

Star of Space 1901

Chapter 1901 Such a big sin

At this moment, the emperor's eyes were full of panic. He didn't know what those poisons meant to him.

Could it be that Suizi Mo really dared to let Lin Caisang poison the emperor who was defending his country to death in Prince Mo's palace?

"So what if I poison you?" Lin Caisang asked him.

She had long wanted to clean up the stomach of this emperor who was full of dirty thoughts.

"You are like this kind of person, you should take more poison, fight poison with poison, and clean out some of the evil poison in your intestines. Otherwise, you will not only kill yourself but also so many innocent people in Weiguo!"

"you you....."

The emperor was speechless because he felt his stomach began to hurt.

Cold sweat had broken out on his forehead. He could no longer hold on and clutched his stomach. As soon as Lin Caisang's foot on his chest was released, he began to roll on the ground.

"It hurts...it hurts...the antidote, give me the antidote, hand over the antidote."

He rolled over and came to Lin Caisang's feet, reached out and grabbed the hem of her wedding dress, and said painfully.

"Get away!"

Lin Caisang was immediately disgusted.

How could the wedding dress made by her brother Mo Lian be defiled by such a person?

So, without thinking, she kicked the emperor away.

"ah!"

The emperor cried out in pain again, and rolled to the other side like a carrot.

However, he was not discouraged and rolled over again, trying to grab Lin Caisang's skirt.

"Give me the antidote..."

Lin Caisang: "!"

Damn it, she really saw who this person was.

"Don't worry, it will pass after you endure it. It won't kill you. I'll just keep you lying in bed for the rest of your life. It's the same as having a stroke. This is Prince Mo's Mansion, and my princess is Mo. Princess, how could you kill the emperor?"

I can't bear the responsibility for such a big sin. "

emperor:"....."

If he hadn't been in so much pain that he couldn't stand it anymore, he would have yelled at Lin Caisang.

So she could say all the shameless things, but she wouldn't kill him, and she didn't commit any big crime? !

If he stayed in bed for the rest of his life, he might as well be dead!

"The antidote..."

"The antidote is bullshit!"

Lin Caisang kicked him again, pushing him farther away.

"Xiao Guizi, come in."

Outside the door, Eunuch Gui soon came in. He glanced at the emperor who was lying on the ground, still struggling to crawl over to Lin Caisang. Then, he kicked him back unceremoniously. .

"Mother, what are your orders?"

"In another quarter of an hour, he will be like a stroke. If you send someone to bring him back to the palace, you can also give an explanation to the Queen Mother." Lin Caisang glanced at the emperor one last time and said to Eunuch Gui. .

"Also, your mission in the palace has been completed. If you don't want to stay in Shaohua City, go to Jiulian Palace."

Hearing this, Eunuch Gui raised his eyes and glanced at Lin Caisang.

"Go back to mistress, my servant is used to living in the palace, but he still wants to stay in the palace as a servant."

Nowadays, he is the capable person beside the emperor. Of course, he has already found a way out for himself. In the future, he will still be the capable person beside the emperor.

It's just that the emperor has changed.

Although the master wanted him to leave the palace, but... he still wanted to stay in the palace and stare at those people.

Chapter 1902 How do you feel?

Who could have known that if these empresses and Sui Zilin cooperated with their master, they would never betray them? It was better for him to keep an eye on those people, so that he could rest assured and his master could rest assured too.

"That's what you said, then just act on your own." Lin Caisang thought for a while and said to him.

She just said casually that since the emperor had been dealt with, it would be of no use for Eunuch Gui to remain in the palace.

Moreover, from now on, their focus will not be on Weiguo, but on Qianhuan Continent.

On the other side, in the palace.

Although it was already dark, many ministers were invited into the Queen Mother's palace from Prince Mo's palace.

Everyone here is staring at the ground with serious expressions.

No one dared to speak first in front of the Empress Dowager, because whoever spoke first would undoubtedly become a thorn in the side. What's more, they had no idea what the Empress Dowager meant by announcing their entry into the palace.

"They're all here, let's talk about it."

With the support of the old nanny, the Queen Mother walked out and sat on the first seat. Then, her sharp eyes swept over each minister one by one.

When the ministers heard her words, they didn't even dare to take a breath.

"The Queen Mother, you...what do you want me to say?"

After a while, finally, an old minister looked at the Queen Mother and asked.

Just let them talk without thinking. What should I say? Do you mean that the world of Weiguo will be overthrown?

But it has to be turned over.

According to the emperor's current behavior, if this continues, what future will Weiguo have? I'm afraid there won't even be an heir, right?

It's not that they didn't know that the reason why King Lin was poisoned was because the emperor sent someone to poison him, but there was no evidence, and as ministers, they didn't dare to talk nonsense.

But everyone knows what the truth is.

"Tell me about the Emperor. You must have heard rumors about the Emperor recently. Please tell me, how do you feel about the Emperor's actions?"

The Queen Mother sat at the head of the table calmly and spoke.

Ministers: "..."

How does it feel?

The emperor poisoned his own son, shouldn't he ask King Lin about his feelings?

The emperor tortured the maids in his own palace. Shouldn't he ask the maids who refused to die in silence?

The emperor tried to assassinate Prince Mo over and over again, and even refused to allow Prince Mo to get married. Shouldn't the Queen Mother ask Prince Mo about his feelings?

What's the use of asking them?

They are just ministers, what can they say? What do you dare to say?

Especially in front of the Queen Mother, do they dare to say it?

Even if the emperor has many shortcomings, he is still the biological son of the Queen Mother. How can a mother not think about her son?

"I don't understand what the Queen Mother means." The veteran minister looked at the Queen Mother and said.

"Do not understand?"

The corners of the Queen Mother's lips curled up slightly, and her sharp eyes scanned the ministers again.

"Then the Ai family should be more clear. The Ai family believes that the emperor's connivance over the years has gone too far, causing the emperor to dare to do any dangerous things and things that are not conducive to the defense of the country.

It can be said that the Ai family is extremely disappointed with the emperor. Therefore, the Ai family invites you from Prince Mo's Mansion today to find a way. You can tell the Ai family where the Weiguo should go? "

She spoke to them word for word.

Chapter 1903 King Mo...knows?

"hiss!"

Upon hearing the Queen Mother's words, the ministers gasped.

The Queen Mother's words couldn't be more clear. She just doesn't want the emperor to sit on that dragon chair anymore. Do you want to pull the emperor down directly and let someone else sit on it?

Moreover, they finally heard that this was what the Queen Mother and King Mo teamed up to do.

Otherwise, how could the Queen Mother invite them directly from Prince Mo's Mansion? This shows that Prince Mo, Sui Zi Mo, also knew about it.

"The Queen Mother...the Queen Mother means...to help King Mo...to ascend to the throne?"

A minister asked cautiously.

After all, the Queen Mother had already carried Prince Mo out of the palace. It would be impossible to say that she was not helping Prince Mo ascend to the throne, right?

After hearing what the minister said, the Queen Mother was also stunned.

Helping Sui Zimo ascend to power, how is that possible? He's not really a royal, just a...

Well, it's okay not to talk about those things, but there is another point that has to be said, and that is the matter of the approaching year.

"Previously, the emperor had drafted an edict to confer Prince Lin as the crown prince on King Mo's wedding. With this imperial edict... I'm afraid the emperor won't be able to make it, so the Ai family will be in charge."

"Prince Lin?"

When the ministers heard what the Queen Mother said, they were all stunned.

The Queen Mother had a good plan, but she wanted to take advantage of Prince Mo's palace to help Prince Lin ascend to the throne?

But can the Queen Mother alone take charge of this matter? Even if the emperor is forced to abdicate, how can Prince Mo be easily used by the Queen Mother?

"The Queen Mother, Prince Lin...does Prince Mo know about this matter you are talking about?"

If we talk about Prince Lin and Prince Mo, they still prefer Prince Mo. Their abilities are not at the same level at all.

What's more, Prince Mo also married a princess from the Liang Kingdom as his concubine.

Although the emperor had never set his sights on the princess of the Liang Kingdom, they, the ministers, knew very well that even if the princess of the Liang Kingdom was not of high origin, she was still the princess of the Liang Kingdom.

The face of Liang Guo rests entirely on this princess.

Now, the princess of Liang Kingdom has just married, and the Queen Mother is going to make King Lin the prince, or even help King Lin ascend the throne?

Is this a bit too much?

"King Mo naturally knows it."

The Queen Mother looked at the surprised ministers calmly and nodded.

Frankly speaking, if Sui Zimo was a royal child, she would choose Sui Zimo without hesitation between Sui Zimo and Sui Zilin, but Sui Zimo was not the case!

What can she do?

Of course, Sui Zimo himself knew this, otherwise, he would not have supported her choice to succeed King Lin.

"King Mo...knows?"

Ministers, you look at me and I look at you, I don't know what to say.

"Empress."

Suddenly, an old woman came in from outside the main hall, saluted the Queen Mother, and stood there.

"What's the matter?"

the Queen Mother asked.

Needless to say, I also knew that it would definitely not be a good thing. This nanny was sent by her to keep an eye on Prince Mo's Mansion.

"The people from Prince Mo's Mansion sent the emperor back, but... the emperor seems to have been stimulated by something and suffered a stroke. The imperial doctor has looked at it and said that it is... difficult to cure."

"What?!"

After hearing what the grandma said, all the ministers were extremely surprised. Some of them stood up in shock and stared at the old grandma.

The emperor had a stroke? How is this possible?

Chapter 1904 Just made yourself stupid to death

How could the emperor, who thought about destroying this and killing that all day long, say he had a stroke?

Are you kidding me?

However, looking at the Queen Mother, she didn't even move her brows after hearing the old nanny's words, and knew that she already knew about this matter.

Therefore, the emperor's stroke was actually caused by someone in Prince Mo's palace.

In other words, King Mo actually supported the Queen Mother and knew that the Queen Mother was establishing King Lin as the crown prince?

this.....

Why are they a little confused? King Mo is too ambitious. The throne is so openly and justly placed in front of him, but he doesn't want it and just throws it to King Lin?

This is the throne, so just give it up to someone else?

"Is the emperor serious? Can you still speak and stand up?" the Queen Mother asked.

She naturally knew that with the severity of Sui Zimo's attack, how could her son still stand up? I'm afraid I'll just have to lie in bed for the rest of my life, right?

However, at this moment, with so many people around her, she naturally wanted to show her concern for her son.

That's why she asked anxiously.

"Go back to the Queen Mother, I'm afraid the Emperor is... all the doctors are at their wits' end. I just want to ask the Queen Mother for instructions..."

"No need."

Before she could finish speaking, the Queen Mother interrupted her.

Why are you asking for a doctor? What Sui Zimo has done, is it possible for the emperor to get well just by finding a famous doctor?

Furthermore, even she, the queen, didn't want her son to get better.

Just leave it at that.

It is better to let him live like this than to cure him and come back to rule the world of Weiguo. By then, I am afraid that no one will be willing to clean up the mess.

Everyone was shocked when they heard the Queen Mother's words, "No need."

What a cruel heart!

That was the Queen Mother's own son, and he would have to lie in bed like this from now on, and the Queen Mother was not even willing to visit a famous doctor!

So, it is indeed true to say that the most ruthless emperor's family is the family.

"Since the Emperor is ill, he must be unable to attend to government affairs. You ministers..."

Just like that, as soon as the emperor lay on the bed, the Queen Mother waved her hand and re-selected the new master of Weiguo's world with a few words. Ruo's great luck fell on Sui Zilin. .

"Damn it, damn it!"

Another place, in the Jin Palace.

Sui Zijin smashed everything he could, and he had already scolded Sui Zimo thousands of times in his heart.

"That useless thing, how could this king have such a father? Idiot, it's so stupid! So stupid!!"

He knew clearly that he couldn't defeat Tai Sui Mo, but he didn't believe in this evil and had to make trouble on Tai Sui's head.

Well, now, after his unremitting efforts several times, he finally got himself involved, right? It was folded so badly that he was also folded directly inside!

If Sui Zimo hadn't done something stupid tonight, he wouldn't have attacked the emperor so quickly, then he would still have time to prepare and be sure of winning this round.

But now...

It's too late to say anything, the emperor has just made himself stupid to death, and this is probably what he will do in this life.

If you can spend your life like this, that's pretty good.

You're just afraid that Sui Zilin won't let him go just like that, right? Over the years, he and his mother and concubine have often been against Sui Zi Lin and the Empress!

Chapter 1905 So powerful?

Now, I finally got a chance to fight back. I'm afraid Sui Zilin still doesn't know how to deal with him in the future.

Just like his father, as soon as he ascended the throne, he killed some of his half-brothers, maimed some of them, and even if they failed, they were demoted to other places and returned to Bushao forever. Hwaseong!

And such a result was something he had never thought of.

His gaze has always been on that high position, but now that position has been tormented by his father.

How could he not hate it!

And the person he hated the most was Sui Zimo.

He was obviously raised by his mother-in-law, and his mother, who had called him mother-in-law for so many years, never thought about his younger brother.

If he had known earlier, he would have let his mother and concubine directly kill this scourge. In this case, he would not be in a situation where he would not be in danger of becoming the emperor.

"Bitch, they are all bitches!"

The ungrateful thing shall die a happy death!

He continued to curse and smash things, so that none of the servants dared to approach him.

However, no matter how angry he was, it was useless. There was no room for him to interfere in this Weiguo.

During the great changes in the palace, on the other side, Sui Zimo was not idle either, but went to another place that no one expected.

"On the wedding night, it's hard for King Mo to think of me!"

Under the night, the man stood opposite Sui Zimo, looking at the young man who had forced him into a desperate situation.

He never expected that he would be blocked by Sui Zimo in his palace that night when he thought he could leave safely.

"That being the case, then... let's take action and see who can defeat whom today."

He drew out the long sword from his waist and pointed it directly at the cold-faced Sui Zimo.

Sui Zimo just looked at him coldly, and naturally didn't reply a word to his words.

He could think of Prince Yi, but he just didn't want this man to continue causing trouble in Weiguo.

He can ignore the affairs of the new year, and he can ignore the affairs of the queen mother and empress, but he cannot sit idly by and watch the affairs of the common people.

This King Yi, this Prince Yi's Mansion, has become the best place for the cloaked man to come here.

If it wasn't destroyed, how could he safely take Sonner to Qianhuan Continent?

Therefore, Prince Yi's Mansion must completely disappear from Weiguo!

"Do it? Ha."

Sui Zimo chuckled, then raised his hand and struck a spiritual whip directly in the direction of Prince Yi.

There was a 'pop' sound.

Along with the sound of heavy objects falling to the ground, Prince Yi looked at his hands in disbelief.

At this moment, the long sword was nowhere to be found in his hand. It had already been shot to the ground, and he looked at Sui Zimo with a look of horror on his face.

"You...how could you be...so powerful?"

Yes, when did Sui Zimo become so powerful that he could even shoot a spiritual whip?

Even he, who has practiced spiritual arts for so many years, cannot condense a spiritual whip, but Sui Zimo can. What does this mean?

Does it mean Sui Zimo is better than him?

No, this means that Sui Zimo's talent for practicing spiritual arts is far superior to him...or many others.

"Exiled Wu, take action."

Suizi Mocai didn't bother to pay attention to him and directly gave the order to Fei Wu beside him.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

Ban Wu responded, and with a movement of his body, he flashed in front of Prince Yi and attacked Prince Yi directly.

Chapter 1906 Will I choose to take a gamble?

Prince Yi recovered from the shock and narrowly took the killing blow from Ban Wu, but in the end he was unable to completely dodge and was hit on the chest.

"You... you..."

He took a few steps back and looked at Ban Wu in shock.

Why?

Why is it that even one of the guards around Sui Zimo is more skilled than him?

What on earth is going on? Are there people from Qianhuan Continent around Sui Zimo, helping him?

Impossible, this is impossible.

If it was true, Sui Zimo would have returned to Qianhuan Continent early in the morning, so why would he still stay in this place?

"Sui Zimo, you..."

He was just about to say something, but found that Ban Wu wouldn't allow him to speak at all. After one move, another one hit him directly in the face. Every move made him feel like he couldn't hide. Feel.

At this moment, all the guards in Prince Yi's Mansion have been captured.

"Your Majesty, my subordinates have not found Princess Yi." Jiang Zuo came over from the other side and said to Sui Zimo.

"When disaster strikes, we just fly away."

Sui Zimo looked in the direction of Prince Yi and said something.

Princess Yi has never been a smart person, but no matter how smart she is, she still knows when to run away.

Now that the situation in the court has changed, everyone has already decided which side to turn to. Princess Yi came from Qianhuan Continent, which she must have thought of better than Prince Yi.

Moreover, Princess Yi and Prince Yi are somewhat different in status.

One of them came from Qianhuan Continent and was originally a subordinate of certain people. She could give up her identity here whenever she wanted.

But what about Prince Yi?

He had been operating in Weiguo for so many years under the eyes of the emperor, how could he bear to give up like this?

He must still be thinking that no matter whether it is Mo, the Queen Mother, the Empress, or others, they will all forget about his Prince Yi's Mansion.

Therefore, he will choose to take a gamble.

Or, he will be unable to directly choose between advancement and retreat, leading to a dilemma in the end.

"My lord, do you want to pursue me?" Jiang Zuo asked him.

"No need."

Sui Zimo shook his head.

It's just a small character, nothing to pursue.

"You're here to take care of all these people."

After saying that, he walked away.

Although there are many things to be busy with today, the most important thing is his son's son. From now on, she will be his wife.

How could he keep his wife waiting so long on their wedding night?

In Prince Mo's Mansion.

As the servants walked in and out, they seemed to have many things to do.

In the new house, Lin Caisang was sitting at the table, supporting his chin with one hand, working hard... in a daze.

"What are you thinking about?"

When Sui Zimo came in, he saw a little girl in a bright red wedding dress. She didn't know what she was thinking.

From behind, he reached out and pulled the little girl into his arms, and he asked softly.

"I'm home?"

Lin Caisang came to his senses and found that he was back.

"I didn't think about anything, I just... I feel like life is so amazing."

"Um?"

Hearing her words, Sui Zimo raised his eyebrows.

"What kind of wonderful way is life...?"

He moved his hands, changed his position, lifted her up and placed her on the dressing table aside.

He asked while taking off the phoenix crown for her.

"I can't tell you at the moment, I just think it's quite strange." Lin Caisang shrugged and said.

Chapter 1907 We only do what we need to do

Yes, in fact, what she was thinking about just now, looking back now, it seems that she doesn't even know it. Just emptying her brain, she feels that it is really amazing.

Now, watching the man carefully remove the hairpin from his head in the bronze mirror, she felt even softer in her heart.

I feel that life is really strange. How come two people who are obviously unrelated to each other walk closer and closer, and then come together?

I have to say that life is wonderful, and fate is even more wonderful.

"Brother Mo Lian, you said..."

"Madam, should you change your title?"

Sui Zimo was taking the hairpin off her head for a moment, then leaned over and whispered in her ear.

"Well."

The warm breath sprayed in her ears, making her heart start to tremble. Her body suddenly stiffened, but she felt numb again.

"Well...you stay away from me..."

She unconsciously raised her hand, trying to push his head further away, but he caught it in the palm of her hand.

"Madam, please call me husband, okay?"

Hearing this, Lin Caisang pursed her red lips, her face already flushed.

The word husband is really... hard to say. However, she and Sui Zimo are already married, and he will be her husband from now on...

"Husband...husband."

She glanced at him quickly in the bronze mirror, then lowered her eyes, not daring to look at the man again.

When he heard her voice, Sui Zimo first took a deep breath, then put on a serious face and continued to remove the remaining hairpins from her head.

His reaction made Lin Caisang a little confused.

What is going on? Did she do something wrong? Or did you call him too softly?

"Mo Lian, husband, what's wrong with you? Are you angry?"

Isn't it? She was already relying on him, how could she still be angry?

"Husband? Husband? Husband...ah!"

She wanted to scream a little more and ask him to answer her, but she didn't know that the man took off the last phoenix hairpin on her head and threw it on the dressing table. The next moment, he hugged her up. .

"You...what are you doing?"

She quickly put her arms around his neck and looked at him nervously.

"On the wedding night, madam, what do you think we should do? Huh?"

Sui Zimo hugged her and walked towards the big bed, murmuring softly and asking her back.

"I...you can just think about it, why do you have to...have to say it."

Lin Caisang paused and figured it out the next moment. Suddenly, his face began to get hot, and he buried himself directly into the man's chest and spoke muffledly.

"Ah."

A man's cheerful chuckle could be heard in his ears. When had his little son been so shy?

"No laughing."

Lin Caisang's hand circled his neck, patted his shoulder, and said angrily.

"Okay, don't laugh, we just do what we need to do." Sui Zimo responded.

After saying that, he gently placed her on the wedding bed.

It's night, and it's still very long.

Some people are happy, but others are full of sorrow and anger.

He lost everything overnight, and in the end, even his own body no longer obeyed his own orders.

The emperor stared at the figures in front of him, including his mother-in-law, the queen, his married wife, the queen, and several other emperors. In his eyes, there were several other emperors. , they are always useless.

Chapter 1908 This is fate

The imperial doctor even knelt on the ground.

At this moment, besides being angry, he also wanted to kill someone!

Did these people really think he was going to die?

It's just that he was poisoned. Not only could they not cure him, but they all looked like he was about to die. What does that mean? !

"The Queen Mother, I and others are really...powerless. The Emperor's illness is probably due to the stimulation he received in Prince Mo's Mansion. Why not...ask Prince Mo to come and ask what's going on."

One of the imperial doctors decisively transformed into a detective and said to the Queen Mother.

After hearing his words, the other people kneeling on the ground all looked at this man like an idiot.

Going to see Prince Mo?

Are they crazy, looking for Prince Mo at this time?

Today is the wedding of Prince Mo, and when the festive atmosphere is thick, why don't you go to the palace to find Prince Mo to give them an explanation? Ask Prince Mo how the emperor became like this?

Who doesn't know that Prince Mo is not easy to mess with? If they mess with him, their lives will be saved.

Even though they were in the palace, they just heard the news that the commander of the guards came to report.

Prince Yi is the emperor's younger brother. Now that something happens to the emperor, he will naturally be present. However, the commander of the guards came in a hurry just now to report that there was no one in Prince Yi's mansion, and Prince Yi was nowhere to be found. The mansion was in chaos.

Even if they were stupid, they knew what was going on. It must have been Prince Mo who razed Prince Yi's Mansion to the ground!

At this time, let the Queen Mother go to find Prince Mo?

hehe!

Sure enough, when the Queen Mother heard his proposal, her eyes suddenly darkened a bit.

"It is a time of great joy in Prince Mo's Mansion. The Ai family thought it would be better not to disturb him. As for the Emperor's illness, there were signs of it before. Now, it may be that he did something that was not what he wanted in Prince Mo's Mansion. He was so angry. The old disease relapsed.

You and other imperial doctors try your best to treat the emperor, but even if he cannot be cured, the Ai family will not blame you. "

She said generously to a group of imperial doctors.

All the imperial doctors: "..."

What else can they not understand? The Emperor's 'disease' is also due to the Queen Mother.

However, no matter what, as long as they would not be implicated because they could not cure the emperor's 'disease', they would feel relieved.

As for why the emperor was 'irritated' in Prince Mo's palace, that was not their business.

If he hadn't done something he shouldn't have done, Prince Mo wouldn't have been so cruel to the emperor, right?

"Thank you, Queen Mother, for your kindness."

All the imperial doctors thanked the Queen Mother.

However, the emperor lying on the bed was about to be pissed to death.

He could hear every word of those damn imperial doctors' words, and they were all engraved in his heart.

But so what?

Just because you can hear it doesn't mean you can speak it out.

In the future, given the current situation, can he still order the imperial physician to quickly treat himself and detoxify him?

He can't even speak now. If he wants to take action, he can't even lift his hands!

What can he do?

"Hey, this is fate. You all should step back first. Lin'er, there are many things going on in the past, so you go back first. Your father is here and I will leave it to the care of the Ai family and your mother."

The Queen Mother sighed softly and said to Sui Zilin.

After hearing her words, Sui Zi said goodbye and left, while Sui Zi Jin beside him almost bit his white teeth into pieces.

Chapter 1909 I will cover you to death!

That throne should have been his, and everyone should salute and say hello to him!

It's obviously his, but now it's all over.

He clearly planned it so well at the beginning. Sui Zilin should never come back to Sui County. Why can he come back?

They are all the Queen Mother, they are all this old immortal, it is she who ruined his good deeds!

He wished he could just reach out and strangle the eccentric old woman in front of him to death!

But, for the sake of his own life, he had to endure it, unable to move at all, and watched helplessly as the throne that should have belonged to him became that idiot Sui Zilin's!

It's the end of the year, what kind of bad luck did that guy have?

He kept looking at the Queen Mother with a sinister look, thinking about what to do.

It is of course impossible to stay in Shaohua City as his idle prince and live under Sui Zilin. Who knows if Sui Zilin will take action against him?

Therefore, it is better to leave Shaohua City and go to his fiefdom. In this way, he may still seize the throne in the future!

"Royal Grandma, my father, please stay with me for now. You are old, why don't you go back and rest first? Mother, please go back and rest too." He said to the Queen Mother and the Empress.

Hearing this, the Queen Mother glanced sideways at Sui Zijin.

Of course, it's not that she doesn't like this grandson, it's just that he has such a mother-in-law, and she has also tried to harm Sui Zilin before, so she is still wary of him.

But now, the overall situation of Weiguo has been decided, and even if Sui Zijin wants to do anything, it will be too late.

She followed him to guard the emperor.

"That's fine, Jin'er. If anything happens to your father, you must immediately notify the Ai family and your mother."

She confessed to Sui Zijin and left with the empress and the concubines and princes.

He looked at the crowd of people leaving like water, and then glanced at the emperor, his father, on the bed.

"Tell me, why are you so stupid?"

He slowly approached the emperor, then sat on the edge of the bed, looking at him eerily.

"You know that Sui Zimo is someone not to be messed with, why do you have to mess with him? What's there to mess with? He married a concubine. You are an old man who has half of your body buried in the ground. Why don't you know? Where is peace?"

Now it's good, I have achieved this kind of virtue, and my king's throne has become the end of the year.

Are you comfortable and happy? "

The emperor stared at Sui Zijin with a pair of gloomy eyes, filled with all kinds of anger and hatred in his heart, but he couldn't even curse him.

What's going on now? Even his most beloved son dares to say something wrong with him, right?

They also don't think about it, if it weren't for him, would they be where they are now?

Not to mention the emperor, even the prince would not want to sit down!

"Ah, ah ah."

Facing Sui Zijin, he could only make a sound of "beep babbling".

"Shut up!"

Seeing him like this, Sui Zijin cursed impatiently.

"Now, what else do you want? The power has already fallen into the hands of Sui Zimo and Sui Zilin, and you still don't know how to stay safe. You old thing, I can't wait to... just cover you to death!"

What he said was true. He really wanted to kill the person who had caused him such a dilemma!

"Well!"

The emperor heard his words and looked at him in horror.

Chapter 1910 And the future? !

He knew in his heart that Sui Zijin's nature was as cruel as his own.

So what if he is his father? When he is useless, Sui Zijin will still kill him.

But now, he is still relieved. If Sui Zijin kills him, he will not be easy. Therefore, he is just talking and will not really attack him like Sui Zimo.

The moon has set.

The first ray of sunlight in the morning shone into the room.

The person on the bed moved slightly, but felt that his body was restrained by something. He slightly twisted his eyebrows and opened his sleepy eyes.

"woke up?"

A hoarse voice came from his ears.

Only then did she remember that she and her brother Mo Lian got married yesterday.

"Not awake yet."

Taking a deep breath, she closed her eyes again and arched her head towards the man's arms, looking like she had not yet woken up.

"Then sleep a little longer."

Sui Zimo pulled her into his arms, found a comfortable position for her, and let her continue to sleep.

"Well."

Lin Caisang took a deep breath again, stretched out his hand, and slightly pushed away the warm embrace.

"It's better to get up. I can't sleep anymore and I don't know what's going on outside?"

"It has nothing to do with us."

Sui Zimo said to her.

What they should do has been done, and the rest has nothing to do with them. Someone will do it well.

"If you can't sleep, sleep a little longer. You must be tired from last night."

Lin Caisang: "..."

She sat up, her face flushed, and she glared at him angrily.

Can you please not mention last night to her? She got angry when he mentioned it, and even said she didn't want him anymore, but this man just had no control at all, which made her so angry!

"snort."

"Angry?"

Hearing her hum, Sui Zimo also sat up and took her into his arms from behind.

"It was my fault last night, I will pay attention to it in the future."

"And later?!"

Lin Caisang glared angrily and turned her head to look at him.

She felt that there was no future. If he changed like this again in the future, she promised...

In fact, there is no guarantee. Between husband and wife, how can anyone be angry about that matter, but she just can't get angry!

"Why not? Madam, be good, sleep a little longer, it's still early." Sui Zimo said, then he hugged her and lay down again, letting her lie directly on his body.

"We will set off for Liang Kingdom the day after tomorrow. We must have a good rest after these two days."

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

It sounds so high-sounding, who would believe it?

"Okay, you can lay the floor on the floor tonight."

"Hit...the floor?"

Sui Zimo looked embarrassed and had never thought about the fact that he needed to sleep on the floor.

"Madam, you don't need a floor bunk, right?"

"Why is it not necessary? Do you think I can sleep well if you sleep with me?" Lin Caisang asked him in return.

"Why can't I sleep well? You sleep on yours and I'll do mine." Sui Zimo said matter-of-factly.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Can she kick this shameless man away?

She was obviously not like this before. What a serious person she is. How come she has changed so much after just one day?

Is this a different person?

"No, get up quickly, we have to go to Haibo Country."

Suddenly, she remembered something serious. The affairs of Weiguó had come to an end with them, but that was not the case. The wife of the leader of Haibo Kingdom was still waiting for her to save her.
