

Star of Space 1881

Chapter 1881 Let someone else do it!

"How miserable!"

One eunuch couldn't help but shook his head and sighed softly.

"Shh!"

The other eunuch next to him heard what he said and hurriedly made a gesture of silence.

"Do you want to die? If the emperor hears what you say, a hundred heads will not be enough to chop him off!"

This person was killed by the emperor. To say she was miserable is not to say that the emperor was cruel and inhumane. If the emperor heard this, it would be terrible. Not only him, but all the eunuchs and maids who were together were different. Want to run!

He didn't want to know whether others were miserable, but he wanted to live a few more years to watch, and didn't want to die so early.

The news that the emperor was tortured to death in his palace spread quickly, and the Queen Mother's palace was the first to know.

"This bastard!"

The rosary in the Queen Mother's hand suddenly hit the table.

"The Queen Mother, please don't be angry. You also know the Emperor's temper. Once you are angry, you will be fine." Seeing that the Queen Mother was angry for the Emperor again, Mammy hurriedly advised her.

This emperor is really a confused person. Who is the queen mother doing this for? Is it not for him?

If the emperor really brought the woman who should have belonged to Sui Zimo to his side, wouldn't that have completely offended Sui Zimo.

With Sui Zimo's current abilities, can he let the emperor go?

After hearing what her mama said, the Queen Mother took a deep breath and sneered.

"If the Ai family really got angry with him, I'm afraid he would have pissed him off long ago!" She said angrily.

Her son could curse his mother to death in his own palace, what else could he not do?

She really regrets it.

If I had known that my son was such a thing, even if I supported other princes, I should not have supported him to rise to power. Now, because of this emperor, Weiguo is about to be ruined!

"Go and tell the emperor that if he doesn't want to take the throne, the Ai family won't mind and let someone else do it!" She ordered her mother.

"this....."

When grandma heard what she said, she was immediately embarrassed.

Even if she had to say this, she shouldn't be the one to convey it. What would the emperor think if he found out?

"Empress Dowager, the emperor just couldn't think clearly at the moment. After some time, he will understand." She could only advise.

Queen Mother: "..."

After a while, when will we go?

When she is completely old, dies, and lets the emperor torment Wei Guo, will he wake up?

If you really wait until that time, it will be too late!

"If the Aijia asks you to go, go and say that this is what the Aijia means."

She glared at her grandma and said.

Grandma: "..."

She had no choice but to accept the order and go to the emperor's palace to deliver the message.

...

In the Queen's Palace.

"Ah."

The queen smiled coldly when she heard the news.

"This is really a long-lasting thing."

A majestic emperor actually tortured his palace maid to death in bed, and he was the kind who refused to rest in peace.

If word of this gets out, will Weiguo lose his face?

It would make sense to say that the palace maid was killed because she did something wrong and the emperor was angry. However, the emperor used perverted methods to torture the palace maid to death!

This is the first time I've heard of it!

"What did the Queen Mother say?" She looked at the people around her and asked.

"Go back to the queen."

Mammy glanced at her and replied.

Chapter 1882 Too many people have been tortured to death

"The Queen Mother sent a message to the nun beside her. The general meaning is that it is time for the Emperor to come to an end.

"In that case, I will help the Queen Mother."

The queen's lips curved into a wicked smile and she murmured.

Soon, following the rumors that Prince Mo and Princess Liang were about to get married, another rumor spread in Shaohua City, that is, the emperor favored a maid in his palace, and then, he Directly tortured to death.

Once this news came out, it was a sensation in Shaohua City.

Not long after, officials from all over the court came forward one after another, asking the emperor to clarify the facts, or to take the initiative to admit his mistakes.

Although everyone knows in their hearts that as an emperor, they will never admit that they will make any mistakes, but this mistake is really too big.

The so-called mistake in the minds of the officials was naturally not such a trivial matter as the emperor torturing a little maid to death.

But why did it spread so widely when it was obviously just such a small thing?

In one day, everyone in the streets and alleys of Shaohua City asked who still didn't know that the emperor tortured a palace maid to death!

The emperor listened to the advice of the officials and thought about what he had been told by the people, and the anger in his heart soared upwards.

Of course he knew who it was that would openly oppose him.

Besides Suizilin's mother and queen whom he almost poisoned to death, who else would want him to die so much?

But unfortunately, he couldn't do anything to this woman, because he always remembered what the cloaked man told him, telling him not to go to the queen, because the cloaked man still had a place to get the queen.

Therefore, in the face of the Queen's dirty tricks behind his back, he could only endure it for the time being.

What he didn't know was that the cloaked man had already been captured by Sui Zimo and the others. If he had known, he wouldn't have endured it so hard.

"Why do those two things have to go against me? What benefits can they get from going against me!"

He was extremely angry, but had nowhere to vent. He wanted to get a woman to torture her, but then he remembered the rumors about him in Shaohua City mentioned by the officials.

He hated it so much that he could only grind his teeth.

He had no choice but to endure it, almost causing internal injuries.

Prince Mo's Mansion.

When he got the news that the emperor tortured someone to death, Lin Caisang felt sympathy for the palace maid, but Sui Zimo had an expression of not being surprised.

"Why, Brother Mo Lian, from the look on your face, he wouldn't have tortured many people to death, right?"

She raised her eyebrows and asked.

"Ah."

Sui Zimo chuckled.

A lot of people? These three words are indeed not good adjectives.

"It should be said that he has tortured too many people to death, all in his palace. It's just this time that the news leaked out."

he said.

"Sure enough, he is not a good emperor." Lin Caisang curled his lips and said.

"Now that the news has leaked out, will the Emperor take any further action?"

she asked.

Hearing this, Sui Zimo shook his head.

"Won't."

The Queen had not been touched before, and she still would not be moved now.

There has been an uproar in Shaohua City. If he touches the queen at this time, the consequences will not be something he can bear. Not only the officials, but also the people will want to remove that person from the throne of the emperor. Pulled down.

Chapter 1883 Trying on wedding clothes every day

Therefore, the emperor should not take this risk.

"Sonny, we don't have to worry about other things. Our wedding is scheduled for five days. Let's try on the wedding dress while we have some free time."

He suggested to Lin Caisang.

Lin Caisang: "..."

As the princess of Liang Kingdom, when she came in from outside Shaohua City, she wore a wedding dress embroidered by her mother herself.

But for the wedding dress on the day of the wedding, her brother Mo Lian refused to allow her to wear it, so he had to make one for her. Of course, she came up with the design herself.

The two of them can be considered a division of labor and cooperation.

but.....

What she wanted to say was, hadn't she already tried on that wedding dress? There is no need to change the size or anything else, it's just right.

Why even try?

and.....

I tried it the day before yesterday, I tried it yesterday, and I will try it today!

She just wanted to ask, should she try again tomorrow, until the day she gets married?

Her brother Mo Lian really leaves people speechless.

"Didn't the Queen Mother's decree say that we have to go to worship our ancestors tomorrow? Do we have to make preparations?"

She didn't want to try on the wedding dress anymore, so she changed the subject and asked.

"Sacrifice to ancestors?"

Sui Zimo chuckled, raised his hand and tapped the tip of her nose.

"Do you need me to sacrifice the ancestor of the Sui family?"

The Queen Mother's decree is really good enough. She is not afraid that he will go to the imperial mausoleum and directly demolish the imperial mausoleum. ၀၇၇

"I would like to take it apart and see what hidden treasures are hidden inside. By the way, I can take some back."

"Never."

As soon as he finished speaking, Lin Caisang hurriedly said.

She doesn't need to bring back some of the things buried among the dead!

If she really needs something, she must have earned it with her own real skills. She won't even think about those dead things.

"Brother Mo Lian, don't think about those things. There are already enough things in Prince Mo's Mansion." She said to him.

"Um."

Sui Zimo also remembered it. The little girl didn't like hearing those dark things, so she nodded.

"Stop talking about this, go try on the wedding dress."

With that said, he took her little hand and went back to try on the wedding dress.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Could she not go and do something else? Why does it have to be to try on wedding dresses?

Is it possible to try on a wedding dress and gain insights?

"ah!"

In the iron prison, Lao Wu was still being interrogated.

The interrogation has almost been completed on everything that can be interrogated from the mouth, and what needs to be explained has been explained.

"Is there anything else that has not been explained? Let's talk about it." The guard looked at Lao Wu and asked again.

In the past few days, they were almost exhausted from interrogating him, and this cloaked man was also tortured by them... Oh, no, he was tortured by their mistress until he became inhuman.

It was obvious that he had only been tied up all along, but they also forced him to eat, and he didn't miss a single meal.

But he looked so embarrassed, as if he had been starving for several years and was losing weight day by day.

"I...have already said it."

Lao Wu was breathing heavily. He couldn't even hold his head back anymore. He really wanted to die.

But he couldn't die, he had to live and suffer. Those people didn't let him die so easily, and they wanted to pry something out of him.

But really, he has already said everything that can be said and explained everything. What else do they want?

"Have you already said it? Why don't we believe it?" The guard didn't believe what the cloaked man said at all.

Chapter 1884 Sky City

"Shouldn't a person like you keep some secrets so that you can change your life with my prince? After everything has been explained, isn't it the only way for you to die?"

Lao Wu: "..."

He doesn't want to live now, he just wants to die. Please help me, can you?

"Since you don't want to tell me, I'll ask you.

The guard looked at Lao Wu and really didn't know what to say, so he said.

"You...you asked."

Lao Wu said weakly.

Anyway, I have already said so much. It doesn't matter if I say a little more. The most important things have already been said.

"What major events have happened in the Ziyan Kingdom, or Qianhuan Continent, in the past thirty years? What my prince wants to hear is the biggest event." The guard asked him.

event?

Lao Wu raised his head with great effort, looked at the guard in confusion, and then turned his attention to the former cloaked man.

"What do you think I do? It's none of my business."

Seeing Lao Wu looking towards him, the former cloaked man was shocked.

Why are you looking at him like this? He is nothing. What he knows, Lao Wu also knows, and knows better than him. What's the use of looking at him?

After a long time, Lao Wu finally figured it out, and then continued to focus on the guards.

"If I tell you, will you let me go?"

He put forward his own conditions. Suddenly, he had the courage to live and didn't want to die like this.

Even though he had betrayed his master, he still didn't want to die so young. At least, he could find a place to hide where no one could find him and live a stable life.

"Let you go? Then it depends on what you said. Is it worth it for my prince to let you go? You can say it first." The guard would not tell Lao Wu any conditions, but he also used a roundabout tone. Lao Wu said.

This person who wants his prince's life still wants them to let him go?

It's too beautiful to think about, right?

But at this moment, Lao Wu had no intention of thinking about the guard's words. He only knew that if he could tell what they wanted to know, he could live.

"Twenty-two years ago, the only son of the Lord of Sky City disappeared when he was just born. Is this a big deal?" he said.

"Lao Wu!"

The former cloaked man heard his words and shouted angrily.

Sky City is located in Qianhuan Continent. It is a national city. All the seven countries respect it. The only son of the Lord of Sky City will be the Lord of Sky City in the future. Which one of the Seven Kingdoms dares to mention this important matter casually.

Lao Wu just said it directly? !

Although, he had also speculated in his mind that the child his master got, which is now Sui Zimo, and he was not allowed to kill him, could it be that he was really the son of the Lord of Sky City?

Apart from this son, the Lord of Sky City has not had another son and a half daughters over the years.

If this son is found, he will directly be the young master of Sky City!

"You must be crazy, you really dare to say anything." He gritted his teeth and looked at Lao Wu and said.

"Sky City?"

The guard didn't know where Sky City was, but he also knew that it must be a very powerful place on Qianhuan Continent.

"You go and report to the prince, I will stay here and continue to ask questions." He turned his head and ordered to his companion beside him.

"good."

The companion responded, then turned around and walked out of the iron prison.

Chapter 1885 The wife of the leader of Haibo Kingdom

"Sky City?"

The same question murmured from Lin Caisang's lips.

She had never heard her mother mention these three words. What kind of place was this Sky City?

There is a sky city on Qianhuan Continent?

"Go down."

Sui Zimo dismissed the guards, leaving only himself and his son's son in the study.

"Yes, I am resigning."

The guard responded and retreated.

"Brother Melian, my mother has never mentioned Sky City to me.

After everyone left the sky, Lin Caisang said to Sui Zimo.

Her mother knew that she would go to Qianhuan Continent, so she told her many things about Qianhuan Continent, but she did not mention Sky City.

If Sky City was really that important in Qianhuan Continent, how could her mother not mention it at all?

"There are two possibilities. One, your mother has never heard of Sky City, and she doesn't think we should go to Sky City. Second, your mother has someone she doesn't want to see in Sky City, or there is someone she wants to forget. She instinctively doesn't want to mention Sky City."

Sui Zimo came up with two possibilities.

"In other words, there is someone in Sky City that she has always missed, and because she misses her so much, she instinctively doesn't want to mention it. Lin Caisang said the third possibility.

But no matter how many possibilities there are, they are just guesses. They don't know where this sky city is.

"Maybe... maybe."

Sui Zimo pulled her into his arms and whispered.

"Brother Mo Lian, I suddenly want to go to Qianhuan Continent now." Lin Caisang said dully in his arms.

She is really becoming more and more curious about Qianhuan Continent. She really wants to go to Qianhuan Continent now to see what it is like there, to find out her father and the life experience of her brother Mo Lian.

"Soon." Sui Zimo said.

They will soon go to Qianhuan Continent. Although he doesn't want to go to that place, he must go.

The day of getting married is getting closer and closer, and tomorrow is the day of getting married.

The palace of Prince Mo was full of joy, the maids and servants were all busy, and there were also many officials who came a day in advance to express their congratulations.

In the entire Prince Mo Mansion, the most leisurely person is Lin Caimulberry, right?

At this moment, she was sitting in front of the jade mirror in the Golden Pearl Space, studying the jade book in her hand.

"Ziyou...eh."

Just as he was about to raise his head to call Sui Ziyou, he suddenly saw many words appearing on the jade mirror.

"The mission is finally here. I haven't received a mission for a long time. This high-level mission... Haibo Country?"

Looking at the words displayed on the jade mirror, she sensitively caught one word, that is - Hai Boguo!

If she remembered correctly, there should be no Haibo Country here. Moreover, her mother had never mentioned Haibo Country. Qianhuan Continent also did not have this country?

So where will this country be?

But no matter where it is, this mission must still be accepted.

"Brother Yujing, please be more specific about this high-level mission." She said to Yujing.

'Dear Master, the wife of the leader of Haibo Kingdom has a strange disease. As soon as she sees the sun, her whole body will begin to fester. I have visited famous doctors but can't cure it. ' A few lines of words appeared on the jade mirror.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Brother Yujing, tell me clearly. Are you sure you have a strange disease and not poisoning?

But Yu Jing said it was a strange disease, so it must be a strange disease.

Chapter 1886 No one is inside

What exactly happened would be known only after she went to see it.

"Okay, I'll take it," she said.

"Scared me to death, scared me to death."

After coming out of the Jinzhu Space, she went directly back to the backyard, patting her chest as she walked into the room.

"Sonny, what's wrong? Why do you look so ugly?"

Sui Zimo just came back from outside and saw Lin Caisang's pale face. He immediately stepped forward and asked.

Hearing his voice, Lin Caisang stopped and looked at him silently.

"I...just accepted a mission..."

"Is there another mission on Jade Mirror?" Sui Zimo raised his eyebrows and asked.

Since they started practicing spiritual cultivation, the mission in the Golden Pearl Space has never come out again, and the Jade Mirror has become completely silent.

Unexpectedly, there are missions available now?

"right."

Lin Caisang took a deep breath and nodded.

"There is a high-level mission, I accepted it, but..."

"how?"

Sui Zimo asked her.

Is this task difficult? Look how scared his little girl was.

"Don't want to do it?"

"It's not that I don't want to do it. Lin Caisang shook his head.

"I received the task of treating the wife of a country named Haibo, but Haibo... there are no human beings in it."

She never imagined that she would go directly from the Jinzhu Space to the so-called Haibo Kingdom, where everyone was not a human being, but a beast-shaped person...

Yujing didn't tell her clearly. If she had known, she wouldn't have accepted it.

However, she didn't know earlier. Even if she knew that the so-called Haibo Kingdom was full of beast-shaped people, she would have accepted this mission.

If not for anything else, just because this Haibo Kingdom is located on the Qianhuan Continent. This time, they can directly reach the Qianhuan Continent without passing through the Baibind Mountain. Although it is only a temporary trip, it is enough to make them feel comfortable. They can first understand the so-called Thousand Fantasy Continent.

"Not a human? What is that?"

Sui Zimo took her into his arms, patted her back and comforted her silently.

"Brozoids."

Lin Caisang curled her lips. As soon as she closed her eyes now, she would feel that there were countless beast-like people with long hair standing in front of her talking to her.

She had never been exposed to that situation before, and it was really frightening.

"The so-called Haibo Country is a beast country on the Qianhuan Continent. It is full of magical beasts, and many of them can speak human language." She said.

"It's okay, I'm here, I'll go with you." Sui Zimo comforted her.

"Brother Mo Lian, aren't you surprised? I received a mission on Qianhuan Continent." Seeing that there was no surprise in his tone, Lin Caisang asked him back.

The mission she received this time was on the Thousand Fantasy Continent. It was something that they had never dared to think about before. Now, they can go to the Thousand Fantasy Continent without any effort.

"Isn't this something to be expected?"

Sui Zimo was not that surprised. His son was so powerful. It was normal for him to receive a rescue mission on Qianhuan Continent. It would be abnormal for him not to receive it.

"It's just that we are getting married tomorrow. Are you sure you want to go to Haibo Country today?"

he asks.

"this....."

Lin Caisang looked embarrassed.

"Let's go in a few days. The wedding is the most important and cannot be delayed."

Seeing how confused she was, Sui Zimo chuckled.

"No, let's go take a look today and understand the condition of the wife of the king first. When we go back in a few days, we can prescribe the right medicine, right?"

Chapter 1887 Are you here to cheat?

he suggested.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang's eyes lit up.

"Okay then, you go with me."

She was alone and really couldn't make up her mind to go to that scary place.

There are monsters all around, both humanoid and animal-like. It feels very strange to look at them, especially since they are walking around around me!

"good."

Sui Zimo responded lightly.

Haibo country.

This is a large country with many types of magical beasts and spiritual beasts. Everyone has gathered together to form a force that can fight against the human race.

And their leader is the king of the country, Hai Liantian.

This time, the country's leader Hai Liantian issued a notice that as long as someone can save his wife, he can let the doctor contract five spiritual beasts in Haibo Kingdom.

This is a temptation that couldn't be greater. Five spiritual beasts. When has the leader of Haibo Kingdom been so generous to humans?

And all of this is for their wife.

"This disease, Madam Madam, must be too strange. She has not been cured even after being treated for so long. I don't know what's going on? How could we in Haibo Kingdom have such a disease?"

Because it is a beast country, even the main city of Haibo Kingdom is in a vast forest.

The notice was posted on the branch of a big tree. Next to it, many people were whispering.

"Who says it isn't?"

As soon as this man's words came out, someone immediately echoed them.

"How can this person's skin ulcerate when exposed to sunlight? I've never seen it before."

"No, I heard that the king has invited many pharmacists from the human race, but to no avail. The ulcer on the wife of the king seems to be getting worse and worse."

"I know this. I heard that half of the face of the king's wife was rotten. It is said that it was because she was accidentally exposed to the sun. It's scary."

"hiss!"

After hearing these words, the beast-shaped people gasped, feeling pitiful for their king's wife.

"I don't know who will be able to save and cure the king's wife in the end. There are five spiritual beasts. I heard that many human pharmacists have been here, but none of them can cure the king's wife's illness. OK."

"That's because they're useless!"

"They are useless, so we, the people of Haibo Kingdom, still can't cure the disease of the wife of the country."

The whispers among the people became louder and louder, and finally gradually evolved into two factions. One group believed that the illness of the king's wife would definitely be cured, while the other group felt that the country's wife was on her deathbed this time. It's coming.

But no matter what they thought, these words were only spoken in private, and no one dared to say them in front of the king.

"Sonny, this is it."

Sui Zimo led Lin Caisang to the big tree, looked at the notice above, and said to his son.

For the orcs in the Haibo Kingdom, it is not surprising that the human race appears here. After all, although they are a beast country, they still have to do business with the human race, right?

Therefore, they did not pay much attention to the appearance of Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang.

until.....

Sui Zimo directly tore the notice off the tree pole, folded it several times, and handed it to his son's hands.

"Oh, I can't tell. These two people are here to treat the wife of the king. Why do they look so young? Is that okay?"

"Is this a fake person, here to cheat?"

Chapter 1888 My wife is pregnant

"Can these two people cure our king's wife? Isn't she too young?"

When everyone saw Sui Zimo tearing down the notice, they began to discuss them one after another, and the discussion was very loud, as if they were afraid that Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo wouldn't hear.
Windings:

Lin Caisang: "..."

Does her tenderness have anything to do with whether she can cure the disease?

Why do they think they can't treat diseases because they are young?

Although she also felt that the illness suffered by the wife of Haibo Kingdom was a bit difficult to understand, but since Jin Zhu had given her this task, there must be a reason, right?

She will definitely be able to cure the wife of Haibo Kingdom.

Soon, the leader of Haibo Kingdom got the news, and another human race person revealed the notice.

Although he didn't have much hope in his heart, he still ordered people to bring Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo back to his huge cave.

Lin Caisang just watched, watching those humanoid beasts take her and her family Mo Lian away. Then when she glanced back, she saw someone else climbing up the tree pole where the notice was originally posted. A notice was posted.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Doesn't it cost money to put up this notice, or does he have no confidence in her at all?

Presumably, it should be the latter.

But she ignored them and followed the people sent by the king to the huge cave.

"black!"

This was the first impression Lin Caisang had after being brought to the cave.

"Sir, since you are a pharmacist, please show it to my wife first." The king was very anxious. When he saw Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang, he instinctively thought that the pharmacist was Sui Zimo, not that he looked young. Lin Caisang, the younger one.

"Master, my wife is the pharmacist, I... am not." Sui Zimo replied lightly.

"Well!"

The king was so speechless by his words that he was almost speechless.

He had always thought that women were accessories to men. When he saw the two of them coming in together, he naturally thought that the woman came with the man and came to take care of him.

How could you imagine that this woman is the pharmacist, and the man came with her?

"I'm sorry, I'm sorry, it was my fault."

His face was full of apologies, and he quickly apologized to Lin Caisang.

In this Thousand Illusion Continent, pharmacists are the most offended people, because if you offend them, they will most likely kill you without knowing it!

"Girl, please help my wife take a look. She is in too much pain."

"Um."

Lin Caisang didn't say anything more, just responded lightly.

Following the king's gaze, she looked at the woman lying on the stone bed, still moaning in pain, then walked towards her and felt her pulse.

Soon, she frowned and looked at the woman on the bed in surprise.

"Madam, is she pregnant?"

Although it was a question, Lin Caisang was very sure in her heart. It was impossible for her to get her Ximai wrong. The wife of the king was really pregnant.

"Yes, yes." The king heard her words and responded repeatedly.

The wife is pregnant with his child, and it is also his only child so far. It is very likely that he will be the future young master of Haibo Kingdom, so nothing can happen to her.

"My wife is pregnant. She is pregnant with the young master of Haibo Kingdom. Girl, what is going on with my wife? Is she poisoned?"

Chapter 1889 Did he harm my wife?

he asked anxiously.

"It's not poisoning."

Lin Caisang shook her head. She already had many speculations about the illness of the king's wife.

But the only thing she could be sure of was that the illness suffered by the king's wife was definitely not poisoning, and it was not even considered an illness.

What the hell is going on?

"That is....."

"It's not like I'm sick."

The king was just about to ask a question when he heard Lin Caisang's answer.

He paused and really wanted to ask, if it wasn't poisoning or illness, what was going on with his wife?

"Master, let me write you a prescription first. You can order someone to prepare the medicine according to the prescription, boil it and give it to your wife. She will feel better." Lin Caisang stood up and came to the stone table. I took out a pen and paper and started writing.

Soon, a prescription was written and she handed it directly into the hands of the king.

The king also hesitated in Vladivostok, so he immediately called for someone to come and get the medicine according to Lin Caisang's prescription.

"Girl, what is my wife's situation like..."

"Let's go outside and talk."

Before the king could finish speaking, Lin Caisang interrupted him, and after saying a few words, he took the lead to go out of the cave.

Sui Zimo followed closely, and soon the leader of Haibo Kingdom followed.

"girl....."

"Your Majesty, let me ask, when did Madam start suffering from such strange symptoms?"

When he came outside, Lin Caisang could ask directly. He didn't need to take into account the wife of the king inside, and asked the situation clearly first.

"Just three months ago, it suddenly became like this."

The king of the country was also very anxious in his heart, so he naturally told everything he knew about Lin Caisang.

"Three months ago?"

Lin Caisang raised an eyebrow.

Isn't it true that the wife of the king is three months pregnant? Could it be that the strange symptoms she has are related to her pregnancy?

But looking at the expression on the face of the leader of the Haibo Kingdom, it seems that such a thing has never happened before. In other words, such weird symptoms have never appeared among the orcs.

So what's going on?

"Three months ago, did anyone come to see the king's wife?" she asked.

Since the reason cannot be found from the wife of the king herself, the only choice is to investigate others.

"Three months ago?"

The leader of Haibo Kingdom was stunned for a moment, then he thought about it carefully, and then thought about it again, and finally, his eyes lit up and he remembered.

"My wife's cousin came here three months ago and said that he brought some things from the clan for my wife. Because I was busy with business at the time, I only asked my wife to receive him. Could it be that... he was the one who caused harm to me? My wife?"

If that's the case, then he will never let this bitch off lightly!

"The king is too worried, I just asked casually."

Lin Caisang naturally wouldn't say anything. She hadn't found out the cause of the disease yet.

"Just a random question?"

Naturally, the king of the country would not be dismissed by Lin Caisang so easily. The seeds of doubt in his heart had already been planted.

"By the way, Lord, where are the people waiting around Madam? I have some questions that I want to ask them." Lin Caisang asked.

"Here, I'll have someone take you there."

The king responded immediately, and soon, two humanoid beasts came over and led Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo away.

"Cousin... it seems that he is not a good person!" The king couldn't help but said as he looked at the two people's retreating figures.

Chapter 1890 The relationship is very good

After a while, several humanoid beasts were brought to Lin Caisang. When they saw her, they all knelt down towards her and said hello.

"Everyone, get up."

Lin Caisang watched them get up before speaking.

"How long have you been with Madam?" she asked.

"More than ten years."

one of them replied.

She was the first to follow Madam for more than ten years, that is, after Madam married the king, she followed Madam.

"It's been more than ten years.

Lin Caisang looked at that person with a smile on his face.

"Then you must know your wife very well, right?"

"Yes Yes."

At first, the man didn't dare to reply, but after thinking about it, he realized that this girl came from someone close to the king, so he didn't dare to hide it and answered.

"I heard that your wife has a cousin who came here a few days ago?" Lin Caisang asked her.

"right."

The man answered.

They all know about the cousin of the wife of the king.

The relationship between the wife of the king and that person is quite good, so good that when they are talking, they often ask everyone around them to retreat, leaving only the two of them.

"Madam is very good to Mr. Xiang. The relationship between the two is very good. Mr. Xiang often comes to visit Madam."

"Very good? What's a good idea? Better than the king's wife and the king?" Lin Caisang asked again.

"Well."

The man choked at her words.

How can you say this? It's better than the king. They dare to say this. Does the king's wife dare to respond?

But at least, when the king and his wife are together, they will not send all their servants away, and there will still be a few people left to serve them.

But after the cousin of the king's wife came, things were different.

Maybe the cousin of the wife of the king is used to taking care of himself, or maybe when the brother and sister meet, what they should say is not what they should hear?

This is also unknown.

But no matter what, she is the wife of the king, and there are some things they should not say or can say.

"Tell me what is a good way to do it."

Lin Caisang supported his chin with one hand and asked her again.

"Don't worry, I won't tell the king's wife what you said. From now on, just pretend that I have never heard of what we talked about today.

If you don't tell the truth in front of me today, you can't predict what I will say in front of the king. Maybe I will suggest to the king that you... ahem, you Do you understand? "

She threatened these frightened people. In short, she wanted to hear the truth, not the compliments these people said to deal with her.

Several people were also frightened by her words and responded one after another.

In Prince Mo's Mansion.

After the two returned from Qianhuan Continent, they returned to their new house and saw that someone was busy setting up some things inside.

"Sang'er, what are you thinking about?" Sui Zimo looked at her and asked.

"Brother Mo Lian, do you think the illness suffered by the wife of the king is related to her cousin?" Lin Caisang raised her head and asked her brother Mo Lian.

I heard what those who were serving the lord's wife said before, that the lord's wife must have some unclear relationship with her cousin. Otherwise, why would the lord be so angry every time that cousin came over? Madam, are you going to ask all the people who are waiting on you to leave?
