

Star of Space 2151

Chapter 2151 The emperor did it himself

"There are no mythical beasts." Lin Caisang looked at Yin Baiqing and said.

"There is no mythical beast now because for some unknown reason, this mythical beast fell into a deep sleep three years ago. The emperor went to Zi Yan Kingdom, and even many beast trainers on the Qianhuan Continent were unable to awaken the mythical beast."

Yin Baiqing said.

"That's why you didn't see the mythical beast this time, but it is said that it was precisely because the mythical beast was asleep that the treasure land in the West Underground Palace has not been opened for three years.

The outside of the East Underground Palace is even more heavily guarded. No one in the royal family can enter except the emperor. "

"No one can get in except the emperor?" Lin Caisang raised an eyebrow.

"Yes, it is said that the agency information there is very powerful. Without the agency blueprint, it is impossible to get in."

Yin Baiqing said.

"Besides, there are indeed more tomb guards in the imperial mausoleum. If we didn't have some magic weapons on us to protect ourselves, we wouldn't be able to get in no matter what."

"That's not right either."

Lin Caisang shook her head, feeling that this was not what she wanted to know.

"Even if no one has gone to the treasure land in the past three years, there should still be many people from the royal family who went in three years ago. Then it is normal for them to get some treasures out. This purple gas stone, maybe It's just one of them."

"Won't.

Yin Baiqing still shook her head.

"According to what my mother-in-law said, the nose of that mythical beast is particularly sensitive. But every member of the royal family who goes in to hunt for treasures can only bring out one treasure. If they bring more, they will definitely not be able to escape the beast. Nose.

And how many years has the imperial mausoleum existed? All the treasures taken out of the imperial mausoleum have been registered, and every item is clearly remembered.

Although no one is allowed to discuss the imperial mausoleum, and it will be a capital crime, the things that were taken out from the imperial mausoleum by the royal family can still be discussed, and everyone knows clearly who has what treasure. "

Therefore, it is really impossible to say that the purple air stone belongs to Yinluqing, unless Yinluqing has the ability to escape from the nose of the divine beast and steal the second treasure.

"Oh, it's interesting that only the emperor can come and go at will."

Lin Caisang chuckled lightly, feeling that he was really becoming more and more interested in the affairs of Ziyang Kingdom.

"So, those ghost things in the East Underground Palace were created by the emperor himself, not Yinluqing or others?"

She looked at Yin Baiqing and said.

I originally thought that the emperor who loved his grandson Yin Baiqing the most may have been the one who placed the purple air stone next to Yin Baiqing, causing him to swallow the purple air stone.

No wonder Yin Baiqing said just now that his mother-in-law's face was so scary that it scared him.

If there was a person beside her who was originally caring for her, but in the end she found out that he was actually the most vicious person who wanted to harm her, she would probably be so disgusted that she would vomit, right?

It would be strange if Princess Niu was not frightened!

Moreover, what does the emperor of the Ziyang Kingdom want to do? What does he want to do by raising so many poisonous corpses? Use them to conquer all directions and bring the entire Qianhuan Continent under his wings. ?

Tsk.

She didn't have that ability, but she still had such great thoughts. She was really confused.

"That should be the case. My mother-in-law guessed the same just now." Yin Baiqing nodded.

He just didn't expect that his imperial grandfather would be such a deeply hidden person.

Chapter 2152 Holy Son Blue

"My mother-in-law just told me that she had thought before that even if she didn't tell my father the news of my return, she should tell my grandfather, who loves me the most, how could I possibly get it..."

He shook his head, really scared. If the emperor really knew the news of his return, I'm afraid it would be difficult for him in the Ziyang Kingdom, right?

"Fortunately, the mother-in-law hasn't entered the palace yet, otherwise, this matter would really make a big fuss.

"Ah."

Lin Caisang chuckled and looked sideways at Sui Zimo.

"Husband, this Yinluqing is really capable. He actually regards his father as a mantis."

As the saying goes, the mantis stalks the cicada, but the oriole is behind. This Yinluqing dares to cut off his own father's hair. What else will he not dare to do in the future?

"But the emperor of Ziyang Kingdom is probably not a good person anymore, Bai Qing, don't you think so?"

She looked at Yin Baiqing, wanting to see what his attitude was.

"My mother-in-law told me the same thing."

Yin Baiqing is still frightened by the news, but he also agrees with Lin Caisang's words.

If his imperial grandfather was really a good person, he would not keep so many poisonous corpses in the underground palace east of the imperial mausoleum. If all those things were released, how many people could be harmed.

"By the way, Sister Sangsang, there is one more thing."

Suddenly, he seemed to have thought of something and suddenly became energetic.

"I just heard my mother mentioned inadvertently that there is a secret palace medicine in the Ziyang Kingdom called Saint Child Blue. It is a poison refined from the essence extracted from the mutated blue flower of the Saint Child Flower. .

I listened to my mother-in-law's description of the Holy Son Lan, and it seems... quite similar to the poison that you told us about your brother-in-law before.

I don't know what the relationship is between the two? "

"Saint Son Blue?"

Lin Caisang's eyes suddenly lit up.

It would be great if this Holy Son Lan was really the poison in her husband's body.

"Why did you suddenly mention this Saint Son Lan?"

"Because the Holy Child Flower was planted in the North Underground Palace of the Imperial Tomb." Yin Baiqing said.

"I don't know the specifics. I just heard that the Holy Child Flower might be related to the poison that my brother-in-law was poisoned, so I asked my mother and concubine more, and then I found out that the Holy Child Flower grows in the North Underground Palace.

And that place is always dark all year round. Even the gardener who maintains the Saint Child Flower is not allowed to light oil lamps when entering the North Underground Palace. He can only rely on his own feeling.

Therefore, in the North Underground Palace, people often die due to being poisoned by the Holy Child Flower.

I didn't dare to mention the poisonous corpses in the East Underground Palace to my mother-in-law. I just asked my mother-in-law if people died often in the imperial mausoleum. Only then did the mother-in-law think of the Holy Son Flower and the palace's secret poison Saint Son Blue.

I estimate that those who died in the North Underground Palace were all brought under the East Underground Palace and turned into poisonous corpses. "

"North Underground Palace."

Lin Caisang looked at Sui Zimo.

"Why did the North Underground Palace pop up again? Zimo, did you see it when you went there?"

she asked.

Sui Zimo thought for a while and shook his head.

He only saw the East Underground Palace and the West Underground Palace in the Imperial Mausoleum. To be honest, he didn't even see the mausoleum where the royal family was actually buried.

"can not be seen."

Before Sui Zimo could say anything, Yin Baiqing spoke.

"These underground palaces are located on the Beishan Mountain behind the imperial mausoleum. It is said that the entrance is very secret. After the gardeners were sent in, no one came out alive. Anyway, no one in Mengyan City has ever seen it. The North Underground Palace Some people come out less often.

Chapter 2153 Is there such a good medicine?

Over the years, the emperor would select a time to enter the North Underground Palace to pick mature Holy Son flowers, and then send a large number of gardeners in to maintain the Holy Son flowers.

"North Underground Palace..."

Lin Caisang murmured these three words, then looked sideways at Sui Zimo.

"Husband, I..."

"You can't do anything now, just take care of your baby."

Before Lin Caisang could say anything, Sui Zimo interrupted her little thoughts.

The Holy Child Flower is highly poisonous, especially the mutated Holy Child Flower, so it is even more untouchable, not even for ordinary people, let alone a pregnant woman like Son'er?

He would never allow Sonny to go to that place.

Lin Caisang: "..."

She hasn't said anything yet.

"Sister Sangsang, do you want to go to Beidi Palace?" Yin Baiqing looked at Lin Caisang and asked.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang glanced at him.

Now ask this, is there any use? Didn't you see that her husband didn't allow her to go?

"Actually, brother-in-law, if Sister Sangsang wants to go, it's okay, but it's not possible right now. The opening time of the North Underground Palace will be another month. We will be prepared by then, and we can still sneak in once."

Hearing this, Sui Zimo frowned.

How could he let Sonny go to that dangerous place? Absolutely impossible. He glanced sideways and glared at Yin Baiqing.

Yin Baiqing was glared at by him and pursed her lips.

"Brother-in-law, my imperial grandfather is not an alchemist, but he can't enter the Beidi Palace. According to my mother-in-law, that's because every time he enters the Beidi Palace, he will put a kind of alchemy on his body. A poisonous medicine."

After a while, he explained aloud.

I heard that after the imperial grandfather had this medicine, other poisons could not enter his body. For this reason, those who wanted to murder him could not even enter his body, so how could they harm him, so he has been comfortable these years Very.

Apart from having more guards around me, there is really no need to worry about other aspects of diet.

"But no one knows where this medicine that can cure hundreds of poisons comes from, not even the emperor's grandfather himself. He only knows that it has been there since the founding of the Zi Yan Kingdom."

"Is there such a good medicine in this world?" Lin Caisang looked at him and asked.

If there is such a powerful medicine that can prevent poison from invading the body, wouldn't it be a big winner in life?

It's no wonder that the royal family of Ziyan Kingdom can always sit on the throne so securely. There have been so many generations of emperors in the Yin family, and no one can really defeat him.

"Husband, how about we go to the North Underground Palace?"

Turning her head, she looked at Sui Zimo and suggested.

She still wanted to go to the North Underground Palace to see what the Holy Child Flower looked like.

If it could be confirmed that the poison her husband was poisoned by was really Saint Child Blue, and the antidote could be found from the North Underground Palace, then the place where Yin Luqing had been threatening them would be completely eliminated.

In this way, they can deal with Yin Lüqing more simply and roughly.

"Listen to Bai Qing's nonsense!"

Sui Zimo didn't take it seriously and turned his back to glare at Yin Baiqing.

"If there really is that kind of medicine in this world that can cure hundreds of poisons, would you still go to the North Underground Palace? Just let me take that medicine directly."

"Well."

Lin Caisang was really choked after hearing his words.

Yes, if there really is that kind of medicine, why don't you just take it and go to the North Underground Palace to find the Holy Child Flower?

Chapter 2154 Don't look down on me

However, we have to look for the Holy Child Flower, but there may be other ways.

"Bai Qing, your mother-in-law actually mentioned this Holy Son Blue. Is there any way she can get this poison?"

Maybe after getting the Holy Son Blue, she could prepare the antidote without going to the North Underground Palace?

Or maybe, the poison in Saint Zilan and her husband are just somewhat similar, but they are actually different. This is also unknown!

And all of this can only be determined after she gets the Holy Son Blue.

"this....."

After hearing her words, Yin Baiqing hesitated.

"Sister Sang Sang, I just heard what my mother and concubine said. This Holy Son Blue is a secret poison of the palace. It can only be found in the hands of the emperor, but it doesn't mean that others have no chance to come into contact with it.

only....."

"Just what?"

Lin Caisang asked immediately when he heard about the opportunity.

"Didn't I just say that the Holy Child Flower will bloom in a month, and the Emperor will definitely go to the North Underground Palace. There will only be some guards in the palace by then, and the Emperor is not here. As long as we can go in, we should be able to find him. Saint child blue.

But if this is the case, we won't be able to go to the North Underground Palace to look for the Holy Son Flower. "

Yes, in this case, even if they knew that Sheng Zilan was the poison of their brother-in-law, they would not have the time to enter the Beidi Palace to find the Holy Son. They would have to wait until a year later.

"If we can find the Holy Child Blue, why go to the Beidi Palace to look for the Holy Child Flower again?"
Lin Changhong couldn't stand listening anymore and asked.

"Brother Changhong, you don't understand."

Yin Baiqing glanced at Lin Changhong, who had been silent, and curled her lips.

"The Holy Flower can make poison, but it can also detoxify, but the poison is made from blue flowers, while the detoxified flower is purple. Both of them are mutant varieties and are extremely difficult to obtain.

If we want to get the purple Holy Child Flower, we must first go to the North Underground Palace.

But if we go to the emperor's palace first to look for the Holy Son Blue, then we can't get to the North Underground Palace, so how can we get the purple flowers?

If we can be sure that Sheng Zilan was not poisoned by her brother-in-law, that would be okay.

But if these two poisons are actually the same poison, wouldn't that be a missed opportunity? It will be too late to regret it by then.

Sister Sangsang, brother-in-law, what do you think? "

He is also thinking about Sister Sangsang and brother-in-law. What if these two poisons are really the same poison? Wouldn't it be necessary to wait another year for his own speculation...

"Furthermore, even if we get Saint Son Blue this year, this poison is so rare, the emperor will definitely find it when he returns to the palace. The Beidi Palace will be heavily guarded by then. Then next year, we may still get it in the Beidi Palace. Purple flowers?"

"Tsk."

Hearing Yin Baiqing's words, Lin Caisang couldn't help but click his tongue, with a smile on his face.

He raised his hand and patted the little guy's head.

"Can't you see? You, a little guy, have a very active mind. You can also draw inferences from one instance and think of so many things. Well, not bad, not bad."

She nodded with satisfaction.

"snort."

Yin Baiqing snorted and raised her chin.

"I'm pretty good to begin with, but you're looking down on me."

After all, he is also the young prince of Prince Niu's palace. Even if he has not been canonized yet, his brain is always inherited from his parents. He is like his mother and concubine, so what's wrong with him?

Chapter 2155 Sacrificing Hue?

"No, Sister Sangsang, why are you still thinking of teasing me now? Think about what to do first.

When the time comes, the Emperor will go to the North Underground Palace of the Imperial Mausoleum, and it will only last one day. We have to go to the Imperial Palace, and then to the North Underground Palace. We may not be able to make it in time. "

He was anxious for them, but they didn't take it seriously. What does this mean?

"What's this?"

Lin Caisang smiled and glanced at Sui Zimo.

"We can just divide the troops into two groups when the time comes. Why bother to be in such a hurry?"

"Bing...Bing Gong two groups?"

Yin Baiqing's eyes widened and she stared at Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang.

Sister Sangsang doesn't mean to say that she will go all the way alone, and then her brother-in-law will take others with her, so she can go all the way alone.

If that was the case, then all he could do was haha.

How can my brother-in-law, who loves his wife so much, allow Sister Sangsang to take risks by herself? This is simply impossible, they should think of other ways.

"Has your mother-in-law ever mentioned what your imperial grandfather liked the most?"

Lin Caisang asked him.

Yin Baiqing: "..."

Could he not answer this question?

Although he also asked his mother and concubine about this matter, she was too embarrassed to mention it in front of a child like him, so how could he open his mouth?

"Ahem.

He cleared his throat.

"That...my imperial grandfather likes beauties," he said.

"puff!"

Lin Changhong just took a sip of tea and spurted it out.

Looking at the age of the prince, and then imagining the age of the emperor, how old is he? He actually likes beautiful women?

Such a disrespectful guy, why did they think he was such a kind elder before?

It turns out that he is just a person with evil thoughts and lust. What a sin, a sin.

"Is it possible that we should send him some beauties?" He looked at his sister and then at his brother-in-law, Sui Zimo.

Do you have to sacrifice your appearance for such an old thing? Thinking about it...but if it was for his brother-in-law's health, everything would be worth it.

"That won't work."

After hearing Lin Changhong's words, Yin Baiqing was the first to deny it.

Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo also glanced at him as if they were idiots.

"You just send a few women over, and they will be willing to take them in. Even if they are a few beauties, they have to be responsible for their own lives, right? If they are not sent over by someone they trust, will he accept them? Don't think about it. "

"What should we do?"

Lin Changhong spread his hands and asked.

"I've really asked about this matter."

Speaking of this, Yin Baiqing was really excited and said mysteriously.

"Um?"

Lin Caisang raised an eyebrow and looked at him.

"Every time he goes to the imperial mausoleum, the emperor will select a few young and beautiful concubines from the palace to go with him. Even if they only have one day, for the emperor who is accustomed to sensuality, he still needs someone to serve him.

When the time comes, all you need to do is do some tricks on the beauties around the emperor. "

"Ahem."

Lin Changhong coughed a few times.

Is this little guy really less than ten years old? Why does he feel that he is older than him, yet he is so cunning at such a young age?

"Then when the time comes...it won't be right!"

Suddenly, he felt something was wrong and turned to look at his sister.

Chapter 2156: Go and get familiar with the ways

"Sang Sang, didn't we blow up Huang Aling before? Then the emperor should rush over after getting the news. After all, those poisonous things hidden under the East Underground Palace were destroyed. As the master, can the emperor go and see for himself? ?"

At this time, wouldn't the emperor have left the palace? Wouldn't they have a chance to get the Holy Son Blue?

"Of course not.

Yin Baiqing shook her head directly and shouted no.

"If we steal the Holy Child Blue now and are discovered by the Emperor, will we have a chance to go to the Beidi Palace to steal the Holy Child Flower next time? It will definitely be heavily guarded by then, and there will be no chance at all."

"Um."

Sui Zimo nodded.

"Baiqing is right, it is not a good time to sneak into the palace at this time.

He also agreed with Yin Baiqing's words. If this matter was not done well, they would have no chance next time.

"However, it may not be impossible to give it a try."

Hearing this, Lin Changhong and Yin Baiqing looked at Sui Zimo at the same time.

"Brother-in-law, what do you mean?"

You know it's not a good time, but you still try it. Isn't this plucking the hair from the tiger's mouth?

"We just want to take a little bit of Holy Son Blue. We don't want to take all the Holy Son Blue. It may not be discovered." Suizi Mo said.

"Husband, what do you mean...if there is a lot of Holy Son Blue in the palace, just take a little bit from each bottle?" Lin Caisang tilted her red lips and asked.

This is a way, but this method is a bit risky.

There are not many mutant varieties of this Holy Son Flower, so it can be seen that there are not many Holy Son Blue.

"Actually, I have an idea." She looked at them and said.

"What do you think?" Sui Zimo asked.

"Do you think the emperor only has the poison of Saint Son Blue in his hand, but no antidote to it?" Lin Caisang asked.

After hearing her words, Lin Changhong and Yin Baiqing's eyes suddenly lit up.

Yes, they had been thinking about going into the palace to get the poison of the Holy Child Blue, and then going to the North Underground Palace to find the purple flowers of the Holy Child Flower, but they did not expect that there would be an antidote in the palace.

If you really enter the palace, you can steal the antidote together and save a lot of trouble.

"And the matter is not as complicated as you think. Since the poison and antidote have been stolen, the emperor probably never imagined that we would go to the North Underground Palace to steal purple flowers.

When the time comes, we can go there openly and openly. "

Lin Changhong: "..."

Yin Baiqing: "..."

Are things still going on like this? This is really the first time they have heard of it.

However, it is really like that. The poison and antidote have been stolen, so it will be useless to go to the North Underground Palace to steal the mutated purple flowers, right?

"Do you really want the emperor to leave the palace this time?" Lin Changhong asked.

"Yeah."

Lin Caisang nodded.

Of course I want to go. A lot of things will happen in a month, okay?

"Husband, I am pregnant, so I will not go to the palace with you this time. You go with your eldest brother."

She looked at Sui Zimo, put one hand on her belly and said.

"good."

Sui Zimo responded.

Just go and take advantage of every opportunity.

"Actually, that's not the case. If you have to get the antidote and poison this time, it's better to just get familiar with it."

he said.

"right."

Yin Baiqing nodded, feeling that her brother-in-law was right.

It's not like you have to bring poison when you enter the palace. It's okay to check the door to make it easier for you to go there next time.

Chapter 2157: The corpses were broken into thousands of pieces, and the nine tribes were destroyed!

"Brother-in-law, if you go there this time and see the antidote, bring it back with it. If there is poison in it, then go again next time. By then we will be familiar with the palace and go directly to get the poison.

Then, before the emperor arrived at the imperial mausoleum, he went to the North Underground Palace to pick all the purple flowers.

That would be to kill two birds with one stone. "

"Baiqing is right," Lin Caisang said.

In the palace, the emperor has received the news that the imperial mausoleum was destroyed.

But this was not what made him most angry.

What made him angry was that his most trusted subordinate ran away immediately after the imperial mausoleum was destroyed, taking his family with him and disappearing without a trace.

That was the subordinate he had trusted for so many years. Even though he had lost so many gold and silver treasures, he still couldn't win over a heart that would betray him at any time.

Could it be that just because Huang Ling was destroyed, he would kill his most trusted subordinate?

His zodiac sign makes him look so vicious!

"Your Majesty, now that the imperial mausoleum has been destroyed, would you like to take a look?" A guard beside him asked softly in his ear.

Hearing this, the emperor glanced at him coldly.

"Go down and make arrangements. We will set off to the imperial mausoleum early tomorrow morning."

There were so many important things in the imperial mausoleum, and now they were destroyed. How could he ignore them?

I don't know how the imperial mausoleum was destroyed?

The things he cared about, the good things he had built with his own hands, were not all destroyed.

"Yes, Your Majesty, I will make arrangements right away." Upon hearing his words, the guard immediately bent down and retreated.

"Damn it!"

Seeing the guards leaving, he shouted angrily.

"Which one is it? He actually blew up his imperial mausoleum. If he knows who he is, he will definitely cut that person into pieces and destroy the nine tribes again!"

No, this kind of treatment was not enough to relieve the hatred in his heart. He couldn't think of what to do with that person after he caught him. How could it be as simple as killing him directly?

Taking a deep breath, he tried to calm down his heart and kept a cold face.

"Someone is coming."

"Your Majesty, what are your orders?"

Another guard came in, knelt down towards him, and asked.

"Invite the Five and Eight Kings to enter the palace," the emperor ordered.

"According to the order."

The guard took the order and went out.

That's right, it's time for Prince Niu and the Eighth Prince to enter the palace again.

Originally, these two people should have been waiting outside the palace to be summoned, but today, there was no movement at all.

So much so that they didn't even think about it.

"Hi! Hoo!"

The Emperor took a deep breath and then exhaled.

He reached out, picked up a book, opened it, and started reading. But at this time, his heart was ups and downs. How could he read it?

For a long time, I couldn't even read a single word. I had no choice but to throw the book on the table angrily.

After throwing away the book, he couldn't help but think about it again. If the imperial mausoleum was destroyed once, who should be handed over to take care of it?

The fifth son or the eighth son?

However, he didn't trust any of them, because he was afraid that the things in the imperial mausoleum would be stolen by them.

Or, he could leave this matter to the two of them to handle together.

Although the two of them often drink and chat together on weekdays, his fifth son is very honest and honest. Even if Yinluqing really wants to do something in the imperial mausoleum, his fifth son will not be that kind. Courageous.

Chapter 2158 I... just go for it!

"Yes, that's it, let the two of them go with me tomorrow!"

he said.

"Sister, why did you drag me here?"

It was night, and Lin Changhong, who was eating fruit in the Golden Pearl Space, was dragged to a corner of the yard by his sister.

Sui Zimo, on the other hand, was preparing things to enter the palace tomorrow and had no time to take care of them.

"Brother, let me tell you something."

Lin Caisang looked at his eldest brother more seriously.

But to Lin Changhong, this look was obviously malicious, so before his sister could say anything, he talked about his neck.

"I do not want to hear."

He was sure that nothing good was going to happen, but if he still listened, then he deserved to be tricked.

In the past few years, he has been deceived a lot, so he better not listen to it.

"Sang Sang, if you have anything to discuss, go find your brother-in-law. He should be back soon, so I'll... leave first."

With that said, he was ready to run away.

However, how could Lin Caisang allow him to run away like this? He must be caught back.

But she didn't move to chase him, she just talked.

"Brother, if you dare to leave, I will tell my parents when I turn around. You almost hit me in the stomach."

"cough!"

Hearing this, Lin Changhong almost coughed out his lungs.

How do you say this? His sister is now the most important person to protect in their hearts. Not to mention that his sister is pregnant with his nephew. Even if he says harsh words, he does not dare to.

"Sangsang, you can't hurt me like this, I didn't offend you."

Who did he provoke? He was about to burst into tears. Why couldn't Sangsang go find someone else? Besides him, the people who were going to enter the palace tomorrow would include Exiled Jue, Exiled Wu and others.

He's really not alone.

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised her eyebrows and just stared at her eldest brother with a faint gaze.

After a long time, Lin Changhong finally compromised and sighed softly.

"Okay, tell me, what do you want me to do tomorrow?"

"I don't have anything to do. I just want to wait for a while when I enter the palace tomorrow. It's best to delay it until the last moment before the emperor returns to the palace. How about it?" Lin Caisang said with a smile.

"I..." Go ahead!

How did his sister say this? Didn't she let him deceive others, and the one she deceived was her own husband.

What on earth is this girl thinking?

"What do you want to do? We are not entering the palace openly, but secretly. Sangsang, you must know that staying in the palace for a while longer will be more dangerous."

he said.

It's not like his sister would say this. Could it be that this girl wants to do something else, and she can't let her husband know about it?

What can happen, unless...

Suddenly, his eyes widened and he looked at his sister.

"Sangsang, are you crazy? You want to...well."

Before he finished speaking, Lin Caisang raised his hand and covered his mouth.

"If you dare to tell me, haha." She sneered twice.

"you--"

Lin Changhong was almost knocked out by her.

"Sang Sang, do you know how dangerous it is? If you go alone, let alone your brother-in-law, even I won't feel relieved."

No wonder this girl wanted to come to him to discuss it. If she went directly to her husband, he would tie her to his belt and not allow her to leave at all.

Chapter 2159 Why go to the Promise Prison?

"What can happen to me? If nothing happens, if I'm in danger, I can just hide in the Golden Pearl Space, isn't it?"

Lin Caisang had nothing to worry about. He felt that his decision could not have been more appropriate.

She would regret it if she didn't go on this trip.

"you--"

Lin Changhong was so angry that he didn't know what to say.

"Brother, please help me, just this once. I will never do this again in the future, okay?"

"Sang Sang, it's not that eldest brother won't help you, but..."

If he really helped, this layer of skin on his body would be peeled off by his father, his mother, and his doting brother-in-law.

Furthermore, he was really worried that his sister would be in danger.

"How about we discuss this matter with my brother-in-law again. If it doesn't work out, let's go into the palace and ask my brother-in-law to accompany you?"

Lin Caisang: "..."

If she told Sui Zimo about this, could she still go?

Just become her husband and go alone. Nothing will happen without her, okay?

"Brother, are you really not going to help me with this?"

She asked Lin Changhong with a sullen face.

"this....."

Lin Changhong was in a dilemma. Logically speaking, he had to do whatever his sister said.

But what his sister wanted to do was too dangerous. If he could do it, it would harm Sangsang. He couldn't do it.

Lin Caisang looked at his eldest brother's appearance and knew that he didn't agree.

But even if her eldest brother doesn't help, she must do this, and no one can stop it.

"Why."

She lowered her head and sighed softly.

"Since eldest brother won't help me with this, let's go to Wuji Prison to practice for a day."

"What?"

Lin Changhong couldn't believe what he heard.

"Why should I go to the Promise Prison?"

He has often heard the word "Ultimate Prison" recently, because there are people in the Jinzhu Space who will occasionally be thrown into the "Ultimate Prison".

They often discussed this matter, and they all felt that Ding Rong was too unwilling to learn lessons.

But why did he go to the Promise Prison, that terrifying place in Ding Rong's mouth?

It's not like he's crazy.

"Sang Sang, just because I don't help you, you are going to let me go to the Infinite Hell. You... why are you like this now?"

It is said that a woman's temperament will change drastically when she is pregnant with a child. Is this the same with his sister?

"It's not because of this reason." Lin Caisang shook his head.

"Why is that?" Lin Changhong asked.

"Why else? Of course it's to prevent you from telling your brother-in-law and parents about what I just told you. With your mouth, can you hold back and not say it?"

Lin Caisang looked at his eldest brother angrily.

She had already planned it. If her eldest brother agreed to help her, then everything would be easy. But if he didn't agree, he would be thrown directly into the Infinite Prison.

"Brother, don't worry. I have prepared ten books about mechanism techniques for you. You won't be lonely in Wuji Prison, really."

She raised her hand and patted her eldest brother on the shoulder.

Lin Changhong: "!"

Is this a question of loneliness or not?

That was the Infinite Prison, and he didn't make any mistakes. Why should he go to the Infinite Prison?

Furthermore, even if you are reading a book, you can read it in another place, right? For example, the Medicine Garden space, the Poison Garden, where his parents and others cannot go?

Chapter 2160 This matter is not negotiable

Why does it have to be the Infinite Hell?

"Sang Sang, can we change places? It's okay if you let me go to the medicine garden.

"How about that?"

How could Lin Caisang agree to her eldest brother going to Yaoyuan Space?

Although no one else can enter the Yaoyuan space, Sui Ziyu can still come and go freely. She has set the permissions before. What if her eldest brother uses Ziyu to tell her parents about her?

"Brother, don't worry, it's only for one day. When I come back tomorrow, you can come out of Wuji Prison."

She said earnestly.

Lin Changhong: "..."

Isn't a day just time? It's twelve hours. m

Seeing the way his girl looked at him, as if she was going to send him into that damn hell immediately, he took a deep breath.

"Wait a minute, Sangsang, let's discuss it again," he said.

"This matter is not negotiable."

Lin Caisang spread his hands and said to his eldest brother.

"Either agree, or go to the Infinite Hell, brother, it's your choice."

Lin Changhong: "!"

He was thinking about whether he should agree now and then tell his brother-in-law about it later?

However, before he could decide whether to do this, he heard his sister's voice again, which frightened him all over.

"However, brother, you must think carefully. Even if you trick me now, I will still be able to let you go to the Promise Prison to play in the future. Of course, it will not be just one day.

No matter what, you have to go in and study for ten or twenty days, or maybe a year and a half, right? "

Lin Changhong: "!!!"

He has never seen a sister who deceives her brother so much!

"Okay, how about I disappear in the palace tomorrow?" Taking another deep breath, he said to his sister.

Why did he disappear for fun? He was clearly playing with his own life. If Sui Zimo knew that he did it on purpose to cooperate with his sister, then he would have to scrape off a layer of his skin. .

"Brother, thank you."

Having achieved his goal, Lin Caisang grinned happily and thanked his eldest brother.

On the next day, early in the morning, the emperor took his two sons and set out for the imperial mausoleum.

Sui Zimo, on his side, had already brought the things needed to enter the palace, and they set off directly.

Of course, what Sui Zimo didn't know at this moment was that when he left Prince Niu's Mansion, his young lady, who had promised to wait for him in the yard before he set off, had also gone out.

But there is another deceiver in his team.

"This is the imperial mausoleum. It was completely destroyed."

Hiding behind a huge stone tablet, he watched the emperor shouting and cursing at the mausoleum guards, Prince Niu, and Yinluqing in front of a pile of ruins.

Lin Caisang lamented that her husband's lethality was really too powerful.

A good imperial mausoleum was ruined like this. Looking at the sad expression on the emperor's face, she could almost feel the same after being so far away.

After the emperor became very angry, he finally ordered his two sons to go to the side to check, and then asked Lingwei to take him to the East Underground Palace.

"Fifth brother..."

After seeing her father leave, Yinluqing wanted to enter the West Palace with Prince Niu.

But just as he opened his mouth, he was interrupted by Prince Niu.
