mother and concubine.

"It's a pity."

In Prince Mo's Mansion, Sui Zimo has already received the news.

Sighing faintly, he chuckled, feeling that Sui Zijin woke up at the wrong time.

He had already ordered people to stop the palace maid sent by Concubine Lian for the second time, but Sui Zijin woke up and the plan was ruined again.

"Since you're awake, there must be nothing important. Go and spread the news that Suizilin is terminally ill in Sui County to the ears of... the Queen Mother, and tell her that Suizilin's illness is actually not contagious. , only some rumors were spread before.

As for the origin of the rumor, you understand. "

"Yes, Your Majesty, my subordinates will take care of it now." Ban Jue responded and went out.

As the year approaches, it's time to come back. After all, in Sui County, even if you suffer a little, it's not a big sin.

Only after arriving in Shaohua City and facing off against Sui Zijin, could the two of them be defeated and injured.

"Brother Mo Lian, have you arranged everything?"

Suddenly, a voice came from the side. He turned his eyes and saw Lin Caisang who had just emerged from the golden bead space.

"Sonny, you're here."

Raising his hand, he waved to Lin Caisang and stood up at the same time.

"I'm fine here. I'll accompany you on your mission."

"No."

Lin Caisang shook his head.

"I haven't had to do any tasks lately. Chu Shui left this morning."

"Um?"

Hearing Lin Chushui left, Sui Zimo raised his eyebrows.

You left so soon, didn't you mean you would stay for a while longer?

"It seems that his parents still don't care much about his son, but you are quite tolerant."

He raised his hand and tapped the tip of her nose and said.

"What can I do if I'm not generous? Follow him? That's impossible." Lin Caisang shrugged his shoulders and said.

Naturally, she couldn't let go, but she had a saying that everyone could only walk on their own, and there was no way she could help Lin Chushui finish his journey.

Everyone has a different life, right?

"I have something I want to discuss with you."

She thought about it and thought about it again. She had already been thinking about it all day today, and decided to tell Sui Zimo her thoughts.

"go to your house."

Sui Zimo nodded and said.

So, the two of them entered the Jinzhu Space and sat down in the small bamboo hut in the ranch space.

The bamboo house has not been completely built yet, because Jiang Zuo has been a little busy recently. When he is free, he can come over and continue to build the bamboo house.

Chapter 1625: Or go bigger?

"Look at these.

Lin Caisang placed a stack of paper in front of Sui Zimo.

Sui Zimo took it over and looked at it one by one. After a long time, he finished reading the words on the stack of paper in his hand, and then looked up at her.

"You want to do business?"

What was written on these papers was no one else, but some business ideas, such as opening a restaurant, drug store, grain store, etc.

But why did his son suddenly think of doing this?

"Yes, I have a lot of money now, but I don't know how to spend it, so I just thought of doing some business first. What do you think?"

Lin Caisang sat down opposite Sui Zimo, looked at him eagerly, and asked.

"How much money do you want to use for business?" Sui Zimo asked her.

"Of course it's all." Lin Caisang said.

Sui Zimo: "!!!"

This girl, do you know how much she is worth now?

You actually want all the money to do business?

"Sonny, do you know how much business you can do with all your money?"

he asks.

"This...ahem."

Lin Caisang paused and coughed twice.

Then, she glanced at the papers first, and then looked at Sui Zimo. Wingdings:

◆ □ ◆ □ ◆ □ ◆ □ ◆ □ **⊗ □ ◆ □ ◆ □ □ □ ○ □

"How much money do I have now, Brother Melian?"

Since her brother Mo Lian was able to be brought into the Golden Pearl Space by her, she no longer paid attention to the money she earned. It was all counted by Suizi Mo Zai.

Moreover, she does not only do one or two tasks, but she will definitely earn a lot of money.

What's more, every time she does a mission to treat illnesses and save people, she can have many incidental opportunities to make money. Sometimes the incidental earnings are even more than doing serious tasks.

Hearing her words, Sui Zimo sighed lightly.

"You."

There was really nothing he could do with this little girl.

"If you want to use all the money you have now for business, you can probably monopolize the restaurant directly. The grain store can also be used, but in the drug store, the price of some medicinal materials is immeasurable. This needs to be further improved. think about it."

Lin Caisang: "..."

She blinked, then blinked again.

"Do I have that much money?"

She didn't think that if she wanted to do a bigger business, she wouldn't have enough money. She also thought about asking her brother Mo Lian to support her. If that didn't work, the two of them would work together.

But it turns out that she is also a person with a lot of money!

"What do you think?"

Sui Zimo stretched out his hand, crossed the table and lightly scratched the tip of her nose.

"Are you going to start a smaller business or go bigger?" he asked her.

"Go big."

Lin Caisang said without even thinking about it.

"Only when you grow your business and make enough money can you build bridges, pave roads, open schools for free, and treat poor patients on a free basis. What a great thing."

The most important thing is that you can earn merit points.

There was always a voice in her heart, telling her that these merit points would definitely be very useful when they arrived in Qianhuan Continent.

Therefore, she can earn as much as she can now.

And the bigger the business here is, the more good she can do and the more merit she can earn.

"Do you want to do good? Do you want to accumulate virtue? Or is there any use in the golden bead space?"

Sui Zimo frowned and asked him.

Chapter 1626 Got a good apprentice

Thinking about it, his son will not want to do certain things for no reason. Although these things can earn enough money, the little girl already has more money than she can spend in her lifetime, right?

"Yes, it works.

Lin Caisang puffed up his cheeks and nodded his head.

"I forgot to tell you before. After I helped you detoxify the 'Yin', I unintentionally started to connect the heart meridian in the golden bead space, where you can exchange for many things.

But these things are all exchanged for something called merit points, and merit points can only be obtained by doing good deeds and teaching others. "

Therefore, she planned to expand her plan to do good things.

Of course, it is not easy to do good things these days. If there is no money, how can she do good things?

"That's simple. Jiulian Palace has always had its own good place. I can let them go in your name..."

"Brother Melian."

Lin Caisang interrupted Sui Zimo.

"That's your merit value. I've already asked the little Caiqiao, and it said that your merit value is more than mine, and the merit value is measured in the Golden Pearl Space. You can't tell me, and the Golden Pearl Space can do it." Admit it."

However, it is impossible for her to compete with her brother Mo Lian for merit points.

Although this golden bead space belongs to her, she can exchange it for anything she wants.

But who knows when it will be necessary to use Sui Zimo's merit points? What if it needs to be used at that time, but his merit value is pitiful?

So, she might as well earn it herself.

"I think you can keep your merit points, virtue points, etc. for yourself. Maybe you can use them sometime."

After hearing her words, Sui Zimo was silent for a moment, lowered his head, and glanced at the papers in his hand.

"Then I will take care of this for you." He said.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"Brother Mo Lian, remember, I have to pay for it myself, otherwise, the merit points will still be counted only with you."

"Okay, remember."

Sui Zimo raised his hand lovingly, patted her head and responded.

...

Although Sui Zimo arranged everything for her, it was her business after all, and it was such a big project. How could she not care about it at all?

From that day on, Lin Caisang became busy.

However, no matter how busy she is, she will still find time to take care of her grandpa.

Zhong You has been able to do massage and acupuncture very well, but this has to be mixed with medicine. Lin Caisang does all the medicine dispensing. Of course, Zhong You will be behind her at this time. Follow up and follow out.

This is also what Lin Caisang requested.

After all, she has a disciple, not a handyman. She thinks that she should avoid Zhong You no matter what she does.

Otherwise, he would definitely not be able to learn anything.

"Zhong You, put all these medicinal materials into categories. If the weather is not good now, take them to Manghuang Mountain to dry them. Don't burn them too hard. Don't dry out all the medicinal properties."

Putting down the bamboo basket, she looked at the herbs she had just picked inside and explained to Zhong You who had just walked out of Lin Laogan's room.

"Okay, Master."

Zhong You responded, put the medicine bowl in his hand in the kitchen, and then went to Menghuang Mountain with the bamboo basket on his back.

"Sang Sang, you really have a good apprentice."

Lu Qiubo watched Zhong You leave and smiled at his granddaughter.

Chapter 1627 There is no end to learning, do you understand?

"you do not say."

Lin Changhong also echoed.

"Grandma, my Sangsang is so amazing. Such a young person can take on a disciple, and he can teach his disciples so well. It's simply amazing."

Lu Qiubo: "..."

Lin Caisang: "..."

"Changhong, are you okay?"

Lu Qiubo glared at the grandson angrily and asked.

If her Sangsang family isn't great, who else is? This is not just looking for something to talk about, but it's not just having nothing to do.

"Yeah, I didn't..."

"Brother, come with me. I have a few books here that I can show you.

Before Lin Changhong could finish speaking, he heard his sister's voice. He turned his eyes and looked at Lin Caisang, his expression suddenly turned bad.

"Sangsang, no... no need, right?"

He remembered that last time, his Sangsang gave him so many books, and then actually asked him to memorize them.

At that time, he almost cried while reciting the book.

Could it be that history is about to repeat itself and he still has to endorse it?

"Why don't you use it? There is no end to learning, do you understand? You have nothing to do. You can just read more books. You are already such an adult. You can't embarrass your mother, right?"

Lin Caisang said to her brother seriously.

Lin Changhong: "..."

He finally knew why he ended up like this.

Sister, your brother will never say you are young again, is that possible? Just stop endorsing me, right?

What a pity, how could Lin Caisang give him the chance to refuse?

"Let's go, don't wait any longer. After I give you the book, I still need to check Grandpa's pulse. If I'm delayed because of you, let's see how Grandma will deal with you!"

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Poor him, miserable him!

"All right."

There is no end to learning, there is no end to learning, he just hypnotizes himself.

Reading more books and learning more knowledge will be of great use. To be honest, he can't embarrass his mother in the future, can he?

Thinking about it, he followed his sister's footsteps and walked towards her room.

Lu Qiubo looked at the two siblings, smiled, and then went to the kitchen to prepare her lunch.

"Is this a book?"

In the room, Lin Changhong was stunned as he looked at the three jade tokens handed over by his sister.

"Sangsang, didn't you say...this is very expensive? Why are there so many of them?"

Will his girl's money not be enough? What to do when all the money is spent?

Moreover, the last time he saw the jade plaque that his sister wanted to give to Lin Chushui, it was not as big as this one. It was only a quarter of the size. Sang Sang said it was very expensive.

He could also see the painful expression on Sangsang's face last time.

But today...

"This is an ordinary book, not expensive. There is a jade book and a book. Two of them are about mechanism skills, and one is a spiritual cultivation secret book. You can read the spiritual cultivation secret book first, and then Brother Mo Lian and I will Practice with you."

Lin Caisang stuffed the jade book into Lin Changhong's hand and said.

"It would be better if the three of us practice together."

"Want to practice together?"

Lin Changhong murmured these words, and suddenly thought of something, his pupils suddenly shrank, and he looked at his sister.

"Sang Sang, if Chu Shui practices alone, will there be any mistakes?"

He thought of Lin Chushui. His younger brother was going to Qianhuan Continent, and this spiritual cultivation secret book sounded like something that was needed in Qianhuan Continent. Lin Chushui must have taken it too, right?

Chapter 1628 Brother Mo Lian's battlefield

Wouldn't it be bad if he practiced alone?

I feel like that worry is coming again, what should I do?

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised his eyes and glanced at his eldest brother, and curled his lips in displeasure.

"Chu Shui is not you. His character is more stable than yours. It doesn't matter if you practice alone." She said.

What's more, there is no way around it. If she has time, she will definitely let Lin Chushui lay the foundation here.

Unfortunately, her current Golden Pearl Space can only allow two people to enter, namely Sui Zimo and Jiang Zuo. It is impossible for others to enter unless they become slaves.

Therefore, she couldn't let Lin Chushui lay the foundation here.

Everything is up to him.

"Wow!"

Lin Changhong couldn't help but cursed.

How could he hear the contempt for his eldest brother from his sister's tone?

"Sang Sang, I am your big brother. Can't you stop praising others all the time and praise your own brother when you have time?"

He admitted that Lin Chushui was much better than his brother who was two years older than him in some aspects, but the little girl in front of him was his sister after all.

Is there anyone who despises his own brother so much and looks up to other people's children?

"Oh that's fine."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"I'll talk about it when I have time."

As for now, she really doesn't have time, there are still many things to be busy with.

Although her brother Mo Lian was already contacting the people at Jiulian Palace for her, she would soon be busy because she had to arrange everything by herself.

And her thoughts are not something others can guess. Of course, she has to do many things herself, which makes her feel more at ease.

"Brother, remember, if you have this thing, you must not let your mother know about it, do you understand?"

After thinking for a moment, she warned her eldest brother.

"Ah, why?"

Lin Changhong didn't understand. Didn't she come back from Qianhuan Continent? She should know the benefits of cultivating spiritual power, right?

"Tell me why!"

Lin Caisang was really defeated by her brother, but she could still ask why these three words.

"Mom, she came back from Qianhuan Continent after going through a lot of hardships. Although she didn't mention it to us, you can't even imagine the slightest bit of it?"

"this....."

Lin Changhong can certainly imagine it.

Although he couldn't imagine what his mother had suffered when she was in Qianhuan Continent, it must have been extremely painful.

Therefore, he would never mention these things in front of his mother, and he would treat it as if he had never known that his mother had been to Qianhuan Continent, and he would not ask anyway.

"You mean, mother has suffered too much in Qianhuan Continent, so she doesn't want us to suffer like that again?"

he asks.

"uh-huh."

Lin Caisang raised her eyebrows, indicating that her eldest brother had good understanding this time.

"Then I still don't understand. We live well here, why do we have to practice spiritual power?" Lin Changhong asked.

"I don't know if you want to learn it or not, but Brother Mo Lian and I must learn it, because..."

Lin Caisang paused and looked at the window of Suizi Mo's house seriously, his eyes gradually becoming darker.

"Brother Mo Lian's battlefield is not in the Liang Kingdom or the Wei Kingdom, but in the Qianhuan Continent. Maybe he is the same as Lin Chushui, or maybe he is different from Lin Chushui."

"What?!"

Chapter 1629 There will be changes in space

Lin Changhong was obviously frightened by her words.

"What you said is true, Brother Mo Lian. Are you really from Qianhuan Continent?"

"Didn't you know this last time?"

Lin Caisang glanced sideways and focused on his eldest brother.

"I know, but I don't know why Brother Mo Lian came here and had such an experience." Lin Changhong said.

Thinking about Sui Zimo's experience, he really admired him. He was just an ordinary person from Ya Village, but he was the prince of Weiguo, the majestic Prince Mo!

But he is Prince Mo, but he is also from Qianhuan Continent!

Moreover, there are countless conspiracies hidden in Sui Zimo that even he himself doesn't know about. They all know this, but they just don't know what those conspiracies are.

"Anyway, I will definitely go to Qianhuan Continent in the future, I am sure of this."

Lin Caisang said.

"Then I'll learn."

Lin Changhong also said quickly.

Not to mention that spiritual cultivation itself is beneficial, just because it can help Sui Zimo and his sister, he has to learn it, even if he has to work hard to learn it.

"As long as you want to learn, don't let mother find out when she comes back." Lin Caisang warned him.

"understand."

Lin Changhong nodded immediately. He would never let his mother find out!

He can guarantee this. After all, he can't do what he wants the girl to tell her.

...

Lin Caisang took Lin Laogan's pulse and asked him questions about his leg, then gave him another acupuncture treatment, and then returned to his room and entered the Jinzhu Space.

'Master, there is one thing that Jade Mirror must explain to you clearly.'

As soon as he entered the space, he saw a line of words displayed in the jade mirror.

"What's the matter? I have enough points and the space can be upgraded?" Lin Caisang rolled his eyes and asked.

In her mind, what she was thinking was, you only know how to write, so why do you use the word 'speak'?

And she knew that usually nothing good would happen in a situation like this.

'You are still on a mission and the space cannot be upgraded. ' A line of words was displayed again in the jade mirror.

"What's the matter?" Lin Caisang asked.

Since there is a problem, they will solve it. It's not like they haven't solved the problem before.

'There will be changes in Jinzhu Space in the near future, and a lot of things will be needed, so you need to prepare them. ' Two lines of characters were displayed in the jade mirror.

"a lot of things?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and asked Yu Jing.

"What is it, tell me."

'Points, merit points, gratitude points, moral values, and action points. ' In the jade mirror, a series of 'values' came out.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Not to mention that her current moral value is only a little, she can't stand the deduction at all. Moreover, what is the action value?

"What is action value?"

she asked.

'The so-called action value can only be obtained by completing missions continuously in the Golden Pearl Space. ' The words displayed in the jade mirror became densely packed due to the introduction of action values.

'From the first time you took on the task of treating patients and rescuing people, you took two in a row and gained some action points; and in this virtual task, you took on two tasks in a row and gained some action points; and in In the rush pulse, you practiced martial arts in the water curtain for two hours and gained some action points; and then...'

Anyway, there were a lot of people behind, and Lin Caisang's eyelids were twitching when he saw them.

Chapter 1630 Five missing points

"In a word, my action value is still enough for this change in the Golden Pearl Space, right?" Lin Caisang asked.

'right. '

A big word 'right' was displayed in the jade mirror.

"So? How many virtuous points do I still lack now?" Lin Caisang asked again.

'Five points missing. '

Those three words almost made Lin Caisang jump with anger.

Five o'clock, that is to say, she still has to do at least five virtual tasks!

It's okay to do virtual tasks, but now she is alone, and her brother Mo Lian is very busy, and she doesn't want to disturb him at this time.

What's more, she just told her brother Mo Lian that she doesn't need to do virtual tasks for the time being, and now she has to do it again so soon? Isn't this a lie?

"Brother Yujing, you are really good.

She raised her thumb towards the jade mirror, feeling helpless.

"What is a space change? Why does a good Jinzhu space have changes?" she asked.

After she asked, six black dots were directly displayed in the jade mirror, followed by three words, 'I don't know. '

Of course, without knowing it, a few more lines of words were displayed.

'Yu Jing doesn't know why there are changes in the Golden Pearl Space, but every time there is a change, the Golden Pearl Space will automatically close, as short as an hour, or as long as ten days and a half.

During this time, even the owner cannot enter the Golden Pearl Space, unless the owner is in the Golden Pearl Space.

But similarly, if the owner is in the Golden Pearl Space, he will be locked in and unable to get out until the Golden Pearl Space is opened again before he can leave. '

Lin Caisang: "..."

Then does she still dare to stay in the Jinzhu Space?

Having lost contact with the outside world, her brother Mo Lian, as well as grandpa and grandma, they are dying of panic!

"After the Jinzhu space changes, what will happen inside?" she asked.

'There will be some more things. For example, the Linking Heart Vein is very likely to appear when there is a change in the Golden Pearl Space. Of course, the master's Linking Heart Channel has already been opened, so there is no need to open it when there is a change. '

Looking at the words on the jade mirror, Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows.

In other words, the so-called changes in the Golden Pearl Space actually mean that something wants to come out, so there are such changes, so do you need points or something?

"Is it possible to upgrade?"

she asked.

'have no idea.'

Yu Jing replied directly to her with three words.

"Then if I do more virtual missions and save more virtue points, will there be more good things or upgrades after the space changes?"

Lin Caisang asked.

'Theoretically, it's like this.' Yu Jing said.

"Then what are you waiting for? Let's do the mission."

Lin Caisang shrugged, thought about it, and decided to go find Sui Zimo.

"Look, keep looking, and you must find this person for me!"

As soon as he arrived at Sui Zimo's study, he heard the man's cold voice, and the air was filled with anger.

Lin Caisang frowned.

"What's going on? Are you so angry?"

She glanced at Ban Jue, then walked towards Sui Zimo and asked.

"Miss Lin."

Ban Jue touched his nose, lowered his head and said nothing.

"Um?"

When Lin Caisang looked at his look, he knew that something big had happened.

"Brother Mo Lian, what's wrong with you? What happened in the house?" she asked him.

Sui Zimo's cold face didn't soften much even after he took care of her, as if he wanted to eat someone.

She has really never seen Sui Zimo like this.
