

Star of Space 1721

Chapter 1721 Is there any news about my father?

After thinking for a long time, he made this decision.

"Yes, Your Majesty." Ban Jue responded.

This matter is very important. The prince cannot wait for a moment and wants to investigate directly, but it is also necessary.

When Lin Caisang returned to Prince Mo's Mansion two days later, he was completely confused after hearing the words of banishment.

"Exiled Jue, are you serious? Do you really have any news about my father?"

"Yes, Miss Lin, the information obtained by Jiulian Palace should not be wrong." Ban Jue replied.

"Your Majesty has already taken the first step, do you want to come with me now?"

he asks.

"Okay... wait."

Just as he was about to answer, something suddenly occurred to him, and Lin Caisang looked at him.

"Exiled Jue, go and pack your things. We will set off in an hour. We will ride on horseback instead of a carriage."

"Okay, Miss Lin, I'll go get ready now."

Lin Caisang, after being banished and leaving, returned to Yacun.

She didn't dare to tell her family about the news about her father, fearing that the people from Jiulian Palace might get it wrong.

Moreover, her mother's body cannot be shocked by such great joy or sorrow. It would be great if she really found the person and brought him to the grandpa, grandma, mother and elder brother.

But this time, I don't know how many days it will take, and the task has been completed, so she can't come to Yacun every day.

Of course I have to come and inform my family.

After arranging her family members and telling them that she was leaving with Sui Zi Mo, she set out with Ban Jue from outside Prince Mo's Mansion.

The girl wearing the mask got on her horse and left from outside Prince Mo's Mansion, heading towards the city gate. Many people saw it, and the news spread directly to the palace. The emperor learned that Sui Zimo had brought back the female doctor again. news.

"Hmph, I just know that that bastard is restless!"

The emperor threw the memorial on the table. He gritted his teeth and looked at Eunuch Gui who came to report.

"Where is the person? Has he entered Prince Mo's Mansion?"

he asks.

"Back to the Emperor, we did not enter Prince Mo's Mansion, but left from Prince Mo's Mansion. It is estimated that at this time, we have left the city and headed towards Lu County." Eunuch Gui said.

"Lucheng?"

The emperor frowned, isn't that the direction to Liang Kingdom?

Does the female doctor want to return to Liang Kingdom again? How could he agree to this?

"Get someone immediately, stop the female doctor, and escort her to the palace!" He ordered Eunuch Gui.

"this....."

When Eunuch Gui heard the emperor's words, he raised his head and gave him a strange look.

escort?

What kind of escort? You obviously want to tie the female doctor to the palace, right? It's all up for grabs!

"Your Majesty, that female doctor is from the Liang Kingdom. Is it bad if we keep her in the palace?" He asked carefully.

"What's wrong!"

The emperor doesn't care about that much. He finally got the whereabouts of the female doctor. If he doesn't leave her here at this time, when will he go?

"I am the emperor, and since that female doctor has joined the Wei Kingdom, she must obey me!"

"But Your Majesty, that female doctor has a gold medal for immunity from death given by Emperor Liang himself. Moreover, you are planning to exchange her for the princess of Liang Kingdom. If you offend her at this time, if she does not agree to this matter, you should what to do?"

Eunuch Gui asked.

"this....."

Hearing this, the emperor paused.

Damn it, if he had known that he could catch the female doctor so easily, how could he be stupid enough to mention the marriage between the two countries to Liang Guo?

Chapter 1722 Your father is the only one missing

Wouldn't it be better to keep the female doctor by your side?

"Go and send someone to keep an eye on the female doctor!"

He took a deep breath and ordered.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

Eunuch Gui responded, breathed a sigh of relief, and then retreated.

On the border of Liang State, in Panjia Village, Hongxiang Town, Bag County, Lianhua County.

When Lin Caisang arrived, Sui Zimo had already arrived and had already touched Panjia Village so well that he couldn't be more familiar with it.

"Brother Mo Lian, how's it going?"

I found Sui Zimo at a farmer's house. Before she could even breathe, she asked.

"Sit down first."

Sui Zimo poured her a cup of tea and handed it to her.

"Have a sip of tea and take a break. I'll tell you slowly."

he said.

"good."

Lin Caisang was indeed thirsty. He drank the tea in the cup in one gulp, poured another cup for himself, and then finished it.

Then he sat down.

"I have already inquired in this village. Your father came here four years ago. At that time, people in the village heard the people next to him calling him Lieutenant General Lin."

Sui Zimo spoke to Lin Caisang.

"What happened four years ago?"

Lin Caisang frowned and looked at him.

"Yes, we can only find out what happened four years ago, because according to the information I have now, the last place your father appeared was in this village."

Sui Zimo said.

"This is the border of the Liang Kingdom, and Lianhua County is connected to the Man Kingdom. There are bandits making trouble here all year round, and soldiers from the Man Kingdom occasionally break in to steal food and people.

Four years ago, the most serious banditry occurred in Panjia Village. Almost all the women in the village, ranging from seven to more than 30 years old, were kidnapped, and not a single grain of food was left.

It was your father who led his soldiers to take back all the people and food.

Then he lived in Panjia Village with his soldiers for two months and dug many secret tunnels for the people of Panjia Village to store food and hide when bandits came. "

"What happens after that?" Lin Caisang asked.

"According to an old man in Panjia Village, one day, a young girl came in a carriage with a few followers and had a dispute with your father. The next day, your father disappeared."

Sui Zimo said.

"Gone? Why is he missing? Is everyone missing, or is it just my dad?"

Lin Caisang asked.

"Your father is the only one missing." Sui Zimo said.

"Of course, the young girl who came to see your father and her entourage are also gone."

Thinking about it, the girl must have used some method to get Lin Baizhong away, right?

I don't know where exactly I am now?

"Is there nothing else?" Lin Caisang asked.

"Based on the description of the girl by the people in the village and the quarrel between the two, I roughly guessed who the girl was. She should be the daughter of Lianhua County Guard General Su Wan.

Let's rest here for a day and set off early tomorrow morning to go to the General's Mansion to find out. "

"What are you waiting for? Let's go now."

How could Lin Caisang wait? She came all the way here, and she didn't come here to eat or sleep.

"Miss Lin, you'd better rest here for one night. You haven't had much rest along the way, and your body will be overwhelmed." Ban Jue stood aside and interjected.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang glared at him.

Why are you saying this? Isn't she anxious? That's her father, her biological father.

"Sang'er, Su Wan is in Lianhua County. He can't escape. You can rest for the night first to make me feel at ease, okay?" Sui Zimo held her hand with one hand and said.

Chapter 1723 Your father's subordinate is called Asan

Lin Caisang: "..."

What else could she say?

"It doesn't matter, we have been waiting for it for so many years, and the day is about to come.

"What do you want to eat? I'll cook it for you."

Sui Zimo asked immediately.

"Anything is fine, as long as it's made by you, I like it." Lin Caisang said.

"good."

Sui Zimo responded and took Ban Jue to the kitchen.

"Master, is there something you didn't tell Miss Lin?" When they arrived in the kitchen, Ban Jue asked in a lowered voice.

"Let Sonny rest first and talk to her tomorrow."

Sui Zimo said lightly and started chopping vegetables.

"Light the fire."

"yes."

Ban Jue responded and said nothing more.

Early the next morning.

Before dawn, Lin Caisang, who had something on his mind, woke up.

After getting up, she came to the yard and saw that Sui Zimo and Ban Jue had come out, and all the things they needed on their way were ready.

"Brother Mo Lian, it's so early."

"I know you can't sleep. After breakfast later, we will set off early. I have prepared a carriage and we can get to Lianhua County tonight." Sui Zimo looked at the carriage he had prepared and said.

"Um.

Lin Caisang nodded.

...

"Brother Mo Lian, who is driving the carriage?"

On the carriage, Ban Jue was sitting in the carriage with them, but she had never seen the person outside the carriage.

Looking at the man's clothes, he should be a commoner in Panjia Village, but he didn't look like him. She was quite surprised, so she asked Sui Zimo.

"He is your father's subordinate. His name is Asan. You can call him Uncle Asan from now on. In the past few years, he has been looking for your father's whereabouts." Sui Zimo explained.

"Um?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and looked at him seriously.

"Brother Mo Lian..."

"Sonny, there was something I didn't tell you last night."

Before she could ask anything, Sui Zimo took the initiative to speak.

"All of your father's subordinates died after your father disappeared. Only Uncle Asan escaped death because your father sent him out to the forest to inspect the digging of the secret tunnel."

"All...all dead?"

Hearing this, all the hairs on Lin Caisang's body stood up.

"Yes, they are all dead." Sui Zimo nodded.

"Except for your father, who is missing, everyone else is dead, and the family where your father and the others stayed was also wiped out, even the infant baby was not spared."

Thinking of this, he secretly gritted his teeth. If he knew who did this, he would definitely not let those unscrupulous people go!

"hateful!"

Lin Caisang couldn't help but curse.

Isn't this too crazy? Even the swaddled babies are not spared.

Even if you are worried that someone will see the true face of those who kill people, it is impossible for babies to have any memory, right?

Even the slightly older children were not spared.

"Where is that girl? How is she now?" she asked.

"According to Uncle Asan, he has been secretly inquiring in the past few years and has been to Lianhua County many times."

Sui Zimo said.

"That woman got married two years ago, but Uncle Asan said that for some reason, a girl who used to be quite beautiful had a long scar on her face when she got married.

But because she was the only daughter of the general, she had been living in the general's house, including her husband, as if she were a bride-in-law. "

Lin Caisang: "..."

This kind of woman shouldn't be a good person, right?

Chapter 1724 Sit and wait for her to come to your door

Regardless of the facts, her intuition told her that the guard general's daughter was definitely not a good thing!

"I finally understand why my mother has been unable to find my father all these years. It seems that General Su concealed what happened to my father in Lianhua County!

Should we go directly to the Shoujiang Mansion to find out? "

she asked.

"Can't you?"

Ban Jue looked at his own prince, and then looked at Lin Caisang.

"Master, if we come to the door for questioning directly like this, no one will tell the truth. Then the clues will probably be lost in the hands of Su Wan's family. Miss Lin, why don't we think of another way?"

After hearing the words of banishment, Lin Caisang was silent for a moment.

If according to their speculation, those people were killed by Su Wan's daughter, then this woman was definitely a crazy person.

It is difficult to ask questions directly from such a person's mouth.

"Since it's too hard, let's give her something soft!"

she said.

"Why are you so soft?" Ban Jue asked.

"Exiled Jue, after arriving in Lianhua County, we will find a medicine shop around the general's mansion. No matter the price, I only want the medicine shop!" Lin Caisang ordered.

It was too slow to open a new drug store. Anyway, she had plenty of money, so she could just buy a drug store.

"Isn't that woman's face hurt? If that's the case, then I'll just sit and wait for her to come to my door.

"good."

Ban Jue nodded.

...

Lianhua County.

Unlike Ye County, there are bandits making trouble here all the year round. There are not many people doing business on the streets, and many shops are closed.

On the street, there were few people shopping, just a few sparse people.

"Why is Lianhua County like this?"

Looking at this scene, Lin Caisang was simply stunned.

"Miss, Lianhua County has always been like this. There are very few people here, and the most people are soldiers guarding the city, so it is normal to see few people on the street."

Ah San spoke to Lin Caisang and explained.

Lianhua County is the poorest county in the entire Liang Kingdom, and it is famous in the Liang Kingdom.

"The front is the Shou General Su's Mansion. As far as I know, there is a medicine shop not far from the Shou General's Mansion."

He pointed forward and said.

"Then go over." Lin Caisang said.

Now is not the time to care whether there is anyone on the street or not.

"Master, please go and handle it."

Ban Jue walked straight ahead, preparing to go to the drug store to inquire.

Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang found a tea shed and sat down. Apart from them, there was no one else in the tea shed.

"The people in Lianhua County live a very hard life. They are all those who have no money and have to stay here. As for the girl's family, only Lianhua County is mentioned, and no one is willing to marry here. Most of the daughters-in-law of other families are I spent all my savings to buy it."

Ah San told them about Lianhua County.

"Don't you care about the court?" Lin Caisang asked with a frown.

That uncle of hers was too inactive. Look at what such a large county has been done to.

"The court has taken care of it. If the court had not taken care of it, Lianhua County would have been deserted a long time ago." Suizi Mo said.

"Young Master Mo is right. Lianhua County is now in a state of peace that it has not experienced in many years. In the past two years, bandits have rarely broken in, and the barbarians no longer dare to invade at will. "

Asan said.

"Aren't those bandits from Liang Guo?" Lin Caisang asked.

Chapter 1725 Set up a stall at will

"Of course not, they are all from barbaric countries." Ah San replied.

"That's no wonder."

Lin Caisang nodded.

The rogue bandits came from the barbarian country and went back after being beaten. No matter what happened, Liang Guo had nothing to do with those rogue bandits.

After a while, Ban Jue came back with an embarrassed face.

"What's wrong?"

Lin Caisang looked at him and asked.

"Master, Miss Lin, that drug store is too expensive." Ban Jue said.

Lin Caisang: "..."

It's too expensive. How expensive can it be?

Besides, no matter how expensive it was, she still had to buy the drug store!

"How much?"

she asked.

"With the medicine and the shop, the boss is asking his subordinates for a hundred thousand taels!" Ban Jue said.

"This is the price after he took away all the precious medicinal materials in the shop. One hundred thousand taels. How can such a small shop get such a high price?"

Of course when he heard it, he was simply shocked!

"Ten...one hundred thousand taels?"

Even Lin Caisang was shocked after hearing this.

Did the owner of the drug store think that her money was blown away by the strong wind?

One hundred thousand taels, it's a shame that he can open his mouth to get such a big price!

"Forget it, let's find a new shop.

Although she has money, she doesn't spend it like this. It's not easy to make some money these days, so she can't just let others blackmail her!

"Actually, you don't have to open a medicine shop. Sonny, you can set up a stall on the street and conduct free clinics." Sui Zimo said.

"Free clinic?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows.

This is a good idea. If you do good deeds, the merit points in her heart will definitely rise!

"I have to think carefully about what medicinal materials I need to prepare for the free clinic."

She held her chin up and fell into deep thought.

"Miss, you don't even have to think about this," Ah San said.

"Lianhua County has the most injured people. Although there are very few rogue bandits, there are always some. As far as I know, a group of rogue bandits appeared in Lianhua County ten days ago and injured many people.

The reason why the owner of the drug store opened his mouth is because drug stores are the best business in Lianhua County. "

Lin Caisang: "..."

It turns out I still carry something like this.

Then she just needs to prepare more medicine for injuries, right?

"I need to prepare some more ointment. I have to spread the reputation of being able to heal scars, right?"

she said.

"You prepare the medicinal materials, and we will set up the free clinic shop." Suizi Mo said.

"Um."

Lin Caisang responded.

...

Two days later.

Not far from the Shoujiang's Mansion, Sui Zimo picked a most conspicuous place and placed a sign for the free clinic at the shop. Then Ah San and Ban Jue shouted outside the door.

Soon, Lin Caisang, who was sitting in the hall, received his first patient.

But after the patient stepped into the shop with one foot, he saw that the person sitting behind the table was a masked woman, and he quickly wanted to take his foot back.

"Why is she a woman?"

He muttered.

Isn't this place a scam?

What disease can a woman cure? She might just kill him.

He felt that he should not go in and go to Jishi Hall. Although the medicine there was a bit more expensive, it could at least cure his injuries.

However, before his step forward could come out, he was supported by Ban Jue behind him.

Chapter 1726 He is a divine fortune teller

"Old man, let me help you in.

As he said that, he supported the old man and helped him in half-heartedly.

Even if the old man said not to go in, he pretended not to hear it and continued to praise Lin Caisang as he walked in.

"Old man, my girl is a miracle doctor. Anyone who passes through her hands can be revived from the dead..."

Hearing these words, Lin Caisang's hand that was placing the sandbag on the table paused, and the corners of his mouth twitched as he looked at Ban Jue.

Did you heal all the dead?

This is a big boast. If she had that ability, how could she still do it?

"Old man, please sit down and let me take your pulse first."

No matter what Ban Jue said, you still need to diagnose your pulse, and you still need to treat your illness and injury.

"No, no, I...cough, cough."

The old man is still struggling to his death and wants to leave this place.

But how could the banishment give him such an opportunity? He directly pressed him on the stool, pulled out his hand, and checked the pulse of his mistress.

"No, there's really no need. I just got kicked and have a bit of a cough. In ten days and a half, it will be fine on its own." The old man said while coughing.

However, Lin Caisang, who had already begun to diagnose his pulse, didn't think so.

"Old man, you were kicked in the chest. The bruises haven't gone away yet, right?" She looked at the old man and asked.

"Well."

The old man was stunned and looked at Lin Caisang in surprise.

"How did you know?"

In the past, doctors had to see where his injuries were before making a diagnosis. But when he got here, he didn't even take off his clothes, and he didn't even say anything.

You actually know this? Could it be that this girl is a good fortune teller?

He also spent all the money on his hands several times before. This time he really didn't have any money to use to treat injuries, so he thought of coming here to try his luck.

Could it be that we really met a miracle doctor?

"How do I know?"

Lin Caisang repeated the old man's words and looked at him strangely.

"Don't you feel pain in your chest in the past few days?"

"this....."

The old man was stunned for a moment.

"The pain was so severe a few days ago that when I was kicked, I couldn't get out of bed. I was rolling around on the bed, which scared my family so much that they almost had to do something for me.

However, I have gotten much better these two days, and I don't feel much pain anymore. I just keep coughing, which makes it even more uncomfortable. "

He replied subconsciously.

"That's because you were kicked and your internal organs were injured." Lin Caisang explained to him.

I was kicked hard and my lungs were injured. Can it not hurt?

It's okay to be rolling around in pain. If you're not lucky, it's possible that once you close your eyes at night, you won't be able to open them again in the morning.

"That's why you keep coughing. If you continue like this, it will definitely get worse."

"What?"

The old man couldn't believe his ears.

Of course, he didn't believe the little girl in front of him. If the person opposite him was a man, he would still believe these words, but it happened to be a woman.

"You...you're not lying to me, are you? It's not as serious as you said, it's just a kick, just one kick..."

But what he hadn't finished yet slowly disappeared in Lin Caisang's eyes.

"It just kicked a little hard."

He raised his hand and touched his nose and said coquettishly.

Chapter 1727 It wasn't brought by the strong wind

"Old man, I won't gain anything by lying to you, right?" Lin Caisang looked at him helplessly and asked.

"Look at the sign over there. This is a free clinic. Whether you diagnose your pulse or write a prescription, you don't have to pay for it. At most, if you want to get medicine from me, I will charge you money for the medicine, but I can guarantee that, It's definitely cheaper than buying it at a drug store outside."

"Then... what should we do?" The old man was anxious.

All the money at home has been spent, otherwise, he wouldn't have come here to try his luck, because he really couldn't afford the money to treat himself.

"Girl, how should I treat it? How much money will it cost? My family... really can't afford the money. What should I do?"

Lin Caisang looked at him. Although he was not very decently dressed, he was still clean. He should be someone who lived near the county, and he had a plan in mind.

"Let's do this, old man."

She coughed lightly and spoke seriously.

"If your family is really in trouble, I'm not incapable of being accommodating. As long as you go around and talk to people, say that I treat people here for free and let everyone come to me for treatment.

How about I give you...two patients and one patch of medicine? "

She stretched out two fingers and said to the old man.

On the side, Ban Jue and Uncle Asan looked at Lin Caisang and couldn't help but secretly give her the thumbs up.

After all, they are not familiar with this place, and the people here will not believe them. No matter how good the medical skills are, it is useless if they cannot be trusted.

But this old man is different.

He should be a native of this place. If the neighbors say this casually, a lot of people will believe that Lin Caisang is indeed a miracle doctor.

"Can it still be like this?"

The old man was surprised when he heard her suggestion.

"Originally, you can't do this. After all, the things I have here are not blown by strong winds."

Lin Caisang coughed lightly and spoke seriously.

"But who made me have a predestined relationship with the old man? You are my first patient here, so you have opened a business for me. If I can't accommodate you, who can I accommodate?"

But old man, I have to tell you one thing. You can't tell others about the discount I'm giving you. If everyone comes to me and says there's no money, then I won't have the medicine for you. "

"Okay, okay, I know this." The old man took advantage and nodded repeatedly.

How could he tell others? What's the benefit? Naturally, he hid it first. Telling others would be absolutely stupid, not him!

"Girl, what do you know how to treat?" he asked quickly.

Change it to tomorrow... No, there is no need to wait until tomorrow. Later he can ask his family to publicize this girl. There are many people here who are reluctant to spend money to see a doctor when they are sick.

If they knew that medical consultation was free and they only had to pay a little money to get medicine, everyone would be happy to come.

"I can treat ordinary ailments and pains, even difficult and complicated diseases, especially since I have a magical medicine here that can remove scars after use. This is my unique secret, but this Things are expensive and most people can't afford them."

Lin Caisang said to the old man.

"That's it."

The old man listened and nodded.

"Then I will ask my family to talk outside later. Girl, we have agreed. I will bring two patients, and you will give me a patch of medicine."

Chapter 1728: Go shout from outside!

After thinking about it, he was still worried and asked again.

"It's natural."

Lin Caisang nodded, walked to the table on the side, picked up a piece of yellow paper, directly grabbed several medicinal materials on the yellow paper with his hands, without weighing them, and then wrapped them up.

Then he came over and handed it to the old man.

"Old man, this is the first patch of medicine. You can take it home and boil it first. Then when you bring two people here, I will give you one patch of medicine. I will keep my word."

she said.

"Hey, good!"

When the old man saw that he could get a patch of medicine for free, he was so happy that it was directly expressed on his face.

He quickly took the medicine bag and held it tightly in his hand.

"Girl, you're busy, so I'll leave first. I'll leave first."

"Miss, I saw that the person just now was quite lively."

Ah San looked at the old man's leaving figure and asked Lin Caisang strangely.

That old man didn't look like he had injured his internal organs. Although he coughed a little more, it was actually quite normal, right?

It would be strange for an older person not to have any minor ailments.

"Sometimes, if you are not full of energy, nothing really happens." Lin Caisang also looked at the old man's back.

"If he doesn't come to my place, sees an ordinary doctor a few times, and then feels like nothing's wrong, and rests at home or continues working, I'm afraid he won't have a few more months to live."

Internal organ damage can be healed by taking medicine or recovering from injuries.

But the old man just now looked like he didn't have much health care. The medicines he took before were not correct and had no effect at all.

In this way, his internal organs will only become more damaged, and within a few months, the disease will completely break out.

That is true to what the old man said just now, his family can prepare for him.

"Excommunicate Jue, go outside and shout!"

After speaking, she saw that several people had actually come in, and no one greeted anyone outside, she said immediately.

"Oh, I'll go right away."

Only then did Ban Jue wake up, turned around and went out.

"Then I'm going out too." Uncle Asan also walked out.

After a while, Sui Zimo walked in. When he saw him, Lin Caisang immediately stood up, poured him a cup of tea, and handed it to him.

"how's it going?"

Sui Zimo took the tea cup and took a sip before speaking.

"Things seem to be a bit difficult to handle. This family is basically the overlord here. Even the county guard has to give in to them. To put it simply, they are the local emperors here."

he said.

"How to say?"

Lin Caisang frowned and asked.

"Originally, it's nothing to be granted a fiefdom. It exists in all countries." Sui Zimo said.

"But this general is no longer as simple as a fief. This place is not his fief. It is just on a traffic fortress. He is a guard general and guards here.

But as time went by, the guard gradually took away the rights of the county guard. Now, this place has almost become his world, and whatever he says is done.

The county guard here wanted to file a complaint several times, but was stopped. Otherwise, he was beaten several times because of this. "

"How can you do this!"

Lin Caisang was angry. He was simply a scum of the country. He should be sentenced to death so that he could never stand up again!

She tapped the table again.

"Brother Mo Lian, we must deal with this scum this time, otherwise, this place would still be a paradise for the common people."

Chapter 1729 It's someone else's business

"Um.

Sui Zimo nodded.

After thinking for a while, he continued.

"I went to inquire about it. The woman is the only daughter of the guard. She is usually very pampered. Marrying someone is like marrying a son-in-law. Her husband's family dares to be angry but dare not say anything. It's even worse than what Uncle Asan said before. Be serious.

Her husband had several brothers in his family who were all married, but because she had not been able to conceive a child in the past few years, she actually beat several pregnant sisters-in-law to half-death, and even the children could not be saved. "

"Does this kind of person deserve to live in this world?"

Lin Caisang slammed the table again.

"Okay, don't take it out on your hands when you're angry. Doesn't it hurt?"

Sui Zimo glanced at her, took her hand over, put it in front of him, and started to rub it gently.

"They all became famous."

"I'm so angry." Lin Caisang flattened his mouth and said.

"Don't be angry, that's other people's business and has nothing to do with us." Sui Zimo said.

But speaking of it, they are really related, because the whereabouts of Lin Baizhong still have to fall on that woman.

"However, one thing was a coincidence. Because the woman had wounds on her face, she looked at the young and beautiful sisters-in-law of her husband's family and felt it was an eyesore, so she ordered their faces to be scratched as well."

Lin Caisang: "!"

How could there be such a vicious woman in this world?

Seeing that there are no injuries on other people's faces, can you let people scratch their faces? Why didn't she make more cuts on her face?

"So, I have to treat such a vicious person's face!"

She gritted her teeth. In fact, she didn't want to treat such a vicious woman at all. Could she just kill that woman?

The answer, of course, is no.

The whereabouts of her biological father still had to be pried out from that woman's mouth.

"If you don't want to be cured, you can always find a way to pry something out of that woman's mouth." Suizi Mo said.

He knew his son's temperament, he was so kind, and after hearing what that woman did, let alone saving people, she just wanted to shave him off now!

Of course, he seemed to have the idea that such a woman was not worthy of staying in the world at all!

"Forget it then."

Hearing his words, Lin Caisang shook his head.

The person she was looking for was her biological father, so she thought it was better to be safer.

That woman is so vicious, she has done many bad things, and she must be very defensive. If she doesn't get it right, she might not say anything at all!

"Brother Mo Lian, have you ever found out what that woman is most afraid of?"

she asked.

"Didn't find out."

Sui Zimo replied, this is indeed difficult to find out.

After all, judging from the things he found out, that woman was extremely vicious, so naturally she had nothing to fear. She had nothing to fear from heaven and earth.

but.....

"It is said that the woman scratched the faces of all the maids around her because of the wounds on her face, and also ordered that no mirrors should be seen wherever she went.

Every time he saw his own face in the water, he would go so crazy that he would beat and kill people. "

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows.

If that were the case, it would be much easier to handle.

"You don't want to see your face ruined, do you?" She raised an eyebrow.

Then, she decided to let that woman see her ruined face, and it was ruined more than once!

Chapter 1730 Did you read that correctly?

"Brother Mo Lian, I have decided to heal the injury on that woman's face!" She said to Sui Zimo.

"Then I'll let Ban Jue make the arrangements. First let the sisters-in-law from her husband's family come over to buy medicine to treat her face. I think it won't be difficult at all." Sui Zimo said.

Lin Caisang nodded.

In the next few days, thanks to the old man introducing patients, Lin Caisang's business improved a lot.

Every day, many patients come to see a doctor. Naturally, there are also a few facial surgeons who want to remove scars on their faces and bodies and have a few dollars in their hands. They are all willing to come.

Although Lin Caisang said how expensive her medicine was, in the end she measured the strength of the people in Lianhua County and would not ask for excessive prices.

Her asking price is affordable to many people.

In the guard's mansion.

A woman with a white scarf on her face was sitting in a courtyard.

"Really? Did you read that correctly?"

She raised her head and looked sharply at the man standing beside her carefully, with his neck curled up and his face full of fear, and asked.

"It's true, ma'am, I read it correctly." The man heard her question and hurriedly replied.

"When I went home just now, I saw that the scars on the faces of my sister-in-law and the others had faded quite a bit.

After asking, I found out that it was because a miracle doctor came from Lianhua County. She had a unique secret recipe that could make scars on people's faces disappear after a period of time. "

When he heard about this, he rushed back without even eating, wanting to share the great news with his wife.

"hateful!"

When the woman heard his words, the expression on her face did not soften at all, but became even more fierce.

"Those bitches dare to secretly treat their faces behind my back. Are they tired of living?"

As she spoke, she stood up from her chair.

"You come with me. I want to see how their faces can be restored. Is it possible that they can turn into that vixen and come down to earth to seduce all the men in Lianhua County?"

The more she thought about it, the angrier she became. After saying a few words to the man, she summoned a few guards from the general's mansion and left in a hurry.

"Oops, not good."

The man yelled belatedly, and then he realized that something was wrong.

"Madam, madam, listen to me, I want to say..."

He originally wanted to say that as long as his wife could buy the miracle doctor's medicine, the scars on his face would be healed.

In this way, she will no longer have to be jealous of others or scratch other women's faces.

But the woman seemed to have nowhere to go with him.

The first thing she thought of was that those women were trying to heal the scars on their faces behind her back.

This was a deliberate attempt to embarrass her. He knew clearly that she had scars on her face and didn't want to see other people's intact faces, but he actually dared to treat the scars on her face!

The man hurriedly chased after her, but he was still a step too late. The woman had already left in a sedan chair.

"What did you say?"

In the drug store, Lin Caisang was almost stunned when he heard the news that ban Jue had come to report.

What did she hear?

"Miss Lin, you heard me right. When Su Meihua learned that her sisters-in-law bought medicine from you to treat scars on their faces, she was so angry that she rushed to her husband's house and injured their faces again. This time, It got even more serious and the blood was all over the floor."
