Chapter 1911 Lives in Yunlan Water Village

"Brother Mo Lian, what kind of strange disease do you think the wife of Haibo Kingdom has? I can't even find out the cause.

She muttered to Sui Zimo.

"Perhaps, you can try another way to investigate." Sui Zimo thought for a while and spoke to her.

"Change your thinking?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and looked at him steadily.

Change your thinking, what kind of thinking should you change?

Your skin festers when exposed to sunlight. Do you have a skin disease? There's no reason why you would get skin diseases only after you're pregnant, right?

What's more, what kind of skin disease can cause large areas of skin to ulcerate in such a short period of time? This speed is too fast, right?

"If you think about it differently, could it be that the wife of the king was really punished for stealing people outside behind the husband's back..."

Suddenly, as if she thought of something, her eyes lit up.

"Brother Mo Lian, Brother Mo Lian, I may have thought of the reason. Come on, get up quickly, let's go to Haibo Country!" Thinking about it, she got up again, put on her clothes and got out of bed.

Sui Zimo: "..."

His little lady really hasn't grown up yet.

No matter, he pampers and hurts her, so what if she doesn't grow up? He's used to it!

"Slow down, the king's wife won't be dead for a while." He also got up and chased after his wife.

...

Haibo country.

The king of the country was almost dying of worry. One miracle doctor after another was called in, but he could not cure his wife's strange disease.

The day before yesterday, he finally got a pharmacist who was better than other pharmacists. At least he cured the pain in his wife's body.

But he waited for a day and two nights, but he didn't wait for the female pharmacists to come again.

"Is it because Madam's disease is too difficult to treat and the female pharmacist is timid?" He murmured to himself and guessed.

Because of his wife's illness, there were many pharmacists who left in timidity. Many of them left without saying goodbye, leaving him waiting in vain.

He was already used to it.

"The Lord..."

On the bed, the woman finally no longer felt any pain in her body. She could feel comfortable for a while, ate something, and then looked at the king.

"What's wrong? Does your body hurt again?"

When the king heard his wife's voice, he turned around quickly and asked.

"fine."

The wife of the king shook her head slightly, her face still pale.

"Master, don't worry, I'm much better."

After hearing her words, the king sighed softly.

As she was now, how could she be much better? She was clearly miserable. He couldn't bear to look at her and wished he could transfer all the injuries on her body to his body.

"The female pharmacist who came the day before yesterday is very good. Let's wait for her. Maybe she can cure your strange disease. You need to rest first."

"I....."

The lady of the country opened her mouth, but she didn't know what to say.

...

On the other side, Sui Zimo, accompanying Lin Caisang, was coming in from outside.

By chance, she happened to run into a person who was serving the lady of the country whom she had asked about the day before yesterday.

"wait."

She immediately spoke up and stopped the person.

"I've seen the female pharmacist and the young master."

When the woman heard her voice, she immediately turned around and bowed to her.

"No need to be polite."

Lin Caisang didn't have time to fuss with her about etiquette at the moment, so he just asked her to get up.

"Let me ask you, where is the cousin of the Madam of the State whom you mentioned that day?" she asked.

"Back to the female pharmacist, the cousin of the wife of the king is from the Shui tribe and lives in Yunlan Water Village." the woman replied.

Chapter 1912 Let the king's wife swim?

"Water Tribe!"

After hearing her words, Lin Caisang finally knew what was wrong with the wife of the king.

"What about your king's wife? She is also a water tribe?" she asked again.

"no."

The woman shook her head, confused as to why the female pharmacist would ask such a question.

At first glance, the wife of their king is not from the Water Tribe. There is no reason why the female pharmacist wouldn't be able to tell that, right?

"The mother of our wife is from the Water Tribe, and her father is the leader of the Burning Lion Clan."

"Burning Lion..."

Hearing these two words, Lin Caisang secretly twitched the corners of his mouth.

Zhuo Shi belongs to the fire clan in Qianhuan Continent, and there are very few people from the water clan who are not from the water clan. Of course, she would not think that the mother of the king's wife happened to be one of those 'few' people. The one in the middle.

Therefore, the daughter born from the Burning Lion and a person from the Water Tribe is already different. If coupled with the fact that the child she is carrying in her belly is still a person from the Water Tribe...

"Go and bring a large bucket of cold water. Remember, it needs to be raw water, not the kind with a drop of hot water added. Carry it to the wife of the king."

She told the woman aloud.

"yes."

Although the woman had doubts, she didn't dare to ask why. She could only answer and go down to do what Lin Caisang told her.

Raw water, or a big bathtub, what is it used for?

The wife of the king is now covered in ulcers, and it is impossible to wipe her body, let alone the unboiled water?

Or is it that the female pharmacist wants the king's wife to swim?

This is of course even more impossible.

After telling the woman, Lin Caisang followed Sui Zimo to the cave where the king and his wife were.

...

"Female pharmacist, I have been waiting for you. Please take a look at my wife. Although she is no longer in pain, the injuries on her body have not gone away. In the past two days, I have also treated her I tried medicines prescribed by other pharmacists, but they still didn't work."

When the king saw Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo, he hurriedly greeted them and said.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Can she say that no matter how much medicine the king's wife takes, it will be useless?

"Master, I should have found a way to heal my wife. I just need to give it a try and see if it works."

She spoke to the king.

"real?"

Upon hearing her words, the king's eyes suddenly brightened.

"Does the female pharmacist have a solution? Then what are you waiting for? What do you want to try? I'll send someone right away..."

"No need, I've already told you. People outside will prepare the things and bring them in." Lin Caisang interrupted him, glanced at the wife of the king who was already awake, and said to the king.

"Master, I have something to ask my wife, and please...can you go out for a while? Zimo..."

"Master, I have something I want to ask you for advice."

When Sui Zimo saw his wife looking towards him, he immediately said to the king.

"this....."

When the king heard what they said, he had a look of confusion on his face. He glanced at his wife, and there was obvious worry in his eyes.

But since the female pharmacist has already said it, and the young master has said so, if he keeps it any longer, it will probably delay their treatment of his wife, right?

In the end, he could only grit his teeth and nodded to Lin Caisang.

"Okay, sir, please."

He made an invitation gesture to Sui Zimo, and the two of them went out.

Chapter 1913 Pharmacist knows how to use poison!

When only he and the king's wife were left in the cave, Lin Caisang's eyes suddenly became a little cold, and he looked at her faintly.

"Female... female pharmacist, why are you looking at me like this?"

The king's wife was lying on the bed, a little frightened by her eyes, and couldn't help but ask.

"Mrs. Madam, you have just seen that your husband's sincerity towards you can be seen by everyone. Do you want to continue to hide the child from him and give birth to the child in your belly, huh?"

Lin Caisang asked her quietly.

"you--"

Hearing her words, the wife of the king subconsciously reached out and covered her stomach.

"You...what do you know?"

"The father of the Madam of the Kingdom is a Shao Shi, and her mother is of the Shui Tribe. Therefore, the physique of the Madam of the Kingdom is very special. In addition, you have a cousin from the Water Tribe..."

Lin Caisang looked at her and spoke word by word.

"Shut up, shut up!"

The king's wife seemed to be hurt by Lin Caisang, and roared at her.

Outside the cave, the king who had just left the country was startled when he heard his wife's voice. He immediately turned around and wanted to go back, but was stopped by Sui Zimo.

"The Lord."

"Young Master, I won't go in, I'll just stay outside, that's okay." The king looked at Sui Zimo and said.

Sui Zimo said nothing and did not stop him again.

He doesn't care about the affairs between them. Naturally, the king can do whatever he wants.

Sonny only asked them to go out, but did not ask him to stay far away and not to listen to anything.

Forget it, just listen, so that the king can wake up and know what kind of person his wife is.

In the cave, Lin Caisang looked at the king's wife with a calm gaze.

"The wife of the king told me to shut up. I don't have to say anything, but what happens after the child is born? The king is Haibo, but the child in your belly is not him. Do you think you can hide it from your husband?"

"I....."

The wife of the king opened her mouth, and held the quilt tightly with her hands by her side.

"What can I do? What can I do? Do you think I want to give birth to this child? This child, to them, is a shame, a shame! But so what?

That man, he is a devil. If I don't stick to him, he will kill everyone here!

He is also a pharmacist and knows how to use poison!

What would you do if you were me, watching him poison so many people? "

"You can tell the king about this matter and he will deal with it." Lin Caisang said lightly.

It's impossible for Haibo Kingdom's majestic lord to be the lord of a country, and he can't even deal with a water tribe, right? If you can't even handle this matter well, how can you still become the leader of a country?

"No, you can't tell him!"

Hearing Lin Caisang's words, the king's wife suddenly became nervous.

"Are you afraid that the king will know that you betrayed him?" Lin Caisang asked her.

"I have already betrayed him, there is nothing to be afraid of, it's just..."

The wife of the king pursed her lower lip. She had long since given up hope for herself, so what was there to be afraid of?

However, she can't harm the king because of herself. The king is innocent. She can't ruin her life just because she is a woman, right?

She gritted her teeth and looked at Lin Caisang.

"Girl, you are a pharmacist, and you can see the crux of my illness, you must be very powerful, right?"

Chapter 1914 Do you look like such a stupid person?

Listening to her words, Lin Caisang just raised his eyebrows and did not answer.

Although she thinks she has a lot of abilities, in Qianhuan Continent, her little ability may really be of little value.

However, although the wife of the king did not think so, she believed that Lin Caisang was able to guess her condition, so he must be a very capable person.

"Girl, with your ability, it's impossible not to see that the king's body is actually poisoned, right?" She looked a little resentful, gritting her teeth and wanting to tear off a piece of flesh from someone's body.

"What?"

Lin Caisang was stunned by the words of the king's wife.

The king was poisoned. How could she not know? How could a poisoned person still be so alive?

Well, her husband was a close relative, but that was only because she had been using medicine to suppress Sui Zimo's body, so that there was no sign of the poison taking effect.

And the king...

If the wife of the king was forced to get close to that cousin, it must have been three or four months, right? After such a long time, it is impossible that the king himself could not even discover that he was poisoned, right?

"Are you sure the king has been poisoned?" she asked

"I'm sure it was my cousin who told me. He said..."

"He farts!"

Finally, the king outside the cave couldn't bear it anymore and rushed in to curse!

That bitch, he thought that person had a good relationship with his wife, so he was allowed to visit his wife often.

It was also because he was the head of a country and had many affairs, so he could not always accompany his wife. He thought that it would be okay for her to have someone close to her who could talk with her.

But he didn't expect that that bitch turned out to be extremely ambitious.

You don't need to guess to know what that guy is thinking and what he is planning.

Do you think that if his wife is pregnant with a child, he will wholeheartedly think that this is his child, and will he be allowed to inherit Haibo Kingdom in the future?

What a beautiful thought he had!

"The king...the king..."

When the king's wife saw the angry king, she was so frightened that she could not speak.

"Madam, I'm not talking about you. How can you be so naive? If someone threatens you, you will do whatever it takes? How can I not know whether I'm poisoned or not? I'm fine!"

The king did not give her a chance to speak and spoke directly to her.

He was still poisoned. He was surrounded by the people closest to him, and the food he used to eat on weekdays was all prepared by them. Even his wife didn't have a few opportunities to eat with him.

It was probably after she contracted some unknown illness that the two of them had more time together.

In such a situation, how could an outsider have the chance to poison him?

In other words, if he was poisoned, could he still not notice it? Does he seem that stupid?

Yes, he is stupid, so stupid that even his wife was deceived and bullied by others, and he still respects that person as a cousin.

Thinking about it, he wanted to slap himself!

"Where is your cousin? When will he come over again?"

"Well... tomorrow... he said he would come over... to see... the child." The wife of the king spoke weakly, and glanced down at her belly.

"look after baby!"

The king took a breath, almost pissed off.

"You...you..."

He didn't even know what to scold, why was he so naive? She believed whatever others said!

Chapter 1915 It's the fire element, it's also the water element

However, you might as well come over tomorrow, he will deal with the person directly, and there will never be such a mess again!

"Female pharmacist, can my wife's illness be cured?"

Turning his head, he looked at Lin Caisang with some helplessness and embarrassment, and asked.

They are beasts. It is normal for women to snatch each other, and not many people care about a woman's chastity.

However, it was one thing for him to know it, but it was another thing for others to hear it. In short, he was so embarrassed now that he really wanted to twist that man's neck off!

"Of course you can."

Lin Caisang glanced at the king's wife, and then looked at the king.

"There are two ways. It depends on the king's choice. The first one is that the child is not the king's anyway. You can choose not to bring him into this world. Then the disease of the king's wife can be cured immediately. The injuries on the body can be healed with some medicine."

"this....."

When the king heard her words, he suddenly looked embarrassed and looked at his wife.

"No, it's not like that. The king, this child is yours. It really is yours. It has nothing to do with that person. I'm sure, I'm very sure." The king's wife looked at the man who was looking at her with a pale face. The king shook his head and said.

"mine?"

The king of the country was also a little surprised. If it was really his child, how could this happen?

"Are you sure? Could it be..."

"No, Lord, I'm pretty sure that even though that person comes often, I won't let him take advantage of me. Every time he comes to me... I let someone who looks very similar to me... The maid took my place. Really, my lord, the child in my belly is yours.

The lady of the country said anxiously.

She is not a fool, how could she cuckold the person she likes?

Of course, she didn't dare to really disobey her cousin, so she could only find someone who looked similar to her, and then take the opportunity to get her cousin drunk, so that he would be unlikely to be able to tell the difference.

"this....."

The king naturally believed his wife's words. He turned around and looked at Lin Caisang.

Could it be that the female pharmacist guessed in the wrong direction?

"The king is a fire monster?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyes, looked at the king, and asked.

"I am a fire type and a water type."

At this time, the king did not dare to hide anything and said.

"What?!"

Hearing his words, Lin Caisang was not surprised before the wife of the king was the first to scream.

"What's wrong? I have both water and fire elements. Is it weird?" The king saw his wife's surprised look, then looked at Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo, who also seemed to be shocked. Then, he asked in confusion asked.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Isn't it surprising that there are also many people who have both fire and water elements?

However, the problem is that the wife of the king is also a dual element of water and fire, and she is a hidden dual element. Now she is pregnant with a child of a person with dual elements of water and fire. Didn't she stimulate the hidden dual element in her body? .

No wonder her whole body would be covered in ulcers as soon as she saw the sun.

"If I'm not mistaken, the Madam of the State will have to live in the water for the next few days, and she will also not be exposed to sunlight, not at all, until the child in your belly lands."

"Why?"

The king was very puzzled and asked.

Lin Caisang looked at the king's wife, then at the king, and explained aloud.

Chapter 1916: Such a small intervention

"My lord, your wife is originally a hidden dual element. When she meets your child, he should also be a water and fire monster in the future. The two are in the same body, and water and fire cannot blend. In addition, the lord Madam's physique is special.

Her current situation is that water cannot be mixed with fire, and fire cannot be mixed with water. If she wants to neutralize the spiritual power of water and fire in her body, she can only stay in the water all the time. "

The leader of the country: "..."

How can he stay in the water? His wife is still pregnant with the child.

"Female pharmacist, can't you think of other ways? My wife is not a water tribe. It's okay to stay in the water these days and nights, but what will happen if it lasts for a long time?"

Even if they are monsters, the pregnancy time may be shorter than that of humans, but it is still unknown. His wife will have to stay in the water for several months...

When he thought of this, he felt so... panicked.

"There is no other way. My method is just a temporary solution." Lin Caisang said.

After all, it is still the child in the belly of the king's wife. When the child lands, the king's wife will be able to see the sun.

In the end, the leader of the country did as Lin Caisang said.

Because the water in the bucket was always limited, he directly ordered people to build a shed over a water spring next to the cave, and then personally took his wife there under the cover of night.

Lin Caisang gave her medicine and let her stay in the water, but nothing happened.

As for the so-called cousin of the king's wife, naturally he was not treated so well. He was arrested directly by the king's order, and all the poisons used to harm people were found on his body.

Lin Caisang was very surprised when he looked at those poisons.

According to the leader of the country, on their Qianhuan Continent, due to the restrictions imposed by the beast tribe, there are not many pharmacists in them, and there are even fewer pharmacists who can achieve some success.

This cousin of the lady of the country can be considered one of them.

Later, when she was treating the injuries on the wife of the country's leader, she heard someone mention that the people of Yunlan Water Village sent people to negotiate with the owner of Haibo Kingdom for this man, hoping to take him back.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang could only chuckle.

Faced with a man who wanted to harm him and also fell in love with his wife, would the king let him go so grandly?

Sure enough, the news she got was that the leader of Haibo Kingdom directly sent someone to reply, saying that this person had been killed by him and that the people from Yunlan Water Village were late.

Then he actually killed the person with his own hands and took the body back to the people of Yunlan Water Village.

Faced with such a situation, the people of Yunlan Water Village dared not speak out. After all, it was their own people who did the wrong thing first, and the Zhuoshi clan is related by marriage to Haibo Kingdom, so they naturally help Haibo Kingdom. The king's.

Then, the people of Yunlan Water Village failed to benefit from the two places, so they had no choice but to give up.

Lin Caisang would not pay attention to these things, but he did them very smoothly. It was completed in a few days, and the condition of the wife of the king also recovered quickly.

For the leader of Haibo Kingdom, he was naturally extremely grateful to Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo.

Not to mention that they saved his wife, Sui Zimo also had a small hand in when they arrested the 'cousin'.

If it weren't for his little hands, they might not be able to catch the 'cousin' and let him escape.

Chapter 1917 Survived

After all, that 'cousin' is a master of poison. Although he has no chance to poison the leader of Haibo Kingdom, the poisons on his body are real, and even a little bit of them will kill someone.

It's no wonder that the wife of the king is controlled by him. How can we not be afraid when facing someone with so many poisons in his hands?

In order to thank the two of them, the leader of Haibo Kingdom specially took them to the animal farm and asked them to choose their favorite monsters as contract beasts.

Originally it was said to be five, but he was so happy that he doubled it to ten.

For Lin Caisang, they naturally accepted it. Anyway, they were going to Qianhuan Continent next, so contract beasts were still needed, and Haibo Country was not only home to Haibo beasts, but also other beasts, not just Haibo. The beast can choose.

"My lord, do you know that there is a family named Yue in Qianhuan Continent?" She looked at the lord and asked.

"Surname Yue?"

When the king heard her question, he was stunned for a moment and then spoke casually.

"Female pharmacist, there are several families named Yue in Qianhuan Continent. I wonder which family you are talking about?"

As far as he knew, there were indeed several families with the surname Yue, so he didn't know which family Lin Caisang was talking about. Naturally, it was difficult to answer, so he could only ask first.

"It's the Yue family whose young master has returned in the past few years." Lin Caisang explained.

"A young master is back?"

Lord Haibo was confused by Lin Caisang's words.

After thinking about it carefully, I have never heard of a lost young master from any of the Yue clan returning home.

"Come on, come here."

He raised his hand and called one of his subordinates over.

"The king, the female pharmacist, and the young master." The subordinate came over and saluted them.

"Let me ask you, have you heard of any Yue clan losing a young master recently?" he asked.

Lin Caisang: "..."

She opened her mouth, wanting to remind Lord Haibo that he had misunderstood her meaning.

But before she could say anything, she was stopped by her husband. Looking sideways, she looked at Sui Zimo, only to see him shaking his head towards her.

She raised an eyebrow and then looked at the subordinate.

Sure enough, after a while, she heard the subordinate speak.

"Returning to the country, I haven't heard of the loss of the young master. However, I heard that the young master of the Yue clan in Tianxia City who could not cultivate spirits was a lie. He said that it was when the Yuedang family and his wife went to Luanglu to play. , gave birth there and accidentally held the two children in the wrong arms.

Last year, they found the young master back, but...

I heard that the young master was also unable to practice spiritual arts. It seemed that he was given up by the Yuezhi family and was raised in a courtyard without any further care. He only survived with the occasional care of Mrs. Yue. "

Hearing his words, Lin Caisang's eyes suddenly dimmed, and his whole body was filled with a faint murderous aura.

"Female pharmacist, what's wrong with you?"

Lord Haibo naturally felt the murderous aura in Lin Caisang and asked in a low voice.

"Sonny."

Sui Zimo took her hand and moved it. Lin Caisang came back to her senses, looked at the Lord Haibo, and smiled lightly.

"nothing."

She didn't expect that Yue Chong was really a master of both worlds this year. The brother she held in her hands was just raised in a yard, and it was difficult for him to survive?

It seems that it is time to meet the head of the Yue family.

Yunxia City, right?

Chapter 1918 The eyes are bright

"Master Haibo, is Yunxia City close to here?" Sui Zimo rarely asked the Master Haibo.

"Are you two going to Yunxia City? Yunxia City is a subsidiary city of Sky City. It is a bit far away from Haibo Kingdom. If you two ride a flying contract beast, you can get there in about fifteen days."

Lord Haibo replied.

Although, there is a voice in my heart asking myself why these two people don't even know where Yunxia City is. Although there are many affiliated cities of Sky City, Yunxia City is also one of them. The entire Qianhuan Continent, no one doesn't know.

"Half a month."

Lin Caisang raised his eyes, glanced at Sui Zimo, and shook his head.

Chu Shui Youyue's family has been living here for almost a year, and there is no shortage of a month or two. It would be better to wait for them to come from Baibind Mountain and then go find him.

When Sui Zimo saw his wife looking towards him, he nodded, and then looked at Lord Haibo again.

"We can't go to Yunxia City for the time being. Could you please send someone to send two letters to Yunxia City for us and deliver them to the head of the Yue Family and the found young master of the Yue Family?"

he asks.

"Of course you can." Lord Haibo nodded immediately.

It was just a matter of sending two letters, and it was just a matter of his instructions, so what was impossible?

However, what he didn't expect was that the female pharmacist and the young master were old acquaintances with the young master of the Yue family who was found. He heard that the young master was found from the wilderness. Could it be that the young master in front of him was... These two...

Thinking of that possibility, Lord Haibo's eyes lit up.

If they really come from the Desolate Continent, they are definitely not ordinary people. On the Desolate Continent, they can learn such superior spiritual skills, how can ordinary people compare with them.

He Haiboguo was determined to make friends with these two people.

Sui Zimo immediately wrote two letters and handed them to the head of the Haibo Kingdom. He also gave special instructions. One was for the head of the Yue family, and the other was for the head of the Yue family who had just returned. That young master's.

After explaining, he took Lin Caisang away with him.

After returning to Prince Mo's Mansion, they made preparations and set off back to Yacun.

On the other side, among the Yue clan in Yunxia City, two letters from Haibo Kingdom were personally delivered to Yue Chong by a close aide of the leader of Haibo Kingdom. One of them was given to Yue Chong.

As for the other letter, a close aide of the leader of Haibo Kingdom refused to hand it over no matter what Yue Chong said, saying that he had to wait until Yue Chushui came in person before handing it over to him.

Yue Chong's face turned purple with anger when he heard that the confidant didn't give him any face and spoke so rudely.

But unfortunately, he was a close confidant of the leader of Haibo Kingdom, so he did not dare to say anything, so he could only open the letter in his hand in front of him.

only.....

Just as he opened the letter, he felt that his body was attacked by a wave of spiritual power, and his hands trembled.

"Well."

His face turned pale, and he endured it for a while before swallowing the mouthful of blood he almost spit out.

"Master, what's wrong with you?"

Luo Mianyi on the side saw his face suddenly turn pale and asked immediately.

When there were outsiders, she didn't dare to call Yue Chong's name casually. Naturally, she wanted to give Yue Chong face.

"nothing."

Yue Chong looked very unhappy and glanced sideways at him.

Can he say that the letter in his hand contains very powerful spiritual power and that he was injured without defense?

Chapter 1919 Going out for training

Of course, this cannot be said in front of outsiders. Even within the family, it cannot be said casually. If the head of the family is injured, who knows what the people below will do secretly?

Naturally, it was impossible for him to give those who were the heads of the Xiao Xiangyue family a chance.

only.....

The person who wrote this letter is so calculating, and he was able to hurt him!

He gritted his teeth, lowered his head, opened the letter in his hand, and looked at the words inside.

Just the first sentence made Yue Chong look very bad.

The first sentence in the letter reads: Head of the Yue family, I heard that you are very bad to my brother?

With such a tone, even if he just saw the words, he could imagine that the person who wrote this sentence was very dissatisfied with him, and the person who wrote the letter...

He thought of the man who went to Huanglu to pick up Yue Chu Shui, Lin Caisang, who cared about Chu Shui and treated him as his own brother, and Ya Molian, whom he had not met a few times, but had a very deep impression every time. !

It seems that the so-called friends of the leader of Haibo Kingdom are them.

And they must have heard somewhere that he was not good to Chu Shui, so they wrote a letter to warn him!

When we met before, it was clear that those two people were still ordinary people with no spiritual power, but within less than a year, they were actually... able to hurt him. (audience)

Even if he was injured unexpectedly, it was still their fault.

"Mianyi, where is Chu Shui?"

Turning his head, he looked at Luo Mianyi beside him and asked.

"Chu...Chu Shui?"

Luo Mianyi's heart thumped and she secretly screamed something bad.

Because since Yue Chushui and Yue Chong said frankly that they wanted peace and did not want to be disturbed, Yue Chong no longer paid attention to this son, so she was naturally more happy to let this person who was not her son go.

Who would have known that the leader of Haibo Kingdom was really nosy, and he actually came to the door at this time, specifically looking for Yue Chushui!

"Master, didn't Chu Shui say before that he wanted to travel outside? I saw that he was bored at home, and thinking that the experience of Yuzun Academy had begun, I asked Chu Shui and Ze'er to follow Yuzun. The disciples from the academy went out to practice together."

She explained quickly.

"What?!"

Hearing Luo Mianyi's words, Yue Chong screamed.

Yuzun College is a college in Sky City. Every student there is capable, so there is nothing wrong with going outside to practice.

But who is Chu Shui? Although he is Yue Chong's son, he is unable to practice.

How could he go to practice with the disciples of Yuzun Academy? That's not nonsense.

"You... Mianyi, you arranged this? Why didn't you mention it to me in advance?" He asked Luo Mianyi with a cold face.

"I....."

Luo Mianyi opened her mouth, and her face finally showed some fear.

Yue Chushui wanted to go out to find his own death, so naturally she wouldn't stop him. Why did she have to tell Yue Chong and then give him a chance to stop Yue Chushui?

Of course she wouldn't tell Yue Chong stupidly.

"Brother Chong, it's Chu Shui who wants to go on his own. There's nothing I can do about it."

Hurry up and pour this dirty water on Yue Chushui. Anyway, that little bitch won't come back alive!

However, just as she said her words, she heard a chuckle and frowned. She looked at the source of the sound, which was a close aide of the leader of the Haibo Kingdom.

Chapter 1920 It's really not a thing

"Ah.

The man just watched Luo Mianyi acting alone.

"Master Yue, if I remember correctly, Young Master Yue just came back not long ago, right? He has been living in seclusion. I'm afraid he doesn't even know what Yuzun Academy is, right?

Moreover, he is not very old. If someone hadn't mentioned Yuzun Academy in front of him, how could he have thought of training with the disciples of Yuzun Academy?

I'm afraid your lady's words are not meant for children, right? "

As he spoke, he still looked understanding and glanced at Luo Mianyi, who had an ugly face.

Before coming to the Yue clan, he had long been ordered by the king to find out the affairs of the Yue family. This young master of the Yue family was not born to the current Mrs. Yue at all. Naturally, there would definitely not be too many Of concern.

But he didn't expect that a young master who couldn't cultivate spiritually, the wife of the Yue family, could be so cruel and push him outside to practice with the disciples of Yuzun Academy.

Isn't this an attempt to kill him?

"Since Young Master Yue is not here, I will take my leave."

With that said, he was about to leave, thinking of quickly passing the news back to the king that Young Master Yue was not at the Yue family, and was going to practice with the disciples of Yuzun Academy, so that the king could send someone to look for him.

only.....

"etc."

Seeing that he was about to leave, Yue Chong opened his mouth to stop him.

"Master Yue, is there anything else?"

The man turned around and looked at Yue Chong.

At this time, knowing that his son might be in danger, he is a normal person. Shouldn't he send someone to find him immediately? Even if he didn't expect it at the moment, how could he not even have the slightest worry or fear on his face?

But he didn't see any expression on the face of the head of the Yue family.

This is really... strange!

"That letter..."

Yue Chong glanced at the letter in the man's hand, then looked into his eyes again, and spoke hesitantly.

Hearing this, the man's face suddenly darkened.

"This letter was given to me by a distinguished guest of the King. It must be delivered to Young Master Yue personally. Since Young Master Yue is not here, I will naturally hand it over to him after the King finds Young Master Yue."

After saying that, he turned around and left.

I sneered coldly in my heart, this month the head of the family is really nothing.

My son didn't even know where he was or if he was in danger, but he was still thinking about a mere letter!

After hearing the man's words and looking at the man's back as he turned away, Yue Chong's face darkened.

Turning his head, he glared at Luo Mianyi.

"I know you don't like Chu Shui, but after all, he is my son and your sister's son. Even if you are pretending, you should still care about him. Look what you have done!"

Although what the confidant of the leader of the Haibo Kingdom said was a bit excessive, which one was wrong?

Ever since Chu Shui was brought back, who didn't know that he couldn't cultivate his spirit?

Now, he actually went with Ze'er to participate in the apprenticeship training of Yuzun Academy. Without even thinking about it, he knew whose idea it was.

However, Luo Mianyi never thought that Chu Shui was also his son? It's really not hateful to want to get rid of him so impatiently!

Especially, this matter was exposed by Luo Mianyi, a brainless person.

When he asked her just now, she couldn't say a word. Chu Shui went out to play with his family. How many days would it take for him to come back?

In this way, he can also have an excuse to ask for the letter!
