

Star of Space 1851

Chapter 1851 My son has grown up

What's more, Ya Jinlai is already married. If she follows that man again, she will be a concubine, a concubine in the country, and she will be no different from a servant working at home.

From now on, she will have to do all the work at home, and even if she gives birth to a child, it will not be hers. She will have to be raised by her sister. If she cannot do the job well, or cannot give birth to a child, she will be beaten, scolded, deprived of food, and beaten until she is half dead. , not even a doctor would be hired for her.

It was not like she had never seen such a scene in Yacun.

At the beginning, she was the one who was going to marry, but later she was unwilling to marry him, so she changed her to Ya Jinlai. Ya Jinlai was also unwilling, so he must have hated her to death by now, right?

If she is really given to that man by her parents, Ya Jinlai will dominate her at home in the future. Will she still have a good life?

"Mom, I don't want to go to my sister's house, I don't want...ah!"

Before she could finish her words, she was thrown away by Yatu with a big ear-scratcher.

"You still want to say no, I am your father, and you have to do whatever I ask you to do. Go and go to your son-in-law's house. From now on, you will be a member of his family. Even if you are asked to wash, cook, warm the bed, and have children, you have to do it. Dry!"

He doesn't care about so much now, he just wants to live a good life for a few days after being kicked out, and don't worry about his old bones anymore.

"Useless trash, if it weren't for you, would we have been kicked out? If you don't want to, I don't want you to give it a try!"

"I....."

When Yayin arrived, she didn't dare to say a word. She was carried away by Yatuti and left.

...

Yacun.

The Lin family is beaming with joy at the moment.

The yard was very lively. Lin Laogan stood there, accepting congratulations from the people in the village.

In the room, Lin Caisang was sitting in front of the dressing table, and standing behind him was Sui Zimo.

"Brother Mo Lian, let my mother do it. You go and take a rest." Lin Caisang suggested as he looked worriedly at the pale man in the bronze mirror.

"No need."

Sui Zimo shook his head.

Today was the most important gift for his little son to get haircut in his life, how could he miss it.

This ceremony of pulling up the hair and wearing the hairpin must be completed by him.

"My son has grown up."

He gently stroked his son's hair with one hand, and with the other hand, he took out a delicate jade comb from his arms and began to twist his son's hair.

He didn't know how long he had been waiting for this moment, and he had dreamed of it countless times in his dreams.

"I'm still young."

Lin Caisang heard what he said and contradicted him.

Is fifteen considered old?

"No, my son has grown up."

Sui Zimo said seriously again.

"Sang'er, after today, you are a big girl. You can't be as willful as before. From now on, you have to think about your family in everything, and you can't be willful anymore."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows.

"Have I been sexual before?"

Why didn't she feel it? no?

She feels quite good about herself, she is not willful at all, and she has saved many people and done many good things.

"puff!"

Behind them, the eldest princess, who had been watching the two of them, couldn't help laughing after hearing her daughter's words.

"Sang Sang, Zimo didn't say that you are willful. These are just what you have to say as a hairpin gift. Even if my mother helps you with your hair, she will still say these things."

She explained for her future son-in-law.

"oh."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"So that's what happened."

Chapter 1852 The more willful the better, I will pamper you

She thought her brother Mo Lian disliked her.

"Brother Melian, continue."

"Ah."

The eldest princess chuckled.

"Zimo, please continue to fix Sangsang's hair while I go outside to take a look."

With that said, she went out.

"Brother Melian, am I really willful?"

After the door was closed, Lin Caisang asked Sui Zimo.

"not at all."

Suizi Mo replied.

He thought that his son-in-law was not willful, but too irrational. It would be great if she could be more willful and treat those who bullied her more harshly.

But who made his son kind?

"My son, the more willful you are, the better. With my love, even if you poke a hole in the sky, I can still make it up," he said.

"puff!"

Listening to his words, Lin Caisang couldn't help but laugh.

"Brother Mo Lian, why didn't you tell me that after I poked a hole in the sky, would you continue to help me make the hole bigger?"

"Um?"

Sui Zimo raised his eyebrows.

"This is a good idea, I can try it in the future." He said.

Lin Caisang: "..."

He really wants to give it a try, so he might as well not give it a try.

After a while, Sui Zimo combed Lin Caisang's hair, and then carefully opened the box placed on the dressing table.

"What's this?"

Lin Caisang had never seen what was inside, she asked.

She had known before that Sui Zimo carried this stool with him, but she had no idea what was inside.

I only know that this is a hair-length gift prepared by her brother Mo Lian.

When Sui Zimo opened the box and revealed the hairpin inside, Lin Caisang was stunned for a moment.

The color of this hairpin was so strange. It looked milky white, but when she moved her body, she saw that it turned golden again.

Then, she looked at the hairpin in another direction, and the color changed again.

"This hairpin will change color."

She looked at Sui Zimo and asked.

"Yes, this is a piece of ever-changing jade I got a few years ago. I made it into two hairpins. I will wear them for you."

Sui Zimo took the hairpin in the box and inserted it into Lin Caisang's hair, revealing only a lifelike carved magnolia flower at the top.

"Strange, why do I feel so warm and comfortable on my head?"

As soon as the hairpin was put into his hair, Lin Caisang felt that the temperature of his body had increased a lot, and he didn't know if it was because of his own psychology.

"The ever-changing jade is warm and cool in winter, and it is helpful in cultivating spiritual power. I just discovered it." Sui Zimo said.

If he had discovered it early, he would have given it to his son as soon as possible, and there was no need to wait until now.

"Come on, let's go out."

He took his son's hand and led him out to the yard.

In the yard, many people from Yacun came over, and there were also a few uninvited guests.

"Look, if you hadn't messed around before, Lin Caisang would have been your wife in the future!" Old Master Zhou stood in the corner, with hardened eyes, glaring at Sui Zimo who was helping Lin Caisang out.

"That brat is now much cheaper. I don't know what kind of bad luck he got."

When Zhou Liang heard his grandfather's words, he just glanced at the golden couple who had just walked out of the room, and his eyes couldn't be more bland.

"Grandpa, please stop talking. She has nothing to do with me anymore."

In the past year or so, he has suffered enough from the tigress at home. If he is not more stable, he will not have to live in the future.

Chapter 1853: There is no good intention at first sight!

So, he also figured it out, why bother?

"you--"

Old Master Zhou looked at his grandson with hatred.

"You're such a loser, why don't you try to fight for it? That girl is not Ya Molian's daughter-in-law yet. If you go and coax Lin Caisang, maybe..."

"Dad, please stop talking."

Before he could finish speaking, Zhou Liang interrupted him.

"I heard that Ya Yinlai said something that shouldn't be said in front of Ya Molian, and now the whole family has been kicked out. Do you want this too?"

He reminded his grandfather that Yatu's family had been driven out of Yacun.

Could it be that his grandfather wanted their family to be driven out of Yacun and have nowhere to go recently, so that he could be willing to regret it?

When Old Master Zhou heard what he said, he just gritted his teeth.

He glared hatefully at Sui Zimo again, who was helping Lin Caisang out, and watched as Lin Caisang, accompanied by Lin Caiqing, began to bow to her hair.

If it weren't for Sui Zimo, the honor of accompanying Lin Caisang and accepting all the congratulations today would have belonged to his grandson!

"Grandpa, let's go back."

Zhou Liang looked at his grandfather and said something.

He was afraid that if they didn't leave, his grandfather, who didn't take things too seriously, wouldn't know what he would do. 6

"Walk, walk, out of sight."

Old Master Zhou knew that at this moment, whatever he wanted to say or do would be useless, and he would only end up with the same fate as Yatu's family.

Although he wanted Lin Caisang to be his granddaughter-in-law, he didn't want to end up like Yatu and his family.

"Well, let's go."

Zhou Liang saw that his grandfather was about to leave, so he followed him.

He really didn't want to come to this place again. Looking at his fiancée, whom he once disliked so much and tried every means to break off the engagement, she was now so beautiful that with just a little dressing up, she could make the whole world eclipse her.

He felt both regret and jealousy.

He was jealous of how Sui Zimo could be so lucky and fell in love with Lin Caisang at first sight. He didn't even mind when Lin Caisang became as fat as a pig.

"Master, those people from the Zhou family..."

Ban Jue watched the Zhou family's grandfather and grandson leave, and secretly leaned toward his master.

Those two people dared to come here, and they had bad intentions at first sight!

"Go and do it."

Sui Zimo gave him a look.

After receiving the order, he immediately followed Old Master Zhou and his son and grandson.

...

After the haircut ceremony, all the tables in the courtyard were filled with people, and there were also tables outside the courtyard.

Everyone sat down together, eating and drinking. It was very lively. This was because their Ya Village had not been so lively for a long time, but Old Master Zhou's family was not so lively anymore.

Of course, their house is also lively, but the liveliness is different.

At this time, Old Master Zhou already had two panda eyes, and his legs were lame when he walked.

And Zhou Liang, who was supporting him, wasn't doing much better either.

The corners of his mouth were bloodshot, and he was supporting his grandfather with one hand, but the other hand was hanging down, unable to use any strength.

The two pushed open the courtyard door and saw a woman sitting in the courtyard, smiling sarcastically at them.

"Hey, I'm back. How are you? Did you get the granddaughter-in-law and daughter-in-law you wanted back? Oh, I'm still thinking about Lin picking mulberries. The toad wants to eat swan meat. Do you have the ability? Lian Ya Tu Mo Lian can't even compare with one finger!"

Chapter 1854 I will be happy after scolding you.

"you--"

Old Master Zhou looked at his granddaughter-in-law, and then thought of Lin Caisang, whom he had just seen at the Lin family, standing next to Sui Zimo, looking so darling.

"Why did our Zhou family marry such a thing like you!"

"grandfather!"

After hearing his grandfather's words, Zhou Liang screamed and subconsciously looked at the woman.

Sure enough, when he saw the woman's darkened face, his heart suddenly thumped, and he secretly screamed that something was wrong.

"Well, my grandpa was angry outside. He..."

"You old immortal, dare to scold me?"

The woman stood up angrily and immediately summoned the two maids.

The next moment, the two maids rushed in front of Old Master Zhou and slapped him in the face several times, making him stunned.

Zhou Liang, who was on the side, didn't even dare to fart when he saw this scene.

He had already suffered a loss outside, but he didn't want to offend the evil star at home and cause more injuries to himself.

"You... ugh!"

After being beaten, Old Master Zhou was unconvinced and wanted to curse.

But Zhou Liang was faster than him. He directly raised his hand that could still move and covered his grandfather's mouth.

"Grandpa, please stop saying a word and stop making trouble."

"You loser!"

Old Master Zhou couldn't vent his anger on the woman, so he could only scold his grandson.

Zhou Liang didn't reply and let him curse.

He thought to himself, scold him, scold him, he would be happy after the scolding, and everyone would be relieved.

That night.

After a busy day, the Lin family's yard has been tidied up.

Knowing that their granddaughter was leaving soon, how could Lin Laogan and Lu Qiubo be willing to leave. The family sat in the main room and talked.

"Father, mother, don't worry, I will take good care of Sangsang." Seeing the reluctance in the eyes of the two elders, the eldest princess couldn't help but persuade her.

"Yes, grandpa, grandma, I'm going with you. I will take good care of Sang Sang and mother." Lin Changhong also assured the two elders.

This time they will go to Jian'an City first, and then set off from Jian'an City to Shaohua City. There is still a lot of walking to do on this journey.

And Sui Zimo will naturally follow. Otherwise, how can he rest assured if they are separated for only a few months? As for the matters in Shaohua City, they are not as important as him marrying his son's son.

"Grandma, grandma, even if I get married, I will come to visit you often in the future. Otherwise, you can move out and live with mother in the future, so that I can feel more at ease."

"That won't work."

Before Lin Laojie could speak, Lu Qiubo rejected his granddaughter's proposal.

Depending on their family's situation, they could have moved into a better house early in the morning, but they didn't want to.

Firstly, this is the place where their ancestors have lived for generations, and secondly, they have to wait here for the return of their boss, Lin Baizhong, which is also the most important point.

"Sang Sang, your grandpa and I can rest assured that you will marry Mo Lian. We believe he will take good care of you."

She spoke to her granddaughter.

At noon, because there were too many people in the family, congratulations came one after another, and it was not Sangsang's turn to come to the table for dinner. She also saw Sui Zimo specially cook a bowl of noodles for Sangsang and took her aside. He showed up after eating.

With such a grandson-in-law watching over her granddaughter, she can still rest assured.

Chapter 1855 A happy family

"You can do your own thing with peace of mind. As for grandpa and grandma, don't worry about it. Your uncle and aunt are still here. Grandma is just thinking about it. In the blink of an eye, my Sangsang has grown up. , it's time to get married.

She lamented that time flies by so quickly, so many years have passed without her realizing it.

Lin Caisang just smiled and said nothing after listening to her grandma's words.

"Grandma, Sister Sang Sang is married. You, Grandpa and us are here." Lin Caiqing looked at Lu Qiubo and said with a smile.

"snort."

Lu Qiubo deliberately pretended to be stern when he heard her young girl's voice.

"You girl, you talk nice, but you don't run out every day. Do you think you are helping Ya Guman do this and that, and Grandma really doesn't know anything?"

The girls have all grown up, and they all want to run away and think about getting married.

Of course she won't stop her. Although the name of the girl's family is very important, as long as the couple can live happily in the future and the family can be happy, that is more important than anything else.

"Well."

Lin Caiqing felt guilty for a while after being spoken to by her grandma. She blushed, lowered her head, and stopped talking.

"Grandma, I will let Cai Qing go to my house in the future."

Yaguman was also still there. When he heard Lu Qiubo's words, he thought she was angry and hurriedly said a word for Lin Caiqing.

"Grandma, you are so fierce, you scared Qing'er and Brother Gu."

Lin Caisang said with a smile, and then looked at Ya Guman.

"My grandma is joking with Qing'er. You two get along well, and she is happier than anyone else. Even in the future, you will still... Brother Guman, my Qing'er helps you so much, you should also often Come and sit at my house, then people in the village won't be able to say anything if they see you."

She pointed out.

Don't forget that her Qing'er kept running to Yagu Man's house. In the end, it was rumored that her Qing'er wanted to betray Yagu Man.

Then her grandpa and grandma would be really unhappy.

"I see."

Ya Guman was reminded by her and came to his senses.

Before, he had always felt that if he kept running to the Lin family, he would ruin Qing'er's reputation, but now that he thought about it, they were already engaged, so there was nothing wrong with him coming to the Lin family to help his future daughter-in-law and her family.

"It's good if you understand."

Lin Caisang nodded, then looked at Lin Laojie and Lu Qiubo.

"Grandma, Mom and I haven't left so early. I'll spend more time with you and Grandpa these days. Also, Zhong You..."

Turning her head, she looked at Zhong You.

Since Zhong You followed her, she has not taught him any serious medical skills, but has always asked him to do things for her.

Thinking about it now, I feel quite sorry for him.

"Zhong You, do you want to come with me, or stay at home?" she asked Zhong You.

"Master, I'd better follow you." Zhong You thought for a while and said.

The old man's leg has healed, and there will be nothing wrong with him staying here any longer. It is better to leave with the master and go outside to take a look.

"That's fine."

Lin Caisang nodded.

Then, she set her sights on Sui Zimo.

"Brother Mo Lian..."

"He has been following me these past few days."

Sui Zimo naturally understood what his son's son meant and immediately said to her.

Zhong You has been ignored by them and has not started spiritual cultivation yet, but after strengthening himself in the past few months, he can still follow them to Qianhuan Continent.

"good."

Lin Caisang responded.

Chapter 1856 Is everything okay?

"Zhong You, just follow Brother Mo Lian these days."

From that day on, Zhong You, who followed Sui Zimo, started to be busy. He was worked hard every day until he fell asleep at night, and almost no one saw him anymore.

A few days later, Lin Caisang and his party left Yacun and took a carriage to Jian'an City.

The journey was peaceful. No one noticed them despite their disguises. A month later, they arrived at the Princess's Mansion in Jian'an City and settled down.

Zhong You was still nowhere to be seen. Lin Changhong and Ban Jue were also nowhere to be seen. In the eldest princess's mansion, a large group of people came over, but in the end, only the eldest princess, Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo appeared. .

The eldest prince and the second prince knew that their aunt was back with their cousin, and they rushed over to visit.

But they were all driven back by the eldest princess.

The reason is that her precious daughter has just arrived. After traveling for so many days, she must have a good rest for a few days before she can be in the mood to meet those people outside.

The two princes left angrily, and then the emperor sent someone to inquire and wanted to invite Lin Caisang into the palace.

The eldest princess also refused the same treatment, and told the people in the palace that her women would not see anyone until they had a good rest!

Less than half an hour later, another person came to the eldest princess's mansion.

The eldest princess could not turn away this person, so she could only welcome him in.

"Auntie, I heard that Sangsang came here with you. Where is she?" The person who came was Lin Changfeng, who was left as an official in Jian'an City.

In half a year, he has become a court official who looks very authoritative. The look in his eyes when he looks at the eldest princess is different from before, and he no longer has the strong smile as before.

But his cousin is here, how can he not come and see her?

"Sangsang just came back. He said he was sleepy and he was falling asleep. After all, he had been traveling for a while." The eldest princess replied to him.

She invited Lin Changfeng to sit down, and the two began to chat.

"Changfeng, come here, sit down and say, are you still used to being in Jian'an City these days? Is everything okay?"

"I'm used to it. Fortunately, the eldest prince and the second prince take good care of me." Lin Changfeng replied.

"That's good."

The eldest princess could feel relieved after hearing his words.

Before she left, she told her two nephews to take more care of Lin Changfeng. After all, she was unfamiliar with the place and had no relatives in Jian'an City except her.

Although a man should not rely too much on others when he is away from home and must support himself, but in the end, it is always good to have someone to support him.

"Before coming here, your mother asked me to bring you two pairs of clothes. She sewed them herself. I brought them to you. You can pick them up later."

She explained to Lin Changfeng.

"Thank you, ma'am." Lin Changfeng thanked her.

"What's there to be thankful for?" The eldest princess chuckled.

The two of them sat, talking and waiting for Lin Caisang to wake up.

On the other side, Lin Caisang, who was supposed to be resting, did not rest. Instead, he was in the golden bead space, looking at the red oval cocoons in the pasture space.

"Is this an ice cocoon?"

She stretched out her hand, touched the small callus with her index finger, and then immediately retracted her hand.

"It's actually hot."

This batch of ice silkworms had already turned red into cocoons, but it was only after they all formed cocoons that she discovered that this was not an ice silkworm cocoon at all, but a fire silkworm cocoon.

Chapter 1857 Mutated again?

Is this... another mutation?

There is no need to think about it, there is only this possibility. The ice silkworm was raised in the pasture space and mutated again. It was obviously an ice silkworm before, but when it spun a cocoon, it became a fire cocoon.

But to her, fire silk is more important than ice silk. It can be used to make a fire silk coat for her brother Mo Lian. This will have a better effect and can suppress the poison in his body and prevent the poison from happening again. .

"It seems that this batch of silkworms are all fire cocoons."

Looking at the densely packed fire cocoons on the ground, it must be enough to make a whole set of clothes, and maybe I can make something else.

"Sonny, what are you doing?"

Sui Zimo had already practiced a set of swordsmanship not far away. He saw his little girl squatting on the ground motionless and walked over.

"Brother Melian, come and see, the ice silkworms have mutated again. This time they are spinning fire silkworm cocoons. When they emerge from the cocoons, I can make you a fire silkworm suit."

"Fire cocoon?"

Sui Zimo walked over, and sure enough, he saw many small red cocoons on the grass.

"This color suits you well. Why don't I make you a red dress?"

he suggested.

He had already taken back the ice silkworm clothes from Emperor Wei last time, but his son knew that he had mysophobia, so he took the ice silkworm clothes back and said he would make a few more for him.

In fact, the ice silkworms in Sang'er's space have spawned silkworms several times, and most of the ice silkworms have been made into clothes for him.

Regarding this situation, he could only feel sad secretly, thinking that Sonny should do more for herself.

However, the little girl is very stubborn, and the Golden Pearl Space is not something he can enter just if he wants to. For this, he has no choice but to let the little girl do it.

But this time, the fire silkworms were so red and beautiful, so they should make a set of clothes for their little son, right?

"no."

Hearing his words, Lin Caisang immediately shook his head.

"Why?"

Suizi Mo asked.

"This batch of ice silkworms was fed by me with medicine. It is the same as the first batch. It can only be worn by you to suppress the toxins in your body." Lin Caisang explained.

If it was the usual ice silk silk, and Brother Mo Lian wanted to make ice silk clothes for her, she would naturally have nothing to say.

In fact, every time she made clothes for Sui Zimo, she would take advantage of the extra fabrics and make herself a bellyband, handkerchief, etc. These were enough.

She has golden beads of space to hide in, but she doesn't actually need these things.

But if there are more ice silkworms in the future, then she might consider that every piece of clothing she and Brother Melian wear is made of ice silkworms.

But for now, just think about it and don't have any other unnecessary thoughts.

"If you want to make clothes for me, wait for the next batch and I'll raise a batch of ordinary ones. Then you can make them for me?"

Seeing him frown, she suggested.

In fact, she had already finished wearing the few boxes of clothes that her brother Mo Lian would give her every once in a while, so why bother making them again?

She felt that those clothes were already very good and there was no need to waste ice silk.

Perhaps, this thing can be of use in the Qianhuan Continent in the future.

She had to use it sparingly.

"Okay, let's go to the next batch."

Sui Zimo didn't say anything else and nodded.

"Sonny, come here."

He took her hand and pulled her close to him.

"Um?"

Lin Caisang raised his head and looked at Sui Zimo.

Chapter 1858 I don't wear it, you wear it

However, when she saw clearly what Sui Zimo was holding in his hand, her eyes suddenly widened.

"Brother Mo Lian, isn't this... the legendary double-colored jade?"

Legend has it that Shuangcai Jade is born with two colors, one white and one black. If there is too much white, it is warm jade, and if there is too much black, it is cool jade. Moreover, wearing Shuangcai Jade can protect you from all poisons. invade.

"Um."

Sui Zimo responded lightly.

"Put it on you."

With that said, he prepared to put the double-colored jade hanging with a red string on his little girl.

only.....

"I do not want.

Lin Caisang refused without thinking.

"Um?"

Sui Zimo narrowed his eyes unconsciously.

His son, don't you want it?

"Well."

After the words were spoken, Lin Caisang realized that he had refused too firmly.

"No, Brother Mo Lian, you should know that I am a doctor myself. I am very good at preventing others from poisoning me. I will definitely not be poisoned. Moreover, even if I am poisoned, as long as I enter the golden Pearl Space can be cured.

In this way, this double-colored jade is of no use on my body. Since it is of no use on me, it is better for you to wear it. It is also extremely dangerous around you. "

She hurriedly explained.

Hearing her words, Sui Zimo chuckled.

"My situation is similar to yours, so you don't need to wear this."

Although he is not a doctor, and he does not have the omnipotent golden bead space, he is poisoned by a strange poison.

Ordinary people trying to poison his body would not have any effect. Instead, they would just scare the snake away. But since his body was wrapped in sets of ice silk clothes made by the little girl, it was even less likely that he would be injured.

"Anyway, I won't wear it, but you will." Lin Caisang couldn't help but refuse and said.

"Otherwise, let's wear it for Chang Hong?"

Sui Zimo thought for a long time before he proposed to his son.

Lin Changhong is going to Qianhuan Continent with them, and Sonny is probably the one who is most worried about him.

If they really arrived in Qianhuan Continent and were discovered by those people, Lin Changhong would be the most vulnerable to injury, because Lin Changhong was Son'er's weakness, and Son'er was his weakness.

"OK."

Lin Caisang nodded immediately.

"But wouldn't it be bad for a man to wear a jade pendant on his chest?"

She tilted her head, thought for a while, and asked her brother Mo Lian.

Sui Zimo: "..."

That little girl just told him to wear it. Will it be fine if he wears it?

"No, it's hidden in my clothes, out of sight." He said seriously.

Lin Caisang: "!"

Isn't it really bad?

You know, this piece of double-color jade was given to her by Sui Zimo, and the patterns engraved on it were the girl's favorite patterns.

However, it's for her brother anyway, so it doesn't matter, just wear it.

"Okay then, should you send it to my brother, or myself?"

she asked.

As soon as she arrived in Jian'an City, she sent her brother to her farm. He must practice every day.

"I will send it there. If you want it here, don't go anywhere. The eldest princess's mansion is not peaceful either." Sui Zimo said.

As soon as he arrived, he felt that there were many people staring at him outside the eldest princess's house. Those people were not here to play, they were all here for Son'er's mother.

However, those people didn't notice them coming in, so they didn't do anything, and they were quite calm.

Chapter 1859 Otherwise, do more

...

Among Lin Caisang's farm.

When Sui Zimo arrived in person, Ban Jue had just received a secret letter from Shaohua City. He was on his way to see his prince, and his prince came towards him.

"My lord, something happened."

He immediately came to Sui Zimo and said with a bad expression.

"What's the matter?"

Sui Zimo asked aloud.

In fact, no matter what it is, it must have something to do with Emperor Wei.

If you don't make some noise while he's away, you won't be the vicious Emperor Wei.

"At the end of the year, he was poisoned. Ban Jue said to him.

"died?"

Suizi Mo asked.

"Not dead, but not far away from death. It's a strange poison that has no cure." Ban Jue said.

This Emperor Wei is really capable. He would even kill his own son for the sake of the throne. The poison is so strange that it has no cure. Isn't he afraid of retribution?

However, losing a son is not retribution.

But this kind of retribution shouldn't be painful or itchy for Emperor Wei, right? After all, after losing one son, he still has several sons.

"Even so, let the one in the cold palace be poisoned by the same poison." Sui Zimo ordered.

"Concubine Lian?"

Ban Jue's eyes lit up when he heard his prince's instructions.

The only people who could be reused by Emperor Wei and could take on important responsibilities were Sui Zilin and Sui Zijin.

Now that Sui Zilin has been poisoned and is about to die, the only person that Emperor Wei can reuse is Sui Zijin.

But what if...

Sui Zijin's mother-in-law was also poisoned, and it was exactly the same as the poison that Sui Zilin had. It was impossible for Sui Zijin not to discover it.

His mother and concubine died tragically due to his father's plan. Can he still be separated from his father?

Even if Sui Zijin could ignore his mother and concubine, what about Emperor Wei? He is a person who has always been suspicious. No matter what, he will never trust his son Sui Zijin again.

"Then where are the others..."

He felt that just poisoning the person in the cold palace was not enough.

Now that you've done it, why don't you just do a little more.

"No need."

Sui Zimo objected coldly.

"Have you made any arrangements for the journey?"

he asks.

"Everything has been arranged. There will be no mistakes, Your Majesty." Ban Jue replied.

This is a lifelong event for their prince. How can they, as subordinates, not keep an eye on it and ensure the safety of the mistress all the way to Shaohua City?

"My lord, do you want to come out first, or what?" he asked.

"When the time comes, I will have someone pretend to be me and come to the border town to welcome the bride. I will arrive at the border town as early as possible." Suizi Mo said.

After all, I don't want to worry about Son'er alone. There will be no peace along the way. Even if Emperor Wei almost loses his power, he will not let him marry the princess so easily.

Even if the princess was disdained by Emperor Wei himself, he would not take advantage of her.

"Okay, Your Majesty, my subordinates will make arrangements right now." Ban Jue responded.

More than ten days later, in the imperial palace of Weigu.

Finally taking all major national affairs into his own hands, the emperor was handling the affairs of state in the royal study when he suddenly received a hurried report from Eunuch Gui that Concubine Lian was poisoned in the cold palace.

"What did you say?!"

He slapped the memorial on the table and stared at Eunuch Gui.

"Poisoned, what kind of poison was it?"

he asks.

Chapter 1860 Who else knows?

"Back to the emperor, the one in the cold palace was poisoned by the strange poison 'Rue'. Eunuch Gui glanced at the emperor secretly and replied.

"What?!"

At this moment, the emperor was really confused.

How could it be the poison of 'Rue Xiang'? He didn't leak that poison to others, he only gave it to Sui Zilin.

But how...how could even Concubine Lian be poisoned by this kind of poison?

Once, he thought it was just a year later, and he would die when he died. He still had another year to advance.

Although Sui Zijin was poisoned before and his body has not fully recovered yet, he will get better sooner or later, and he feels that it is good to get better later.

After all, he himself was still young, and it would be a long time before he could sit on the throne. He did not want a healthy son to compete with him for this position.

But now, someone told him that Sui Zijin's biological mother and Sui Zilin were poisoned by the same poison!

At this moment, he was really panicked.

He didn't like any of the other sons. They were all useless. Only two, Sui Zijin and Sui Zilin, could barely be reused.

But Suizi was against his father, so he couldn't stay.

But what about Sui Zijin?

If Concubine Lian was really dead like Sui Zilin, how could Sui Zijin not know?

He suddenly felt that Sui Zijin couldn't keep him. Keeping him would be like keeping a poisonous snake by his side.

"Who else knows about this?"

He raised his head, looked at Eunuch Gui, and asked.

"Back to the Emperor, because Concubine Lian's poisoning was discovered by His Royal Highness Prince Jin first, and because Concubine Lian is in the cold palace, she has to go through a lot of reporting if she wants to find the doctor. Therefore, the people in the palace who know about this matter, A lot of it, even the Queen Mother and the Empress have received the news."

Eunuch Gui said to the emperor.

"When I heard the news, I wanted to stop it, but it was too late."

After hearing his words, the emperor felt as if a big invisible hand had strangled his throat, and he was almost suffocated to death!

The Queen Mother and the Empress both know, doesn't that mean half the people in the palace know? Even if he wanted to keep silent, it was impossible. Besides, he didn't know how many people outside the palace had gotten the news.

"Xiao Guizi, recruit Dr. Hong into the palace immediately!" He ordered Eunuch Gui.

There is no other way now but to stabilize the poison of Concubine Lian and Sui Zilin first. Detoxification is necessary.

Otherwise, even if Sui Zi Lin really died as he wished, he would suffer revenge from the Queen, the Queen's family, and Sui Zi Jin.

Although he is the emperor, he can't withstand so many people's assassination!

What's more, there is a queen mother in the palace who is watching him and may pull him off the throne at any time.

"Yes, Your Majesty, I will go right away."

Eunuch Gui responded, turned around and left.

Another place, the Queen's Palace.

When she first heard that the woman in the cold palace was also poisoned, she was obviously stunned.

She knew very well that the poison on her son was caused by the emperor, but who could have put the poison on Bitch Lian?

emperor?

The answer is of course impossible. Since the Emperor poisoned Lin'er, he would not let himself be exposed, and he would never poison Concubine Lian with the same kind of poison.

Isn't this just waiting for revenge from Sui Zijin?

Even if Sui Zijin believed that the emperor was not responsible for his biological mother's poisoning, it was still inseparable from the emperor.
