

Star of Space 2161

Chapter 2161 A gloomy feeling

"Eighth brother, my father asked you to go to the mountain to check the situation. Go quickly. Don't wait until my father comes out of the East Underground Palace. If you haven't come back yet, there will be no good food to eat by then.

He said to him seriously.

"Well."

Yinluqing choked and didn't know how to reply.

In fact, if he can't go with Prince Niu, then he can change his job with his fifth brother, right?

He went to the West Underground Palace, while Fifth Brother went to the nearby mountains to check the situation.

However, I had a good idea in my mind. After hearing what the man in front of me said, I suddenly didn't know what to say.

"That....."

"go quickly."

Prince Niu didn't give him a chance to say anything else and turned around himself.

"I have to go quickly. I don't know how the West Underground Palace has been destroyed. If it's too badly damaged, I guess my father will have to scold him a lot."

As if muttering to himself, he took his guards with him and left.

Yinluqing: "..."

When did his silly fifth brother become like this?

He was obviously very calculating in the past, and he would agree to anything as long as he said a few words.

But now...he can't even say a word in front of Fifth Brother!

Yes, Prince Niu didn't give him a chance to speak at all, interrupted him again and again, and then walked away on his own, completely ignoring the fact that he was watching behind him.

"Your Majesty, are we still going to the West Underground Palace?"

The guards around him were stunned for a long time when they saw Prince Niu just leaving. Then they came back to their senses and asked their prince.

Before coming, the prince had planned that he must visit the West Underground Palace.

There is something the prince wants to get there!

Unexpectedly, the emperor actually handed over such an important matter as the Lower West Underground Palace to that idiot Prince Niu instead of his own prince!

"Go to the nearby hills."

Yinluqing glared at his bodyguard with red eyes.

Can he go now?

If his father knew about it, as the idiot fifth brother said, would he get something good to eat?

For that matter, the only thing is to wait for time, there will always be a chance.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

The guard's scalp went numb when he glared at him, and he could only respond.

He muttered to himself that he was too talkative and shouldn't have asked his prince such a stupid question.

Isn't this poking at the prince's heart?

On the side, Lin Caisang didn't care about the other two people, but directly stared at the emperor.

She thought, the emperor separated his two sons not just to take a look at the completely destroyed stuff in the East Underground Palace, right?

He had built those mechanisms himself, so he should know better what the consequences would be if they were all triggered. He didn't even have to look at them to know that they were all destroyed.

And it is more likely that he went directly to the Beidi Palace to see his Holy Son Flowers in order to get away from Prince Niu and Yinluqing.

As she expected, she followed the emperor who was led by the mausoleum guards, and the journey became longer and longer.

only.....

"This doesn't look like the way to the North Underground Palace, does it?"

She had heard Yin Baiqing describe to her before that the North Underground Palace was on the mountain behind the imperial mausoleum, but this place was definitely not that place.

However, the further you walk, the more eerie you feel.

Chapter 2162 Advanced formation?

There are more and more stone pillars on both sides of the road, as if there is an underground palace here.

"Is it the South Underground Palace?"

Suddenly, she thought that they had a South Underground Palace, which she had never heard of. She thought that the place where the emperor was going now should be the South Underground Palace, right?

But she didn't want to go to the South Underground Palace, but wanted to go to the North Underground Palace!

However, there is no other way. They have already followed here. Naturally, they have to follow the emperor to visit the South Underground Palace.

She believed that after the emperor came out of the South Palace, he would definitely go to the North Palace, so she could just follow him. She didn't believe that the Emperor could go back to the palace directly.

However, what Lin Caisang didn't expect was...

At the end of so many stone pillars with dragons coiled around them, there is no majestic underground palace, but just a small thatched house.

To use a small description, it is really apt.

Because this thatched house is really small, I'm afraid only two people can go in.

"You actually came to this place? What kind of place is this to rest?"

she muttered in confusion.

In such a small thatched house, even if two people can squeeze into it, it must be very crowded, right?

Even if it was used to rest, she thought, it would be impossible, wouldn't it?

She was full of doubts about the emperor coming here. After muttering something, she raised her head and looked in the direction of the emperor and his party, but she didn't know...

Lin Caisang saw that the thatched house would look crowded if only two people could be squeezed in, but now five people had already walked in, and the people outside were still walking in!

"!!!"

What is this situation?

"By the way, the formation!"

Suddenly, her eyes lit up, and she remembered that she had seen some formations among the golden beads, which could put some large items into small containers after being transformed by the formations.

And when you take it out later, it will still look the same, with no changes at all.

Could it be that this place is still such an advanced formation?

"Tsk."

She clicked her tongue and shook her head.

"You really have to mention the chicken thieves, they did it so covertly."

Things must go to the extreme, and those who go out of their way are monsters. Presumably, this place should contain something more important than the North Underground Palace and the East Underground Palace, right?

If it was just the coffin of the ancestor, how could it be made so hidden?

Gritting her teeth, she reached out and grabbed a handful of powder from the small satchel around her waist, then scattered it while following the people into the thatched hut.

What she didn't know was that when she entered the thatched hut, behind her, a man walked out from behind a stone pillar, looked in the direction of the thatched hut, and sighed softly.

"This Baiqing's savior is really..." He is full of curiosity.

Doesn't she know how dangerous this place is? Even he wasn't completely sure that he could come out of this place safely.

Of course, he felt that Lin Caisang really didn't know!

That's all, the life-saving grace should be repaid by the spring, right? As a father, he can only reluctantly help out.

Lifting his feet, he also walked towards the thatched house.

There was a 'bang' sound.

As soon as he entered the thatched house, a large wooden board with sharp thorns was smashed directly from his head.

If Lin Caisang hadn't reacted quickly and ducked to the side in time, he would have turned into a hedgehog by now.

Chapter 2163 Owe him

"Hold!"

She cursed silently.

This thing was hit in front of her, and she was sure that she had no chance at all.

Therefore, she knew in her heart that this place was a place where bloodlines were recognized, and only people from the Music family, or brought in by people from the Music family, would not trigger the opportunities inside.

The next moment, she reached into her small satchel again with her other hand, took out a porcelain bottle, poured some blood from it onto a piece of black cloth, and then stuffed it into her arms.

Almost immediately, the board in front of her, which almost pierced her through, immediately rose up and was sucked to the top.

It was as if it had always been there, never moved at all.

"Baiqing's blood is really useful."

When she threatened her brother yesterday, she happened to be overheard by those clever little Yin Baiqings.

He was afraid that she would be in danger if she came to the imperial mausoleum, but he felt that if he followed, he would only cause trouble.

Without saying a word, the boy cut his own wrist and poured a porcelain bottle of blood for her. She was so angry that she almost reached out and beat the boy up.

But everyone was injured, and the blood was already in the porcelain bottle. If she really attacked another kid who was injured, and was injured because of her, she should give herself a big slap.

Therefore, he bandaged his injury and came with this bottle of blood.

Who would have known that it was used not long after arriving at the imperial mausoleum.

"It's really a unique world."

He raised his head and looked at everything in the thatched house.

The small thatched cottage that looks so small from the outside and cannot fit even two people inside is actually so big inside and has so many facilities.

She thought, if she hadn't brought the bottle Baiqing gave her, she wouldn't have been able to get in, right?

But now that she has the blood of Baiqing, it will be much easier.

"After I go back, I really have to thank that guy Baiqing." With that said, she walked towards the entrance.

After a while, Prince Niu also entered the thatched house. Looking at Lin Caisang who had just entered from the entrance, he couldn't help but twitch the corner of his mouth.

Why do you feel that his son, who has been following Lin Caisang for several years, will definitely be a troublemaker in the future, capable of doing some spectacular things, waiting for him to wipe his ass?

Knowing that Lin Caisang was here to mess with their family's hometown, he actually donated his own blood.

Does his son want to defy heaven alone?

"That's all, as the father, I owe him."

He shook his head and followed.

Who asked him to investigate for so many years, but he still couldn't find out how Yinluqing stole his son from under his nose, and even hid it in Huanglu.

This Yinyinqing, like his father Huang Zhen, is a father and son who are equally ruthless and vicious in everything they do.

The passage goes further and further down.

Lin Caisang raised her hand, feeling that her body was getting colder and colder. She reached out and took out a red cloak made of fire silk from her golden bead space and put it on herself.

Soon, I felt a lot warmer on my body.

This fire silkworm was mutated from the ice silkworm. There wasn't much of it, so it made a cloak like this.

Just in time, let her use it first.

"What the hell is this place?"

Not to mention that it was getting colder, and there were actually densely growing plants that emitted air-conditioning around the passage.

Chapter 2164 Corrupted

But if we say that these plants are of the ice type, it doesn't look like it, because their color is all red, from stems to leaves to flowers, they are all fiery red.

"It's really weird."

Just like the Fire Silkworm Clothes on her body, anything red is generally not of the ice type, and is basically of the fire type.

Even worse, even if it mutates, the ice silkworm mutates into a fire silkworm, changing from ice blue to fiery red.

But, these plants are so strange. They are red in color, but they are always air-conditioned. No wonder it is so cold.

She even wondered if if she poured a basin of water in this place at this time, it would turn into ice.

"What is this, I have never seen it before.

There are many medicinal herbs grown in the medicine garden space, and she also memorizes those books by heart.

But she had really never seen this thing before.

Reaching out, she wanted to touch it and see what this plant was, but she didn't know...

Before her hand touched the plants, a hand came out and cut it off.

"Don't touch it!"

"Well!"

Two voices sounded at the same time. Prince Niu lowered his voice, while Lin Caisang used his other flexible hand to cover his mouth and made a muffled sound.

"you you--"

"Shh!"

Prince Niu made a gesture to silence her, threw out a sparrow, pulled her over, and then disappeared into another passage.

Lin Caisang: "..."

This passage was a branch, but she had just walked through the main passage and didn't realize there was such a branch passage at all!

However, she was dragged into this place by Prince Niu.

Then her eyes widened, and she saw the plant that she had almost touched before, and directly entangled the sparrow that was thrown over.

Finally, it was corrupted at a speed visible to the naked eye, and the feathers fell down one by one, but not a few fell. They were all caught by the plants below and then absorbed.

"What...what is this...um."

Prince Niu no longer covered her hand, but continued to raise his hand to cover Lin Caisang's mouth tightly.

Lin Caisang was also shocked, because she heard a series of footsteps, rushing towards her. Then, she saw the emperor who had walked in before her, and the few people around him. Individually, we are back together.

"Who is it?"

The emperor looked at the passage and asked coldly.

One of his guards looked at the few bird feathers left on the ground, and then swept his sharp eyes towards the passage again, feeling the unfamiliar atmosphere in the passage.

In the branch passage, although Lin Caisang's eyes widened and he held his breath, he still secretly brought out the virtual space in the golden bead space, hiding the auras of himself and Prince Niu.

Damn it, why are these people's ears so pointed?

She almost screamed just now, but she really didn't make a sound, and she actually attracted all those people back.

Are these dog ears or cat ears?

After a while, after hearing that there were no more strange sounds or strange smells coming out of the passage, the guards returned their gaze and looked at the emperor.

"Don't worry, Your Majesty, it's just a bird, it'll be fine." One of the guards replied.

"bird?"

The emperor still had some doubts in his heart, but soon after the few bird feathers touched the ground, he breathed a sigh of relief.

Chapter 2165 The First Queen's Coffin

"Just stay out of the way and keep moving forward.

With that said, he walked forward with the wind at his feet, not stopping for a moment.

In the branch passage, Prince Niu came out with a sigh of relief. He was really afraid of the two of them just now, so he was discovered by the emperor's people.

Those guards, with his current strength, cannot fight against them. If they are discovered, there is only one word of death.

"Nu...Prince?"

Lin Caisang turned around and looked at the man in front of her with raised eyebrows.

"Ahem."

Prince Niu was noticed by the little girl in front of him, and he coughed twice uncomfortably.

"You girl, you really don't know how powerful you are. Did you know that the thing you wanted to touch just now is a man-eating beast!"

Well, he didn't want to mention why he was here, so he had to use what happened just now to change the subject.

"Man-Eating Beast, isn't this a plant?"

Lin Caisang was shocked. Suddenly, she remembered that when she was studying in the pasture space, she had seen several introductions to magical beasts that looked like grass but not grass.

There seems to be such a kind, fiery red, but with air-conditioning.

"Isn't this a taste of resentment? It turns out to be this."

She had really never heard of the Man-eating Beast, but she finally remembered that the record about this monster in the book said that it was called - Resentful Hantao!

A small piece of resentful Hantao can digest an elephant in less than half an hour.

But just now, what she almost touched was a large area.

"Yes, this thing is also called Yuhantao. It has no consciousness, but it kills without blood, and it doesn't even need a burial place!" Prince Niu said.

Where can there be corpses of things that are entangled by the resentful Hantao? Aren't they all corroded? That's why the world gave it another name: the human-eating beast. It's because of what creature it got entangled with. , then they will cease to exist.

"It seems that the things here are very important to the emperor!" Lin Caisang said.

Prince Niu: "..."

If an ordinary girl heard or saw something so terrifying, wouldn't she tremble, turn around and run back?

But this girl actually raised her hand and touched her chin. She still felt that there was something important in it?

"There is nothing important here, only the coffin of the late Queen." He said angrily.

"ah?"

Lin Caisang was stunned for a moment.

After blinking, she looked at Prince Niu with some disbelief.

Regarding the coffin of the First Empress, doesn't that mean that her trip here was in vain? She followed the emperor to the imperial mausoleum, and she didn't really dig up other people's ancestral graves.

"Go out first, I will tell you."

Prince Niu glanced at the passage warily again, making sure that there was no one there, and then took the lead and walked out.

In a deserted forest, Prince Niu looked intently at Lin Caisang.

"Miss Lin, what are you doing? Haven't you already blown up the imperial mausoleum? I can confirm that all those things have been blown up."

He said to her.

Now he is assigned to go to the East Underground Palace. Even if there are still those things under the ground, he will naturally not let those things come out alive to see people. This is called eliminating harm for the people, and it must be done.

"It seems that Prince Niu is really not an ordinary person." Lin Caisang also looked at Prince Niu and said quietly.

"Well."

Prince Niu choked at her words and curled his lower lip.

"The current situation is like this, and I have no other choice." He said.

Chapter 2166 The place where the Phoenix Vein is located

What can he do? That person is not only his father, but also the leader of Zi Yan Kingdom.

The imperial power is there, so he can't just do whatever he wants.

"By the way, this South Underground Palace..."

They will not discuss what kind of person Prince Niu is for the time being, but this Nandi Palace...

Why did Prince Niu only mention the emperor's late queen? Aren't the other ancestors important?

"This is not the South Underground Palace."

Before Lin Caisang could say anything, Prince Niu interrupted her.

"What?"

Hearing this, Lin Caisang's eyes widened.

This was not the South Underground Palace as she had guessed, so where was this place?

Turning her head, she looked at the thatched cottage far away and could only see a rough outline. Isn't this the Nandi Palace? !

"It's not the South Underground Palace, what is that place?"

She turned her gaze back to Prince Niu and asked.

"This is where the phoenix vein of the imperial mausoleum is located, and it is also the support point of the entire imperial mausoleum." Prince Niu explained.

"ah?"

At this time, Lin Caisang was really stunned.

Where is the Phoenix Vein?

As far as she knew, Zi Yanguo always regarded the phoenix as the divine beast they worshiped, but the dragon was automatically ignored by them.

In other words, the so-called phoenix vein is almost the same as the dragon vein of other royal families, right?

A huge imperial mausoleum must be supported by dragon veins.

Otherwise, those thieves really come when they want, and they simply cannot control the situation with just those mausoleum guards.

But this dragon... no, it's a phoenix vein.

The emperor actually built such an underground palace in Fengmai, and then buried his dead first wife in it?

How is this possible? Can the ministers of Ziyang Kingdom agree to their emperor doing this?

If you knew it, if you didn't do it well, something big would happen.

Not to mention that the phoenix vein might be destroyed, the emperor directly buried the queen's coffin on the phoenix vein, absorbing the spiritual energy in the phoenix vein for a long time.

That might turn into a corpse.

In other words, this queen, who was already completely dead, would very likely absorb a large amount of spiritual energy and turn into a spirit in the mountain, and then come out to harm people.

"Are you...your emperor crazy?"

"Those things in the East Underground Palace are scary enough, but they actually bury people directly in the Phoenix Vein?"

"Does he want to go against the will of heaven? Why? Want to keep a few monsters around him to protect his safety?"

She asked her three consecutive questions, feeling that the emperor of Ziyang Kingdom was really crazy.

Even if a member of the royal family can be buried next to the Phoenix Vein, with a little bit of the Phoenix Vein's spiritual energy to prevent the body from decaying, that is already very good, but the body is buried directly on the Phoenix Vein?

She really wanted to laugh at this operation.

"Isn't it right?"

Suddenly, she felt something was wrong.

If it was really the emperor who did it, it is impossible for the ministers to have no information at all, and it is even more impossible for no one to oppose it.

Unless, the underground palace above the Phoenix Vein originally existed.

It's just that the person buried in this underground palace was not the emperor's wife, but some other member of the royal family.

"That emperor of yours removed his ancestors from the Phoenix Vein and placed his first wife instead?" she asked.

Hearing this, Prince Niu raised his eyebrows calmly.

Chapter 2167 It's really cruel!

The expression on his face couldn't be more obvious, it was what Lin Caisang meant.

Lin Caisang: "!!!"

This emperor is really awesome and admirable.

According to her estimation, no one should know about this matter yet, otherwise, the ministers would definitely go crazy. It is estimated that there should be several groups of people who hit the pillars in the Ziyang Kingdom Palace, right?

"Can I venture to ask, who was originally buried there?" she asked.

"The first emperor-proclaimed ancestor of my music family no longer exists." Prince Niu replied.

"No longer exists?"

Hearing these four words, Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows.

Could it be that the emperor was so unfilial that he not only removed the ancestor's body from the phoenix vein, but also destroyed it?

How shameful and rebellious this is. Is such a person worthy of being a king?

"Being burned by the emperor?" she asked.

Prince Niu shook his head.

"Of course not."

"I think so too."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"Even if the body of the ancestor of the musician is pulled out, it will become an immortal substance. How can it be burned? Ordinary fire will definitely not burn it."

After so many generations of Ziyang Kingdom, the people buried on the phoenix vein in the imperial mausoleum have absorbed so much spiritual energy.

Since the emperor dug out the people, how could he burn them directly?

It must be something that can be used conveniently, let's do it...

Suddenly, she raised her head and looked at Prince Niu intently. The color on her face was exceptionally green.

"Are those ghost things in the East Underground Palace made of the immortal material from the corpse of the ancestor of the musician?" she asked.

That's right, she wondered where so many poisonous corpses came from, but it turned out that they were made from the corpses of the ancestors of the music family, so that made sense.

"This emperor is really ruthless."

Prince Niu nodded and did not deny what she said.

His father is indeed ruthless!

That was the ancestor of the Yin family, the first overlord, and he was destroyed like this.

What's even more terrifying is that every time his father goes to the Ancestral Temple to offer incense, he has to stand in front of the ancestor's tablet for an hour.

Could it be that he didn't feel terrified?

"Prince Niu, hasn't this emperor ever thought that if he treats his ancestors like this now, his first wife might also be treated like this by his descendants in the future?"

It's terrible, this emperor is too terrible.

"Won't."

Prince Niu uttered two words in a flash.

"Why?" Lin Caisang asked, puzzled.

Why not? She thinks it is very possible. People who have always been buried in the center of the dragon vein may become corpses. It is just a matter of time.

Moreover, a corpse that has absorbed a large amount of spiritual energy will be very invincible after its transformation.

"I thought it would happen before, and I was worried about this problem, but after today, such a thing will not happen." Prince Niu turned around, looked in the direction of the East Underground Palace and the West Underground Palace, and said.

"Um?"

Lin Caisang didn't quite understand what he said.

What does "after today" mean? Could it be...it wouldn't be what she guessed?

Just as she was guessing, she heard Prince Niu looking into the distance faintly and uttering a sentence.

"The East Underground Palace and the West Underground Palace were bombed, and most of the Phoenix Vein was destroyed."

Chapter 2168 The Holy Child Flower blooms and matures in advance

Lin Caisang: "!"

Sure enough, as she expected, the Phoenix Vein of Ziyang Kingdom was destroyed.

But only half of it was destroyed, and a small half was still able to be sustained. However, I don't know how long it can be sustained.

And I don't know where the next Phoenix Vein Land will appear.

"Mrs. Sui, if you want to go to the Beidi Palace, I think you can go now. If you wait for Father and the others to come out from the Dragon Vein, you may not be able to pick the Holy Son Flower, not even a single one. arrive."

"Why? Didn't it say that the Holy Child Flower will not mature until a month later?" Lin Caisang asked.

"Do you believe what I say, or what the princess says?" Prince Niu raised his eyebrows at her.

Lin Caisang choked at his words.

This is no longer a question of belief or not, but that she feels that she should believe the words of a sophisticated person.

Compared with Prince Niu and Princess Niu, she felt that she should trust Prince Niu this time.

"There is a medicine in my father's body that can make the Holy Child Flowers bloom and mature in advance. Since he is here today, he will surely harvest all the Holy Child Flowers together.

A month later, he would definitely not make a second trip. "

Prince Niu said.

But what he didn't say was that now that the imperial mausoleum was bombed like this, how could the emperor not be suspicious?

Even for the sake of safety, he would not leave the Holy Son Flowers here for another month. He would definitely pick them all.

Even if he uses the ripening potion on hand to ripen the Holy Son Flower, it will damage the medicinal properties of the Holy Son Flower.

He would not allow the secret medicine in Ziyang Kingdom to be taken away by others.

"Can we also make the Holy Child Flower mature in advance?"

This time, Lin Caisang was really surprised that the Holy Son Flower could mature in advance.

It's no wonder that this Holy Son Flower has become the secret medicine of Zi Yan Kingdom, and has never been obtained by others.

Presumably, firstly, it was because the North Underground Palace was heavily guarded, and secondly, the emperor alone could decide whether the Holy Child Flower was mature or not.

"nature."

Prince Niu nodded.

"But, since this Holy Son Flower is not mature, even if I pick it now, what's the use?" Lin Caisang shrugged helplessly and said.

What does she want with those immature Holy Son Flowers?

What she wanted was a mature one, and it was a mutated pink Holy Flower, not the immature one.

"I believe that Mrs. Sui will have her own way." Prince Niu looked at her intently and said.

Then, he took out a piece of brown paper from his arms and handed it to Lin Caisang.

"This is the map of the North Underground Palace. The facilities there are no less than those in the East Underground Palace. Madam Sui, you still have to be careful."

When Lin Caisang took the map into his hand, Prince Niu turned around and left.

He cannot stay here for too long. If his father discovers him, he will not be able to protect himself.

And I can't tell if my father will find out that even his eighth brother Yin Luqing is staring at him all the time.

If he had not been careful these years, he would have been shattered to pieces.

Thinking about it, he shook his head.

Behind him, Lin Caisang looked at Prince Niu's retreating back with some confusion.

This Prince Niu is really a mysterious figure.

He even knew their identities and that his son was back, but he was in no rush to recognize each other.

It seems like he's guarding against something, right?

But the person he was guarding against was Yin Lüqing? Or the emperor?

Chapter 2169 Why is it missing?

Thinking about it, Prince Niu and his wife are really sad. Even their own father is plotting against them. What's the point of living such a cautious and step-by-step life?

But if they are not cautious and cautious, can they still survive in the Zi Yan Kingdom?

The answer is definitely no!

In life, when you are faced with a dilemma, you will inevitably choose to protect yourself, because only by surviving on your own can anything be possible.

If you lose your life, what will be left?

"I don't want to think about it anymore, let's go to the North Underground Palace first!"

Gritting her teeth, she turned around and went to the North Underground Palace where the Holy Son Flowers were planted.

In the palace.

"Where's Chang Hong? Why is he missing?"

Coming out of the imperial study, Sui Zimo held Saint Zilan's poison in his hands, as well as some porcelain bottles containing unknown things.

But thinking about it, there must be the antidote for Saint Child Blue.

It's just that the emperor was too cunning. He only marked the Saint Son's Blue Poison, but there was no mark on the antidote at all.

Porcelain bottles of many colors were also placed to confuse the audience.

But what does it matter? They must just collect all these things.

But who will tell them?

What the hell was Lin Changhong doing? In just a blink of an eye, he disappeared.

"No...I don't know."

Both Ban Jue and Ban Wu were also confused at this moment.

They were really just excited for a moment after seeing the Blue Poison of the Holy Son and those porcelain bottles, and they didn't notice Lin Changhong.

And with just such a small effort, Lin Changhong actually disappeared from under their noses.

"Master, there was no trace of anyone else just now. Could it be that Young Master left on his own?" Ban Jue asked.

Normal people are not allowed to get close to the Imperial Study Room. They used invisibility potions to get here. The guards with their hands in the dark can't find them at all, so they naturally won't come this way.

Naturally, no one would arrest Lin Changhong.

But it's just so strange that Lin Changhong just disappeared.

"Did Young Master discover something? He chased after it by himself." Fei Wu guessed.

If this is the case, then Lin Changhong is too reckless, right?

This is the palace, but he can break in wherever he wants. What if the guards discover him?

With only a few hands, how could they defeat the thousands of guards in the palace?

What's more, there must be something hidden next to the royal study room. If there is a slight mistake, they may be left in this place and unable to get out.

"impossible!"

Sui Zimo directly denied banishing Wu's words.

Even if Lin Changhong was indifferent on weekdays, he would definitely not act rashly at such a critical moment.

What's more, Lin Changhong is not a person who acts rashly, and he never does anything out of control.

"Changhong has always known how to measure things."

And if he does something out of character, there is only one reason.

Suddenly, his face turned green and his whole body felt bad.

"Leave the palace immediately."

He gave instructions to Ban Jue and Ban Wu.

"What?!"

The two were shocked when they heard his words.

"Master, the young master has not been found yet, so we are going back. When we come back, the mistress will peel off your skin."

Chapter 2170 The mistress asked... to do it?

At this time, I couldn't care less whether these words were disrespectful to my master? You still have to say what needs to be said, and you still have to remind what needs to be reminded.

And what he said is not wrong. If the mistress knew that the master left her eldest brother in the palace and left alone, she would not be angry and sick when she turned around.

You must know that the mistress is pregnant with her little master! How can one be angry?

Hearing this, Sui Zi Mo cast a sidelong glance at Ban Jue.

"For whom do you think Chang Hong would do such an unknown thing?"

Who does Lin Changhong listen to most in his life?

It's not his father, nor his mother, nor his grandpa and grandma, that's his biological sister!

Sangsang asked him to go east, but he would never dare to go west!

Sangsang asked him to go into the water, but he would never dare to fly!

For such a person, how could he disappear in this huge palace?

"Master, what... do you mean?"

Ban Jue and Ban Wu asked with confusion on their faces.

According to what the master said, did the mistress directly let the young master disappear in the palace under their noses?

How is this possible?

How could the mistress let the young master do this?

Isn't that holding back the master? It's delaying their time to leave the palace!

You must know that if they stay in this palace for a moment longer, they will be in danger for a moment longer. Why would the mistress let his eldest brother "hide and seek" with them in the palace?

"Could it be that the mistress asked... to do this?"

The two of you looked at me, and I looked at you, with confusion on their faces.

"But why?"

Ban Wu asked.

Yes, why is this? There is no reason for the mistress to do this, unless...

"Master, will the mistress follow the emperor to the imperial mausoleum alone?"

After much deliberation, he only thought of this possibility. Except that the mistress wanted to go to the imperial mausoleum, otherwise, how could she let the young master delay their time here?

"Lin Changhong, do you come out on your own, or do I drag you out?"

Sui Zimo didn't speak to the two of them anymore, but asked coldly into the air.

Lin Changhong, who was hiding aside and using the invisibility artifact he made to hide his figure, was about to cry at this moment.

He also wants to go out, but can he go out now?

After agreeing to Sangsang's matter, he had to surrender. Even if he couldn't stop her in the end, he couldn't show up.

Otherwise, Sangsang would have to peel off his skin?

Even if he lets Sui Zimo peel off his skin, he can't let his sister do such a bloody and cruel thing. His sister is a kind girl.

However, in this situation, what's the use of not going out?

Anyway, Sui Zimo already knew about it, so he just had to rush to the imperial mausoleum immediately and fish his sister out of the imperial mausoleum.

"If you don't want to come out, then just stay here."

At this time, Sui Zimo couldn't control Lin Changhong anymore. The only thing he thought about was whether his wife would be in danger in the imperial mausoleum.

Since Lin Changhong was able to disappear in this palace, he must have taken every precaution, not to mention that Sonny would not let anything happen to her eldest brother here.

"Walk."

He spat out a word to the two people, Exiled Jue and Exiled Wu.

"Yes, Master."

Soon, the three people flashed out of the palace.

After they left, Lin Changhong came out of the darkness and looked into the distance with a helpless face.

"I would like to come up with it, but I'm afraid my sister will blame me for not doing things well."
