Chapter 1731 Don't be such a daughter-in-law

Ban Jue was afraid that Lin Caisang didn't hear clearly, so he said it again.

"My subordinates saw with their own eyes that Su Meihua's husband kept trying to persuade her, but he didn't stop her. Anyway, she was kicked a few times. Now the house is filled with cries."

Lin Caisang blinked, looked at Sui Zimo beside him, and then looked at Ban Jue again.

"How could...how could there be such a woman?"

She murmured in her red lips, she was so angry that she couldn't even say a harsh word.

How was such a woman raised?

"hehe."

What could she say?

She could only say that she was just waiting for Su Meihua to come to her door automatically. When the time comes, she would avenge everyone's revenge!

Su Meihua's husband's family.

Several sisters-in-law and sisters-in-law were ordered by Su Meihua to have countless cuts on their faces.

They are not afraid of scars in the future, because they have secretly prepared medicine in their hands, which can be treated slowly.

But that was a cut on the face, a hard cut on the flesh. How could it not hurt? Several women were in so much pain that they no longer had the strength to even sit up, and lay on the ground wailing.

"What kind of evil have I done!"

The old lady sat on the ground and cried so hard that she couldn't help herself.

Su Meihua was not the daughter-in-law she came to ask for, but Su Meihua herself fell in love with her son.

If Su Meihua's father hadn't been the guard of Lianhua County, she wouldn't have been able to refuse the marriage. Otherwise, she wouldn't have wanted such a daughter-in-law even if he offered her a fortune.

Fortunately, Su Meihua was not used to living in her husband's house, so she often stayed there for several months without coming back, so that they and the whole family could take a breather.

But even so, as long as Su Meihua returns to her husband's house, nothing good will happen.

Just like this time...

She finally found out about the miracle doctor and thought her daughters-in-law's faces could be saved, so she went through a lot of trouble to get the medicine.

Little did he know that he was stabbed by his unsatisfactory son to Su Meihua.

It's better now, but things at home have become like this again.

What a good idea!

"Mother, mother, please stop howling."

When Su Meihua's husband heard his own mother crying, he was not so sad, but worried.

He was worried that his wife would become even more angry after hearing his mother's cry, which would make his own life even more miserable.

It was not easy for him to marry such a powerful wife like Su Meihua. Of course, he had to hold her in his hands with a headache, but he couldn't let his own mother ruin his good deeds.

"Mom, please stop crying. Meihua will be angry if she hears this. You don't want your son to have trouble living in the future, right?"

"you--"

The old lady was almost angry to death when she heard her son's words.

"You... bastard, get out, get out, I won't have a weak son like you in my family anymore!"

She pointed to the door and yelled at her son.

His sisters-in-law were murdered in such a manner. He didn't know anything was wrong, and he actually taught her, his own mother, a lesson.

Is this her son?

"mother!"

Su Meihua's husband looked at his mother reproachfully.

"Why am I a weakling? If I hadn't been in my father-in-law's house for the past two years and our family is in Lianhua County, would we have such a status? You don't know how to give in to some plum blossoms, why do you have to fight with her?"

The same goes for my sisters-in-law. Why do they have to have their faces treated? Could it be that if they look a little sad, they won't be able to survive?"

Chapter 1732 The old man's partiality

While he was scolding, he looked at the other women.

At this moment, they had been helped up by their husbands, sitting aside, and were about to go to the doctor to see them.

"you you....."

The old lady raised her hand and was about to hit her son in the face.

However, there was a hand that was faster than hers and knocked her hand back directly. With a 'pop', it landed directly on her heart.

"you--"

She raised her head and looked at the person who beat her, Su Meihua, with tears in her eyes.

"What are you, you old immortal thing, you still have the nerve to cry!" Su Meihua glared at the old lady angrily and spoke through gritted teeth.

"He is my husband, and I am the only one who can beat him. Who do you think you are? You dare to beat my Su Meihua's husband. Have you lived too long?"

And there are a few of them, vixens one by one. Hmm, as long as I am around, their faces will never recover. Once they are cured, I will scratch them once. Let me see if you can cure them faster or the knife in my hand is faster. ! "

"you--"

The old lady opened her mouth, but no words came out.

How could she have such a daughter-in-law? She hasn't done anything wrong in these years. Why does God punish her like this?

"You old man, you still want to cure the faces of those daughters-in-law? Don't look at their vixen looks. If you cure them, sooner or later, you will cuckold your sons.

By then, I'm afraid that the grandson you worked so hard to raise will not even know that he was raised by some wild man outside! "

"you--"

The old lady almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

It was okay that she didn't mention the child. When she mentioned the child, the old lady's chest felt so tight that she almost couldn't even lift her breath.

She should have had a grandson long ago. Even if it wasn't a grandson, it would still be a granddaughter.

But there happened to be such a loser in the family, who just wiped out the stomachs of her daughters-in-law, and Su Meihua didn't even feel that she had done anything wrong!

"Hmph, please stop pointing that bitch finger at me, or I won't be able to stand it anymore, so I'll just cut it off for you with a knife!" The anger in Su Meihua's heart was almost extinguished on her sister-in-laws.

With a cheerful face, he said leisurely to the old lady.

Hearing this, the old lady gritted her silver teeth and stared at Su Meihua hatefully.

"Immortal old man, don't glare at me either."

Su Meihua didn't care about the old lady and continued to speak.

"Who told you, an old immortal, to be partial? You have to find some medicine for those vixen daughters-in-law. Am I sure their faces will be cured? If you dare to do that behind my back, you will be punished!"

As she spoke, she glared hard at the women whose faces were covered with blood, and then glanced at her husband.

"Why are you still standing there? Why don't you hurry up and lead the way? I want to see which doctor is so capable that he can heal all the scars on his face."

She just saw that the scars on the faces of those vixens were indeed much better.

It seems that the rumors about the miracle doctor are not false.

In other words, there is hope for her face. From now on, she will no longer have to wear a veil to live her life. She can choose as many men as she wants, and she will no longer have to guard this one man.

"Oh, okay."

The man didn't know what Su Meihua was thinking. As soon as he heard her words, he hurried forward and took her away.

"This...this bitch...how could we have such a bitch in our family!"

Chapter 1733 Let him warm my bed!

When Su Meihua and her group were no longer around, the old lady couldn't help crying.

"Boss, if you don't hurry up, go find the doctor outside."

"Mom, that woman is gone. If we look for her again, we will meet her." The boss looked at his mother hesitantly and said.

He wanted to go find her, but that woman Su Meihua seemed to have gone to find the miracle doctor. If she was caught, the family would suffer again.

"Instead of looking for a miracle doctor, we can just find an ordinary doctor." The second child said.

"What a sin, what a sin!"

The old lady was still muttering that her heart ached when she thought of Su Meihua!

...

On the other side, Su Meihua, led by her husband, quickly arrived at the drug store where Lin Caisang was.

"Go away, get out, get out of here, didn't you see my young lady coming?"

Before Su Meihua entered the door, the maid next to her spoke viciously to the patients in the pharmacy and asked the guards to drive them away.

"What are you doing standing there? Drive these poor bastards away. If you keep me waiting for a long time, I'll see if the general doesn't remove your heads one by one!"

The guard was already used to Su Meihua's behavior. After listening to the maid's words, he was about to go forward and chase her away.

Who knew...

A silver needle flew over and stared directly at the maid.

"Ah...ah."

The maid who was yelling and cursing lost her voice the next moment and could only open her mouth to howl, but no sound came out of her mouth.

"Quarrel."

Lin Caisang took the patient's pulse and said a word lightly.

The next moment, Ban Jue strode over, plucked the silver needle from the maid's body, flicked her big hand, and threw her out.

'Bang!'

The maid fell to the ground outside. She was dizzy from the fall, but she still couldn't make any sound.

When the guards saw him, they gasped and took a few steps back.

I originally thought it was something they could round and flatten, but I didn't expect that they wanted to make trouble on the tiger's head.

Several people looked at their young lady, Su Meihua, carefully.

Unexpectedly, Su Meihua's eyes at this moment did not see anyone else at all. Her whole heart fell on Sui Zimo next to her. Her nymphomaniac eyes seemed to eat Sui Zimo alive. Similar.

"Miss, what should we do now?"

A guard walked over and asked Su Meihua.

"What?"

Su Meihua came back to her senses when she heard the sound.

He glanced at the guard, then looked at Sui Zimo. The next moment, he raised his hand and pointed at him, giving orders to the guards.

"What are you guys doing standing still? Bring him back to me. I will let him warm my bed tonight!"

A group of people who came to see a doctor: "..."

Lin Caisang: "..."

Sui Zimo: "..."

Ban Jue and Uncle Asan: "..."

This Su Meihua's face must be made of city walls. How can she be so thick?

Or was she in someone else's drug store, ready to take her back without even asking if she wanted to go with her?

It is said that there are many rogue bandits outside Lianhua County, and they often break in to rob people, but they did not expect that the lady guarding the general's mansion was several times more ruthless than the rogue bandits!

"Ah."

Lin Caisang withdrew his hand to check the patient's pulse and looked at Su Meihua.

Chapter 1734 Eat well in Lianhua County

It seemed that all the methods to treat Su Meihua's illness were ineffective, because she tried to take a roundabout way, but Su Meihua would not agree.

so what?

She turned her head and glanced at Sui Zimo.

By chance, Sui Zimo was also looking at her, and they both understood a message from each other's eyes.

"Everyone, I'm sorry, there are distinguished guests coming to the Japanese medicine shop today. Please come back tomorrow. Please go back. Exile, please go back."

She stood up, clasped her fists at those who came to see the doctor, and asked Ban Jue to send them away.

"yes.

Ban Jue responded, put the silver needle in his hand on the table in front of Lin Caisang, and went to let the patients leave first.

The patients looked at the plum blossoms and then at the mulberry trees.

Although they all want to treat their illnesses without spending money, this woman is the famous Su Meihua in Lianhua County. Who dares to say no to her.

No one wanted to mess with him, and it was not a serious illness at all, so they all left with their tails between their legs without saying a word.

"Why are you still standing there, why don't you tie up that man!"

Seeing that everyone had left, Su Meihua looked at Sui Zimo again and continued to give instructions to the guards behind her.

"Madam, madam, don't be angry. No matter how good this man is, he is not your husband. Su Meihua's husband couldn't stand it anymore and hurriedly came forward to persuade her.

But how could his words have any weight in Su Meihua's heart?

Su Meihua pushed him aside and glared at him.

"Don't be so verbose around me. If it weren't for your good looks, do you think that my dignified eldest lady who guards the General's Mansion would fall in love with you? If you continue to be verbose, I will divorce you directly!"

"You and I....."

The man opened his mouth. He was afraid. After thinking for a long time, he decided to close his mouth.

In the past two years, he has been married to Su Meihua.

But he knew better than anyone else that Su Meihua was not the only man, and even in front of him, she would flirt with other good-looking men.

Moreover, Su Meihua had told him before that marrying him was just to act as a decent facade for her. She didn't like him at all, and she didn't like his face.

But he is different.

He needs to be the son-in-law of General Su's Mansion in order to be able to enjoy life in Lianhua County.

Therefore, he is willing to endure it. As long as Su Meihua does not go too far, he can endure it.

But what is the situation now? There were so many people in this shop just now, and Su Meihua actually ordered people to tie that wild man back. Where does this put his face?

Therefore, he just stood up and said something.

Little did they know that Su Meihua really couldn't say a word. He only said one sentence, and she bluntly said that she wanted to divorce his husband.

If it were another woman, she would definitely not dare to do it, but who is Su Meihua? She is the only daughter of guard Su Wan. What can't she do, let alone divorce her husband?

It's okay to say that it was Hugh. If Su Meihua was unhappy and killed him directly, it would be possible to say that he died of illness.

Suddenly, a trace of regret arose in the man's heart. He regretted that he had been so obsessed with trying to curry favor with this crazy woman, right?

"Okay, okay, I won't say it, I won't say it, but madam, we'd better wait until night to do this matter of kidnapping people back home. It's daytime now, and it won't look good on my father-in-law if he is seen by people on the street. Ah, isn't it?"

Chapter 1735 Get me the medicine quickly!

He had no choice but to move his father-in-law, the guard Su Wan out.

Thinking of her father, Su Meihua stopped and looked at Sui Zimo unwillingly.

"Forget it, let's wait until night."

This man is a top-notch man. Even among those before, she has never seen such a stunning man. She must get it.

Just do it at night. It's easier to do things at night anyway.

Listening to the conversation between Su Meihua and his wife, Lin Caisang really wanted to raise her thumb. She really admired this couple.

But Ban Jue and Uncle Asan were simply stunned.

This Su Meihua turned out to be such a thing. When he was with the boss, he didn't realize that Su Meihua could be so mean. Could it be that he is getting more courageous as he gets older?

"Who is the miracle doctor here?"

The man can wait until night to tie him up, but there is one more thing, and that is the injury on his face.

"What's the matter?"

Lin Caisang took a deep breath and looked at Su Meihua.

Gee, is this a man who wants to miss her, and also wants to heal the injury on her face?

It's quite beautiful to think about, it's absolutely amazing!

"Are you the miracle doctor? Why are you a woman?"

When Su Meihua heard Lin Caisang's question, she glanced at her disdainfully, and then looked at the man beside her who lowered his head and did not dare to say another word.

"You didn't say that this miracle doctor is a woman. What can a little bitch do?"

"this....."

The man also glanced at Lin Caisang, and his eyes lit up when he stared.

Just now, I was only focused on persuading Su Meihua, but now that she was mentioned, I noticed that there was another little beauty in the shop.

If this little girl could stay by his side, he would be happy even if she was divorced by Su Meihua.

"ah!"

However, just as he was thinking about it, Su Meihua reached out and pinched his arm hard.

"Where are you looking? What's the matter? After marrying this lady, you still want to have three wives and four concubines?"

With her here, how could her man have another woman? Even if the man was abandoned by her, she would not allow him to have another woman, don't even think about it!

"Madam, you misunderstood. I didn't expect that this miracle doctor would be a woman, so I took a second look at it." The man explained quickly, fearing that Su Meihua might think too much and it would really be detrimental to him.

"But madam, there is no difference between men and women. As long as they can get the medicine, it doesn't matter whether they are men or women, don't you think?"

He said flatteringly to Su Meihua.

"Too."

Su Meihua nodded.

Turning her head, she looked at Lin Caisang, with infinite contempt in her eyes.

"I heard that you have a medicine here that can heal the scars on your body after using it, right?"

she asked.

"There is such a medicine."

Lin Caisang nodded, thinking that no matter how good the medicine she had, she would not give it to such an evil woman!

"But the price is a bit expensive, and it depends on how much injuries you have."

Hearing this, Su Meihua took off the veil from her face in front of them, raised her finger to point to the scar on her face, and spoke to Lin Caisang.

"It's just this injury, hurry up and get me some medicine!"

"Tsk."

Seeing the injury, Lin Caisang couldn't help but frown.

Such a deep wound, I'm afraid when it was injured, it was even deep in the bones, right?

If it were deeper, would half the head be cut off?

Chapter 1736 Dare you say that I have no money?

"Your injury is too deep. If you need medicine, you will need at least three boxes." She stretched out three fingers and said to Su Meihua.

"Stop talking nonsense and get me the medicine quickly!"

Su Meihua had been impatient for a long time and glared at Lin Caisang fiercely and said.

"Three boxes of medicine, each box worth 300 taels of silver, a total of 900 taels. If you know the money first, I will get the medicine for you." Lin Caisang looked at Su Meihua indifferently and said.

"What?!"

Even Su Meihua was frightened by Lin Caisang's "Lion's Big Opening".

She didn't know how valuable that medicine was. Three boxes of medicine cost nine hundred taels of silver. But in the past few years, she had spent her money shopping in Lianhua County.

Good things were always brought to her eagerly by others, and she didn't know whether she would like them or not.

And this stinky woman actually dared to reach out and ask her for money?

"You stinky woman, do you know who I am? Do you dare to ask me for money? You don't want to live anymore, do you?"

She roared at Lin Caisang and raised her hand to greet Lin Caisang's face.

Unexpectedly, without even touching Lin Caisang's face, he was blocked by Ban Jue. Sui Zi's black eyes sharpened, and a flash of murderous intent flashed in his eyes!

Damn this woman!

Lin Caisang felt the killing intent in him, looked back at him, and shook his head at him.

At this time, it is not the time to kill Su Meihua. When they get what they want from her mouth, they can go wherever they want this woman.

"I don't care who you are. If you want my medicine, you must be able to afford the money. If you don't have the money, I'm sorry, but the gate is there, please go back!"

She turned back to look at Su Meihua, pointed at the door, and said to her.

"you....."

Su Meihua was immediately angry with her.

This stinky woman actually dares to say that she has no money. She is the rich daughter of the guard general's mansion. How can she have no money?

"You dare to say that I don't have money? You...come here and give her money. Three boxes of medicine, right? Give her a thousand taels!"

She ordered to the maid beside her.

"Yes, miss."

The maid responded, immediately took out the banknote, and threw it on Lin Caisang's body with great force.

"Take it, my lady will reward you. Go and get the medicine quickly."

Lin Caisang did not pick up the thousand-tael silver note. Instead, he turned around and went to the counter, took three boxes of medicine and handed them into the maid's hand.

"Three boxes of medicine have dosage instructions written on them. If you use too much and you feel any discomfort on your face, it's none of my business. Take it."

She also did what the maid had done by throwing the banknotes at her just now, and threw the three boxes of medicine over.

The maid was startled and quickly reached out to take it. The three boxes of medicine were narrowly held in her arms, but because of this, she was twisted into a twist and her waist was caught.

"you--"

The maid endured the pain in her waist, her face turned red, and she almost yelled at Lin Caisang.

But thinking about my own young lady, if I knew that she couldn't even handle this little thing and wanted to scold Lin Caisang, I would definitely not let her off lightly, so I didn't dare to say anything anymore.

"Madam, we've got the medicine, let's go back first."

When the man saw that the medicine had been obtained and the previous topic was forgotten by Su Meihua, he hurriedly suggested.

It was best to make Su Meihua forget about that man, otherwise, he really wanted to let all the people in Lianhua County know that Su Meihua had cuckolded him.

Chapter 1737 Pack your things and leave

"What's the hurry!"

Su Meihua glared at him.

Don't think she doesn't know what's going on in his mind!

Do you think she can forget such a stunning man just by saying a few words?

"Little brother, please wait here obediently for me. In the evening, I will come and invite you back to the general's mansion, and we can have a good time."

After giving Sui Zimo a wink, she reluctantly left.

But after leaving the door, she ordered two people to stay and guard the door of the drug store.

She was afraid that if she didn't pay attention, a stunning man would slip through her fingers. Of course, she would have to find someone to guard him first.

"This...who are these people!"

After everyone had left, Uncle Asan turned pale and yelled at the door.

He has really never seen such a shameless woman, in front of so many people, with her husband beside her, actually showing her disgusting thoughts!

"That woman is really damned, miss. Will the boss have been given to her by now..."

"Won't!"

Lin Caisang had a dark face and interrupted Uncle Asan's words.

"My dad will be fine. He must be waiting for me somewhere to find him."

That was her biological father. His abilities were beyond the reach of ordinary people. How could he be lost in the hands of a bitch?

It must be waiting for her somewhere.

"Yes, Sonny, uncle must be waiting for you somewhere."

Sui Zimo walked to Lin Caisang's side and held her hand in his.

It was only at this moment that Lin Caisang realized that she had become inexplicably afraid after just hearing Uncle Asan's doubtful words.

She couldn't imagine what she would do if her father really had something.

"Yes, yes, look at my bad mouth. If the boss is so powerful, he will definitely be fine." Uncle Asan realized that he had said the wrong thing when he saw Lin Caisang's expression turned bad.

He quickly raised his hand, patted his mouth a few times, and said something to make amends.

"Master, Miss Lin, what should we do next?" Ban Jue asked.

That Su Meihua was staring straight at his prince just now. Miss Lin wouldn't let his prince sacrifice his appearance for her father, would she?

This is not the time for his prince to do it, and he won't do it either.

"Pack your things and let's go."

Lin Caisang looked at Ban Jue and ordered.

"ah?"

Ban Jue was stunned for a moment and didn't understand.

"Leave? Aren't you going to check?"

They finally got a little bit of news, and it was all about that woman Su Meihua.

You can't back down just because you encounter a little difficulty, right?

If it didn't work out, he disguised himself as the prince and went to trick that Su Meihua to get some news. Although it was disgusting, he would risk it all for the prince and Miss Lin!

"Of course we have to check," Lin Caisang said.

How could she not investigate? She finally got this little bit of information, how could she not continue to investigate?

"Then why are you leaving?"

Ban Jue's eyes, which he didn't understand, kept switching between his prince and Lin Caisang.

"Your Majesty..."

"tidy."

Sui Zimo gave him two words directly.

Why are there so many reasons why? Just pack your things when you are asked to pack them.

"Yes, Master."

Ban Jue could only respond and did not dare to ask any more questions.

"Sonny, please go aside and take a rest first."

Sui Zimo ignored Ban Jue and Uncle Asan and took Lin Caisang aside to rest.

Chapter 1738 Even if you don't chase, you have to chase him out

night. Winddings:

The moonlight outside the city is particularly bright, shining on the earth, and there are reflections of flowers, plants and trees.

Beside the fire, Lin Caisang didn't hold anything in his hands, but the other three people each held two pieces of barbecue and were roasting them.

"Miss, why are we leaving?"

In fact, Uncle Asan didn't quite understand. After holding it in for a long time, he finally couldn't help it and asked Lin Caisang.

"Lianhua County is Su Wan's territory. It's not good to attack his daughter there." Lin Caisang glanced at him and said.

There are only a few of them, and it is impossible for them all to enter the Jinzhu Space.

If Su Wan had brought his soldiers, it would be okay and they might be able to fight, but there are troops stationed in the city to defend the city. If they all came out, it would be impossible for them to cope with it.

Moreover, the troops defending the city belong to Liang Guo, not Su Wan alone. She will not use Liang Guo's troops to be used and consumed by Su Wan.

Of course, we have to lure Su Meihua out.

"But that woman is in Lianhua County." Uncle Asan raised his question.

The people to be arrested are all in Lianhua County. What's the use of leaving like this? Is it possible that Su Meihua can still run out and let them catch her?

Suddenly, as if he thought of something, he stared at Lin Caisang closely.

"Miss, that woman has taken a liking to the old man, will she... really catch up and rob him?" he asked.

This is not impossible. That woman Su Meihua can do anything.

It doesn't matter if she robs a man. It's not like she hasn't robbed him before. She has robbed him before. It's just that Su Wan, the guard general, suppressed all the scandalous things his daughter did.

"I think this woman can really do it!" Ban Jue also said.

"Even if she doesn't want to chase her out, she still has to chase her out, unless she really doesn't want her face anymore!" Lin Caisang said quietly.

When she is really so kind, giving good medicine to a woman who had harmed her biological father and acted so horribly viciously, and restoring her beauty, it is a beautiful thought!

"Miss Lin, you wouldn't put anything in that medicine, would you?" Ban Jue guessed.

If that's the case, then he really has to applaud.

He saw that woman in the drug store before and heard her words. He really wanted to vomit out the food he had eaten the previous night.

I have never seen such a shameless woman!

"Can't you?"

Lin Caisang asked her back.

Those three boxes of medicine were specially prepared for that woman Su Meihua!

If she doesn't show Su Mei some love for a man who dares to miss her, will she be allowed to snatch away her brother Mo Lian?

"Okay, of course."

Ban Jue nodded quickly, feeling like his eyebrows were about to fly up with excitement.

"So, you later told your subordinates to tell the owner of the shop that we were going in the direction of Yanjiang County, just so that the woman Su Meihua could bring someone to chase us?"

He said, why go to Yanjiang County? There is nothing wrong there.

But it turned out that he was waiting for Su Meihua here, so he understood what it meant.

"Just wait, she will come."

Lin Caisang glanced at them lightly and said.

In the mansion of General Su.

I used one of the three boxes of medicine and it was fine at the beginning. I felt the scar area was cold and very comfortable.

Chapter 1739 Kill that stinky woman

But not long after, the scar began to hurt like pinpricks.

At first, Su Meihua thought it was normal. After all, she was using medicine, and some pain was imaginable.

But then slowly, the pain on her face became more and more painful, until she couldn't bear the pain anymore, so she called the maid in. This time, it was terrible.

The maid saw a big swelling on Su Meihua's face, covering half of her face.

That look is as terrifying as it sounds.

Before, it was because mirrors were not allowed wherever Su Meihua appeared, so naturally she couldn't see her face.

After the maid screamed in fright, she hurriedly went to look at her face in the basin nearby. When she saw it, she screamed in horror.

"ah!"

‘Bang——’

There was a loud noise, and the copper basin was overturned to the ground. How could Su Meihua accept that her face had become like this.

She also thought that tonight she would let the scar on her face heal a little so that she could have a good time with the stunning man she met before.

Where did you think of...

"That bitch, how dare you harm me!"

She immediately thought of Lin Caisang, it must have been the woman who had done something in the medicine.

That woman was probably angry that the man next to her would become her pet in the future, so she tampered with her medicine!

"Come here, find some people and follow me to the pharmacy!"

"Miss, do you want to tell the general about this?"

The maid glanced at Su Meihua's face timidly, then lowered her head in horror.

She has been following Su Meihua for many years. It was because Su Meihua's face was ruined in the first place. In a fit of anger, she ruined the faces of all the maids and those serving around her.

And it was completely destroyed.

She is one of them, and now she can only stay with Su Meihua, and she doesn't even dare to find a husband because her face is so ugly.

Now, she couldn't help but think secretly in her heart.

If the young lady's face looks like this from now on, will she make all their maids' faces look like this?

Horrible, really terrible.

If the contract of betrayal was not in the hands of the young lady, she would have wanted to run away!

"What are you telling me for? Don't you think this lady is not embarrassed enough?" Su Meihua glared at the maid fiercely.

"What are you doing here? Why don't you hurry up and find someone? Find more people. This time, I have to kill that stinky woman!"

"Yes, miss."

The maid took the order and went to find the guard.

...

However, when Su Meihua and others rushed to the previous medicine shop in a hurry, they found that the door was closed.

Where is the trace of Lin Caisang, Sui Zimo and his party? They have left long ago.

Su Meihua was furious and immediately asked people around her to inquire. From the owner of the shop, she learned the whereabouts of Lin Caisang and his party.

After that, she ignored everything and went directly with the people. Even the maid next to her said she wanted to report to the guard first, but she was scolded and given a slap in the face.

Soon, the group of people chased Lin Caisang and the others in the direction they left. Su Meihua vowed to catch them.

Kill the woman directly and take the man back to the general's mansion.

...

Beside the official road, the fire has not been extinguished.

Uncle Asan kept adding fuel to the fire, and they had already eaten and drank enough.

Originally, Lin Caisang wanted to wait for Su Meihua and the others to come over, but Sui Zimo refused and insisted on letting her sleep first.

Chapter 1740: It's really cruel to attack

Lin Caisang responded, but thought it would be okay to wait with his eyes closed.

But, without realizing it, he actually fell asleep.

When I heard movement on the official road again, it was the sound of many horse hooves coming from far and near.

"what's the situation?"

She was a little dazed in her sleep, raised her hand to rub her sleepy eyes, and looked at Sui Zimo.

"The person you've been waiting for is here."

Sui Zimo grinned slightly, raised his hand and touched her head, and said.

"Um?"

Lin Caisang was still in a daze, and it took him a while to react.

"That woman finally caught up, and the flowers almost withered after waiting.

When Su Meihua came, what they wanted to know was revealed. She couldn't wait to see how hard Su Meihua's mouth was.

"Brother Mo Lian, I have thought about it. Even if Su Meihua refuses to tell, there must be a maid who has been with her for a long time and will know some of her secrets. Why don't we pry her maid away first? Q."

she said.

"good."

Sui Zimo responded.

For him, it was natural for him to do whatever Sonny said.

"Exiled, you go and deal with it."

He ordered to banished Jue.

"Yes, Master.

Ban Jue responded, holding the long sword in his hand, and walked over, followed closely by Uncle Asan.

"Tsk, tsk, there are quite a lot of people. People who don't know this might think it's some heinous criminal who escaped from Lianhua County."

Listening to the sound of horse hooves, one could tell that Su Meihua had brought many people here.

This really wants to drive them all away, right?

It's a pity that they met him, and they were doomed to a tragic end for those who helped him.

"donkey--"

Seeing the light of the fire, Su Meihua felt excited, and she could no longer feel the pain on her face.

She quickly came here with her people, and sure enough, she saw the two men she had seen in the drug store before, but they were not the ones she was interested in.

"Where are you guys? Hand over that little bitch quickly. I can consider sparing your life!"

As long as someone catches him, the man will definitely not be able to escape from her grasp, so she doesn't need to mention it for now.

However, her face was hurt like this by that little bitch, and she didn't know how swollen it looked. This revenge must be avenged first.

Therefore, the first thing she said when she stopped her horse was to threaten to banish her and hand over Lin Caisang!

In fact, when Ban Jue saw Su Meihua on the horse, he almost didn't recognize it.

Is this woman who is so terrifying that she has no human appearance at all the same as Su Meihua that I saw in the drug store before? This... I have to say that his mistress was really cruel.

However, that is what Su Meihua deserves!

"Ah."

He clenched the long sword in his hand and sneered at Su Meihua.

"If you want to touch my master, first ask the swordsman in my hand if he agrees."

As he spoke, he raised his hand holding the sword forward.

"you--"

Su Meihua didn't expect that this man was not afraid at all when she brought so many people here, and she suddenly became angry.

"If you don't eat the toast, you'll have to drink wine as a penalty. Give it to me. There's no need to save your life. Just chop him to death!"

At this time, how can she care so much? As long as the man she likes doesn't die, whether others die or not, it doesn't matter to her.

Even on this official road, it was dark night and no one was passing by. If a few people died, they could just be dragged into the woods and thrown away.
