

Star of Space 2191

Chapter 2191 Such a trick on big brother

He took a deep breath and exhaled heavily.

Fortunately, he still has the Saint Son Blue Poison and its antidote here, and he also has the Saint Son Grass seeds here, so he can plant a few more batches.

And if those people dig up the Holy Child Grass, it will definitely not survive, and there will be no next time.

He finally felt a little more comfortable.

He stood up and pushed back all the people kneeling on the ground. Then he went to the secret compartment and opened it, wanting to see his treasures inside.

Who knew...

When he opened the secret compartment, he was stunned.

I saw that there was nothing else in the dark compartment, it was empty, there was nothing left.

The poison, the antidote, and the seeds of the Holy Son Grass were all gone.

Even the recipe for refining the poison and antidote of Saint Child Blue is gone.

"Come on, come on!"

He was furious and immediately called his guards.

This is the imperial palace, and the guards are many times tighter than the imperial mausoleum.

Who is so bold as to be able to come to his study room and steal all the things in the secret compartment?

...

Infinite Hell.

The miserable Lin Changhong never imagined that he had already done what his sister wanted.

However, he was finally thrown into the Infinite Prison.

"This stinky girl is really..."

Euphemistically called saving his life, so that he would not be torn apart by Sui Zimo and his parents.

But his girl must have thought about it a long time ago. She must let someone come to this endless hell that eats people without spitting out their bones, right?

"Forget it, we've already come, what else can we do?"

It was impossible to go out now. His parents would stare at him and scold him. It would be better to stay in this infinite prison and read the book on the art of mechanics given to him by Sangsang.

"Sangsang, don't try to trick me like this next time!"

In the golden bead space.

Lin Caisang drew out a little bit of Sui Zimo's blood, and then used the antidote they brought from the palace to blend the two.

After a while, she saw that the blood in the bowl, which was originally dark black, slowly turned into dark green.

Exiled Jue and others, who were waiting for a good result, all had dark faces.

"Master, this antidote seems wrong."

Zhong You looked at the bowl in front of him, then looked up at his master and asked.

"Have you tried it before? The poison in this blood is the poison of Saint Son Lan. Why now..."

Before using the antidote to detoxify the poisonous blood in the bowl, they had already tried it. The two poisons were clearly the same poison.

But now, why can't the poison be detoxified?

"Sang Sang, what's going on?" Liu Yuyang also looked at his daughter and asked.

It's obviously the same poison, so why can't the poison be cured even with the same antidote?

Where can such a thing exist? It's really strange.

"It should be that when Yinluqing was poisoning, he added other poisons, and the two were mixed together to create this strange poison." Lin Caisang explained.

"So, using this antidote is useless?" Ban Jue asked.

Then wouldn't their work be in vain, and they would have to catch Yin Lüqing in the end and force him to hand over the antidote?

"Can we beat Yinluqing?" Ban Wu asked.

He didn't say anything. As long as he could beat Yin Lüqing, he would arrest Yin Lüqing right now and force him to hand over the antidote.

Chapter 2192 He...damn!

other people:"....."

This is not a question of whether you can beat Yinluqing, okay?

For people like Yin Lüqing, even if he falls into their hands, the antidote is his only bargaining chip.

Can he hand it over easily?

I'm afraid that even if he relents, what he hands over will still be a fake, right?

"Anyway, Yin Luqing has nothing to do. Just capture him, master." Ban Wu looked at his master and asked.

Hearing this, Sui Zimo just glanced at him.

"master....."

"Zimo, I think it's okay for us to start with Yin Lüqing now." Lin Baizhong also said.

The poison in Sui Zimo's body always needs to be detoxified, and it can't be kept forever.

Although Sangsang can suppress the poison, having a strange poison on a person's body for many years will always be harmful to the body.

What's more, this should also be detrimental to one's cultivation.

"Yes, the master is right. Why don't we arrest Yinluqing directly?" Ban Wu immediately agreed after hearing what Lin Baizhong said.

No matter who Yin Lüqing belongs to the Eight-Buba Prince, as long as they want to catch him, can they seize a good opportunity to arrest Yin Lüqing, that black-hearted person?

"I'm afraid, even if we catch him, it will be useless.

Before Sui Zimo could respond, Lin Caisang spoke quietly.

"Mother, what do you mean?" Jiang Li asked.

It's useless to catch Yin Lüqing. He was the one who planted the poison. He must have the antidote.

"According to the information we have gathered, Yinluqing himself does not know how to refine medicine, and in recent years, there have not been many powerful pharmacists around him because he did not dare to stay."

Jiang Zuo glanced at his mistress and spoke out what was in her heart.

With a father like Emperor Ziyan around, Yinluqing could not do anything aboveboard.

Even his master and Yin Baiqing could only be raised secretly in the Desolate Continent and did not dare to be raised on the Qianhuan Continent.

In such a situation, he was able to steal a little bit of the Holy Son Blue and put it on his master. How could there be any residual poison for him to study the antidote?

Therefore, as the mistress expected, there should be no antidote in Yinluqing's body.

"Mother, what do you mean, Yinluqing doesn't have an antidote at all and is only responsible for poisoning?" Everyone finally came to their senses and Shi Jian asked.

If this is the case, then Yinluqing really deserves to be killed!

"If my prediction is correct, not only is there no antidote in Yinluqing's body, I'm afraid there is only a small amount of poison." Lin Caisang said.

Otherwise, how could it be possible that only her husband's body was poisoned, and then there was nothing on Yin Baiqing's body when he was sent to Huanglu?

I'm afraid that he only got a portion of Saint Son's Blue Poison and used it all on her husband.

And don't even think about the antidote.

"He...damn it!"

Everyone was angry. This Yinluqing had never thought about letting their master live.

This is intended to be used and then discarded, right?

"Zimo, I plan to retreat in the past few days to study the poison of Saint Son Lan. As for the matter of Zi Yan Kingdom..." Lin Caisang turned his head and looked at Sui Zimo.

"If the Ziyan Kingdom is handed over to me, neither Yinluqing nor Ziyan Emperor can keep it," Sui Zimo said.

Chapter 2193 Come to ask me for help?

Of course, now compared to the entire Qianhuan Continent, I am afraid that even the Ziyang Emperor cannot stay.

It doesn't matter if a phoenix vein is destroyed. Who knows if Emperor Ziyang will come up with other ways to put his idea into the dragon veins of other countries?

If they get another evil body out, this time they are lucky. Next time, they will be busy.

And the sound is green...

Naturally, he cannot die now. He still has many truths that he has to get from Yin Lüqing.

"Don't Yinluqing like poisoning? Let's put some poison on him first," he said.

Just in time, you can also try it to see if Lan Zidu, the Holy Son of Zi Yan Kingdom, has been stolen by them, and not a bottle is left.

"Um."

Lin Caisang naturally had no objection to him dealing with Yin Lüqing.

As for Yinluqing, as long as he is not dead, she will be happy if he is tortured to the point where life is worse than death.

Taking two pill prescriptions from the palace, after transferring Sui Zimo and others out of the Golden Pearl Space, she went to the Medicine Garden Space to study her medicine.

In the Eighth Prince's Mansion.

After being scolded by Emperor Ziyang for half a day in the palace, Yinluqing finally came back.

But not long after, he heard a very bad news, that is, not only the Saint Child Grass in the North Underground Palace was stolen, but also the Saint Child Blue Poison and Antidote in the Imperial Palace, They were all stolen too.

"Who on earth is so bold!"

The time was so close. If the people who stole the imperial tomb and the palace were not the same group of people, he would never believe it.

However, after so many years, there has never been anything wrong with the Ziyang Kingdom's palace, so why would a thief enter?

And quietly stole the Saint Child's poison and antidote?

There was only one person in his mind.

"Sui Zimo, could it be you?"

He cast a net over the entire Qianhuan Continent to catch Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang, but it was like a stone sinking into the sea.

But he didn't expect that these two people were so bold that they actually came right under his nose?

"Haha, you are quite smart."

Did you think so quickly that the poison Sui Zimo was poisoned by was related to Sheng Zilan?

It's a pity that even if you get the antidote of Saint Child Blue, what's the use?

"If you want to escape from the palm of my hand, it's just you? It's a beautiful thought!"

Do you think it's enough to get the antidote from Saint Child Blue? Does Yin Lūqing think he is such a kind person? If it was just Saint Son Lan's poison, would he be so relieved that Sui Zimo would stay in the wilderness?

"In the end, aren't you going to ask me for help?"

Sui Zimo is like a kite. He is still holding on to the string. He can loosen it if he wants to. When it is time to use it, he has to come back obediently.

Spiritual power.

In the future, Sui Zimo will be his endless spiritual power.

Thinking of this, he felt happy in his heart, and he didn't take it to heart at all about the words that Zi Yan Emperor scolded him several times.

However, his expression was still stern.

Where is Mo Zimo hiding this year?

He had already checked and found out that the couple in Prince Niu's Mansion were just a cover used by Princess Niu to seduce him. That woman was already pregnant with a child. How could it be Lin Caisang?

Next, he had to think carefully about how to force Sui Zimo and his party out.

"hateful!"

Chapter 2194 He is very busy

The most hateful thing is that so many of his hidden stakes were originally buried in Prince Niu's Mansion.

However, Princess Niu used various tricks to get rid of them, kill them, and not a single one was left.

However, he doesn't mean anything here. Even the people placed by Emperor Zi Yan into Prince Niu's Mansion were killed, right?

He overheard this matter from the people he placed next to Emperor Ziyan. Princess Niu was really bold. Even the emperor of Ziyan Kingdom dared to offend her in this way.

"Although I don't know where you are, but - you must have something to do with Prince Niu's Mansion, right?"

In the end, he could only send people to keep an eye on Prince Niu's Mansion.

Although doing this is actually no different from finding a needle in a haystack before, it still has some effect, right?

"call!"

After exhaling heavily, he called the guards outside the door.

"Go, send someone to keep an eye on Prince Niu's Mansion. If any stranger comes in or out, report it immediately." He ordered.

"Yes, Your Majesty."

The guard responded and went down to do business.

Although there are no one of them in Prince Niu's Mansion now, it is still possible to see if there are any strangers coming in or out of Prince Niu's Mansion.

However, when the guard went to watch outside Prince Niu's Mansion, he realized that he really didn't know what to do about such a simple thing.

...

From the day after they started staring at Prince Niu's Mansion, strangers kept coming in and out.

The seventh and eighth aunts of Princess Niu's mother's family, as well as relatives who couldn't even hit eight poles, all came to the door one after another.

The guards wanted to curse.

She is a princess after all, so can't she be more stylish and pay attention to her status?

Why would she let a cat or a dog come in and say they were her relatives?

How can there be such a thing?

Of course, they knew that Princess Niu must have known that someone was staring at Prince Niu's mansion, so she did this on purpose.

But what can they do?

What should be stared at should still be stared at, and what should be reported should still be reported.

But, to be honest, they all knew in their hearts that with so many people pouring into Prince Niu's Mansion, who would know how many people they were looking for there?

Maybe there will be one, maybe there won't be one at all?

"How's it going?"

In Prince Niu's Mansion, Princess Niu asked immediately when she saw the nanny beside her coming in from the outside.

"Back to Princess, now the Eighth Prince has sent many people out to investigate the people who came to our Prince Niu's Mansion. I think he will be busy." Mammy reported to her master.

From the moment the guards of the Eighth Prince's Palace started to stare at their palace, they were already discovered.

After all, everyone is a spiritual cultivator, so if you want to find some spiritual power fluctuations, you can still do it.

Moreover, on the street outside Prince Niu's Mansion, there are usually no hairs on anyone, but suddenly there are more people, even if they are disguised, how could they not know?

Therefore, the people in the Eighth Prince's Mansion just stared at it in an "open and aboveboard" manner.

And they came to the house in batches. Anyway, who can fight with others depends on their endurance.

"But, princess, we don't have many relatives outside." She reminded her princess.

No matter how many relatives there are, they are limited. It is impossible for strangers to come into the palace all the time.

"What's the big deal? That shameless thing. There aren't so many women in the backyard. Let them all invite their relatives in. Don't worry, let's come in batches."

Chapter 2195 Use every possible means

Princess Niu smiled sadly.

"Besides, it doesn't have to be all relatives. There are still some beggars in the city now. Our Prince Niu's Palace may not have done any good deeds for a long time. Let them come and see the momentum of our Palace."

Grandma: "..."

Princess, are you serious?

"Then... do you need to dress up?" she asked.

"Of course it's needed."

Princess Niu said without thinking.

If you don't even dress up, wouldn't you reveal everything?

So are they still causing trouble for Yinluqing?

"Go down and do it."

"Yes, Princess. Mammy responded and went to do some work.

...

On the other side, because of the incident with Emperor Ziyang, Sui Zimo went directly to Prince Niu.

Of course, you can find Princess Niu at any time if she has the sound of her, but naturally you have to find Prince Niu, a secretive person, in a dark and windy night.

So, the next night, Sui Zimo went to Prince Niu's Mansion to talk about Emperor Ziyang.

"Overthrow Emperor Ziyang?"

Hearing Sui Zimo's words, Prince Niu was stunned for a moment, then smiled.

"Young Master Sui, you think too highly of me. Although I have been named King Niu, in fact, I have no real power."

He said to Sui Zimo.

Yes, even if he is made a king, no matter what, he still has no real power.

In the Ziyang Kingdom, even the most favored prince can acquire his power through his own money, and although he also has some, how can he compete with Emperor Ziyang.

What's more...

He really has no interest in that position at all!

"If what Zi Yan Emperor has done in these years is spread..."

"no!"

Without thinking, Prince Niu rejected his proposal.

If the things that Emperor Ziyang has done over the years are spread, then those people outside are still going to kill Emperor Ziyang?

In addition, I am afraid that the Zi Yan Kingdom will cease to exist, right? Then there is no so-called overthrow.

But to subjugate the country!

"The Phoenix Vein matter is a bit serious, so it's better not to spread it outside for the time being." He said.

Hearing this, Sui Zimo just glanced at Prince Niu lightly.

"Do you think this matter won't be spread outside the public if you don't want to?" he asked.

"What's the meaning?"

Prince Niu was stunned and asked in confusion.

"Now that we know that Phoenix Vein can raise the son of evil spirits, do you think Emperor Zi Yan will give up?" Sui Zimo asked him.

"Well."

Prince Niu choked at his words.

Indeed, his father was also a man who would never give up until he achieved his goal.

This time it was ruined, but what about next time?

But he suddenly thought that the phoenix veins of Ziyang Kingdom had been blown up. Even if he wanted to get another son of the evil devil, he wouldn't be able to get one, right?

"The Phoenix Vein has been completely destroyed. Even if he had the intention, he doesn't have the power anymore," he said.

"The Phoenix Vein of Ziyang Kingdom is gone, but don't other countries have Dragon Veins?" Sui Zimo reminded him.

"The dragon veins of other countries don't have the evil spirit." Prince Niu said.

However, it is not impossible to cultivate the evil spirit. As long as you are willing to put in the effort, you can definitely cultivate it.

Thinking of this, he couldn't help but break out in a cold sweat.

His father, who would do anything to achieve his goals, wouldn't really set his sights on the dragon veins of other countries, would he?

But I have to say that this possibility is really very high.

Such a thing is really something that his father can do.

Chapter 2196 Everyone must die!

"Impossible, impossible!"

He shook his head, feeling that if his father really did that, the possibility of the country's subjugation would be greater.

"Do you think it's impossible?" Seeing him like this, Sui Zimo asked him sadly.

"that....."

Prince Niu felt a little guilty when he asked.

That's impossible, that's impossible, okay? His father can really do anything.

Think about it, he almost even raised a demonic body, so what else is there that he doesn't dare to do?

Sneaking into someone else's dragon vein and raising a half-dead woman, isn't that just a matter of words?

"This is really possible."

"So, you support Emperor Ziyang in doing this?" Sui Zimo asked him.

"How can it be?!"

Prince Niu widened his eyes and denied it.

He is crazy to support his father in doing things that no human being can do!

"Is this the only way left?"

Although he wanted to deny it, he had to admit that this was the only way.

Only by pulling Emperor Ziyang down from that position can everyone be in peace, and the evil body that kills people without repaying their lives will cease to exist.

"What do you think?" Sui Zimo asked him.

Hearing this, Prince Niu took a deep breath.

"Let me arrange this matter. As for Yinluqing's side..."

"I will deal with him on his side, so you don't have to worry about it."

Naturally, he was the one to deal with Yinluqing, and he would not allow anyone else to interfere.

"Yinluqing is difficult to deal with." Prince Niu reminded Sui Zimo.

Even though Yin Lüqing's own abilities are not very good, he really has quite a lot of treasures in his hands.

He is also very cunning, and it is not that easy to deal with him.

"Yeah?"

Sui Mo's thin lips were slightly hooked, and his deep eyes were looking into the distance.

Is Yinluqing really difficult to deal with?

...

Within a few days, rumors had spread in Mengyan City about the destruction of the imperial mausoleum and the fact that Emperor Ziyang was raising the body of an evil spirit on the phoenix veins of Ziyang Kingdom.

The whole court was shocked, and all the officials discussed this matter.

When they were in the court, some bold officials directly questioned Emperor Ziyang.

This made him unable to get off the stage at all, and he was even more speechless. He was furious and wanted to order someone to drag the official out and behead him.

But how could other officials let him do this?

In the world of spiritual cultivation, the officials are naturally different from those in Huanglu. Every official here has powerful spiritual power.

Only when you are strong enough can you gain a foothold and be respected and loved by the people.

Naturally, the same goes for these officials. In fact, they are the spiritual masters on Qianhuan Continent, the powerful ones on this continent.

Their strength is much stronger than that of the superior Ziyang Emperor.

Emperor Ziyang wants to kill a certain official, how can other officials allow it? They all stood up.

"You...you..."

Emperor Ziyang was sitting on the dragon chair, looking at those who came out to argue with him with a blue face.

At this moment, he had never thought that things in the imperial mausoleum were extremely confidential. How could they be leaked?

All he thought about was that he couldn't let these people go against him. Anyone who wanted to go against him must die!

But this idea was just in his mind.

Chapter 2197 Bear the brunt!

Now that the Holy Son Flower was stolen, the Saint Son Blue poison and the antidote in his hand were also stolen.

He couldn't even come up with a secret poison that could threaten this old guy!

Thinking of this, he was really angry!

"This matter is completely false. The Phoenix Vein is the most important thing in the Zi Yan Kingdom. How can I do anything with the Phoenix Vein?"

At this moment, he could only deny what he had done.

He has already thought about it. After this matter calms down, he will find a dragon vein from another country, and then follow the same method to raise another evil body.

He just doesn't believe it anymore. If those people can destroy him once, can they destroy him the second time?

Thinking about it, the destruction of the imperial mausoleum must be just a coincidence, right?

Regarding the body of the evil spirit, he also saw it from the ancient fragments. It was impossible for others to see it.

"Also, I have never heard of any evil body!"

He denied, denied again.

"Does the Emperor really not know what a demonic body is?" An official looked up into the Emperor's eyes and asked loudly.

Everyone has heard of the evil body. It is a human body formed by extremely evil things, but no one knows how this evil body is created.

Nowadays, the news about an evil body brought out by the emperor on Feng Mei has spread a lot.

Did Ziyang Emperor think they were really that easy to deceive?

Emperor Ziyang: "..."

Are these people questioning him? What if he were the emperor of the Ziyang Kingdom!

"Old Bai, are you questioning me?" He glared and asked the old man who stood up sternly.

"Yes, I am questioning the emperor!"

Faced with the anger of Emperor Ziyang, Bai Lao did not deny it and said directly.

This is already the case, why should we still let them pretend they don't know anything?

Do they really have to wait until Emperor Zi Yan brings out a demonic body and puts it in front of their eyes before they regret not stopping Emperor Zi Yan's crazy behavior?

"Your Majesty, there is no need to deny it. I have already interrogated the mausoleum guards in the imperial mausoleum before. I just used some mantra powder and they said everything. Your Majesty, shouldn't you give us an explanation?"

"Yes, Your Majesty."

Listening to what Old Bai said, another old man stood up.

"Who doesn't know about the Evil Body? It is an extremely evil thing. How could the Emperor create such a terrifying monster on the Qianhuan Continent just for his own selfish interests?"

"Your Majesty, you want to destroy the Zi Yan Kingdom!"

"Your Majesty, you must think twice. You don't care about your family ties with that evil body. If you really raise an evil body, then I'm afraid even you will die from the evil body. In my hands."

"Your Majesty, do you really want to harm the people of Ziyan Kingdom, or even the entire Qianhuan Continent, for your own selfish interests?"

Once the body of an evil spirit is developed, who can have the ability to kill it?

Fortunately, it was accidentally discovered by someone, and it was blown up and burned. Otherwise, Zi Yanguo would be the first to bear the brunt!

"Your Majesty, if the city lord of Sky City knows about this matter, I'm afraid he will come to Ziyan Kingdom immediately."

"You... you..."

Emperor Ziyan looked at those people, none of them took him seriously.

Everyone came to question him, oppose him, and make trouble for him at every turn, just like now.

Chapter 2198 Who has a longer lifespan?

Just because these people don't regard him as the emperor, he wants to create something that only he can control to check and balance these immortal things!

Otherwise, although the world of Ziyan Kingdom still has the surname Yin, it is not certain who actually controls it!

"I have my own reasons for doing this. What do you people know?" he said impatiently.

When the ministers heard this, their expressions became even worse.

Doesn't the Emperor deny that he has raised a demonic body?

Before, they thought that this matter was just nonsense by Bai Lao and the others. They also felt that Bai Lao's prestige was there, so they listened to Bai Lao's words and wanted to find out the truth.

They really didn't expect that the emperor would really dare to raise this evil body!

"I would like to hear what kind of reason the emperor has for actually raising the body of a demon." Bai Lao's voice, which originally hated iron, suddenly became colder and asked.

If he was just disappointed with the emperor before, now he really feels that the emperor is hopeless.

He had a demonic body, and after they discovered it, he didn't even know he was wrong?

He still has his own reasons for saying so righteously in the court?

He wanted to hear what reason the emperor had that made him even dare to raise the body of a demon.

"I can raise the body of a demon, so naturally I can find a way to make him obey my orders!" Emperor Ziyang stood up, raised his chin proudly, and said to the ministers.

If he couldn't even tame the body of an evil spirit, why would he be the emperor?

Decades ago, he had already thought of a way. As long as the demonic body was developed, people would definitely listen to his words.

In this regard, he is still confident.

"Yeah?"

Bai Lao looked at Ziyang Emperor as if he was watching a joke.

"Your Majesty, can I listen to what you are doing?"

he asks.

"this....."

Emperor Zi Yan was stunned and opened his mouth to say something, but quickly closed his mouth again.

"This matter is top secret, how can I tell you?"

He must be crazy to tell so many people about his method of controlling the evil body.

Tell him so that they can control the evil body and then compete with him for the throne? He wouldn't do that.

"Ah."

Bai Lao laughed coldly.

"Then Your Majesty, can I ask you a question?" he asked.

"Excuse me, Mr. Bai."

After hearing what Bai Lao said, Emperor Zi Yan thought that Bai Lao wanted to give him a step down and expose this matter.

He smiled and spoke politely to Mr. Bai.

"If this evil body is really developed, who will live longer in the future, the emperor or the evil body?" Bai Lao asked rudely with a cold face.

"Well!"

Emperor Ziyan choked hard at Bai Lao's words.

The ministers also reacted.

Yes, this evil body is originally a body of all evil, not to mention whether it can be controlled by people, it is still unknown.

Even if the evil body can be controlled by Emperor Zi Yan for a while, what will happen after Emperor Zi Yan dies?

"Old Bai, you are taking too much care. When the time comes, there will be a solution."

Unable to answer Bai Lao's question, Ziyan Emperor could only fight with Bai Lao.

By then, when he is gone, what does he care about the other people?

Chapter 2199 What's wrong?

What's more, this old man Bai is really so abominable. He is still here fine, but he is openly cursing him to death in the court?

"Your Majesty, the demon's body is different from an object, he can also cultivate!"

Old Bai's forehead was so angry that the veins were exposed. At this time, Emperor Zi Yan still felt that he had done nothing wrong?

How could their Zi Yan Kingdom have such an emperor? What kind of evil had they done?

"As the evil body's cultivation level gets higher and higher, Your Majesty, are you really sure that you can defeat him?"

"When that time comes, can't we simply surrender or kill him?" Emperor Zi Yan felt that this was not a problem at all.

By that time, his wish to unify the Qianhuan Continent must have been realized, and Sky City would have been under the rule of the Zi Yan Kingdom.

Then the evil body will be useless, can't we just kill it directly?

"hiss!"

After hearing his words, all the ministers gasped.

They looked at Emperor Ziyang as if they were looking at a fool.

Surrender or kill?

I would like to ask: Who will surrender whom and who will kill whom?

The body of an evil spirit, to describe it as invulnerable, is light!

That is a master with evil aura, devilish aura, and poisonous aura. Who can get close to him?

Go and kill, who is going to kill?

Who dares to kill?

"Your Majesty, will you kill me when the time comes?"

A minister came out trembling slightly, and regardless of how tense the atmosphere was at the moment, he asked directly to the emperor.

"you--"

The emperor was so choked by his words that he almost couldn't bring himself to speak.

Is he going to kill?

Didn't they say that he would be gone by then, so how could he kill him?

Are these people deliberately trying to make him angry?

"Okay, now that the demon's body has been destroyed, what's the use of talking about it?"

He shook his sleeves vigorously at the ministers and cursed angrily.

"You guys, if you have the time to question me here, you might as well go find out which thief destroyed the imperial mausoleum and did such an unforgivable thing. Not killing him is not enough for the people to be angry. !"

Ministers: "..."

Still checking?

In their hearts, these ministers must be grateful to the person who blew up the imperial mausoleum, right?

If it hadn't been for him, maybe within a few months, the son of the evil devil would have been carried into the palace by Emperor Ziyang. By then, not only the Ziyang Kingdom, but the entire Qianhuan Continent would have died because of the son of the evil devil. In hand.

"So, the emperor doesn't know anything wrong at all?" Bai Lao looked at Ziyang Emperor with cold eyes and asked.

"What did I do wrong?"

Emperor Zi Yan also sneered and asked him.

"Is it wrong for me to want the Zi Yan Kingdom to become stronger? Don't you want to trample the people of Sky City under your feet?"

"this....."

The ministers felt a sigh of relief in their hearts when they saw Emperor Zi Yan's appearance of saying that he was doing nothing wrong.

They want to trample the people of Sky City under their feet, not just the people of their Ziyang Kingdom, but also those from other countries.

But so what?

If you want to trample others under your feet, you must first ensure your own life?

If your own life is not protected, how can you expect to trample others under your feet?

It's faster to have a big spring and autumn dream.

"Your Majesty, I am so disappointed in you." Bai Lao waved his sleeves at Emperor Ziyang, turned and left the court.

Chapter 2200 Several groups of...beggars!

"Your Majesty, please... take care of yourself.

When the other ministers saw Mr. Bai leaving, they also glanced at Emperor Ziyang, shook their heads, and left together.

Especially those gray-haired old men who respected the old man. They had long been dissatisfied with Emperor Ziyang's actions, and this time they went too far, so they naturally left directly.

"You...you..."

Emperor Ziyang saw that they did not give him any respect as the emperor, and his face turned purple with anger.

"Just wait. Sooner or later, I will show you how powerful I am!" After shaking his sleeves again, he left.

At the same time, the emperor was also angry. How did those old people know about his raising the demonic body on the Phoenix Vein?

Is it really like what Mr. Bai said, that it was those mausoleum guards who couldn't stand the truth and told them about the son of the evil spirit?

But why did Mr. Bai interrogate those Ling Guards for no reason?

I even used the Mantra Powder!

Someone must have leaked the information about him raising a demon body.

Who is the one?

There were only two people he brought to the imperial mausoleum this time. Could it be Yinluqing?

Emperor Zi Yan felt that it was impossible for his incompetent fifth son to do this.

He doesn't understand this son's temperament. He spends his whole life eating and drinking and waiting to die. He will never think of becoming a great person in his life.

"Yinluqing!"

Come to think of it, it must be the sound quality.

This son's ambition was much greater than that of the other sons, and he had also done some shady things secretly. He turned a blind eye at that time.

Now it seems that it is still too indulgent.

"Come here, call that bastard Yin Lüqing into the palace!" He ordered the chief steward beside him.

...

The matter of the evil body is not limited to the court.

Even from the mouths of the people, all they can hear is about the evil body in the imperial mausoleum. It can be said that it is out of control.

On the other side, Yin Lüqing still didn't know that Emperor Zi Yan had blamed him for the evil body.

At this moment, he was in his palace, angry at the guards.

"What? What are these?"

Taking a knife of paper, he threw it directly on the heads of the kneeling guards on the ground.

"What I want is news about those who have entered Prince Niu's palace. What is this? Is this a relative of Princess Niu?"

At the beginning, some serious relatives of Princess Niu came to visit, but it didn't take long for things to change.

All the relatives of concubines and concubines are here, and there are even relatives of servants!

When did Prince Niu's Mansion become a shop that everyone could enter? As long as a person says he is going to Prince Niu's Mansion, he can go in and take a look around.

What's even more hateful is that there are actually several groups of people written on these papers... beggars!

Facing their master's anger, the guards also felt aggrieved.

What can they do?

The area outside the gate of Prince Niu's Mansion was completely bare. They wanted to stare at it, but no matter how they stared, they would definitely be discovered!

And Princess Niu is very capable. Knowing that someone is watching their palace, she will definitely find a way.

No, everyone will be picked up at the house.

They all doubted whether Princess Niu sent people to find those people on purpose!
