

Star of Space 1831

Chapter 1831 She discovered that she knew the truth

Is there any secret in that ice silkworm coat that he doesn't know about?

He thought it was a treasured garment, so he thought of giving it to Emperor Wei so that he could complete the things he told him.

Little did he know that the ice silkworm clothing was different from what he imagined!

"Sui Zimo, please tell me clearly what you mean by this!" Thinking that he might harm Emperor Wei and ruin their plan, he felt bad.

"What do you mean, haven't I made it clear enough?" Sui Zimo smiled coldly.

"That's right. You are locked up in this dark place, how can you know what's going on outside?"

"What do you mean, exactly what do you mean?"

The cloaked man roared at Sui Zimo, looking completely crazy.

"It's very lively outside now. After the emperor wore the ice silkworm clothes you sent, he was poisoned. He was lying in bed and couldn't even get out of bed. In order for me to hand over the antidote, he personally ordered people who would be most loyal to him. All his subordinates were wiped out.

You say, with such a tyrant, will anyone be loyal to him and obey him in the future? "

Sui Zimo asked the cloaked man softly.

"That idiot, how dare he, how dare he..."

When the cloaked man heard what he said, he was so angry that his whole body trembled.

It was in vain that he trusted that idiot so much. He told him the main purpose of coming to Huanglu this time. Even if he was caught by Sui Zimo, he felt that there was nothing to regret.

But I didn't expect that idiot to be so useless!

That guy is a weakling who will do anything for his own life.

Will he reveal the secret he told him in order to get the antidote in Sui Zimo's hand?

Thinking of this, he felt bad all over, and his body was covered with a layer of eerie aura.

Seeing the expression on the cloaked man's face, Sui Zimo chuckled, turned around, and left the iron prison.

"Have you gone to the iron prison?"

When he came back, Lin Caisang was already waiting for him and asked casually.

"Um."

Sui Zimo responded.

"If the prediction is correct, there is a big secret in the emperor's mouth. The man in the cloak told him to let him implement it."

He spoke to his son.

"So, the man in the cloak took the ice silkworm clothes away from you and gave it to the emperor, just to make the emperor serve him more wholeheartedly, right?"

Lin Caisang asked.

She discovered that she had discovered the truth. It turned out that it was because of this that the emperor was poisoned!

"Then you want to get this secret out of the emperor's mouth?" she asked.

"This is necessary." Sui Zimo said.

"It must be necessary, but how to get it out is also a problem." After thinking about it, Lin Caisang said.

The emperor is not an honest person. As long as he gets the antidote, he will definitely not tell the secret again, and he will not tell the secret before he gets the antidote.

That was his life-saving talisman.

"The poison on Bing Silkworm's clothes actually doesn't need an antidote. As time goes by, he will get rid of it on his own."

she said.

This is also a problem. If they delay this matter for too long, the emperor will find that his health is getting better and better, and he will definitely not cooperate with them.

"Sang'er, tell me, if someone wants to seize the throne at this time, how should the emperor handle himself?"

Just when Lin Caisang didn't know what to do, she suddenly heard Sui Zimo's faint voice ringing in her ears.

Chapter 1832 What else does the Emperor want?

Lin Caisang: "..."

The person her brother Mo Lian was referring to couldn't be Sui Zijin who was lying on the hospital bed, right?

wrong.

She shook her head, the father and son were just the same, neither one of them was good!

"Brother Mo Lian, are you talking about Suizilin?"

She asked, "The end of the year is even more terrifying. Others are full of schemes, but he is full of grass!"

"Are you sure that if he becomes the Emperor of Wei at the end of the year, the Kingdom of Wei will not fall into his hands?"

"These are none of my business." Sui Zimo said.

...

The next day, Sui Zimo sent someone to the palace to report back, saying that he had sent someone quickly to Princess Liang's mansion to let the emperor wait for the news.

The emperor, who was lying on the hospital bed, almost died when he heard this.

From Shaohua City to Jian'an City, even a fast horse would take a month. One trip back and forth, that's two months.

"Mother, that evildoer Sui Zimo wants my life."

The emperor looked at the Queen Mother who had just come to visit him and was so angry that he could hardly breathe.

He clearly knew that the female doctor was in Prince Mo's palace of Sui Zimo, but there was nothing he could do against Sui Zimo.

And Sui Zimo, knowing that he was poisoned, was deliberately dragging him there. Didn't he just want to know things that he didn't know?

Humph, he is not as good as Sui Zimo. As long as he doesn't see the antidote, he won't say a word.

"Then what else does the Emperor want?"

The Queen Mother asked him helplessly.

All of this was not done by her son himself.

If a good emperor doesn't act properly and has to make friends with the people of Qianhuan Continent and considers them his master, isn't this asking for death?

Now that I'm fine, I have toiled myself until I couldn't move on the bed. Do I still want to go against Sui Zimo?

"You shouldn't have brought Sui Zimo back in the first place, and things like this wouldn't have happened," she said.

"But we have already brought them back, what's the use of them anymore!" The emperor gritted his teeth and said to the Queen Mother.

"Why."

The Queen Mother shook her head.

She had known for a long time that Sui Zimo was not something they could raise and would kill them as soon as possible.

Okay now, everything has come true, right?

In fact, she also regretted why she had to protect the child's life when Sui Zimo was still young. If he died early, wouldn't things like these be gone now?

But she knew better that if Sui Zimo's life was really taken, her son's life would also be gone at that time.

As for Weiguo, I'm afraid it no longer exists, right?

"You have committed the sin yourself, and you have no choice but to swallow the bitter fruit yourself.

Since he asked you to wait, then you should wait. Not to mention two months, even if it is two years or twenty years, you should wait! "

At least Sui Zimo knew in his heart that the Emperor of Wei could not die yet.

Just asking her son to wait two months before detoxing, what's the big deal?

"Your Majesty, your body is in this state now. The country cannot be left without a master for a day..."

"Mother, what do you mean?"

The Queen Mother's words had just begun when she was interrupted by the Emperor. He looked at his mother with horrified eyes.

"What else can Aijia mean?"

The Queen Mother frowned, and the meaning in her eyes couldn't be more obvious.

"Nowadays, the queen's father has the final say in everything that happens in the court. If this continues, doesn't the emperor know whose family Weiguo's world will fall into?"

Rather than letting the uncle control the government, it would be better to establish a prince. "

she said.

Chapter 1833 Promise him to be the crown prince

"Prince?"

The emperor frowned.

Although he felt a little unhappy, he felt that he was not old enough to establish a prince yet.

But this matter was brought up by the Queen Mother, so there must have been some reaction from those in the court, right? The issue of establishing a prince still had to be done.

"Which one of the princes among the princes do you think is worthy of the great responsibility of being crown prince?"

he asked.

After hearing his words, the Queen Mother also hesitated.

Now in Shaohua City, Prince Mo's Mansion has the highest prestige, and many of the ministers are leaning towards Sui Zimo.

Of course, she would never be able to give the Wei family's empire to a person without royal blood. The prince would still have to be chosen from other princes.

"What does the emperor think of Lin'er?" she asked.

"Lin'er?"

"Yes, Lin'er, the Ai family heard that after Lin'er went to Sui County, he rested and recuperated, and his illness was almost healed. The Su Ri incident has passed, so it would be better for the Ai family to issue an edict to let him Lin'er, come back."

The Queen Mother said to the Emperor.

"Mother, is this the queen's intention or the uncle's intention?" the emperor asked.

"This is what Aijia means."

The Queen Mother said immediately and glared at her son displeased.

Why is he so suspicious? Even if the queen has this intention, she dares to come to her side to say it. Without the uncle of the family, he would not dare.

"The emperor is seriously ill and has not taken care of the government affairs for a month. Now the imperial power is in the hands of the uncle. Do you think that if there is no Lin'er and any other prince becomes the prince, the uncle will take the power in his hands? Hand it over?"

She spoke to the emperor and analyzed it carefully.

"He won't. He will only squeeze the power in his hands tighter and tighter. When the time comes, he will also take Lin'er back and succeed him as the crown prince."

After hearing the Queen Mother's words, the Emperor took a deep breath.

He originally thought he had received a treasured garment, but only after he was poisoned did he realize that he had acquired a poisoned garment.

But it doesn't matter. Any poison can be cured. He can still stand up sooner or later if he has to wait.

This is what he thought before.

But now, he really hates the cloaked man. Why did he give the ice silkworm clothes to him, causing him to be poisoned? Now the government is controlled by the uncle.

He is really passive now!

"What does the mother mean by letting Lin'er come back? First grant him the position of prince, let him take back all the rights in the hands of the uncle, and directly sideline the uncle?" he asked.

After hearing what her son said, the Queen Mother really wanted to slap her son and wake her up.

That's all, that's all, she has nothing to explain, so let her son think so.

"That's pretty much what it means," she said.

"Well, please give me the order, Queen Mother." The emperor nodded and agreed.

As long as he is still the emperor and the emperor of Weiguo in the future, others will still listen to him.

Getting Ji Lin'er back is only temporary.

"Okay, then the Ai family will go and take care of it. Your Majesty, you can rest well."

With that said, the Queen Mother stood up, let the old nanny support her, and left.

Outside the bedroom, the queen, who had been secretly eavesdropping on the conversation between the emperor and the queen mother, finally smiled after hearing that her son was coming back.

She knew that it was right to cooperate with Sui Zimo. Her son would be back soon.

Thinking about it, she slowly walked into the bedroom.

Chapter 1834 An innocent tone

For more than half a month, the emperor did not send anyone to Prince Mo's Mansion, and he did not dare to send anyone over again. Prince Mo's Mansion was always so peaceful.

Lin Changhong, together with Ban Jue and the others, had already arrived at Prince Mo's Mansion, and soon Sui Zilin would return to Shaohua City.

Sui Zimo personally selected a few people to practice the spiritual arts of Qianhuan Continent together.

And he chose two maids to serve Lin Caisang with him. They were both good at kung fu and practiced spiritual arts together.

Soon, Shaohua City became lively because Sui Zilin came back, and the palace was also very lively because the emperor was angry.

After Sui Zi came back, he did not immediately visit his father who was poisoned. Instead, he went to the queen's palace first, paid his respects to his mother, had a lunch, and then went to the queen mother's palace.

Finally, when he was about to leave the palace, he remembered the emperor. Then, under the leadership of the eunuch, he came to the emperor's palace and paid his respects to the emperor.

The order of entering the palace made the emperor so angry that he couldn't breathe. He trembled on the bed and spit out a mouthful of black blood.

The Queen Mother got the news and hurried over.

Knowing that the emperor was angry with Sui Zilin, he gave Sui Zilin a lesson.

But Sui Zilin was also innocent. He opened his two big confused eyes and looked at the emperor who looked even paler after vomiting black blood.

"Royal Grandmother, it's not that the son didn't come to visit the emperor first. Could it be that the eunuch in the father's palace sent a message to the son at the palace gate, saying that the father needed to rest and asked the son to go to the mother and the emperor's grandmother first? ?"

He thought that his father was still angry with him and didn't want to see him, so he thought about returning to his Prince Lin's Mansion after paying his respects to his mother and grandmother.

After his father's anger subsided, he went into the palace to pay his respects to his father.

"Isn't this what Father meant?"

Finally, he looked at the emperor and asked with an innocent tone.

"you--"

Hearing his words, I almost spit out a mouthful of black blood again!

He had been waiting early in the morning, waiting for his son to come to pay his respects. He could also give this son a good warning, so that he would not dare to mess around in the court, let alone regard his uncle as his patron, what? Dare to do anything daring.

Who knows, he waited and waited, but still didn't get this stupid thing.

Later, he couldn't bear it anymore, so he asked Xiao Guizi to look for him, but he learned that this stupid guy had already been to the palace of the Queen and the Queen Mother and was about to leave.

Don't you want to piss him off to death?

When the Queen Mother heard Sui Zilin's words, she also knew that someone must have deliberately wanted to make things difficult for Sui Zilin, and did not want Sui Zilin to be in the emperor's favor again.

And he knew who this person would be without even thinking about it.

He dared to do such a shameful thing behind her back and completely ignored her as the Queen Mother. He was really impatient.

"Your Majesty, Lin'er is also an innocent victim, so leave it to the Ai family so that you can rest. As for Lin'er, you have already beaten him, so let him go back to the palace."

"Get out, get out!"

The emperor roared at Sui Zilin.

Suizilin's body trembled, and he immediately knelt down and walked away with the wind at his feet.

...

When he came outside, Suizilin, who had a look of fear on his face, suddenly became normal.

"Your Majesty, where should we go next?"

His personal guard asked as he came to his side.

"Go to the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion."

Sui Zilin glanced at him lightly and ordered.

Chapter 1835 I'm afraid it will be difficult to turn over

During those suffering days in Sui County, he was no longer the young man who could be exploited at will.

Some people were waiting for him at the palace gate, and some people deliberately induced him to go to his mother's palace first, hoping that he would make his father angry.

Aren't you just afraid that he will step on that person's head in the future?

Since that's what he thought, how could he not let him get his wish?

He went directly to the Queen's palace. After eating, he went to the Queen Mother's palace. He walked slowly and wandered around, waiting for the people sent by his father to block him on his way out of the palace. Woolen cloth.

Now, that person has shot himself in the foot, right?

He wanted to see what ideas that person would come up with to deal with him next!

...

On the other side, the Queen Mother came out of the emperor's palace and immediately snorted.

"Fortunately, the Ai family has never taken a fancy to him, otherwise, this Weiguo would really be destroyed!" She said angrily.

Without even thinking about it, everyone knows who caused this incident. Besides Suizi Jin who was poisoned and couldn't get out of his palace, who else could it be.

This person, like his mother-in-law, is someone who can't stand up to the public eye, and will come up with such ideas that may be exposed at any time!

"Send someone to Prince Jin's Mansion to give the Ai family a good warning. If he dares to act like this again next time, the Ai family will not be lenient!"

"Yes, Queen Mother, I will take care of it now." Mammy responded and left in a hurry.

...

In Prince Mo's Mansion.

Lin Caisang and the others are still practicing, and everyone is working very hard.

In the study, a subordinate of Sui Zimo who was not always with him was reporting things to their prince.

"Is everything done?" Sui Zimo asked.

"Yes, Your Majesty, as you expected, Prince Jin may not be able to stand up this time," the subordinate replied.

"It's just that this time Prince Lin has a clearer mind and knows how to use his tactics. It's surprising that he spent so much time in the palace before returning to his Prince Lin's Mansion."

Their people in the palace came to report. King Lin spent a long time in the palace until the emperor got impatient and summoned him.

But if according to King Lin's previous temperament, he has been running around on the road for a long time and wants to enter the palace immediately, he may just pay a hasty greeting and go back to his palace to rest, right?

But this time, what he did really exceeded others' expectations.

"It's time for him to be smarter." Sui Zimo said calmly.

After all, there was not much grudge between him and Sui Zilin. The Queen raised Sui Zilin very well. Before he was five years old, Sui Zilin was the only one among the princes who could not Bullying him.

After that, every time he returned to Shaohua City, Sui Zilin would not do any other nasty things except sarcastic remarks about him.

Most of the time, it was the queen who did things she shouldn't do in order to clear the way for her son.

"Keep watching. Sui Zijin won't just let it go. There will definitely be follow-up actions, so people should pay attention carefully." He ordered.

"Yes, I understand."

The subordinate responded and left the study.

After the others left, Sui Zimo also flashed back to the backyard and went to practice with his son.

...

In the Jin Palace.

Sui Zijin, who was still suffering from lingering poison, was so angry that he smashed everything in his room after hearing the Queen Mother sent someone to warn him.

Chapter 1836 It's not calm again

Then the residual poison struck again.

"When did I send someone to stop that idiot?"

While smashing things, he asked people outside. Even when he was lying on the bed, he threw pillows and the quilt that would cover him all over the floor.

"Your Majesty, he is... a gentleman raised by the palace. He knew that you were worried about King Lin's return, so he sent someone to embarrass King Lin."

Beside the door, Sui Zijin's personal guard explained to his prince.

No one expected that Sui Zilin would stay in the palace for so long and bring this matter directly to the Queen Mother.

Now, the Queen Mother will not be angry.

"Idiots, this whole bunch of idiots, get them all kicked out of the palace by me!"

If he wanted to deal with Suizilin, would he use such a stupid method? If Sui Zi is ready to think about anything, he can make himself stupid to death, so why is he still trying to step on it?

Isn't this just shooting yourself in the foot?

But unfortunately, he didn't move the stone by himself, but the idiots raised in the house!

Thinking of this, he became even more angry.

"Yes, Your Majesty, my subordinates will go right now..."

"Wait, come back!"

Just as the subordinate was about to leave, Sui Zijin stopped him again.

"My lord, do you have any other orders?"

"What's going on over there with Suizilin? Has he returned home?" Suizijin asked.

Why does he think Sui Zilin has become smarter this time?

If he were in the past, would he do things like this? His father has always favored him, and no matter how wrong he did, he would still be ignorant.

Could it be that Sui Zilin was really lucky and escaped this time?

"The person we were following came to report that after King Lin came out of the palace, he went to the Imperial Preceptor's Mansion. He probably went to find trouble for the Imperial Preceptor." The subordinate guessed.

Hearing this, Sui Zijin frowned.

You just came back and you dare to go to the National Preceptor's Mansion to cause trouble?

Since she has met the Queen, there is no reason why she should not know that the Imperial Preceptor Suyang has actually fallen in love with Sui Zimo. How could the Queen allow Sui Zilin to offend the Imperial Preceptor again?

Moreover, Sui Zilin had just returned, and the forces that belonged to him had already joined Sui Zimo.

He can be said to be powerless in Shaohua City. How dare he offend the Imperial Preceptor?

"Send someone to keep an eye on it. If there is any news, report it immediately."

"Yes, Your Majesty."

The subordinate accepted the order and went down immediately.

...

In the Imperial Prefecture.

The Imperial Master's Mansion, which had been quiet for a long time, became restless again after Sui Zi came to ask for an audience.

The Imperial Master sighed solemnly and walked out of the study.

"Please come in, King Lin. Remember, please be kind and polite." He ordered his servants.

His son was dead. Even if he wanted to waste his money on his life, his son would not survive.

Now, he can only take one step at a time, or leave this place of right and wrong.

Of course the second one is impossible, so we can only take one step at a time.

"Yes, sir."

Butler Xin accepted the order and went to the door to invite Sui Zilin in.

More than half a month has passed, and most of the government affairs that were originally in the hands of the uncle Guo were all in the hands of Suizilin.

This is not what the emperor should be worried about, he should be secretly happy.

However, gradually, he discovered something was wrong, because Sui Zilin was more popular in handling court affairs than he was as the emperor.

Chapter 1837 Recuparate in the palace

What's more, when Sui Zi was about to do something, he would never ask him for orders. He would just wave his hand and decide the matter himself.

He suddenly felt a sense of crisis, feeling that if he continued like this, he, the emperor, would really be ignored by the queen and his son. Moreover, the queen did not come over often now. She must be teaching Sui Zilin how to handle government affairs.

Are the mother and son planning to join forces to seize his empire?

"hateful!"

The more he thought about it, the more it seemed like this, and he gritted his teeth bitterly.

"Come on, come on!"

"Your Majesty, what are your orders?" Gui Eunuch came in and asked respectfully.

"Immediately prepare a decree for me to let King Lin return to his fief! Without my permission, you are never allowed to come back again!" The emperor ordered to Eunuch Gui.

"What?!"

Eunuch Gui was frightened by the emperor's words.

King Lin has been particularly serious in handling government affairs recently, and many courtiers are praising him. Why would the emperor let him return to Sui County at this time?

"Your Majesty, this...Prince Lin has just come back not long ago. If he is allowed to return to his fiefdom, what kind of reason should he give?"

He asked weakly to the emperor.

If you bring someone back without any reason, and if you send someone away without any reason, is this teasing a cat or walking a dog?

"You can find any reason. In short, he is not allowed to appear in Shaohua City again!" The emperor said with anger on his face.

"this....."

"Nonsense!"

Just when Eunuch Gui didn't know whether he should answer or not, a sharp shout came from behind him.

The Queen Mother walked in with a cold face and looked at her son lying on the bed displeased.

"Your Majesty, what are you talking about? You all should go down."

She waved to the eunuchs and maids in the room, signaling them to go out first. She wanted to have a good chat with this stupid son.

"The Queen Mother, this..."

Eunuch Gui looked at the Queen Mother with pleading eyes.

"The emperor is sick and confused, are you also sick and confused? Get down." The Queen Mother glanced at Eunuch Gui coldly.

"Yes, I will resign."

"Mother!"

The emperor saw that everyone had left, and he couldn't do what he wanted to do, and he became even more angry.

"Your Majesty, it's time for you to wake up a little bit. Do you really want to destroy everything passed down by your ancestors?" The Queen Mother glared at him with displeasure and asked sternly.

"Mother, when did I destroy the country passed down by our ancestors? It is clearly that evil son who wants to seek power and seize the throne!" the emperor said.

"emperor!"

The Queen Mother was really going to be angry with him.

He can't manage this country well, but now that Lin'er has handled everything in an orderly manner, he is unhappy?

So what does he want? Will the Wei Kingdom be destroyed? Is he happy?

"It seems that the Ai family can't explain things to the emperor. Even if that's the case, the emperor should rest well in his palace. As for the matters in the court, Lin'er has handled them very well, and the Ai family is very relieved."

After she said something to the emperor, she left.

"Queen mother, queen mother."

Hearing his mother say such words to him, the emperor became anxious.

He wanted to get up and stop the Queen Mother, but he had no strength at all and couldn't get up at all, and there was not even a person waiting around him.

He gritted his teeth and felt that he really made a mistake in this move.

He shouldn't have brought back that unfilial thing from Suizilin, but now, he was roasting himself on the fire rack.

Chapter 1838: Exchange secrets with you

If he had known this earlier, he might as well have told Sui Zimo everything he knew and asked him to hand over the antidote.

In this way, he would no longer be in such a passive state.

Now, is it still too late?

...

Finally, one day, the emperor, who was lying on the hospital bed, couldn't bear it anymore and issued an order to summon Prince Mo to the palace.

But there was no movement at all in Prince Mo's palace. The emperor waited until the afternoon of the next day to see Sui Zi Mo, who had arrived belatedly.

He wanted to be angry, but he couldn't be angry with Sui Zimo, let alone say any insulting words.

"My father is eager to summon his son. Is there something important?"

Sui Zimo pulled up a chair from the side, sat down leisurely, and asked the emperor.

That look and tone seemed to be asking the emperor, have you eaten yet? Just got up? So casual, yet so serious.

"Mo'er, is there any news from Miss Lin?" The emperor looked at Sui Zimo and asked word by word.

"The Jian'an City of the Liang Kingdom is thousands of miles away from here? Father, you'd better wait a little longer. If it doesn't work, ask the imperial doctor to come and save my father's life. There is nothing I can do about it."

Sui Zimo said calmly.

"you--"

Upon hearing his words, the emperor felt a bad breath stuck in his throat and almost died on the spot.

But he still endured it, but there was a verbal conflict with Sui Zimo.

The current situation in the palace is that if he, the emperor, does not get better, he will no longer be able to have the final say in the world of Weiguo.

Maybe his good mother would make him become the Supreme Emperor of Weiguo directly on the grounds that he was poisoned and needed to rest.

This was not the result he wanted to see.

"If I exchange secrets with you, will Miss Lin come back earlier?" he asked.

"maybe."

Sui Zimo didn't express his position, just looked at him.

"It depends on what kind of secrets Father wants to exchange. The distance of time is not decided by me alone. Father, do you think so?"

Hearing this, the emperor gritted his teeth.

"Okay, then I will tell you everything that person told me."

At this point, he has no other choice. If he doesn't say anything, even the throne of Weiguo will be on hold, let alone unification.

"Father, please speak. I am here to listen attentively." Suizi Mo said.

"Actually, I don't know where to start. That person just told me that he wanted you to accidentally discover a book on cultivating the spiritual power of the Fantasy Continent from the palace, and then you would practice it secretly."

The emperor said.

In fact, he had read that book, but he couldn't understand what was written in it.

He thought that even if it was given to Sui Zimo, how could Sui Zimo understand something that he, the emperor, could not understand?

It's just a waste of time.

"Spiritual cultivation books?" Sui Zimo frowned.

There are so many spiritual cultivation books on the fantasy continent. Before seeing that book, he could not guess what the purpose of those people was.

"Yes, a spiritual cultivation book." The emperor nodded.

"I've seen it too, but I can't see anything. That person just said that as long as you practice to a certain level, his master will be able to gain power from you. By then, his master will be invincible."

"Where's the stuff?"

Sui Zimo asked immediately.

What a beautiful thought, and I want to gain power from him and use it for myself!

Chapter 1839 I won't read it, I won't read it anymore

This shows how stupid and stupid he is, but those people can't think of it!

"Here. Visit)"

The emperor reached out and took out a box from under the pillow of his dragon bed, and handed it to Sui Zimo with trembling hands.

Sui Zimo immediately took it into his hand and opened the box.

Inside the box, there was only a book with a red cover, with four big characters written on it, Secrets of Spiritual Cultivation.

The secret book of spiritual cultivation was similar to the one he saw in Sonner's space, but when he opened it and looked at it, he couldn't help but frowned.

Because he just took one look and felt uncomfortable all over.

He immediately closed the book, then threw the box on the ground, stood up with the book, and was ready to leave.

"Mo'er, where is my antidote?"

When the emperor saw that he was actually leaving, he immediately asked.

Hearing this, Sui Zimo paused at his feet and turned to look at the emperor.

"Father, just wait. In a few days, Miss Lin should deliver the antidote. At that time, I will come into the palace again and offer the medicine to my father."

After speaking, without waiting for the emperor's response, he raised his feet and left the palace.

"Secrets of spiritual cultivation? What is written in it?"

When the secret book of spiritual cultivation was placed in Lin Caisang's hand, she immediately wanted to open it and take a look.

But before he could open the book, his hand was directly held down by Sui Zimo.

"do not look."

"Why?"

Lin Caisang raised his head, looked at him, and asked.

"I only read one page and then I felt sick." Sui Zimo explained.

"What?"

Hearing his words, Lin Caisang was quite surprised.

He immediately reached out, took her wrist, and began to check his pulse, but found that up to this moment, his pulse was still very messy.

"What kind of spiritual cultivation secret book is this? How could it be like this?"

She lowered her eyes, looked at the spiritual cultivation secret book in her hand, and frowned.

"I brought it here because I want you to take it into the space and ask the little Cai Que, maybe it knows something." Sui Zimo reminded.

He hoped that his son would not read a single word of this so-called spiritual secret book.

Of course, they should still figure out what secrets are hidden in this secret book, and why the emperor said that after he practices this secret book, the master of the cloaked man will be invincible.

"Then let's go together."

With that said, Lin Caisang took Sui Zimo with him, entered the Golden Pearl Space, and then went to Lian Xinmai.

In Lian Xinmai, the little colorful sparrow was standing leisurely on the branch listening to songs, when suddenly it saw its owner and the male master coming in.

It was startled and fell from the branch with a 'click' sound, and its eyes were filled with stars.

"Owner."

It opened its eyes and saw its owner standing in front of it, looking down at her.

It was so frightened that it flapped its wings and flew again.

"Little Caiqiao, please help us find out what this secret book of spiritual cultivation is?"

Lin Caisang handed the spiritual cultivation secret book in his hand to the little Caiqiao, opened a page and let it read.

After just reading one page, Little Cai Que felt that stars were constantly appearing in front of her eyes just like when she fell down before.

Enduring the strong physical discomfort, it flipped through the second and third pages.

After a while, when its owner wanted to turn to the fourth page, it was surprised and hurriedly screamed.

"Master, I don't want to read anymore. I don't want to read anymore."

"Why?"

Lin Caisang asked.

Chapter 1840 It's clearly a forbidden soul-stealing technique!

Judging from the performance of Xiaocai Que, this thing is really not a good thing, it should be a harmful thing.

No wonder her brother Mo Lian wouldn't let her see it.

If she looked at it, she might be like the little colorful sparrow, flying in the air as if she was drunk and dancing.

"What kind of secret book is this for cultivating souls? It's clearly a forbidden technique for seizing souls!"

Little Caique calmed down her body and said angrily to her master.

What kind of scam is this? It turned out to be a forbidden book like the Soul Seizing Forbidden Technique that was against the laws of heaven and was given to its owner, with a secret book of spiritual cultivation written on the cover? !

"Forbidden Soul Seizing Technique, what is that?"

Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo looked at each other and asked.

No matter what it is, I can now confirm that this book is indeed not a good thing.

"The forbidden technique of seizing souls is a forbidden technique that uses heaven-defying techniques to seize other people's cultivation and spiritual power. However, anyone who reads this kind of book will have their own spiritual power taken away by others. It is one of the most powerful techniques in Qianhuan Continent. The scariest thing ever."

Xiao Caiqiao explained.

"It's just that this forbidden soul-seizing technique can only be used with the soul-seizing Gu. How could it appear for no reason? It's really strange."

"Xiao Caiqiao, you mean that if this forbidden soul-seizing technique is combined with the soul-seizing Gu, the spiritual power of the person who practices this forbidden technique can be transferred to another person?"

Lin Caisang asked Little Caique with a cold face.

So, the master behind the cloaked man still has the idea to let his brother Mo Lian practice this forbidden soul-stealing technique as a secret book of spiritual cultivation?

"Yes, this is a forbidden technique that couldn't be more evil." Little Caique nodded and said.

"Spirit-seizing Gu is divided into child-gu and mother-gu. If a person infected with child-gu practices the forbidden spirit-seizing technique, the spiritual power in him will be continuously transferred to the body of the person with mother-gu. That's quite scary!"

"What if a person who practices the forbidden art of seizing souls has never practiced spiritual power?" Sui Zimo asked.

"The Forbidden Soul-Seizing Technique itself is a secret book for spiritual cultivation. However, this method of spiritual cultivation is against the way of heaven. It comes at the cost of human lifespan. The longer you practice, the shorter your lifespan will be."

Xiao Caiqiao explained.

"Often people who practice the forbidden art of seizing souls can only practice it for ten years at most before their physical strength is exhausted and die. However, using the spiritual power obtained from practicing the forbidden art can cause people to become obsessed, so we cannot What remains in the body of the practitioner can only be passed on to others for use by others.

Of course, those who want to practice this kind of forbidden art must be extremely talented people. Among tens of millions of people, I am afraid that I will not be able to pick one. Therefore, even if there is such a forbidden art, I cannot find a suitable person. It is useless for people to practice it. "

Listening to Xiao Caiqiao's words, Lin Caisang turned his attention to Sui Zimo.

"So, Brother Mo Lian, you are the extremely talented practitioner that that person found, so he would rather kill Yin Baiqing than save you.

And he is not afraid of you becoming rebellious, because he wants to arouse your rebellious heart so that he can push this forbidden soul-stealing technique to you and let you provide him with spiritual power? "

This person is really very good at calculation.

Sui Zimo's face was also cold, imagining that if he really reached the last step, he got this forbidden soul-stealing technique, and then started to practice it.

The consequences...

"It seems, Brother Mo Lian, we should work harder to cultivate our spiritual power even more powerfully and go directly to Qianhuan Continent." Lin Caisang said.
