Chapter 1631 Clothes will be stolen

"Exiled Jue, tell me, what happened?" she asked Exiled Jue.

"Miss Lin, the clothes you gave to the prince are gone." Ban Jue raised his head, glanced at his prince secretly, then lowered his head and said nothing.

Of course, the clothes couldn't have disappeared for no reason. They must have been stolen.

It's just that he and his people searched the entire Prince Mo's Mansion but couldn't find the set of clothes. They almost dug three feet into the ground.

Lin Caisang: "..."

These days, will even a set of clothes be stolen?

"Brother Melian, aren't you wearing those clothes?" she asked.

Hearing this, Sui Zimo took a deep breath and gritted his teeth.

"I went to do errands outside the city today. When I came back, I was caught in the rain, so I changed my clothes." He explained.

Originally, he would not take off those clothes because they would not get dirty and would not smell bad even if they were worn for a long time.

Of course, he usually washes it, but it is done by novices, and even if the clothes made of ice silk are washed, they only need to be shaken twice before they are no different from dry clothes.

He never leaves.

Who knew that someone would take advantage of the loophole and steal the clothes!

"today?"

Lin Caisang chuckled.

"In other words, someone has been eyeing the ice silkworm suit early in the morning, and then finally stole it today when you had no time to care?"

What a coincidence. It makes people want to kill all those thieves!

"yes.

Sui Zimo nodded.

Prince Mo's Mansion is in Shaohua City. Who doesn't know that no outsider can come in at will?

In other words, there was actually a thief in Prince Mo's palace, and he was able to enter his room.

How could he not be angry?

Especially, what the thief stole was the clothes that Sonny gave him, the ice silkworm suit!

"That thief has really good eyesight. He spotted the ice silkworm clothes at a glance." Lin Caisang chuckled again and said.

Sui Zimo pursed his lips and said nothing.

No one knew that he was wearing clothes made of ice silk. The only one who knew was the man in the cloak who had fought with him, because his ice silk clothes were invulnerable, and even with spiritual skills, they could block three enemies. point.

"Actually, Brother Mo Lian, there is no need to look for him now." Lin Caisang looked at Sui Zimo and said.

"Um?"

Sui Zimo looked at her, puzzled.

"You should know that I made that set of clothes specially for you. They are different from ordinary ice silkworm clothes." Lin Caisang explained.

"Um."

Sui Zimo nodded.

Of course he knew this.

"I fed the ice silkworms that time with medicine, and it was a special medicine. No one else can wear it except you." Lin Caisang spoke again and said.

"ah?"

Ban Jue couldn't help but speak out, his face full of astonishment.

"Miss Lin, even if ice is ice silkworm clothing, it can't be worn by only the prince, right?"

Isn't this nonsense? Only the prince can wear it, how can it be like this? Clothes are just clothes, anyone can wear them, right?

"Is it possible that if this ice silkworm clothing is worn on someone else, it will be poisoned?"

Hearing this, Lin Caisang nodded.

"It's true, others will be poisoned if they wear it."

Banished: "!!!"

The guy who stole his prince's ice silkworm clothes and wore it, is he still going to die?

"Miss Lin, is what you said true? But how could it be?"

"Why not?"

Lin Caisang chuckled, thinking he was so good at it.

Chapter 1632 How can it not be poisoned?

"Your prince is inherently poisonous, and my ice silkworm coat is also poisonous. But using poison to fight poison can suppress the poison in your prince by five points to ensure that the poison in his body will not relapse frequently.

she explained.

"Since there is an antidote, why..."

Ban Jue's eyes lit up when he heard what his mistress said.

Since it can be attacked with poison, doesn't it mean that there is an antidote? Can't the poison on his prince's body be cured?

Is this true?

"You think it's that simple?"

Lin Caisang rolled his eyes and replied angrily.

"The method of raising ice silkworms is what I saw there, but it is only for ice silkworms, and other methods are not available, including directly detoxifying you.

She looked at Sui Zimo and explained to him.

"The poison on your body is quite special. If you don't give the right medicine, it will definitely not work. However, the medicine I use to raise ice silkworms to fight poison with poison can restrain all poisons.

It can only restrain the poison in you. "

"I see."

Sui Zimo raised his hand and caressed her face.

But he was still angry, who could actually steal the ice silkworm clothes from under his nose.

Especially at that time, he was separated from the ice silkworm clothes by a screen and was bathing inside. He thought about coming out, so he washed the ice silkworm clothes and put them on.

Who knew, but it gave that person the opportunity to steal it!

Taking a deep breath, he exhaled heavily.

"Exiled Jue, you continue to investigate, you must find this person!" He told Exiled Jue.

He wants to know who dares to come to his Prince Mo's mansion to steal things!

"Yes, Your Majesty, I will go right away."

Ban Jue responded and was about to turn around and leave, but was stopped by Lin Caisang.

"Exiled Jue, you don't have to go."

He turned back to look at Lin Caisang, and then at his own prince.

"Miss Lin..."

"Didn't I just say that those ice silkworm clothes are poisonous?" Lin Caisang said.

"Even if it is poisonous, how can ordinary people not be poisoned if they wear it? That ice silkworm coat is a treasure for people who are prone to poisonous poisons at any time. It can suppress the poisonous poison.

But for people who are not poisonous... it is not a good thing and will definitely be poisoned.

But that kind of poison will not kill people, it will only make people miserable. Just wait for that person to come to your door for help. It will be very soon, and the person will come within two days. "

she said.

"Then...your lord." Ban Jue looked at Sui Zimo.

"You go down."

Sui Zimo dismissed the banishment decision, and only he and Lin Caisang were left in the study.

"Sonny, why are you here now?" he asked.

"Um...hehe, there's something wrong."

Lin Caisang flattened his mouth and looked at him with a guilty conscience. He put the index fingers of his two hands on his chest and pressed against each other.

"Huh? What's the matter?" Sui Zimo asked.

There is something that cannot be said directly. It is rare for this little girl to be so honest.

"Didn't I say before... that we don't need to do virtual tasks now, but... we still have to do five, and we have to do five quickly. I just came to ask if you would like to go with me."

She thinks that if she goes on a virtual mission alone, her brother Mo Lian will definitely beat her up if he finds out.

"Do five in a row?"

Now, Sui Zimo felt strange.

Chapter 1633 Hail that can kill people

Although virtual tasks are virtual, they also require a lot of energy when doing them.

Doing five in a row at once seems a bit much, right?

"But what happened? You need to enter Jinzhu Pavilion?"

That's not five, but a dozen, right?

Because his son's son had already used up all his Yin Virtue points, leaving only a little bit left, and this point, she had told him, was locked and could not be used.

"Yu Jing said that there will be changes in the Golden Pearl Space soon, and many things are needed. One of them is moral virtue. But I don't have moral virtue now, so I can only earn it quickly."

Lin Caisang explained.

"We're going now."

Sui Zimo said to her without thinking.

"Going right now?"

Lin Caisang's eyes widened and she pursed her red lips.

Isn't this a little too anxious? Go now, they can rest for a while, don't be in a hurry, really don't be in a hurry.

"Okay, let's go now."

In a dark environment, Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo were together, with all four hands raised.

On top of their heads, there was a large iron sheet, which was very thick and heavy, making her feel that her arms no longer belonged to her.

But they still didn't dare to let go and continued to move forward with the iron sheet on their heads.

'Dong, dong dong. ' There was a loud sound coming from the iron sheet, which was caused by heavy objects hitting the iron sheet.

From the side, there would also be loud sounds, the sounds of heavy objects hitting various things.

"Girl, sir, this is it. Our home is right in front."

Next to them, there was a man and a woman standing. Both of them were carrying something on their heads, but unlike Lin Caisang and the others, they were carrying very thick wooden boards.

"good."

Lin Caisang turned around and responded.

The moment she turned around, she could see a hailstone as big as a fist hitting the ground right under her nose.

"Such a big hail, I really doubt this is God's punishment for this place. No wonder they are looking for us. The people here probably won't survive, Brother Melian."

If she were to come to this place alone, would she be hit by hailstones?

"This is not real hail."

Sui Zimo looked at the hailstones on the ground. Although they were very big, if they were really hailstones, how could they melt so quickly?

The hailstones that had just fallen had already melted under their feet within a few seconds.

And if according to ordinary hail, it has rained for more than ten days, and the place has long been frozen. How could it be possible to go so smoothly?

"I know that."

Lin Caisang sighed heavily and said.

She was not blind, how could she not see how quickly those hailstones melted.

"But it's useless to know that what fell on the ground is indeed hail." Hail that can kill people!

She added silently in her mind.

Because the brother and sister who came to rescue said that hail had fallen here for more than ten days and had killed many people.

And after they came all the way, they did find that although the hail melted quickly, it was indeed capable of killing people, because their carriage was almost smashed into pieces.

"Go over first and then talk." Sui Zimo said.

"Um."

Lin Caisang responded, and the two followed the siblings to their county town.

...

Chapter 1634: Being smashed into pulp

In this county that had been experiencing hail for more than ten days, there was naturally no one on the streets.

Who would run into the street and expect hailstones to crush them to death? Of course, they should hide if they can. Everything that can be used at home has been hung up to block the hailstones that will kill people without paying for their lives. Hail.

"Father, mother, we are back, and we have invited the masters from Wuzhu Tea House." The elder sister of the pair of siblings shouted at the top of her lungs as soon as she brought Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo in.

"I'm here, I'm finally here, I've finally brought you back."

Two middle-aged men came out of the house. When they saw the siblings, the woman let out a heavy sigh.

"You don't know, my mother is really worried to death. How could you have been gone for so long? This is because you want to..."

"Mom, what are you talking about? There are still guests."

The younger brother interrupted his mother's words, frowned, and glanced at Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang standing aside.

"Guest, oh, I was so busy talking that I forgot to greet the distinguished guests. Please sit down in the room, please. Sit down in the room." The woman looked at Lin Caisang and said with a smile.

And went in facing Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo.

After sitting down in the living room, Lin Caisang could still hear a violent crackling sound coming from the roof.

"Two distinguished guests, I'm sorry to trouble you, but we must save the people in our county. As it is now, we can't even go out, and those who don't have food at home will starve to death."

The man looked a little sad and said to Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang.

"Tell us about the situation." Lin Caisang asked them.

She and Sui Zimo didn't quite understand the situation, as they had only heard general remarks from their sister and brother before.

"Is such that."

The man began to talk to the two of them, which was another disguised form of complaint.

It turned out that thirteen days ago, one night, when everyone was sleeping soundly, a crackling sound was heard on the roof, which woke up the entire county.

At that time, the hailstones were not that big, just like marbles.

Everyone didn't take it to heart, because no matter where they are, hail will always happen, and it's not surprising here.

Everyone thought, let's do it, it will stop by the time they sleep and wake up, it's no big deal.

How do you know...

The hail couldn't stop falling at all, and the hail particles were getting bigger and bigger. The marbles at the beginning were as big as a fist.

People in their county really doubt whether it will be as big as a human head in a few days.

If it rains harder and harder, will it be possible that when the time comes, a hailstone can directly smash a person into a pulp?

Although these hailstones will melt soon after they hit the ground, it really only takes a moment for a person to be smashed into a pulp. How can you wait for the hailstones to melt?

"The people in our county have never offended anyone, let alone done anything harmful to the world. How could something like this happen? Wow." As the man spoke, the woman next to him began to He complained, and finally burst into tears.

"Okay, mother, please stop crying. We have already invited two nobles from Wuzhu Tea House. They will definitely be able to help us!" The younger brother saw his mother crying and hurriedly advised her.

Chapter 1635: One cannot break one&#x2019;s word

"That's right, mother, don't cry yet. We'll go outside to see what's going on later. We'll definitely be able to find the person who did this. My sister also started to persuade the woman.

"Why do you think this is not a natural disaster but a man-made disaster?" Sui Zimo looked at the man and asked.

He had felt strange since he was at Wuzhu Teahouse.

Originally, hail was beyond human control and should be considered a natural disaster.

But these two siblings told each other that someone wanted to harm someone in their county, so they asked him and Sonny to come and arrest the culprit.

That's why he felt strange, why did they think this was a man-made disaster rather than a natural disaster?

"this....."

When this was mentioned, the man's face looked a little strange.

"This... it's nothing. Just think about it and you can figure it out. If it was a natural disaster, how could the hail be getting bigger and bigger?"

Besides, who has ever heard of hail falling for so long, and hail so big that it would make a big hole in a person's head? Natural disasters don't happen like this, right? "

Hearing his words, Sui Zimo looked stern, and Lin Caisang's face also didn't look good.

"hehe."

She sneered twice and stood up.

"It seems that this task is unbearable for us. Let's take our leave."

So it's obvious that there is a secret being hidden from them, and it's about this hailstorm, right?

She and Sui Zimo came to solve the problem for them, but they actually wanted to hide it from them. Was their conscience gnawed by a dog?

Do they deserve to jump into the hole these people dug themselves?

"Let's go."

Sui Zimo also stood up, put his arm around Lin Caisang's shoulders, and the two of them were about to walk out the door.

"Etc., etc."

When the man saw them turning around to leave, he suddenly felt bad and stood up from the stool.

"You two, wait a minute, you have something to say, you have something to say."

He quickly walked up to Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo and stopped them.

"Girl, Master, your Wuzhu Teahouse will definitely complete the task after accepting it. We are really suffering here, you can't just ignore it!"

"That's right, miss, young master, you have accepted the mission. The people of Wuzhu Teahouse can't break their word."

The woman also came over and said to the two of them.

Lin Caisang: "..."

She raised her head and looked at Sui Zimo, she really saw it today.

This is the fifth mission she has taken on this time. The previous four missions were surprisingly smooth and did not take many days.

But no matter how many days it takes, who of those who ask them for help is not telling them the truth?

Even if he did something wrong, he told the truth and didn't hide anything.

That's why they complete tasks so quickly.

But when they got here, not only did they not tell them the truth, they actually wanted to hide the truth about the hailstorm here. Do they deserve to bear the burden for the people in this county?

"Didn't your daughter and son tell you that our Wuzhu Tea House did not take over your mission here?"

She looked at the man coldly and said word by word.

"Wha...what?"

The man seemed to be shocked by Lin Caisang's words.

Turning his head, he looked at his son and daughter, trying to get the answers they wanted from them.

Who knew...

The elder sister smiled awkwardly at Lin Caisang.

Chapter 1636 Stay here and die

"Girl, I'm sorry, I...I, it's my parents' fault. Please stay a moment. I will persuade my parents to tell you everything about this place.

With that said, he dragged his parents away, leaving only his younger brother here to look after Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo.

"You two distinguished guests, please sit down for a while. My sister can persuade my parents. If you really can't persuade me, we will take you to other houses. I believe someone will be willing to talk."

The younger brother said to Lin Caisang and the other two.

If they could know the secret, they would have told them long ago.

It's a pity that they don't know where the hail came from.

The elder sister pulled her father and mother to the corridor outside with a very bad expression. Under the sound of hail falling, she spoke angrily to them.

"Father, mother, don't you think the city is chaotic enough? We finally invited the people from Wuzhu Tea House. Do you just want them to leave like this?"

"I....."

The man opened his mouth, not knowing what to say.

"You know, if they leave this time, they won't come back again!" My sister said again.

"Then...then they are willing to help. Can they still regret it?"

The woman didn't care about her daughter's words. She felt that the two men were just scaring them and it was no big deal.

"you--"

My sister is really going to be mad at her mother.

"Don't you know who they are? When people from Wuzhu Tea House help others, they have to be countered. If they want to help, they can help, and if they don't want to help, they can leave."

she shouted at the woman.

"Besides, that girl didn't promise to help us at all, she just said to come over and take a look first!"

"This...how can it be like this? The people at Wuzhu Teahouse are too casual, right? We are in such a miserable situation here, and they are not willing to help?" The woman curled her lips, feeling that Lin Caisang and Mrs. Suizi Mo should not .

elder sister:" ....."

What kind of father and mother is she having sex with?

"Okay, if you don't want to talk, I will take them to find someone else. There will always be someone who is willing to talk. If it doesn't work and they leave the city, then I will move out with my brother. Who wants to stay here and die? , who keeps it."

With that said, she was going to find Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo, and take them to find people elsewhere.

"How can this happen? Come back!"

When the man heard her words, he was frightened. He quickly stretched out his hand and pulled her back.

"Why not? I won't stay here and die!"

My sister doesn't think it's a bad thing to move away from this county.

On the contrary, since she was born, she has felt that everyone here is mysterious and mysterious, making her feel uncomfortable at all.

Maybe after leaving here, she and her brother could live a better life.

"You can say whether you love me or not. I'll take them to other people's homes first to ask. If you really can't find out, then let's go. Those people who deserve to be beaten to death deserve to be beaten to death, and they don't need anything more from me. thing!"

She shook off her father's hand and prepared to leave.

"you--"

When the men and women heard her words, the colors on their faces changed.

"Wait, wait a minute, let me tell you, okay?"

Why are you forcing him like this? These things are not something he can just say if he wants to. He really... doesn't know how to speak.

Chapter 1637 Ice of the Shadow of Heavenly Punishment

"Want to say it?"

The elder sister didn't turn around, but sneered.

No matter how secret the matter is, in front of people's lives, it can be concealed like this. She was really impressed.

"Then hurry in. The people in Wuzhu Teahouse are very capable. They don't want to waste time on your indecision. If you provoke them, they will really let go!"

She threatened.

"This..."

The man was also scared. He listened to the sound of hail falling on the wooden boards and watched the hail melting quickly on the ground.

He thought to himself that if this matter was not resolved, I'm afraid that the people in their county would really be crushed to death!

"Let's go.

After a while, Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo sat down again. The faces of the man and his wife opposite them were not good.

She looked at Lin Caisang and the others carefully, and then looked at them again, as if she wanted to look at them endlessly.

"If you two don't want to talk, you don't have to talk. There are many people who want to ask for help from my Wuzhu Teahouse, and you are not the only one."

Lin Caisang raised her eyelids and said to the two.

"Dad, you should talk quickly, what are you hesitating about?" Sister urged again.

"Wait, let me think about it, think about it again..."

Without waiting for the man to finish, Lin Caisang stood up again and sneered.

"Then you can think about it slowly, Brother Molian, let's go!"

Do you really think they are easy to bully? She hasn't accepted this task yet. Does she really think that without this task, her Wuzhu Teahouse will not be able to support it?

"Okay..."

"No, no, I'll say it, I'll say it. "

Sui Zimo hadn't finished saying "OK" when he heard the man's anxious voice.

"Hehe."

He sneered.

"You're really shameless, aren't you?"

"Uh."

The man's face turned pale at his words.

"I'll count to three, one, two..."

"This hail is called Shadow Ice, and it's a punishment from heaven in our county!" The man closed his eyes and spoke to the two.

"Heavenly punishment!"

Even Sui Zimo was shocked by these two words.

Lin Caisang asked directly.

"Isn't the punishment from heaven something that only spirits have? How come it's here?"

The so-called heavenly punishment is the punishment that the spirit people will receive when they do something wrong. Of course, not every spirit person will be punished by heaven, only some places will be punished by heaven.

She really didn't expect that there would be heavenly punishment in such a small county of the human race.

"Yes, it is only for the spirit people. The ancestors of our county were spirit people, but later they married human wives, and their descendants also married human women one after another, so they degenerated and gradually became human people."

The man said.

"So, the spirit aura on the two of them is so strong?" Lin Caisang looked at the brother and sister and asked the man.

She had discovered that the brother and sister had the aura of the spirit people.

But she was not sure whether these two people were infected or they were spirit people, so she didn't say it.

"Yes."

The man gritted his teeth and nodded.

"Since there is heavenly punishment here, why don't you leave? You are already human people, aren't you?" Sui Zimo asked him.

"Do you think we don't want to leave? There's no way you can get away!" the man said with a sad smile.

Chapter 1638 A bolt of lightning came down

If they could leave, would they not leave and stay in this county to die?

"As long as half of us here leave, the others will not be able to get out, and the punishment from heaven will come immediately. Just like now, the ice of shadow is getting bigger and bigger, until it will hit everyone in the county. die.

Then he turned his head and looked at his two children.

"My two children were allowed to go out because they have heavy spirit blood. Otherwise, if all of us here were killed by the Ice of Shadows, no one would know about it!"

Yes, that's it.

"What about this time? Is it because many people left the county?" Lin Caisang asked.

"No.

The man shook his head and denied her words.

"There are not many people going out of the city at all, and if they go out of the city, they will come back soon. How can there be so many people going out of the city? The city is controlled by someone, who can go out casually."

"oh."

Lin Caisang nodded.

Either someone went out of the city to trigger the Heavenly Punishment of Shadow Ice, or someone did something hugely wrong, which triggered the Heavenly Punishment.

"You should tell me how this heavenly punishment came about. You should know it, right?"

She asked, raising her eyebrows at the man.

"this....."

The man still hesitated a little, but he didn't hesitate for long before he thought about it.

There is always something to say, otherwise they will all die under the punishment of this Shadow Ice.

"According to what has been passed down from our ancestors, it should be that the earliest ancestors in our county came to the human race because they committed certain crimes in the spirit tribe, and then settled down in this place, married wives and had children.

Therefore, this natural punishment was brought about by them.

At first we didn't know what this heavenly punishment was or whether it existed. It wasn't until the hail fell this time, and the hail became bigger and bigger, that we realized that this was the shadow that our ancestors said. The punishment of ice and heaven. "

He raised his hand, wiped his face, and said with a gloomy face.

Thinking of this heavenly punishment, thinking that they might die under this heavenly punishment, he really wanted to kill them head-on. It would be better than being smashed into pulp by hailstones.

The man then said a lot more, all about the Shadow Ice Heavenly Punishment.

However, when Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo came to the room assigned to them and closed the door, questions arose.

"Brother Mo Lian, do you also think that is the Shadow Ice Heaven Punishment?" she asked Sui Zimo.

Sui Zimo shook his head, then shook his head.

"I don't think so. The Spirit Clan's natural punishment has always been very fast. How can it last for ten days and a half?" he said.

Even though he was just accompanying Sonny on virtual tasks here, he still had an understanding of the basic settings here.

The so-called divine punishment is the divine punishment for a person who has made a big mistake or done many evil things.

This kind of punishment must be very fast, like a bolt of lightning coming down and directly killing the person. That is the punishment of heaven. It has only one purpose, which is to make the person who made the mistake die!

Where can it be like here? The hail has been there for ten and a half days and it hasn't ended yet, which makes people panic.

"This hail seems to be someone's prank, what do you think?"

"I think so."

Lin Caisang quite agreed with Sui Zimo's words.

Heaven's Punishment, how can there be such a thing? Even if there really is the so-called Heaven's Punishment Shadow Ice in this county, it will not be the current hail!

Chapter 1639 Let's sleep on the same bed

"It seems that someone is still causing trouble, or maybe it's not a human being.

she said.

"Um."

Sui Zimo responded.

"According to what the man just said, before the hailstorm, a rainbow of seven colors appeared in the south of the city, and it appeared without rain. Maybe we can go there tomorrow to have a look."

he suggested.

"good."

Lin Caisang nodded.

Rainbows of seven colors are common, but she has never seen a rainbow like the one the man described.

The man said that the rainbow was beautiful, with seven distinct colors, and it was so big that it could cover the entire south of the city, causing people walking in the south to appear in colorful colors.

Is this a rainbow?

It's obviously a weird phenomenon!

"Let's go to the south of the city tomorrow and go to bed early today."

she said.

On the roof, there was still the sound of hail falling to the ground, but it was covered with thick wooden boards, so it would be okay for the time being.

They can sleep peacefully.

Early the next morning, it was just dawn.

"The sound of hail seems to have gotten louder again."

Sitting up from the bed, she opened her confused eyes and looked at Sui Zimo, who was sleeping on the floor.

I really feel sorry for him. Every time he does virtual tasks, her brother Mo Lian has to lay on the floor. It's so pitiful.

And let him sleep in another room, he will definitely not want to.

"Well, it's getting bigger again." Sui Zimo nodded.

He listened to the hail all night and could naturally feel the changes in the hail.

"Brother Mo Lian, why don't you sleep on the same bed with me next time? It's very cold on the ground." Lin Caisang was still in a confused state at the moment and said to Sui Zimo.

"Um?"

Sui Zimo raised his eyebrows, looking at her with a smile in his eyes.

"you sure?"

He didn't have any objection, but he was afraid that this girl would kick him out of bed. After all, the reputation of a girl's family is still very important, right?

"You're sure, this is a virtual mission world, and you can't see it, so there's nothing to be sure about." Lin Caisang said.

Moreover, since she was going to marry Brother Mo Lian in the future, she thought it would have nothing to do with two people sleeping in the same bed, right?

"good."

Sui Zimo responded.

Then he stood up, came to the bed and sat down.

"Are you awake?"

He raised his hand, patted her little face twice, and asked softly.

"Come on, wake up soon." She replied.

In fact, she still wanted to sleep, even if she could nap for a short while.

She had done four tasks before, and she was so tired that she almost collapsed. For the first time, she knew how tiring it was to do tasks continuously.

But the sound of hail hitting the roof outside was so noisy that she couldn't sleep, so she had to get up.

"This action value is really hard to earn."

she said.

"What do you want to eat? I'll cook it for you."

Sui Zimo looked at her kitten-like eyes, chuckled, and asked.

When he heard about the food, Lin Caisang felt that he suddenly woke up a lot, and his eyes began to light up.

"As long as it's made by you, it's fine. I want to eat shrimp..."

She hugged Sui Zimo's arm and said.

Sui Zimo: "..."

Sure enough, the first two sentences are all in vain, the most important thing is the last four words.

"There are no live shrimps, only dried shrimps, which need to be soaked before cooking," he said.

"Well, it's all okay, all is okay." Lin Caisang nodded again.

Chapter 1640 Are you bored?

Then, she let go of Sui Zimo's arm, quickly jumped out of bed, and accompanied him to the kitchen of this house.

In the kitchen, the woman was making breakfast. When she saw Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang coming over, she hurriedly greeted them.

"Girl, sir, are you up? Breakfast is ready and ready to eat."

Although there was some unpleasantness yesterday, she was pulled into the room by her daughter at night and given a serious warning.

She felt that she should calm down and not make the two people in front of her unhappy.

Otherwise, if these two people just walk away, the people in their county will be the most unlucky, and they will be crushed to death by the increasingly larger hailstones.

"No need, we will do it ourselves." Lin Caisang said.

"Do it yourself, oh oh."

The woman looked at Lin Caisang and then at Sui Zimo.

I muttered in my heart, it seems that they are also a young couple. It is normal for the little girl to want to cook for her husband.

"Girl, there are some dishes here. The rice and noodles are all put down. You can take whatever you want."

She pointed to the cabinet on the side and said to Lin Caisang.

"Brother Melian, the dishes are all there, I'll go..."

"I come."

Before Lin Caisang could finish speaking, Sui Zimo strode over and took out all the things he needed.

Then, start making breakfast.

The woman next to her just watched helplessly as Sui Zimo, a man, was busy making breakfast, while Lin Caisang, a girl who should be busy in the kitchen, stood aside and watched like this. With.

"Are you bored?"

Sui Zimo prepared all the dishes, and then looked at Lin Caisang aside.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

It was indeed quite boring, but what could be done? As long as her brother Mo Lian was around, she couldn't do anything she wanted to do in the kitchen.

Therefore, no matter how bored she was, she could only do this and watch.

"Go and light a fire, but don't burn your hands."

Sui Zimo looked at her fondly and asked her to do something, but he still warned her carefully.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Could it be that when she was refining the elixir, she had lost her own hand?

"Got it."

She rolled her eyes and nodded to Sui Zimo.

She knew that he cared about her and was afraid that she would really burn out any part of her body.

After all, when she almost burned down the Lin family's kitchen, Sui Zimo had already moved next door to her house, watched it with his own eyes, and even came over to put out the fire.

If it were her, she would still be scared.

After all, there is a saying that is right, once bitten by a snake, you will be afraid of the rope for ten years. This sentence is not unreasonable.

Thinking about it, she went to light a fire under the stove.

"Well, how about I do it?"

The woman was stunned for a while, and finally came to her senses after seeing Lin Caisang taking out their fire dumplings.

Of course she heard what the young master just said.

I couldn't help but wonder, could it be that this girl really didn't even do any work in the kitchen, so that made the young man cook for himself?

If that were really the case, wouldn't their kitchen be...

Therefore, she might as well do it herself and treat it as a favor to them.

And even if they didn't, she still had to prepare their breakfast and deliver it to them.
