

Star of Space 2301

Chapter 2301 It's for your own good

"Tianfeng, just think it's for your elder brother, just bear with it for the time being, and wait until your elder sister-in-law gives birth to the child. That'll be it, and she can feel relieved."

he advised.

Lu Tianfeng: "..."

He didn't think that his sister-in-law would stop having dangerous thoughts just because the child was born.

After all, Sui Zimo was stolen by him when the child was one month old. Even if the child is born, he will not be able to keep it.

He couldn't help but wonder, when his sister-in-law's child was born, he would think that someone was secretly trying to harm her child, and then secretly monitor everyone in the city lord's palace.

"Brother, is my sister-in-law so sensitive now?" he asked.

"Yeah, they were all scared."

Lu Tianlan sighed heavily and said.

"So, Tianfeng, you have to be considerate of my elder brother. There is nothing I can do about it. You, just treat it as your little uncle and play with your little nephew."

Lu Tianfeng: "!!!"

What little nephew? He doesn't have any little nephew!

However, it was impossible for him to get rid of the two idiots around him.

Lu Tianlan now has a child of his own, and everything is centered on the child, without considering his feelings at all.

He has only been watched for a few months, but even if he tells other people, they will feel that the city lord's wife did the right thing. For the sake of the children and the young city lord of Sky City, nothing is too much.

"Okay, brother, I understand."

In the end, he could only nod, but there was one thing he couldn't directly follow Lu Tianlan's wishes.

"Brother, I think it is best for me and Commander Lin to go together in the vast forest. It has not been many years since Commander Lin came to Qianhuan Continent. He knows the monsters in the vast forest. I am afraid that he will not be able to do what he wants. Someone needs to help him." he."

"Okay, I understand."

Lu Tianlan responded, agreeing with what he said.

Seeing that Lu Tianlan still trusted him and asked him to go to Haikuo Forest, Lu Tianfeng finally breathed a sigh of relief.

"Brother..."

"I will send someone to assist Anian. As for you, Tianfeng, you'd better take care of your body and bones first. The vast forest is too dangerous, so you'd better not go."

Lu Tianlan said again.

Lu Tianfeng: "..."

This guy thinks it's fun to tease him like this, right?

"Brother..."

"Tianfeng, big brother is also doing this for your own good."

Lu Tianlan didn't give him a chance to speak and continued, making his meaning clear.

"My eldest brother didn't think carefully before. I didn't expect that you were still sick, so I wanted you to go to the sea forest to collect medicine for your unborn nephew. It's true that in this huge city in the sky, I can The only people I trust are you and Anian.

Well, now that A-Nian is back, you should take a rest. After your grandson is raised by me, it won't be too late to do things for your elder brother. "

After listening to his words, Lu Tianfeng yelled in his heart: Why is it not too late? He can't enter the sea forest, everything is too late, okay?

"Okay, brother, I understand."

But Lu Tianlan was determined not to let him go to Haikuo Forest. It was useless for him to say anything.

So he had to find another way.

Fortunately, not only the team leader can enter Haikuo Forest, but also alchemists, and most of them are alchemists.

Chapter 2302 You can only obey

Since he is also an alchemist, he might as well change his appearance and go play in the vast forest.

At home, although An Shen and An Meng were staring at him, he could still find a way to get through in front of them. He could find someone with the same aura as himself to take his place and stay at home to fool these two idiots. , he still did it.

"Ahem, brother, I don't have anything else to do. I'll go see my sister-in-law later and then go back."

"Okay, you go home and rest."

Lu Tianlan nodded and continued to deal with his affairs.

He is not a person who has nothing to do. He is busy dealing with a lot of things. He also has to guard against the person in front of him and dig a trap for him.

Lu Tianfeng glanced at him one last time, then turned around and left the study.

Outside the study, An Shen and An Meng saw Lu Tianfeng coming out, and immediately approached him and followed him away.

"How about it?"

In the study, An Die had already come in. Lu Tianlan looked at her with a cold face and asked.

"Back to the city lord, An Shen and An Meng discovered that Lu Tianfeng's so-called weakness and illness may be false." An Die replied to his city lord.

"Fake?"

A trace of surprise flashed across Lu Tianlan's face, but it quickly returned to normal.

Although it was unexpected, it was reasonable. However, through this incident, it was confirmed that Lu Tianfeng was indeed the person Lin Baizhong said.

"An Die, this time when we enter Haikuo Forest, the city lord has assigned you to Commander Lin's side. Do you have any different opinions?" He asked An Die.

Hearing this, An Die couldn't help but raise his head, glanced at the city lord quickly, and then lowered his head.

"My subordinate has no objection."

"An Die, this city lord knows that you have always liked Commander Lin, but Commander Lin has a family. In these years, even though he has forgotten everything, he has never married again.

This shows how important the people in his family are to him.

This city lord hopes that you can stick to your duty and not do anything extraordinary. Otherwise, not only Commander Lin, but also this city lord will not let you off lightly. "

Lu Tianlan warned An Die.

After listening to the city lord's words, An Die lowered his head.

Ever since she learned that Lin Baizhong was back, she wanted to see what Lin Baizhong's wife looked like.

She just wanted to see how she was worse than other women.

Now, she finally had a chance, but the city lord warned her in front of her not to have any inappropriate thoughts about Lin Baizhong.

But at the beginning, it was clear that even Ding Rong had some serious thoughts about Lin Baizhong, and the city lord didn't do anything to stop him. So why couldn't he stop it when he came to her?

"Yes, City Lord, I understand."

For a guard, she could only respond and obey.

"As long as you understand."

Lu Tianlan nodded with satisfaction.

If there was someone in the city lord's palace who liked Lin Baizhong before, he would naturally be willing to support him.

Because if Lin Baizhong marries someone from the city lord's palace, he will never leave Sky City again. Sky City needs capable people like Lin Baizhong.

But now, Lin Baizhong already has a wife, and he is back with his wife.

Doesn't this mean that he will definitely stay in Sky City in the future? Since the matter is a foregone conclusion, he will never allow those ignorant people to destroy it!

Moreover, Lin Baizhong was considered single before, and it was okay for a woman to like him and pursue him.

Chapter 2303 Something special is wrong

But now Lin Baizhong has a wife, and the couple is very loving. If there are those who don't know each other and try to destroy her, his city lord's palace will not keep such people.

"An Die, you are still young, and there are still many possibilities in the future. Don't we have young and promising young men in our city lord's mansion? We need to take a longer view."

"My subordinate understands the City Lord's intention. Thank you City Lord for your kindness." An Die pursed her lips and responded.

"Okay, please step aside for now. Tomorrow, go and prepare for the trip to Haikuo Forest with Commander Lin," Lu Tianlan said.

"Yes, City Lord, I am resigning."

After An Die responded, he retreated.

"City Lord, if you tell An Die like this, will she have any complaints in her heart?" From the darkness, a man also wearing a guard uniform came out and asked Lu Tianlan.

"Will she?"

Lu Tianlan asked while looking at the folding paper in his hand.

"meeting."

The guard responded without any doubt.

If he is a woman and is directly exposed that she likes someone, she will already feel uncomfortable. If she is forced to not like that person again, she will definitely complain.

The same thing holds true from a man's perspective.

"The city lord has nothing to do with that."

Lu Tianlan didn't take it seriously at all, but raised his eyebrows.

"She has complaints, and it's not just a matter of one or two days."

Guard: "..."

Since the city lord already knew that An Die had complaints, why did he still say it like this?

Is it for Commander Lin?

This is an emotional dispute between Commander Lin, and it should be handled by Commander Lin himself, right? What is the purpose of the city lord doing this?

"Tell people to keep an eye on Lu Tianfeng and not allow any of us to approach him." Lu Tianlan ordered the guards.

"City Lord, what do you mean..."

When the guard heard his words, he was stunned for a moment, but he soon came to his senses.

The city lord meant that An Die might go to Lu Tianfeng's camp because of Commander Lin.

It is said that women's horizons are very small. It seems that An Die may actually take the wrong path and end up in Lu Tianfeng's camp because of this momentary obstacle.

"Yes, my subordinate understands and will make arrangements now."

On the other side, Lu Tianfeng left after visiting the city lord's wife.

Looking at Lu Tianfeng's retreating figure, the city lord's wife, who was so outspoken, almost couldn't bear it and even cursed her.

"This guy is finally gone!"

She was really suffocated to death. Looking at this guy who wanted to harm her child, she couldn't help but want to beat him up.

But luckily, she held back and didn't show any flaws in front of that guy.

"Madam, what do you think of this slave? Mr. Tianfeng comes to check your pulse too many times. He came three days ago and he came again today." A maid next to the city lord's wife couldn't help but say solved his own doubts.

Even if Lu Tianfeng came to see the city lord, as he said just now, he just wanted to check the pulse of the city lord's wife.

But she always felt that something was wrong, something very wrong.

"When you say that, I think he is a little too enthusiastic about the child I am carrying," the city lord's wife said.

To put it bluntly, this child is not his Lu Tianfeng's child. He was so anxious to get angry that he rushed to check her pulse, and even caused his own illness.

Chapter 2304 Someone is dead

No matter how you put it, this is a bit abnormal and unreasonable.

"Dong'er, in this case, you can secretly invite an alchemist to come and check my wife's pulse." She ordered the maid beside her.

"Yes, ma'am."

Dong'er accepted the order and prepared to go outside to find an alchemist.

"Wait a moment."

The city lord's wife stopped her again.

"Madam, do you have any other instructions?" Dong'er turned around and asked.

"Don't bring the alchemist to the house, go outside."

The city lord's wife thought about it and felt that if she brought someone directly to the mansion, she would definitely be discovered.

It would be better to choose a safe place outside and bring someone over to check her pulse, so that the person whose pulse is checked will not know that she is the wife of the city lord.

"Okay, madam, I'll take care of it now." Dong'er looked up at her and then withdrew.

In the inn, Sui Zimo went to Lin Mansion to meet Lin Baizhong. Lin Caisang, who was a little hungry, came downstairs and ordered a table of dishes, ready to eat while waiting for Sui Zimo to come back.

"Guest, please use it slowly."

The waiter brought the dishes over, said a polite word to Lin Caisang, and left.

Looking at the dishes on the table, Lin Caisang took a deep breath, picked up the chopsticks on the side, and started eating.

"It's not bad, but it's a little salty. Baby, just bear with it a little. When mother eats, rinse your mouth, and it won't be salty to you.

Baby:"....."

If he hadn't been a baby, hadn't been born yet and couldn't speak, he would have scolded his irresponsible mother.

Is this a matter of rinsing your mouth after eating? These dishes are obviously too salty, okay?

However, his mother's taste was very bad to begin with. He was probably used to it by his father, so he had no choice but to endure it.

If he really dared to curse, he was afraid that his father would come to settle the score with him.

"Come here, come here, who is the alchemist here?"

While eating, a voice suddenly came from outside the inn, and it sounded sinister.

"What happened?"

"Is this a dead person? Why is there so much blood?"

"Oh my God, someone actually killed people in Sky City? It's too scary."

"Is this person really dead? Where is the murderer? Aren't you afraid that the people from the City Lord's Mansion will arrest him and cut him into pieces?"

People who had been eating in the inn stood up one after another and ran to the door to watch the excitement.

Everyone kept telling me that no one dared to step forward and take action. Maybe they were afraid of getting themselves into trouble. After all, there was so much blood and it was very likely that someone would die.

If they intervene, who knows if those people will blackmail them?

"What happened?"

Lin Caisang also put down his chopsticks and put all the dishes on the table directly into the Jinzhu space.

Anyway, at this time, everyone's attention is all on the person on the street, and they will not notice what she has put into the space.

After putting her things away, she slowly came to the door, squeezed through the crowd to the front, looked over there and asked.

"He's dead."

The man next to her shrugged helplessly and said.

Then, he glanced down at Lin Caisang, saw that she was still pregnant with the child, and gave another warning.

"Madam, I see that you smell like medicine. You must be an alchemist, right?"

"Um?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and looked at him.

Chapter 2305 It's so miserable

He is an alchemist, so what? Could it be that when she saw a dead person on the roadside, she still had to go up?

"I advise you to mind your own business. There has been no peace in the Sky City recently. There have been several deaths."

"How many times have you been up?"

After hearing his words, Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows.

"What's going on? Someone is committing murder in Sky City. Don't the people in the City Lord's Mansion care about it?"

she asked.

"It doesn't matter, why don't you care?"

The man spoke, but at the same time he sighed.

"The people in the City Lord's Mansion do take care of it, but when they can't take care of it, these dead people are all alchemists, and they came from outside. They don't even have anything to prove their identity. This How do you ask the people from the City Lord's Mansion to investigate?"

"Alchemist, was that someone invited by the city lord's palace? How could he be killed on the street? Isn't this too strange?" Lin Caisang asked again.

The sky is clear and the sun is clear, and the world is clear. Such a person will be killed as soon as he says to kill.

She looked sideways at the man lying on the ground, and saw that he was covering his neck with his hands, spitting blood from his mouth, and blood was pouring out from between his fingers.

This was obviously someone's throat being cut at once.

In other words, just now this man was walking on the road, and when he passed by him, the murderer took out a blade or something, wiped it on his neck, and killed him.

This is not an honest crime, so what is it?

"It's just because he's an alchemist that it's not strange." The man said again.

"Everyone knows that the City Lord's Mansion is planning to recruit people to the Haikuo Forest, including alchemists, but they are recruiting many alchemists but not many alchemists.

But the alchemists who suddenly poured into Sky City were much more numerous than the alchemists and the porridge young monks. Some people thought that it would take a few more people to die before they could have this opportunity to go to the sea forest! "

Therefore, according to everyone's speculation, the murders on the streets these days are indelibly related to going to Haikuo Forest.

But these are just everyone's guesses, and no one dares to say it clearly. After all, he went to Haikuo Forest to seek medicine for the city lord's wife and the unborn young city lord.

Who dares to say so bluntly that these people all died due to the city lord's wife's announcement to recruit alchemists and alchemists?

"So that's how it is, I understand." Lin Caisang nodded.

"So, madam, you can't just be kind-hearted and interfere with this matter. If someone sees it, you might become the next target."

The man continued.

What he said is not unreasonable. After all, there are many alchemists. In recent years, crystals have poured into Sky City in large numbers. It is estimated that more alchemists will come in a few days.

And the number of alchemists who go to Haikuo Forest is definitely not as many as those who come to Sky City.

It's also a problem of too many monks and too few monks. Since alchemists can kill each other, the same can be said for alchemists.

"It's so miserable."

The man shook his head and sighed.

Lin Caisang found that among the crowd of onlookers, many people were sighing. A young life just left.

But still no one took action to stop or save this man.

But Lin Caisang also knew that this man would not survive regardless of whether he was saved or not, because not only had his aorta been cut, but he had also been poisoned, a poison that made it difficult for the wound to heal.

Chapter 2306 The Poison of the Cracked Tree

It takes two hours for the detoxification to take effect, but his wound can drain all the blood from his body within a few minutes.

Therefore, there is no way to save it.

"Oh, the method is really clever."

She looked at the murdered man lying on the ground and shook her head.

"Madam, what do you mean by this?"

At this time, Dong'er, who had been watching but unable to do anything, heard Lin Caisang's words.

Lin Caisang glanced sideways at Dong'er.

"The murderer's murder weapon was smeared with cracked tree sap purified hundreds of times. This poison can prevent wounds from healing, but the antidote to this poison is also available everywhere. It is the sap of fallen wind grass.

But it takes two hours to detoxify. The main artery in this person's neck was cut directly, and he would not be able to survive for a moment. "

"So this is ah."

After listening to her explanation, Dong'er finally understood.

No wonder the city lord's palace had already given the best elixirs to the victims before, but still couldn't cure them.

So, is it because of the poison of the cracked tree?

"Madam, do you know of any other methods? I'm talking about defensive methods." She asked.

"Isn't this difficult to handle?"

Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows, feeling that it couldn't be easier to solve this matter.

"The poison of the cracked tree will mutate after encountering the smell of ancient flying ants, producing a colorless and odorless poison that can make a person's body instantly weak and weak. When the time comes, I'm afraid that the murderer will not even kill anyone. There's no chance, just lie down on the ground."

"That's okay, that's great." Dong'er was very happy.

She had to hurry up and tell the city lord and his wife the good news. There were still many ancient flying ants in Sky City.

Seeing the excitement on Dong'er's face, Lin Caisang just glanced at her lightly.

What's good?

Even if ancient flying ants are really useful, so what?

Since the murderer targeted those competitors, it must be because he was also among the ranks of alchemists or alchemists.

By the time he gets an ancient flying ant, he won't use this method to kill people again.

Maybe he will think of another way to kill again, and then continue to kill others.

"People are almost dead, and it's not enough to be left on the street. Why not get someone to drag them to a place where they can be sheltered from the wind and rain?" Lin Caisang shrugged and said to the people next to him.

As for her, a pregnant woman would naturally not care about this.

After everyone listened to her words, they looked at me and I looked at you, but no one dared to step forward to help.

Soon, the patrol guards of Sky City hurried over, directly commandeered a shop, carried people in, and gave the shop owner some crystal stones to comfort the shop owner.

This matter is over.

Dong'er looked at Lin Caisang, who had returned to the inn and was about to go back to the room on the second floor, and lowered his head to think.

The lady's medical skills were very good, but many people couldn't find out how those who were killed died, or whether they were poisoned.

But the one standing so far away saw it all at once.

The sap of the cracked tree can actually purify venom. I'm afraid people here have never even heard of it, right?

Thinking about it, she quickly chased after Lin Caisang.

"Madam, please wait."

Chapter 2307 Looking for you to treat someone?

"Um?"

On the second floor, Lin Caisang just stepped into his room with one foot, but heard the familiar voice behind him.

Just now, when the girl came to talk to her, she felt a little strange.

Now, he actually came directly to find her?

"What's the matter with you?"

"Um... girl, are you an alchemist?" Dong'er hesitated for a moment, then asked.

"Yes, what's the matter with you?" Lin Caisang nodded and asked again.

"It's like this. My mistress is pregnant, but it's not convenient for an ordinary alchemist to check her. So she ordered me to find a reliable alchemist to check her pulse.

I wonder if this lady is willing? "

Hearing this, Lin Caisang blinked and almost chuckled.

Did she just meet the girl in front of her? Does this girl think she is a reliable person?

"Girl, we just met, right? Excuse me, what is your positioning of the word 'reliable'?"

she asked.

"Well."

Dong'er choked hard at Lin Caisang's words.

It was undeniable that she and Lin Caisang had just met each other and had only exchanged a few words.

However, she didn't know why, but she just felt that the lady in front of her was a reliable person.

"My wife may find it incredible when I say this, but I just think she is a kind person and can be trusted. I hope my intuition is not wrong.

She spoke word by word to Lin Caisang, very seriously.

Lin Caisang: "..."

Please forgive her for not finding it incredible at all. She just thought it was a good thing to be struck by a thunderbolt on a sunny day, okay?

"Haha, I admit that I am indeed quite kind, but girl, do you think I am someone who will follow you just by calling me that?"

"this....."

Dong'er was choked by her words again.

Indeed, how could she let people follow her just by talking about it?

People don't know if there will be any danger.

not to mention.....

Just now on the street, so many people watched helplessly as an alchemist was killed.

Until now, she still felt that there was a large amount of blood in front of her eyes.

"How about tomorrow, my master comes to see you in person? There is no harm in this inn."

She thought about it and settled for the next best thing. Anyway, Madam also said that she couldn't bring people to the City Lord's Mansion. She had to arrange the specific meeting place, so it would be better to meet directly at the inn.

There are many people here and there are many different kinds of talk.

But who would have thought that the city lord's wife would leave the house in person, come to an inn, and ask someone to take her pulse?

"That's okay, I've always lived in this place." Lin Caisang nodded.

She estimated that this girl's master was also in trouble. If she couldn't feel her pulse, then she couldn't help her when she came.

At worst, she can just let her husband watch and protect her when the time comes.

"Someone asked you to treat someone?"

When Sui Zimo came back, he was surprised to hear his wife's words.

How long had he been out? An hour?

Her wife can find a patient and beg for treatment. The key is, if Sangsang doesn't want to go, he is still willing to come to her?

Why does he feel so strange about this?

"A man was killed on the street today. He was an alchemist." Lin Caisang said.

Chapter 2308 Invulnerable to swords

"The artery in his neck was cut directly, and the murder weapon was heavily smeared with the poison of the crack tree. I just explained it like this, and people came to the door. There was nothing I could do. 6"

She spread her hands and said to her husband.

After hearing what she said, Sui Zimo felt really helpless.

"You!"

How could he not know about his wife?

He must have said that on purpose, so that people would hear it, and it seemed like trouble would ensue.

"Starting from tomorrow, I have to guard you every step of the way."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows and did not continue to say anything.

In the inn room, Lin Caisang was wearing a fiery red dress.

There is also a fiery red silk scarf wrapped around the neck several times. It doesn't look out of place, but it is particularly eye-catching.

The return rate is definitely high!

"How's it going? Is my outfit okay?"

She turned around, looked at Sui Zimo, spread her hands, and asked him.

"Can."

What can Sui Zimo say?

His wife's clothes are made of fire silk and are invulnerable to swords and swords.

This would at least make it safer.

"Will the person you made an appointment with arrive today?" he asked.

Ever since he learned that someone wanted his wife to see a doctor, he had never let go.

This is Qianhuan Continent, this is Sky City, and it is just before entering such an important moment as the vast sea and forest.

Every alchemist and alchemist who comes to Sky City hopes that he can be selected to go to the vast forest and make a lot of money.

But is money so easy to make?

Even before entering the sea and forest, just staying in Sky City, so many incidents of injury and death have already occurred.

What's more, after entering the sea forest, you may encounter extreme dangers in the forest.

To be honest, he didn't think there was anything wrong with those people dying in Sky City.

Maybe after entering the vast forest, they died and couldn't even find their bodies. They might be torn apart by monsters and used as snacks in people's stomachs.

Instead of doing this, it would be better to be in Sky City now.

Of course, the murderer must be found. Such a vicious person cannot be allowed to go to Haikuo Forest.

"Who knows?"

Lin Caisang shrugged nonchalantly.

She didn't care if those people would come or not. If they came, she would show them. If they didn't come, that would be just fine. Why should she meddle in that stall's business?

"Zimo, let's go for a walk today. Although my father will take care of the matter of entering the sea and forest, it still has to be a show-off, right? How about we go over there and have a look?"

There are many talented people on Qianhuan Continent. Maybe the two of them are simply not as good as those other people?

Sky City invited not many people to join them in the forest, but after hearing about this, there were countless people who came over.

What's the situation now? If only one of a hundred or a thousand people chooses to go to the sea forest, it's no wonder those people want to attack others.

"Okay, let's go take a look."

Suizi Moyi relies on his wife.

She said she wanted to go and have a look, so let's go and have a look, she must go anyway.

With that said, the two went out.

Not long after they went out, Dong'er came over with the city lord's wife, but they happened to be in the wrong place and saw no one.

"Dong'er, didn't you make an appointment to meet today?"

Chapter 2309 There are so many people?

The veiled city lord's wife saw that there was no one they were looking for in the inn, so they turned around and asked Dong'er.

Dong'er was almost in tears at this moment.

We had obviously made an appointment yesterday, so why were they already gone when they came here early in the morning?

"Madam, I'm sorry. I didn't make an appointment with the lady yesterday. It was my fault that I messed up the matter." At this time, she could only admit her mistake.

And he took all the responsibility on himself. After all, he failed to make an appointment with the lady at a very accurate time yesterday.

"Be more careful next time and don't act so hastily.

The city lord's wife did not blame her, she just said one sentence and had nothing else to say.

"Ma'am, are we...going back?"

Dong'er looked at his wife carefully and asked.

"You've already come, it's not good to go back. You go downstairs and get a guest room, and we'll stay here first." The city lord's wife ordered.

They were dressed very ordinary today and didn't look wealthy at all. It probably wouldn't matter if they were staying in an inn.

"Yes, ma'am."

Dong'er responded, turned around and went downstairs.

Because recently, a lot of people have come to Sky City, and most of the inns are already occupied.

As for this inn, although it was a little late to fill up because it was more expensive, it was already full of guests not long after Lin Caisang and the others stayed.

As soon as Dong'er inquired below, she no longer thought about the guest room.

But as the right person next to the city lord's wife, she could still think of a solution in an inn without guest rooms.

At that moment, she paid a high price to buy the guest's guest room next to Lin Caisang's room.

Chu Shui, who had been stuffed with a lot of gold and silver jewelry for no reason, took the bag in his hand and went directly to Ban Jue and Ban Wu's room, threw his things on their bed, and then went out.

After a while, Sui Zimo and Lin Caisang walked to the registration place.

In two days, registration will close, and it will be time for everyone to show off their special skills.

No one wants to be kicked out and unable to go to the sea forest.

Therefore, even those who have signed up early will often come to this place to see if there is anyone who can be more powerful than them and squeeze them out directly.

When Sui Zimo arrived with Lin Caisang, this place could be called a sea of people.

"Why are there so many people?"

Lin Caisang was protected by her husband. Looking over there, there was only a very narrow passage leading inside.

Other places were crowded with people.

Because I have been watching this place for so many days, many people have gotten to know each other and are still talking and laughing there.

But also because of several murders in Sky City, many people looked sad.

Because no one knows whether they will become the next target.

"Hey, I'm so worried. Who is the murderer? It's so scary!"

"Who says it's not the case? Wasn't Mr. Tianfeng in charge of this matter a few days ago? But nothing can be found. I heard that the city lord has handed over this matter to the new Commander Lin, and it's not Do you know what he can find out?"

Chapter 2310 Bribe my father?

Someone said to the person next to him with doubts.

"Commander Lin? He is not a newcomer. He is the city lord's savior and has great abilities." Someone said.

"What's so great about him? It's just because he got lucky and saved the city lord's life that he became the master of our sky city. Maybe he's just a handful of mud and can't hold up the wall at all."

Someone sneered, thinking that Commander Lin was nothing special.

The city lord's savior, even if he has no skills at all, the city lord can still let him live a carefree life in the sky city without worrying about food and drink. Who can save the city lord with good luck?

However, it is not certain how this saved Chengdu.

Maybe when he was going up the mountain to chop wood or go fishing for fish, he met the injured and unconscious city lord and helped him.

In this way, he can also become the city lord's savior.

"Don't talk nonsense there. If Commander Lin hears this, none of you will even think about entering Haikuo Forest!"

"Why? When we get to Sky City, is it possible that we are not even allowed to speak? How can there be such a reason?" Those who were talking nonsense couldn't help but sneer.

They just said, how about it?

What's the use of a person who only has a place in Sky City because of his relationship with the city lord?

"You know nothing!"

The person who had been saying good things about Lin Baizhong couldn't help but cursed when he heard their words.

"I heard that the city lord has already given orders. This time, Mr. Tianfeng will not lead us into Haikuo Forest, but Commander Lin will lead everyone there. Tell me, if you offend Commander Lin, he will let you go. Are you going into Haikuo Forest?"

The man asked them back.

"hiss!"

A group of people gasped when they heard his words.

"The city lord can let him enter the sea forest, so he should still have some skills."

"If Commander Lin can win the city lord's trust, he won't be without any skills. After all, this is Sky City. A person without any skills will not be able to gain a permanent foothold even if he has the support of the city lord."

"It seems that it is Commander Lin whom we underestimated."

"It is said that people cannot be judged by their appearance, and sea water cannot be measured. This is what I am talking about. If there is a chance, I would like to meet Commander Lin."

Everyone's words changed the direction of the conversation, and they all praised Lin Baizhong.

Lin Caisang, who was protected by Sui Zimo not far away: "..."

Is it really okay to praise someone who you despised just a moment ago so obviously and so abruptly?

"Zimo, I guess those people didn't want to see my father, but were thinking about how to bribe him?"
She lowered her voice and whispered in Sui Zimo's ear.

"Little girl."

Sui Zimo raised his hand and tapped the tip of her nose.

"Don't tell the truth often. Telling the truth will offend people," he said.

"go!"

Lin Caisang rolled her eyes at him.

"What a little girl, I'm already a child."

While she was talking, she reached out and touched her belly.

As for the idea of offending people, as long as they are alchemists and alchemists in Sky City, they will definitely offend people.

"You two, are you here to sign up?"

While the two were talking, someone came towards them and asked.

Sui Zimo turned his head and looked at the person.
