

Star of Space 314

Chapter 314 A little hardship

It was only after she saw Old Man Zeng's ugly face that she remembered that if the person she brought here was a liar, wouldn't she be harmed as well?

So hurry up and don't get yourself involved later.

"Girl, please help my Yulang take a look. Is the injury on his face still okay?" Old man Zeng brought Lin Caisang to Zeng Yulang and asked directly without any nonsense.

"No need to look."

Lin Caisang nodded.

When she walked in from outside, she had already seen the injury on Zeng Yulang's face, okay?

Moreover, she happened to have a ready-made ointment on her body to treat scars. The last time she was pushed by Lin Caihe and her face was scratched, she used it to remove the scars on her face. Anyway, I made it once, so I made a few more boxes. I used one box and the scars on my face were almost healed.

From what she could see, the wounds on Zeng Yulang's face were so deep and so dense that they couldn't be healed without three boxes of scar removal cream.

"Here, this is the scar removal ointment. Let your son try it first. Once every morning and evening, take a small amount and apply it on the scars on the face. Use it for seven days to see the effect. I will come back after seven days to see the effect. "

She took out a box of scar removal cream from her small bag and handed it to Old Man Zeng.

"this....."

Old man Zeng didn't expect this girl to be so efficient in her work. She just took out the medicine without saying anything.

"Girl, won't you check my son's pulse or something?" he asked.

In the past, every doctor he called would take his pulse first, then shake his head and sigh, say a lot of bad words, take the consultation fee, and leave. Who would be like the girl in front of him, who would just give the medicine without saying anything.

"What's the pulse? I think your son is so angry that he can smash such a big vat in one breath. Does he seem to be sick?" Lin Caisang glanced at the broken pot not far away. Jar, said.

"As for the injury on the face, just use 'look' among 'look', 'smell', 'ask', and 'cut'. But let me tell you first, my ointment was not blown by the strong wind. The wounds on his face require at least three boxes. This first box is for you to test the effect first. If you want my scar removal cream later, you have to pay for this box together with the money. "

Of course, the words must be made clear, otherwise she will become a liar even though she is not a liar.

"What...how much does this scar removal cream cost?" Old Man Zeng asked weakly.

If this scar removal cream could really cure the wounds on his son's face, it would cost him everything and he would have to cure it. He only had one son.

"How about a box of ten taels of gold?" Lin Caisang asked.

Hearing this, Old Man Zeng breathed a sigh of relief.

He said to himself: Not bad.

A box cost ten taels of gold, and four boxes would cost only four hundred taels of silver. If this scar removal cream really worked, for safety reasons, he felt that four boxes were still needed.

Fortunately, he had opened a rice shop for so many years just to save money for his son who was about to take the scientific examination, so he still had some money on hand.

Four hundred taels of silver was still affordable for the family.

Thinking of this, he quickly reached out and took the ointment box from Lin Caisang's hand.

Seeing that his hands were empty, Lin Caisang smiled, took away his empty hands, and looked at Zeng Yulang.

"This is an ointment used to remove scars. It will definitely not be too comfortable when applied to the skin. Some slight fever or slight tingling are normal. Don't stop the medicine if you feel a little uncomfortable. It's going to take some pains to get your appearance back as before."

She explained.
