

Star of Space 1751

Chapter 1751 Help, help!

They were even more afraid. Will their bodies start to hurt like their faces after being immersed in the barrel?

What's more, they are two people now, and they can both see the changes in each other's faces.

Just like their young lady Su Meihua before, she started to swell.

It's not very swollen yet, but they have seen Su Meihua's face, and it will eventually swell as high as a mountain.

But now, it's just on the face.

Both of them kept looking at the big wooden barrel in fear.

If they don't tell the truth later, they will be thrown into the big wooden barrel. In that case, their bodies will also be swollen like this.

The two of them, who were originally quite plump, would be so swollen if their bodies became swollen.

Will it directly burst the clothes on your body?

No, this is absolutely not possible.

"Xia Fen, what should I do? Please help me, please help me." Chun Fen asked Xia Fen with tears on her face.

Xia Fen didn't let her say it before, otherwise, she wouldn't have had ointment put on her face.

Now it is still possible to be thrown into that big wooden barrel. What kind of punishment will she have to suffer? She is just a little girl, how can she endure such a punishment?

Xia Fen herself was scared to death.

Although she had a tough talk and didn't want to be tortured to death by the young lady, she also didn't want to die after being in pain for several days.

Besides, she is still young and doesn't want to die yet.

"How do I know what to do? Anyway, if the young lady knows that we have betrayed her, she will definitely not let us go. Don't forget, it's a small matter if we die, but what about our family? What should they do?"

She said righteously to Chunfen.

"I....."

Chunfen's face turned even pale when she thought of her relatives at home.

The young lady's temper is so vicious. If she knew that she had betrayed her, she would really kill her whole family.

But aside from that, the big wooden barrel would be her final destination, and she didn't want to die.

Chunfen was so confused, and it was all written on her face.

Xia Fen glanced at her secretly, with a smile of success flashing in her eyes. As long as Chunfen didn't say anything about the young lady, it would be easy.

Ban Jue was sitting on the edge not far away, listening to the two people's whispers, looking at Xia Fen's calculating smile, and sneered.

The next moment, he stood up and looked not far away.

"Master, Miss Lin."

When he saw Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang, he immediately greeted them.

"Everything is ready, just waiting for you." He said to Lin Caisang.

"Um."

Lin Caisang glanced at the big wooden barrel and nodded.

"You go first and throw both of them into the bucket."

"ah?"

Ban Jue glanced at the barrel and then at the two maids.

Throw it into the barrel first, but hasn't she asked yet? Will she stop asking?

"Yes, my subordinate will go right away."

Although he was confused, he still followed Lin Caisang's wishes and strode towards the two maids. Then he raised his hands and threw them directly into the barrel.

"Ah! Uh... Pfft, help, help!"

Chun Fen and Xia Fen were thrown into the barrel before they had time to react. Because they were tied up, they drank several sips of potion before they stabilized themselves in the barrel.

"Oh, oh, I said, I will say anything, please let me go."

Chunfen started crying and wanted to lean towards the edge of the barrel and then leave the barrel, but was pushed hard by Ban Jue.

Chapter 1752: Human beings have weaknesses

She was completely submerged in the water again and took a few sips of the potion.

"Now, I will only ask you once. If you don't answer, you won't be able to get the antidote." Lin Caisang's cold voice rang in their ears, and she was holding a porcelain bottle in her hand.

Needless to say, they also knew that the porcelain bottle contained the antidote.

"Where is Lin Baizhong?"

"He was sold by my lady."

Before Chunfen could answer, she heard Xia Fen's voice.

Chunfen was stunned and turned to look at Xia Fen in disbelief. Didn't she just warn herself not to betray the young lady, otherwise their family members would be killed by the young lady.

That's why she hesitated just now. 【】

But just like that, Xia Fen answered first!

"Xia Fen, you..."

"Where were they sold?"

Lin Caisang continued to ask without giving Chunfen a chance to speak.

"We don't know where it was sold. Only the young lady knows. She won't leave many things to us, but leaves them to Qiufen."

Xia Fen continued to reply.

"Where... is Qiufen?" Lin Caisang asked.

Her intuition told her that this Qiufen should no longer exist, otherwise Su Meihua would not have sworn that she was the only one in the world who knew the whereabouts of Lin Baizhong.

"Qiufen is dead. He was beaten to death by the young lady herself." Chunfen could no longer hesitate and answered quickly.

Hearing her voice, Xia Fen turned his head and glared at her with a sinister look.

Regardless, she was the one who answered first anyway. Even if this woman wanted to give the antidote, she would probably give it to her first, right?

"She knows too many secrets about the young lady. It is impossible for the young lady to keep her by her side for too many years. The only way is death." She thought for a while and added.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang took a deep breath and looked at Sui Zimo.

One thing that is certain now is that her father was only sold and not dead.

But only Su Meihua knew exactly where it was sold. However, just now, they had already shocked Su Meihua.

If you ask Su Meihua again at this time, she will definitely not tell you.

"What are the weaknesses of your young lady?"

She turned around, continued to look at the two maids, and asked.

People have weaknesses, and Su Meihua must be no exception. As long as you look carefully, you will definitely be able to find them.

"weakness?"

After hearing this, Chun Fen and Xia Fen shook their heads at the same time.

"My lady has no weaknesses."

"It's impossible. People have weaknesses. For example, her family, the people she likes, and the things she likes to do." Lin Caisang gave them an example.

The two maids thought for a while and shook their heads.

"Last year, my wife was seriously ill, and the general asked the young lady to serve her at the bedside. The young lady said at that time that the madam was immortal and would only drag her down. Even the general cursed her. Can such a person have family ties?"

Anyway, they had betrayed the young lady, so the two of them had nothing to say to each other. They directly exposed Su Meihua's way of dealing with others in the general's mansion.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Sure enough, he is not a human being, but his own father can be treated like this!

"The young lady only has herself in her heart. Originally, what she cared about the most was her face, but back then Lin Baizhong didn't like her, so she stubbornly wanted to marry him.

Lin Baizhong refused, and during the quarrel between the two, Lin Baizhong slashed her face with a knife. She almost couldn't save her, leaving the scar on her face.

Chapter 1753 Starting from the General's Mansion

The lady can't care about that face anymore, can she?

Xia Fen said word for word.

"Forced to marry me?!"

Lin Caisang repeated this sentence, feeling scared.

Did this Su Meihua almost become her stepmother? How could this woman do anything? She actually forced her father to marry her!

Strong melons are not sweet. Does she really not understand this?

However, Su Meihua really didn't understand this. After all, it was only the second time that woman met Sui Zimo, and she felt that Sui Zimo would like her, and the two were in love with each other.

"right.

Xia Fen nodded.

"Back then, Miss sent people to kill everyone around Lin Baizhong, knocked him unconscious and took him back to the Guard's Mansion and locked him up for more than a month. Later, he thought that he could cook raw rice directly, so he wanted to Married in church with Lin Baizhong.

But Lin Baizhong didn't want to, so he took the general's sword and slashed the young lady's face, causing injuries not only on her face but also on her body.

But only the wounds on her face were obvious, and the young lady became particularly angry, and then sold Lin Baizhong.

But to whom exactly it was sold, we really don't know. "

In Lianhua County, if their young lady's cruelty is ranked second, then she cannot be ranked first. It is conceivable that Lin Baizhong will not have a good life no matter where he is sold.

"At first, the general had a big quarrel with the lady because of what she did. But in the end, under the persuasion of the lady, the general helped the lady erase all Lin Baizhong's affairs in Lianhua County."

Listening to her words, Lin Caisang took a deep breath.

No one in Su Wan's family is good! This time, they won't be able to escape justice anymore, she must deal with this family of thieves!

"If we talk about what the young lady likes to do the most, as the eldest lady of the Guards Mansion, what she likes to do the most is to take groups of servants on the streets every day, and then collect those who are taking pictures of her. The things given by flatterers are bullying the poor people who cannot afford gifts.

Do these count? "

Lin Caisang: "..."

She turned her head silently and looked at Sui Zimo.

Is this Su Meihua really invulnerable and has no weaknesses at all?

She didn't believe it.

"That being the case, then we will make her lose all her protection. If a person who was originally aloof fell from the clouds all of a sudden, it would not be easy, right?"

Sui Zimo suggested in a deep voice.

"Su Meihua is not the only one in the Su family, there are others. If they knew that everything that happened to the Su family happened because of Su Meihua, I'm afraid they wouldn't make it easy for her."

"Brother Mo Lian, what do you mean, we start from the general's residence first?" Lin Caisang asked, his eyes darkening.

"Um."

Sui Zimo nodded.

"That's easy to handle."

Lin Caisang also nodded, took out the death-free medal from his arms, and handed it to Ban Jue.

"Exiled Jue, you take my gold medal and go to the Lianhua County camp. You don't need to say anything and just capture Su Wan. As for the others, those who submit will not be punished. Anyone who dares to resist will be thrown into prison!"

"Yes, my subordinate will go right away."

Ban Jue accepted the death-free gold medal and responded.

There are also people from their Jiulian Palace in Lianhua County. Although it is a big deal to win the guard of the first mansion, but with the gold medal for immunity from death, as long as he brings enough people, he can still do it.

Chapter 1754 The sky is high and the emperor is far away

"In addition, after taking over the camp, you go directly to the general's mansion and capture all the Su family members in the general's mansion. Once the crimes Su Wan has committed over the years are verified, they will be dealt with together."

Lin Caisang thought for a while and said again.

"yes."

Ban Jue responded, turned around and left.

The two maids, Chunfen and Xia Fen, were stunned when they saw Lin Caisang holding out the gold medal in the barrel.

Although they have never seen a gold medal, they are all maids in the general's mansion, so how could they not have heard of it? These two people are indeed big shots, they even have gold medals.

So, is it inevitable that the general will escape?

Then they don't have to worry about the young lady retaliating against them, because the young lady is no longer able to protect herself.

In the North Camp of Lianhua County.

Su Wan had just received the news that his precious daughter was missing, and he was in a hurry to rush back to the general's mansion.

Before he even got on his horse, he saw several people dressed in black breaking into the camp.

"Who are you? How dare you break in...ah!"

Before he could finish his question, he was kicked to the ground with a palm of his hand.

"Get Su Wan."

"yes."

Two people came out of Ban Jue's body and directly took Su Wan, who was badly beaten, into custody.

"You, who are you, how dare you be rude to this general, come, come, come quickly, capture these daring gangsters for me!" Su Wan shouted with red eyes as he was being held in custody.

"General, general, please stop yelling, this is the person from above." Several lieutenants from the camp rushed over, and when they saw this, they did not dare to say anything.

One of the lieutenants blushed and lowered his voice, winking at Su Wan and reminding him.

"What? Someone from above, what higher up? My general's superior is the emperor. Could it be that you are still..." Of course Su Wan didn't believe it was someone sent from above.

He has been in Lianhua County for so many years and has long been accustomed to being a local emperor.

What's more, the superiors haven't sent anyone down for so many years. How could it be such a coincidence that they sent someone to Lianhua County today without even being notified?

So what if someone comes from above? The sky is high and the Emperor is far away. Lianhua County has long been his Su Wan's. No one else can try to snatch Lianhua County's troops from his hands, not even the Emperor.

"This commander was ordered to take over the Beida Camp. After I find out the big mistakes Su Wan made in Lianhua County, I will immediately escort him to Beijing without mercy!"

Ban Jue raised Lin Caisang's death-free gold medal in front of Su Wan, looked at him with sharp eyes and said.

"Free...free from death gold medal!"

Su Wan was also frightened. The effect of the gold medal for immunity from death was really great. It was said to be immunity from death, but it was not just as simple as being able to avoid the death penalty of a few people.

Whoever makes a mistake in the court, who holds the gold medal to avoid death, has the right to kill first and then report later!

His body suddenly softened and he knelt directly on the ground.

"Put it down!"

Ban Jue looked at Su Wan with cold eyes and gave instructions to the person who was escorting him.

"Yes, Commander."

The two subordinates responded, escorted Su Wan and left.

"May I have your name?"

After Su Wan was taken away, Ban Jue looked at the lieutenants beside him and asked a lieutenant with a cold face and no expression on his face.

"General Shen Qing." Shen Qing replied.

"Take your troops and follow my commander to surround the general's mansion. All the people in the general's mansion will be detained!" Ban Jue ordered.

Chapter 1755 I won't be so lucky anymore

"hiss!"

The other lieutenants all gasped when they heard the words of banishment.

They also knew what General Su Wan had done in Lianhua County over the years, especially Su Wan's daughter, who was even famous in neighboring counties.

It's just that they are all Su Wan's lieutenants. They all serve as officials in the same court and are their immediate superiors.

They can only turn a blind eye, otherwise life will be very difficult.

Unexpectedly, the court didn't know which eye was opened, but actually found out what Su Wan had done, and sent people over. Not only Su Wan was in trouble, but also those who guarded the general's mansion. They might all be caught in one fell swoop.

Thinking of this, I didn't see much sympathy on everyone's faces. Instead, they were all excited.

It seems that this Su Wan is hated by everyone in Lianhua County.

"Yes, your Majesty will obey."

Shen Qing accepted the order and went to count his troops.

Almost overnight, the Guard's Mansion, which could be said to be the most powerful force in Lianhua County, fell from the clouds and became the target of everyone's shouting and beating.

Mrs. Su was in the mansion. She had received a secret report from Su Wan's cronies and wanted to escape with Xinruan.

But before he left Lianhua County, he was caught.

The rest of the Su family were also blocked in the general's mansion.

After hearing the good news, the people in Lianhua County who had been bullied by the people guarding the General's Mansion came to see the situation one after another.

Everyone was thinking that if Su Wan really fell into the hands of a more powerful official than him, then they would definitely come to add insult to injury.

In fact, this is not called adding insult to injury, but taking revenge when there is a grudge, and when there is an injustice, there is an injustice.

Soon, many people gathered outside the Shoujiang Mansion, not only the common people who had been bullied by the people in the Shoujiang Mansion, but also some officials from Lianhua County who also secretly stayed aside.

"Who did the court send down this time? How dare you touch General Su, a local emperor?"

An adult wearing the clothes of ordinary people asked his colleagues who were also watching the situation.

It was true that the court had sent people here before, but most of those officials had a meal and a drink with Su Wan, and then left without doing anything else.

But this time, it seemed like it was for real.

"Seeing that the general's residence is surrounded like an iron barrel, it seems that... General Su will not be so lucky this time, right?"

an official asked.

"Hey, have you heard that yesterday General Su's precious daughter snatched a man from a drug store in front of many people? I heard that there was a girl in charge of the drug store. It couldn't be her. ?"

"can you?"

Someone was confused.

It's just a woman who has so much ability to make Su Wan, a local snake, do this.

It seems that even the general's mansion has been raided. In recent years, Su Wanming has been greedy for Momo's money secretly. In Lianhua County, the wealthy businessmen no longer flatter the local officials. Instead, they spend a lot of money to guard the general. The general's house is thrust into the hands of Mrs. Su and Miss Su.

He estimated that these gold, silver and jewelry alone would be enough to squander the General's Mansion for several lifetimes, right?

"I heard that there is a goddess doctor in our Liang Kingdom. Not only did she save the eldest princess, she also received a death-free gold medal from the emperor himself. Could it be her?"

Chapter 1756 Where are the emperor's cronies?

"hiss!"

Several officials gathered together gasped when they heard his words.

If it was really that girl, then she was too bold, and she actually arrested General Su like that?

"This General Su won't make a comeback again, will he?"

Someone speculated.

After all, if the person who arrested General Su was not an official sent by the court, then General Su might still be able to make a comeback as long as he sent people to Kyoto for a walk.

No matter how you put it, General Su is also a guard general of one side. If his achievements are great, he can be awarded a title.

"No, it won't," someone said immediately.

"Not to mention the person who arrested General Su, even our Lord Sheriff will not give General Su another chance to make a comeback."

Let alone the county governor, can they just watch Su Wan make a comeback again and harm them and the people of Lianhua County?

At the same time, in the Lianhua County Sheriff's Mansion.

Sheriff Jin Jian's eyes widened as he looked at the man and woman who appeared before him like gods.

"You, you are..."

"Don't worry about who we are, Sheriff Jin. I just want to ask you, do you still want to work with Su Wan?" Lin Caisang looked at Sheriff Jin intently and asked.

Hearing her words, Jin Jian suppressed a blush in his face.

The name Su Wan has been a nightmare in his heart these past years.

Although Lianhua County is not rich, it is not a bad county. Even if there is banditry, it is not a common occurrence. It can be suppressed by sending troops.

But what about now?

Even though there are very few bandits, the people are living in misery.

He even heard some of his officials secretly discussing that many people would rather move to remote counties, towns, or even villages in Lianhua County than stay in Lianhua County.

Because the individuals in Su Wan's house are really too vicious.

It was he, the county governor, who sent gifts to Su Wan every year. Moreover, Su Wan would treat anyone in the family to a banquet for any reason, regardless of birthdays or other events, which made everyone miserable.

To put it bluntly, such a person would like to eat Su Wan's flesh and drink Su Wan's blood!

"Do you... really have a way? General Su is... but a close confidant of the emperor." He said tentatively.

"The emperor's confidant?"

Lin Caisang glanced sideways at her brother Mo Lian.

"Su Wan was one of the guards around Emperor Liang in his early years. Because of his bravery in battle, he was promoted to the guard of Lianhua County. His wife was also a maid beside the Queen in her early years."

Sui Zimo explained to her.

"Ah."

Lin Caisang smiled coldly.

"I didn't expect these two people to be so capable."

"Yes, that's it. Young Master, Miss, you...I advise you not to...become an enemy of General Su. He is really...a person who cannot be offended."

Jin Jian said to the two of them.

If not, how could he be a powerless governor in Lianhua County?

In fact, no one in Lianhua County can afford to offend Su Wan and his wife.

"Yeah?"

Lin Caisang didn't even look at Sheriff Jin, but continued to look at Sui Zimo.

"Brother Mo Lian, tell me, if I want the heads of Su Wan's family, will my uncle give me the heads of his trusted family as a gift? Huh?"

she asked.

Chapter 1757 Everyone has to give it a try

Hearing this, Sui Zimo frowned.

He raised his hand, slapped her forehead rudely, and spoke angrily.

"What are you thinking about? Returning gifts. If you want gifts, your mother can take you into the palace and empty out the treasury. As for Su Wan... he must die!"

He narrowed his dark eyes dangerously and said.

"Uncle...uncle?!"

Jin Jian's eyes widened and he looked at the little girl in front of him.

The uncle she talked about couldn't be that person as he thought, right?

No, no, there was only one eldest princess in the Liang Kingdom, who was the emperor's biological sister. But as far as he knew, the eldest princess had already reconciled with the consort, and she had no children. x/eq-ny

"Girl, you...you are..."

"I told you that you don't need to care who we are, as long as you know one thing, that's... Su Wan, you're screwed!"

Lin Caisang interrupted him and said something to him.

"Well."

Jin Jian choked at her words.

Su Wan was defeated, so he was naturally the happiest, but who was this girl in front of him?

However, it seems that this question is really not something he should ask. If the uncle she talks about is really the emperor, then he cannot ask casually.

"Yes, yes, the girl is right."

He answered quickly.

"Governor Jin, you should be the best at collecting criminal evidence, right? You will personally collect the crimes Su Wan has committed in Lianhua County over the years, and then rush 800 miles to report them to the emperor. In addition, Before sending the fold, I have something for you to take with you, please remember to come and see me."

After Lin Caisang finished speaking to him, he turned around and left with Sui Zimo.

"call!"

Jin Jian watched the two people leave, let out a sigh of relief, and raised his hand to wipe the sweat from his forehead.

"Master, what do you think about this incident?"

he asked an old man with gray hair who had just walked in from the door.

"Sir, no matter what, you should seize this opportunity. No matter whether you can succeed or not, you have to give it a try." The old man said earnestly as he looked at the retreating figures of Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo.

"General Su has been doing evil in Lianhua County for many years. You also know what kind of life the people live.

Now we finally have this opportunity. If we don't seize it, General Su will be guillotined directly. From now on, the people of Lianhua County will have their blood sucked out by the vampires of the Su family.

"yes."

Jin Jian also agreed with the master's words. Su Wan was already hated by everyone in Lianhua County.

"Sir, I heard that the Beida camp has been controlled. The people who took over have death-free gold medals in their hands. And now, the Su Mansion has been surrounded by water. Many people have gone to see what's going on. There are many more who are county officials."

Seeing that he agreed with his words, the master added another sentence.

"It can be seen that those officials also have a lot of dissatisfaction with General Su."

"laugh."

Hearing the master's words, Jin Jian couldn't help but sneered.

"Master, what you said is really true...not only are there a lot of dissatisfaction, but any official in our county governor's office doesn't want to stab Su Wan several times. Officials' salaries are not much, and they are just enough to support their families. .

In recent years, people have used a large part of it to send gifts to the general's mansion, but they can only starve their own family members, or try every means to squeeze it out of the people...

Why! "

Chapter 1758: Devoted to the cause until death

He sighed heavily.

"Forget it, Master, you have to handle this matter personally. You must dig out all the bad things that Su Wan's family has done over the years, and you must not leave any behind.

Of course, we can't fabricate facts out of thin air. We can't play with lies. The Sheriff only wants facts. "

"Yes, sir, I'll do it as I say."

The master responded, turned around and went out.

Compared to the calmness of the Sheriff's Mansion, the Governor's Mansion was extremely lively.

Although Su Wan only had one wife, Su Wan's father had several concubines and gave birth to several sons, including Su Wan himself, all of whom were concubines.

Therefore, not only Su Wan's family lived in the general's mansion, but also several of Su Wan's brothers and their children.

After seeing that the general's mansion was surrounded and no one could get out, those people cried so much that they felt like their parents were dead.

And Su Wan's father, who is still alive, knew that his son had offended someone, causing all of them to accompany him to death, and he kept scolding his son.

With a 'bang', a body was thrown directly among the crying people in the front yard.

"ah!"

The women were so frightened that they screamed, but who would not be afraid of those women whose faces were so bloody that they could not even be seen as human beings?

"hiss!"

After all, Mrs. Su came out of the palace, but even though she was well-informed, she was still frightened by the woman thrown on the ground.

However, she was frightened. When she saw clearly the clothes worn by the woman on the ground, she felt more and more familiar.

It took a long while before she remembered.

"Plum Blossom? Plum Blossom, what's wrong with you? Plum Blossom, wake up quickly, don't scare me!"

Finally knowing who the woman who was thrown on the ground was, Mrs. Su jumped on the woman and hugged Su Meihua.

"Who are you? How can you treat my daughter like this? She has met the Queen, and the Queen has praised her. You... you... I must report this matter to the Queen and punish you. A great crime of disrespect!"

Seeing that her daughter couldn't wake up, she raised her head and looked angrily at the two men in front of her who threw her daughter to the ground.

How could they be like this? Even if her husband committed something, other members of the Su family did not!

How could he treat the old, weak, women and children in this house so cruelly?

"laugh."

When the two guards heard his words, they both laughed disdainfully.

"Where's the Queen? If the Queen knew that your family was doing evil in Lianhua County because of a compliment from her, I'm afraid she would be mad to death, right?"

"you--"

Mrs. Su felt a bad breath in her chest and almost died of anger.

"You are talking nonsense. When did we do evil things? These people, my husband, dedicated his whole life to the court and died. This is all merit to the court!"

Two guards: "..."

How could such a shameless woman come from the palace?

"We don't have time to talk nonsense with you. If you have any dissatisfaction, just go to the prison and defend yourself to the Sheriff!"

Upon hearing the words "Master County Sheriff", Mrs. Su's expression became even worse.

The county governor, Jin Jian, often secretly competed with her husband, but he was incompetent and was suppressed by her husband several times.

Chapter 1759 Ye Shi Niang?

I haven't dared to show up again in these years.

But at this moment, someone who is not smart enough dares to deal with her husband. If Jin Jian knew about it, he would be jumping up and down!

Mrs. Su is really panicking now.

She wondered if the Queen would still take care of her after she left the palace all these years?

I also don't know if the Queen would be angry with her if she knew what the Su family had done in Lianhua County over the years.

She didn't even know what the background of these people who suddenly appeared to deal with the Su family was.

Why were there only two servants who didn't panic at all when they heard her mention the Queen's name? Instead, they threatened her severely.

"Who are you, and why do you want to harm our Su family like this?!"

Mrs. Su didn't dare to speak, but that didn't mean that others didn't dare to speak either. A woman about the same age as Mrs. Su jumped out and rushed forward to question the two guards sternly.

"What have we, the Su family, done to offend you? Huh? If someone offends you, just go to whoever you go to. Why should we all suffer along with them!"

We are innocent. I have not offended you. Let me go. I want to go out. I want to leave this hellish place!

Yes, she had to take her two children away from work, this hellish place, this Su Mansion, she couldn't stay any longer!

She obviously didn't do anything, so why did she have to suffer with these people from the Su family?

"Ye Shi Niang?"

One of the guards glanced at the woman and asked.

"You know me?"

Ye Shiniang was shocked when she heard that a guard actually knew her name. After a while, she asked.

"My master said that if you can stand up and go to the government office to sue Su Wan and Su Zeng in the name of the victim, you can leave now. The master will arrange a place for you and your two daughters."

the guard said.

They have already found out very clearly what happened in Su Wan's house.

This Ye Shiniang did not marry into the Su Mansion willingly to be a concubine to Su Wan's brother Su Zeng, but was instead robbed.

What surprised them even more was that one of Ye Shiniang's two daughters was Su Wan's son. It was Su Wan who raped Ye Shiniang while his brother was not at home, and gave birth to her. Had a daughter.

Originally, Su Wan was pointing out that Ye Shiniang's baby could be a son, and planned that if it was really a son, he would keep him under his knees no matter what.

Because when Mrs. Su gave birth to Su Meihua, she suffered heavy bleeding and injured her body, and she never became pregnant again.

Who knew that the child born was a daughter.

Su Wan was very disappointed, thinking that he could not offend Mrs. Su, a woman with the queen's backing, so he did not recognize the daughter and allowed his daughter to call her brother daddy.

It's been called this for several years.

"Are you telling the truth?"

Ye Shiniang's eyes lit up when she heard the guard's words.

"You stinky bitch, how dare you...ah!"

When Su Zeng heard what Ye Shiniang said, he became very angry and wanted to come forward, grab Ye Shiniang and beat her up to vent her anger.

Who knew that before his hands could touch Ye Shiniang, he was beaten out by one of the guards, and he grabbed his collar and slapped his ears several times.

"You, you..."

Su Zeng is not a skilled person like Su Wan.

Chapter 1760 Killed so many people!

And because he has been domineering around his brother Su Wan all these years, he has become a fat man with a happy face. How can he be a rival for a guard.

When the guard loosened his collar, he immediately shrank back in fear and did not dare to fart.

Ye Shiniang looked at Su Zeng like this with contempt in her eyes.

"Then...can I take away my two children? They have never done anything bad."

She looked at the two guards and asked.

"this....."

The master only told them that Ye Shiniang could be the first person to complain, but he did not mention her two daughters.

"Can.

While they were still hesitating, a woman's voice came from behind.

"Master, Miss Lin."

The two guards turned around and saw Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang.

When they heard Lin Caisang said yes, they said nothing more and prepared to leave with Ye Shiniang and her two children.

"You...who are you?"

Mrs. Su only felt that her brain was completely insufficient today.

Who are these two, and why can they come and go freely in the general's mansion surrounded by soldiers, but judging from their clothes, they don't look like officials at all.

"Mrs. Su, can I ask you a question? Huh?"

Lin Caisang looked at Mrs. Su holding Su Meihua, grinning her red lips, and asked her.

"What do you want to ask?" Mrs. Su asked.

Her intuition told her that the situation that the Shoujiang Mansion was in today was inseparable from this little girl.

"Do you know a man named Lin Baizhong?" Lin Caisang asked.

"Lin Baizhong!"

Upon hearing these three words, Mrs. Su's expression suddenly changed.

How could she not remember this name? Back then, her daughter had to fight against her own mother for Lin Baizhong, a man of her father's age!

And in order to get Lin Baizhong into the general's mansion, he even killed so many people!

If she hadn't erased those things for Su Meihua, her daughter would have been in a different place.

"You...who are you from Lin Baizhong? Are you his daughter?!"

She remembered that this little girl should be Lin Baizhong's daughter. Lin Baizhong once said that he already had a son and a daughter and it was impossible to marry another woman.

Moreover, just now she heard the two guards calling the little girl in front of her, Miss Lin!

"It's you! What do you want to do? Do you want to avenge your father?"

My wife is telling you, don't even think about it! This lady came from the palace and is the most considerate person around the Queen. If something happens to the Su family, the Queen will not sit idly by and ignore it!

Just wait, the Queen will definitely seek justice for my wife and kill you, a little bitch! "

"Then just wait for the Queen to come and give you justice."

Lin Caisang chuckled lightly, thinking that this family was really funny. Even when they were about to die, they could still be so showy, which was not their average ability.

After a while, everyone in the general's mansion, including Mrs. Su, Su Meihua, and the female family members were escorted to the backyard, while the men were guarded in the front yard.

Apart from Mrs. Su, there was only Lin Caisang in the room.

"What on earth do you want to do? Even if Lin Baizhong is your father, what are you doing to us? It's not Lin Baizhong who was killed by us. If you want revenge, go find the person who killed Lin Baizhong."
