Chapter 1671 Again and again

But the force of moving her feet made Concubine Lian scream again.

"Queen... Concubine, I have never offended you, why... do you... want to... harm me like this?" She breathed heavily and asked the aloof Queen.

Why did she do this to her? Why could he do this to her?

She is also the emperor's woman, but her identity is inferior to that of the empress. Isn't it just a title?

"Have you never offended me?"

The Queen raised her eyebrows and looked at Concubine Lian with hatred in her eyes.

"Concubine Lian, do you want to say that Su Ri was not killed by your precious son? Huh?"

"No, it's not.

Concubine Lian shook her head. She absolutely could not admit this.

"Su Ri was obviously... killed by King Lin. Everyone saw it. Queen, you can't accuse him... of this kind!"

Before she could finish her words, she felt severe pain coming from her body, and she screamed again.

It turned out that the Queen Mother suddenly took off the phoenix hairpin on her head, and the sharp part pierced Concubine Lian's leg directly, again and again, more than a dozen times, before stopping.

"Concubine Lian, you really think I'm stupid. If the emperor hadn't protected you, do you think you could be so safe? I would have killed you and your vicious son early in the morning!"

When she first learned that Su Ri's death was caused by Sui Zijin's people, she wanted to kill Concubine Lian and her son.

But the emperor was protecting her, so there was nothing she could do.

"I thought, it's never too late for a gentleman to take revenge, let alone a woman of mine? I have plenty of time to wait, but I didn't expect that in just a few months, you, a bitch, would fall into my hands. Inside.

Haha, it's really retributive. "

As she spoke, she laughed to herself, then wiped the bloody phoenix hairpin on Concubine Lian's clothes and put it back on her head.

"Don't worry, Concubine Lian, since the emperor has handed you over to me, I will definitely take good care of you and won't let you be left out in the cold palace. Who asked you to be with me? Where are the sisters in the harem?"

"No, no, no."

Only then did Concubine Lian realize that she was afraid and kept shaking her head.

She had thought about many endings for herself, but she never thought that she would fall into the hands of the Queen and be tortured by her!

"No, Queen, that's not the case. King Lin... King Lin was harmed by Sui Zimo, Sui Zimo. He has nothing to do with me... I have nothing to do with me, no."

At this time, how could she admit that what happened in Suizilin was done by her and her son?

Isn't there still Sui Zimo? If Sui Zimo is not allowed to come out and shoulder the responsibility at this time, what else do you want?

"Don't mention Sui Zimo to me. If it weren't for you, what would be the relationship between Sui Zimo and me? My Lin'er has never provoked Sui Zimo, so why should he harm my Lin'er?"

The Queen looked at Concubine Lian with sharp eyes and said fiercely.

Yes, this is absolutely correct.

What is the relationship between Sui Zimo and Sui Zilin?

One is the heir apparent and legitimate son of the Wei Kingdom, while the other is the prince who was abandoned. There is a huge difference between the two.

Although her Lin'er is a little more arrogant in Shaohua City, what does she have to do with Sui Zimo?

How could a person who had never even been to Shaohua City have any enmity with her Lin'er?

Chapter 1672 Entertain her 'well'

To put it bluntly, even if there is really a grudge, it was calculated by Concubine Lian and Sui Zijin!

Do you really think that she is still the queen who acted without thinking and rushed forward stupidly? She has changed a long time ago. For the sake of her son, she, the mother, must be strong!

"Concubine Lian, your good days are over. From today on, you can go to the cold palace and live your life slowly. Of course, I will order someone to find something new for you to do every day.

As for your son, I believe he will come to accompany you soon...

Oh, no, you live in the cold palace, how could Sui Zijin come over to accompany you? But don't worry, when Sui Zijin loses his head, I will definitely order someone to notify you in time. "

After saying that, she stood up and kicked Concubine Lian hard on the waist.

"Well!"

Concubine Lian's face was full of pain and she couldn't say a word.

"Someone, drag this bitch to the cold palace and entertain her!"

"Yes, Queen."

A nun and two maids came in from outside. The two maids dragged Concubine Lian from left to right and walked out of the royal study.

...

'Bang!'

In a room in the cold palace, Concubine Lian was thrown directly to the ground. Dust flew up all over the floor, causing the spider webs in the room to move constantly.

"for you."

A quilt was thrown onto Concubine Lian, who was lying motionless on the ground.

"The Queen has said that this woman's life is very valuable, so Bu Leng will die for her. Do you understand?" Mammy ordered the stewards in Leng Palace.

"Yes, yes, I obey the order and will definitely entertain her 'well'. I will definitely not disappoint the Queen."

The steward lowered his head, responded to the grandmother repeatedly, then walked into the room, kicked Concubine Lian again, and then walked out again.

"Don't let her die."

Grandma explained again before leaving.

"Manager Zhao, what should we do about Concubine Lian?"

After Mammy left, the maid next to Manager Zhao asked softly.

"What can be done?"

Manager Zhao turned around and glared at the palace maid.

"Just find some medicine for her, just don't die!"

Which person who has entered the cold palace can go back to live that gorgeous life?

All the men in the palace like the new and hate the old, not to mention those who have suffered in the cold palace. They have long since lost their human form. How can they still go out?

Even if he goes out, will the emperor still like it?

What's more, this woman offended the Queen and was not killed. She just ended up in the cold palace, which was considered a good thing.

"Yes, Manager Zhao." The palace maid responded.

"Also, what about Concubine Lian? Is there any concubine in this cold palace?"

Manager Zhao looked at the half-dead Concubine Lian, snorted coldly, and warned the palace maid next to him.

"They are all despicable women. Please be more careful in your work from now on. Don't open your mouth and say everything. When you offend someone, you don't even know how you died!"

Look, isn't there a living example in front of you?

Without even looking at her status, she still wants to compete with the Queen. Can she be able to compete?

In the end, she ended up in the cold palace. She has seen many such women!

"Yes, Manager Zhao, I understand."

The palace maid responded.

Originally, working in this cold palace was the worst job in the palace. If she couldn't even do the job here well, then she would have to be kicked out of the palace.

Chapter 1673 Can't enter the palace

In the palace of Prince Jin.

As soon as Concubine Lian was dragged into the cold palace, Sui Zijin got the news.

"What? Resigned to the cold palace?"

This news was really not good news for Sui Zijin, but it was within his expectation.

He could clearly feel that his mother and concubine were getting more and more impatient recently when doing things.

I wanted to send him to Prince Mo's palace before, but luckily he woke up in time. But this time, I don't know how he offended his father, and he was directly thrown into the cold palace?

But fortunately, his mother-in-law has been neglected not just once or twice over the years, but at least she still has his son.

Sooner or later, he will be able to come out of the cold palace, and he has nothing to worry about.

"What happened in the palace again?"

he asks.

"Back to your lord, according to the news from the palace, something went wrong with Nanny Chen who was with Concubine Lian. The emperor found out that she had repeatedly stolen gold and silver jewelry from the palace. After being discovered, Nanny Chen actually He hanged himself, and this is how Concubine Lian got hurt."

The servant who came back and forth replied to Sui Zijin.

"Stealing things from the palace? Hanging yourself?"

Sui Zijin said these two sentences with doubts in his eyes.

Even if Nanny Chen dies, what does it have to do with his mother and concubine?

Furthermore, she was just a slave. Why would the father go to find out what she had stolen from the palace? Is it possible that Grandma Chen could still have extraordinary abilities and be able to steal and sell the property around the father?

This is of course impossible.

"what else?"

he asked his servant.

"It is said that the emperor asked Concubine Lian about some of Prince Mo's belongings, but Concubine Lian didn't know where they were placed. For this reason, the emperor became furious."

The servant said again.

Sui Zijin: "!!!"

How could Sui Zimo's belongings be in the palace?

The only possibility is that there was something on Sui Zimo when he was brought here.

And the father suddenly thought of these things and wanted to use these things to do something.

But when I asked my mother and concubine, she couldn't get it out!

"What will happen between the two...hiss!"

Suddenly, he gasped.

Mother and concubine wouldn't be so stupid as to leave Sui Zimo's things to Grandma Chen for safekeeping, right? Was he stolen out of the palace and sold by Nanny Chen?

In that case, the father will definitely blame the mother and concubine. If these things are very important, it is possible that the mother and concubine will be relegated to the cold palace!

"Go and prepare immediately, I am going to enter the palace!"

He ordered to his servants.

"this....."

When the servant heard his words, he hesitated and looked at his prince awkwardly.

"Why don't you hurry up and get ready?"

Seeing that he was not moving, Sui Zijin urged him.

"My lord, you can't enter the palace right now." The servant's mouth twitched and he said.

"Um?"

Sui Zijin almost thought he heard wrongly and raised his head to look at him.

"What do you mean?"

"Your Majesty, word has come from the palace that the prince should rest in peace and recuperate in the palace. It is not appropriate to enter the palace. You cannot go to the cold palace. This is...the emperor's will."

The servant replied.

Sui Zijin: "!!!"

Is the father going to push their mother and son to death?

His mother and concubine were relegated to the cold palace. As a son, how could he think about recuperating?

As a son, couldn't he even visit his mother and concubine?

How could it be like this?

Chapter 1674 Queen, Nalanshi!

"You said, this is the emperor's will?"

he asked his servant.

"yes."

The servant responded.

"This word came from someone in the Queen's Palace, but according to what he said, it was the Emperor himself who ordered the Queen to do this. Even Concubine Lian was handed over directly to the Queen before being escorted to the cold palace. middle."

"Hiss...hoo!"

Sui Zijin took a breath and exhaled heavily.

He could almost conclude that this was simply revenge from the Queen. She already knew that it was him who caused her son to kill Su Ri and was sent to Sui County.

I just didn't expect that the Empress would be so scheming that she could use her father to drive his mother and concubine directly into the cold palace!

If he had just thrown away Sui Zimo's old things, his father would have at most punished his mother and concubine before getting them back. How could he be relegated to the cold palace so easily?

If there wasn't the Queen's hand and laughter here, he wouldn't believe it!

"You go down.

He waved his hand towards the servant and motioned for him to get down.

"Your Majesty, are we...not going to save Concubine Lian?" The servant looked at him carefully and asked.

"Keep the green hills here, don't worry about running out of firewood! Get down!"

After Sui Zijin said something to the servant, he closed his eyes.

At this time, the father was in a rage. Whatever he said was useless, and he might be instigated by the Queen and add fuel to the fire!

He has to calm down and protect himself first!

Only when he is safe can he find a way to beg his mother and concubine.

If he couldn't even save himself, how could he save himself if he was imprisoned in the palace and couldn't get out?

Also, he wanted to think about how he could give the Queen a hard slap in the face.

Otherwise, does the queen still think that his majestic Prince Jin is so easy to bully?

If he can let Sui Zilin end up in that situation, he can also let the Queen know what it feels like to be thrown into the cold palace!

He will definitely repay his mother and concubine's revenge tenfold and a hundredfold, so that the queen will not be able to bear the consequences!

"Queen, Nalanshi!"

...

Qianhuan Continent, Yue Family.

After running around for more than ten days, Lin Chushui, following Yue Chong and Luo Mianyi, finally arrived at Yue's house.

As soon as Luo Yanyi returned to the Yuezhi clan, he abandoned Lin Chushui and left under the pretext of seeing his injured son.

Yue Chong was summoned away by several elders before Luo Mianyi to deal with important matters in the clan.

"Master, please come this way."

A steward took Lin Chushui, who was carrying a baggage, to a courtyard.

"This is the courtyard arranged by the mistress for you. You will live here from now on, and these maids and servants are all carefully selected for you by the mistress." The steward has a clever mouth and is able to stand out among the Yuezhi clan. , earned a stewardship position.

"good."

Lin Chushui nodded and did not refute anything the steward said.

But he knew very well in his heart that Luo Mianyi, the mother, had not even looked at him since she returned to the Yuezhi clan, so how could she think of arranging maids and servants for him?

This must have been arranged by the steward himself.

"The eldest son has been tired all the way. The younger one will take you to your room to rest first. When it's time for dinner, the younger one will come to treat you."

The steward took Lin Chushui to the room and left.

Lin Caisang looked at the furnishings in the room, and then put his baggage on the table.

He reached out and measured the temperature of the teapot on the table with his palm. It was still warm, so he poured a glass of water into the teacup and prepared to take a sip.

Chapter 1675 The eldest lady of the Luo family

"shut up!"

Suddenly, a sharp shout came from outside the door. 69shux.Com

Immediately afterwards, the tea cup in his hand was taken away after a gust of wind.

When Lin Chushui came back to his senses, there was a girl who looked a little older than him standing in front of him, glaring at him with angry eyes.

"Who are you....."

"I am your cousin Luo Tianying."

Luo Tianying introduced herself to Lin Chushui with the teacup she took from Lin Chushui in her hand.

"Luo... Tianying?"

Lin Chushui opened her mouth and spit out three words.

The surname is Luo. She should be the daughter of one of his uncles, right?

"You kid, why are you so stupid? Who put this water here? Is there anything that shouldn't be added to it? You don't even know these things, yet you dare to drink it!"

Luo Tianying slapped the teacup in her hand on the table and lectured Lin Chushui.

"You're not afraid of drinking yourself to death!"

she said.

Lin Chushui: "..."

He really didn't think of this for a while.

He lowered his eyes and glanced at the teacup placed on the table, then looked up at Luo Tianying again.

"Thank you, cousin, for reminding me. Chu Shui understands."

Hearing Lin Chushui's words, Luo Tianying rolled her eyes.

"Why are you thanking me? You won't be extremely grateful to me just because I reminded you, and you will have full trust in me from now on, right?"

she asked.

"What else?"

Lin Chushui raised her eyebrows and asked her.

"Of course not!"

Luo Tianying refuted his words.

Raising her hand, she invited Lin Chushui to sit down.

"Come on, sit down and let's talk slowly. Don't be tired. There are some things that you would have known earlier if we had told you earlier."

"Um."

Lin Chushui responded softly and sat down on the stool.

"Cousin Tianying, please tell me."

"Your family name is Yue, and your mother's family name is Luo. The Yue clan is a prominent clan in Qianhuan Continent, and the Luo clan can be considered a first-class clan. My uncle must have told you about this, right? "

Luo Tianying said to Lin Chushui.

However, she was wrong, because what she saw was Lin Chushui shaking his head at her.

"What the hell, your father didn't even tell you these most basic things?!" Luo Tianying was surprised.

What on earth is his uncle doing? He doesn't even tell his cousin about this. How can his cousin survive in the Yuezhi clan?

"Well, since my uncle hasn't told you before, let me tell you again."

She raised her hand to wipe her face and said to Lin Chushui.

"good."

Lin Chushui nodded.

"Your mother is the eldest lady of the Luo family..."

"Cousin Tianying, isn't my mother the second young lady of the Luo family?" Lin Chushui interrupted her and asked.

He still knew this. Although he had never heard anyone say it, Luo Mianyi mentioned that she had a biological sister when she was talking to Yue Chong.

Since she has a sister and is a relative, then she is not the eldest lady, right?

"You still know this."

Luo Tianying looked at him and nodded. Finally, he knew one thing.

"That's right, your current mother is the second young lady of the Luo family."

Lin Chushui: "..."

Is this mother still divided between the mother she is now and the mother she was before?

"Cousin Tianying, are you saying that my mother was the eldest daughter of the Yue family, but my current mother is the second daughter of the Yue family? Is that what you mean?"

He summarized an idea, which should be what he thought, right?

"Yes, that's what I mean." Luo Tianying nodded.

Chapter 1676 Entrusted by Grandma

"But you don't have to worry. Second aunt promised my eldest aunt before she died that she would treat you as her own. Over the years, she has treated Tianyu's cousin...ah, what kind of cousin is that?

She took a sip and continued to look at Lin Chushui.

"That's Luo Tianyu. It's time to change his name to Lin Tianyu from now on. You have nothing to do with him anyway, but the second aunt is still very good to Lin Tianyu. I believe she will treat you the same in the future."

After hearing Luo Tianying's words, Lin Chushui finally understood why he and Luo Mianyi got along so strangely before.

It turned out that she was just his second aunt, not his biological mother.

No wonder.

"Cousin, please don't tell anyone else what I just told you. Even if you are my uncle, don't tell me. Do you understand?"

Luo Tianying warned him.

"Why?"

Lin Chushui expressed confusion.

Since she is not his biological mother, what is there to say?

"The Yuezhi clan has previously stated that no matter whose son you are, you will always be the son of your second aunt, and no one can tell you this secret." Luo Tianying explained.

"Then why did you tell me?" Lin Chushui asked her.

"That's because... I was entrusted by my grandmother to come to Yue's house to take care of you." Luo Tianying said.

"Grandma thought that we were all her daughters, and we couldn't treat one favorably. You were obviously my aunt's child, but you couldn't recognize her. She felt very uncomfortable, so she asked me to tell you this secret.

Grandma hopes you won't forget that your mother's name is Luo Qiuyi, not Luo Mianyi. "

As a mother, my grandmother also strives to keep a bowl of water balanced among several children.

"Although I actually don't understand why grandma wants you to know this secret, in fact, it's better for you not to know."

She sighed and said to Lin Chushui.

After all, the second aunt has been busy working for the eldest aunt's son in recent years, and she really treats him as her own.

"I can understand my grandmother's painstaking efforts." Lin Chushui said calmly.

"Um?"

Luo Tianying looked at him puzzled.

"Can you understand?"

What can he understand? Even she didn't understand why her grandmother wanted Lin Chushui to know about her eldest aunt Luo Qiuyi.

"My mother... I only have one child." Lin Chushui explained to Luo Tianying.

Hearing his words, Luo Tianying sank.

Yes, the eldest aunt only has one child, Lin Chushui. He is obviously her own son, but she cannot call her mother. Can the eldest aunt rest in peace while she is underground?

"Anyway, I told you this secret according to my grandmother's wishes, but in the Yuezhi clan, it's better for you to pretend you don't know anything." She said to Lin Chushui.

As the saying goes, it is necessary to be on guard against others. Who knows that someone in the Yue clan who was originally good to Lin Chushui was actually plotting in his heart how to harm him?

This is not unprecedented in the Qianhuan Continent and the Yuezhi clan.

"Um."

Lin Chushui responded.

"Also, I heard that you can't practice?" Luo Tianying looked at him and asked.

"yes."

Lin Chushui did not deny it.

Without the spiritual cultivation secret book given to him by Sister Sang Sang, he would not be able to practice according to the ordinary cultivation methods of Qianhuan Continent.

At least for now, he can't practice.

"That's good. At least you are safe in the Yue clan." Luo Tianying breathed a sigh of relief.

Chapter 1677 Don't you want something?

After all, no one cares about a person without spiritual skills. Even if this person is the eldest son of the Yuezhi clan, it is impossible for him to sit on the position of young master.

"But you still have to remember, don't just eat what others bring here. I will bring you your meals today, and from now on... I suggest you go out and buy some of your own. People, just put it in the yard and cook your own meals.

Don't let people sent by others do everything, be careful. "

She thought for a while and warned again.

"Need not."

Lin Chushui shook his head.

"I will arrange these myself."

"You can figure it out yourself. Luo Tianying nodded.

Although she was sent here by her grandmother, she was still a member of the Luo family and could not dictate to the Yue clan. Everything was arranged for her cousin.

"Here, grandma asked me to bring this to you."

As she spoke, she took out a bag from her arms and placed it on the table.

"These are all left by my eldest aunt and have been kept by my grandmother. You have just arrived in the Yuezhi clan and you must have nothing on you. It is necessary to use these to buy some things outside."

Lin Chushui took the bag on the table into his hands without feeling embarrassed at all.

"Is this an impure crystal?"

After opening the bag, he looked inside and saw about a dozen impure crystal stones. He raised his eyebrows.

Luo Tianying: "..."

It seems that her cousin is not as simple as he seems on the surface, even the non-pure spar knows.

"Yes, impure crystal. One impure crystal can be worth ten thousand gold, so you have to be careful not to be discovered by those from the Yue clan."

Here are fifteen impure crystal stones, which is 150,000 gold, which is also a lot of money.

If he is targeted by those with ulterior motives, and Lin Chushui has no spiritual power around him, he may be able to bully even a small steward in the future. It is best not to expose this thing.

"Grandma means that aunt's other things will be temporarily kept by her for you. When you can establish yourself in the Yuezhi clan, she will give those things to you."

she said.

Of course, what she said sounded very nice, but her grandmother's original words were not so nice.

Grandmother said: When the Yuezhi clan gives up on her as a foreign child and drives them out of the Yuezhi clan, then the things she kept for him can be put to use.

But she felt that there would never be that time, so there was no need to say these words.

"No need."

Lin Chushui spoke and denied her words.

"ah?"

Luo Tianying couldn't understand the meaning of his words for a while.

No need, does he not want those things? That's a lot of wealth.

Of course, the eldest aunt is a famous figure in Qianhuan Continent, so she has accumulated a lot of wealth.

Over the years, some of the things in my grandmother's hands were taken away by my second aunt in the name of raising Yue Tianyu, but fortunately my grandmother held on tightly and didn't give much.

At that time, she knew that Yue Tianyu was not her biological grandson, but she was so angry!

"Those are your mother's things, don't you want them?"

"no."

Lin Chushui shook his head.

"I mean, when I have free time, I will visit my grandmother and get those things back."

he said.

Luo Tianying: "..."

Why can't she understand this cousin all of a sudden?

Chapter 1678 Say it again!

"It's up to you. In short, your situation in the Yuezhi clan is very embarrassing. You have to be careful in everything. Luo Tianying stood up, raised her hand and patted Lin Chushui on the shoulder, and warned.

"You go back first, and you have to explain to your grandmother. I will come back to you in two hours."

she said.

"good."

Lin Chushui stood up and watched Luo Tianying leave.

Turning his eyes, he looked at the teacup that was placed on the table. He took out a handkerchief, put it on his hand, picked up the teacup, and poured the tea in the cup out the door.

"Sister Sangsang has taught you long ago that you can't trust anyone except yourself."

Of course he wouldn't be stupid enough to drink the tea that was lying on the table. He didn't want to drink that cup of tea, he just felt someone coming in and wanted to show off.

Taking a deep breath, he began to pack the things in the room bit by bit.

Everything that didn't belong to him was thrown into the yard by him, leaving nothing behind.

In the blink of an eye, all that was left in the originally well-decorated room was a bed, a table, a few stools, and a few cabinets.

"These have to be taken away too."

...

When Luo Tianying and the manager came to the yard where Lin Chushui lived again, they were stunned when they saw the things piled up in the yard.

"Eldest Young Master, what are you...doing?"

The steward's mouth twitched severely, and he asked uncertainly as he looked at Lin Chushui who came out of the small kitchen with many things in his arms.

"I have trouble using these things, so take them all away. I will go out and buy them tomorrow." Lin Chushui explained to the steward with a cold face.

Steward: "..."

How could the eldest son of their Yuezhi clan go out to buy things in person, especially these inconspicuous things.

Wouldn't that bring shame to the Yue clan?

"Whatever the eldest son wants to buy, the younger one will go and get it done for you." He said quickly.

"No need, I'll go by myself."

Lin Chushui rejected his words and said.

"Don't worry about it for now, Chu Shui. The dinner is about to start. Please change into some clothes...Tsk, do you have any clothes in your room that you can change into? Sir, do you have the eldest son's clothes prepared?"

Luo Tianying paused, looked at the person in charge, and asked.

"Well."

The manager in charge was choked by Luo Tianying's question, and his face suddenly turned red.

"Well...these things have always been arranged by the eldest lady, and the younger one has not received any instructions, so...how about the younger one go to Master Tianyu to borrow some clothes first?"

he asked tentatively.

"Can you say that again!"

Luo Tianying's destructive gaze immediately locked the steward.

Yue Tianyu, this guy actually wants the grandson of their Luo family to wear the clothes of Luo Tianyu, a bastard from outside, the same kind he has worn.

Who gave him the right? !

"From today on, you don't have to come to my yard anymore." Lin Chushui said to the person in charge.

"What?!"

The manager was frightened by Lin Chushui's words.

He originally thought that when Lin Chushui returned to the Yue clan and didn't understand anything, he would definitely start life with his tail between his legs.

But I didn't expect that this boy was so young but had such an arrogant temper.

"The eldest son, the younger one is the steward of the courtyard appointed by the master's mother. You can't..."

"My yard is under your control, does it include me?" Lin Chushui asked him calmly.

"Well."

The manager was stunned by his words.

Chapter 1679 Is it sold?

"The eldest son has misunderstood, the younger one is not..."

"I'll give you two choices, either leave, or... let's go to the mistress together and tell her some truth. Which one do you choose first?"

Lin Chushui stretched out two fingers and asked the steward.

"this....."

The person in charge didn't dare to say anything, so he had to leave in despair.

"Cousin, wait a minute, I'll go outside and get you dressed..."

"No, cousin, I brought my own clothes. Just wait here and I'll come out after changing my clothes." With that, Lin Chushui went into her room and went to change her clothes.

But Luo Tianying, who was standing in the yard, frowned.

Originally, she thought that when her cousin came back, her second aunt would take great care of him. After all, her cousin had suffered so many grievances outside.

But now...

Ever since he returned to the Yuezhi clan, his second aunt has disappeared, and his uncle is not here either. Only his cousin is left alone in this yard, and this steward is obviously also treating his cousin badly because of the attitudes of his uncle and second aunt. No respect anymore.

At this moment, the person in charge is probably going to complain to Mistress Yuezhi, right?

Could my cousin really not understand this?

Or has my cousin already thought about it, but doesn't want to pay attention to it, and just wants to live his own peaceful life?

"Hey, I think it's too simple, I'm not as cunning as my grandmother.

Yes, my grandmother had long thought that her cousin would be treated coldly after returning to the Yuezhi clan, so she asked her to come over and took part of her eldest aunt's dowry for her cousin to use first.

"Old mistress, this eldest young master is really too harsh. The younger one was kicked out by him without even saying anything."

After a while, the manager was so tired that he cried and complained about Lin Chushui in front of a well-dressed but aged woman.

"Also, he threw all the things you arranged for him into the yard, and he also kicked out the maids and servants. Doesn't he look down on you as a grandmother? Old mistress, how can you You have to make the decision for the little ones."

But it turns out that the mistress of the Yue clan is not Yue Chong, the wife of the family, but Yue Chong's mother, Mrs. Yue.

"Even if Chu Shui doesn't want you anymore, then you should go to Huanyiyuan. There should still be a shortage of manpower there." The old mistress looked at the steward with a deep look and said calmly.

"What?!"

The steward was simply shocked by these words.

The Huanyi Courtyard is the worst courtyard among the Yue clan. Everyone there washes clothes for the servants of the Yue family.

After all, he used to be a steward in the courtyard. How could he go to a place like this?

"Old Mistress..."

"Old mistress, are you going to let him go to Huanyiyuan to be the steward?" the nanny beside the old mistress asked in a low voice.

"Huanyiyuan... lacks a steward?" the old mistress asked her.

Mammy twitched her lips secretly, cleared her throat quickly, and answered seriously.

"Back to my old mistress, Huanyiyuan is not short of stewards."

"That's it."

The old mistress nodded, her eyes no longer on the steward.

"Since those people have been sent out by Chu Shui, there is no use keeping them. Let's sell them."

She ordered again.

"hiss!"

Only then did the manager realize the hidden meaning in the old mistress's words.

This is treating them like chickens, killing chickens to respect monkeys, blaming them for neglecting the eldest son, and punishing them in disguise.

Chapter 1680 Mr. Bei

He was immediately frightened and broke into a cold sweat.

"Drag it down, it's an eyesore."

The old mistress waved her hands, and immediately two people came in and dragged the person in charge out.

"Old mistress, where is the eldest master..." Mammy looked at the old mistress and asked.

"I can't get involved in this matter, but I still have to give you a warning. Don't really think that as long as you bring the child back, you can leave it alone! You go to the front yard."

The old mistress ordered.

Of course, the person she said needed warning was her son.

"Yes, old mistress, I will go after the dinner." Mammy responded.

"Have everyone been invited to today's dinner?" the old mistress asked her.

"Go back to the old mistress, the old lady from the Luo family and the old lady from the Qing family have sent people to invite them. They should be there." Mammy replied.

The old lady of the Luo family was Lin Chushui's biological grandmother, and the old lady of the Qing family was the biological sister of the old lady Luo. However, when they heard that their grandson had been exchanged, they spoke out.

If the Yue family cannot find their biological grandson, they will become enemies of the Luo family and the Qing family.

Although the Yue family is not afraid of the Luo family and the Qing family, why should they be enemies if they can make peace with them?

"Old mistress, if you are considerate, the eldest son will definitely be grateful to you.

"That child also has a hard life. Since I can't support him, I naturally need to find a few people to support him. Also, have the people from the Bei family been invited?" asked the old mistress.

"Mr. Bei said he will definitely arrive." Mammy replied.

"That's good."

It can be seen that the old mistress breathed a sigh of relief when she heard that Mr. Bei would arrive.

Mr. Bei is a Mr. One and Two in the Qianhuan Continent. If Lin Chushui can worship him as his teacher, he will always be able to hold his head high in the Yue family.

Mammy stood on the old mistress, looked at the old mistress, and swallowed involuntarily.

The old mistress worked so hard for the grandson she had never met, and she didn't know what she agreed to Mr. Bei's request, but she actually made Mr. Bei agree to accept Lin Chushui as his disciple before she even met him!

"Old mistress, the eldest son threw out all the things in the yard. It seems he doesn't like it. Do you think... do you want to send some more?" she asked.

"No need, just bring some impure crystal stones and let him buy the things in his yard."

The old mistress ordered without thinking.

"By the way, let everyone else know that I, the mistress of the house, have sent things to Chu Shui, not one by one, and I have no eyesight at all. When should I give in and let them use their tricks? , all highlighted!"

"Yes, old mistress, I will give you the instructions now."

Grandma responded and went out to deliver the message.

In Lin Chushui's yard, even Luo Tianying, who had seen countless people, was stunned when he saw Lin Chushui coming out in a white robe.

"Chu Shui, are you... are Huanglu really that nurturing? Look at the people who support you. I want to go to Huanglu and stay for a while to see if I can become more beautiful."

This cousin, I am afraid that with this face in the future, he will have a bright future.

"Your clothes look really nice."

She thought that no one would look down on the clothes she brought back from the deserted continent.

"My sister made it for me with her own hands."

When Lin Caisang was mentioned, the corners of Lin Chushui's lips curled up unconsciously.
