

Star of Space 2001

Chapter 2001 Hold it in... don't talk

Although he didn't want to see his mother being wronged, but from the beginning to now, how could he feel that his mother was not wronged, but really wanted to kill his eldest brother?

"Second brother, mother, does she really want to kill eldest brother?"

Seeing that his second brother didn't speak, he thought for a while and asked another question.

After hearing his third brother's words, Yue Tianze also took a deep breath.

He didn't know why. Even if the eldest brother was not his mother's biological son, he was still their biological eldest brother, right?

Furthermore, in the past year, the eldest brother has never fought or robbed him. He even saved him during the training. If the eldest brother really wanted to fight for something, as long as he left him alone during the training, he would have done it. Dead.

"Hao'er, you're not young anymore. Remember from now on, if you shouldn't ask, don't always ask out loud. Keep it in your heart. One day you will understand it yourself." He said to Yue Tianhao.

Yue Tianhao: "..."

Then he doesn't understand, so he can't ask?

Also, what should not be asked and what should be asked? He doesn't know either. Can you tell him?

But now is really not the time to talk about this. He looked up and saw his mother swiping the whip at Lin Caisang's back. Then, just as he expected, Lin Caisang threatened again. Avoiding dangerous situations is no different from the previous avoidances.

"Second brother, is the eldest brother's sister teasing our mother? Isn't this a good way to avoid her?"
He turned his head and looked at Yue Tianze again. His voice was neither loud nor quiet, just enough to cover the whole yard. people heard it.

"Cough, cough!"

Yue Tianze successfully choked on his own saliva after hearing his third brother's words.

Didn't I just teach him not to ask questions that shouldn't be asked? Why did he forget it in an instant?
How should he, the second brother and the son, answer this question?

If he answered yes, what should his mother do to face the crowd of people waiting in the yard?

Being teased by someone of the younger generation, his mother's face has been lost all her life, okay? It was originally a disgraceful thing, but in the end, his ignorant son said it outright.

What is this thing called?

"Ahem, hold it in...don't talk."

He was teased by his third brother and almost turned into a big-tongued man.

In the middle of the yard, Luo Mianyi, who was having an inseparable fight with Lin Caisang, also heard her son's words. She was secretly angry because she couldn't beat Lin Caisang, and she suddenly became even more furious.

"Lin Caisang, did you do this on purpose?"

"What's intentional?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows, avoided Luo Mianyi's whip-lashing killing move again, and asked her.

"You bitch, you have the guts to stand and let me beat you!" Luo Mianyi was furious and roared.

Originally, she was getting more and more frustrated. She felt that every time Lin Caisang narrowly avoided it, there was always a killing move that Lin Caisang could not avoid. She would definitely be able to kill Lin Caisang. .

But after being told this by his own son, and looking at Lin Caisang's calm face, there is nothing he doesn't understand.

This little bitch did it on purpose. He was not trying to avoid her killer move, but was just teasing her.

"laugh."

Hearing her roar, Lin Caisang sneered.

Originally with her back facing Luo Mianyi, she turned sideways and swung the Wind Spirit Whip in her hand towards Luo Mianyi's face as if she had consciousness of her own.

Chapter 2002 Angry to death

By the time Luo Mianyi discovered it, it was too late to avoid it, so she could only take the move forcefully.

"hiss!"

There was a bloody gash on her face from the Wind Spirit Whip, and she frowned in pain.

"Mrs. Yue, are you kidding me? Standing and letting you hit me? Do you think I am as stupid as you? Otherwise, why don't you stand and let me hit you first? I don't know how, so you give me a try first? Can I demonstrate?"

Lin Caisang looked at Luo Mianyi with a smile and asked her.

She must be sick, but he made her stand and let her hit her. Fortunately, she could shout out loud, and she wasn't afraid of making people's big teeth laugh!

He is such an old man, but he still talks like a child. No wonder the things he does are so terrible. He does whatever comes to his mind. However, this is not a real child, but a vicious person.

"you--"

Luo Mianyi was so angry that she almost spat out a mouthful of blood.

She is such a big person, but she was ridiculed by a little girl. Especially what happened today, she didn't know where to go from the bad breath in her heart.

But for this woman Lin Caisang, she really didn't get any benefit at all.

After thinking about it, she felt that she could no longer be as knowledgeable as Lin Caisang. Today's matter must be settled, otherwise she would not be able to stay in the Yuezhi clan any longer.

"Hmph, I will not argue with you as a little girl today, and I will also give Mr. Sui some face. x9°"~~`"°9x"

She dodged and went to the side. Instead of trying to show off her quickness with Lin Caisang, and the fight became heated, she said something shamelessly.

Everyone: "..."

You don't care? Then who was that person who was extremely ruthless in every move just now?

She really had to say all the good and bad things alone.

"Shut up!"

Mrs. Yue really couldn't stand Luo Mianyi's shameless words and shouted angrily.

Why not argue with Lin Caisang? With her little ability, what can she argue with? It's not enough for Lin Caisang to really work hard and whip her.

"I....."

Luo Mianyi opened her mouth when she heard Mrs. Yuelao's words, but she didn't dare to say anything more.

After a while, a nun walked in and whispered a few words in Mrs. Yue's ear. Mrs. Yue's face darkened and she gritted her teeth and looked at Luo Mianyi.

But the next moment, she seemed to have thought of something, her eyes lit up, and her expression soon returned to her normal expression.

"Mama Liu found it."

She said coldly to Luo Mianyi.

"According to what she said, it was you who was in charge of finding a killer to kill Chu Shui, Luo Mianyi. How can you explain this?"

"Impossible, that old thing is talking nonsense. You must have forced her into submission. I didn't ask her to do anything at all!" Luo Mianyi shouted her injustice.

How could she admit it at this time? Even if she had to go to hell, she would not admit it!

She knew very well in her heart that if she admitted it, her life would be over, and her two sons would no longer have any bright future in the Yuezhi clan.

"It doesn't matter if you don't admit it. I just need to check to see if anyone in your yard can get a hundred impure crystal stones. As long as they can get it, it will be fine." Aunt Liu is the person who does things."

Madam Yue said.

"you--"

Luo Mianyi's breath was stuck in her throat, and she was almost angry to death from the old woman in front of her who wanted her to die.

Chapter 2003 Go to the grave

What's wrong with her? Why does this old immortal look down on her? Compared to Luo Qiuyi, she thought she was much better than Luo Qiuyi.

Why does this old immortal like Luo Qiuyi's lifeless temperament but not her?

Back then, when she first married Yue Chong, she did a lot to please this old immortal!

But no matter how much she tries to please her, this old guy just doesn't like her.

"Mother, do you have to blame me for things I haven't done today?" She knocked down and asked Mrs. Yuelao.

Mrs. Yue listened to her words, raised her eyes to look at Grandma, and gave instructions.

"Let those people in the yard disperse."

Then, she looked at Lin Caisang and the others, and the meaning in her eyes couldn't be more obvious. The Yue family had to deal with housework. Even if Lin Caisang was Yue Chushui's sister, she was not a relative, so she had better avoid it first. Just open it.

Lin Caisang and the others were naturally sensible. They found an excuse and left first, leaving all the killers to those brought by Mrs. Yuelao.

In the end, I don't know how Mrs. Yue Lao interrogated Luo Mianyi, nor what Yue Chushui said. The news that Lin Caisang and others got was that Mrs. Yue Lao sent Luo Mianyi directly out of the Yue clan. No face left at all.

As for where he was sent, it was definitely not a good place for Luo Mianyi. It was the grave of Yue Chushui's late mother, Luo Qiuyi, and she was sent to guard the grave.

Luo Mianyi refused in every possible way, using the excuse that her two sons were still underage to stay in the Yue clan, and repeatedly promised that she would treat Yue Chushui well in the future.

But Mrs. Yue Lao would never be merciful again, because she realized that if she didn't get Luo Mianyi away, the two children would be ruined by her as soon as possible.

Yue Tianze is okay. After all, he is already half a child and knows that he is right or wrong. However, Yue Tianhao is still young and cannot tell who is right and who is wrong. If Luo Mianyi instills some bad ideas, where will he go? There is no future left to talk about.

Yue Chong was the last to get the news. When he found out the news, he almost spit out a mouthful of blood.

"Didn't I ask you to do it? Is Aunt Liu still alive?" He looked sharply at the people around him and asked.

"Go home, Master, Grandma Liu has died a long time ago."

The guard heard his question and immediately explained.

"What's going on?" Yue Chong asked again.

Since Aunt Liu is no longer here, there is no proof. How did Luo Mianyi ruin all her good moves in her own hands?

"There was a person next to the old lady who was good at disguise. After scaring her a few words, she said everything she should and shouldn't say," the guard said.

"That idiot!"

Yue Chong had a dark face and couldn't help but curse.

He had already dealt with Nanny Liu, but that woman could still be defeated to such an extent.

How could the capable person around me be so easily impersonated by others? It can be seen that the woman has never paid attention to the people around her.

Idiot, he doesn't even know what the people around him are like. Isn't it okay to betray her in the future?

"What did she confess?" He took a deep breath and asked in a deep voice.

"this....."

When the guard heard his question, he raised his eyes and glanced at him, hesitating whether he should say anything or not.

Chapter 2004 Sleeping with a snake!

"explain!"

Yue Chong narrowed his eyes and said sternly.

"Yes, head of the family."

The guard hurriedly responded, and then told Yue Chong all the evil deeds Luo Mianyi had done one by one.

"According to what the old lady sent here to report, the reason why the eldest young master was exchanged in Huanglu was also part of the madam's handiwork. She bribed Young Master Lin Tianyu's mother to let her do it.

The death of the ex-wife was also related to the madam. After the eldest young master was recovered, the madam secretly attacked the eldest young master more than a dozen times in an attempt to kill him.

Think about it, Luo Mianyi, a woman, really went to any lengths to become the wife of the Yuezhi clan!

First, he caused his sister's son to be homeless, and then he killed his sister with his own hands. Then he took his sister's place and married his brother-in-law, and they stayed married for many years.

He was still not satisfied, but after the head of the family found the eldest son, he actually wanted to attack the eldest son who couldn't cultivate spirits!

Fortunately, the eldest son is not as useless as people say.

This way I didn't let Madam get hurt!

"Master, there is one more thing..."

"Anything else, tell me."

Yue Chong took a deep breath again and asked.

He really didn't expect that Luo Mianyi would do so many things behind his back. He thought that Luo Mianyi was just jealous of Luo Qiuyi at most, and had no real intention to harm Luo Qiuyi.

Who knew that she was really responsible for Luo Qiuyi's death?

He thought, of course, the reason why he took Luo Qiuyi, who was pregnant with Liujia, to Huanglu was because Luo Mianyi had suggested it to him.

In other words, at that time, Luo Mianyi was already planning to kill his son and then his wife so that he could take the position of the wife of the head of the Yue family?

Fortunately, such a thoughtful woman found out early.

If in a few years, the Yuezhi clan does not develop as she expected, and he really passes the position of young master to Chu Shui, then does Luo Mianyi even want to kill him, her husband?

I really didn't expect that he has been sleeping with a snake all these years!

"The grandmother who came to deliver the message said that it was the old lady's wish that the things she had done would be spread to the Luo clan as soon as possible. She hoped that the head of the family could handle this matter by himself."

The guards lowered their heads, not even daring to look at some of their masters.

What the old lady meant couldn't be more obvious, that is, tell the head of the family directly, and let the head of the family go and apologize to the old lady Luo, and she will not care at all.

The head of the family has always been arrogant, so how could he bow his head and admit his mistake to someone, let alone the other person is a woman.

Even if it was the family owner's mother-in-law, it was not something the family owner could admit his mistake. The family owner would definitely not be willing to do so.

Sure enough, after Yue Chong heard what the guard said, his face turned as dark as the bottom of a pot.

What does mother mean by this? Is she just going to let it go?

Let him go to Mrs. Luo himself and tell her that it was because of his laissez-faire that Luo Mianyi killed her own daughter?

But in the final analysis, who raised Luo Mianyi? Mrs. Luo herself?

If Mrs. Luo had not been kind-hearted and raised Luo Mianyi's poisonous snake, how could she have had the chance to kill Luo Qiuyi?

That is simply impossible!

Chapter 2005 Medicine Village

What's going on now? It's clear that everyone is at fault, but in the end it's as if he was the only one who was at fault. Isn't that interesting?

But in the end, he could only swallow the bad breath.

"Just back off."

He waved to the guard and said.

Who made him unlucky enough to end up with a son like Yue Chushui who was specifically looking for trouble for him?

He can only tell Mrs. Luo about this matter, otherwise, the Yuezhi clan may not be able to gain a foothold in Yunxia City.

Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang stayed at Yue's house for a few days.

Finally, Yue Chushui got the news that there was a place on the Qianhuan Continent where many people from the Desolate Continent lived.

This news was obtained by his grandmother, Mrs. Luo, who spent a lot of effort to go to Sky City and find out the information from the Lord's Mansion of Sky City.

After receiving this news, Lin Caisang naturally didn't want to wait any longer. She wanted to fly to Sky City immediately, go to the place Yue Chushui mentioned, and see if there was any whereabouts of her father.

Yue Chushui also made a prompt decision. After saying goodbye to Mrs. Yuelao, he followed Lin Caisang and the others.

Yue Chong was the last one to know the news. When he got the news and found out that his son had followed someone else, it was too late to stop him because he had already gone so far away and didn't even know where he was going. Talk to him.

Even if he wanted to send people to chase him, he didn't know where to chase him.

However, he still secretly thought in his heart that if possible, he still couldn't pass the position of young master to Yue Chushui. The one he liked most was Yue Tianze. This son was the most obedient and sensible.

In another place, after two days of traveling, Lin Caisang and his party came to a very deserted place.

"Chu Shui, is this the place you're talking about?"

After staring at the endless desolate land for a long time, Lin Caisang turned his head, looked at Yue Chushui, and asked.

"Yes, Sister Sangsang."

Yue Chushui nodded in agreement.

According to the news from my grandmother, this should be the right place.

"Chu Shui, this place is really deserted." Lin Changhong sighed.

Looking at the place in front of him, he had already entered a plain that had never been visited by humans. The thatch was taller than a person, and the thatch was withered and rotten all over the ground.

"This is not within the scope of Sky City. Why is there such a place?"

Zhong You asked.

Ever since they came to Qianhuan Continent, they had heard of Sky City, which was the richest place in the entire Qianhuan Continent.

In his imagination, Sky City is like their capital city, which is the richest. Everyone, even the farmers, have much more money than people in other places. .

But now, looking at the scene in front of me, it is really hard to imagine that this place is actually under the jurisdiction of Sky City.

"I heard the news from my grandmother that this place should be where the city lord of Sky City saw people who came from the Desolate Continent. They were penniless and were often bullied by people on the Qianhuan Continent, so he opened up this place. place for those people to live."

Yue Chushui explained.

"Sister Sang Sang, brother-in-law, you should also know that Qianhuan Continent is mainly about medicinal materials and alchemy, and a large part of these medicinal materials come from this place, so it is also called this place. village."

Chapter 2006 Big...eldest sister?

"It is said that many people in this place have become very rich because of growing medicinal herbs, but because this place has brought them so much, they don't want to leave here." He said again. "In that case, let's go in." Sui Zimo said. "Wait." Yue Chushui saw that everyone was ready to go in and hurriedly stopped them. "To enter here, if you live here permanently, you have to go to Sky City first to handle some things, so that you can get a plot of land here and grow medicinal herbs in the future. Of course, if you are just looking for someone, there is no need, but I heard that the people here are very inhospitable. He looked at them and said. "So what, let's go in first." Lin Caisang shrugged and said. No matter what, they can't come here in vain. They must go in first to see if her father is inside. "Let's go." Seeing that his wife said so, Sui Zimo naturally took Lin Caisang's hand and walked in without hesitation. "Let's go, let's go in and take a look first." Yue Chushui watched them walk towards the tall thatch and wanted to stop them, but was patted on the shoulder by Lin Changhong behind him. "Okay. He couldn't say anything else, so he could only go in first and take it one step at a time. I hope they won't be driven out by the people inside. After all, the people living here are also very wary of the people on the Thousand Illusion Continent. But... After a long time, when they came to a medicinal herb field, Yue Chushui twitched his eyes and looked at the owner of the medicinal herb field who was sitting on a big rock next to him and chatting happily with him. He was not feeling well. "Big sister, come and eat this. This is also what I brought back from the wasteland. You must not have eaten it for a long time, right?" Lin Caisang said as he handed a piece of cake to an old woman and said to her happily. "Big... Big sister?"

Lin Changhong squatted aside and drew circles in horror, looking up at his sister.

Sister, where is your conscience?

With her white hair and wrinkles, she looks like an old lady in her sixties or seventies, but she insisted on calling her elder sister. He wanted to vomit, okay?

But he couldn't say that.

He was just scared by his sister's address to the old lady. He exclaimed and was driven to the corner by his brother-in-law to draw circles.

"This is lotus cake. I haven't eaten it for a long time. "

The old woman took the package of cakes handed to her by Lin Caisang, opened it and looked at it, her face was full of surprise.

Although there are hibiscus cakes in Qianhuan Continent, they are different from those in her hometown. She misses her hometown, and she thinks that the things brought from her hometown must be the most delicious.

Almost immediately, she opened it and tasted it, and her eyes lit up immediately.

"Well, this is the taste, much better than the things in Qianhuan Continent, but it's a pity that I can never go back."

She sighed.

Although she has accumulated a lot of wealth because she planted medicinal herbs here, she is already so old. Even if she goes back, is there anyone she knows at home?

My parents must be gone, and there are brothers and sisters. Can they still recognize her as a relative?

Chapter 2007 The little girl is so pitiful

Think about it, it would be better to stay here and wait for death than to go back and not be recognized by your family, and then be heartbroken when you die.

In the final analysis, she didn't want to go back and face her family. In short, it was a kind of fear of being close to home that was tormenting her.

However, when the old woman was eating hibiscus cake, everyone was speechless.

Where did this come from the Liang Kingdom? It was obviously bought randomly on the street when I was in Yunxia City. Their mistress is really good at boasting, and she is not afraid of the old woman finding out.

"Little girl, what are you doing with such a big group of people?"

Although she was enjoying the taste of her longed-for hometown, the old woman still asked Lin Caisang, which showed that the vigilance in her heart had not diminished.

"Why."

Lin Caisang was stunned for a moment when he heard her question, and then sighed heavily.

"My family used to be a big family. There were many brothers in my father's generation, so my father was resented by other uncles, so they knocked him out and threw him to Qianhuan Continent.

I had been searching for many years before I came to Qianhuan Continent, hoping to see if I could find my father and reunite my family.

My poor mother is still left alone at home. Because her father disappeared that year, she almost cried her eyes out. As children, how can we bear it? We must find my father during my mother's lifetime and reunite them as husband and wife.

As she spoke, she raised her head, glanced at the old woman secretly, and squeezed out a few tears from her eyes.

Everyone: "..."

Is their mistress an actress?

This poor pretending is just a little white lotus, but this old lady really likes her.

"Really, the little girl is so pitiful." The old woman sighed and shook her head.

"When did your father come here? There are not many people here from the wilderness. There is also the White Blind Mountain. It is also a dangerous place. It was only by chance that I came to Qianhuan Continent. "

"My father came here a few years ago, because we were looking for him, and my mother kept her for several years. My father's portraits were all given to me. Sister, please take a look, is there anyone like my father here? people."

With that said, Lin Caisang handed the portrait of his father that he had already drawn from his small satchel to the old woman.

This portrait is of what her father looked like when he was young. He must have changed a lot now. After all, after being tortured for so many years, even the best person will change.

But the general outline will not change.

"Oh, this portrait is really exquisite."

The old woman looked at the person in the portrait, who looked like a real person, and her eyes suddenly brightened.

"Tsk ts, this portrait... looks like new. It's so well preserved."

Everyone: "..."

This is new. It must have been painted not long ago by their mistress, but they will not tell this fact.

"Yes, my mother cherishes my father's paintings. In the future, my brother and I were afraid of forgetting what my father looked like, so we secretly took a look or touched them, but my mother beat us several times."

Lin Caisang nodded repeatedly and agreed with the old woman's words.

"The relationship between my father and my mother was very good. It's a pity that they were torn apart by those vicious people."

Chapter 2008 The decoration is really good

"Those people are so damned!"

The old woman couldn't help but cursed after hearing her words.

Lin Changhong: "..."

Girl, are you really okay with your nonsense?

It's okay for his mother to beat him, but to beat his sister? Is this something their mother would do?

However, I couldn't say this either, so I continued to hold it in.

"Little girl, don't worry, eldest sister has lived here for many years. If your father is here, eldest sister promises that your father will be found. You can stay here with peace of mind. I will go outside to inquire later. "

The old woman patted her chest and assured Lin Caisang.

Everyone: "..."

Come on, this old woman was successfully deceived by their mistress. She really thought she was a girl in her teens or 20s, and even called herself the eldest sister.

"Thank you, sis."

Lin Caisang quickly thanked him, then raised his head and glanced at Sui Zimo, his eyes full of pride.

Sui Zimo smiled helplessly, his eyes full of doting.

...

The old woman's house looks like a small thatched cottage from the outside.

However, when Lin Caisang and the others entered, they discovered that the interior was really well-decorated. It was much better than the houses of the Yuezhi clan.

"Little girl, you can live in the west wing over there. There are so many of you that you can't live in one room, so just two people in one room. Let's make do with it."

The old woman pointed to the west wing and said.

There are not many rooms in her house, because the people here usually don't have many guests. At most, they are just acquaintances here, but they all have their own families. After chatting for a day, they go home in the evening. .

At the end of the year, when the herbs are ripe, someone will come to collect the herbs and maybe stay for a night.

But she has been in this place for more than forty years. Since the house was built, there have not been a few guests living in it, and she does not want those outsiders to live in it.

Of course, she got on well with the little girl, so it wouldn't hurt to let them stay for a while.

"Thank you, eldest sister." Lin Caisang thanked her gratefully.

"Why are you grateful? It's convenient for others and it's convenient for yourself." The old woman smiled.

"By the way, my surname is Chang. People here call me Granny Chang. From now on, you can just call me Aunt Chang."

Although this little girl has a really sweet mouth, and she also likes to hear others call her young, she still has her age, and she can't let others make fun of her.

"Okay, Aunt Chang." Lin Caisang responded.

"Aunt Chang, I see you can't see anyone else here. Are they usually not at home?"

she asked.

The endless fields here are filled with medicinal materials. Looking into the distance, she can vaguely see another courtyard. She thought, these people all live together, right?

"No way."

Grandma Chang smiled when she heard her doubtful words.

"The medicinal garden within a few miles of this place belongs to me alone. I am the only one in my family. I have not married anyone since I came to Qianhuan Continent."

In fact, it's not that she's not married, it's that she can't get married.

When I first came here, I was really young, only fifteen years old, and I was as beautiful as a flower.

But at that time, no one was willing to marry a woman who had no money and came from the wilderness. So, out of desperation, she came to this place to survive.

Chapter 2009 There is really no bottom line

Later, as she continued to grow medicinal materials here, she accumulated more and more money, and there were many people who came to propose marriage.

But she knew very well in her heart that those people were interested in her. They were obviously interested in the money in her hands. As soon as she gave the money to the man, those people would definitely kick her away.

Therefore, she didn't like any of those people. Of course, part of the reason was that at that time, she was already a little older, mature, and knew a lot.

She is no longer the little girl who just wanted to find a husband in Qianhuan Continent.

"Your aunt has spent all her youth in this medicine field."

"Do all the medicine fields here belong to you?"

Lin Caisang was slightly surprised and looked at the green patch of land outside the courtyard gate.

There are also a lot of medicinal materials grown in her medicine garden, which is definitely better than this medicine field.

But taking care of her medicine garden space must be difficult.

Grandma Chang may look inconspicuous, but she is really capable of managing such a large medicinal field by herself.

"Yes, there weren't that many at first, but then I got a little money, so I bought some medicinal fields to grow medicinal materials. Unknowingly, I planted more and more medicinal materials." Grandma Chang said with emotion.

In the beginning, how could we allocate so many medicinal fields? No matter how rich Sky City was, it would not be possible for them to give so many fields to one person. At most, they would only be able to support people from the deserted continent. It's just my own medicine field.

"Aunt Chang, you are so amazing."

Lin Caisang raised a big thumb finger at Granny Chang and praised her.

Everyone: "..."

Mistress, you really have no bottom line.

...

After a while, Granny Chang said she was going to cook and entertain the guests. Lin Caisang asked Shi Jian and Shi Shu to help, while he and Sui Zimo went to sort out what they wanted to sleep at night. The place is gone.

"Zimo, everyone here looks ordinary, but they are not ordinary, right?"

She could only see this in general terms, but she had to ask her husband for details before she could be sure.

"Um."

Sui Zi Mo glanced outside the door, then nodded to his wife.

When they came in from the outside, they also saw other people. Although those people were afraid of them, it could be seen from the way they walked that they had spiritual powers.

"I just have a little bit of spiritual power, not much."

he said.

"I can see this." Lin Caisang said.

"Have you seen the medicines Chang Po planted in her yard? If those medicines are boiled together and prepared properly, they can make people cultivate their spirits. But...if my guess is right, It's also a type of witchcraft."

She lowered her voice and said.

"Those are not good medicinal materials."

She only needed to take a look and knew that those people were very poisonous and would be very harmful to people's health if they were eaten.

"I'm afraid many people here are like this." Sui Zimo said.

"I don't know about others, but my father will never engage in such evil practices." Lin Caisang's tone was extremely certain that her father would not engage in these medicinal materials to harm herself.

"Well, I believe dad won't." Sui Zimo responded.

Chapter 2010 Is this human bone? !

"Son'er, you'll be tired tonight and draw a few more portraits of dad. Tomorrow I'll ask Ban Jue and the others to go out and inquire. Aunt Chang alone won't do it.

"good."

Lin Caisang naturally did not put all his hopes on Granny Chang.

"You go out later and let them pay more attention at night. I always feel that this place is a little weird, but I can't tell what is weird.

It's better to be careful. "

"I'll go now."

Sui Zimo responded, turned around and went out.

...

In the kitchen, Shi Jian and Shi Shu were busy with Granny Chang, washing vegetables, cutting meat, making fire, and doing everything.

Under the stove, the servant had already lit the fire, then took a few pieces of firewood, put them under the stove, and then stared at the flames that were slowly getting stronger.

However, as her eyes became brighter and brighter, she discovered that there was a long bone under the fire, which was already burnt and turned black.

Even if she doesn't cook often, she still knows that no one would use bones to make fire, right?

So, when Granny Chang said she was going to catch a fish from the water tank outside and make braised fish for them to eat, she quickly used the pliers to pick out the bone, and then used her handkerchief to He wrapped it up and stuffed it into his chest.

Just as she finished doing this, Grandma Chang came in with a fish in her hand.

"Ah, I even forgot to tidy the room for the master.

The servant stood up from the stool, pretending to have just remembered that he needed to do something for his master, and his face turned a little green.

"Servant Secretary..."

Shi Jian heard her words and turned to look at her.

She wanted to ask, when did the master and mistress need them to do these chores? The mistress has always done it herself.

However, when she looked at Shi Shu, she didn't ask any doubts. She secretly told herself that there must be a reason for Shi Shu to do this.

"I'm here to help Aunt Chang. Go quickly."

"good."

The waiter responded, then glanced at Granny Chang.

"Shijian, I'll ask Jiang Zuo and the others to come in and help you."

With that said, she went out, and soon she called Jiang Zuo and Jiang Li to the kitchen, while she went to her master and mistress's room.

"What's the matter?"

Sui Zimo looked at her and asked.

"Master, my subordinate found this under the stove in the kitchen. I don't know what kind of animal bones it is. I wanted to show it to my mistress."

The servant took out the bones wrapped in a handkerchief from his arms, handed them to his master, and said.

"bone?"

Lin Caisang heard her words and looked at the handkerchief in her hand.

It shouldn't be surprising to find bones under the stove, right? In the past, those greedy little wives in the village would secretly eat some meat under the stove, and of course the bones would be thrown away.

However, she still took the handkerchief from the clerk's hand and opened it.

Suddenly, her pupils shrank suddenly and she looked at the burned bones in the handkerchief.

"Tell me, where did you find this, Zaoxia?"

Raising her head, she looked at Shishu and asked.

"Back to mistress, I found it in the fire hall." The servant replied.

"What's wrong?"

Seeing that his wife didn't look right, Sui Zimo came over to take a look. The next moment, his face turned ugly.

"These are human bones?!"
