

Star of Space 269

Chapter 269 She has to sink into the pond!

Suddenly, she thought of Liu Yushui, and as if she had grasped the last straw, she got up from the ground and brought Liu Yushui to Lu Qiubo.

"Yushui, hurry up, kowtow to your grandma and tell her not to drive us away. Why are you standing still? Hurry up."

She urged anxiously while pressing Liu Yushui's head.

"Mom, why should I kneel down? I won't kneel down." Liu Yushui gritted his teeth and refused to kneel down.

These people are the lowest of the low. She didn't even look at them before, but now they actually want her to kneel down. How is this allowed?

Especially now, Lin Caisang is standing in front of her. If she kneels down, doesn't that mean she is kneeling down to Lin Caisang? She can't even do this!

"Kneel down if I ask you to!"

Seeing that she actually refuted her words, Liu Rumei hit her in the face with a big slap.

"Kneel down. Did you hear that? You are the one who caused everything today. If you hadn't told your father about Liu Chushuizang's food, would your father have been so angry? It's all your fault. Kneel down now! "

"I....."

Liu Yushui's air is knotted.

She just wanted to please Liu Baixiao so that she could eat every meal in the future. How could she know that Liu Baixiao was so cruel and ruthless that he almost beat Liu Chushui to death?

"I won't kneel anyway.

No matter what, she would never kneel down to Lin Caisang!

"You...you want to make me angry to death!"

Looking at her rebellious face and listening to her words, Liu Rumei was so angry that he greeted her face again, and slapped Liu Yushui several times, making Liu Yushui's face bloodshot.

"Kneel down or not, kneel down or not!"

He asked sharply while typing.

Everyone in the yard was shocked by Liu Rumei's terrifying appearance. Their daughter, the one they loved the most, could actually do such a cruel thing.

Not to mention other people, it's nothing in her eyes, right?

Lin Caisang watched Liu Yushui being beaten with a bruised nose and face, and felt no sympathy at all. He glanced at her coldly and looked at Patriarch Lin not far away.

"Grandpa Patriarch, my second uncle's family is now considered a member of our village, right? Look, my cousin is pregnant with a child before she even leaves the government. Shouldn't you handle it here? If she is allowed to take care of the child, When she is born, it will affect all the girls in our village who have not left the government."

she reminded.

"Lin Caisang, you——"

Liu Yushui raised his head in surprise and looked at Lin Caisang in disbelief.

Never in her wildest dreams did she think that Lin Caisang would actually add insult to injury at this time. She had heard that girls in other villages had been ordered to die by the village chief because they had an affair with a man before they even came out of the palace.

What's more, she is even pregnant with a child now.

"Patriarch, Sangsang is right. This woman is ignorant of her manners and has done such a despicable thing. She should be dragged to Shen Tang."

Sure enough, several men soon spoke out to support Lin Caisang. They all had daughters at home. If they couldn't get married because of Liu Yushui, they would definitely fight against Liu Baixiao's family!

"Yes, Shen Tang, we have to sink her!"

"You, you guys..."

Liu Yushui turned around and looked at those people, feeling that the world was spinning.

At this moment, Liu Baixiao didn't know what to say anymore. He just kept his head shrinking. It was obvious that he was frightened by the clan leader's words about driving out of the village just now.
