Chapter 238 Climbing through the window to break into the door

"I said you... better not bring things from home to show your courtesy in the future, so as not to make others misunderstand. Be more careful in the future." She reminded Ya Molian.

Although she also felt that Ya Molian was really innocent this time.

It was obviously kind-hearted, and everyone knew that she had saved him before. Even when the villagers saw Ya Molian delivering things to her house, they would say that he was repaying her kindness for saving his life. .

No matter how she knew it was like this, Lin Caihe could think of things like that. In fact, she admired Lin Caihe very much.

At least people dare to think about it!

"My fault?"

Ya Molian raised her eyebrows and asked her, adding at the end.

"It's really my fault. It won't happen again."

He would give the things he gave directly to Xiao Sangzi, so as to see who could misunderstand him and impose thoughts that he shouldn't have on him.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded.

"What are you here for today?"

Could it be that as a neighbor, he climbed through the window and broke into the door? If that were the case, she would definitely slap him on his handsome face.

Really, more real than pearls!

"Here are these for you."

Hearing this, Ya Molian turned her head, raised her right hand, and put it to her side.

Facing the moonlight, Lin Caisang could vaguely see a stack of something under his hand. She guessed that it should be books.

"Book?" she asked.

"These are the best medical books and poison scriptures that I can collect. I also have some superficial introductory books on medicine. I will bring them to you tomorrow. Your medical skills are so unclear that anyone will doubt you. You don't have to read it, just take these books with you."

Ya Molian said.

"Well."

After hearing his words, Lin Caisang's face darkened.

Sure enough, he had doubted her early on, just as she had doubted him, but they were both smart enough not to expose each other.

"Thank you, that's what I needed." She thanked him.

After saying a few more words, Ya Molian left, closed the window and door, and Lin Caisang immediately entered the Jinzhu space. However, when she looked at the empty space that should have been filled with bamboos and bamboo branches, her face was full of astonishment. .

"I...where's my bamboo?"

She planned to use them to make drying mats and shelves, and also wanted to use the cut bamboo branches to make a few brooms, but why... were they all missing? !

"Could it be...couldn't it be all absorbed by the land in space?"

Remembering that she had planted potatoes, sweet potatoes, etc. before, all of them were transferred to the land to be turned into fertilizers. Isn't it the same with those bamboos? All of them were transferred here, right?

This doesn't seem to require any guessing, it must be the case.

"Damn, how are you going to do this?"

Not to mention how much effort she put into chopping these bamboos, which cost her own life. Even if she finished the shelf and put up the sun mat, when the time came to put it in the Jinzhu space, wouldn't it all be accounted for here?

Then why does she raise ice silkworms?

"Brother Yujing, please help me ask this land what it wants!"

She asked Yujing angrily with her hands on her hips.

Can we still have fun? Can we leave her a way to survive? Is it possible that she should be asked to bring a huge stone slab to use as a base for the bamboo shelf? But she can't hit such a big slate, right?

Yu Jing heard her voice and replied directly to her with four words: 'Ask yourself.'

"Oh, I have a headache!" She held her forehead, wanting to destroy this land.
