Chapter 3161 Don't hurt yourself

What's more, based on what Aunt Qiongying did before, she felt that even if Mr. Ding Xu really interceded for her, the old mistress might not let Aunt Qiongying go for his sake.

As soon as the child in her belly is born, she will be sent to Zhuangzi.

In fact, being sent to Zhuangzi was considered a great favor. Considering what Aunt Qiongying did to the eldest and second young masters, and how she colluded with several elders to plot against the Ding family, she died several times. It's not an exaggeration.

But why don't you stay here properly now?

It was because of Master Ding Xu's face that the old mistress didn't do anything cruel to her.

Otherwise, based on these things, Aunt Qiongying would have to be killed after giving birth to the child. Keeping her would sooner or later be a disaster, wouldn't it?

She really didn't understand. Why would Aunt Qiongying be so happy when the third young master was back?

If the Third Young Master doesn't come back, he still doesn't know what his aunt has done. But when he comes back, he won't be able to hold on to anything. In that case, it's better not to come back.

In the front yard, Ding Zhuzui looked at the two children who had returned, feeling very sad.

When he still didn't remember the past, before he knew what Jin Cuiniang and Aunt Qiongying had done, he had thought that it didn't matter how many children he had, one or two missing, there would still be more in the future.

But now, the two sons who were suffering outside have been found, and the woman he once loved has also returned, and his inner thoughts have also changed.

"It'll be good to come back, it'll be good to come back."

He raised his hand and patted his son on the shoulder, his face filled with relief.

Just now when he saw his son walking in from the outside, he had a moment of dazzle and couldn't even call out his son's name.

In the past, I could only breathe a sigh of relief by watching my son lying on the bed, feeding him the most precious medicinal materials, and I lived in fear every day.

Now, my son is back with all his beard and tail, and he is still walking.

"Dad, don't just be happy. We just came back and you won't let us sit in?" Ding Rong raised his eyebrows and looked at his biological father.

We haven't seen him for just over a month, and it looks like her father has aged many years.

But think about it, after so many things happened at home, your mood will naturally be bad. If you are in a bad mood, how can a person feel better?

"Look dad, it's all for fun. Come on, come in and sit down."

After being reminded by his daughter, Ding Zhuzui remembered that they were still standing in the yard, and hurriedly led the two of them into his study.

"Where are you coming back from, and how long can you stay at home?" He asked Ding Rong as soon as he sat down in the study.

"this....."

"Dad, we just came to see you and grandma, and we will go back soon."

Without waiting for Ding Rong to reply, Ding Xu said that they still had many things to do, and they couldn't stay at home forever. The most important thing this time was to come and report that they were safe.

"Leaving soon?"

Hearing this, Ding Zhuzui felt a chill in his heart.

But soon, he became happy again, so what if he had to leave soon? When children grow up, they will always want to go out and make troubles. He just treats them as if they are going out to make troubles.

At least his son and daughter can live well next to Lin Baizhong's daughter, right?

"It's okay, it's okay. If you go back this time, bring more things with you. Don't make yourself miserable."

Chapter 3162: Deal with it early in the morning

"Dad, what's going on at home? Where are my two brothers?" Ding Rong asked.

After hearing her words, Ding Zhuzui's expression froze.

He originally didn't want to tell Ding Rong and Ding Xu about this matter now. After all, it was not a glorious matter.

Moreover, this matter was also related to Aunt Qiongying. He was afraid that if he told it, Ding Xu would feel uncomfortable and would be even less willing to come back after leaving home.

"Well... they are practicing in seclusion, and they don't know when they will come out," he said.

"oh."

Ding Rong responded and looked at Ding Xu.

Ding Xu, on the other hand, pursed his lips and remained silent. Although he was not at home, it was impossible for him to know nothing about what happened at home.

He already knew what his aunt had done.

It's just that she is his aunt after all, so he can't say much about how to deal with it. Naturally, his grandmother and father have their own ideas, and it's even harder for him to intervene.

"What about the two brothers' aunts?" he asked.

In his opinion, it was impossible for such an aunt to stay in the Ding family.

"she....."

When Ding Ru and Ding Jun's mother were mentioned, Ding Zhuzui's face became even more ugly.

"She insisted not to join the Ding family. Your grandmother bought a house in the city and let her live there. She also sent a few maids to serve her. Now, it's good.

Hearing this, Ding Rong raised his eyebrows.

She also knew that this would eventually be the result, but that woman was different from her mother and Aunt Qiongying.

If it were her mother, I'm afraid... things wouldn't be that simple.

"It's good if you can take care of her. After all, she is the mother of two brothers, so she must be taken care of," she said.

"Yes Yes."

Ding Zhuzui responded repeatedly.

To be honest, he really didn't want to mention those messy things in the past in front of his children.

He is the head of the Ding family after all, doesn't he want to lose face?

"Let's not talk about this anymore. Let's talk about something else. Let's talk about something else." He smiled and wanted to change the topic.

"Well, let's talk about something else." Ding Rong nodded.

"Dad, have you dealt with the mineral veins in Tianxia City?" Ding Xu asked directly without thinking.

Ding Zhuzui: "!!!"

He just wants to talk about something else, but that doesn't mean he wants to talk about the mine in the lower city!

It was only later that he found out that the mine actually belonged to Lin Baizhong's wife. This was really a shame that he had to go to Tianxia City just for a mine!

"That mineral vein was dealt with early in the morning."

Taking a deep breath, he said helplessly.

Can we just leave it alone? Is it easy for Lin Baizhong and his wife to talk to each other?

Moreover, because of that mine, even the city lord's wife no longer sided with the Ding family, what else could he do?

Although he really wanted to get that mine, he was not stupid after all. For a mine, he offended Lin Baizhong and also offended the city lord's palace. He would definitely not do such a thing.

"I didn't know it before, but now I know it. Fortunately, the people under my command haven't taken action on that mineral vein yet." He said quietly.

In fact, it's not that we didn't start, but that we have been doing it for several years and still haven't found anything good. The so-called loss of the wife and the loss of the army is the one I'm talking about!

The money was spent, but the mineral veins purchased still belonged to someone else.

It's easy for him!

Chapter 3163 Don't care if you can't do it

"Just take care of it."

After hearing that it was taken care of, Ding Rong also let out a sigh of relief.

"Dad, you need to know that behind us is the City Lord's Mansion. No matter what we do outside, the first thing we have to think about is the interests of the City Lord's Mansion, as well as the interests of my aunt and uncle. Anyone else who has promised you anything will not be affected. It's empty talk!"

She said to Ding Zhuzui half-warning, half-concerned.

"Yes, Dad, it doesn't matter how much money and power the family has. As long as the family lives well, that's the best." Ding Xu also agreed.

Listening to what the two said, Ding Zhuzui felt the same way now.

"Dad understands."

However, although he said yes, he felt a little uneasy in his heart.

"Rong'er, Xu'er, do you know anything? Is there something big happening in Sky City..."

"father."

Before he could finish speaking, Ding Rong spoke up, interrupting his words.

"Dad, you are worrying too much. What big thing could happen? Even if there is a big thing, it will be handled by the City Lord's Mansion. Even if it doesn't work, the Commander's Mansion will still be there to take care of it."

"Yeah?"

Hearing what she said, Ding Zhuzui felt even more confident.

It seems that Sky City is really not peaceful. He has heard about some of the things Lu Tianfeng did before, but recently, there is no news about it.

I'm afraid it no longer exists in this world, right?

Of course, this idea is just his guess. Even if it is true, he will not tell anyone.

"If you say this, dad will be relieved, and so will you. Dad and your grandmother are definitely on the side of your aunt and uncle. Anyone who wants to do anything to our Ding family is seeking death!"

Now the Ding family and the city lord's mansion are in-laws. He only turned to others to deal with his sister because his head was caught in the door.

That is naturally impossible.

However, just because he won't do it doesn't mean that other people in the Ding family won't do it.

Like the elders who were won over by Aunt Qiongying before, they can be driven by just a little benefit. If there are more benefits, I'm afraid the other people in the Ding family will do something extraordinary. What will happen is unknown.

"call!"

He exhaled heavily and looked at Ding Rong and Ding Xu seriously.

"Rong'er, Xu'er, don't worry, these people from the Ding family, let alone others, if they dare to do something that is not good for Sky City or the city lord's mansion, no matter who they are, dad and your grandmother will They can't be tolerated!"

And you, if you need anything from the Ding family, just ask someone to come over. If you can help, your grandmother and I will definitely help. "

"Thank you dad for your consideration." Ding Rong thanked him.

The three of them talked for a while, and Ding Rong was telling Ding Zhuzui not to get involved in outside affairs.

"Dad, how is my aunt?"

After a while, Ding Xu spoke and asked about his aunt.

Although Aunt Qiongying has paid little attention to him since he was sensible, and her grandmother has always taken care of her, she is her own mother after all, so she cannot really ignore him.

"this....."

Ding Zhuzui's face turned ugly again when he mentioned Aunt Qiongying.

He really didn't expect that a woman who once showed weakness and didn't even dare to say a few words in front of Jin Cuiniang could win several elders to her side.

Chapter 3164 It would be nice to be able to spend the rest of my life peacefully

If she said there was no one behind her, he would never believe it.

However, no matter how hard they searched, they couldn't find anything else, so they had no choice but to put Aunt Qiongying under house arrest first.

Originally, she wanted to send her directly to Zhuangzi, but it turned out that Aunt Qiongying was still pregnant with her child, so she had to be placed under house arrest first, and then sent to Zhuangzi after the baby was born.

But how could he say these words to Ding Xu?

"Your aunt is very good, very good."

Thousands of words were all gathered into one embarrassing sentence.

Apart from saying it's good, what can I say? It's not easy for Rong'er and Xu'er to be outside now. We can't let them worry about these messy things at home, right?

When Ding Xu heard his words, his silver eyes flashed slightly.

How could it be good? He knew very well about his aunt. Now that Jin Cuiniang has fallen, if she doesn't do something, she won't be her anymore.

Isn't it because she was so opposed to her leaving home because he was the only child in the family who loved her most.

"Dad, I don't have any other requirements. I just hope that my aunt can spend the rest of her life peacefully."

he said.

"Well."

Ding Zhu choked up drunkenly.

He also knew that family matters could not be hidden from the two children.

But these two children spoke so frankly to his father, and he really couldn't stand it. ~"°•.~~.°*""~

It feels... quite embarrassing, really!

"Okay, dad will make arrangements, Xu'er, as long as you are well, there is no need to worry about family matters."

He nodded and said.

After a while.

The two of them followed Ding Zhuzui to Mrs. Ding's yard.

On the way, Ding Rong glanced sideways at Ding Xu with a smile in his eyes, "You are quite tolerant."

Ding Xu glanced at her lightly and curled his lips.

"What can I do?" he asked Ding Rong.

When he was still at home, he had already seen clearly the coldness of Aunt Qiongying.

She felt that he would die sooner or later, and when there was no use for him anymore, she could just ignore him;

When she was still struggling to make a living under Mrs. Jin Cuiniang, she could let her children be endlessly bullied by Ding Rong and Jin Cuiniang in order to make her life more comfortable, and she could remain indifferent;

None of this shows that Aunt Qiongying has no real feelings for him or her children at all.

If you really feel sorry for them, even if you have no choice but to resist Jin Cuiniang, you can still comfort them when they are injured, right?

But Aunt Qiongying has never thought about it like this, nor has she ever done this.

It was as if it was a normal thing for them to be given trouble by Jin Cuiniang, and they should just suffer it.

"She has always been like this. Maybe I have also inherited her coolness?" He said, asking himself in his heart.

Anyway, he really doesn't care at all about what will happen to his aunt now. As long as the person is still alive, he thinks it's okay.

"Ah."

Ding Rong chuckled.

The people of the Ding family are really like this.

"Don't be sad, at least she's still alive. As for the things she did, maybe... she even made meritorious deeds," she said.

Ding Xu: "!!!"

As he walked forward, he looked at his father's back.

He was almost frightened by Ding Rong's words, but he had to admit that these words were really good.

Chapter 3165 His face changed

If Aunt Qiongying hadn't come out like this, how could those elders with ulterior motives reveal their thoughts so quickly?

So, by proposing it like this, at least his aunt can be regarded as having made a contribution, right?

"Sister, what you said is quite good. If there were more people like my aunt, the family would be much quieter."

Ding Rong: "..."

She didn't mean anything else, she just felt that if a few more people like Aunt Qiongying appeared in the Ding family, the messy people in the family might be eliminated.

This is a great thing.

"Stop talking about these things, let me ask you, should we mention that matter to grandma later?" She glanced at her father's back secretly, then lowered her voice and asked Ding Xu.

"Which thing?"

Ding Xu raised his eyebrows, a little confused.

They just came to report that they were safe, right? Is there anything else that needs to be said?

"What else can be done, medicinal materials, medicinal materials." Ding Rong lowered his voice again and reminded.

"Should we not talk about this matter?"

Speaking of medicinal materials, Ding Xu couldn't help but secretly glance at Ding Zhuzui, who was walking in front of them.

This matter is very important, so it's best not to let your father hear it.

"Don't tell me?"

Ding Rong blinked, then blinked again.

"But why do I think it's better to talk to my grandmother about this first?"

"Why?"

Ding Xu asked her.

"Sister, do you have any ideas?"

"I don't think so, but think about it, in such a big Ding family, it's impossible for all the mice to be gone, right? What if someone takes advantage of it and comes to ask for medicinal materials, and they happen to be the few medicinal materials we need. ,what to do?"

In the Ding family, there are still many people who are hiding in the dark. If anyone really comes out to ask for some medicinal materials from the master's family, it is hard not to refuse to give them if they are clearly available, right?

"this....."

Ding Xu's expression changed.

This possibility is not impossible. When he was hanging on with medicine before, there were still people who had no eyesight and asked his father and grandmother for the medicine to save his life.

Now they are just asking for some insignificant medicinal materials, and many of the Ding family's branches are willing to beg for it.

"Then let me remind my grandmother first and ask her to pay more attention." He said immediately.

"Um."

Ding Rong responded.

"Otherwise... we might as well not have to remind you." Ding Xu thought about it and felt something was wrong.

"Anyway, we are here. We took advantage of the fact that we didn't notice at this moment and just took away the medicinal materials. This also saves us from having to make another trip, or it would be bad if we lose the medicinal materials that we already have."

"You mean, we take it away directly?" Ding Rong's eyes lit up.

"Is there a problem?" Ding Xu asked her.

"no problem!"

Ding Rong spoke immediately.

"When the time comes, if some unsighted people come to ask for it, just let grandma find an excuse to get rid of it."

As long as the medicinal materials are in their hands and in Lin Caisang's golden bead space, are they still afraid that others will snatch them away?

If you have the ability, let them snatch it!

"I have the prescription in my hand." Ding Xu said.

"good!"

Ding Rong answered again.

"Rong'er, Xu'er, what are you muttering about?"

Just as the two of them were discussing what to do, Ding Zhuzui, who was walking in front, felt that the two of them were walking slower and slower, and turned around to ask them.

Chapter 3166 Is Lao Liu sick?

"Um?"

Ding Rong and Ding Xu looked at him at the same time.

"I didn't say anything."

"It's just saying that we haven't been back for just a few days, and the changes in the mansion have been huge." Ding Xu said.

Ding Rong: "..."

You're in your yard every day... no, it's the medicine jar in your room. Even the last time you went out, you left at night. Do you know what has changed in the house?

If you tell them, their father will be more suspicious, okay?

But it was obvious that Ding Zhuzui did not feel that his son had said anything wrong. Instead, he felt that what he said was quite right.

"After you left, some small things happened at home. Your grandmother reorganized the home again. The changes were quite big." Ding Zhuzui said in agreement.

Ding Rong: "!!!"

Can her father believe this?

No wonder she could still be coaxed by her mother without even doubting her after so many years.

Sure enough, Lin Caisang was right, men are all big pigs, and when the critical moment comes, they won't work. Her father is really... hard to describe.

"Dad, let's go quickly. Grandma must be waiting for us in the yard." She reminded.

"Yes, yes, let's go there quickly." Ding Zhuzui heard her words and hurriedly responded.

In Mrs. Ding's yard.

Instead of waiting for her grandchildren, Mrs. Ding waited for news from a housekeeper from a branch of the Ding family.

"Lao Liu is sick?"

Mrs. Ding's eyes were heavy as she looked at the grandmother beside her.

Of course, the housekeeper who came from the side branch would not be able to see her. He could only wait outside and let the nanny next to her pass on the words.

"Yes, old mistress, that's what the sixth master's housekeeper said." The old lady responded.

"laugh."

Mrs. Ding sneered.

Ding Laoliu was famous for being strong and strong. At the family gathering a few years ago, she saw that guy was in high spirits and was still showing off his cultivation and how much he had improved.

How long has it been since you fell ill?

He is so sick that he needs to come to our house for help. What kind of incurable disease must he have?

Even if it is a side branch, it still has a certain amount of wealth. It is not so poor that it cannot even afford an alchemist or some precious medicinal materials, right?

If she said there was nothing going on, she wouldn't believe it.

"Did you tell me what disease you have and what medicines you need?" she asked.

"When I went back to my old mistress, I asked the housekeeper. The housekeeper couldn't tell what kind of disease the Sixth Master had at the moment, but he could tell me clearly what kind of medicine he needed."

The old grandma replied.

"The Sixth Master needs a thousand-year-old Tianyinzi, a hundred-year-old red ground ginseng, and..."

"what else?"

Before the old grandma could finish speaking, Mrs. Ding asked coldly.

"Well."

The old grandma was choked by her master and immediately did not dare to say anything.

"He actually inquired clearly enough!"

Mrs. Ding slapped the small jade object she was playing with directly on the table.

These medicinal herb owners are hard to come by, and the Ding family was able to obtain them only because of great opportunities.

After retrieving these medicinal materials, they were stored secretly and no outsiders knew about them.

But this Ding Laoliu sent a housekeeper to take away all these medicinal materials. He dared to think and do it. Did he really think that those medicinal materials were cabbage and radish, and he could take them at will?

Chapter 3167 He is just a breath of air

"It seems that the Ding family needs to be reorganized. Otherwise, everyone will know what secrets the Ding family has and what good things they have obtained!"

"this....."

The old grandma's expression also froze, and she thought to herself, that's not it.

The Ding family has these medicinal materials, and probably even the head of the family doesn't know about them. The old lady ordered people to go outside to collect them for the Third Young Master's illness.

However, this Sixth Master seems to have a soft ear and asks for it directly. Does he really think that the Ding family is being taken advantage of?

Moreover, where did the Sixth Master know that the Ding family had these things?

"Old mistress, are you going to send me away now?" she asked in a low voice.

Of course, after being with Mrs. Ding for so many years, she didn't think that the old lady would let the housekeeper leave so easily, or let Ding Laoliu take away the medicinal materials so easily.

To say that there is nothing going on here, let alone the old lady, even her servant would find it impossible.

"Go and check, who in the mansion is closer to the people in Ding Laoliu's mansion recently, and also, go and check outside, who needs to use those medicinal materials."

Mrs. Ding ordered.

"Yes, old mistress." After the old lady responded, she turned around and took out the door.

Not long after, Ding Zhuzui came over with Ding Rong and Ding Xu. When Mrs. Ding heard that her servants were coming to report, she quickly went out to greet them personally.

"Rong'er, Xu'er, you are back to see grandma. Xu'er, seeing that you are well, grandma is relieved."

Standing in the yard, Mrs. Ding looked like Ding Zhu was drunk before, watching Ding Xu striding towards her, tears welling up in her eyes and almost falling.

She paid much more attention to this grandson than Ding Rong, the eldest daughter. For several hours a day, she spent time with him talking to relieve his boredom.

Now that she saw Ding Xu looking better and even walking with wind in his eyes, she couldn't be happier.

"Xu'er is unfilial and makes grandma worried."

Ding Xu knelt down to Mrs. Ding and kowtowed three times.

"Get up, get up."

Mrs. Ding quickly helped the person up.

"Grandma, you should be happy that your third brother is healthy now. When the master lets us come back, our family will be able to reunite. How wonderful. Don't be sad."

Ding Rong said with a smile.

"Yep."

Mrs. Ding responded repeatedly, grabbing Ding Rong with one hand and Ding Xu with the other, and walked inside.

"Come on, it's sunny outside, let's go inside and talk."

"Okay, grandma, Rong'er has a lot to say to you." Ding Rong responded, and Ding Xu also echoed.

Behind them, Ding Zhuzui was left alone in the yard, and no one thought of him.

Ding Zhuzui: "..."

He really wanted to ask, had his mother and children forgotten something?

Could it be that he was just a breath of air, or that from the moment he entered this courtyard, he automatically became invisible, making his mother unable to see him?

Otherwise, why is it that no one thinks of his existence even though he is standing here?

"Master, won't you... go in?" The old woman who came out with Mrs. Ding reminded the master in a low voice when she saw the master who was still standing there.

Ding Zhuzui: "!!!"

It turns out that he is not invisible. Someone can finally see him, right?

Chapter 3168 The head in the hand is a little short

"Well, the head of the family is just thinking about something outside, so he will go in now.

He coughed lightly and gave instructions to the old nanny before raising his feet and following her.

"Mother Li, please go down and cook more of Rong'er and Xu'er's favorite dishes and pastries. Rong'er and the others will finally come back."

"Master, don't worry. My old mistress has told me before that preparations are already being made in the kitchen." Grandma Li responded and prepared to go to the kitchen to take a look.

In the hall, after Mrs. Ding sat down, Ding Rong and Ding Xu sat down on the left and right next to Mrs. Ding.

"Rong'er, thanks to you this time, your brother's health is finally better now.

"Whatever my grandmother said, I just said a few words on her behalf. The key is that Miss Lin's medical skills are good, which is why Xu'er is healthy. It's also the virtues accumulated by our ancestors of the Ding family."

Ding Rong didn't dare to take credit because she didn't do anything.

Moreover, with her and Ding Xu's current status, no one would believe it. Basically, they would be sold to Lin Caisang's side for the rest of their lives.

But this is okay. Sui Zimo is the young city lord of Sky City. It is normal for the Ding family to work for the city lord's palace.

"Look, Rong'er has only been with Miss Lin for a short period of time. She has developed this talkative tongue. Look how good she is at talking!" Mrs. Ding was also happy. In these bad days, it was rare to be so talkative. When you are happy.

"I....."

Just as Ding Rong was about to reply, he saw another nanny coming in from outside.

It happened that Ding Zhuzui came in at about the same time. When she saw the people in the hall, grandma was stunned for a moment, but she did not go out. Instead, she saluted and said hello to a few people.

"How's it going?"

Mrs. Ding looked at her and asked.

"Going back to the old lady, the ones who are closer to the Sixth Master in the family are the former stewards around the madam and the maids around Aunt Qiongying. Now, they have been assigned to other places.

Maybe he was no longer working in an important place, and his hands were short, so the Sixth Master took the opportunity to win over the two of them, and then he got the news about our house. "

Grandma replied to Mrs. Ding.

"snort!"

Mrs. Ding snorted coldly, her face turned cold.

"Grandma, did something happen again at home?"

Ding Rong looked at this situation and guessed that the people in the side branch were up to something, so he quickly asked.

It wasn't what she thought. If that was the case, then their decision was indeed the right one.

"It's just some trivial matters that don't deserve to be brought to light. Rong'er, you and Xu'er finally came back, so you don't have to pay attention to them." Mrs. Ding said to them before turning her head and looking at Grandma.

"Go ahead and send that person away. Just tell him that those medicinal herbs have been used for a long time. As for where they were used, Ding Laoliu himself can understand it. There is no need to explain it in such detail."

"Yes, old mistress."

Mammy responded and turned to Ding Zhuzui. Ding Rong and Ding Xu were blessed and went out.

"Medicine?"

Hearing this, Ding Xu raised his eyes and glanced at Ding Rong, who was sitting opposite him.

How could those people be so fast? They actually came up with ideas for the Ding family. It seems that those people outside are really well informed!

"Grandma, I wonder what kind of medicinal material it is that makes Grandpa Six send people to ask for it?" He asked aloud.

Chapter 3169 How many people are left?

"this....."

Mrs. Ding hesitated for a moment and did not say anything.

If someone else asked this question, it would be easy for her to answer it, but the previous medicines were all used to prolong Ding Xu's life, and she didn't want to mention the past things in front of Ding Xu at all.

"Mom, Uncle Six sent someone to ask for medicine for no reason. Isn't this a trivial matter?" Ding Zhuzui sat next to Mrs. Ding and reminded him in a low voice.

He remembered what Rong'er and Xu'er said in the study before. The Ding family should be careful.

But this Sixth Uncle wanted to ask for the medicinal materials that they had worked so hard to get for no reason. This was not just a casual talk. If it were Uncle Sixth himself, he would give the medicinal materials that he had worked so hard to get to others. ?

It's something that you can think of just by thinking about it, but Uncle Six just doesn't care and just sends someone to ask for it?

"What happened to Uncle Liu? Why did he send someone to ask for medicinal materials? What medicinal materials are they asking for?" he asked.

"What other medicinal materials are there? It's not just the few that I found before. Those medicinal materials are also very valuable. He dares to think about it!" Mrs. Ding curled her lips in displeasure.

"Those medicinal materials were originally requested from Xu'er. Even if they are no longer needed now, they cannot be thrown away casually." Ding Zhuzui said immediately.

How can it be such a simple thing? He just came to ask for medicinal materials, as if these medicinal materials at home were specially found for Uncle Liu. Why?

"He has a pretty good idea." Ding Rongpi said with a smile.

She knew those medicinal ingredients, and she had seen the prescription developed by Lin Caisang before, which contained these medicinal ingredients. Unexpectedly, Grandpa Six came to ask for it.

It seems that the Ding family is really in chaos.

"Father, grandma, since those medicinal materials were all found for me, why don't you let me take them away when I come back today?" Ding Xu said directly.

Once again, if these medicinal materials are left at home, what will happen if they are not kept in full?

Since Grandpa Six dares to come to ask for help, someone has already pointed him out from behind. It is impossible to expect him to stop now.

Maybe if you can't ask for it openly, it's possible to do it secretly. Moreover, Grandpa Six left the family. Who knows how many people are left in the Ding family?

"this....."

Ding Zhuzui didn't expect that Ding Xu would say this.

Those medicinal materials are of little use to Ding Xu now.

Suddenly, he thought of a possibility. Could it be that someone was in urgent need of these medicinal materials, so Ding Laoliu was ordered by someone to take away those medicinal materials?

If that was the case, then he would have to think about whether his sixth uncle should stay in Sky City.

As long as anyone threatens the Ding family or the city lord's palace, no matter how close they are, he would rather kill them by mistake than let anyone go.

"Why did Xu'er think of taking away those medicinal materials? But what's the use?" Mrs. Ding also thought of this matter, and her face suddenly became even more ugly.

Of course, she was just asking, and it didn't matter if she couldn't get an answer. After all, he was her own grandson. If he wanted to take things from home, that was not the right thing to do.

And Ding Laoliu... is seeking death. If she wants to plot against them, she will never let him go.

Chapter 3170 He wants to be a monster

"It has some uses, but...it's hard to say." Ding Xu said.

"Grandma, you and Dad should send more people to pay attention to Grandpa Sixth, don't let him cause any trouble again." Ding Rong continued.

"I guess he doesn't have that ability yet."

Mrs. Ding said solemnly.

If Ding Laoliu really dares to do something bad behind their backs, then she doesn't need to worry about the friendship between Ding Laoliu and the old family master.

"Zhuzui, you ordered people to pay attention to every move over there. If there is any situation, take it down directly. There is no need to be polite to them. Just kill the chicken and respect the monkey!"

"Yes, mother, I will do it." Ding Zhuzui responded.

All friendships are mutual. If Uncle Six doesn't care about the friendship in the past, then why should they still care about it.

If he really dares to do something, then why should he be polite?

Moreover, he really found out that his sixth uncle was very capable. Regarding the medicinal materials, even he only knew that his mother had found some medicinal materials to prolong Xu'er's life. He didn't know where they were. A few medicinal herbs.

But Uncle Liu actually sent someone to ask for it, so he must know what those herbs are.

Where did he learn this? Is it Jin Cuiniang's place or Qiong Ying's place? Only now did he realize that his abilities were not as good as those of the two women in the backyard.

He doesn't even know what they know!

"call!"

Mrs. Ding also exhaled heavily and turned to look at Ding Xu.

"Xu'er, those medicinal herbs were found just for you. If you like them, just take them."

"Thank you grandma."

Ding Xu responded happily and thanked Mrs. Ding.

After dinner, Ding Rong and Ding Xu left Ding's house. Mrs. Ding and Ding Zhuzui sent them to the door and watched their figures disappear before their eyes before going back.

"Zhu Zui, send someone to your sixth uncle's house immediately. Keep an eye on me and don't give them any chance!" After returning home, Mrs. Ding gave instructions to her son.

"Don't worry, I've already given the order. If Uncle Six wants to become a monster, I will definitely not show mercy." Ding Zhuzui said.

On one end is his own sister and biological children, and on the other end is a sixth uncle who wants to climb over him all the time and can't even say a few words. Can he not tell which one is more important? ?

"I'm afraid he didn't want to be a monster." Mrs. Ding said in a deep voice.

Hearing this, Ding Zhuzui also fell silent for a moment.

"The few herbs that Rong'er and Xu'er took away must be of great use. I didn't expect that Uncle Six would actually collude with outsiders!"

If it was just Rong'er and Xu'er who took away the medicinal materials today, he might not think about the worst.

However, Uncle Six actually asked someone to ask for those medicinal ingredients. This had to make him think too much. After all, Ding Rong and Ding Xu were directly dependent on the Commander's Mansion and had a direct relationship with the City Lord's Mansion. of.

Recently, Lin Baizhong's Commander's Palace and City Lord's Palace have been making big moves.

At this time, Ding Laoliu appeared. What did this mean? Who had persuaded that guy to deal with the people in the City Lord's Mansion?

So how could he allow it?

"Uncle Liu is really out of his mind. Do you really think that some people will benefit him a lot?" He shook his head, feeling that Ding Laoliu was really too naive.
