

Star of Space 1711

Chapter 1711 Only more but not less!

Sui Zimo looked at him indifferently and chuckled.

Come to think of it, it's not up to him to have the final say, right?

If he wants to get something from the cloaked man, there are many ways. Is it possible that he is helpless against a prisoner?

Of course it is impossible to agree!

"Exiled Jue, I'll leave this place to you. You must dig out something."

After saying that, Sui Zimo left.

As for Ban Jue, he took a deep breath, raised his foot and kicked the cloaked man.

"Are your bones hard? I would like to see how hard your bones are!"

"Exiled Jue, what do you think we should do now?" Exiled Wu asked him.

In fact, I have to say that the bones of this cloaked man are really strong, otherwise they wouldn't have been able to interrogate him for so many days without finding anything.

"If he doesn't say anything, then he will be interrogated every day and every moment. I'll see if he wants to say it or wants to sleep!" Ban Jue said viciously to the cloaked man.

Just because he dared to kill their prince several times, there was nothing they could do to be polite to such a person!

"Brother, you and Brother Changfeng should read these books together. Remember, recite them if you can."

Lin Caisang said after throwing a few books in front of his eldest brother.

Lin Changhong: "..."

Didn't I just give him a few books before, but he hasn't finished them yet.

Why are there so many books for him now? Does this girl want him to sleep with books every day?

"Sang Sang, how about... let's show these to Brother Changfeng?"

He said to Lin Caisang in a consultative manner.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang thought for a while and nodded.

"Okay, let's show these to Brother Changfeng. I'll get you some suitable ones tomorrow and show them to you," she said.

Lin Changhong: "!!!"

If you bring it to him, he is sure that what his sister will bring tomorrow will only be more and not less!

"No, no need. I'd better read these with Brother Changfeng first. Also, Chang Yi has been quite free recently, so why not let him read it too? What do you think?" he suggested.

Holding Lin Changyi's hand, he could read slowly, because Lin Changyi must read very slowly.

This is a really good idea, and I happily decided to watch it together from now on!

"You can see the long-term meaning." Lin Caisang nodded.

"Then you just watch it first, I'll go to Grandpa's place to have a look."

She said, then turned and left.

"Ah, I want to read again!"

After Lin Caisang left, Lin Changhong couldn't help holding his head and wailing.

"Changhong, don't you like seeing these?"

Lin Changfeng looked up from his book and asked him.

nonsense!

These two words were written all over Lin Changhong's face.

Who wants to read every day, except, of course, his cousin, Lin Changfeng, who holds books every day and eats them.

But he is different!

"It's not that I don't like it, but...Brother Changfeng, please read these first. After reading them, you will know how difficult it is to memorize these books, especially since Sangsang actually asked me to memorize them!"

Not just memorize a short section, but memorize the entire book.

Of course, there's not just one book, but a stack of books!

"Really? It's hard to remember?"

Lin Changfeng picked up a book, flipped through two pages carefully, and suddenly frowned.

"How about it, Brother Changfeng, are these books difficult to read?" Lin Changhong asked immediately after seeing his expression.

He was right, these books were really the most difficult to remember he had ever seen. He seemed to recognize the words in them, but he didn't recognize them!

Chapter 1712 There are bugs crawling in the meat

"Changhong, it is very beneficial for you to read these books carefully or memorize them by heart.

Lin Changfeng raised his head, looked at Lin Changhong and said.

"Don't read the other books for now. I'll read these books with you first. Don't worry, I will help you memorize everything written in these books. Go and call Chang Yi."

Lin Changhong: "..."

He complained to Brother Changfeng, not because he wanted to find someone for Sangsang who could keep an eye on him!

How did things come to this?

"Okay, I'll go right away."

What can he do? No matter how desperate he is, he has to do it.

As for Lin Changfeng, when Lin Changhong went to find Chang Yi, he had already started to look quickly.

"Sure enough, I don't know where Sangsang got these books." He said involuntarily.

...

In the yard, Lin Laogong was sitting in a wheelchair, watching the rainwater falling.

"Grandpa, why did you come out?"

When Lin Caisang came out of Lin Changfeng's room, he saw it, walked over quickly, and asked.

When she was in the yard just now, she hadn't seen Grandpa yet. Why was she sitting here now? No one was watching either.

"Grandpa is happy, and he just came out to take a breath. The room is very stuffy." Lin Laogong looked at his granddaughter and said with a smile.

"What are you so happy about?"

Lin Caisang came up behind him and saw that he was almost soaked by the rain, so he quickly pushed him a little further into the hay shed.

"Will Song'er and Bai'er from Third Aunt's house call me Grandpa?"

she said jokingly.

"Nonsense."

Lin Laogong scolded her angrily.

"Then the two children are not even one month old yet, so you just pointed out that they can call someone?"

"I don't expect them to call me sister." Lin Caisang replied.

"That's not something you can hope for." Lin Laogong said angrily.

"Sang Sang, grandpa feels that his legs are very swollen in the past two days. Is there something wrong with it, or... You'er massaged me too much?"

he asked after hesitating for a moment.

At first he didn't want to mention it to his granddaughter, but he remembered that his granddaughter had said that if there was any discomfort in his legs, he must tell her.

He could only mention it.

"Um?"

Hearing his words, Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows.

He quickly came to Lin Laojie from behind, squatted down, stretched out his hand to squeeze his leg, and raised his head to ask him.

"Grandpa, does this feel uncomfortable?"

"One thing, I always feel a little uncomfortable, as if there are bugs crawling in the flesh."

Lin Laogan thought for a moment and said a more appropriate adjective.

Yes, it was like there were a lot of bugs crawling in the flesh. It was fine during the day, but it was even worse at night. He didn't sleep much in the past two days.

"If I squeeze it again, will it feel uncomfortable here?"

Lin Caisang changed his position and pinched his calf gently.

"have."

Lin Laogong nodded.

"What's going on, Sangsang, is your grandpa's leg bad?"

Lu Qiubo asked nervously when he saw the two people walking over in the rain under the grass shed.

Lin Caisang did not answer her question first, and continued to communicate with Lin Laogong while squeezing his legs.

After a while, Zhong You and Lin Baiyi, who had come down from Menghuang Mountain, also came over. The three of them kept staring at Lin Caisang's back.

Lin Caisang turned around and stood up immediately when he saw Zhong You and Lin Baiyi.

Chapter 1713 Don't be too hasty

"Third uncle, Zhong You, push grandpa back to the room and let him lie down. I'll take a look again," she told him.

"good."

The two of them responded, one pushed the wheelchair, the other held an umbrella, and took Lin Laogong back.

"Sang Sang, is your grandpa okay?"

Lu Qiubo asked his granddaughter with a worried look on his face.

"Grandma, Grandpa is fine."

Lin Caisang raised his eyes and glanced at her, then added another sentence.

"Even if something happens, it must be a good thing."

Hearing this, Lu Qiubo raised his eyebrows with joy.

It's a good thing. Doesn't that mean that her old man's legs are really saved, and he may still be able to walk in the future?

"Okay, okay, Sangsang, you go to the room first, Grandma will cook more food for you today.

She was very happy, how could she not be happy, and hurried to the kitchen to work.

After a while, Lin Caisang finished checking Lin Laogong. With Lin Baiyi's help, Lin Laogong sat back in the wheelchair.

"Third uncle, tomorrow, you go to the mountain to pick a good piece of bamboo and make a crutch for my grandpa. I think it won't be long before my grandma can use it."

Lin Caisang explained to Lin Baiyi.

"Hey, good!"

Lin Baiyi agreed wholeheartedly.

One crutch is not enough. He has to make a few crutches. Let his father pick them from now on, and he will get used to whichever crutch he has!

"Zhong You, you have always been massaging my grandpa's legs. Next, I will teach you a set of massage techniques and physical exercises. You follow this.

Lin Caisang looked at Zhong You again and said.

"Okay, Master."

Zhong You nodded.

"In addition, the prescriptions have to be changed. I will give you two prescriptions later. You go and get the medicines. If there are medicinal materials that are not available in the deserted mountains, you can go to the mountains to collect them. This can also train people."

Lin Caisang said again.

Zhong You still nodded, but he was a little confused.

"Master, why do you need two prescriptions?"

he asks.

Does the old man's medicine need to be taken in two separate prescriptions?

He always felt something strange, but he didn't know what was wrong and couldn't put his finger on it.

"One is for third aunt. Just use the old hen to stew it. There is no need to fry it as medicine." Lin Caisang explained.

"Sang Sang, your third aunt still needs to take medicine. She is still in confinement. Will taking medicine... be harmful to the child?" Lin Baiyi asked his niece uncertainly.

"It's just for Song'er and Bai'er to drink. Of course, they are still young and can't drink the medicine, so we can only let Third Aunt drink it and turn it into milk for them to drink. But Third Uncle, don't worry, I have a prescription." Proportionate."

Lin Caisang opened his mouth to explain again.

Although Lin Changsong and Lin Changbai were born at full term, they were twins after all, and the third aunt had been annoyed by Lin Caihe.

After all, there were some deficiencies in the fetus. After repeated consideration, she decided to give the two little ones some body-building medicine.

It can also enhance immunity and prevent the two little ones from getting sick when they are young.

"Okay, okay, if you say that, Third Uncle will feel relieved." Lin Baiyi nodded.

"Um."

Lin Caisang responded.

Turning her head, she looked at her grandpa.

"Grandpa, when you are fine, you can also hold on to the armrest and try to stand up and take a look, but it will definitely not be that fast. Don't be too hasty. I am just saying this to let you have an adaptation process."

"Okay, grandpa understands." Lin Laogong nodded.

After Lin Caisang finished talking to them, he went to the eldest princess and her mother's room.

Chapter 1714 Not a good... thing!

"Mom, are you bored staying at the Lin family?"

Seeing her mother sitting on a stool with various silk threads on the table, embroidering, she walked over with a smile and asked.

"The climate in Ye County is like this. In the past few months, it has been difficult to go out."

"It's not boring. Mom has something to do."

The eldest princess put down the embroidery needle in her hand, reached out to hold her daughter's hand, and asked her to sit next to her.

Then he glanced sideways at the red wedding dress on the table. Of course, it had not been embroidered yet.

"In the blink of an eye, you have grown up and it is almost time to get married."

Lin Caisang just smiled and didn't reply.

"Although my mother is really reluctant to let you get married so early, Mo Lian is a good child, and she will feel relieved to have you by his side." The eldest princess continued to talk to her daughter.

"A few days ago, my mother had a discussion with your uncle. In the spring of next year, we will discuss marriage with Wei Guo. However, your uncle is quite unhappy and says that Emperor Wei is not a good... thing!"

"puff!"

Lin Caisang couldn't help laughing.

If Emperor Wei was a good person, she wouldn't know her brother Mo Lian, right?

Furthermore, Emperor Wei was not a good person, so would she be afraid of him? Let's see who can beat whom!

"Mother, you don't have to worry about this. Emperor Wei is not a match for Brother Mo Lian yet."

"Mom, don't worry."

The eldest princess clapped her hand and said.

"When children grow up, they always have to go out and have their own adventures. They can't stay with mother forever. It's just... Sangsang, mother still wants to remind you, don't trust the people around you too much. .

Some words and some things are best not to be known to too many people, lest outsiders have evil intentions. "

Hearing this, Lin Caisang looked stern.

"Mother, you..."

"When mother came this time, she sent the nuns around her to the other garden. Maybe you understand what mother meant?" the eldest princess asked her daughter.

The nun beside her is the one who has been with her for the longest time. She has been with her since she was a little girl. Even when she went to Qianhuan Continent in those years, that nun never left the princess. Mansion.

And for such a person that she trusted so much, she wouldn't let her know everything.

Lin Caisang pursed her lips and looked at her mother.

"Mother, you have guessed it."

"There are some things that you don't need to guess. You are my mother's daughter, and she will definitely not harm you, but other people... Sangsang, although you must not have the intention to harm others, you must have the intention to guard against others. "

The eldest princess continued to exhort her.

"Your grandma has been telling mother about your affairs over the years. Just last year, your grandma said that you have never left Yacun."

Even if she has never left Yacun, when did her daughter go to Jian'an City? How did you come back?

Is it possible that she can be divided into two parts by herself?

"Well."

Lin Caisang choked at her mother's words.

She knew that this matter must not be hidden.

"But it's okay. Mother has already told your grandma that she will never tell anyone about you again," the eldest princess said.

"Mom, what did you say to grandma?" Lin Caisang asked quickly.

"I didn't say much. Your grandma said that she is old and can't remember some things clearly." The eldest princess said.

"call!"

Lin Caisang let out a heavy breath.

She was afraid that if her mother spoke harshly to Grandma, Grandma would be frightened into something bad.

Chapter 1715 I will be fine

"That's good.

"When will you leave for Qianhuan Continent?"

Suddenly, the eldest princess asked again.

"ah?"

Lin Caisang's heart was beating fiercely. She had no intention of telling her mother about this!

"Mother, what are you talking about Qianhuan Continent? I have no plans..."

"You don't plan to go, so you plan to lie to me, a mother-in-law?" The eldest princess raised her eyebrows.

Lin Caisang choked and had no words to reply.

What could she say? There was nothing she could say, right?

"Okay, I plan to go, but it's still early, at least I have to wait until I marry Brother Melian." She said honestly.

The eldest princess: "..."

How much her daughter hates getting married!

"Mom, there is a spiritual cultivation method here. You can take it and read it first."

Standing up, she took out a book from under her pillow and placed it in front of Lin Caisang.

"This spiritual cultivation method is not the orthodox spiritual cultivation method of Qianhuan Continent. For the people in Qianhuan Continent, it can be regarded as a heretical way. However, as long as you practice the method, your cultivation level will be able to surpass the people in Qianhuan Continent in the future. "

"oh."

Lin Caisang obediently put away the spiritual cultivation method.

"Mother, didn't you give this book to Chu Shui?"

Suddenly, she remembered something. Her mother knew that Chu Shui was going back to Qian Huan Continent, so she wouldn't have copied a copy of this spiritual cultivation method and given it to Lin Chu Shui, right?

"No. om"

The eldest princess shook her head.

"Chu Shui is only twelve years old. He can still use orthodox spiritual cultivation methods and does not need to use this spiritual cultivation method."

"Oh, oh oh."

Lin Caisang responded several times.

It would be fine if she didn't give it to her. She was afraid that Chu Shui was young and ignorant and would use two spiritual cultivation methods to learn together. If the time came, he would become obsessed...

Fortunately, she didn't give it, so she didn't have to worry.

"Sang Sang, I won't interfere with the matters between you and Mo Lian, but Qianhuan Continent is definitely not as simple as you think. If you really want to enter Qianhuan Continent, you should start making preparations now. "

The eldest princess said to her.

"Ok, I know."

Lin Caisang nodded, of course she knew this.

Of course, she has already obtained the secret book of spiritual cultivation, so she will naturally make good use of it.

The spatial change has passed, and she hasn't gone in to check it yet. After she checks what's in the space, she and Sui Zimo will work hard to cultivate their spirits.

"Mom, you don't have to worry about me, I will be fine."

"Ah."

The eldest princess chuckled, raised her hand, and touched her daughter's face.

The child has grown up after all. Even if she wants to interfere in the child's affairs, she can't do it. It's better to let her fly outside.

Of course, she would be worried if Sangsang was alone.

But Sui Zi Mo was here, and she believed that the child could protect her precious daughter.

"Mother, let me take your pulse and see how you are doing lately." This topic was raised, Lin Caisang looked at his mother and suggested.

Of course, the main reason she came in was to check her mother's pulse.

In the golden bead space.

When Lin Caisang entered again, he clearly felt that the air inside was very different from before, and it was particularly fresh.

"Ziyou, is this pasture larger than before?"

Looking at the ranch space, she asked Sui Ziyou, who was standing next to her, that maybe Ziyou knew more about this place than her master, so it was right to ask her.

"That should be it, sister-in-law."

Sui Ziyou was actually not sure, so he could only respond vaguely.

Chapter 1716 A ten-thousand-headed ginseng king grew

"Before the shaking, the bamboo house was not far from the jade mirror, but after the shaking, the bamboo house was a little far away, and there..."

She raised her head and looked at a forty-five-degree angle.

Lin Caisang's eyes followed her upwards, and he couldn't help but twitch the corners of his mouth.

"Sister-in-law, I can't get up to that place." Sui Ziyou said.

"That's Sheppard. If you want to go up, you have to let me take you up. Unless I agree, no one else can go up." Lin Caisang explained.

There are medicine peaks in this medicine garden space. She can understand it. Anyway, as long as the medicinal materials are planted, they can still grow luxuriantly without much management.

But in the ranch space...

If an animal is not fed for a few meals, it will starve to death.

When this Sheppard appeared, did she want her to go around the Sheppard every day and feed the animals?

"Brother Yujing, is it possible to make specific offerings at Mufeng?" she asked Yujing.

'Dear master, you can grow crops on Sheppard Peak. You can raise ice silkworms, white beads, etc. on Sheppard Peak. Of course, you can also raise some swiftlets. Raise swiftlets in Sheppard Peak and produce bird's nests. It is completely different from the outside world.'

Not only that, the jade mirror also lists many animals that can be raised on Mufeng but do not require Lin Caisang to take care of them every day.

"fine."

Lin Caisang breathed a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, she can also raise some flying ones, otherwise, she would really have to be a complete shit shoveler, and not just a small animal!

"So besides Sheppard, what other changes are there this time?"

she continued to ask.

'The food garden space has opened, do you want to go and take a look? There is also the upgrade of Lianxinmai. There are already two waterfalls for two people to practice at the same time. The dark barrier in Wuji Prison has been upgraded by two levels. In addition, a ten-thousand-headed ginseng king grew in the space of the medicine garden...'

A few lines of words were displayed in the jade mirror, which were probably the benefits brought about by this change in space.

Seeing this, Lin Caisang thought about it and turned to look at Sui Ziyou.

"Ziyou, you stay here first, I'll go look elsewhere."

With that said, she dodged to the medicine garden space.

She could take her time to look at the others, but she wanted to see what the King of Ginseng looked like.

On top of the medicine peak in the medicine garden space.

Lowering his head, Lin Caisang was speechless as he stared at the King Ginseng in front of him, which must have just sprouted and grown two buds.

"Is this the King of Ginseng?"

She has walked around the medicine garden space several times. It must have been dark outside, right?

Finally, she saw such a small thing in the medicine peak. She guessed that it must be the King of Ginseng, right?

Because except for medicinal materials, other weeds cannot grow in the medicinal garden space and are directly turned into fertilizers.

Naturally, what can emerge from the soil must be medicinal materials.

But she had never planted it herself, so the only explanation was that this was the King of Ten Thousand Heads Ginseng that Yu Jing mentioned.

"Yu Jing, does the King of Ten Thousand Heads Ginseng need to be so small? How long will it take to raise it?"

She ducked back to the jade mirror in the medicine garden space and asked.

‘Master, do you need to move all the other medicinal materials on the Medicine Peak to other places?’
A question mark appeared in the jade mirror.

Lin Caisang: "..."

"Why move?"

Wouldn't he tell her that such a small ginseng king would require her to raise a whole mountain of medicine, right?

Chapter 1717 Can merit points be used instead?

This is impossible, right?

But it seems that nothing is impossible in the Golden Pearl Space.

‘Master, Wan Tou Ginseng King will evaluate its own growth environment, and then determine how it should grow according to the growth environment. How big it can be depends on whether the environment around it can make it grow bigger.’

Jade Mirror explained.

"You still bring something like this?"

Lin Caisang was stunned when he looked at those words.

"Then if I remove all the medicinal materials in the medicine garden, will it grow over the entire medicine garden?"

she asked.

Jade Mirror: ‘...’

A large series of ellipses appeared on the jade mirror.

But soon, the ellipses disappeared, and a long list of words used to despise its owner appeared.

'Dear Master, although Yu Jing is not a human being, he also believes that humans should not be too greedy. The King of Ginseng can indeed grow according to the growing environment, but if it really grows too much... you can't Entering the medicine garden space.'

Because the space in the medicine garden is occupied by Wan-head Ginseng King, its owner cannot squeeze in at all.

Looking at the words, Lin Caisang was silent for a moment.

"Of course I know, it's not enough to use an analogy."

It seemed as if she would really make the entire medicine garden full of thousands of ginseng kings.

Wingdings:

Although ginseng is very valuable, and eucalyptus ginseng is even more valuable, if it is not used with other medicinal materials, it will not work!

"Then move all the other medicinal materials on that medicinal peak to another medicinal peak. Also, if you plan that medicinal peak according to this pattern, don't really let me have a place to stay by then. No!"

She drew a rough pattern of Yaofeng in a jade book and placed it on the stone table next to the jade mirror.

'Okay, Master.'

"I'm going to check out the food garden space."

As Lin Caisang spoke, he dodged again. This time, he landed right next to Yu Jing, but the environment had changed.

The endless fields have been cultivated, and there are no weeds at all on the fields. It should be possible to grow crops as long as seeds are sown.

"Yu Jing, give me the rules of the food garden."

She said to the jade mirror.

The next moment, a jade book appeared on the stone table, and Lin Caisang took it directly into his hands.

"It seems that we have to buy a few cows to cultivate the land."

It is written in the jade book that the land in the food garden space can be automatically planted using points.

But one thing is that land reclamation costs a lot of points. Lian Yushu himself suggested that it would be best to bring in a few old cows to reclaim the land.

Of course, after Lao Niu got it in, she didn't have to bother. She could just let Lao Niu reclaim the land naturally. This also cost points, but it was relatively small.

Suddenly, her eyes moved and she looked at the jade mirror.

"Jade mirror, this jade book says that the points spent in the food garden space can be replaced by merit points? Is it true?"

She didn't need Yu Jing to answer this, she knew it was Uncle Zhi, otherwise it would not have been written in the jade book.

'Yes, Master, that's true in principle. ' A line of words appeared in the jade mirror.

"In principle again?"

Lin Caisang rolled his eyes carelessly.

Basically, in the Golden Pearl Space, every time you see or hear the three words "in principle", it must have another meaning.

"Don't tell me that if you use merit points instead, the cost will double," she said.

Chapter 1718 Just these five people

'It's doubled, but not doubled, but ten times. In other words, if you spend one point on points in the food garden space, the merit is worth ten points. ' Yu Jing said.

Seeing these words, Lin Caisang's legs weakened and he almost fell to the ground!

Ten times, ten times, that's ten times! ! !

"I said, this merit point is too easy to earn. I can earn one, two, three or four points no matter what. But I didn't expect that there is such a big pit waiting for my merit points here. !"

Yes, she didn't spend any points on the previous medicine garden space and pasture space. Sui Ziyou was alone and she took care of it occasionally, and it was enough.

But the food garden space is different!

In this place, value crops need to be taken care of frequently, and such a large food garden space will definitely not be feasible if only a few people can do it.

Not to mention, she was the only one, so it was impossible to take care of it well.

"Then is it okay if I contract a few more slaves?" she tried to ask.

Of course, this is just to raise the possibility. She will not really go out to be an indentured slave for the sake of the food garden space.

'The food garden space is different from other spaces. In the food garden space, slaves cannot be used, Master. ' A few lines of words appeared in the jade mirror.

So, we can only use points... no, we can only use merit points?

Points have to be used to upgrade, but the merit points, apart from being able to exchange for things in the Continuous Pulse, don't seem to be of much use.

And it's much easier to earn than earning points.

"Forget it, let's talk about it later."

Now, she had better go to Prince Mo's Mansion to see if the cloaked man had been caught.

I don't know if anything came out of his mouth!

In Prince Mo's Mansion.

Five people wearing the same color stood in front of Sui Zimo, with their master looking at their faces.

"Just these few people, so few?" he asked Jiang Li.

Jiang Li, who was waiting for his master to choose someone, said: "..."

What's going on? The prince suddenly told him to find some subordinates who are smart and know how to do business.

He has obviously found five of them, but his prince still uses him. Why are there so few?

Is this because he didn't find enough people?

However, these are the people the prince personally requested. How can he be casual? These five are already the most subordinates he can find in Shaohua City. Of course, their business skills are definitely sufficient.

"My lord, these five are already... the best."

Jiang Li said.

"Forget it, just these five people."

Although there are fewer people, Sui Zimo can't dislike his subordinates too much, can he?

"Jiang Li, you go to Liang Kingdom in person, select five more people, and take them directly to Ye County."

He then ordered.

"Yes, Your Majesty, I will go right away."

Jiang Li didn't know what his prince wanted to do, but he still agreed.

Probably his prince wants to do something top-secret, and he will always find out in the future.

He turned around and was about to leave for Liang Kingdom.

"Jiang Li, where are you going in such a hurry?"

Just as he was getting ready to go out with his baggage, he saw Lin Caisang who had just come in from outside.

"Miss Lin, I want to go to Liang Kingdom."

He naturally knew everything about Lin Caisang. After all, his prince didn't hide anything from Lin Caisang. It would be pointless for him to hide it.

Chapter 1719 I want to use the words in her name!

"Go to Liang Kingdom.

Lin Caisang raised his voice and nodded.

"Thanks for your hard work."

"My subordinates are not working hard." Jiang Li immediately shook his head.

"However, Miss Lin, the prince doesn't know what happened. He suddenly ordered his subordinates to select some businessmen. How about you go and take a look?"

He suggested to Lin Caisang in a low voice.

"You have to choose so soon?"

Lin Caisang raised her eyebrows. The most important thing about her visit this time was this.

Now that the food garden space is available, merit points are an urgent matter, and we must earn more and more.

"Okay, I understand, go and do your work."

She nodded and walked in.

The study door.

When Lin Caisang came over, Sui Zimo was lecturing his five subordinates in a decent manner.

"Brother Melian."

She walked over and called him.

"Sonny, come here."

Sui Zimo immediately stretched out his hand and motioned for her to come over.

"These are the ones picked by Jiang Li. They are all business masters with the first and second attributes in the Nine Lotus Palace. Come and see if you are satisfied with them first."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised his eyes and looked up.

Among the five people, three were men and two were women.

She knew that there was not much good or bad about a face alone, but the eyes were different.

She moved slowly from left to right, passing five more people one by one, and then returned to Sui Zimo's side.

"The eyes are sharp and you can see the loyalty in them, yes! But five, will it..."

"Too little?"

Sui Zimo took up her words and asked.

He frowned, glanced at the five people in front of him, then took Lin Caisang's hand and walked aside.

"Five people are a little less, but don't worry, I have already asked Jiang Li to take care of it. These five people are only responsible for the business in Weiguozhong, so it is okay. As for Liangguo, let Jiang Li pick out five more outstanding ones. Just come."

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

She actually wanted to ask whether five people would be too many.

But listening to what her brother Mo Lian said, why did she feel that he was doing the right thing? The more talents the better.

And when there are more people, business can go to bigger shops, right?

"Well, it's all up to you."

She nodded, indicating that she had no objection to what he said.

"What are their names? Tell me so I can remember them in the future."

"name?"

Sui Zimo himself was stunned and turned to look at the five people.

"Names are given by the master. They will be the people around you in the future, so it is up to you to rename them. You can forget the previous names."

Without thinking much, he said to Lin Caisang.

Lin Caisang raised an eyebrow but did not refute.

"Then I'll give it to them. I'll give it to them with the word "mulberry" in my name."

She walked over again and looked at the five people.

"Sonny..."

Hearing her words, Sui Zimo was stunned.

I secretly regretted it in my heart. If I had known it earlier, I would have asked for their names. I could have just used them. Why did I ask Sonny to give them important names?

Now, the little girl wants to use the words in her name!

"You will follow me from now on, and I will give you important names." Lin Caisang looked at them.

"Master, please give me a name."

The five of them knelt down towards Lin Caisang.

"It's good to fold words. From now on, you should start with folding words. As for the name...Brother Mo Lian, I'm actually most afraid of choosing a name. How about you help me think about it?"

She looked at Sui Zimo and suggested.

Chapter 1720 The whole person is smiling

Sui Zimo: "..."

The names of his subordinates were all chosen by themselves.

But Sonny had already spoken, so it wouldn't be a good idea if he didn't name a few names, right?

"That's not easy. Since the first word is Dui, then we should use Dui 1, Dui 2, Dui 3, Dui 4, Dui 5."

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

Hearing this, she felt her whole body radiate a smile.

Brother Molian, are you serious?

Even the five people kneeling on the ground all raised their heads and looked at their old master.

This name seems so weird to me, right?

One, two, three, four, five. The prince just ordered Leader Jiang Li to go to Liang Kingdom to find five more. Are there still six, seven, eight, ninety?

Why do they feel like laughing just thinking about it?

But there were only a few names, which really didn't matter. In the end, Lin Caisang spoke. It was too difficult to choose a name with the repeated words, so I decided not to give it up.

It's better to let them call themselves by their original names. The men are called Ban Shang, Ban Wen, and Ban Ye, and the women are called Zhe Mei and Zhe Tao. According to Sui Zimo's meaning, the names are just for calling them anyway. They can be called anything. It doesn't matter...

Lin Caisang directly handed over the banknotes she had exchanged in her hands to them, and asked them to follow their own wishes and follow the sketches she had drawn before to find shops in various places in Weiguo.

time flies.

In the blink of an eye, the drought-like weather in Ye County arrived again.

After a long period of treatment, Lin Laogong was able to slowly walk with a cane in his own yard, but he was always accompanied by his family.

When he is alone, he dare not leave!

It wasn't because he was very old and still timid, it was because one day his granddaughter caught him practicing walking alone in the yard and he almost fell.

The granddaughter gave him a thorough lesson.

There was nothing he could do. From that day on, he no longer dared to walk secretly in the yard alone.

Lin Baiyi and Yang Lin's two children originally wanted to organize a full-moon banquet, but Yang Lin said forget it. He was too embarrassed to always accept gifts from people in the village, and it never happened in the end.

But although no one was invited from outside, it was inevitable that people would be popular at home.

The eldest princess, Lin Caisang, gave the two little ones something. Although it was not expensive, it was still small and small. The two little ones held it in their hands and refused to let go.

Time passed day by day, until one day, the jade mirror showed that Lin Caisang's mission was completed.

From that day on, Lin Caisang could only make two more trips to Yacun.

"This news, are you sure?"

In the study, Sui Zimo stared at Ban Jue seriously and asked coldly.

"Sure."

Ban Jue nodded.

"Your Majesty, after receiving this news, my subordinates personally went to the branch of Jiulian Palace to inquire about the situation. The news from there should be correct."

He looked at his prince carefully and said.

Hearing this, Sui Zimo kept tapping the four knuckles of his right hand on the table, not knowing what he was thinking.

"My lord, what do you think about this... do you want to tell Miss Lin?" he asked, still unsure of his decision to banish her.

"hiss!"

Sui Zimo took a deep breath.

Naturally, he wanted to tell Sonner, but Sonner was still in Yacun, so he couldn't tell her directly.

"Leave all matters in the house to ban Wu and order him to continue interrogating the cloaked man. I will go ahead and ban you to wait for Son'er here. As soon as she comes, I will escort her to join me."
