

Star of Space 197

Chapter 197: Isn't it fun to climb through the window?

"I also wanted to give birth to a boy so that Zhou Liang could marry me. If the Zhou family is willing to marry me, you can go back to the Liu family, too. You can't have any ideas about my child!"

She had to prevent her mother from secretly drugging her. She was a mother who could do anything.

"this....."

After hearing her words, Liu Rumei thought of her current situation, and her decision that she had already made up in her heart was shaken a little.

"Don't talk about this now, hurry up and clean up the yard with mother."

Everything else is easy to talk about, but the key is that this house still needs to be tidied up, and today's dinner is not yet available.

"good."

Liu Yushui hesitated for a while, but finally agreed for the safety of the child in her belly.

The two women, who had no fingers in their hands, began to do things they had never done before. After a while, their hands were covered with blood blisters, and they were so painful that they shed tears.

After a while, Liu Chushui walked out of the room he had chosen and came to Liu Baixiao.

"Dad, please give me ten taels of silver."

He stretched out his hand towards Liu Baixiao and said.

"What do you need money for?"

Liu Baixiao's pupils shrank when he heard the word "yin".

He only had so little money, the fifty taels of silver that he had paid at the accounting office to give to the Lin family. He couldn't even use it himself, so how could he have any leftover money to give to Liu Chushui.

"Now that our family has to live here, we can't live without land, right? We have to go find Li Zheng and buy three acres of land. Otherwise, what should we do?" Liu Chushui asked him.

"Also, there is nothing to eat or drink at home, not even a pot. I have to go to the town to buy a pot and some rice and noodles. I can't let the whole family starve here, right?"

"Why don't you have anything to eat or drink? Can we go to your grandpa's house to get it later?" Liu Baixiao said immediately.

Anyway, it's impossible to get him to come up with money.

Hearing his words, Liu Chushui sneered in his heart, but his face was very calm, staring at his father, "How about, Dad, can you go to my grandpa's house to get some now?"

They were all kicked out and they were not even given a place to live. Will Grandpa and Grandma still give them food?

Just because of all the things his parents have done over the years, don't even think about it!

"I....."

Liu Baixiao was speechless for a moment and gritted his teeth.

"Take it and take it."

He took out a tael of silver from his silver bag and stuffed it into Liu Chushui's hand.

"Go to town to buy rice. I will handle the land purchase myself. What do you, a kid, know?"

Liu Chushui lowered his head, looked at the few pieces of silver in his hand, and sneered.

He was a kid who didn't understand anything, so why did he have to do this kind of errand work? Moreover, he was the only one who thought of buying some rice and noodles, otherwise he would starve to death?

"good."

Taking a deep breath, he nodded.

"Dad, you go buy a field as soon as possible. I will also buy some seeds in the town. We need to plant the seeds as soon as possible."

"Okay, get out of here quickly, get out of here, it's an eyesore!"

Liu Baixiao waved his hand towards Liu Chushui like a fly. Now, he doesn't want to see anyone who wants to ask for money from him.

Liu Chushui looked at his father deeply, turned around and went out.

Late at night, the door was opened, and within two seconds, it was slammed shut again.

"What's the matter with you? Are you having fun climbing through the window?" Staring at someone who came to her room for no reason, Lin Caisang felt that there was smoke rising above her head, and her whole body felt bad.
