

Star of Space 1661

Chapter 1661 The shock in my heart is quite big!

If this matter were to happen to me, I would not be able to treat it as if it had nothing to do with me.

But I still feel that if Concubine Lian really wants to leave the palace, it would be better to ask for the emperor's handwriting before leaving the palace. It would be better than leaving the palace in a bad situation like the queen mother. "

"Your Majesty, are you right to say that I am a concubine?"

Finally, she turned the conversation to the emperor and asked him if that was right?

What can the emperor say? Women in the palace cannot leave the palace without permission.

Even if they are the Queen Mother and the Empress, they have to go through complicated procedures if they want to leave the palace. However, Concubine Lian has recently been able to leave the palace however she wants.

This matter reached the ears of the Queen Mother, and she naturally had to take care of it.

"This matter is Concubine Lian's fault. When she comes over, I will remind her to pay more attention."

It is said that in Concubine Lian's palace, when Eunuch Gui sent an edict, Concubine Lian was invited to visit her in the study.

Concubine Lian's mood has never been so exciting as at this moment.

Since the admiral was scolded by the emperor, she has not seen the emperor for a few days, although she has been a little busy these days to check on her son.

But she still hoped in her heart that the emperor could come to her palace.

Moreover, she was also afraid that the emperor was really disappointed in her and would never remember her as a concubine. After all, the secret of their relationship with Sui Zimo had been completely revealed.

She no longer pretended to be a loving mother, and the emperor had finally taken advantage of her.

As for the future, if she wanted to win the emperor's heart again, she would have to find a way on her own.

But what can she think of?

She does not have the rights and status of the Queen, nor does she have a mother's family that was extremely powerful in the previous dynasty.

What could she do?

We can only wait day after day, waiting for the emperor to think of her again and be able to come and see her.

The reason why she went out of the palace to see her son every day was actually a means. If she left the palace too many times, she would definitely attract the emperor's attention.

If she could use this to make the emperor notice her and still think of her as Jin'er's mother-in-law, then all her efforts would not be in vain.

Therefore, when Eunuch Gui came over and invited her to the imperial study, she was extremely happy.

She immediately ordered the maids around her to dress her up as beautifully as possible, and then went to the royal study in a soft sedan chair.

On the side, Eunuch Gui looked at Concubine Lian like this and couldn't help but feel contempt in his heart.

I don't know how Concubine Lian's heart will become distorted when she sees the empress dressed in simple clothes in the royal study.

After all, Concubine Lian's face was not even a bit inferior to that of the Empress, who had always been well-maintained, and Concubine Lian's current appearance fully reflected the maturity of a half-century-old woman.

But the Queen is different. Her simple and plain dress makes her look at least ten years younger.

Compared with Concubine Lian, this is like heaven and earth!

...

Sure enough, when Eunuch Gui took Concubine Lian into the imperial study, the emperor felt very off-putting when he saw Concubine Lian's clothes and her wrinkled face.

As for Concubine Lian, when she saw that there was not only the emperor but also the empress in the royal study, she was quite shocked!

She knew that the Empress had regained his favor, but she never expected that the Emperor's favor for the Empress would reach the point where he could allow the Empress to enter the royal study at any time.

Chapter 1662 Admit your mistake immediately

Seeing the Queen sitting upright next to the Emperor, the impact of this impact on Concubine Lian was definitely more than just a little or two.

"Why are you here?"

So, she thought about it and asked directly to the Queen.

Hearing her question, the Queen just raised her eyebrows at her and glanced at the Emperor beside her.

Sure enough, when she saw the emperor's face, she suddenly turned bad.

"Concubine Lian, do you take me seriously? Huh?"

The emperor placed the teacup in his hand heavily on the table and stared at Concubine Lian coldly.

"hiss."

Hearing the emperor's voice, Concubine Lian gasped.

She came to her senses and quickly knelt down towards the emperor, lowering her head to explain.

"Your Majesty, I forgive you. I was just too surprised to see the Queen for a moment."

How could she have imagined that when the emperor summoned her consent, he also summoned the queen? Or was it not the emperor who wanted to find her at all, but the queen's intention?

How excited she was before, she felt so disappointed now.

She was thinking carefully, whether the emperor had changed his mind, or thought she was better than the other women in the harem, and would start favoring her again.

Although she has never been ignored, being summoned to the imperial study is also a status symbol.

She was proud, very proud.

I can't wait to show off to all the women in the palace that I was summoned by the emperor to the imperial study.

However, when she looked up and saw the Queen sitting there, it was as if a basin of ice water had been poured directly on her body, giving her a chill.

"snort!"

The emperor snorted coldly at her.

"Surprised, let me see if you are surprised, but bold!"

After listening to the Queen's words before, he still felt in his heart that the Queen was making a fuss, and it was understandable that Concubine Lian wanted to leave the palace several times.

Although the Queen Mother brought up this matter, there was absolutely no need for the Queen to mention it in front of him.

But now...

Looking at Concubine Lian's appearance and hearing her straightforward questioning of the Queen, he was shocked to realize that Concubine Lian was really too bold.

"The queen is the mother of a country, how can I allow you to question me casually? Do you still look like a concubine? Huh?"

"I know I was wrong, and I hope the emperor will calm down."

Concubine Lian knelt on the ground and immediately admitted her mistake.

She just didn't react for a moment, but she didn't expect that she would be caught.

And the person who caught her was not someone else, not the Queen, but the Emperor, the one who could have turned a blind eye to this matter.

What went wrong? Why did the emperor treat her like this?

Could it be that just because he wanted to send Jin'er to Prince Mo's Mansion without the emperor's consent last time?

But so what, the person wasn't sent there.

Although it wasn't the people she sent who stopped her, it was Jin'er who didn't say he wanted to go after he woke up.

But then they also won!

"Are you aware of your mistake?"

The emperor looked at her with more and more strange eyes.

He gritted his teeth and looked at her, and out of the corner of his eye, he glanced at the queen who looked indifferent and didn't take the matter to heart at first glance.

Then look back at Concubine Lian's face.

Although he said he was aware of his mistakes, his face didn't look like he was aware of his mistakes. This is clearly a mistake.

It also made him look like he wanted to provoke the queen.

Chapter 1663 Will it fall directly?

Because apart from admitting her mistake to him, Concubine Lian didn't even give the Queen a look, as if the Queen was not in his study room.

Of course, if he saw it correctly, there was a trace of jealousy on Concubine Lian's face among other expressions.

The jealous queen was behind the imperial study, and she was the one who was summoned.

Although his woman was jealous for him, which made his face even brighter, Concubine Lian was in front of him, and in his imperial study room, she dared to show such a look to the queen.

That meant that Concubine Lian was dissatisfied with the fact that he had announced the Queen's presence in the imperial study.

"In my opinion, you are obviously not wrong!

Look at your expression. I wish I could keep the Queen as far away from me as possible. What's going on? Am I just for your Concubine Lian? "

"Concubine..."

Concubine Lian opened her mouth, feeling bitter.

How should she respond to this?

Of course he wanted the queen to be as far away from the emperor as possible. In her opinion, the emperor should be hers alone. Anyone else who wants to snatch the emperor's woman from her should die!

As a woman, shouldn't she want her man to belong to her alone?

"Your Majesty, I know that I am wrong. I really know that I am wrong. I just never thought that the Queen would be in the imperial study. Didn't the Queen live in seclusion a few days ago?

Except for the Queen Mother's Palace, she had almost never been to other places in the harem.

Now that I saw the Queen in the royal study, I did not think for a moment that if I offended the Queen, I would expect the Queen to be angry. "

She bent down towards the empress and bowed down heavily.

At this time, no matter how much she explained, the emperor would not believe her. It would be better to admit all her mistakes.

Of course, explanation is necessary. She has to admit her mistake and explain at the same time, so that it will be effective.

But she still couldn't understand why the emperor was so angry with her. Is it really just because she wants to send Jin'er to Prince Mo's Mansion?

She felt that it must be much more than that.

But she still doesn't know what the reason is.

"Concubine Lian's words are serious. I have never blamed Concubine Lian. Your Majesty, you are so angry, but you have frightened sister Concubine Lian. Don't be angry, don't be angry, okay?"

The queen looked at the emperor with a beautiful smile and said good things to Concubine Lian.

Concubine Lian also set her sights on the emperor, pretending to be aggrieved in an attempt to gain the emperor's mercy.

But who knew...

Originally, the emperor's expression had relaxed a bit when he heard the Queen's words, but when he saw the expression on Concubine Lian's face, his expression suddenly darkened again.

"Hiss...hoo!"

Taking a deep breath and exhaling heavily, he looked at Concubine Lian's miserable face.

If you only look at Concubine Lian on weekdays, you can still look at this face, and you can't compare it with others. After all, the maids in Concubine Lian's palace don't have as good looks as Concubine Lian.

But now...

The queen was beside him. Comparing the two women, one had a complexion as red as a cherry, while the other was as pale as a ghost because of the powder she put on her face.

He couldn't help but wonder if the powder on Concubine Lian's face would fall off if she smiled again.

The most important thing is that I just heard the queen call Concubine Lian sister!

Chapter 1664 Grafted onto her body!

What kind of sister is this? At first glance, it seems that the queen would just call Concubine Lian aunt.

It's so disgusting.

"Concubine Lian, I heard that you have left the palace frequently recently. Why?" He looked at Concubine Lian with an unkind expression and asked.

Concubine Lian: "..."

Why?

Why did the emperor ask this question?

Doesn't the emperor know why? Her son is still in the hospital bed!

But of course she couldn't say this directly, otherwise, she would have made the emperor unhappy. Once these words came out, would she still have room to stay in the imperial study?

But in the future, there will be no place for Concubine Lotus in this harem.

"Back to the emperor, I just feel sorry for Jin'er, so I want to visit him from time to time. Seeing that he is awake and can eat a few mouthfuls of food, I can rest assured."

What she said was pitiful, as if Sui Zijin might starve to death at any time.

But the emperor was already extremely dissatisfied with Concubine Lian's performance. Although her words sounded pitiful, to the emperor's ears, this was not the case.

"Concubine Lian, are you blaming me for not caring enough about Jin'er? Huh?"

He asked coldly?

"hiss!"

Concubine Lian took a breath.

As soon as the emperor finished speaking, she was frightened and broke into a cold sweat.

How dare she blame the emperor?

Originally, he just wanted to give his son a sense of presence in front of his father, but unexpectedly the emperor suddenly changed his mind.

At this time, she really wanted to slap herself in the face with her hand.

"Your Majesty, I don't mean that by being a concubine. I am just...just..."

She just said a few words, but she couldn't think of how to explain it, so she hesitated and didn't dare to speak.

"Your Majesty, why are you so angry with Sister Lian Fei? She cares about her own children, and care will lead to chaos. Just like the original concubine, she also cared about Lin'er."

The queen explained to the emperor.

"Yes, yes, Your Majesty, the Queen is right." Concubine Lian nodded quickly as if she had grasped a life-saving straw.

She was really grateful to the Queen for actually speaking up for her at this time.

She looked at the Empress with gratitude, but that glance made her stunned. She saw an evil smile hanging from the corners of her eyes and glanced at her lightly.

Just that glance made her feel frightened.

She opened her mouth, but before she could say anything, she heard the Queen continue to speak.

"It's just that at the beginning, I only cared about myself. I never thought that Lin'er was also the emperor's flesh and blood. I feel sorry for Lin'er, but the emperor's love and attention to Lin'er are thousands of times more than that of me.

Now I have just woken up. I was the one who made the mistake. "

"I am very relieved that you can understand." The emperor looked at the queen and said.

Concubine Lian: "!!!"

The Queen is so vicious, how could she speak like this?

Originally, the emperor still had a grudge against the empress. Even if he was favored again, he would inevitably feel uncomfortable in his heart.

But when the Empress said this, it was no longer her fault as Concubine Lian. Whatever the Empress did that was disrespectful could be forgiven.

And she, Concubine Lian, was a woman who didn't know what was good or bad.

What's more, the Queen Empress grafted all the Emperor's original hatred for her onto her body!

"emperor....."

She opened her mouth and looked at the emperor.

Chapter 1665 Need to avoid it?

"The queen is right, you should leave the palace less often in the future. Don't embarrass me by going out, and it will break the rules of the palace!"

The emperor glanced at Concubine Lian impatiently and said.

Concubine Lian: "..."

She finally understood why the emperor had such an attitude towards her. Was it because she had left the palace a few days ago and did not receive the emperor's oral instructions?

But so what, when she wanted to leave the palace in the past, she didn't just leave the palace directly. Where was the need for oral instructions?

She looked at the Queen with hatred.

I knew very well that if the emperor were alone, he would never think of this matter. It was definitely the Queen, a vicious woman, who brought it up!

She used to think that the Queen was just a little white rabbit who could be bullied and used.

Little did she know that after just a few months, the Queen would be able to use her skills to trample her under her feet!

"Yes, I obey the order. I will not leave the palace again in the future." She gritted her teeth and responded.

"Sister Concubine Lian, you have misunderstood the emperor. He did not ask you not to leave the palace."

The Queen looked at Concubine Lian with a smile and explained what the Emperor had just said.

"It's just that in this palace, after all, there are rules in the palace, which cannot be broken easily. You have left the palace many times like this, but you have not received the emperor's oral instructions, not even the empress dowager's decree.

This is a violation of the rules in the palace. It is not that the emperor is preventing you from meeting Prince Jin and his mother.

Well, the emperor was busy with state affairs. If you want to leave the palace at any time to go to the Jin Palace, you can come to me and get my permission. Then you can leave the palace.

Your Majesty, do you think so? "

As she spoke, she looked at the emperor and asked.

"The queen is right." The emperor naturally responded.

"Yes, Your Majesty, I obey your order."

At this moment, Concubine Lian, besides smiling bitterly, what else could she do?

Especially now that she didn't even dare to show her wry smile in front of the emperor.

Listening to the Queen's words, although it was obviously for her own good, she also won the opportunity for her to visit Jin'er in the palace.

But who the hell wants the queen, a vicious woman, to do her best!

When she said this, didn't she just tell the emperor directly that Concubine Lian did not agree with what the emperor said and felt that the emperor was a ruthless and unjust person. Even if she wanted to see her own son, the emperor would not let her see her?

She dared to conclude that this was how the emperor missed her in his heart right now!

Gritting her teeth, she took a deep breath and looked at the Queen with a calm face.

"I would like to thank you, the Queen, for speaking for me."

"They are all our sisters, what's there to be so polite about?" The Queen smiled at her and said.

"Your Majesty, you have sent for Concubine Lian to come. Do you have other matters? Why don't I, my concubine, retire first?"

Turning her head, she looked at the emperor and asked.

"No need."

The emperor rejected her words.

"You are my queen, why do you need to avoid these little things?"

As he spoke, he reached out and touched the queen's face in front of Concubine Lian.

Then he glanced at Concubine Lian who was still kneeling in front of him with his extremely disgusted eyes.

"Concubine Lian, when I handed Sui Zimo to you, was there a jade pendant hanging on Sui Zimo's body?" He asked Concubine Lian.

Concubine Lian listened to the emperor's question and thought for a while.

But that was more than twenty years ago, and it was just a jade pendant. How could she still remember it?

"Back to the emperor, there should be some, right?"

Chapter 1666 I don't remember

Sui Zimo is not her biological son. Except when the emperor handed Sui Zimo to her, she almost never hugged Sui Zimo. How could there be any jade pendant engraved on him?

"You have to ask the old nanny in my concubine's palace about this. She knows best. All of Sui Zimo's things are entrusted to her for safekeeping.

She said to the emperor without hesitation.

The emperor also knew her past attitude towards Sui Zimo, so he naturally knew that she would not care what was on Sui Zimo.

"Xiao Guizi, bring the old nun from Concubine Lian's palace." The emperor immediately ordered Eunuch Gui.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

Eunuch Gui glanced at Concubine Lian, then walked out of the imperial study room.

"Concubine Lian, have you ever asked Concubine Lian, apart from the jade pendant, what else was left on Sui Zimo's body?" Seeing Eunuch Gui leaving, the emperor continued to ask Concubine Lian.

During this period, he didn't even think about it. Concubine Lian was still kneeling on the ground, and he never thought about asking her to get up and reply.

Concubine Lian's face became paler and paler, and her knees became more and more painful.

Ever since she entered the palace, she had never experienced such pain. Although she had to kneel down when meeting the emperor, she had never knelt down in this way.

Is it possible that she couldn't get up unless the nanny beside her was in the royal study?

"Your Majesty, I don't remember this. She will know when grandma arrives." She replied with a cold voice and a somewhat unkind tone.

On the side, the Queen also pretended not to know, and the bad breath in her heart finally came out a little bit.

It was such a pleasure to have Concubine Lian kneel like this and watch her face become stiffer and stiffer. If it weren't for the fact that she was not allowed to make any small moves in front of the emperor.

She will definitely put a few silver needles inserted upside down in the place where Concubine Lian calls her!

It was only at this moment that she figured out that all the calculations and why her Lin'er ended up in such a bad situation were all because of Concubine Lian and Suizi Jin!

She would never let this mother and son have an easy time!

"waste!"

The emperor looked at her coldly and uttered two words.

He shouldn't have left Sui Zimo to be raised by Concubine Lian, a mindless waste.

It's fine now. Sui Zimo was raised to be so bold that he dared to resist even his father's words. But Concubine Lian couldn't control Sui Zimo at all!

Only now did he realize that Concubine Lian was so useless!

Thanks to his favoring Concubine Lian for so many years, it was all in vain!

Concubine Lian gritted her teeth and did not dare to say anything.

She knew that Sui Zimo was not a little bit more important to the emperor than her as a concubine.

But what did that matter? Sui Zimo was just a person being used by the emperor. She felt that there was no need to care about such a person.

Therefore, in these years, except for her concern for Sui Zimo, she didn't care about anything else.

Who would have thought that the emperor would let her rely on him? There was something in Sui Zimo back then.

She doesn't know anything else. She only knows that the things Sui Zimo wore back then were all very good and there were many things. Not to mention the jade pendant, even the child's clothes were made of gold thread. Of.

But at that time, she knew better that these things were not what she should think about.

So she just handed it over to a nanny next to her for safekeeping.

Chapter 1667 I will handle this matter

How could she know that the emperor didn't know why he was so crazy today, and he actually asked her about this matter.

...

On a hidden road in the harem, Eunuch Gui was standing there, with an anxious look on his face.

After a while, another person dressed like a young eunuch came over.

"Eunuch Gui, you are so anxious to see me, but there is something important?" The man asked immediately after seeing Eunuch Gui.

"Why did you come?"

Eunuch Gui was so anxious at this moment that he couldn't help but say something.

But I have to say that when he saw the person, he still breathed a sigh of relief.

"It's not like you don't know. Your identity cannot be exposed at will. I have to confirm whether it is the letter you sent. Who knows if anyone is following you in this huge palace?"

The little eunuch looked at Eunuch Gui and explained.

In the palace, they have to be careful and cautious in everything they do. There is no way around it.

"Okay, okay, I don't have time to talk nonsense with you!"

But Eunuch Gui didn't want to hear what he said about what was there and what wasn't.

"If this matter hadn't been very important, do you think I would be willing to expose myself?"

Moreover, it is not certain whether he will be exposed. Even if he is exposed, he will be willing to help his master as long as he can!

"What's going on?" the little eunuch asked.

"I just heard the emperor ask Concubine Lian that when the master was brought back by him, he had a jade pendant on his body, which was kept by an old nun beside Concubine Lian."

Eunuch Gui said to the young eunuch.

"You mean, let me find the jade pendant?"

The little eunuch's eyes widened instantly and he looked at Eunuch Gui in disbelief.

"Are you crazy? Do you know that as long as that thing disappears, the first thing the Emperor will think of will be you!"

Since they haven't found out about this matter for so many years, no one must have mentioned it. How could it be possible that things were stolen all of a sudden?

Is this a joke on him?

"Will not!"

Eunuch Gui denied what he said.

"I know very well those people around Concubine Lian. That old nanny herself is dirty and often sells some of Concubine Lian's jewelry. When the time comes, as long as she dies, no one will think of things about me."

"You mean... you want to blame all this matter on that old nanny?" the little eunuch asked.

This method can be regarded as a method. The key is that if the old woman's hands and feet are indeed dishonest, there is still something that can be done.

"Okay, I'll take care of this."

He gritted his teeth and said to Eunuch Gui.

After saying that, he was about to leave, but was pulled back by Eunuch Gui.

"Wait, why are you so anxious!"

"What else?"

The little eunuch turned around, looked at Eunuch Gui, and asked.

He wanted to be anxious about this matter, but he was afraid that if he delayed it for too long, the emperor would become suspicious.

"I think that since there is a jade pendant, there must be other things. You can take them away together. You are not allowed to keep even a good thing. In addition, go to Concubine Lian's bedroom to get a few things that look inconspicuous. Put the jewelry in the old grandma's room."

he said.

"good."

The little eunuch responded.

...

Half an hour passed.

In the imperial study room, Concubine Lian was still kneeling on the ground.

Even if the emperor didn't ask a word, he never thought of asking Concubine Lian to stand up, let alone ask her to find a stool to sit on.

Chapter 1668 The jade pendant was sold!

The Queen on the side was of course happy to watch Concubine Lian suffer, so she would not take the initiative to mention it.

"Why is this little Guizi so negligent?"

Seeing time passing by bit by bit, the emperor's patience was almost worn out and he couldn't help but say something.

"Your Majesty, please don't be impatient. The place where I live must be a bit remote, so it will take a long time." The Queen advised.

Concubine Lian, on the other hand, gritted her teeth and did not dare to say a word.

Now she only felt the heartbreaking pain on her knees, and she didn't even dare to move.

Because as long as she moves, the Queen's eyes will see it.

She had already tried it just now. She only moved a little, and then the queen grabbed the painful spot and started joking with the emperor.

She said that Concubine Lian had been in the harem for a long time, and she could no longer even follow the rules. She had forgotten how to kneel.

And what was the emperor's reaction at that time?

She expected the emperor to help her get up, but where was the emperor? But he snorted coldly and directly criticized her verbally, which was useless!

At this time, she knew that she could not offend the Queen, let alone contradict the Emperor.

She just hated it, and couldn't help but wonder in her heart whether Eunuch Gui was deliberately so slow and delayed, leaving her kneeling here and suffering inhuman torture!

However, before her thoughts could subside, she heard hurried footsteps coming from outside.

Immediately afterwards, Eunuch Gui walked in. Because he was too hasty, he was pulled at the threshold and almost fell to the ground.

"What's going on that's so alarming?"

The emperor frowned, but it was the queen who asked the question.

"Your Majesty, this slave has messed up the matter, please punish me." Gui Eunuch turned pale and knelt down in front of the Emperor.

"What's wrong?"

The emperor asked him with a cold look in his eyes.

"Your Majesty, this servant has never thought that the old nanny in Concubine Lian's Palace would be such a greedy person. She actually... actually sold King Mo's jade pendant!"

Eunuch Gui glanced at Concubine Lian secretly, with a ruthless look in his eyes.

"What?!"

Hearing this, the emperor stood up from the throne.

"What did you say? Say it again!"

"Your Majesty, the old nun in Concubine Lian's palace has always stolen the palace's property and sold it off. Seeing that she couldn't handle the matter this time, she actually hanged herself. This servant never expected that, How could she be such an evil person?"

Eunuch Gui took a deep breath and told the emperor what happened in Concubine Lian's palace.

Of course, things were just as he arranged, without any mistakes or omissions. When the old woman saw that he wanted her to take King Mo's old things to the imperial study, she naturally wanted to go back and get them.

And there, waiting for her was the person who had interacted with him before.

"This is impossible. Grandma Chen has been with me for so many years. There is no way she could do such a thing!"

When Concubine Lian first heard what Eunuch Gui said, she was frightened and stunned. After a while, she came back to her senses and shouted angrily at Eunuch Gui.

"Concubine Lian, my servants have already interrogated the maids and eunuchs in your palace. They all said that Aunt Chen has been stealing your jewelry and selling it for money. It's just that she is your most trusted person. Those in your palace It's just that the palace maids and eunuchs didn't dare to report her."

Chapter 1669 There is no way to escape

Eunuch Gui looked at Concubine Lian and said.

"Moreover, the maids in your palace also confessed that the several maids who were beaten to death for stealing your jewelry were all blamed for Grandma Chen. The servant also found out the maids from Grandma Chen's room. Several pieces of jewelry.

Thinking about it, although those jewelry are inconspicuous, they are very valuable. They should not be gifted to her by you, right? "

he said.

"No way, no way."

Concubine Lian panicked and sat down on the ground.

"Your Majesty, your Majesty must be that Aunt Chen. Seeing that Your Majesty cannot get what you want, she cannot escape. Instead of being discovered by Eunuch Gui and being taken to the Imperial Study Room and tortured in the future, she would rather hang herself. Suicide comes easily.

This kind of person should really be cut to pieces! "

The Empress also stood up, stared sharply at Concubine Lian who was on the ground looking bewildered, and said to the Emperor.

The Emperor slowly walked up to Concubine Lian and looked at Concubine Lian who was looking up at him. After taking a deep breath, he slapped Concubine Lian hard on the face.

"ah!"

Concubine Lian was hit by him so much that she threw herself to the side and fell to the ground.

"Your Majesty, I don't know. I really don't know that Grandma Chen is such a person."

Ignoring the burning pain on her face and the pain in her knees, Concubine Lian crawled over on the ground, pulled the emperor's legs, and explained with tears.

That Nanny Chen was the old man she could not trust the most. She was sent to her side when she first entered the palace.

Moreover, Nanny Chen was personally assigned to her by the emperor. How could she have imagined that Nanny Chen would be so bold as to do such a thing in the palace.

However, at this moment, she could not say that Nanny Chen was assigned to her by the Emperor, otherwise the Emperor would be even more eager to kill her!

"Your Majesty, I was wrong. I really know my mistake. Please spare me this time."

She had a hunch that if this matter could not be resolved satisfactorily, she would never be able to compete for beauty in the harem.

"roll!"

The emperor gave her a word directly.

"Xiao Guizi, let me interrogate all the people around Concubine Lian. I want to see what Concubine Lian has done behind my back these years!"

He ordered to Eunuch Gui.

He left such an important person like Sui Zimo in the care of Concubine Lian, and also handed over all of Sui Zimo's belongings to Concubine Lian. How much trust he showed in her.

So in these years, even though he knew that Concubine Lian was very powerful in the harem relying on his favor, he didn't say anything.

Who knew that she actually lost his most important thing!

"Yes, Your Majesty, I will do it now."

The corner of Gui Eunuch's eyes glanced at Concubine Lian's gray face, the corners of his mouth were slightly raised, and he turned around and went out.

"Your Majesty, do you want to go to Concubine Lian's palace... take a look. If it is something very important, Concubine Lian will not give it to a nun to put away. Perhaps, it is unknown where it will be placed. Maybe it can be Can you find it?"

The empress stood up, crossed Concubine Lian's side, walked slowly to the emperor's side, and reminded.

"she....."

The emperor opened his mouth, but finally gritted his teeth and looked at Concubine Lian with a sinister look.

Unable to bear it any longer, he strode over and kicked Concubine Lian on her body, one after another. The pain made Concubine Lian roll on the ground and kept screaming!

Chapter 1670 I know...I&am' wrong

"You trash, you didn't keep such an important thing by yourself, but handed it over to a despicable servant. What's the point of raising you, a bitch!"

The queen looked at Concubine Lian being kicked to death with cold eyes, and a sneer appeared at the corner of her mouth.

You see, this is the man she has loved for so many years. Once someone loses their role for him, he will end up like Concubine Lotus!

As for Concubine Lian, she has nothing to be dissatisfied with.

Over the years, her life was not much worse than that of a queen, she had enjoyed it, and her son was crowned king again.

Even if she dies, she can die in peace, right?

"Your Majesty, please don't be angry. Don't be angry. Perhaps this is not the fault of Concubine Lian. The unimportant things belonging to me are also given to the nuns around me for safekeeping. Perhaps Concubine Lian feels that those things are not important. Bar.

She came over and persuaded the emperor.

"Queen...empress..."

Concubine Lian held her body with both hands. Although her body was in terrible pain, she could still hear the Queen's words.

This is not to persuade the emperor to spare her, every word is clearly adding fuel to the fire!

Is this the same woman from before who had no brains and only knew how to cry and fuss in front of the emperor? Relying on the prominence of her natal family, she could not lose the throne of the queen no matter how much trouble she made in the palace?

It's so vicious. When did this woman become so vicious?

She wished she could cut the queen into pieces, but she didn't dare to say the words.

She was afraid that if she said anything inappropriate, the emperor would punch her even more. At this time, even if the emperor beat her to death, she deserved it.

At that time, the emperor could just find an excuse to explain the reason for her death.

And the most important thing is that because of her death, her son will never have a chance to be the throne of Weiguo, because the emperor will not let a son whose mother was killed by his own hands ascend to the throne of the emperor.

"Your Majesty, I know I was wrong. I know...I know I was wrong."

She could only admit her mistake aloud, hoping that the emperor would show mercy to her for the sake of past friendship.

"snort!"

After beating Concubine Lian, the emperor finally calmed down a little.

After snorting at Concubine Lian who was lying on the ground shivering, he looked at the Empress.

"Concubine Lian, I have offended you and disrespected me. You will immediately throw her into the cold palace. She will not be allowed to come out again. If King Jin enters the palace, he will not be allowed to visit the cold palace."

After giving the instructions, he turned around and strode out of the imperial study room.

"Yes, I obey your orders."

The Queen bent down towards the Emperor's back, then stood up and turned to look at Concubine Lian.

"Empress, are you going to drag her to the cold palace?"

After the emperor left, only the empress and the maids who came in from outside the imperial study were left.

"etc."

The queen waved to the palace maid.

The palace maid understood, immediately turned around and walked out again.

"How about it, have you thought of your ending in advance?"

The Queen squatted down in front of Concubine Lian, and stepped on Concubine Lian's wrist with one foot. When she squatted down, the wrist was squeezed so much that it almost flattened.

"ah!"

Concubine Lian's eyes widened and she screamed continuously.

"oops."

The Queen seemed to have just felt that she had stepped on Concubine Lian's wrist, and quickly moved her feet away.
