Chapter 335 Top Rosemary Incense

She reached out and wanted to pull out the small corner of the cloth, but when she heard Lin Caisang's cold voice, she quickly retracted her hand in fright.

"Mother Bai, if you want to lie on the bed and be waited on like the eldest princess, then go ahead and touch her." Lin Caisang's cold warning sounded, which also shocked the prince beside him.

"What? Girl, do you mean that the corners of the soil in this pot of passion orchid are actually poisonous?"

Things used by the royal family have always been strictly selected, and his aunt is the most beloved sister of his father. The things she uses are no different from those in the palace.

But there is one exception, and that is Buddhist stuff. In the Liang Kingdom, both the royal family and the common people are all people who sincerely worship Buddha. Buddhism also pays attention to good deeds. Who would have thought that this thing was given by the abbot himself? , actually harboring evil intentions.

Lin Caisang did not answer the prince's words first, but took out a pair of leather gloves and put them on his hands. Then he squatted down and pulled out the small corner of the cloth. It was a small sachet. .

"Not only this sachet, but also the passion orchid itself is poisonous." After a while, she turned her attention to the prince and explained.

"How can passion orchid be poisonous?" The great prince asked in confusion.

There are many passion orchids in the palace, and the queens in each palace like to have a pot of passion orchid in their bedroom, because the scent of passion orchid is light and pleasant, and can make people feel at peace.

Even in his bedroom, there are passion orchids.

If this passion orchid is really poisonous, wouldn't it be... Thinking of this, he was frightened and broke into a cold sweat.

"Girl, I once heard the imperial doctor say that the fragrance of passion orchid has the effect of calming the mind and calming the mind. If a person who cannot sleep at night puts a pot of passion orchid on the bedside, it can make people sleep peacefully. This..."

Why is it poisonous?

He didn't continue the next sentence, but just looked at Lin Caisang.

"If I add some medicine to the prince's tea, the prince can sleep peacefully all night." Lin Caisang said to him straightforwardly.

The Great Prince: "..."

Girl, do you know that if you talk like this, you will probably be pulled out and chopped.

If it had been his second emperor's brother or a few others, I'm afraid that the lady in charge would have been in danger. Fortunately, he had never cared about these mistakes in words, and he didn't want to worry about her so much at this time.

"You mean, this passion orchid is comparable to a drug?"

"It's not comparable to a drug, it's just that there are some ingredients in the passion orchid. Does the prince know about the fragrance of orchid?" Lin Caisang asked.

"Orchid incense? That's the top-grade rosemary incense."

When he heard the three words 'Youlanxiang', the prince's eyes suddenly widened.

"I only heard that this orchid incense was made by a master of poison making, and it has since become his unique secret medicine. There are many people who want to buy this incense, but it is hard to come by. It is said that orchid incense is rare. A small amount of incense can soothe the mind, but a larger amount can cause people to hallucinate or even coma. Once the amount is too large, it can cause suffocation and death."

The existence of such a terrifying thing is not without danger, but so what, no one dares to offend the poison master who concocted the 'Orchid Fragrance', let alone anyone who wants to kill him.

"Um."

Lin Caisang nodded. The eldest prince had already explained the usefulness of Youlanxiang.

"The orchid fragrance is purified from the rhizome of the passion orchid."
