Chapter 3451 The so-called people do not fight against the officials

When it comes to Yaguman's parents, everyone in the Lin family doesn't look very good.

Although the old couple wouldn't make trouble in front of their Lin family's house, there was plenty of trouble in Yagu Mansion, especially after Sang Sang and Zimo went out.

"They can't make any big noise." Lin Caiqing curled her lips and said.

I muttered something in my heart, even though it didn't make a big fuss, it was still a bit disturbing. That family was really disgusting.

"If it doesn't work, let Sister Sang Sang put them and Lin Caihe together." She thought for a while and then said.

Lin Changfeng: "..."

Why is this sister different from when he left?

"You!"

He raised his hand and tapped Lin Caiqing's head.

"If Gu Man hears this, he will definitely be unhappy, and he is not allowed to say it again."

My sister is about to get married. In the future, everything she says or does will have to be considered for Gu Man. She can no longer think about it. Just like now, if Ya Gu Man hears such words, shouldn't she feel dissatisfied?

No matter how bad the Ya family is, they are still Ya Guman's biological parents.

"Why aren't you allowed to say it? This is what Brother Guman told me." Lin Caiqing curled her lips and said.

That family was so unfaithful that they even brought Yacangman, who was already crazy, and even shamelessly told Yaguman that from now on, the two elders and Yacangman would have to rely on Yaguman. People.

She just wanted to die laughing. That family couldn't wait to drive Yaguman out. Now that she was in trouble, how could she think of having such a son?

It's just a matter of taking care of the two elders. The most important thing is to give them a little money every month to make them feel more at ease.

But don't even think about taking care of Yacang Man!

Hearing this, Lin Changfeng was helpless.

Of course, he would not persuade his own sister because of the shameless members of the Ya family.

Naturally, he would not say anything like this. At most, he would just ask the Ya family to endure it. How could it be possible if he wanted to bully his sister?

"Since Gu Man said so, then I will handle this matter. Although the Ya family will not disappear in the village, they will not bother you in the future."

After thinking for a while, he said.

As the saying goes, the people do not fight with the officials. He only needs to go and say a few words to the Ya family to solve this problem.

"Okay, I'm worried about what to do." Lin Caiqing's eyes lit up when she heard her eldest brother's words.

After all, she was going to marry someone from Yaguman. She would go directly to deal with the Ya family. If word got out, it would definitely not sound good, so let the eldest brother handle it.

"Brother, you are just in time to solve my big trouble. It just so happens that the Ya family must be at Brother Guman's house right now. Are you going now?"

"good."

Lin Changfeng responded.

The two of them walked out of the yard.

"Qing Yatou, what are you going to do with Changfeng? Come back quickly!"

Lu Qiubo came out of the kitchen and saw the two of them walking out. He really didn't know whether to laugh or cry. The Ya family, although not to mention how pitiful they were, were still the elders after picking green leaves.

Is it really okay to just carry Chang Feng over like this?

"Grandma, I'll go back with Qing'er. Don't worry, I won't do anything extraordinary." Lin Changfeng turned around, said something to Lu Qiubo, and left with Lin Caiqing.

Chapter 3452 Just stay alive

Lu Qiubo: "..."

Is this a matter of doing something outrageous?

Is there anyone in the village who doesn't know that the Lin family has a high-ranking official? As long as Lin Changfeng stands in front of the Ya family, they will be scared out of their wits and run away immediately in disgrace.

But isn't this bullying? It was Lin Caiqing's parents-in-law who bullied her.

"These kids are really out of control."

She shook her head and could only let them go. It would be good if the Ya family really stopped causing trouble.

...

Just when Lin Changfeng went to Yaguman's house, Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo appeared at Liu Yushui's house.

"So, the two of them got together again?"

Hearing Lin Caisang talk about their encounter with Liu Baixiao and Liu Rumei, Liu Yushui's lips curled up slightly, but her heart was not very touched.

During the years when father and daughter, mother and daughter lived together, she had no reason to blame those two people for their attitude towards her.

Because she herself had the same thoughts as them, wasn't she just selfish? She has changed now. She just wants to keep her man and children and live her own life.

"Are you going to see them?"

Lin Caisang nodded and then asked her.

She didn't want Liu Yushui to really go see those people. The reason why she came here first after she came back was just to talk to Liu Yushui about the situation.

To prevent Liu Yushui from worrying all day long whether those two people would come back and make her life a mess.

"No need." Liu Yushui made a quick decision and said.

Goodbye, Lin Caisang said it all. Now they have children. Although they are not Liu Rumei's own children, they are still taken care of by her.

Besides, they were still alive and well. As long as they were still alive, she really didn't want to think about the rest.

"As long as they live, I won't disturb their lives. Just let them live their own lives."

Hearing this, Lin Caisang raised his eyebrows.

When Liu Baixiao and the others arrived at her farm, it was impossible to live a good life.

Next, they will have endless work to do. Of course, as long as they finish their work every day and have enough food and clothing, she will not be harsh on them.

"Since you don't want to see them, then in the future at Grandpa and Grandma's place..."

"I know, I won't bring it up."

Before she could finish speaking, Liu Yushui interrupted her and said.

Why should she mention these two people to others? It would only make the two old people more worried.

"Okay, I'm going back."

Seeing her say this, Lin Caisang was satisfied, turned around, and left with Sui Zimo.

Watching them leave, Liu Yushui put his hand on his belly, and then looked at the four little girls playing in the yard.

She thought to herself, that's it, just keep living like this, that's all.

At Yaguman's house, Ya's father and Ya's mother were crying with snot and tears, along with Yacangman who had gone crazy.

On the other side of the yard, Yagu, with an expressionless face, was chopping firewood with an ax, trying to prepare all the firewood needed for this winter.

He was no longer surprised that his parents had to come here every day, so he just pretended that he didn't hear or see anything.

Chapter 3453 Just being idle and bored

At the beginning, when these three people came to make trouble, people from the village would come over to watch the fun.

Of course, they are only just watching the fun, and they will never respond to Ya Mu's request and say a nice word to them.

Just kidding, what kind of temperament does this Ya family have? How can they not know it if they are from the same village? If they dare to say a kind word, I guarantee that the old couple will be even more proud and cry louder.

Therefore, everyone just looked and didn't speak.

Later, they no longer even had the desire to come and take a look, and just pretended that the family did not exist.

But even if the people in the village didn't come to help them, Ya's father and Ya's mother decided to make trouble until Ya Guman agreed to let them come and live.

Now Yacangman is crazy, and the heartless Yaliangman doesn't care about their life and death at all, and has even moved half of the things in the house.

Speak nicely outside and say that they deserve what they deserve.

They were almost pissed off by that unfilial son, but they couldn't get enough of Ya Liang.

And because Yacangman was crazy, his daughter-in-law didn't want to live with a madman for the rest of her life, so someone from her parents' family came and forced them to write a divorce letter and go back with their dowry, saying that they would remarry a good man.

They just couldn't figure it out. Isn't it bad that their warehouses are full?

"Gu Man, you..."

"Gu Man, your place is quite lively.

Just when Ya's father saw that Ya Guman had not replied and wanted to say a few words to him as usual, a familiar voice came from outside.

The couple turned around and saw Lin Caiqing striding in with a young and handsome man.

When they saw who it was, they suddenly took a breath.

"Changfeng, when did you come back?"

When Ya Guman saw Lin Changfeng, a smile finally appeared on his cold face.

He put down the ax in his hand, wiped the sweat from his face, and walked over, again ignoring Ya's father and Ya's mother who wanted to stop him.

"Not long after we arrived, I saw Cai Qing coming to see you, so we came together to have a look." Lin Changfeng said with a smile on his face.

The next moment, his face turned cold, and he glanced at the other three people in the yard. Ya Cangman naturally had no feelings and had been dancing in the yard. However, Ya's father and Ya's mother were attracted by him. He took a step back in fright.

Ya Mu didn't dare to cry anymore at this time, tears were still hanging on her face, a funny picture.

"Gu Man, your house is quite lively."

Hearing this, Yagu Man could only smile helplessly. What could he do? Should he continue to drive Ya's father and Ya's mother out?

Even if they are kicked out today, they will still come back tomorrow, and it will be of no use at all.

"Uncle Ya, Aunt Ya, I heard you were so aggrieved just now. Otherwise, why don't I send someone to the county and ask the county magistrate to come over and uphold justice for you? Huh?"

Lin Changfeng walked up to the two of them, looked at them and asked.

"Well."

Father Ya took a step back again and was choked.

Now Lin Changfeng is a high official, the kind of high official who can meet the emperor.

If the county magistrate was really called here, it wouldn't be for the Lin family. They couldn't afford to offend him.

"No, no need, we...we are just idle and bored, this is...this is..."

I originally thought that they were just making trouble at Yaguman's house, and the Lin family would not take care of it. After all, everyone wanted to face it, right?

Chapter 3454: Almost perfected in practice

Who knew that the Lin family really didn't even want to lose face? They even wanted to take care of their son's crying in his house.

Isn't this just looking for trouble?

"If you're bored, find something to do by yourself. Don't always come to other people's homes to make trouble. Do you really think that all of us in the Lin family are easy to bully?" Lin Changfeng shouted at the two of them.

"Caiqing is my sister, Lin Changfeng. She can't be bullied by anyone who wants to. If you two really don't want to lose face, I won't mind telling the county magistrate about your family's affairs. .

At that time, I want to see who can't stay in Yacun! "

The two of them were so frightened that they trembled and did not dare to say a word.

The most important thing is that they found that even though Lin Changfeng said this to them, their son Yaguman didn't even look at them and continued to talk to Lin Caiqing!

Is there anything more infuriating than this? They almost wanted to die.

Not long after, the two of them took the crazy Yacangman back in despair. From then on, even if they wanted to cause trouble to Yacangman, they no longer dared to do so.

Not long after, Lin Caiqing got married.

The dowry shocked everyone in Ya Village and the entire Ya family.

After that, Lin Caisang and Sui Zimo took their child Lu Yannuo to live in a small bamboo house on the mountain. Only occasionally would they bring the child down to play with their great-grandfather and great-grandmother.

Because the two found that the little guy was very smart and unwilling to learn, so he stayed at Lin Laogan and Lu Qiubo's place and refused to go back to his home.

Living in a bamboo house, it was a hard time for little kid Lu Yannuo. He couldn't escape no matter what.

When Ben reaches a certain age, he can go down the mountain to play by himself. Unfortunately, his parents do not allow it. They also set up a maze outside the bamboo house. No matter how he wanders around, he can return to the bamboo house!

The two of them taught him all kinds of knowledge and practice every day, which was also necessary. He was so tired that he felt like he was turning into a dog.

"When will this shitty day end?"

Every time when eating dinner, the little guy can't help but sigh, life is too hard and there is no hope, what should I do?

"Aunt Shijian, you said that I have worked so hard every day to cultivate myself almost to the point of becoming a spirit, why can't I still defeat those two old guys?"

One day, while his parents were out, kid Lu Yannuo asked the swordsman who was taking care of him.

Hearing this, Shi Jian raised his hand and touched his nose unconsciously, thinking: Young Master, you are practicing, but Master and Mistress are also practicing!

Besides, those two have become spirits. How can you, a child, defeat them?

Dreams are beautiful, but it's still daytime, so don't daydream. Read a book and practice. This is serious business!

"Young Master, you still have a book that you haven't finished memorizing today. Do you want to start reading it now?"

Lu Yannuo: "..."

He is such an unlucky person, how come he was reincarnated into his mother's belly?

If he had known that this was the case, he would have...changed his gender. If he were a little girl, his parents would have pampered him, saying that he would read books and practice, just walk a few more steps. On the road, I feel worried whether he will be tired.

Then a new brother will appear and torture him vigorously!

Chapter 3455 The Lu Family's Heirloom (Ending)

It's a pity that he is not a girl. Look at it now, he is the one being tortured, and the unscrupulous parents in his family, let alone a younger brother, don't even give him a younger sister!

Just ask if you are angry?

"Okay, let me read a book.

What else can we do? Reality is so cruel.

"By the way, where are my father and mother? Where have they gone?"

He only knew that his parents were gone again, but he didn't know where they had gone. They wouldn't be back for a few days, so he asked them quickly.

But Shi Jian, who heard his question, glanced sideways at the bright sky outside the room.

After a while, she turned to look at her young master.

"Young Master, the master and the mistress went to Jian'an City. It is said that it is your uncle's birthday, and they went there to celebrate."

Lu Yannuo: "!!!"

If they went to Jian'an City, wouldn't it mean that it would take them several months to come back?

According to the temperament of his parents, he must go slowly and come back slowly. He will have to see the scenery several times on the way, and maybe the walking will be curved, and he will have to make a big circle before coming back!

"Then I..."

So if they are gone, will he be free?

It was a pity that he hadn't said anything yet, and before he had time to be happy, he heard Shi Jian's teasing words in his smile.

"Young Master, this is what the Master and Mistress left for you before they left. They have given instructions for you to study according to the plan above, and you must not slack off every day."

While speaking, Shi Jian handed a thick booklet to Lu Yannuo.

At this moment, Lu Yannuo's face was expressionless. He didn't know how he felt in his heart, whether he should lie down in anger or jump in anger!

Are there any parents like this? Ever since I taught him how to calligraphy, he has learned everything on his own!

Angrily, he took the booklet from Shi Jian's hand and opened it. It was densely packed with records of what he needed to learn, down to what he needed to learn every hour of the day.

"How many years have they been prepared not to come back, and they actually compiled such a booklet?"

He got angry and yelled at the door.

It's a pity that even the swordsman who was waiting for him by his side ignored him because he didn't know how to pay attention to him.

"I....."

He raised his hand and really wanted to tear up the booklet.

The swordsmen were already prepared. Her young master tore up the book, and she could take out another identical one and give it to him, because her unscrupulous masters had prepared many copies.

But kid Lu Yannuo just put on a show, but didn't really want to tear up the booklet.

"Forget it, this thing will still be useful in the future. When I grow up, I will throw this booklet in front of my son, and it will be fine, hum!"

He muttered quietly, thinking that he would always have to learn the things in the booklet anyway.

Shijian heard his murmuring: "..."

Young Master, you don't want to keep this booklet and regard it as an heirloom of the Lu family in the future, do you?

That boy from the Lu family is really miserable!

"Aunt Shijian, hurry up and bring me everything I want to read today. After I finish reading, I can go play." The child Lu Yannuo's temper came and went quickly.

Thinking that he could still bully his own children in the future, he let go and stopped being angry.

But he didn't think about it, he was still just a little carrot head.

Yuxian Lake is the largest lake in Liang State and is also known as the most beautiful lake.

A small boat floated slowly on the lake, with two people sitting on it. One of them was peeling lotus seeds in his hand. After peeling one, he fed one into the mouth of the woman next to him.

The woman asked questions while eating.

"Zimo, wouldn't it be good if we left our son alone in the bamboo house?"

"No, I'm accompanied by Shi Jian."

The man shook his head seriously. How could it be wrong? When he was five years old, no one was with him, so he hunted and survived in the woods alone.

And how old is little Nuo'er? He should be independent long ago, so he doesn't have to call his mother all the time!

"He has to grow up. In a few years, he will have to be sent back to Sky City. Now is the time to train him and let him learn to be independent."

"Right."

The woman also felt that the man was right and nodded seriously.

"Then let's go to the Yunwu Mountains in Weiguo tomorrow. I heard that the fog lotus flowers there are about to bloom."

"Okay, we'll leave tomorrow."

The man responded and continued to feed the lotus seeds to the woman's mouth.

The daughter-in-law is the most important thing. As for the son, he can only use his talent after he develops it. Now, let him read more and practice more, and don't disturb the love between his parents.
