

Star of Space 2351

Chapter 2351 I vomited out the last night's meal

Did he replace a new batch of alchemists? So many of the people on the list were eliminated. He is really very capable!

"Master, there is one more thing.

"What's up?"

Lu Tianfeng, who was in a bad mood after hearing the guard's words, asked fiercely.

At this moment, he wished that Lin Baizhong could stand in front of him, twist his head off his neck by himself, and play it like a ball!

"The female alchemist who told us about our killing methods is in the inn. I heard that the four people were caught just to kill him, but the female alchemist was not injured at all. "

The guard said.

Hearing this, Lu Tianfeng's eyes darkened.

How can such a person be kept if he dares to ruin his good deeds?

However, since the female alchemist can guard against those people, she will not let them succeed so easily.

If it were an alchemist, they could use poison, but that was also an alchemist, so it would not be that easy to use poison.

"Leave this man alone for now and deal with it later. Have you made any arrangements for going to the Haikuo Forest?" he asked.

The guard was stunned by his words.

Raising his head, he wanted to ask, the only people they could use now were two alchemists. What would be the use of going to the sea forest? How many more things do they need to prepare?

But at this juncture, he didn't dare to say this.

"Go back to Master, everything has been arranged. Master, do you really want to go there in person?" he asked.

"nonsense!"

Lu Tianfeng uttered two words coldly.

For such an important matter, of course he had to go there in person.

Otherwise, just rely on those two unreliable alchemists? It is estimated that nothing can be done, and all his years of planning have been in vain.

"You, send another group of alchemists over and see if Lin Nian can keep a few of them," he ordered.

"Yes, Master." The guard responded.

The most powerful alchemists have all been sent back, so what use can the rest have?

But he didn't dare to say these words either, so he could only respond.

...

The next morning, it was just dawn.

Someone saw a bloody corpse in the street. The two people who saw it were so frightened that they vomited out their overnight meals.

The guards of the Commander's Mansion immediately dispatched, carried the body away, and cleaned the street thoroughly, leaving no traces.

"After all, Commander Lin is back. His efficiency is so high."

"That's right. When Commander Lin didn't come back a few days ago, we all had to handle whatever happened on the street. It's not like now. If something goes wrong, people from the Commander's Office will come out."

"I have to say that Mr. Tianfeng's work efficiency is really not as high as that of Commander Lin."

"Master Tianfeng is not sick. According to me, he should stay at home and recuperate. He should not interfere in the affairs of this city. Look at our Commander Lin, how wonderful he is."

People on the street were talking about Lin Baizhong's efficiency. Not only had the murderers been caught, but now as long as something happened on the street, it would be handled immediately.

However, because of this incident, Lu Tianfeng was almost reduced to worthless.

Because Lin Baizhong left suddenly before, Lu Tianlan couldn't find anyone for a while, and happened to see Lu Tianfeng. Lu Tianfeng took the initiative to take over the affairs of the Commander's Mansion.

Lu Tianlan just let him go and didn't stop him.

Chapter 2352 No need to look for it

As a result, in the past few months, there have been a lot of big and small things on the streets of Sky City, and no one has been able to deal with them.

Even if Lu Tianfeng sent someone to deal with it, he didn't do his duty diligently and just messed it up casually.

In fact, regarding this point, everyone is still skeptical about Lu Tianfeng, Master Tianfeng. After all, if he is really a good person, how can he ignore the frequent occurrences of various situations in the city?

I just eat porridge occasionally and make some food for the poor. Who doesn't know how to do this?

But as soon as Lin Baizhong came, everything was settled immediately. Even if there was a death incident, the death was still so tragic.

But the people all believed that within a few days, the commander-in-chief would be able to give a cause of death.

Comparing the hatchbacks, the height is obvious.

Lu Tianfeng was immediately outcompeted, and the people in the city were talking about this matter.

...

In the Commander's Mansion, Lin Baizhong came to see the corpse that had been horribly mutilated.

"Where was this found?" he asked the guard next to him.

"Commander, it's on the street next to the inn where the murderers were caught." the guard replied.

They also felt strange. Was there a conflict with their commander-in-chief on that street? First, the murderer who frequently killed people in the city was caught, and now such a corpse appeared again.

The key point is that the corpse has been made like this, and the face can't be seen clearly, so how do they know who this person is?

"Where again?"

Hearing the guard's words, Lin Baizhong frowned and glanced at the corpse strangely.

Does this body have anything to do with those people?

Or is it just a coincidence?

"Have you found the third child?" he asked.

"No."

The guard shook his head. The third child seemed to have evaporated out of thin air and could not be found.

They said they were going somewhere to meet people, but they also went there without even finding a single figure, and there was no trace of the third child in the city.

He even wondered if the third child knew that his brothers had been arrested, so he ran away.

"Commander, the third child must have run away. His subordinates have already chased him in the direction they told him," he said.

Keep the change, please.

Lin Baizhong smiled coldly, keeping his eyes on the corpse in front of him.

"Keep the change, please?"

The guard was very surprised. This was not something the leader of their family would say. The third child was the most dangerous one among the five.

Didn't you say that guy is very smart?

"Commander, are you really not looking for me? Isn't it hard to explain to the people in the city?" he reminded.

The people in the city still remember the killed alchemists. They couldn't die in vain, right? All the murderers must be caught and they cannot be allowed to remain unpunished.

We also want people outside Sky City to know that Sky City is a place with laws to abide by.

Isn't this what their leader Lin always thought he was saying?

Why is it so strange today?

"Do you still need to look for him? Isn't he there?" Lin Baizhong said calmly.

"ah?"

The guard followed his leader's gaze and looked at the corpse next to him, and suddenly gasped.

"Hiss! Commander, are you saying that this corpse is that third child?"

Not to mention, if this is really possible, didn't the boss say that there is someone behind them who is giving them advice?

Chapter 2353 It's really him!

If something happens now, the people behind them don't want to save themselves first.

Since only the third child has seen him, then the third child will naturally not be alive!

"He was... was he silenced?"

"Stop talking nonsense."

Lin Baizhong glanced sideways at the guard.

"It's just a guess. Go check it out immediately." He ordered.

"Yes, my subordinate will go right away."

The guards responded and immediately turned around and went to where the things they had found on the body were stored.

...

Soon, the guard came back, staring blankly at the bloody corpse.

"It's really him, it's really him!"

He didn't believe it at first, but when he put those things in front of the boss and the others, they immediately recognized those things as the third child's things.

The boss and others learned that the third child who could save them died like this, and he was still crying there.

And he found it really hard to believe that the person they had been looking for all day and night was killed just like that!

And it was so abominable to just dump the body on the street in broad daylight, for so many people to look at and point at.

This is simply heartbreaking!

"Who on earth could do such a vicious thing? Could it really be..."

He couldn't even imagine that if all these things were done by Lu Tianfeng as the commander expected, then how dark Lu Tianfeng's heart must be!

"Commander, are we just going to watch him misbehave in the city?" he asked.

If you just follow his wishes and rush directly to Lu Tianfeng's house and capture the person, why bother with all these twists and turns with him?

So many people have died, and you are still being polite to him? !

"That man has a lot of treasures in his hands. How can we catch him just by grabbing him like this?" Lin Baizhong asked him.

What's more, they also want the things in Lu Tianfeng's hands, and destroying those things as much as possible is the final result they want.

If you just kill Lu Tianfeng and let those things continue to exist, then it will not be considered as completely destroying Lu Tianfeng's power.

"Secretly spread the identity of this corpse and tell everyone that this is the final retribution for those who harmed Sky City!" Lin Baizhong ordered the guards.

"Yes, Commander."

The guard took the order and went out.

"Lu Tianfeng, you really dare to challenge the authority of Sky City!"

When Lin Baizhong was the only one left in the morgue, he looked at the corpse and said coldly.

Did Lu Tianfeng throw this body out publicly just to create chaos in the city? Did he hope to take advantage of this chaos to do something?

What could happen then?

Soon, news faintly spread from the Commander's Mansion.

The people on the street immediately learned that the corpse turned out to be the only one who had slipped through the net among the previous murderers of the alchemist.

The common people didn't know that there were people behind those five people. They only thought that there was a mysterious figure who couldn't stand the behavior of these five people, so they acted for God and killed the only person who hadn't been caught.

All of a sudden, the people clapped their hands and applauded, saying that the person who killed the third child was called a god!

"Have you heard? That body is the murderer who was not caught?"

"No, there must be someone who can't stand those people who do evil and come out to do justice for heaven."

Chapter 2354 Will it cause fire?

"I don't know which venerable person it is, but he was able to get out and kill someone who even the commander's office couldn't catch. It would be great if such a person could stay in our Sky City forever!"

Some people lamented, some praised, and almost praised the so-called venerable man to the heavens.

"Commander Lin is also very powerful, but what about the bloody corpse? It didn't take long, a few hours, to find out that the corpse was the murderer."

"With Commander Lin in our sky, we really have nothing to worry about."

From praising that venerable person to praising Lin Baizhong's commanding office, there was no news at all that Lu Tianfeng wanted.

The people were about to have a party all night long to celebrate that all five murderers were dead and caught so that they would not come out to harm the people in the city again.

But just when everyone was so happy, there was one person who wanted to kill someone.

That person is Lu Tianfeng.

He was originally so angry because of An Shen and An Meng, but now he personally gave orders to mess up Sky City, but he didn't succeed at all!

How could he not be angry!

"Didn't I ask you to make the corpse more terrifying?"

The second time he used the Baidong Spirit Bone to come out, he heard so much negative news about himself and so much good news about the Commandery Mansion. He really wanted to kill someone!

"Master, my subordinates have made the third child's body look... very scary. The guards are also helpless.

It was horrifying. The corpse had been pierced to the belly and had cuts all over its face. It was impossible to identify its appearance at all.

Little did he know that the people in the Commander's Office were so capable and could make a fuss about such a corpse, making everyone believe that it was an act of divine justice and retribution.

If he had known this would happen, he wouldn't have...

It's easy to say, what can't be said? This was what his master had personally ordered him to do. How could he not do it?

It's good now, they are actually making a name for the Commander's Mansion!

"Master, I think this is all Lin Nian's fault. He simply spread the news that the corpse was Lao San on purpose. Or, he didn't even know that the corpse was Lao San. He just If he spreads it out like this, others will be able to endure it."

"Yeah?"

He glared at the guard coldly.

Sometimes, he really doubted whether Lin Baizhong already knew something?

Otherwise, why would Lin Baizhong come out to cause trouble every time he wanted to do something?

Now the matter of his entry into the sea and the vast forest has not yet been resolved. Even a corpse cannot cause panic among some people in the city!

"Since you said he doesn't know anything, then get a third child out, go for a walk on the street, and kill a few people for fun." He ordered sinisterly.

"This... is, I will obey your orders."

The guard wanted to know if doing this would set him on fire.

But think about what the master ordered. Even if they expressed their doubts, when did the master give up?

Nothing happened before, and it will be the same this time, no one will know.

"etc."

Seeing that the guard was about to leave, Lu Tianfeng stopped him again.

"Master, do you have any other orders?" The guard turned around and asked.

"Is the alchemist you mentioned last time still in that inn?" Lu Tianfeng asked.

Chapter 2355 Came here secretly to find you

"Go back to Master, I'm always here." the guard replied.

"Since she is a capable person, then bring her to my young master and you go." Lu Tianfeng ordered.

"What?"

The guard was almost stunned by his words.

His master was ill and had to seek medical attention, right? That woman didn't know who she was, so she just wanted to win them over.

What if that person is a spy deliberately released by the commander-in-chief?

"Master, the identity of that person has not been checked yet. Wouldn't it be bad to just bring him in like this?"

This time, regardless of whether he will be punished or not, he must say what needs to be said, otherwise, when things happen, the master will blame him in the end.

He didn't want to take the risk of bringing a spy to them.

"Won't you go check it out?" Lu Tianfeng glared at him and asked sternly.

"Yes, my subordinates will go check it out immediately."

The guard lowered his head, frightened, and replied.

He hadn't checked anywhere, but those people seemed to appear out of thin air, and he had no way of checking them.

That's why he doubted the identity of those people, thinking that they were sent by Lin Baizhong.

Because the time when those people came out happened to be the time when Lin Baizhong came back, the time when the two groups of people came was so close that one had to doubt.

Just when Lu Tianfeng wanted to recruit Lin Caisang and others, on the other side, the matron of the Ding family couldn't sit still.

When she learned that Lin Baizhong was back, she immediately wanted to find the city lord's wife.

I want to beg her to come forward, ask Lin Baizhong for a favor, and return her baby daughter to her. Even if she makes a big mistake, she must have suffered a lot for so many days, and it should be enough to repay her.

However, the head of the Ding family refused to let her go to the city lord's wife.

Finally, after holding it in for several days, Mrs. Ding took advantage of her husband not being at home to sneak out alone and went to the City Lord's Mansion to find the City Lord's wife.

"Sister, I really have no choice. My husband didn't let me look for you, so I secretly came to look for you."

Sitting opposite the city lord's wife, Mrs. Ding looked at the city lord's wife with tearful eyes and cried.

"What's wrong? Did my brother bully you again?" the city lord's wife frowned and asked.

In fact, her brother has a very good temper and has never bullied his wife.

Even if Mrs. Ding only gave birth to a daughter and did not give birth to a son for the Ding family, even if her brother took a concubine and gave birth to a son, Mrs. Ding and Ding Rong, the legitimate daughter, would always be given priority in everything.

"No, no."

When Mrs. Ding heard her eldest sister's question, she immediately shook her head.

"How can my husband bully me? It's just... I haven't seen Rong'er for a long time, and I miss her very much."

She looked at the city lord's wife carefully, and saw that her face was rosy. She was not at all like her husband said, that she was not in good health and could not bear the slightest anger.

If he had known that the city lord's wife lived so comfortably here, she should have come to her early in the morning and asked her to get her daughter back from Lin Baizhong for herself.

"Sister, you also know that I am just a daughter. Although it was a little ridiculous for her to like Lin Nian at the beginning, after all, it is a normal thing for a man to marry a woman.

Although Lin Nian is unwilling, he can't keep holding on to my Rong'er just because of this matter, don't you think? "

Chapter 2356 Go straight to Lin Mansion

"this....."

Listening to her words, the city lord's wife didn't know what to say.

"I can't say anything about this matter. You should have heard of Commander Lin to some extent. He has a very stubborn character. If he really holds Rong'er captive, I think even if the city lord goes to tell him in person , and I won't come back."

Besides, she felt that Ding Rong's temperament should really change.

It's just that her sister-in-law didn't seem to be wrong in what she said. It was indeed not a problem for Ding Rong to stay like this at Lin Baizhong's place.

"Let me discuss this matter with the city lord to see if I can get Rong'er back." She said.

"What? Are you still going to discuss with the city lord?"

When Mrs. Ding heard what the city lord's wife said, her face suddenly became unhappy?

As the wife of the city lord, can't she be the master of such a trivial matter? Wouldn't it be enough to just call Lin Baizhong over and ask him to hand over her daughter?

Is it possible that Lin Baizhong, the commander of the bodyguards, still dares to disobey the city lord's wife?

"This is natural."

The city lord's wife nodded.

Sky City was in troubled times at this time, and she didn't want to cause any unpleasantness with Lin Baizhong.

After all, she had heard that Ding Rong almost killed Lin Baizhong's precious daughter. Fortunately, he also had spiritual power, so he was not killed.

Now they want to get Ding Rong back, how can it be so easy?

In this world where the strong are respected, Ding Rong wanted to harm her first. To put it bluntly, it was okay even if Lin Baizhong and the others killed her.

But they didn't. They just locked the person up and did not actually harm Ding Rong.

"Then...I'm waiting for news about my sister."

Mrs. Ding suppressed her temper and said something to the city lord's wife with some unhappiness on her face.

She secretly thought to herself that the city lord's wife had to rely on her for this matter. It seemed that she could no longer rely on her. She had to find a way on her own.

I heard that Lin Baizhong came back this time with his wife, who had been a widow for many years. It was broad daylight, so Lin Baizhong must be working as an errand in the commander's mansion.

If she came to the door now and asked the idle Mrs. Lin for her daughter, I believe she would definitely be able to get her daughter back.

Just do it!

Thinking about it, she hurriedly said goodbye to the city lord's wife and went straight to the Lin Mansion.

...

Lin Mansion.

Liu Yuyang had just returned from doing errands outside. As soon as she walked outside the door of her courtyard, she saw a carriage directly blocking the door of her house.

she:"....."

Is the owner of this carriage a little too wicked to block the door and not even know how to move a few steps?

She had no choice but to step forward. Just as she was about to get the carriage out of the way, she saw a lady being helped down from the carriage by a maid, still mumbling something.

"What's so great about a small commander? He still dares to hold on to my wife's daughter. Does he really think he can compare to our Ding family? If he really pisses me off, I won't be able to spare him. !"

On the way to Lin's house, Mrs. Ding became more and more angry as she thought about it.

Her daughter had been missing for a long time. As the child's father, her husband didn't know how to stand up for his daughter.

Now she wants to get her daughter back, but her husband-in-law comes to stop her and even forces her to sneak out to find her daughter!

"Why are you still standing there? Hurry up and break the door open for me!"

Chapter 2357 Is he worthy?

Seeing that the door of Lin Mansion was closed, she became even more angry and cursed at the maid next to her.

"Yes, yes, slave, go right now."

The maid responded repeatedly, but she didn't dare to actually go forward and break the door open. Instead, she stepped forward and knocked on the door.

"Is anyone here? Is anyone here? The matron of our Ding clan is here to visit."

Mrs. Ding was so angry when she saw this.

What she said was to ask someone to break down the door? What does this bitch want to do? Did you do it deliberately to offend her?

However, she didn't dare to do anything to the maid, because this person was the one who was forced to come to her by the housewife. To put it bluntly, it was her mother-in-law who arranged to come to her and keep an eye on her.

She just didn't want her to go to the city lord's wife and mess with some people outside who shouldn't be messed with.

Just like now, she couldn't stand up and be angry with a woman whom she didn't like at all, but she still knocked on the door so politely, which was like losing the face of eighteen generations of her ancestors.

"Go ahead and break down the door!"

She ordered fiercely to another maid beside her.

When the maid heard this, she secretly glanced at her wife, feeling really miserable.

If the master of the house finds out about this, not to mention the maids who have not persuaded the madam to stay, they will be miserable. I am afraid that even the madam herself will not have a good outcome.

But the lady just didn't believe in that evil, and she had to pluck the hair out of the housekeeper's mouth.

"Mother, if you break the door open, it will be hard to explain to Commander Lin. He is the most powerful person around the city lord."

she reminded quietly.

As for their young lady Ding Rong, wasn't it just because she saw that Lin Baizhong had a good face and was a talent favored by the city lord that she kept pestering him?

She was sure that if they really smashed this door down now, it would be Madam who would be unlucky next moment.

'Snapped! '

As the maid finished speaking, a slap fell on her right cheek.

"Don't use the city lord to pressure me. Will I be afraid of him? Rong'er is my daughter. Could it be that if I want to save my daughter from the fire, they won't allow it?"

Where in the world is there such a truth? Today, Mrs. Japan still wants to smash the door open, but I want to see, what is Lin Nian capable of, Mrs. Japan?

Hey, can he, a small leader, still be able to go against the Ding clan?

Don't even look at what he is, is he worthy? "

Liu Yuyang: "..."

Is this Ding Rong's mother?

Sure enough, the kind of mother you have can teach you the kind of daughter you want.

No wonder Ding Rong would run after her husband so shamelessly at such a young age. It turned out that there was such a mother who didn't know right from wrong.

Just when she was thinking that Mrs. Ding and Ding Rong were really a biological mother and daughter, she saw that Mrs. Ding had raised her hand and smashed the door of her house.

"hiss!"

She gasped, immediately raised her hand, and shot out a burst of spiritual energy, blocking Mrs. Ding's spiritual energy.

You know, breaking down the door of her house is a trivial matter, but there is a maid standing outside the door. That is a human life. Is it so worthless?

"ah!"

The maid felt two spiritual powers coming towards her at the same time, and she screamed in fright.

Fortunately, she was blocked in the end, otherwise, she would have been killed by her wife instead of that door!

Chapter 2358 Lin Nian is your father!

Madam is too cruel!

She knew that Mrs. Ding did it on purpose, and she knew that she was sent by Aunt Fang.

Normally, she didn't do anything wrong, and Madam couldn't find anything wrong to punish her, but now that they were out, Madam wanted to take action against her!

But what's wrong with her? She was just following orders.

"Who are you, who dare to interfere in my wife's business? Do you know who I am?"

Seeing that her conspiracy was exposed, Mrs. Ding was furious. She turned her head and looked at Liu Yuyang with scarlet eyes for ruining her good deeds.

"I don't care who you are, but this is the door of my house, so I can't allow you to kill people in public here!" Liu Yuyang looked at Mrs. Ding with cold eyes and said.

"What?"

Mrs. Ding was stunned by her words.

What does this woman who looks like a flower, doesn't look very old at all, and has spiritual power say?

Is this the door to her house?

"Haha, is this the door of your house? Don't tell me, Madam, that Lin Nian is your father!" She sneered, looked at the woman in front of her with disdain, and asked.

He had already inquired about it. When Lin Baizhong's daughter came to see him, she was just a little girl, and she was definitely not the one in front of her.

"Or are you the concubine that Lin Nian just took in? Hehe, didn't Lin Nian say how devoted he is to his wife, but the result is nothing more than this.

Men, indeed, are all the same, they like the new and hate the old! "

Just like her husband-in-law, because she was injured after giving birth to Rong'er, he married another concubine and gave birth to children one after another, and they were all sons!

How she wanted to kill that bitch and the little beasts she gave birth to!

But the dead old woman from the Ding family kept staring, staring so hard that she didn't dare to move. She could only watch those little beasts grow up little by little. They were better than her Rong'er in cultivation!

This was undoubtedly the most tormenting thing for her.

"Where's your wife, where's that yellow-faced woman? Lin Nian won't divorce her to make room for you, right?" She asked Liu Yuyang with a sarcastic smile on her face.

Liu Yuyang frowned heavily and looked at the madman-like woman in front of him.

She thought wrong just now. Ding Rong is much better than this woman. The woman in front of her really wants to pounce on and take a bite from everyone she sees.

"Mrs. Ding, what do you want to do when you come to my house?" she asked.

"What are you doing here, Mrs., and you are not worthy of asking? Tell your wife to come out!" Mrs. Ding looked at her with disdain and shouted.

Hearing this, Liu Yuyang shook his head.

"Are you here to ask about Ding Rong's whereabouts? My daughter asked me to tell you that Ding Rong will not be returned to your Ding family for the time being. Since Mrs. Ding does not know how to discipline children, there are naturally many people who are willing to discipline them for you!"

She was no longer polite and said to Mrs. Ding with a cold face.

"you--"

Mrs. Ding choked at her words.

After a while, she came back to her senses and looked Liu Yuyang up and down.

"Are you Lin Nian's yellow-faced wife?" she asked.

Everyone behind her wanted to hit the wall when they heard what their mistress said.

Madam, this madam in front of me does not look like a yellow-faced woman. She is obviously much better taken care of than you!

Besides, we're not here to quarrel or curse. What are we here to do? I'm here to take the young lady back.

Chapter 2359 I'm so offended

You have made the relationship so tense, will they still be willing to hand over our young lady?

But Mrs. Ding doesn't care about this. She only knows that she is the head matron of the Ding family, and her daughter is the eldest daughter of the Ding family.

In this sky city, except for the city lord's palace, everyone must give way obediently when they see them!

And Lin Baizhong is just a guard of the city lord's mansion. To put it bluntly, he is just a loyal dog beside the city lord. Why can't she be scolded or beaten?

It's good now, relying on the city lord's reliance, you dare to detain the eldest lady of their Ding family?

"If I am all a yellow-faced woman, then may I ask, Mrs. Ding, who are you?" Liu Yuyang asked her rudely.

Since this woman is shameless, why should she give her face?

"you--"

Mrs. Ding choked on Liu Yuyang's words, and her whole face turned red with anger.

"What are you doing standing there? Don't you see that this bitch is so bold and dares to insult me? Take her down immediately, I will kill her!"

Turning her head to look at the maids behind her, she roared.

The maids: "..."

As for the spiritual power that lady used just now, it's not certain who will kill whom here?

"Madam, we are here to see the young lady. Please don't make things worse."

One of the maids reminded Madam Ding in a low voice that they came to see their lady, and they came secretly without the permission of the family owner.

If the wife really offended Commander Lin's wife to death, it would be nice if the head of the family was not easy to talk to. Even their young lady would be bullied by Commander Lin.

Hasn't Madam ever thought about this?

"Shut up!"

Mrs. Ding shouted angrily and looked at Liu Yuyang with scarlet eyes.

"What are you seeing, young lady? Didn't you hear this bitch say that this lady can't see Rong'er?"

If she could see Rong'er and take Rong'er away from this ghost place early in the morning, would she still stay here and talk to this bitch from the wilderness?

"Get her immediately, Madam!"

"lady....."

Although Mrs. Ding gave the order, the maids did not dare.

Although the Ding clan are in-laws of the city lord's mansion, Commander Lin's status in the city lord's heart is not low.

What's more, even the city lord's wife must respect Commander Lin. Their head of the family has repeatedly told them not to be at odds with Commander Lin.

But Madam, she just doesn't listen!

"Madam, the head of the family has said that you can't be at odds with Commander Lin," the maid advised.

'Snapped! '

The next moment, a big slap fell on the maid's face.

"How dare you preach to this madam after you have rebelled against me?!"

Mrs. Ding had never been so angry. Lin Baizhong, a man from the deserted land, was very lucky to be respected by the city lord.

He didn't know how to do things cautiously, and instead wanted to fawn over the big families in Sky City. Instead, he went against them and wanted to go against them, and even bullied her daughter like this.

How could she swallow this breath?

"What kind of ecstasy soup did this bitch give you to make you dare to talk to her?"

While she was talking, she hit the maid a few more times, until the maid fell to her knees in pain.

"Madam, I don't dare, I don't dare."

Liu Yuyang frowned and looked at Mrs. Ding like this.

Chapter 2360 Hitting the wall again

It's no wonder that your daughter will develop that kind of virtue. How many years of exposure will it take for her daughter to also develop this kind of virtue?

"Mrs. Ding, you'd better leave from here, otherwise, you won't blame me for being rude.

She took a deep breath, and really felt that there was no need to talk to an unreasonable person. No matter how much she used her words, the better-tempered she was, the more superior she would feel, and she felt that others deserved to be left behind.

And no matter how much you say, it still doesn't make sense.

"you--"

Mrs. Ding looked at Liu Yuyang in disbelief, feeling it was incredible.

This woman dared to talk to her like this. Who did she think she was? She was the head matron of the Ding clan.

Even if it was for the sake of the Ding family's face, she would never let her face be trampled under Liu Yuyang's feet, and she was scolded like this.

"What a bitch, how dare you...ah!"

Before she could finish her curse words, she was knocked away by a burst of spiritual power.

There was a 'bang' sound.

After Mrs. Ding's body hit the wall, she fell heavily to the ground.

"Mistress, mistress!"

When the maids saw this, they dared not just stand and watch. They hurried over and helped Mrs. Ding up.

The maid who was almost beaten to death by Mrs. Ding couldn't help but swallow when she saw this scene.

She felt that if she continued to stand here, even if Madam finally gave in and left here temporarily, she would not be able to return to the Ding clan alive without any helpers outside.

So, she looked at Mrs. Ding, then at Liu Yuyang, then took a few steps back, and while everyone's attention was on Mrs. Ding, she turned around and stopped running.

Run away?

Of course she wouldn't do this. You know, does she still have Aunt Fang as her backer?

As for Aunt Fang, she was the old lady beside the old mistress. She was placed next to Mrs. Ding because Aunt Fang got the order from the old mistress.

That's why Mrs. Ding dislikes her so much.

So now, she has to go back to the Ding family and tell Aunt Fang about this matter. In that case, she may still have a chance of survival!

Liu Yuyang naturally watched the little maid sneak away with a smile on her lips.

Sure enough, not everyone in this world is so blind to reality. Among the Ding family, Mrs. Ding is probably the only woman who is so stupid that she doesn't know who she offended in the end, right?

"you you....."

Mrs. Ding was swept away by Liu Yuyang's palm and felt that her internal organs had been displaced.

He didn't even dare to take a deep breath. After a while, he finally felt that the pain in his body was no longer so painful, and then he raised his head and glared at Liu Yuyang angrily.

"You dare to hit me?"

She couldn't believe it. There was still someone in this world who dared to hit her?

You know, since she married the head of the Ding clan and the biological brother of the city lord's wife, no one in Sky City saw her without respecting her and fawning over her.

When had she been beaten? With trembling hands, she pointed at Liu Yuyang.

"You little bitch...ah!"

As soon as he cursed out his mouth, he felt a ray of spiritual power sweeping towards his face.

The maids who were originally supporting Mrs. Ding could only watch as their mistress slipped away from their hands and hit the wall again.
