

Star of Space 2501

Chapter 2501 Just watch

But listening to Ada's words, he really felt that the people in the Ding family were not good people. They were all speechless guys.

"You're back? How's it going with Sangsang?" Liu Yuyang stood up immediately when he saw him coming in and asked.

She can ignore other things, but her precious daughter is in Hongye Building, and she must know whether her daughter will encounter any danger.

"Sang Sang is fine over there. Zimo is with him, and the city lord is also paying attention." Lin Baizhong said.

"It's troublesome if the city lord is paying attention."

Liu Yuyang rolled his eyes at him and said something dissatisfied.

Look, what she was dealing with just now had nothing to do with the City Lord's Mansion.

If the people of the Ding family were just ordinary aristocratic families without the backing of the city lord's palace, would they do such an outrageous thing just because a woman's identity was not worthy of their young master?

Although it is possible that some people will be more ruthless than the Ding family.

But killing someone was just a nod, and what happened to that woman was simply worse than death.

In her opinion, it would be better to let them die, which would be the end of the matter, but now, she was forced to do that kind of thing in Jucantang.

"Listen to what those people in the Ding family have done. If others find out about it, not only the Ding family, but also the City Lord's Mansion will be implicated! Your City Lord will have a headache again!"

"That's his family matter and has nothing to do with me.

Lin Baizhong shrugged. He didn't want to get involved in Lu Tianlan's family's affairs. It was too troublesome.

Liu Yuyang: "..."

What has nothing to do with them? Isn't Zimo Lu Tianlan's son?

After all, the Ding family members can be regarded as Zimo's relatives. Mrs. Ding, when her daughter sees her from now on, she will have to call her grandma!

"Huh, I don't know if Madam Ding will get angry and sick if she knows that her grandson has found a girl with no power and status and married him as his wife?"

She looked at Lin Baizhong with a smile and reminded.

Hearing this, Lin Baizhong's face suddenly darkened.

"She dares!"

As the leader of Sky City, is he a vegetarian?

If Mrs. Ding dares to be dissatisfied with his precious daughter, she will give it a try.

"Yu Yang, you really don't have to worry about this. With Zimo's protective attitude, it's really not our turn to protect our daughter."

He dared to say that if Mrs. Ding dared to criticize his family Sangsang in front of Zimo, Zimo would never recognize this grandmother, so they would just watch.

"That's true."

Liu Yuyang was very satisfied when it came to Sui Zimo, his son-in-law.

It's just that the identity of this son-in-law is really a bit bad. Which of those family members is not in a lot of trouble?

"While Zimo and Sangsang go to Haikuo Forest, let's deal with the things outside as much as we can. Don't let them be upset anymore."

"good."

Lin Baizhong responded.

"How is An Die doing now? When can she be released?"

he asks.

"It's okay now. Lu Tianfeng hasn't entered Hongye Building yet. Let him play with An Die. Lu Tiankuo and Yin Lüqing can all go out for a walk."

Liu Yuyang replied.

Before Sangsang went to Hongye Tower, she had left Yinluqing with them.

"Okay, I'll make arrangements right away. They will be held in your hands for a few days first." Lin Baizhong responded.

Chapter 2502 Can turn into a bear

Liu Yuyang nodded.

"I will continue to keep an eye on the mineral vein. I always feel that the mineral vein is not that simple. It must be taken back from Ding Zhuzui's hands." After thinking about it, she said to Lin Baizhong again.

"That's natural."

Lin Baizhong spoke without thinking.

It was his wife's belongings, so he had to take them back.

Ding Zhuzui didn't know where he got the courage to have the ability to take his wife's mine as his own.

Is he really a natural coward?

"As expected, Ding Zhuzui will personally handle the matter of the mineral vein.

"laugh."

Liu Yuyang really couldn't help laughing.

The head of the Ding family is really busy. There is a fire in the backyard, and he has to go outside to do his business.

"Then let's make an appointment with Master Ding to meet at... Jucantang." She suggested.

"That's fine."

Lin Baizhong nodded.

It was just right to follow his wife's wishes and lead that woman to Ding Zhuzui.

"Then I have to go to Hongye Tower. Mrs. Ding took great pains to poison Ding Zhuzui back then, and Sang Sang has to take action.

"No, I can take care of this little thing. I'll let Ah Da prepare the antidote," Liu Yuyang said.

It was just a trivial matter, so she wouldn't have to worry her precious daughter. Moreover, she really didn't want Sangsang to hear these things, as they were too irritating.

"That's okay too."

Hearing her words, Lin Baizhong nodded.

"By the way, today Sangsang mentioned that it is possible that Lu Tianfeng and Lu Tiankuo were the same, and they were both instigated by others. Maybe they have the same master behind them.

Although this idea is a bit exaggerated, I think it is possible. "

When he mentioned going to Hongye Tower tonight, he mentioned it to Liu Yuyang.

Liu Yuyang only raised his eyes after hearing his words.

"Not to mention Sangsang's suspicion, I feel that Lu Tiankuo's desire for my death had something to do with the master behind him, and it also has a great relationship with the mine."

Lin Baizhong: "..."

Madam, is what you say true?

Women's imaginations are so rich, aren't they? They can think so much.

However, everything is possible. Since they can think of it, it would be safer to check it out.

"Then I'll check it out too," he said.

"Check up on Ding Zhuzui again, or in other words, find out who suggested that Ding Zhuzui buy my mine." Liu Yuyang said.

"You mean, there is such a person behind Ding Zhuzui."

Lin Baizhong hesitated and asked her, that is to say, Lu Tianfeng, Lu Tiankuo, and Ding Zhuzui, it is very likely that the same person is behind them.

"That's not what I meant. It's just that maybe Ding Zhuzui was instigated by someone to buy the mineral vein." Liu Yuyang thought for a while and shook his head.

It would be somewhat unlikely to say that behind Ding Zhuzui was the person who coaxed Lu Tiankuo and Lu Tianfeng into becoming villains.

After all, with Ding Zhuzui's temperament, it is absolutely impossible for him to rebel.

Mrs. Ding can turn into a bear if Mrs. Ding says something loudly, or if the woman next to him cries with him.

How could such a person embark on the path of rebellion? What's more, Ding Zhuzui still loved the city lord's wife as a relative.

Chapter 2503 It should be a bit taboo

"But I always feel strange that my mine is not without others in Qianhuan Continent, but it is the mine I bought. Lu Tiankuo forced me to hand it over, and now Ding Zhuzui is treating me again. The people used coercion and inducement to seize the mineral vein.

Don't you think it's strange? "

Why didn't they look for other mineral veins instead of focusing on hers?

"I'm going to check. These things must be checked carefully." Lin Baizhong said.

Can these seemingly unrelated things really be connected?

If it was really the same person who did it, what did this person want to do? Why did he cause so many things in Sky City, or even in the entire Qianhuan Continent?

If a person can really provoke Lu Tianfeng and Lu Tiankuo, then his strength must be very good.

Such a person should have the strength to compete with Lu Tianlan, but he chose not to do that. Instead, he targeted Lu Tianfeng and others.

Could it be that it was just to mess up Qianhuan Continent?

If that's the case, would it be the same situation in other places besides Sky City? Orcs as well?

"Everything is still unknown. Let's wipe out Lu Tianfeng's power first, and then think about other things." Looking at Lin Baizhong's expression, Liu Yuyang knew that he had thought about a lot.

She spoke up to remind him.

The most important thing now is to suppress Lu Tianfeng's power so that he can't cause any big waves.

Maybe the person behind Lu Tianfeng would jump out on his own when he saw that no one could take advantage of him? This is also unknown.

"Baizhong, actually I wonder if someone from a higher level came here to cause trouble." After thinking for a while, Liu Yuyang finally said it.

"What?!"

After hearing her words, Lin Baizhong almost thought that he was deaf.

"Higher people? What higher people?"

"They are the people on the continent above Qianhuan Continent. They are much stronger than the people here. If you want to do something here, who can resist the temptation of benefits they bring?"

Liu Yuyang said to him.

"Do you think so too?" Lin Baizhong sighed.

They had just talked about it before, and it was possible that people higher up than Qianhuan Continent might have caused trouble after they came over.

He also felt that they might be overly concerned. It seemed that this matter was really not simple.

"You think so too?"

Liu Yuyang knew from the meaning of his words that they had discussed it before.

"So everyone thinks so, or what?" she asked immediately.

Hearing this, Lin Baizhong shook his head.

"I just brushed it off and didn't think about it deeply."

The most important thing now is that Lu Tianfeng needs to solve the trouble he caused.

"It's time to think about it. How could those people do such things one after another? The son of the evil devil is not something that ordinary people can imagine. Lu Tianfeng should have a way to control the son of the evil devil, right? ?"

Otherwise, he wouldn't really dare to bring out the son of the devil, and he should still be a little taboo.

And that method is definitely not something that people on their Qianhuan Continent can do. It should be something that people on a higher level continent can do.

Why hadn't he thought of this earlier?

Chapter 2504 There are guests to receive

...

In the chrysanthemum hall.

At night, people come and go and the lights are brightly lit.

A woman with long hair disheveled and a stooped back walked slowly forward, each step getting wet.

She raised her head slightly and looked at a man in colorful clothes who had just walked across from her. This man was the leader of their Ju Can Hall, and he had a very bad temper. Sure enough...

When the man saw the woman peeking at him, he became angry and yelled at her.

"What are you looking at? Can your dog eyes also allow me to see?"

When the woman heard his words, she immediately lowered her head, no longer daring to look around, and kept saying apologetic words.

"sorry Sorry."

Her voice was hoarse, as if her throat had been injured. Every time she spoke a word, she felt her whole body shaking, as if she was enduring huge pain.

However, how could the man listen to her few words of apology? Instead, he became even more angry after hearing her words.

He is the most handsome person in Jucantang. How could he be looked at by the lady who sweeps the hall? His pure white body is simply stained.

"roll!"

He raised his foot and kicked the woman, hitting her thigh.

The woman was in pain and took a few steps back. Her feet became unsteady and she sat on the ground, but she did not dare to make a muffled sound.

"Useless things."

The man couldn't help but sneer after seeing her fall.

Normally, even the top star of Jucantang would be angry with those customers, but as a man, how could he not be angry?

What should you do if you feel angry? Just throw it at this lady who sweeps the hall!

"What are you pretending to be? Don't think that you don't have to do anything. Hurry up and wash your clothes. There are still guests to receive in the evening. Although your little money is not a big deal, it is still money!"

He ordered the woman harshly.

"Yes Yes."

The woman responded repeatedly, stood up with trembling legs, and then slowly left.

"Idiot, even washing clothes can make them so wet. I really don't know what the boss has to do with this waste." The man was heard behind her, speaking in a medium voice.

A long, long time later, in a small shabby house in the alley in the backyard of Ju Cantang.

"Mom, what's wrong with you? Are you being bullied again?"

A young man's eyes suddenly turned red when he saw the woman coming back. No part of her body was dry.

"It's okay, it's okay, Mom is used to it."

The woman raised her head, smiled at her son, then pushed the door open and sat down on a small stool.

"Ru'er, come here. Yesterday, my mother saw that your clothes were torn. She mended them for you."

"I've already patched it up."

Ru'er said quickly, then ran over and squatted beside the woman.

"Mom, how about we escape? I have prepared food. As long as we can escape from Sky City, everything will be fine."

If we continue to live like this in Jucantang, when will it end? How could he bear to watch his own mother spend time in that place like this?

Now that he and his second brother have grown up and can earn money to support their mother, why do they continue to stay here?

"No, no, we can't run away."

Hearing her son's words, the woman shook her head in panic.

If she could escape, how could she still stay here, but she couldn't escape.

Chapter 2505 Is he my brother?

She is a dying woman, so it doesn't matter whether she dies or not, but she still has two sons. She can't let her two sons go to a dead end because of her, right?

Those people were so cruel that they would not care whether her two sons were of Ding family blood.

If he knew that she had left Ju Cantang, he would definitely attack her and her two sons. If something unexpected happened to her children, then she would really regret it.

"Ru'er, you don't know how ruthless those people are. Now that your father doesn't remember me, he can't protect you."

Now that men can't be relied on and there is no one who can protect them, she can only rely on herself. Anyway, she is thick-skinned and can withstand it. When her two sons grow up and become more capable, They escape from this ghost place again.

"We still have to save some more things. These things alone are not enough, really not enough. Ru'er, you have to be obedient and not show any dissatisfaction with those people, do you understand?"

"mother!"

Ru'er roared lowly.

He really couldn't stand his mother being in that kind of place. Over the years, he had watched helplessly how difficult it was for her.

Mother has swallowed all these difficulties and sufferings, all for him and her second brother!

"It's okay, it's really okay, Ru'er, let's keep holding on. When Jun'er's alchemy skills reach the third level, and your alchemy skills also reach the third level, we can go to the Orcs. Once there, the sky The people in the city can no longer harm us.

But it's not possible now. We have to be patient. This has been going on for so many years. Do we still have to endure it for a few more years? "

The woman whispered to her son.

She really didn't care anymore. If we say that when she first came to Jucantang, she really wanted to die.

But when she knew she was pregnant, she felt that everything she did was worth it. As long as her two sons could be well and live a safe and happy life in the future, that was enough.

Hearing the woman's words, Ru'er secretly gritted his teeth.

Although the Beast Tribe has been recruiting human alchemists and alchemists, and after joining the Beast Tribe, the Human Tribe can no longer control them.

But how can alchemy and alchemy be so easily improved?

He and his second brother are only at the second level now. They usually secretly refine some elixirs and weapons to sell on the black market, but they don't know when they will have to wait until they want to advance to the next level.

"Mom, don't worry, Jun'er and I will work hard and will definitely be busy upgrading."

He assured the woman seriously.

As long as one of him and Jun'er reaches level three, they can join the orcs.

"Ru'er, don't be anxious, you have to take your time." The woman heard what he said and hurriedly said something else.

The road to promotion is inherently difficult, and it is the same among the nobles who use spiritual objects to pile up, let alone poor people like them who may not even be able to eat?

So don't be anxious. What if you practice too much and become possessed?

"This...is my brother?"

In a corner, Ding Rong, who was picked up by Liu Yuyang from the Hongye Building, looked at the mother and son who had been discussing how to escape in the dilapidated house where the wind was leaking from all directions.

She never knew that she actually had two brothers, and they lived in such a...such a lowly place, she couldn't even imagine it.

Chapter 2506 What kind of women are they?

She was completely dumbfounded. She really felt that all her years of living had been in vain.

Liu Yuyang said that her two half-brothers lived here, both eighteen years old, and were born to her father's former savior.

"Don't my father know? How could he allow his son to live in a place like this, and... and that woman... How could he allow his woman to live in a place like this..."

"he does not know!"

Before Ding Rong could finish speaking, Liu Yuyang interrupted her.

"Because this woman's identity is not worthy of your father, your grandmother directly drugged your father, causing him to completely forget about this woman and not even know about their existence.

"What?!"

After listening to Liu Yuyang's words, Ding Rong was speechless.

How could something like this still happen? Even if your status doesn't match it, being a concubine is still okay, right?

How could they let the children of the Ding family live outside?

In the past, no matter how much she hated Aunt Qiongying's children, she never thought of taking them outside and letting them fend for themselves.

But now, she actually saw her two brothers living so humble lives.

He is obviously a young master of the Ding family, but he still has to work hard to advance to the third level just to be able to make a living in the beast tribe!

Could she not know what kind of place the Orcs were? She had gone there with her father before. Even if she was recruited, it was different from the real Orcs.

The same humble life.

But think about it, it's much better than being in this Jucantang, right?

"Then grandma...does she know about their existence?" she asked.

Naturally, she was asking Ding Ru and Ding Jun. Could it be that the grandmother also acquiesced that her grandson would end up living in such a place?

"According to the information I got, she probably doesn't know, but I don't know the details," Liu Yuyang said honestly.

With such a big Ding family, there are always things that Mrs. Ding doesn't know about, right?

What's more, Madam Ding was doing it for her son's benefit and gave the woman enough money to live on.

It's just that some people in the Ding family are so vicious that they can even think of ways to torture a woman like this.

"That is not bad."

Ding Rong let out a sigh of relief.

If grandma knew about this, she wouldn't know how to face her family in the future.

"But... what is the threat that the woman said? Now, the Ding family members are still threatening her. Do they have to stay in this filthy place?"

How come there is such a person in the Ding family?

If she knew which one it was, she would make this person disappear forever in Qianhuan Continent!

Although they are half-brothers, they are also her brothers, aren't they?

"Qiongying."

Liu Yuyang uttered two words coldly.

"hiss!"

Ding Rong gasped.

It turned out to be Qiongying, and she couldn't help but blush, because in her heart, the first object of suspicion turned out to be her own mother.

She shouldn't be blamed for this, after all, her mother had even tried to take advantage of her before.

"I thought Qiongying was pretty good, but it turns out... what kind of women are there around my father!"

She sighed heavily, feeling really speechless inside. She suddenly felt sad for her father. What should she do?

Chapter 2507 Another excuse?

Her mother was like this. Now it seems that Aunt Qiongying is not a good person. For the sake of her son, she can force others to live in such a place. She doesn't want to think about it, is she also a woman?

"Then you asked me to come here because you want me to take them back to the Ding family?" she asked.

Liu Yuyang: "!!!"

Little girl, can you be a little more idiotic?

"Do you think they could survive if they just went to Ding's house?"

Not to mention that the people of the Ding family did not care about their life experience, even Aunt Qiongying could not let the two young masters of the Ding family who were older than her sons live.

What's more, it's just two of them!

"Then what do you mean?" Ding Rong didn't understand.

"Your father doesn't remember them now."

Liu Yuyang glanced at the mother and son in the broken house, then turned back to Ding Rong.

"You mean, is there a way to make my dad remember it?" Ding Rong's eyes lit up.

If her father could remember that woman, it would be because of her father's sense of justice and responsibility that he had only accidentally prevented her mother from having a son again. She had been doted on her for so many years.

If her mother hadn't committed suicide recently, she would have continued to pamper her.

If her father knew that because he made a woman live so hard and did such things to support his two sons, how guilty he would feel in his heart!

Besides, didn't Liu Yuyang say that that woman was her father's savior?

Isn't it too much to pledge yourself to save someone's life?

"The final result of the discussion between Baizhong and I was to use the mineral vein to invite your father here..."

"What?!"

Before Liu Yuyang could finish his words, Ding Rong screamed, almost shocking the people in the broken house.

Fortunately, they were far enough away and she knew to keep her voice down.

"No, this is absolutely not possible!"

Damn it, are these people crazy? They want to invite her father to this place?

She didn't mean that her father wouldn't come. After all, when her father was out doing business, he would often come to places like this. As for men, it's common for men to make fun of themselves.

As long as you don't have that intention, that's fine.

But Lin Baizhong is different from Liu Yuyang. He actually made an appointment at this place. So what do others think?

"It's not a good idea to date someone in a place like this. Are you sure?"

"if not?"

Liu Yuyang raised his eyebrows at her.

"Are you going to tell your father that you came to this place to look for a man because you want him?"

Ding Rong: "..."

Why on earth would someone come to a place like this to find a man?

People who come to a place like this are all men with special hobbies, okay?

Of course, there are also some aristocratic women who secretly come here to find men, and then secretly spend money to keep them for themselves.

But that's not her. Even if she wanted to marry herself off again, she wouldn't come here.

"Can you give me another excuse?" she asked with a bitter look on her face.

This excuse is really bad. Although she was really famous in Sky City before, she has been keeping a low profile since she followed Lin Caisang, okay?

"I remember that my dad used to come here often. He has a few friends who come here often. Otherwise, let them bring him here?" she suggested.

"who?"

Liu Yuyang asked.

"There are quite a few."

Ding Rong turned his head and thought for a moment, then stretched out a hand.

Chapter 2508 Make an appointment with the Third Master

"But as far as I know, the person who comes here most often is the third master from the Ye family. He is a frequent visitor here. He comes here just for a walk when he has nothing to do. He even often takes people there back to him. Home.

"Master Ye San?"

Listening to Ding Rong's words, Liu Yuyang's eyes darkened.

This third master of the Ye family is an old acquaintance of hers, and they had contacts in the past.

Now that she has come back, it seems that it is time to meet those old friends. She has no hope of helping them, and they are not true friends.

But it's okay to use it occasionally.

"You go back first and leave this matter to me." She said to Ding Rong.

Ding Rong: "..."

She raised her eyes and looked into the distance, once again taking a look at the mother and son in the dilapidated house, and asked herself, could she just leave with such peace of mind?

"I also know Mr. Yesan, how about..."

"No, I have my own way. 69shux.Com" Liu Yuyang interrupted her.

The third master of the Ye family is a bohemian. If Ding Rong really comes to visit him, he will not care whether he is a relative of the city lord or not, he will still attack him.

"Oh well."

Ding Rong nodded and took one last look at the mother and son.

"How about I arrange a better place for them to live first?" she asked Liu Yuyang.

However, Liu Yuyang glanced at her when he heard what she said. When will Ding Rong, the eldest lady, become so kind?

This doesn't look like her at all.

"Okay, I'll go first."

Ding Rong felt numb due to Liu Yuyang's gaze, and could only leave angrily.

"Master, do you want to date Mr. Yesan?"

After Ding Rong left, a man came out from the side and asked Liu Yuyang.

"Take this and make an appointment with the third master of the Ye family."

Liu Yuyang took out a token from his arms, handed it to his subordinates, and gave instructions.

"Yes, Master."

The subordinate responded, took the token with both hands and left.

...

Yeja, in Third Master Ye's room.

Looking at the golden token in his hand in front of him, the man's hands were shaking.

"How could it be her? How could it be her?"

He kept mumbling these five words in his mouth, as if he couldn't believe that the owner of this token appeared again.

After a long while, the man raised his eyes and looked at the masked man in black not far from him.

"What does she want me to do for her?" he asked.

"It's simple, as long as you make an appointment with the Master of the Ding family to Ju Can Hall, the master will arrange the rest." The masked man in black spoke coldly and said to him.

"Make an appointment with the Ding family master to go to Jucantang?"

The man raised his eyebrows, wondering why that man was also interested in Ju Cantang?

Moreover, she has always been a loner, and there has been no news about her in these years. How come she has nothing to do with the head of the Ding family now?

When he asked Ding Zhu to go to Ju Can Hall drunk, could he be trying to set a trap for him?

"Isn't this not good?"

Knowing that that person was going to set a trap for Ding Zhuzui, he still followed her words and asked Ding Zhuzui out. Wouldn't that be helping the villain?

Although he behaves a little erratically, he is not the kind of person who kills without blinking an eye.

"What this means is that Mr. Yesan is unwilling?"

When the masked man in black heard what he said, he didn't say much, just raised his hand and cupped his fist at him.

Chapter 2509: Dead Taoist Friends Don't Die Poor Taoists

"That's it, I'm sorry to bother Mr. Ye, so I'll take my leave. With that said, he was ready to leave.

But how could Mr. Ye let the masked man in black leave just like that? He quickly called out to him.

"Etc., etc."

Ye Sanye felt that if he just let the person in front of him go today, he would be the one who gets tricked next time.

"Let me think about it, let me think about it."

Although Ding Zhuzui could talk to him for a few words, they were not good friends after all. They only had some business contacts and were decent in terms of face.

"Okay, I'll try to make an appointment with him. There happens to be a business deal in two days. If I want to make an appointment with him, why not make an appointment at Jucantang.

In line with the idea that a dead Taoist friend should not die a poor Taoist, after thinking for a long time, Mr. Ye decided to betray Ding Zhuzui directly. After thinking about it, that person would not be so cruel as to directly kill Ding Zhuzui. of.

Even if Ding Zhuzui really offended her, he would only give her a severe lesson, that's about it.

But if he rejects her this time, it will mean that he has offended people to death. He will not do such an unpleasant thing.

"very good."

The masked man in black was very satisfied after hearing his words.

"Master Yesan is indeed Master Yesan, he is a sensible person."

Hearing his words, Ye Sanye really wanted to yell. Is he being sensible?

Obviously there is no way, he is being threatened!

I hope that Ding Zhuzui will not break up with him because of this matter. After all, Ding Zhuzui has a close relationship with the City Lord's Mansion, and many of his businesses are related to Ding Zhuzui.

...

Two days later, Hongye Building.

"Hey, did you hear that?"

A man dressed as a servant grabbed another man and then looked around mysteriously.

"What did you hear?"

The man was held back, a little confused, and couldn't help but ask.

"I heard that the spiritual vegetables in the kitchen were stolen again! And this time not only the spiritual vegetables were stolen, but also the spiritual birds. They are all gone. Now the supervisor is investigating the thief."

"Stolen again?"

The man opened his mouth, not knowing what to say.

In the past two days, there has been a "rat plague" in the kitchen. Either this thing or that thing is missing. The supervisor even used the excuse that rats had stolen it, but there wasn't much anyway.

However, now all the spiritual vegetables and spiritual birds have been stolen.

Now, we can no longer say that the mouse stole it, right? Where did the mouse come from? Even the spiritual bird dared to take it away. It's not like he was impatient to live.

"Do you know who stole it? It couldn't be those people in the kitchen?" he asked.

"Definitely."

The man looked like he was taking it for granted.

If it's not someone in the kitchen, then who could it be? The kitchen is a forbidden area and no one else can enter.

"However, I heard that not only the kitchen was robbed this time, but also other places." He curled his lips and added.

"Where else?"

The man asked, glaring.

It's been really weird in Hongye Building recently. Why are things missing everywhere?

Before those alchemists and alchemists moved in, they never lost anything in Hongye Building, not even once.

Could it be that those alchemists and alchemists have some indescribable habits?

This shouldn't be possible, right? You're already an alchemist and an alchemist. How can you do such a dirty thing?

Chapter 2510 Isn't that good?

And being able to be recruited into the Hongye Building, it shows that they should not be the kind of people who can even steal spiritual vegetables and spiritual birds. With the money they carry, they can easily buy spiritual vegetables and spiritual birds, right?

Maybe there is some misunderstanding in this?

Or are some people in the Hongye Building taking advantage of the crowds in these buildings to act out the ideas they have been hiding in their hearts?

Tsk, tsk, you dare to steal anything in Hongye Building, you are not afraid that if you are found out, you will be dragged out and killed!

You must know that Hongye Tower is the Hongye Tower of the City Lord. It is specially used by the City Lord to entertain distinguished guests. How can it accommodate such a person with unclean hands and feet?

What's more, the situation this time is a little different. These people here were all recruited by the city lord, and they wanted to enter the vast forest.

What should the city lord do if he makes these people angry and in a bad mood and refuses to help the city lord work hard to find medicinal materials?

Could it be that those thieves had this idea secretly?

"I said that many alchemists and alchemists have lost their clothes. I heard that those clothes are very expensive." The man lowered his voice and said.

Now, the only thing missing is the alchemist's elixir and the alchemist's weapon.

If all of these are really lost, then the Hongye Building will really become lively. Those people will suddenly start making a fuss, right?

"How could this happen? What are these people thinking? How could they do such a thing in Hongye Tower? The face of the city lord will be completely humiliated by them.

The other person patted his chest fearfully and said.

If the city lord knew who did this, he probably wouldn't even have to leave the Hongye Building, and he would be kicked out!

"Who knows who it is? I guess the manager will find out soon, right?"

The person in charge was sent by the city lord. Now that something like this happened in Hongye Tower, he will definitely give an explanation to the city lord. The person who stole things behind the scenes, no matter who he is, will definitely be found out.

...

in the room.

There was a bowl of fragrant noodles in front of Lin Caisang.

But at this moment, her attention was not on the noodles at all, but on...

"Chu Shui, you...isn't this bad?"

Looking at the messy things, there were spiritual vegetables, spiritual birds, clothes, and other things. Anyway, there was nothing that Yue Chushui couldn't get, only Lin Caisang couldn't think of.

"These are just a small part. The rest were all given to those people." Yue Chushui didn't think there was anything wrong with getting these things.

"Yes, yes, sister Sangsang, what should I do with these things? Do I need to take them outside and set them on fire?" Yin Baiqing also nodded her little head and asked.

Lin Caisang: "..."

If you want to burn the clothes, just burn them, but these spiritual vegetables and birds are things that can be put into your mouth, so what a pity it would be to burn them?

"Let's just put all the spiritual vegetables and birds here. You can take the other things and destroy them."

After thinking about it, she said.

"good."

Yue Chushui responded and Ma Liu packed up everything except spiritual vegetables and birds.

"Chu Shui, come back as soon as you take care of these things. Let's have a good meal tonight." Seeing that he was about to leave, Lin Caisang explained again.

As soon as she said these words, she saw that the window was opened from the outside, and she turned her head and looked over.
