

Star of Space 1821

Chapter 1821 Makes you shameless!

Suddenly, someone said this in his ear.

When the old woman heard this, her face suddenly turned green.

He stepped forward, pushed away the people blocking the door, and kicked hard towards the Yang family's courtyard door.

There was a 'bang' sound.

The courtyard door was kicked open, and the people in the courtyard were startled by the big movement.

Even the Yang family, who had been eating in the main room, came out to see what was going on.

"Who is coming to my house to make a noise?"

Yang's mother walked out. She originally wanted to scold those ungrateful people, but when she saw an old acquaintance, her face suddenly showed a guilty expression.

"You...why are you here?" she asked the old woman with some stuttering.

"I won't come. If I didn't come, I wouldn't have known that that bitch at home was so restless!" The old woman was also very agile. She rushed over, pushed Yang's mother away, and rushed into the Yang family's house. In the hall.

Soon, screams came from the main room of the Yang family, and a woman rolled out and ran out, covering her head as she ran.

"Mom, don't fight. I know it was wrong. Don't fight. I'm still pregnant with the child!"

But how could the old woman care about this? Moreover, when she heard the woman say that she was still pregnant with a child, her heart became even more angry.

Her son has been dead for three years, and this woman is still pregnant?

She thought she was pregnant with Nezha, who could stay in her mother's belly for three years without coming out!

"You shameless thing, how dare you speak! I asked you to speak, so you have no shame!" The old woman chased the woman with a stick and cursed at her.

"Shameless thing, I'm going to tell the clan leader to give you this unruly bitch to Shen Tang!"

She was so angry in her heart that she originally came to watch the fun, but she didn't know that she was being watched.

"ah!"

When the woman heard what the old woman said, she screamed in fright and hid behind Mother Yang.

"You bitch!"

Seeing that she couldn't chase anyone, the old woman threw the stick in her hand, hitting Yang's mother on the shoulder.

"Ouch!"

Mother Yang screamed, covering her shoulders, her face turned pale.

But she still didn't run away, but blocked the woman behind her and looked at the old woman.

"Old sister, just admit it. Cuihua is pregnant with my eldest son. She will marry him anyway. At worst, my family will prepare more betrothal gifts. Is this done?"

She thought to herself that she would have money in a few days anyway, so she was not afraid of agreeing now.

It is good for everyone to talk about this matter, and it will save trouble in the future.

"you....."

When the old woman heard what Mother Yang said, her face turned red with anger.

Is this a matter of preparing more betrothal gifts? What this woman has ruined is her family's reputation. She also has a grandson and a granddaughter. With such a mother, how will she find her husband's family in the future?

This is really going to kill her!

"You shameless things, I'm going to tell the clan leader and let him deal with you!"

As she spoke, she pointed at the other trembling woman, with a murderous hatred hidden in her eyes.

"Don't think that because your mother-in-law didn't come, you got what you wanted. Soon she will know that your daughter-in-law has done something immoral. You guys, don't even think about running away!"

With that said, she glared at her daughter-in-law again, and then walked away in a hurry.

Chapter 1822 Then I'm going!

"Aunt, what...what should we do?"

The two women, Cuihua and Meixiang, were about to cry. If I had known that they would not come to eat this meal of meat.

If they go back, they may not be able to come out again in the future. Even if they can come out again, the baby in their belly will not be there, and they will be beaten half to death.

"It's okay, don't worry."

Mother Yang didn't take it seriously and comforted them.

"I'm going to clean up the two rooms and come out. You will live at home from now on. I want to see who dares to touch you. She is pregnant with the grandson of our Yang family. I will follow whoever dares to touch you. Fight hard!"

Regardless, she only knew that these two women were carrying their children, and no one could touch them!

"Boss, go quickly and go to your sister and ask for the five hundred taels of silver. As long as our family has money, we can give it to them casually. Everyone is greedy for money!"

She said to her son.

When the uncle of the Yang family heard this, he felt that his mother was right.

He couldn't let anything happen to his two sons at this time, so he had to get the money back.

"Mom, I'm going then!"

With that said, he was about to leave and go to Ya Village to find Yang Lin.

But how could those onlookers in the village let Uncle Yang leave? Several men immediately came forward and arrested Uncle Yang.

They have long been unable to see this thing, and they always look at their wives with lustful eyes.

It's better now, but it actually made two women pregnant. It's really hateful.

"What are you doing, what are you going to do?"

The uncle of the Yang family was caught and couldn't walk away, he could only roar.

Seeing this, Mother Yang wanted to come forward to help her son, but she was held down by two old ladies. Old Man Yang also wanted to open his mouth, but he didn't dare when he saw the people in the village were so excited and not angry. Say nothing more.

This matter was originally done by his son in an unethical manner, and he knew it in his heart.

But this is his son after all, and he also hopes to have a grandson, so he lets his son do what he wants.

How did you know that someone would discover it?

"You have something to say, something to say."

"Talk nonsense!"

A man stood up with a red face and cursed Father Yang.

"Old Yangtou, you can do such a thing. You even allowed your son to do such an unclean thing with the widow in the village. Even the bastard is about to come out. What do you want to do?"

He pointed at Father Yang and asked.

"I....."

Old Man Yang opened his mouth, not knowing what to say.

Could it be that he wanted to say that this really had nothing to do with him and that he didn't know about it before?

Even if he really only found out about this after his daughter Yang Lin came home, now that he was making such a fuss, he didn't know and he knew it, but it was all wrong anyway.

"Just wait, wait for the clan leader to deal with you, a big family member who is so immoral!" One of the women said angrily to Old Man Yang and Mother Yang.

"You guys, why are you meddling in other people's business? This is our family's business. What does it have to do with you?"

Mother Yang, who was being escorted by two women, twisted her neck and screamed at the onlookers, not taking them seriously at all.

"Cuihua and Meixiang will be my daughters-in-law from now on, let's see who dares to kill them!"

Chapter 1823 Aren't you going to report to the official?

As she spoke, she twisted her body, trying to break free from the hands of the two women, but no matter how she moved, she could not get free.

"Let go, let go!"

"Shut up!"

One of the women shouted coldly.

This whole family has done such immoral things, and why are they still so arrogant?

"When the patriarch comes, you will have something to look at!"

"you....."

...

"Brother Changhong, wouldn't it be bad if we exposed the person like this?"

In another place, Lin Changyi watched the movement outside Yang's house getting louder and louder. More people were rushing to Yang's house. He asked Lin Changhong.

"Why is it bad?"

Lin Changhong asked him back.

"If we expose this matter, wouldn't my uncle have more reason to go to my mother to steal money?" Lin Changyi said.

There were still three days left, but now, things have become like this. Grandma will definitely want to use money to silence people, right?

My grandmother must have no money, so she would try her best to get it from my mother.

I'm afraid this trouble will get bigger and bigger.

"He wouldn't dare."

Lin Changhong smiled and said. (audience)

He had already gone to find out before that the parents-in-law of these two pregnant widows were very shameless.

Knowing that his daughter-in-law had done such a despicable thing, how could he let them off so easily just for money?

Moreover, he also expected that Mother Yang was extremely stingy.

Even if you really want to give out money, if you cover this matter up, you won't be able to give out too much money. At most, it will be three or two or five taels.

Such a small amount of money has no temptation at all to people who are very concerned about face.

Therefore, this matter will only be a matter between the Yang family and the other two families, and...

"Changyi, have you done everything I asked you to do just now?"

He asked Lin Changyi.

"I did it."

Lin Changyi nodded and answered seriously.

Brother Changhong asked him to give candy to those children, and then asked them to inform the people in the village that Cuihua and Meixiang were eating meat at the Yang family and were pregnant with the Yang family's uncle's child.

Then, there are those widows who once had that kind of relationship with uncle Yang.

They will all hear that Mother Yang gave ten taels of silver to each of the pregnant widows. Those women who are not pregnant will naturally be angry and will definitely come to argue with them.

These things are all mixed together, how can the Yang family not be in chaos?

Otherwise, how could there be so many people entering the Yang family? Almost no one came out, and they were all crowded in the Yang family's yard to watch the fun.

"Brother Changhong, aren't we going to report to the official?"

"Of course I have to report it."

Lin Changhong spoke naturally.

"Robbing for money is not that easy. Your father and your mother can't just suffer a loss from the Yang family. The Yang family still has to spit out this money!"

If you put it bluntly, it would be fine, but the family actually relied on robbery, and even made the third uncle and third aunt walk such a long way back home. How could this debt not be settled properly?

"I brought my mother's token. We will go to the county magistrate's house later and let the magistrate personally put this matter on the magistrate's head."

"OK."

Lin Changyi didn't understand this, so he could only nod.

The excitement here in the Yang family could not be seen for a while, so Lin Changhong took Lin Changyi and left first.

Chapter 1824 Is he poisoned?

...

It was already very late when we returned to Yacun.

But at the moment when the courtyard door was opened, there were still people in the courtyard. It seemed that the whole family was waiting for them to come back.

"Grandpa, grandma, mother, third uncle, third aunt, why aren't you asleep yet?" Lin Changhong asked in surprise as he looked at the people in the yard.

Are they all waiting for him outside?

"You haven't come back yet, how can your family feel relieved?"

Lu Qiubo said to Lin Changhong, and then looked at Lin Changyi.

"Are you hungry? The kitchen is busy with food. Grandma will bring it to you."

"Okay, Grandma.

Lin Changyi glanced at Lin Changhong, and when he saw him nodding, he nodded.

In fact, he was quite full. When he passed through the town just now, he spent money to buy food and ate all the way.

But Grandma has said so, so he definitely won't say he doesn't want it.

"Changhong, go sit in the main room with Changyi."

Lin Laogan stood on his crutches and said to the two brothers.

"good."

Lin Changhong responded.

But he did not pass through the main room first. Instead, he stepped forward to support Lin Laojian and went into the main room together.

He knew that everyone must want to know how he dealt with the Yang family.

"That's it. It is estimated that the Yang family will be taken to the county government office tomorrow for questioning. Even if we can't really do anything to them, they have been scared by people from the county government office. They will not have the guts to come to our house to cause trouble in the future."

After a while, Lin Changhong told everyone what he had done today while eating.

"They're so cheap!"

Lu Qiubo said bitterly.

Although the Yang family had been tortured a lot, the Yang family was doing it themselves, but their family was innocent. Her son and daughter-in-law had walked all day long!

This morning, she saw that her daughter-in-law couldn't even walk, she was lame!

"Mom, as long as they don't come to the house to cause trouble again, it's fine." The eldest princess advised Lu Qiubo by his side.

Of course, she will never allow the Yang family to make trouble again. In the future, even if the Yang family is trapped in Yangjia Village, they will never be able to get out.

But in the end, it still depends on Yang Lin's face.

Although she said she didn't need to worry about her, she couldn't really ignore her, right?

A few days later, Lin Changfeng had left, and the eldest princess also went to Jian'an City with Lin Changfeng.

Then, Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo left with Lin Changhong.

After leaving the town, the three of them met up with Ban Jue and Uncle Asan. Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo walked away from the Jinzhu Space together, while Ban Jue took Lin Changhong and Uncle Asan with them. Hurry to the Shaohua City of Weiguo.

When they arrived at Prince Mo's Mansion, before they stepped through the gate, Xu Wu hurried towards them. It wasn't until they entered the study that Sui Zi Mo spoke to Xu Wu.

"What happened?"

"Your Majesty, the palace has sent people to invite you several times, saying that the emperor has been poisoned and that the palace doctors are helpless."

Ban Wu approached Sui Zimo and lowered his voice and spoke in his ear.

Hearing this, Sui Zimo looked at Ban Wu in surprise.

"He was poisoned? This is quite rare."

His 'father' was very precious about his life. Who could let him get poisoned?

"Is there any news from the Queen? What kind of poison did the Emperor have?"

These days, the queen often sends people to deliver news from the palace. Although the two have never met, they have reached a consensus and are considered an alliance.

Chapter 1825 Is this poison real?

"The news from the queen is that the emperor seems to have fallen into the scheme of our prince and was poisoned. Wingdings: Ban Wu said.

That is to say, he has not figured it out until now. They never poisoned the emperor at all. How could it be the fault of Prince Mo's Mansion?

"us?"

Sui Zimo smiled, this is really a crime that you want to inflict, why bother without words.

What happened in the palace now, was it all the fault of Prince Mo's Palace? He might as well just sprinkle poison on the emperor.

"Is the emperor really poisoned?" he asked again.

"probably."

Ban Wu was not sure whether this was true, so his tone was also uncertain.

But the people in the palace were really anxious, and they were almost at the point of closing the city.

"Perhaps this poison is real."

On the side, Lin Caisang listened to their conversation and couldn't help but say something.

"Sang'er, what do you mean by this?" Sui Zimo turned to look at her and asked.

"Have you forgotten, how did the clothes I gave you disappear in the first place?" Lin Caisang looked at him and reminded him.

Hearing her words, Sui Zimo was stunned.

He really didn't associate the two things together.

After all, being able to enter Prince Mo's Mansion is like entering an uninhabited place, and it can't be done just by the emperor sending a few people.

And he always thought that the person who stole his clothes was the cloaked man who had been arrested and interrogated secretly, but he didn't expect that the clothes were actually worn on the emperor?

"It seems that between the emperor and the cloaked man, everything can be given to each other.

He guessed that the man in cloak was the one who stole the clothes from Prince Mo's palace, and after the clothes were stolen, the man in cloak gave the clothes to the emperor.

What a deep feeling one must have to give something he considers a treasure as a favor.

Besides, he didn't think the cloaked man needed to give the emperor a favor.

"If the throne can be given to each other, then there should be..."

Before Lin Caisang finished speaking, he saw Jiang Zuo coming in a hurry outside the study.

"What happened again?" she asked.

"Your Highness, the palace has sent someone again." Jiang Zuo looked at his own prince and said.

"Ah."

Lin Caisang laughed.

It seems that the emperor really sent many people to watch outside the gate of Prince Mo's Mansion.

They had just entered the door, and the palace immediately sent someone over. They were using flying pigeons to pass the message, which couldn't be that fast, right?

"That being the case, let's go into the palace and have a look." Sui Zimo stood up.

"Let the people in the palace wait outside, wait for the king to bathe and change clothes, and then enter the palace with him."

He said to Jiang Zuo.

"puff!"

After hearing his words, Lin Caisang couldn't help laughing.

"Brother Mo Lian, I've been waiting for you until the flowers have withered. Why are you still taking a shower and changing clothes?"

Are you trying to make the emperor angry to death?

"You!"

Sui Zimo walked towards her, raised his hand and tapped the tip of her nose.

"The emperor has been poisoned, so I cannot bring the turbid energy into the palace. Otherwise, wouldn't it be possible for me to be charged with murdering the emperor?"

he said.

He cannot afford such a crime.

"That's true."

Lin Caisang thought for a while and nodded.

"Let me tell you, that poison is very torturous, but it won't kill you immediately, especially if it's on the emperor, it won't kill you immediately."

"Why?"

Sui Zimo asked her.

Chapter 1826 Is he here?

"cough.

Lin Caisang coughed slightly uncomfortably.

"When I first entered the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion, I thought I could use poison to restrain the Imperial Preceptor, so I put a little poison in the wine he drank. Who knew that the poison disappeared inexplicably after that.

Later I found out that he didn't drink the wine at all, but wanted to donate it to the emperor. "

Therefore, the emperor was originally poisoned.

Even if someone is poisoned, the ice silkworm clothing is to suppress the poisonous effects.

However, maybe the poison she administered was a bit too mild, and the poison on the ice silkworm clothes could not be compared with each other, so the emperor was still poisoned.

"I almost forgot about this myself. Come to think of it, I had to save the emperor myself, otherwise..."

"It's okay, he won't live long."

Sui Zimo raised his hand, caressed her face gently and said.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"You go ahead, but you still have to be careful when entering the palace."

...

In the palace, the emperor was in his bedroom and could no longer get out of bed.

The Queen Mother came to stay for a few hours every day before going back. The Queen had been taking care of the Emperor personally, and the concubines had also been waiting outside the Emperor's palace, waiting for news from inside.

Finally, on this day, the Queen Mother broke out and kicked out all the concubines.

Although her son was fatuous, he was not yet ready to die. What were those women thinking outside, waiting for the news of her son's death?

All the concubines were ordered by the Queen Mother to be confined in their palaces and not allowed to come out.

There were no more flowers in the imperial garden, and even the palace maids did not dare to wander around the palace for fear of causing some trouble and ending their lives.

"Sui Zimo, is he here?"

The emperor, who was lying on the dragon bed, asked these words weakly.

After just a few words, he was already panting from exhaustion, which showed how serious the poison was.

Moreover, he also knew why he was poisoned. The reason must be related to the clothes the cloaked man brought him.

And that dress belonged to Sui Zimo. He had seen Sui Zimo wearing it before!

Didn't he expect that he was so careless and would be defeated by a piece of clothing in the end? It was a reminder personally sent to him by someone who had a cooperative relationship with him!

"Back to the Emperor, our people who stayed outside Prince Mo's Mansion have sent word that Prince Mo has returned to the Mansion, and our people have also gone to urge him. I believe Prince Mo will come to the palace soon."

The queen said to the emperor.

These days, she felt really happy when she saw the emperor lying on the hospital bed, unable to move.

Especially now that Sui Zijin has been poisoned and cannot get out of bed. The government of Weiguo is all in the hands of her father. It is the easiest thing for her to do something at this moment.

She hoped that Sui Zimo would not come back too early and let the emperor remain ill like this.

When the time comes, her Lin'er will be brought back, and she will really be able to sleep peacefully.

"Send...send someone to urge you." The emperor still couldn't wait and ordered the queen.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

After listening to his instructions, the queen got up, turned around and went out.

After a while, she came back.

"Your Majesty, there is news from Prince Mo's Mansion that Prince Mo has just returned to the manor and heard that you were poisoned. He wanted to come directly to the palace to visit you.

Chapter 1827 Are the clothes poisonous?

But in the end, Prince Mo still felt that he should take a shower and change clothes, and clean up all the turbid odors from his body before he could come to the palace to visit you. Your Majesty, please be patient for a moment. I think Prince Mo should be on his way to the palace at this moment. .

"he....."

Hearing this, the emperor felt a breath of bad breath stuck in his throat. He was almost suffocated to death because of the poisoned body.

"That evil thing, that un...unfilial thing!"

He has already been poisoned and is about to die from the poison, but that villain still has the thought to bathe and change clothes in his own house. Is this celebrating his poisoning?

If it weren't for the fact that the antidote from Sui Zimo's body was not needed at this moment to detoxify him, he would definitely order the execution of everyone in Prince Mo's palace!

"Your Majesty, please calm down, Prince Mo...hasn't he always been like this? Even my concubines are used to it," the queen advised.

Hearing this, the emperor took a deep breath.

He was not surprised if he was not surprised. If he had followed the past, he could be immune to strange things, but now he was poisoned, poisoned by Sui Zimo!

His only idea now is to force Sui Zimo to hand over the antidote to detoxify him!

"Are all the people I asked you to prepare ready?"

He looked at the queen and asked.

The queen lowered her eyes, glanced at the emperor, and nodded.

"Back to the emperor, everyone is ready, it's Deputy Captain Jin and his family.

"Okay, that's good."

Knowing that everyone was ready, the emperor let out a sigh of relief, then slowly closed his eyes, preparing to wait for Sui Zimo to enter the palace.

...

After another hour and a half, Sui Zimo finally entered the palace slowly in a carriage, and then slowly entered the emperor's palace.

"Father, what's wrong with you? Are you sick?"

When he saw the emperor, he asked directly without even saluting.

The emperor was so angry in his heart, but he still had to hold in his breath.

"Zimo, I... I'm here to ask you. Someone donated an ice silkworm clothing to me a few days ago. I recently heard that this ice silkworm clothing came from your Prince Mo's palace. Is this relevant?"

Seeing Sui Zimo, the emperor tried his best to ask a long list of questions.

"Ice silkworm clothes?"

Sui Zimo smiled lightly.

"My son, I lost an ice silkworm coat a few days ago, but I didn't know that this piece of clothing was actually sent to the palace. Father, you mean that my son's ice silkworm coat is now in the palace. In your hand?"

He pretended not to know anything and asked the emperor.

"you--"

What can the emperor answer? After the word "you", I could no longer speak, and my whole face turned red.

"I don't care how this piece of clothing got into my hands. I just want to ask you, is there any poison on this piece of clothing?"

He has determined that he was poisoned because of wearing these clothes!

"Poison? How could it be?"

Sui Zi looked at the emperor in surprise, with confusion in his eyes.

"Father, that ice silkworm coat was specially made by Miss Lin for my son. It is said that when she was raising ice silkworms, she fed them countless poisons and antidotes, just to make the ice silkworms spin silk. After coming out, there can be something in the ice silk that can restrain the poison in Erchen's body. Could it be poison? "

His words almost made the emperor angry to death.

So what could it be if it wasn't poison? What kind of thing could suppress the poison in Sui Zimo's body?

It was fighting fire with fire, no matter how stupid he was, he understood it at this moment.

Chapter 1828 It's almost a close guess

So, the cloaked man took a poisonous garment, thought it was a treasure, and gave it to him?

Or did the cloaked man already know that this was a poisonous garment and deliberately used it to harm him?

He felt that the latter possibility was more likely.

Every time the cloaked man came to the palace, he was always arrogant and gave him something. This was the only time.

But just this one time made him miserable.

"What about the antidote? Where did you put it?" he asked immediately.

"The antidote, what antidote?"

Sui Zimo asked him back, his eyes even more confused.

"When Miss Lin gave the ice silkworm clothes to my son, she didn't say that she needed any antidote."

emperor:"....."

At this age, Mo is still pretending!

"How could there not be... no antidote? Zimo, I am your father. Do you really want to watch me die?"

He questioned Sui Zimo.

"I don't dare."

Sui Zimo replied immediately.

Although he said he didn't dare, there was no trace of daring in his tone.

"There is really no antidote here for Erchen. The ice silkworm clothes are used to suppress the poison in Erchen's body, so there is no need for an antidote.

After hearing his words, the emperor was speechless.

Yes, he felt that Sui Zimo's words might be right. There might really be no antidote for Sui Zimo here.

"What about Miss Lin? Where is she now?" he asked.

"The last time I saw Miss Lin, she said that you had sent an order to Prince Mo's Mansion and wanted to exchange her for a princess in Liang Kingdom. She felt that instead of letting you exchange, it would be better for her to treat herself, so , she has already set off and rushed to Jian'an City in Liang State. "

Sui Zimo replied.

How could he let his son come into the palace?

Didn't the emperor want to cut off his arm and send Sonny to Liang for exchange? Then let him suffer on his own and lie on the bed.

"you--"

If he hadn't been unable to get up at all, the emperor would have stabbed Sui Zimo in the chest with a knife.

He didn't believe that the female doctor had really left. She must still be in Sui Zimo's Prince Mo's Mansion.

However, now that he was dealing with a passive state, he could not confront Sui Zimo head-on, let alone send people to break into Prince Mo's palace and kidnap the female doctor into the palace.

Therefore, he could only give Sui Zimo good words and advice.

"Zimo, I know that I have treated you badly over the years, but I really have no choice. After all, I am not the only one who has the final say in this world. Even if you hate me in your heart, you can't even think about it. Take my life!"

After saying this long series of words, he felt that half of his life had been taken away.

But he still had to say it.

"After all, I am also your father. Now that I have been poisoned, and the poison is related to you, you can't just ignore it, right? Listen to me and find Miss Lin to detoxify me.

I promise you, if the poison in my body is cured, I will tell you whatever you want to know. "

"Ah."

Sui Zimo smiled coldly.

"Father, what are you talking about? What do you want to know?"

What he wanted to know, wasn't it just those things? He had already guessed about it.

What's more, now he really doesn't think that the emperor in front of him knows more than him. I'm afraid he doesn't even know what the person he keeps calling master looks like or what his name is, right?

Chapter 1829 Which one will end well?

It's really sad when I think about it. After being used by others for so many years, I was still willing to do so. I didn't feel at all that I had made a loss-making transaction.

"I really can't help you with the poison in your body. Miss Lin is no longer by my side. Even I don't know when the poison in your body will take effect, let alone my father.

I can't control that much anymore. "

He shook his head and said to the emperor.

"you--"

"Prince Mo, since the emperor promised you that he will tell you everything, why don't you give the emperor a chance and give yourself a chance?"

Just when the emperor was about to get angry and say some cruel words, the queen preceded the emperor and spoke to Sui Zimo.

"Queen, what do you mean by this?"

Sui Zimo raised his eyebrows at the Queen and asked with a look of displeasure in his eyes.

"I don't have an antidote, that is, I don't have an antidote. Furthermore, I don't think Miss Lin will have an antidote. If my father doesn't believe it, he can send an envoy to Princess Liang's Mansion and ask Miss Lin if There is an antidote."

He looked at the emperor steadily and said bluntly.

"Send someone to ask."

The emperor said to Sui Zimo.

"Father, if I send someone to ask, will Father tell me everything you know?"

"you....."

The emperor took a deep breath and felt that he could hardly breathe.

"Yes, as long as the poison in my body is cured, I will tell you everything I know!"

he promised.

"That being the case, I'll send someone to Princess Liang's Mansion to ask Miss Lin, but at this time, I'm afraid it's a bit slow." Sui Zimo said.

After hearing what Sui Zimo Feng Qing Yun Dan said, the emperor was so angry that he wanted to curse and kill people.

But what can he do?

He doesn't even have the strength to stand up now, and he needs the help of palace attendants to relieve himself. What can he do?

"One more thing, Father, are you no longer using the ice silkworm clothes that I have worn?" Sui Zimo asked.

"No, take it back yourself." The emperor said angrily.

He almost risked his life for such a poisonous garment, but luckily he found it in time.

Originally, he wanted to order someone to burn the piece of clothing, but it couldn't be broken by burning or cutting with a knife. He had no choice but to let people throw it away casually.

"Oh well."

Sui Zimo nodded.

"By the way, Father, I wonder who donated the ice silkworm clothing that I, Chen, gave you? Does my son know?"

"I....."

The emperor only uttered one word, but he just opened his mouth and didn't even make a sound.

It seems that this poison is really harmful to people, and it has tormented the emperor to what extent.

"Prince Mo, I'll let you talk about this matter."

When the queen saw the emperor's appearance, she consciously took over the conversation.

"The person who presented your ice silkworm clothing to the emperor was Captain Jin. The emperor was so angry that he ordered the entire family of Captain Jin to be executed."

she said.

"Yeah?"

Sui Zimo just curled his thin lips and didn't ask any more questions.

Captain Jin, who followed the emperor and could not be more loyal, now ended up with his whole family being executed.

Which of the people who followed the emperor would end well?

He shook his head.

Chapter 1830 The Final Ending

"Father, since you have nothing to do here, I will retire there. I need to return home quickly. I have ordered someone to go to Princess Liang's mansion. I will retire.

Just like when he came, he left without saluting.

"He He....."

The emperor looked at the back of Sui Zimo who left without mercy. His chest heaved with hatred and he almost lost his breath.

This evil obstacle is really too hateful.

"Your Majesty, please calm down and don't be like Prince Mo anymore." The Empress persuaded with a smile.

"That evil!"

The emperor cursed silently.

The Queen: "..."

She thought to herself, even if it's evil, it doesn't belong to your family, right? Why are you so anxious?

However, after all, it was not the emperor himself who recruited Zimo?

If the emperor hadn't recruited Sui Zimo, she wouldn't have opposed Sui Zimo at all times and put her son in that situation.

In the final analysis, the reason why Lin'er ended up like this was actually because of the emperor himself and had nothing to do with Sui Zimo.

Everyone knows how to fight back when in danger. There is no reason why Sui Zimo can't do it!

If the emperor had told her early in the morning that Sui Zimo was not from the royal family at all, would she still drag Lin'er to go against Sui Zimo?

There was also Baibind Mountain and his entourage. How could Liner go to Baibind Mountain without incident? If no one informed him intentionally, how would he know there was a treasure on Baibind Mountain?

She now wondered whether this matter had something to do with the emperor.

If it was really relevant, then she felt that it would be better not to remove the poison from the Emperor.

It also saves him from harming others and himself after he comes back to life!

In Prince Mo's Mansion.

Suizi Mo had just returned home. He did not go to see Lin Caisang. Instead, he went to the backyard, entered the secret, and went to visit the cloaked man who had been tortured and had not spoken.

There was a 'bang' sound.

The iron door was opened, and the scarred man in cloak woke up from his coma and looked at Sui Zimo who was already standing in front of him.

"If you want me to betray my master, don't even think about it!"

He used all his strength to shout this sentence at Sui Zimo.

There is absolutely no way he would betray his master, absolutely not!

"Did I say that I wanted you to recruit me?" Sui Zimo looked at him and sneered.

"This king is here just to tell you some great news."

"what news?"

Although his intuition told him that he couldn't believe a word of Sui Zimo's words, he still asked involuntarily.

Did something happen again outside?

"Did you steal the ice silkworm clothes from me before?" Sui Zimo asked him.

Hearing this, the cloaked man's eyes flashed and he didn't answer.

Even if he took it away, so what, if he had the ability, Sui Zimo would just go and get it back!

"Hey, it's also my fault."

Sui Zimo sighed quietly and looked at the cloaked man with some gloating.

"The ice silkworm clothing that I wear is used to suppress the poison on my body. Therefore, it can also be regarded as a poisonous clothing. Tell me, if such a poisonous clothing is worn by others, What will be the final outcome of that person? "

"W-what do you mean?"

When the cloaked man heard his words, he was stunned.

It took him a long time to react, and he immediately questioned Sui Zimo.
