

Star of Space 199

Chapter 199 It's actually night!

Soon, she will be a rich man with too much money to spend, okay? Why do you care about his little money?

"You just come to me to show off your wealth?"

While he was talking about business, he was so glib again. Believe it or not, she used a needle to sew up his lips!

Hearing her salty words, Ya Molian chuckled and said, "I suspect that something strange is causing trouble in Wang town. I came to see you just to ask. Do you want to go and have a look with me?"

"I?"

Lin Caisang raised his hand and pointed at the tip of his nose.

She's a fat girl. If she really encounters something strange, I'm afraid she won't even be able to beat her, right?

However, today I am worried about Liu Baixiao and his family. It would be nice to go out for a walk and see the scenery, right?

"When are you going? Tomorrow?" she asked.

"No, let's leave now. We'll be back tomorrow morning." Seeing that she agreed, Ya Molian stood up.

"What? Night?!"

Lin Caisang's eyes widened and he almost screamed.

Fortunately, he thought in time that he was in her room, so he covered his lips and lowered his voice.

night?

night? ?

night? ? ?

It's actually night! ! !

Brother Mo Lian, have you seen my livid face?

Are you sure you want to go see something weird at night? Why do you feel so upset?

"I....."

"What, scared?" Seeing her like this, Ya Molian raised her eyebrows and asked.

"Afraid? Am I afraid? I'm just afraid of being discovered by Grandma and the others." Lin Caisang immediately denied it.

Isn't it just looking at a strange thing? What's so great about it? Moreover, whether this strange thing exists or not is a question. Maybe it scares myself?

"This thing only appears at night, and the silkworms in the silkworm room are only frozen at night, so we can only go at night. The carriage is already waiting at the entrance of the village." Ya Molian explained.

"Okay, let's just leave." Lin Caisang could only nod.

Although I still don't understand why Ya Molian called him, what kind of help can she do to him? She won't be more helpful the more she helps, right?

But everyone has curiosity, and she is no exception. Ya Molian has come to call her, so why is she embarrassed not to go? She must go over and join in the fun together.

"Liu Baixiao and others are back today. Will it affect you?"

The carriage kept swaying, making Lin Caisang very sleepy. Suddenly, Ya Molian's voice came to her ears, which made her heart jump, and all the sleepy people disappeared in an instant.

There was nothing she could do, Liu Baixiao's family was always surrounding her like ghosts, and she had no choice at all.

"If I say it has no impact, do you believe it?" she asked him.

Now she has a greater responsibility. She has to beware of Liu Rumei's hatred for Liu Yushui's failure to marry Zhou Liang and plot to harm Lin Changfeng. She also has to deal with Liu Baixiao, the shameless guy who took advantage of the fact that there was no one at home. Things just run away.

She could have been able to build the home she wanted without any worries and plant the fruits she liked. What a wonderful life, but it was disrupted by Liu Baixiao's extended family.

She could even imagine what Liu Baixiao and Liu Rumei would look like in the future, coming to eat and drink every day.

Just thinking about it makes my head hurt.

"There is a wild wolf in the inner forest that has just given birth to a litter of cubs. Do you want to raise them?" Yamolian asked instead of answering her words.
