Chapter 2171 Soul-eating Ant

He is really not doing his job well. Look, this person has already rushed to the imperial mausoleum. He will still suffer a lot next.

But now, he should leave this palace first.

...

Among the imperial mausoleums.

Lin Caisang had successfully arrived at the North Underground Palace according to the map given to her by Prince Niu.

But this North Underground Palace was really not something she could break into if she wanted to. At the first level, she encountered high-level soul-eating ants.

These soul-eating ants were crawling toward her from all directions.

Although each one looks very small, if there are so many of them added up, not to mention one her, but even one hundred thousand hers will be chewed up to the point where no bones are left.

Moreover, these soul-eating ants can't be killed just by killing them.

Because once their bodies are cut, the poisonous juice inside will flow out and immediately disperse in the air.

If she was alone, it wouldn't matter, but since he was still pregnant with the baby, he couldn't make any jokes.

"Good guy, do you really think this girl is easy to bully?"

Seeing that the soul-eating ants were almost crawling on her body, Lin Caisang gritted his teeth and could only take out a large bucket of Thousand Mucus from the golden bead space.

First, he poured a circle of Thousand Mucus around his feet, so that the soul-eating ants were immediately stuck.

Then, she took out another pair of special boots and quickly put them on her feet.

Finally, she poured the entire bucket of Thousand Slime onto the ground.

Many of the soul-eating ants that were scrambling to crawl onto him were stuck on the Thousand Mucus.

And those thousands of mucus, like air, directly wrapped them, letting them move how they did? How? No matter how hard I try, I can't break free.

Suddenly, Lin Caisang let out a sigh of relief.

However, it's not time to breathe a sigh of relief yet. A bucket of thousands of slimes can't deal with so many soul-eating ants at all.

So she directly created two buckets of Thousand Slime, one in each hand, and then took out two very long brushes.

Dip it into the Thousand Slime Bucket, and then brush it towards the walls at both ends.

As he brushed, he stuck all the soul-eating ants on the wall to the brush, layer by layer.

In a short time, the brush had turned into a dense black color, covered entirely with soul-eating ants.

She turned it over again, went back and put the two brushes into the Thousand Slime Bucket again, dipped them in, and continued what she was doing before.

After going back and forth like this many times, the originally tiny brush had become a very large barrel shape.

Moreover, the thousand slimes above are constantly moving, trying to break through.

It's just that it's impossible to break through, the brush is still the same brush.

"Oh, you still want to fight with me?"

Looking at the two heavy brushes in his hands, Lin Caisang chuckled.

Whether it was this brush or these thousand slimes, they were all crafted by her with great care. How could she let these soul-eating ants break them open?

Finally, after taking a look at the thousands of soul-eating ants on the ground, she put on special gloves, squatted down, and rolled them up.

This volume is much larger than the two volumes painted on the wall just now.

As for the other scattered soul-eating ants, seeing that most of their companions had been taken care of, how could they dare to rush towards Lin Caisang?

Chapter 2172 They are all the same

Although they are just soul-eating ants, they have also opened their minds, okay?

They can still feel danger or something.

There are so many companions, and they can still hear their companions struggling and asking for help in ant language!

But what can they do?

The woman in front of me was really not easy to mess with. She didn't know what the strange things were in her hands, so she took away so many of them in one go.

If they charge forward again, will they be wiped out?

Even if they are ants, they still have the desire to live. Since they can live, why should they seek death?

As the saying goes, I would rather live quietly than die in a high-profile way.

This is what they are thinking at the moment.

Therefore, no matter how their companions asked them for help, they crawled backwards until their figures were no longer visible to Lin Caisang.

Seeing that the soul-eating ants had all run away, Lin Caisang naturally stopped chasing them to catch them.

There are enough soul-eating ants in her hand, which can allow her to refine a lot of elixirs.

So she put everything away into the Golden Pearl Space, and then continued forward to see what monsters were waiting for her ahead.

‘Whoosh, whoosh!’

Several spiritual energy beads condensed from spiritual energy were shot directly towards her face.

She took out the shield made by Sui Zimo from the golden bead space and blocked her body.

The sound of 'dong dong dong' kept sounding.

She was surprised to find that there were dents one after another on the shield.

"This spiritual power bead is so powerful."

She gritted her teeth and almost lost her hand holding the shield because of the force with which the spiritual beads kept hitting her.

And the spiritual power beads had been shooting towards her like this. No matter the strength or density, they were exactly the same, without any change.

She knew that it wouldn't work if she continued like this. Not to mention the strength of her hands, could she withstand the pressure for such a long time?

Even the shield in her hand couldn't withstand the attacks of several waves of spiritual beads.

"We also need to find out where the mechanism is."

The only way is to break this mechanism, but where is this mechanism?

Taking a deep breath, she slowly stepped back.

After reaching a certain place, the spiritual beads stopped shooting in her direction, and the surroundings became quiet again.

Yin Baiqing's blood was smeared on her body, but it was of no use.

It can be seen that the mechanism in this place does not look at blood inheritance. As long as it senses someone coming in, it will automatically open.

And there seems to be no end to the spiritual power beads. Where can there be so many spiritual power beads used to build the mechanisms of this North Underground Palace?

Therefore, she only thought of one possibility.

That is, this spiritual power bead can be retrieved by the mechanism, just like a magnet attracting iron back.

Pop it out and take it back, pop it out again and take it back again, endless recycling.

However, when the emperor and others come every year, they always have to go in, and there is no way they can be blocked by this mechanism.

Then there are only two possibilities.

Either she took the wrong way here, and it wasn't this way.

Or maybe there is another mechanism in this place that can temporarily stop the spiritual beads from hurting people.

Perhaps, she could find the control switch of this mechanism and turn it off.

Chapter 2173 Which one is true? Which one is fake?

She took action as she thought, looking towards the wall.

Generally speaking, the control mechanism's message switch must be about the same height as a person's hand. All she had to do was search for it in such a place.

Of course, there is no guarantee that some people will place the message switch above the ground.

Wearing special gloves on her hands, she carefully groped the wall, trying to find something on it.

as expected!

After a while, she found it.

only.....

Lin Caisang frowned and looked at the two identical news switches. Without even thinking about it, one of them must be fake and only one of them was true.

"It's really pretty."

Presumably, as long as she activates the fake message switch, there will be more agencies waiting for her to set her up as a hedgehog, right?

"Oh, do you really think that this girl can't do anything?"

As she spoke, she took out a dagger. This dagger was given to her by her husband when she first met her.

I didn't expect that it would still be useful at this time.

...

On the other side, Sui Zimo was rushing to the imperial mausoleum quickly, followed by Exile Jue and Exile Wu.

"Master, Mistress is always careful, don't worry too much, everything will be fine.

Ban Jue looked at his master's face and could see the expression on his face that could not be described in words, so he could only comfort him softly.

However, as soon as he said these words, he felt his master's sharp gaze shooting directly at him. He looked like he wanted to throw him off the flying monster, right?

"that....."

He opened his mouth, not knowing what to say.

However, he really wanted to say that his mistress was very capable. They could get through just a small imperial tomb, so how could she not be able to get through it?

Although he was worried in his heart, he was not as worried as his master.

Of course, he is incomparable to his master.

"Coming."

Sui Zimo looked into the distance and could already see the mountain of the imperial mausoleum, so he let his flying monster land.

They can only walk this section of the road by themselves. If there is another flying monster, the people in the imperial mausoleum will definitely find it.

Just as Sui Zimo was rushing to the imperial mausoleum, Lin Caisang, at this moment...

On the ground in front of her, there was a pile of gravel and powder that she had pried off with a dagger, and in front of her eyes, the two true and false news traps were now bare, and there was no trace of the stone wall around.

She actually demolished almost the entire wall. Naturally, the news switch was completely exposed under her nose.

At this moment, which one is true? Which one is fake? Isn't it so obvious?

"laugh."

Lin Caisang sneered.

But what she didn't expect was that these two news switches were both fake. Whichever one was turned on, the mechanism would fall on her.

But they are all true, because only when the two message switches are activated at the same time, the mechanism will stop running.

It was not like she had never seen these two news agencies before.

It's just that these two news buttons look exactly the same. She has never seen them before.

Even if there are two news switches, they will usually be in harmony with each other and not exactly the same. Such a manufacturing method is generally extremely unlucky.

Of course, with so many Holy Son Flowers, she naturally wouldn't expect this place to be very lucky.

Chapter 2174 The person was knocked unconscious

This place was already good if it didn't kill all the people from Ziyang Kingdom.

Raising her hands, she pressed the two mechanism switches with both hands and turned them at the same time.

Only the sound of 'booming' was heard, coming from beneath the ground. It seemed that many of the mechanisms in front should have been closed.

She walked forward with confidence.

...

After a while, the passage in the North Underground Palace became darker and darker.

Just like what Yin Baiqing said to her before, there can't be any light in the North Underground Palace, even if a torch is lit.

She heard two people talking in the dark.

"I heard that the East Underground Palace exploded?"

"Isn't that right? I heard that everything in the East Underground Palace was destroyed, and not a single thing was left."

"Really? Then the emperor is coming again?"

Listening to this voice, Lin Caisang could hear a hint of nervousness and fear.

These people should all be caring for the Holy Child Flower under the North Underground Palace, right? She could understand their fear of the emperor.

"I don't know who is the unluckiest this time? They will be thrown into the Holy Child Flower as fertilizer."

"Anyway, whenever we hear any noise in the past few days, we should stay away from the Holy Child Flower. Thinking of those people who have been used as fertilizer makes me want to die. I really don't want to stay here."

"Who isn't, and who wants to be here?"

said another.

Who would be willing to come to this hellish place, where every year they would watch their companions being thrown alive into the furnace by the emperor, being ground into a pulp, and then thrown into the flower fields where the Holy Son Flowers were planted, and used as fertilizer? .

"Stop talking, we are already here. Even if we want to leave, we can't leave. We can only live one day at a time."

"Come on, let's go, there are still many things to do."

With that said, the two of them were about to leave, but unexpectedly, a figure suddenly appeared in front of their eyes.

"scare!"

The two of them have been working in the dark for a long time and have already developed a pair of eyes that can see in the dark.

When I saw a person suddenly coming out, I was immediately frightened.

"Let's go, where are you going?" Lin Caisang looked at them lightly and asked.

"You...who are you?"

The two of them were just gardeners taking care of Sheng Zilan, and they had no spiritual power at all.

Now when I saw a stranger, I was so scared that I could only ask tremblingly.

Lin Caisang didn't waste any time. He raised his hand and knocked one of them unconscious.

"you--"

The other man fell down when he saw his companion. He was frightened and wanted to run away immediately.

But how could Lin Caisang give him a chance?

Wind Spirit Whip took action, directly wrapped around his waist and pulled him towards him.

"You...what do you want, I don't know, I don't know anything." The man was pulled back and shouted loudly.

"Shut up!"

Lin Caisang raised his hand and slapped him in the face.

Do you think she doesn't know?

This guy shouted so loudly that the people below the North Underground Palace could hear him and come to save his life.

But how could she give such a chance?

"This time, even if you call Potian, no one will hear you. Are you still pointing others to save you?"

"you you....."

The man didn't dare to speak after hearing her words.

This is the North Underground Palace. Every year, countless gardeners like them try to escape, but whoever can actually escape is killed by those agencies.

Chapter 2175 Are you sure you won't lead the way?

In the end, he was thrown into the Holy Child Flower Field in front of all the gardeners and was used as nourishment. This was also a warning to them gardeners.

But the girl in front of me came here without saying a word.

"Want to go out? Huh?"

Lin Caisang looked at him and asked.

Hearing this, the man's eyes lit up. If he could go out, who wouldn't want to go out?

Staying in this place, even if he can live longer than anyone else, he will still be thrown in as nourishment for the Holy Child Flower in the end.

He has been caught here for so many years. Which night has he not been thinking about leaving this ghost place?

He dreams of getting out!

"You...can you take me out?" he asked.

"certainly."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"Can you really take me out?" The man was excited.

If he could go out, he would be willing to do whatever he was asked to do.

"you do not believe?"

Lin Caisang narrowed his eyes and looked at him dangerously.

"Believe, believe, I believe."

Seeing that she was unhappy, the man nodded repeatedly and said.

Since he can get in here, he must be able to get out.

They were knocked unconscious before, and after they were brought in, they no longer knew where to go.

Even if some people want to escape like crazy, they can only wander around in the passage, and then there will be no more.

"Then when are we going out? Now?" he asked urgently.

"Ah."

Lin Caisang chuckled.

This man was thinking cheaply. He didn't even help her with anything, but he just wanted her to take him out?

Daydreaming, right?

Although in this northern underground palace, it is always black no matter day or night, it is broad daylight outside now.

Let's stop dreaming, okay?

"Do you think I would take you out so cheaply?" she asked him.

"Well."

It made people choke hard at her words.

"Then...that girl wants...what does she want from me?"

He naturally knew that if he wanted to be free, he had to make sacrifices. He was just too excited and didn't think of it just now.

"Take me to the Holy Child Flower Field." Lin Caisang said.

"What?!"

The man was shocked when he heard her words.

"Saint Child Flower Field, if you want to go to Saint Child Flower Field, you can't just enter that place casually!"

He shook his head, feeling that the girl in front of him was too whimsical.

Although he is the gardener here, he does not come into contact with the Holy Child Flower Field every day. The people here all go to the Holy Child Flower Field in batches to maintain the Holy Child Flower.

"Girl, the Holy Child Flower is very poisonous. The people here are divided into thirty groups. We can only come into contact with the Holy Child Flower Field one day a month."

"Um?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows.

"Are you sure you don't want to lead the way?"

As she spoke, she looked at the man lying on the ground.

The man: "..."

No matter how stupid he was, he understood what the girl in front of him meant.

If he doesn't lead the way, he will have no choice but to lie down like that man on the ground. Let alone go out, he might be thrown into the furnace when he wakes up, and then thrown into the field of Holy Children. of.

How could he let himself fall to this level?

"I...I'll take it."

Give it a try?

If he didn't fight this hard, he would have to stay in this northern underground palace forever.

And if he fights this hard, he might be able to get out and be free from now on.

Chapter 2176 Eat people without spitting out bones

"Yes, Not Bad.

After hearing his words, Lin Caisang nodded with satisfaction.

Not long after, two people walked out of the stone gate of the North Underground Palace, Lin Caisang and the gardener who showed her the way.

The gardener followed Lin Caisang all the way, looking at her back with frightened eyes.

Because he saw it before...

Although this girl looked more powerful than him, she was less eye-catching than the other Ling Guards he had encountered before.

He actually took away all the Holy Son Flowers from the Holy Son Flower Field in such a large North Underground Palace.

Although he didn't know what this girl was capable of, he knew that this girl must have a very powerful treasure in her body to be able to collect so many Holy Child Flowers.

"girl....."

"What, you've already come out, why don't you leave?" Lin Caisang turned around, looked at him, and asked.

"Well."

The man was choked and didn't dare to ask a single word of what he was about to ask.

After thinking about it, he felt that this imperial mausoleum was too dangerous, so he had better leave first. Other things were no longer important to him.

Lin Caisang reached out, took out a small cloth bag from his small satchel, and threw it into the man's arms.

The man took it dangerously, feeling the touch inside the cloth bag, and his heart almost stopped with excitement.

Sure enough, he hurriedly opened the cloth bag and saw a whole bag of impure crystal stones inside, which were colorful and very beautiful.

"Thank you, thank you girl."

Looking up, he looked at Lin Caisang excitedly, his mouth full of words of thanks.

He originally didn't know where to go, but now that he has this bag of impure crystals in his hand, he has a way to make a living. In the future, he will learn his lesson and will never be caught in such a dangerous place again.

"Let's go."

Lin Caisang turned around and stopped looking at him.

Now, it's time for her to think about what to do next? You can't just get these Holy Child Flowers and give up such a large forest, right?

This is not her style.

"Why don't we go to the thatched cottage and take a look?"

I think there are many things underground in the thatched house, not to mention the cold food.

Although that thing eats people without spitting out bones, it is the best raw material for refining poisonous powder and poisonous elixir.

Also...

She just dismantled all the mechanisms under the North Underground Palace, and then got a Soul-fixing Crystal.

This thing is a good material for refining weapons. It can be said that it is something that can only be found but not found.

She was very upset when the Soul-Calling Crystal was taken out under the North Underground Palace just now. If she had accompanied her husband to the East Underground Palace at that time, wouldn't it mean that she could still get a Soul-Calling Crystal? spar.

Come to think of it, with so many mechanisms in the East Underground Palace, there must be a Soul-fixing Crystal, right?

But the East Underground Palace was forcibly demolished by her eldest brother. Not to mention the Soul-fixing Crystal, she didn't leave any other treasures for her.

So now she should go take a look under the thatched house.

"I don't know if the emperor has come up from the thatched hut. He needs to check the North Underground Palace, right?" She muttered to herself as she walked in the direction of the thatched hut according to her memory.

However, what she didn't expect was that while walking in the grass, a hand appeared and pulled her directly.

"who?"

Chapter 2177 Where? I go

She was startled, and the dagger in her hand went directly towards the man's neck.

"Sonny, it's me."

Sui Zimo held her wrist with one hand, and took the dagger in her hand into his own with the other hand.

"Well."

Seeing Sui Zimo, Lin Caisang choked hard in his heart.

She secretly thought, her eldest brother is really unreliable. He actually let his brother-in-law escape from his hands so quickly and even chased him to the imperial mausoleum.

"Why are you here?" she asked generously.

Sui Zimo: "..."

Hearing her words, he really looked dark.

However, what can he do? Even if he beats her or scolds her, how can he be willing to do so?

"You can come, why can't I come?" he asked her.

Behind him, Ban Jue and Ban Wu looked helplessly at their mistress.

Before rushing to the imperial mausoleum, although they had been persuading the master not to worry about the mistress, in fact, in their hearts, they were even more worried about the safety of the mistress.

However, I just saw the mistress walking leisurely in the grass alone.

It's as if this imperial mausoleum is the mistress's home.

Although such thoughts are too inappropriate, this is how the mistress gave them just now.

"Mother, have you got the Holy Child Flower?" Ban Jue asked.

"It's not mature yet.

Lin Caisang glanced at him sideways and said.

Of course, this Holy Son Flower will have better medicinal properties after it matures naturally.

Therefore, she would not just pick the flowers directly, but of course she would directly serve them in one pot.

"It doesn't matter, we found a lot of medicine, you can go back and take a look." Sui Zimo didn't want her to stay in the imperial mausoleum anymore, so he persuaded her.

I don't know if it's because the East Underground Palace was bombed yesterday and the corpse poison inside flowed out.

The atmosphere surrounding the imperial mausoleum today is completely different from yesterday.

"Going back? No."

Hearing that he was going back, Lin Caisang immediately shook his head.

"You just came here, are you going back? I think there are a lot of good things over there, how about we take them back together?"

Banishment: "..."

Ban Wu: "..."

Mistress, this is the imperial mausoleum of Ziyan Kingdom, and they sneaked in secretly.

Moreover, there are obviously many more guards around the imperial mausoleum than yesterday. If they are not careful, they will be caught.

Why do you make it sound like they just came in to get something above board? And when you come in openly, you don't just take things, but you rob them, right?

"Where? I'll go." Sui Zimo said.

"No, I want to go too."

When Lin Caisang saw him saying this, she knew that he agreed.

But it was really dangerous under the thatched house. How could he let Sui Zimo go in alone?

After all, she had to go in with him.

"The place I mentioned should be more dangerous than the previous East Underground Palace. I don't trust you to go in without me accompanying you."

"you....."

"Anyway, I'm going in with you."

Without waiting for Sui Zimo to say anything, Lin Caisang said directly without any resistance.

"Zimo, that place is full of resentment and cold food. It is really dangerous. Moreover, the late empress was buried there, and she was on the phoenix vein of Ziyang Kingdom."

"Phoenix pulse?"

Both Ban Yue and Ban Wu were surprised.

"Mother, aren't these other underground palaces above Phoenix Vein?"

Hearing this, Lin Caisang secretly rolled his eyes.

Chapter 2178 Being masturbated

"How can a phoenix vein be so big? Most imperial tombs will only be built near the dragon vein, never directly on the dragon vein."

And the emperor of the Ziyang Kingdom, whether because of his ambition or because of his courage, buried his first wife directly in the phoenix vein of their Ziyang Kingdom.

You know, if a deceased person stands directly on the dragon or phoenix veins, the corpse will be raised.

"Raise the body."

Their eyes widened instantly.

"I've always wondered where those poisonous corpses in the East Underground Palace came from. It turns out that's what happened." Sui Zimo looked at Lin Caisang and said.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"One of their ancestors was buried above the Phoenix and Dragon Veins of the Ziyang Kingdom.

It's just that this emperor dug out his ancestors for his first wife, and then placed his first wife's body in the coffin.

Later, the ancestor was used by the emperor to create poisonous corpses. If I guessed correctly, the corpse that was likely to be raised had been blown up by the mechanisms under the East Underground Palace. "

"This...is this too bold?"

The two banished people couldn't believe that there were such unfilial descendants in this world who took out the corpses of their ancestors and used them to create poisonous corpses!

Doesn't that mean that he allowed others to move around on his ancestor's body, cutting off a piece of flesh now and a bit of bone now?

This emperor of the Ziyang Kingdom is really terrifying, capable of such disrespectful things.

If they hadn't heard the mistress tell them, they wouldn't have imagined it.

There are still people like the Emperor of Ziyang Kingdom in this world. It is no wonder that he would raise a son as vicious as Yin Luqing. The two of them are basically the same person.

"Mother, if this matter spreads out, the emperor will be raped, right?" Ban Wu asked.

Yes, how could such an emperor be a wise king? He was clearly a coward who would dare to do anything for his own woman.

"I don't care if he gets jerked off, I'm only interested in those things about him." Lin Caisang said.

Yes, she doesn't care about anything else. She only knows that there will definitely be good things under the thatched hut. Even if there is nothing else, she will take Yuhang Tao away!

"Husband, those resentful gluttons are too scary. If they stay here, they might become a weapon used by others to deal with us in the future."

She turned to look at Sui Zimo and said.

Even if it's not used against them, it will be used against others.

Things like resentful gluttons and soul-eating ants, if left in the hands of good people, can be refined into medicines and tools to save thousands of people.

However, if they were left in the hands of a vicious person like the Emperor of Ziyang Kingdom, they would only be used to harm others, right?

"You lead the way and we'll go together."

Sui Zimo was persuaded by Lin Caisang and could only take a step back and said.

In fact, he was not at ease leaving his wife alone elsewhere, so he might as well tie her to his belt.

"Yeah, uh-huh."

Seeing that he agreed, Lin Caisang nodded immediately.

"This way, the thatched cottage is quite far away from the North Underground Palace. Before, I thought it was the South Underground Palace."

She pointed in a direction and walked quickly with the three of them.

...

When she was about to reach the thatched hut, she saw the emperor and his guards coming out of the thatched hut.

Chapter 2179 Aren't you going to the imperial mausoleum?

"this....."

Ban Jue looked at those tiny thatched cottages with astonishment on his face.

Just such a small thatched hut, how could so many people come out of it? It seems that there are really many opportunities in this imperial mausoleum.

"Where are they going?"

Seeing the emperor leaving in a hurry with his people, Ban Wu asked.

"Where else can we go?"

Lin Caisang curled his lips and looked at their retreating figures.

"Isn't it just to go to the North Underground Palace that I have already looted?"

"Going to the North Underground Palace, didn't it say that it will take a month for the Holy Child Flower to mature?" Ban Jue was puzzled.

They heard what Yin Baiqing said before, and the news about Princess Niu should be correct.

But what is the emperor going to do now when he goes to the Beidi Palace?

Are you just going to see if the Holy Child Flower has been stolen? But even if a thief gets in, the immature Holy Child Flower is useless, right?

Is it possible that the emperor thought that anyone could be like their mistress, with gold and pearls in their body?

The only one who can take away all those Holy Son Flowers is their mistress, right?

Moreover, it's the kind of thing that can be wiped out to the very end without leaving any roots at all.

"He has a ripening potion in his hand that can make the Holy Child Flower mature in advance." Lin Caisang explained.

"Now is not the time to worry about where he goes. Let's go to the thatched hut first and get Yuhantao away. If we really wait for the emperor to react, we won't be able to run away."

Of course, she won't tell them now. Even if something happens, Prince Niu, who has great supernatural powers and has been watching the entire imperial tomb, will definitely take action to save them.

After all, they saved his precious son.

Sui Zimo reached out, took her hand into his palm, and took her with him.

"It's amazing that there is such a thing."

Even though he said this, he followed his master and mistress closely.

When they arrived in front of the thatched cottage, Lin Caisang poured out some of the unused bottle of Yin Baiqing's blood and smeared it on everyone's clothes.

Then he walked towards the thatched house.

...

In Prince Niu's Mansion, in the small courtyard where Lin Caisang and the others lived, only Yin Baiqing and Lin Changhong, who had just come out of the palace, were left.

"Brother Changhong, aren't you going to the imperial mausoleum?"

Yin Baiqing held her little head up and looked at Lin Changhong, whose face was full of anxiety, and asked.

"What am I going to do? There won't be any danger. It's just a waste of time." Lin Changhong glanced sideways at Yin Baiqing and said angrily.

Originally, he was a little worried about his sister going to the imperial mausoleum alone.

But now that his brother-in-law has gone with Banjue and Banwu, he has nothing to worry about. Who made them strong enough?

Moreover, no matter how bad it is, his sister is also a person with her own avoidance system.

If something happens, wouldn't it be enough to just hide in the Golden Pearl Space?

Everything will be fine.

"Aren't you worried or anxious?" Yin Baiqing asked him.

Look at his face, it has turned gray. Why are you still talking nonsense here?

If you're really worried, just go after it, right?

Why bother holding on here? He is still a child anyway, so it doesn't matter if you show anxiety in front of him.

"What do I have to worry about? Why, are you worried?" Lin Changhong asked him.

"I'm not worried."

Chapter 2180 Delaying time

Yin Baiqing said angrily.

As for his sister Sangsang, is there any need to worry?

That imperial mausoleum, isn't it like visiting the gardens of Prince Niu's mansion?

What's more, Lin Caisang still had the blood he gave him. He couldn't guarantee anything else, but those agencies were definitely not a problem.

"Brother Changhong, look at my face, do I look worried about them?" he asked.

The expressions on their faces indicated that something was wrong with Lin Changhong, okay?

"Just don't worry." Lin Changhong said.

"I'm afraid you'll get worried. Yin Baiqing thought about it for a while, but she took the initiative to speak.

"Brother Changhong, you just need to take a look in the mirror. Look at your face, it's almost gray. And your lips, are they any color? They're so white!"

Hearing this, Lin Changhong rolled his eyes secretly.

Can he say that he is not worried about his sister, but because he is worried about himself?

As for his disappearance in the palace, no one cares about it now, but when Sangsang comes back, will Sui Zimo tell his parents directly to take revenge on him?

He felt that this was really possible.

Not to mention whether Sui Zimo had the idea of filing a complaint, even his own situation was not easy for him!

"With all conscience, I'm just worried about when they will twist off my head and use it as a ball," he said honestly.

Yin Baiqing: "..."

He looked at Lin Changhong blankly, a little speechless.

Brother Changhong is protected by Sister Sangsang. Does the brother-in-law dare to do anything to him?

Even if it's uncle and aunt, it's not a matter of a word from Sister Sangsang. Those two dotes on Sister Sangsang very much.

"Do you still have to worry about this? Just hold Sister Sangsang's thigh tightly, and that's it."

But what he didn't know was that precisely because Lin Baizhong and Liu Yuyang doted on their daughter, Lin Changhong, their son, was more likely to take the blame for his sister.

Anyway, the faults are all the elder brother's. The one who is considerate will always be the little cotton-padded jacket like my daughter.

Yes or no?

"hehe."

Lin Changhong sneered twice.

That thigh even said last night that it would send him to the Infinite Hell. Would he dare to hug it?

He's not afraid of being pricked by the embroidery needles his sister carries on her legs, but her thighs can still be hugged. At least, the subsequent punishment will be less, right?

"Baiqing, tell me, will your brother-in-law know that you gave your sister Sangsang a porcelain bottle of blood?" He reminded Yin Baiqing.

You know, not only was he missing in the palace and delaying time, but Yin Baiqing was also there.

He knew the situation, so he didn't stop her and gave his sister a bottle of blood. If he didn't say anything, it meant that he was supporting his sister to go to the imperial tomb alone.

"Well."

Yin Baiqing choked at Lin Changhong's words and didn't know what to say.

"I can't persuade you, so I can't just do nothing, right? My porcelain bottle of blood looks inconspicuous, but it will be useful in the imperial mausoleum!"

He said to Lin Changhong unconvinced.

"oh."

Lin Changhong responded lightly.

Of course, he doesn't deny that Yin Baiqing's blood will definitely have an effect.

...

Under the thatched house, after being smeared with Yin Baiqing's blood, not a single mechanism was triggered.

"Mother, this blood is really effective. Those mechanisms really haven't been touched."
