

Star of Space 1771

Chapter 1771 I was simply shocked

She wanted to call Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang back, but unfortunately, they left after they finished talking.

And the door of the room was closed with a bang just as she finished saying that sentence.

"ah!"

Mrs. Su screamed and looked at her unconscious daughter Su Meihua in her arms.

Suddenly, as if she went crazy, she threw Su Meihua to the ground and stood up.

"It's all you, it's all because of your scourge. If it weren't for you, how could the Su family be in this situation today? It also caused trouble for my mother's family. Why don't you die because of your evil deeds."

While scolding Su Meihua, she raised her foot and kicked Su Meihua. The force was really fast and hard.

After a while, until she had almost vented all her anger, she started crying like a madman again.

"Plum Blossom, my dear Plum Blossom, why are you...so disobedient?"

As she said that, she knelt down again, held Su Meihua in her arms, and patted Su Meihua's chest while shedding tears.

"What can we do? It's really over this time. Your father has been imprisoned. What hope can our Su family have?"

She really couldn't figure out what the woman named Lin was capable of.

Why, she could just talk and let the soldiers from the Beida Camp come over and surround the general's mansion, and even arrest her husband in prison.

What's more, why would there be so many lieutenants in Beidaying listening to a woman?

Why is this, why!

"God, you have opened your eyes. We, the Su family, have not done anything immoral. Why have we ended up in such a sad end?"

Outside the door, the guard heard Mrs. Su's ghostly roar in the room, and both guards were surprised.

"Pooh!"

One of the guards couldn't help but vomit.

As for the people of the Su family, they haven't done anything immoral yet?

This is already extremely wicked. He had heard that the county governor had issued a notice asking those who had been bullied and harmed by General Su over the years to go outside the county governor's office and report to the master of the county governor's office. Make your grievances clear.

Now, the people outside the county governor's mansion are completely surrounded by the people of Lianhua County!

This is only a small number of people, and many more people, because the time is too short and have not received the news, will probably go to the county magistrate's house tomorrow to complain about their grievances, right?

Two days passed quickly.

In the past two days, Lin Caisang did nothing and slept most of the time.

Because she knew that soon she and Sui Zimo would set off to the Barbarian Kingdom. There, she still had a lot to do, and now she had to recharge her batteries!

In two days, it was enough for Sheriff Jin to collect all the evidence regarding Su's mansion.

It's okay not to move. I don't think the people in General Su's mansion are so hateful.

As soon as those who complained and those who complained of grievances were gathered together, and the evidence was mentioned, my dear, several boxes of files were recorded.

Of course, just one master was no longer enough. The county governor's mansion sent many more people to list all the bad things done by Su Wan's family in two days.

And Jin Jian was simply shocked when he saw so many papers and so many evidences of crimes in General Su's mansion.

Chapter 1772 Is it so mysterious?

"This...are these all?"

He stuttered, raised his hand and pointed at the boxes of things, asking the master.

"Sir, these are all."

The master glanced at the boxes and replied.

Although he had seen these things, he was no longer as angry as before and wanted to rush to the prison and beat Su Wan to death.

But seeing those things, he was still very angry.

"Sir, the most evil things here are done by Su Meihua, the eldest daughter of the Su family. The rest are done by relatives of the Su family, and Su Wan. There are also several major things he did. Mrs. Su's He also holds several lives in his hands."

In short, no one in the Su family has clean hands.

But even if he had known what kind of people the people in Su Mansion were, Jin Jian and Master were really frightened when they saw so many incriminating evidences on the papers.

"Keep these for now, Master, have you made a list of these?" Jin Jian asked.

Before, he had never thought that so many people were harmed by people from the Su family, so he just asked people to record the papers and so on, but now...

There are several boxes of things, and it's totally impossible without a list.

"have."

The master immediately spoke.

"It's in another box, I'll get it for you right now."

With that said, the master went out, and after a while, he came in with a medium-sized box in his arms.

There was a 'gudong' sound.

Jin Jian couldn't help but swallow.

Just for the list, do I need to use such a box? Isn't this too scary?

"Sir, this box contains a list of complaints from the people, as well as a list of the gold and silver treasures that General Su has used on people over the years," the master said.

"good."

Jin Jian picked up the box in Master's hand, and then went out.

...

In another place, Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo were sitting there, listening to Exiled Jue who had just come back from inquiring about information.

"Master, Miss Lin, my subordinates only found out that every February, there will be a few Yabozi who come from the Barbarian country to buy and sell people in the black market of Lianhua County. Of course, they will also sell some little girls from the Barbarian country. Bring them here, sell them in Lianhua County, and then exchange them for some male slaves."

Ban Jue looked at them and said.

"Is that all?"

Lin Caisang looked at him and asked.

She also knew Yabozi, but what kind of Yabozi did she come from and where did she come from in the barbarian country.

The most important thing, is it that you haven't found out at all?

"That's pretty much it." Ban Jue responded.

That's all, he spent a lot of money to get it out of the mouth of a man named Jin Ya on the black market. The rest can't be found out.

People in the black market are very tight-lipped. They are very particular about not asking where the person comes from, let alone where they are going. As long as they can get enough money, they don't care about anything else.

In fact, according to Jin Ya's intention, he didn't know where those Ya women came from in the barbarian country.

"Although there are only these, my subordinates guess that since they came here with many slaves, they will definitely not be too far from Liang Kingdom, let alone Lianhua County.

It should be the border of the Man Kingdom, perhaps Yongxia City or Tiancheng, which is the closest to Lianhua County. " he guessed.

"Is the black market in Lianhua County so mysterious?"

Chapter 1773 Yongxia City

After hearing his words, Lin Caisang took a deep breath, looked at Sui Zimo, and asked.

She also knew the ability to banish people, but in this black market in Lianhua County, she only found out this little information?

And in the end, you still have to rely on guessing?

"The black market is not as simple as being mysterious, Sonny. If the people in the black market don't keep their mouth shut, they won't be able to gain a foothold in Lianhua County." Sui Zimo explained.

"Yes, Miss Lin."

Ban Jue also hurriedly responded and supported his prince's words.

"You know, even Su Wan doesn't dare to touch the black market in Lianhua County."

Su Wan used to be a local snake in Lianhua County. He could be called a local emperor. He even deprived the county guard of his rights.

In this way, he didn't dare to touch the black market casually.

"Then what should we do now? Do we really have to rely on luck? Should we go to Yongxia City first or Tiancheng?"

Lin Caisang asked.

"Yongxia City."

Sui Zimo replied without thinking.

"Why?"

Lin Caisang asked him, why did he choose Yongxia City without even thinking about it?

"Tiancheng is a relatively wealthy county in the Man Kingdom, but Yongxia City is a pariah city in the Man Kingdom, and there are many refugees there."

Sui Zimo said.

"Isn't that supposed to be going to Tiancheng?" Lin Caisang frowned and asked.

If you go by what Brother Mo Lian said, then those who can afford slaves should also be in Tiancheng. The tooth shop should also be opened in Tiancheng, right?

But when I look back and think about it, I don't think that's the case.

Only in places like Yongxia City can there be more refugees, and only when Yaxing opens there can there be business.

And if Yongxia City is not far from Tiancheng, the people in Tiancheng can send people to Yongxia City to buy slaves without any trouble at all.

So, did Brother Mo Lian choose the one from Yongxia City?

"I understand, we are Yongxia City, when will we set off?"

"tonight."

Sui Zimo said two words, then raised his eyes and glanced at Ban Jue.

Ban Jue understood and nodded immediately.

"My subordinates will make arrangements immediately."

With that said, he turned around and went out.

Watching Exed Jue leave, Lin Caisang looked at Sui Zimo in confusion.

"Why are we setting off at night? It's daytime now. Isn't it better to set off...?"

"People from Lianhua County cannot go to the barbarian country at will. Even during the day, the city gate is closed. If you want to leave the city, you must have the approval of the county governor's office. Of course, this is no longer a matter of the county governor's office these years. , but this right was directly taken away by Su Wan."

Sui Zimo interrupted her and explained.

"Of course, we can just leave the city during the day, but we are here with your death-free gold medal. If we leave the city like this, the news will eventually reach the emperor's ears.

Going to a barbarian country would not be a very wise choice if you were accused of having liaison with another country.

So, we might as well go secretly. "

"That's it."

Lin Caisang understood and let out a sigh of relief.

After saying this, she understood. It seemed that the Liang Kingdom and the Man Kingdom had really never had any contact with each other, and even trade was so difficult.

"Not only the Liang Kingdom, but also the Barbarian Kingdom and any other country, there is no trade." As if he saw what she was thinking, Sui Zimo explained to her again.

"What? How is this possible?"

Chapter 1774 A barbarian country without an emperor?

Hearing his words, Lin Caisang was simply surprised.

If you have no contact with any country, then you have offended every country. How can you still not destroy the country?

"No country has sent troops to attack the barbarian country. Are the barbarian countries that strong?" she asked.

Sui Zimo: "..."

Whether the barbarian country is strong or not, he doesn't want to know at all.

But she still had to answer his son's question, "The fact that the country's national destiny is very weak does not mean that the country is not strong, but that the country is remote and does not have much food. It cannot withstand successive years of war. Therefore, the country is weak." Not intended.

But the people of the barbarian country are extremely terrifying.

A hundred years ago, the barbarian country was also divided up by various countries, but in the divided counties and cities, accidents often happened. Either this person died, or that family was wiped out. All the people who died were people from other countries, not a single one. People from a barbarian country.

Naturally, the barbarian country had the largest number of people on the invaded land. Such things happened one after another, and in the end such things happened even in the army.

Several countries could not bear to be tortured by the barbarian people, and they could not directly kill so many barbarian people. Therefore, they could only recall all their own soldiers and seal the city again.

Since then, the Barbarian Kingdom has become a closed country. No one can enter, and few people can go to other countries. "

Lin Caisang was shocked when she heard what he said.

Was this barbarian country originally united by several other countries to boycott it?

But think about it, the barbarian countries are quite powerful. Their territory has been divided up, and they can let the emperors of various countries spit out all the territories they have obtained.

Not everyone has such an ability, right?

"People from the barbarian country often go to Lianhua County to rob property," she said.

"The barbarian country has been banned for hundreds of years, and there is no emperor. The people's lives are not restricted by the law. Many people live in misery. They rob other people's property just to keep themselves fed and clothed. "

Sui Zimo explained.

"No...no emperor, Brother Mo Lian, you said that the barbarian country has no emperor?"

Listening to Sui Zimo's words, Lin Caisang stuttered a little. Is it true that the barbarian country doesn't even have a superior?

"No."

Sui Zimo shook his head.

"Although there is no emperor, every city in the barbarian country has a city lord. They are the guards and soldiers who were left alive in each city. These people are all barbarians and do not know how to govern a country or a city. It makes the people miserable.

When the people grow food, they may not be able to eat it in the end. All the food will be snatched away by the city lord. Whatever they do, the city lord may take it away.

Over time, a lot of land became barren and unplanted. People would rather rob it than plant it themselves, because no one knew who would own what they planted. "

Lin Caisang: "..."

It sounds like a very chaotic country!

There are no superiors, only the kind of local emperors who are like Su Wan, and even those people are worse than Su Wan.

Because behind Su Wan, there is still a pair of eyes that can stare at him. If he really does something evil and meets someone more powerful than him, he will die.

But the city lords of the barbarian country are different. They don't have condoms on their heads, and no one can control them.

"Then let's set off tonight."

No matter what she winked at, she was going to go to the barbarian country to find her father.

This will never change no matter what.

Chapter 1775 Yaxing in Yongxia City

After a while.

Just as Ban Jue was preparing some things and waiting for the night to come, a person came.

"Chief Jin, please come in."

Ban Jue welcomed Jin Jian in with a box in his arms.

"Chief Jin, why are you holding a box in your arms?" Lin Caisang looked at him and asked funnyly.

"Sir, miss, these are the things that people come to the government office to redress their grievances. There are also some lists of people in General Su's government who were greedy for money and money. Do you two want to take a look?"

Jin Jian looked at the two of them carefully and asked.

"Are there so few people redressing their grievances? Just this little thing?" Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and asked.

She had heard that the gate of the Sheriff's Mansion was surrounded by people. How could there be just such a small complaint?

Is there something wrong?

"It's just a list, it's just a list. Those papers are from the county governor's house." Jin Jian hurriedly explained.

"ah."

At this time, Lin Caisang was really shocked, more than ten times more shocked than when he saw the small complaint just now.

List, everything in such a big box is actually a list!

This shows how many people the Su Wan family has suffered. She felt like her head was getting hot!

"Well, even if the list has been made, what are Governor Jin waiting for? He can send the things directly to Kyoto." She cleared her throat and said.

"this....."

Hearing this, Jin Jian looked at Lin Caisang with some embarrassment.

"With so many things, it's impossible to expedite them for 800 miles. We can only transport them on horseback, girl."

Wasn't it Lin Caisang who said before that Babaili would rush to send Su Wan's charges to Jian'an City in Kyoto, but now...

There are boxes and boxes of crimes. Why rush it 800 miles away?

When Lin Caisang heard this, he lowered his head and thought for a moment.

"Sang'er, write a letter to the emperor and ask him to send the eldest prince here. Not only are Su Wan and others guilty, but Lianhua County should also be rectified." Seeing her hesitation, Sui Zimo stood aside. Tip said.

"The great prince also needs to exercise, otherwise, how will he govern the country in the future?"

After thinking about it, Lin Caisang nodded.

"Okay, I'll write it now."

With that said, she turned around and went to the table, while Sui Zimo personally prepared pen, ink, paper and inkstone for her.

...

Yongxia City of the Barbarian Kingdom.

Before they arrived at Yongxia City, Sui Zimo and his party put on the costumes only found in barbarian countries. They were dressed up in such a way that it was impossible to tell that they were from the Liang Kingdom.

Even if you come to Yongxia City at night, as long as someone is willing to come and stay at the inn, there will always be a waiter waiting for them no matter what time, ready to serve them.

"Boy, which one of the Yaxing stores in Yongxia City is the best?"

Ban Jue took out a silver ingot and put it into the waiter's hand, which made the waiter's face light up with joy.

"Guys, ladies, there are many dental shops in Yongxia City, but the one with the most slaves and the most favored ones is the Wanling Dental Shop. I heard that the dentist from Wanling Dental Shop, I often go to Lianhua County in Liang State.

Slaves from Lianhua County are brought back every year, and they are the favorites of the city lords in other nearby cities. "

When he has money in his hands, he will say anything to his guests.

"However, I heard that the prices for those obtained from Liang Kingdom are very high, and every time they are obtained, they are bought by the city lords of several cities first, and others who want to buy them cannot get it."

"Yeah?"

Ban Jue raised his eyebrows and touched his chin with one hand.

"Then I have to take a good look."

Chapter 1776 Auction?

"Hehe, hehe."

The waiter smiled and then looked at the room behind Ban Jue.

"Gentlemen, please rest first. What do you want to ask? I will talk to you tomorrow morning. Also, you are here by chance. There is an auction at Wanling Tooth Shop tomorrow. You Are we here for the auction too?"

"auctions?"

Ban Jue gave him a confused look.

But soon, he coughed lightly and covered up the doubts in his eyes.

"Ahem, yes, we just came to Wanling Dental Store to check out the auction. By the way, we also asked about other dental stores to see if we can get any good products."

He said to the waiter.

"Good products, they are all found at Wanling Dental Store. Although other dental stores have them, there are not many." The waiter said.

"Well, I understand, you can go down first." Ban Jue nodded, then turned and went back to the room.

In the room, Sui Zimo poured a cup of tea for Lin Caisang and handed it to her.

"Sonny, what do you think?"

"I don't think so, I still need to check." Lin Caisang took a deep breath and took the tea cup.

"Why?"

Ban Jue looked at Lin Caisang and asked.

"Miss Lin, I think Wanlingya is the most likely candidate. Didn't you listen to what the waiter said just now? He said..."

"I heard."

Lin Caisang interrupted him and took a sip of tea.

"There will be an auction at Wanling Tooth Shop tomorrow. I'm afraid if we stay at any inn in Yongxia City, they will introduce Wanling Tooth Shop. This is their habit, and with just such an introduction, we can get money.

"Do you have any money to take?"

Ban Jue raised his eyebrows and thought to himself, could it be that the Wanling Dental Shop gave money to the waiters at various inns in the city to introduce their dental shop to the guests?

"Yeah."

Lin Caisang nodded and looked at Ban Jue.

"Didn't you just give me a piece of silver?"

Banishment: "..."

Is the ingot of silver he gave me what the co-author is talking about?

"Then... Master, Miss Lin, how should we check?" he asked.

"Let's start the investigation from Wanling Tooth Shop. Go and find out. There are several dental ladies in Wanling Tooth Shop who will risk taking people to Lianhua County." Lin Caisang thought for a while and ordered.

"Brother Mo Lian, do you think this is okay?"

"Go check it out."

Sui Zimo gave instructions to Ban Jue.

"In addition, other dental clinics will also be inspected, with a focus on Wanling Dental Clinic."

"Yes, Master."

He was banished and went out.

Hearing Sui Zimo's words, Lin Caisang sighed secretly.

After all, she is still young, lacks experience, and still does not think comprehensively about many things, and is not as good as her brother Mo Lian.

"What are you sighing for? Are you hungry?" Sui Zimo looked at her and asked.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang stretched out his hand, touched his belly, raised his head and smiled at him.

"A little bit, indeed."

"Go to the food garden space and I'll cook it for you." Sui Zimo said immediately.

"oh oh."

Lin Caisang nodded.

Since the food garden space opened, since there is a ready-made kitchen inside, she has brought in a lot of kitchen utensils and food.

So it's okay to cook there.

It was just that she had the skills in the past. If she had to cook in the food garden space, she thought, she would go to Lian Xinmai and ask Xiao Caiqiao to get her some food.

But it was different when her brother Mo Lian was here. The food he cooked was much more to her liking than what Little Caique cooked.

After a while, the two of them were in the kitchen of the food garden space. Lin Caisang was sitting on the side, watching Sui Zimo busy coming and going.

Chapter 1777 The Seeds of Thousand Fantasy Continent

"Brother Mo Lian, tell me, what should I plant in the space of my food garden? It's not okay for it to be so empty all the time." She held her chin and asked him.

The food garden has a large space, and it is of course impossible for her to grow it alone.

But no matter how much money she spends, she won't be rewarded immediately, so she still has to wait.

Of course, she wasn't in a hurry.

I just thought that I could plant something else in the food garden space, even flowers and plants.

"Plant some flower seeds. A few days ago, I received some seeds from people in Qianhuan Continent, but I don't know what kind of seeds they are. I heard that they are medicinal materials or flower seeds."

Sui Zimo thought for a while and then said to her.

When he bought these seeds, he had planned to plant them in Sonny's space, so he just mentioned it today.

"Um?"

Lin Caisang raised an eyebrow.

"Did you buy the seeds of Qianhuan Continent?"

Almost immediately, she became interested and hurriedly came to Sui Zimo and asked.

"yes."

Sui Zimo responded.

"The seeds I bought were quite mixed. The person from Qianhuan Continent couldn't tell what kind of seeds they were, but he just wanted to sell them at a good price.

I met this person in person at that time. Judging from his expression, I am afraid that the way to obtain these seeds is not correct. They cannot be planted elsewhere. If they are planted in the Golden Pearl Space, it would be suitable.

he said.

"The most important thing is that when we enter Qianhuan Continent in the future, we will definitely be able to use it, right?"

Lin Caisang continued what he had not finished saying and said.

After hearing her words, Sui Zimo slightly curled his thin lips at her and raised his hand to gently rub her head.

"right."

"Then I will plant it in the food garden space first. If it is really a medicinal material, I will transplant it to the medicine garden later." Lin Caisang said.

The medicine garden space is special. Except for medicinal materials, other crops cannot be grown. However, the food garden space is different. Everything can be grown here, except animals.

"I really hope I can meet people like this a few more times and buy more seeds to plant."

she said.

"Will do."

Sui Zimo said two words and continued busy.

"Brother Melian, I have been thinking, why is this space with so much land called a food garden space? Can't it be called a farm? Do you also think that the word farm is more appropriate?"

Lin Caisang asked.

"Perhaps there are other things in the food garden that you haven't discovered yet." Sui Zimo said.

"can you?"

Lin Caisang was confused.

There have been a lot of things going on recently, and she really doesn't know much about the food garden space that has just appeared.

"No matter what else there is, it's the one with the most land anyway. It's impossible. It's called the Food Garden Space because it has some very good recipes. I haven't seen it either."

She blinked her beautiful eyes and said.

"If it is true, then I have to study hard. In fact, I really hope that there are a lot of recipes in the food garden. In that case, my cooking skills will definitely improve a lot, right?"

I can cook for you from now on. "

She was in the kitchen, whispering in Sui Zimo's ears.

Sui Zimo just looked at her lovingly and smiled.

"Perhaps you can shout and ask for all the recipes in the food garden and it will come out?" he said.

"How can it be?"

Lin Caisang was amused by his words.

Chapter 1778 Colorful Bubbles

"Brother Melian, why don't you try and release all the recipes in the food garden space?"

It was nothing at all, but they really made it sound, and she was really convinced by her brother Mo Lian.

While the two were talking and laughing, she took out the Golden Pearl Order, took out the Shiyuan Jade Book from the Shiyuan Space, and looked at it carefully.

"Oh my God, there is actually a recipe."

Suddenly, she let out a soft cry, her eyes widened in disbelief, and she looked at Sui Zimo in a daze.

"Um?"

When Sui Zimo heard her words, he turned to look at her.

"Got a recipe?"

"right.

Lin Caisang nodded, but quickly shook his head.

"No, it can't be said to be a recipe. It is recorded here that there are more than just recipes in the food garden space. It is simply a space of learning. The Jade Book calls it the food sea."

She was really surprised, and she didn't expect that there was such a thing as Space Xuehai. It could be regarded as an endless treasure.

"Brother Mo Lian, wait a moment, I'll go outside and call Shi Hai out to try."

With that said, she turned around and walked out of the food garden, which was a large and unimaginably large food sea, leaving only Sui Zimo alone.

...

"Space Eater Sea, come out."

Standing in the food garden space, Lin Caisang took a deep breath and shouted softly into the air.

The next moment, the entire food garden space was filled with fantastic colorful bubbles. There was obviously no wind in the food garden space, but those colorful bubbles seemed to be blown by the wind, floating in the air. Flying around.

This scene was simply so beautiful that she could hardly take her eyes away.

"Oh my God! Oh my God!"

Looking at these colorful bubbles, she almost stuttered.

After a while, she reached out and grabbed a bubble in her hand.

When the colorful bubbles touched her skin, they turned into many fonts composed of spiritual power. On them were written a recipe, a method of cooking meat, and many ways to do it.

Then she flicked her hand, and after the words left her palm, they turned back into the bubble and flew away from her.

She stretched out her hand again and encountered another bubble of another color.

This time, it is no longer a recipe, but a method of growing a plant, introducing how to maximize the value of this plant.

"This...isn't this too powerful?"

She gulped and exclaimed.

Why didn't I discover it before? It turns out that the food garden space is like this.

Therefore, the land in the food garden space is not actually used to grow food in batches, but to grow the ingredients needed in the kitchen of the food garden.

And as long as she has enough merit points, even the food garden kitchen can operate by itself.

She no longer needs to cook. The food garden kitchen can pick various vegetables in the food garden space by herself, and then prepare hot and fragrant meals for her to enjoy!

But the medicine garden space and the pasture space are not that advanced, and they both require man-made efforts.

Of course, points can also be used in the medicine garden space, but there are not many places where they need to be used, so she doesn't care much.

In the pasture space, except for Sui Ziyou's routine care, the rest are basically free-range and don't even need to be paid attention to.

"Sonny?"

When Sui Zimo came out of the kitchen of the food garden, he saw countless colorful bubbles surrounding his son.

Chapter 1779 Didn't see anything?

He came over and just came to her side. When he raised his hand to turn her around, his palm happened to touch a colorful bubble.

The next moment, a miracle happened. In the past, Sui Zimo could only simply come to the Golden Pearl Space. He could not see all the knowledge in the Golden Pearl Space.

Surprisingly, he saw the colorful bubbles turning into many words in his hand.

"this....."

At this time, Lin Caisang also felt his approach and turned back to look at him.

"Brother Melian, can you touch these colorful bubbles?"

She widened her eyes and looked at Sui Zimo in disbelief.

Yu Jing had said before that except for herself, other people brought in by her could not touch other things in the Jinzhu space.

So now that Sui Zimo can see these things, what's going on?

"Can you see the words above?"

she asked quickly.

"able."

Sui Zimo nodded.

He himself was very surprised and did not expect that he could actually see these colorful bubbles.

"You can really see it."

Although he had had such thoughts in his mind before, Lin Caisang was still slightly shocked after hearing Sui Zimo's affirmative voice.

"Wait a minute, I'll call Ziyou over and ask her if she can see it.

With that said, she called Sui Ziyou, who had been in the ranch space all this time, over.

"Brother Zimo, sister-in-law, why did you ask me to come here?"

Sui Ziyou was comically holding a handful of grass in his hand, squatting on the ground.

It seemed that she was feeding some animals in the ranch space before. Suddenly the animals in front of her disappeared, and the environment changed. She looked up inexplicably and saw two people.

she asked, standing up.

"Ziyou, come and take a look at these colorful bubbles. Can you see the words inside them? Just touch them with your hands." Lin Caisang said to her.

"Colorful bubbles?"

Sui Ziyou looked at Lin Caisang with a puzzled face, then looked at Sui Zimo.

"Where are the colorful bubbles? Why didn't I see them?"

She didn't see anything. She only saw her brother Mo and his sister-in-law, as well as a whole piece of land that had been cultivated but without any crops.

Lin Caisang: "..."

She glanced at Sui Zimo, and then looked at Sui Ziyou again.

"You said you didn't see anything?"

There were so many colorful bubbles, did Ziyou not see any of them?

She stretched out her hand unbelievably and brought out a colored bubble, and many words were immediately displayed on the palm of her hand.

"Look at my hands."

She stretched out her palm in front of Sui Ziyou and asked.

"What's wrong with the hand? It's fine. There's no wound at all."

Sui Ziyou looked at the white palms stretched out in front of him in confusion, and looked up at Lin Caisang.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Unexpectedly, Sui Ziyou really couldn't see anything.

"Brother Mo Lian..."

"No need to try, this should be the benefit given to me by Jinzhu Space when I accompanied you on a mission before." Sui Zimo raised his hand, touched her head affectionately a few times, and said.

He accompanies Sonny on missions not just once or twice, but he has always accompanied Sonny on virtual missions.

Naturally, there is certainly no benefit in doing these things.

"Is that what it looks like?"

Lin Caisang asked him back, but soon, she stopped worrying about it.

Chapter 1780 The one who offended was Wan Ling Ya Xing

Wouldn't it be better if her brother Mo Lian can see this? It means that she and brother Mo Lian are closer.

"Ziyou, what were you doing just now?"

She asked, looking at the handful of grass in her hand.

Hearing this, Sui Ziyou screamed as if he suddenly remembered.

"Oh, it's over, it's over, my rabbit, it's over now!"

"What's wrong?"

Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo looked at Sui Ziyou jumping on the spot in amusement and asked.

"The two tigers gave birth to babies recently, and then... they actually wanted to eat the two rabbits I raised. Before I could react, the rabbit was bitten.

Then I spent a lot of effort to snatch the rabbit. Now as long as I am not around, those two big guys will chase the rabbit all over the ground. "

Sui Ziyou said angrily.

In normal times, she wouldn't be able to say or do anything. After all, the ranch space follows the law of survival of the jungle and the strong.

If the rabbit was strong enough to chase the tiger all over the place, she would think there was nothing unusual about it.

I definitely won't find it difficult to see.

But those two rabbits, which she raised personally, were actually bitten by a tiger under her nose. How could this be allowed?

"Sister-in-law, please send me back quickly. I want to go back and take a look. Don't get bitten to death."

"good.

Lin Caisang responded with a smile.

With a raise of his hand, Sui Ziyu was sent back to the pasture space.

"Isn't it too boring for Ziyu to be alone in the space?" She raised her head and asked Sui Zimo.

"Won't."

Sui Zimo said two words calmly.

He saw that Sui Ziyu was living quite well alone in the Golden Pearl Space, not to mention that Jiang Zuo would come in to accompany her from time to time, so what else could he be dissatisfied with?

You know, when Sui Ziyu was still at home, she was not even allowed to leave her yard, unless she got the approval of her father.

But how could her father let Sui Ziyou go out?

Therefore, when Sui Zi is quiet at home, it is far less free than being in the golden pearl space.

"No way?"

Lin Caisang frowned slightly.

She didn't know if Sui Zi's tryst would be boring, but if it were her, she would definitely go crazy if she was always in the Jinzhu space.

"Brother Melian, I'm really hungry."

She touched her belly and said pitifully to Sui Zimo.

"It's ready. Let's eat together."

Sui Zimo tapped the tip of her nose and pulled her into the food garden kitchen.

...

'Bang, bang! '

The sound of two heavy objects falling to the ground was heard.

Lin Caisang, who had just finished eating and left the Jinzhu Space, saw Ban Jue carrying two half-hundred-year-old women in and throwing them on the ground unceremoniously.

"This is....."

Lin Caisang looked at the two wailing women, and then looked at Ban Jue.

"Sir, Miss Lin, my subordinates just found out that these two Yabozis are the ones sent by Wanling Yaxing to Lianhua County." Ban Jue replied to Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo.

"It's them."

Lin Caisang understood.

"Who are you? Why should I arrest us? If you arrest us, you will offend Wanling Yaxing. Our boss will not let you go!"

After one of the nuggets wailed a few times, he got up from the ground, raised his hand, pointed at Lin Caisang, and cursed.
