

Star of Space 189

Chapter 189 I really know how to change it

"you--"

Lin Changyi was furious, but he had no choice but to bend down and put the damaged seedlings into the basket, and then left.

"I want to take a look. Put these seedlings in front of grandma and see if she can break your hand!"

"You...Lin Changyi, come back here!"

Hearing his words, Lin Caihe suddenly panicked. She had originally planned to throw them all into the ditch, but she didn't know that Lin Changyi would come over.

Thinking that these seedlings would be seen by her family, especially her biological father who had always been looking towards Lin Caisang, her face suddenly turned bad and she chased after Lin Changyi.

However, Lin Caihe was a girl after all, and she hadn't done much physical work at home. How could she compare to Lin Changyi, who was as agile as a loach? She was out of breath after chasing her.

But no matter what, you still have to chase.

In the Lin family yard.

Lu Qiubo really had a broom in his hand, and he wanted to hit Liu Baixiao who was kneeling in the yard, but Yang Lin held him tightly and wouldn't let go.

"Young man, what are you doing to stop me? I wonder how this sinless person wanted to harm your son in the first place?" Lu Qiubo was old after all, so he couldn't break away from Yang Lin's hands and could only stare at Scarlet Red. eyes cursed.

"Mom, no matter how angry you are, it's not easy to hit anyone. Sangsang has already said it, but Liu Yushui is still pregnant with the child. If she gets hurt later, we can't even explain it."

Yang Lin also hated Liu Baixiao's family.

But what's the use of hating? The people in this family are like a piece of brown candy that has been made into an iron wall. It's sticky, but it can't be beaten to death and it's not afraid of scolding.

"Ah, is it reasonable for a girl who has not left the palace to be pregnant with a child? I didn't ask the clan leader to dip her in the pig cage. I have already treated her well, and yet she dares to come to the door. She is shameless and we, the old Lin family, are still shameless."

Lu Qiubo spat at the kneeling Liu Yushui, his face flushed with anger.

"For this reason, you are here to tell us to change our surname. What surname should we change? Let their family name be Lin again, so that our Lin family can be embarrassed along with them and be yelled at and beaten by everyone?"

Our patriarch is a scholar. Even if I die, people like them will not come back to ruin his reputation. "

Liu Yushui knelt in the yard, listening to Lu Qiubo's voice of disdain for her. He squeezed his hands tightly by his side, and his lowered eyes were filled with ruthless light.

This was because she had been divorced by the Zhou family. If she had not been divorced, would this family still dare to talk to her like this?

I'm afraid you don't even dare to speak loudly, right?

"Grandma, I know I was wrong. I know I was ignorant before, but I swear, I will really change it." She took a deep breath, removed the cruelty in her eyes, raised her head, and said to Lu Qiubo.

"Stop doing this with me. Do you think I will believe you after you say a few words? A vicious person like you will never have a good time." Lu Qiubo raised one hand and directly held the broom. The broom was smashed over.

Fortunately, she didn't use too much force and just hit Liu Qingshui who was closest to her.

"hiss!"

Liu Qingshui's face was swept by the big broom, and he burst into tears from the pain, but he did not dare to say anything wrong about Lu Qiubo, so he could only glare at Liu Yushui hatefully.

They are all this harmful person. If it weren't for her, he would still be his eldest son in the Liu family. He would not have to worry about food and drink every day. Why would he have to suffer as much as he does now and have to kneel down to these people who he had never looked down on before.
